Chapter 1 - Backgrounder from SaLuSa on the Progress of the Cabal Round-up

2012 June 25

Posted by Steve Beckow

Troops in St. Louis

Drake, Dragon Lady and Geoff West are coordinating their efforts to provide news coverage should the mass arrests happen today or any day following.

The G20 deliberations on Agenda 21 and the existence of troops in St. Louis have raised thoughts that the Earth allies and the Company of Heaven may respond by initiating the round-up of the cabal.

We are presently taping An Hour with an Angel. Archangel Michael has asked to appear first and the discussion will probably revolve around the achievement of peace on the planet with the mass arrests being the major initiative.

Please know that if President Obama appears to be part of these moves, he will probably be doing so to lay the trap for the cabal. You may wish to keep in mind what Hatonn said of the President last October:

“Obama now knows we have him covered and he can proceed without fear for his family’s safety and his own. Media report what they are told, of course, but the truth is, now that he knows Earth’s ascension timetable, he’s negotiating with powers that be either personally or via safe communication channels to shut down Illuminati strongholds in his country, Europe and the Orient.” (1)

And what Matthew Ward said of him last June:

“Repeatedly I have described Obama’s highly-evolved soul status, spiritual and moral integrity, purpose and intention to help create a peaceful world, and both Hatonn and I have spoken about the powerful and relentless forces Obama has been up against all along.

“With the light intensity in this energy plane Earth has reached, people who are light-receptive know which information about him is the truth and which isn’t; people who have not responded to the light will believe the lies and won’t be convinced otherwise by any additional comments from either Hatonn or me.” (2)

Thus Hatonn confirms that the President’s efforts are designed to close down the cabal, not to assist them.

What I wish to do here is to provide a rundown of many of the statements that SaLuSa has made in May and June about the roundup of the cabal to allow you a comprehensive discussion of events from the vantage point of one of the spokespeople for the Galactic Federation and the one I personally regard as the most credible.

Everything you need in terms of reassurance about the plan to take out the cabal is contained here. There is no reason for alarm or anxiety. SaLuSa assures us that, while there may be some dislocation, the Company of Heaven have the means and information needed to round the cabal up without violence or harm.

May 4, 2012

Our mission is now reaching a critical point where we will be brought into action to monitor events, that are about to impinge upon your consciousness. The immense work put in to rid you of the Illuminati and their minions, is about to pay off and result in large scale arrests. This requires our allies to be at the ready, and for us to back them up to ensure it all runs smoothly. We do not wish to see panic result from the purges taking place, or violence resulting from the news of such events becoming public.

We are working at a high level to persuade the dark Ones to finally withdraw, and allow us to help you re-structure your societies without their interference. With or without their co-operation we shall go ahead and remove their last bastions of power. It is in any event crumbling around them and becoming disjointed, and friction is taking place amongst their own ranks. Soon we shall brush them aside and leave them to their deserved fate, whilst removing all that has no place in the New Age. ...

What is about to occur on Earth now is just the beginning, and if you are alert you will note that events are shaping up for a grand finale. You shall not be denied the spectacle of seeing the top members of the Illuminati being brought to justice. The plans are in place and the means to proceed are available to our allies. Wait a little longer, and you shall enjoy the final days of those who have abused your civilization.

So much is happening, but we are not always at liberty to give you the details. It must be sufficient to say that we are well in control and our allies are close to commencing a series of actions that will show everyone that we mean business. No longer will we put up with being obstructed, and we will quickly deal with those involved.

There are a number of trusted allies that are in the forefront of releasing information that makes clear what our intentions are. In short time we will also play our part in bringing out the facts directly to the public. You are looking at weeks, rather than months, for the mass arrests to take place. However it is a big operation that cannot start until everything is in place. Having come this far we want it to run smoothly, with as little trouble as possible.

Our craft are busy monitoring the activities of many countries that have the potential to use nuclear devices, and along with our warnings we will prevent them from being used. Wars have always been for profit, mainly for the Arms Industry, who have no scruples and will supply equipment and arms to any side involved in the conflict.

They shall answer for their involvement in the wars, as will any member of the Forces who have engaged in crimes against the people. Many atrocities have taken place that you are unaware of, but the truth cannot be concealed.

There is evidence of the inevitable collapse of the dark cabal, and you need to be on your guard. They will try every possible ruse and disinformation to make a last attempt to create doubt and fear. Be aware and ignore anything that feels other than the Light, and focus on all that is pure and harmonious.

May 18, 2012

The dark Ones have been more difficult to remove than we anticipated. However, now that we have been given the authority to take direct action against them, our presence is being felt and our results rewarding.

We have all but stopped the dark Ones in their tracks, and we will not allow them any scope to return to their previous tricks. ...

You now know that everything is coming to a head, and that something is going to break very shortly that you will get to know about in some detail. By now you will have realized that for many reasons, we have been unable to give you much in the way of specific information where dates are concerned.

Sometimes even we are not sure when to act, as when we do circumstances must be exactly right for us to be successful. Not least of all, to co-ordinate anything with our allies requires a lot of planning, and we have to bear in mind the risks they take. For example you now have a number of whistleblowers that are prepared to stand up and reveal the truth to you. Naturally we will protect them, but they and their families are under threat and it is an unpleasant feeling.

Dear Ones, the clean up is well under way and it will continue until the main trouble makers are removed. There is so much at stake to take risks, and we clearly have to mount a determined and continuous onslaught to finish the job quickly. To put people at ease there will be announcements to acquaint them with what is happening, as we do not want the wrong interpretation put on our actions. It will be the start of a program of enlightenment that will carry you all the way to Ascension.

There will be breakdowns all round as the old reality breaks up, shedding itself of all that has no place in your future. It will be a difficult time, but we are involved and the changes themselves will not take as long as you might imagine. So be patient and understand that the outcome will be to your advantage.

From our point of view it is important that you know what we are doing and why, as we want you to be involved. The more you can do will please us, as in many respects the problems are yours to rectify. However, with the best will in the world, you cannot overcome the dark Ones without help. We have never seen our tasks as saving you, but rather ones that fully support you. Clearly, without our advanced technologies, you could not be expected to complete the cleansing programs by yourselves in time for Ascension.

All over the world there are countries that are in the process of change, and each one will have to answer to the people and their demands for freedom. It is not possible any longer to impose authoritarian rule on them, by denying their rights. The people have smelt freedom and are coming to realize that it is theirs to claim back, and so be it.

The momentum and drive towards peaceful change can be supported by us and, as we have done so far, we will continue to back up those involved. It has not gone unnoticed that our craft are being seen in many more localities, and in circumstances that cannot be explained other than by the truth. We are here already and some advance groups have been active for many years, and contacts have been made with you.

All of this is known to your leaders who are part of the cover-up, but to be fair some are under extreme pressures not to reveal the truth. That indeed has been the problem, as the Illuminati have had such control that it extended right up to the top. However, with our protection, you will soon see some leaders speak out and support us.

The dark Ones are hoping to go out with a “Bang”, but we are going to ensure it does not happen. The arrests continue, and as our allies catch up with them they will be put away or under house arrest. We will make sure that the main troublemakers are amongst the first to be dealt with. No news is not bad news as far as we are concerned, as much of our work will of necessity be kept secret for the time being. ...

I am SaLuSa from Sirius, and prepared for the final thrust from our allies that will put an end to the delays and see us all celebrating the end of the dark Ones. It will then become a joyful ride all the way to Ascension, and our love goes with you all. (SaLuSa, May 25, 2012.)

This year, you have come a long way in such a short time, and our allies have progressed to the point where their efforts are about to pay off. At times it has been a precarious journey, as the more successful you have been in anchoring the Light upon the Earth, the more the dark Ones have been determined to halt your progress.

Yet you have risen to the challenge, and the possibility of you being stopped before you have reached your goal has passed. It is therefore, plain sailing from here on as our plan unfolds and almost everything is in place for the final thrust. Timing, as always, is the biggest factor at present, and when we get the signal to go ahead matters will move forward very quickly.

You are in the big month of activity when what we are engaged in can no longer be kept quiet, and as it leaks out it will prepare people for what is to follow. That is preferable to sudden extensive revelations, by allowing people to adjust to the idea of the coming massive changes. It would otherwise seem to them that their world was being turned upside down, and be unsettling.

For those in the know it is an opportunity to tell them that it is all for the good of mankind, and is the result of a divine decree that this cycle of duality should end. The detail can follow when we are openly talking with you as we intend to make sure you are all well informed. For the time being it suits our purposes to keep a low profile until we are ready make our appearance.

Our allies are extremely busy pushing forward a number of projects at the same time, and it means there will suddenly be a burst of activity. Our presence is having the desired affect upon the dark Ones who never thought that their crimes would catch up with them. They now know they are to be tried for their crimes against you and that there is no way out to escape justice.

We ask you not to dwell upon such issues inasmuch that there are more important ones that directly concern you. One is releasing you from the draconian laws that have taken away people’s rights, and putting all forms of injustice right and giving back freedom to those wrongly imprisoned. Secondly are the governmental changes so that the right people represent you so that there is no chance of the wrong people representing you and delaying the necessary changes. They have already been selected and prepared to take up their positions, and that will help create the ideal circumstances that enable us to speed ahead.

Matters are so near to coming out that you will be taken by surprise as to how quickly they will happen. We would rather that you focus upon the positive events, than spending time and energy concerning yourselves with what will happen to the dark Ones. Their fates are sealed and justice will be seen to be done.

However, our priority is to put the right people into places of authority and bring world peace about as soon as possible. From that point it will be easier to proceed with the plan for your wellbeing, and restore your freedom. Once you meet us we can then go forward together to Ascension, and commence to enjoy the many changes that will lift you up. In that period the energies will continue to raise your consciousness levels even higher, and unity of the people will take place because of the removal of barriers that were placed between you.

Our main responsibility has been to assist our allies to remove the dark Ones. It is proceeding well and is splitting the ranks of the Illuminati, who are becoming disorganized. It will act as a restraint upon them where they may have any remaining ambition to empower their plans to disrupt your progress.

There really is an “any day now scenario” as far as major events coming to fruition, and there is no escaping the consequences for the Dark Ones. Changes there will be that shall remove all the attachments that have blighted your lives, for Millennia of time. A clean sweep will give you a fresh start to quickly move into the higher realms where you belong. It will be an almost unbelievable transition in such a short time, with great help from us and other higher sources. We know your potential and how quickly we need to help you move on.

We still continue to work hard with our allies to overcome the last obstacles that stand in our way. Once removed, announcements can be made to prime you ready for a series of actions to take out those who have controlled your lives through criminal intent. Many involved are names familiar to you, indeed in many cases very well known including others totally unknown. Once the key figures are removed, it will be the green light for our allies to mount a large scale arrest of those of whom we have sufficient evidence to prove their guilt. They will be treated fairly and given proper trials where they can be represented. The judges will be selected for their honesty and integrity and experience in applying the Law correctly and as was intended.

Some of your existing laws are draconian, particularly those introduced by the last administration. One of our first steps will be to release anyone falsely imprisoned or currently held without trial or a right to appeal. Justice must be seen to be done, and an understanding and greater appreciation of the circumstances that often lead to criminal actions. Much has been caused by improper treatment that has been based on racial differences. That will all change and not because it will be imposed upon people, but through the understanding that you are all One. You sometimes look upon those who are illiterate or deprived as though they are inferior, but they are in physical incarnation for just the same reasons as you – and it is for the experience. It is the soul that remains the same in each new life time.

The conditions upon Earth are turning into chaos in anticipation of the affect of the financial crisis. However we are behind the actions that are being taken to offset such affects so that with the final collapse, our allies can come forward with the answers. There will be no going back to the old ways that have put you in the position you find yourselves in. Any others steps that are taken to prolong them will only prolong the agony and the solution needs to be adopted very quickly. New systems are essential that take full control of the way that the banks operate, and fiat money will no longer be allowed. Years and years of corrupt practices and manipulation of the money markets has created a monster that has to be removed. Small will become beautiful and large corporations will be broken up. Debt forgiveness will remove the present problems created from the recklessness of the banks and restore your faith, because of the promises of the New Age that will ensure they are not repeated.

The door to Ascension is wide open, but nothing will be allowed to enter unless it is of the higher vibrations. Dismantling of the war machine will also be a great step forward, as with the rising level of consciousness it will have no place in your future. It has cost an unimaginable amount of money and energy that could have been used to give you all a very acceptable standard of living. The cost in human lives is also astronomical and laid down so much negative energy that it has been holding you back for many, many centuries. Living through duality has been a most challenging experience and much has been learnt by you, that has advanced your evolution so quickly. Some souls are still held back by the darkness they have created, but be assured they will be helped to overcome it. Not everyone can do so even though the higher vibrations are lifting you up and helping transmute the lower energies. ...

Whilst the forces of Light of which there are many thousands are getting themselves ready for action to start the first major changes, we advise you to still concentrate on sending out the Light. Do not waver even although uncertainty exists regarding the exact timing, as in one way or another our aims will be met. Few of you are directly involved in what is about to occur, but you can help by spreading calmness and giving others an assurance that all will be well. None of us have come this far to be put off by the remaining obstacles to be cleared. If necessary there will be a divine intervention, so we are fully aware that a successful outcome is absolutely certain.

We of the Galactic Federation hold the key to many developments, and simply await for conditions and opportunities to present themselves so that we can go forward. Whatever the picture painted by those who oppose our presence, be assured that we cannot be stopped from completing our mission. The sheer size of our forces is far beyond anything you have on Earth, but we do not use them to enforce our objectives even although they are in your interests. However, if necessary we will use them if so directed by the higher Beings of Light who oversee the end times. It is for these reasons that we can be so confident of the outcome, and it will carry you to Ascension and beyond.

Bear in mind Dear Ones, that we can look into the secret locations where the dark Ones plot their actions, so there are few if any surprises that they can spring upon us. We can impress upon our allies what needs to be done to combat them, and they are able to minimize their affect. As predicted some time ago, you will have noted that the truth behind many dark operations is leaking out. You can take much credit for it as the level of vibrations has increased very considerably, and the Light will uncover what has previously been hidden. The truth will come out regardless of what steps are taken to hide it, and we will back up the evidence against the Illuminati for the crimes committed against you by them.

Our tasks are looking a lot easier now that the dark Ones are no longer the power they were. The work of our allies has been extremely successful in breaking down their power structure, and they no longer command such large forces as previously. In fact their capitulation has taken place in all but name, and we await their final admission of defeat. So whatever news you hear do not fear the consequences as we are in control. and short of minor irritations we will not allow our efforts to be interfered with.

At present matters are reaching a point of no return, and we and our allies wait for the signal to go into action.

All is prepared and although the dark Ones are aware that their time is up, the suddenness and extent of our arrests will still surprise them. Naturally there will be confusion amongst the public, but at the earliest possible moment they will be informed. When the media opens up to the truth the different sources will soon want to be part of the news about the changes.

Meantime we gather ourselves around our allies as they mobilize themselves for the first of many actions. What is starting in the US will spread to other countries as people everywhere will demand their freedom, and a great cleansing will take place. Where there is resistance we shall back up our allies and explain that freedom must be given or else we will be forced to intervene.

There is no choice for the old cabals and their power will be moved along with them if necessary. It is no time for false promises or going back to the old ways that no longer serve you. All countries will eventually base their Constitution on one that will be restored in the US according to the Founding Fathers, but modified to reflect the New Age that you are entering. These matters have already been addressed and prepared for a quick transition.

Some people wonder how the armed forces will react, and we must tell you that the majority are ready to lay down their arms and become the true protectors of Mankind as originally intended. No longer will they put their lives on the line fighting false wars, and instead they will act to maintain peace throughout the world.

Weapons as such will not be used against the people, and a day will come when they will no longer be needed. We know where the hidden facilities are and they will be destroyed to ensure they are never used again. Indeed, we have already commenced closing down underground bases, and are disarming the dark Ones as quickly as possible.

Bear in mind our actions are carried out in such a way that there is no loss of life. We can “remove” people quite easily and deposit them wherever we choose, and often it is off-planet. We re-educate those who indulge in killing and violence, so that they may return to Earth as useful citizens.

Chapter 2 - We Must Have Accountability First

Original Content at <http://www.opednews.com/articles/We-Must-Have-Accountability-by-Steve-Beckow-090212-485.html>

The old order is falling and a new order is arising.

What is that old order? It is the order of the 13 Illuminati families that brought us wars, genocide, pandemics, HAARP-induced earthquakes and hurricanes, chemtrails, economic servitude, widespread sexual crimes—the list could go on and on.

It is the order of the Bilderbergers, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission and their equivalents in other parts of the world.

It is the order that has controlled our military, industrial and financial sectors, politics, education, medicine, and media for decades, if not longer.

Behind the scenes and soon on center stage, the leading members of this secret state, military-industrial complex, shadow government – it doesn't matter what you call it—will see themselves arrested and placed behind bars.

Trickle-down is in meltdown, as one humourist said. The whole “New World Order”- that promised to lead us all into chains and send huge numbers of us to our deaths in a Third World War, through laboratory-made pestilences, FEMA camps, or other means is about to fall off a cliff.

We are watching the complete collapse of that order. We must allow every satrap and oligarch to fall with it so that we never see its rise again.

When we have, we will then watch the birth of a new era that has no truck or trade with the former.

We could talk about that new era in many ways. One way politicians and journalists are forbidden to describe it is by using the word NESARA.

“NESARA”- stands for the “National Economic Security and Reformation Act”- and it is a measure that stands partway between the economic arrangements that have prevailed until now and an altogether-moneyless economy, such as we will have some years from now. Some politicians and journalists are using the phrase “the Reformation Act” as a code word for NESARA.

Among its authors were Ron Paul and Dennis Kucinich. The work to bring it into reality has taken years, but now we stand on the threshold of its being announced.

NESARA mandates global prosperity. It promises global peace. It brings in a world without borders. No one knows the exact date on which NESARA will be declared but the actual act has already been passed by Congress, signed into law by Bill Clinton in 2000, and awaits President Obama’s announcement.

When it is announced, every man, woman and child will receive enough funds to permanently banish the touch of poverty from their lives.

NESARA-equivalent laws will quickly be agreed to and put in place in all nations on Earth.

But NESARA is only the first in a series of measures that await the appropriate time before being revealed and before relieving conditions such as ill health, transportation difficulties, pollution, etc.

President Obama has already signed, or will be signing, an executive order releasing anti-gravity technology (AGT) to the world generally so that vehicles can be built that do not rely on any fuel. The Illuminati have kept the secrets of AGT from the public.

Even without that executive order, we could right now be driving cars that run on water (that is, on hydrogen gas). We might have been already if the Illuminati had not murdered the inventor of a water-powered car.

Don’t you see? There never was a need for Middle East oil. There never has been a fuel shortage. The energy crisis has just been one of the Illuminati’s many manipulations.

The release of AGT is one of several remarkable developments that will occur to take this world out of the present difficulties we face and into a new era that most of us could hardly imagine.

The confusing aspect of this situation is that we are watching one structure fall as a second one emerges. If we get dismayed or panicked by the fall of the unsalvageable economic structure, corrupted beyond repair, then we may fail to see the signs of the emergence of the second, uplifting structure that is just beginning to emerge.

Watch the fall of the corrupt regime. Watch for the trial of the elite cabal who must be held accountable for their crimes. We must remove the dark agents who've taken the people's money, attempted to put the population into slavery, and tried to reserve power and wealth for themselves. If we don't, they'll undermine and destroy the new, workable arrangements through their (waning) control of the levers of power and communication in our society.

But also rest assured that a new structure is being erected by good and honest people, as we speak, and that it will take us out of this time of troubles. I predict that those new arrangements will go far to making this a Heaven on Earth.

Chapter 3 - Preparing Us for Mass Arrests

Not only are the white hats in the Pentagon preparing us for the mass arrests through “Drake,” but the Company of Heaven are as well.

The Galactic Federation through Greg Giles tells us that “this process [of the changing of the guards] is nearing its completion stages as all systems are go and we are moments away from moving forward in this operation and taking into custody so many of those who have conspired against you.”

SaLuSa reminds us:

“You wanted action, you wanted results, and you now have them if you follow certain people who have acquired a reputation for successfully discovering the truth. An enormous set up of hundreds of different personnel, are poised ready to apprehend the criminals who have been behind the most cynical and profitable crimes against you in recent times.” (2)

The GF through Greg reveals the scope of the operation.

“This operation will be vast, and it will reach far and deep into your societal structure as we remove deep-rooted corruption throughout your world. Please be patient as we move forward with our plans, and continue to spread this information to act as a precursor to what will be a major media event. This is our plan, and we expect it to go off without a hitch.” (3)

Much planning has gone into it and the galactics expect it to go off without a hitch, according to the GF through Greg.

“We, along with our Earth allies, have invested a great deal of time and effort in the planning stages of this operation and we plan on it moving forward to its completion perfectly according to its design. We have no intention of allowing any part of this operation to fail for any reason, and every name that is on our list for arrest and subsequent trial will be taken into custody when we want them to be, perfectly according to our schedule.

“This is how this operation will unfold and proceed to the letter, and we will not stop or slow our efforts until every name on the list is checked as they are removed from your society.”(4)

They tell us that the operation “will take days and possibly even weeks, but we tell you this is only due to the amount of arrests that will be made.” (5)

“There are limits to how fast we can proceed as resources will be thinned, as these arrests will be scattered all over your planet.” (6)

Once the arrests have been made the Dark Ages on this planet will be over, the GF says.

“You may have confidence that the dark and their days ruling over you and your world will be finished upon these arrests, and you may take solace in knowing they will never be allowed to transgress upon you or your society ever again. There will be no second life for them once they are taken into custody. They will not be permitted to reenter your society, and they will not be able to enter any society until they are fully rehabilitated.

“Your society will be free to grow and to prosper, and each of you of your world will enjoy a freedom that many of you have never known. You have this to look forward to, and we wish for this knowing to keep you going through this challenging period in your lives.” (7)

That day is dawning, they tell us.

“This day is now dawning on your horizon as final preparations are being made for these mass arrests. Please be patient while our Earth allies make final preparations for their roles in this operation. We are ready on our end, and we await the signal that the time has come to proceed.” (8)

The Pleiaidian High Council through Wes Annac cautions us that how peaceful and harmonious a process this will be depends on the impact of our thoughts on the collective consciousness.

“You are hearing continual updates about the takedown of those who would strip your freedoms away from you in a heartbeat if allowed, and the process of this coming forth is indeed as harmonious and peaceful as it has been predicted to transpire. You all hold the keys as to how peaceful this endeavor plays out and as to how little chaos is manifested through your thoughts and emotions upon seeing the beginning revelations come to fruition.” (9)

In the first place, Archangel Michael asks us not to take joy in the fall of the cabal.

“Joy is an expression of love, of endearment, of union and community. You can never take joy in another person’s, or a group’s, demise. ...

“We ask for you not to join in any way, shape or form in judgment or relishing what is happening to another, for that cannot be of love. So yes, there is divine justice, and there is an absolute balancing that is taking place. And we want you to understand that, as it is taking place on Earth, upon your beloved Gaia, that those ripple effects are felt throughout the Universe, that that rebalancing is taking place far further than any of you can even imagine.

“But the key to that amplification effect is for you to hold love, is for you to hold peace. You do not stand as judge and jury, my friends. ...

“No. That is not loving. That is not kind. That is not gentle. Retribution comes in the rebalancing. It comes in the brilliant light of a new dawn. It comes in you stepping forward and assuming your rightful place, as light-holders and showers of the way. It is its own reward.” (10)

SaLuSa reminds us that we don’t know the part a soul has chosen to play in the drama of life.

“Remember as we have informed you on a number of times, you do not know another soul’s life plan or why they have chosen their experiences. In the higher Spirit worlds souls are of a vibration that gives no energy to judgement or condemnation, they hold the love vibration and it is not in their way of thinking.” (11)

Rather let the fate of the dark ones be determined by the justice system, which has been well prepared to decide the fate of the dark and help them back to the Light.

“Think positively as you move through the last months of duality, and do not concern yourselves too much with the fate of the dark Ones. They will be treated with full justice and be given every opportunity to make amends, and every help to find a path back to the Light.” (12)

He reminds us that we have all played roles of light and dark and that hating those who play dark roles now will hold us back from progressing.

“As the cycle closes, remember that you have all played out lives on both sides of duality, and they are seen as necessary experiences to enable you to balance both energies. You may have succeeded now, but do not allow your achievement to cloud your mind against the dark Ones. Have compassion, and bear in mind that they are still sparks of the Light and Love, and can fully make their way back to the Light. In fact because they have dropped lower than many other souls, they will in time make great Light Carriers. You cannot know their karma so make allowances for their roles in your present period of history.

“Whilst you are not punished for your “sins” you do make reparations so that you fully understand the effect of them on other souls. This can be very deep and heart wrenching, but it is the only way to learn your lessons. You have all to some degree had such experiences, so now you can understand why it is essential you are non-judgmental where other souls are concerned. Do your best to be forgiving if you have been personally hurt, and please do not harbor the energies of hate as they will eat into your body and cause you illness. They will also hold you back from progressing, as you cannot take them with you into the higher dimensions.” (13)

He reminds us also that no one escapes the need to answer to the universal laws and asks us to find it in our hearts to respond with compassion.

“Dear Ones, understand that the dark Ones are answerable to Universal Law exactly as you are, and like you when in duality are allowed to experience through their freewill choice. Of course they are also subject to your laws, but by the very nature of their rejection of them and the power they hold, they feel above the law. However, as you will know by now every soul is answerable at some stage for every action and even thought that intended to harm or cause the death of another soul. It is why we ask you to bear this in mind when the dark Ones are called to justice, and stand for their crimes against Humanity.

“If it is within your ability and your mindset allows for compassion, it is the best response you can have. Better still if you can acknowledge that the dark Ones are Beings of Light that retain their godspark, you would help them by sending Love and Light. Naturally that is not easy particularly if you have a relative or friend that has been a victim of theirs.

“How you respond depends on your level of consciousness, but you will eventually reach one of Christ Consciousness and act from that level of understanding. Therefore if it needs a ‘deal’ to remove the dark Ones and they are allowed refuge somewhere, it is only a temporary respite as ultimately they will not escape justice.” (14)

Therefore we have our work cut out for us as the cabal is rounded up. That role is to remain calm, refrain from joy at the fall of the cabal, and refrain from hate. We’re asked to remind ourselves that we too have played all roles, dark as well as light. The galactics tell us that the dark ones will escape neither the universal law nor the laws of this planet. But how we respond to the mass arrests will determine how harmonious a process the mass arrests are and whether, as a result, we progress from these events or hinder our own advancement.

Chapter 4 - The Mass Arrests Will Remove the Cabal Completely

On April 16, the Huffington Post featured a story on CISPA (the Cyber Intelligence Sharing and Protection Act), which raised fears that the cabal was trying anew to censor the Internet. (1)

Has the cabal the power any longer to curtail our civil rights and bring in a repressive new world order? Let's take a moment to look in more depth at the subject of the attempts to take away our rights and freedoms, the planned mass arrests of the cabal, and the legal proceedings that will follow them.

Long ago (2008), Matthew Ward assured us that we need not fear initiatives like CISPA and that promise has not lost its relevance today: "Plans based in darkness will not come to fruition and all cruel and unjust laws, policies and traditions will be struck down and in their stead, love and fairness will reign." (2)

Matthew has regularly issued calming messages to us about all aspects of the dark's efforts to strip us of our civil rights and imprison those who oppose the cabal. Here are some of them:

April 1, 2012: "There will be no filled detention camps or application of ominous new or proposed laws, and none of the other fearful-sounding possibilities or claims will come to pass either." (3)

Sept. 21, 2009: "Disclosure of ages old deception is on your very near horizon, and once there is the first hole in the dike that has been holding back long hidden truths, the outpouring will create shock waves around your world. The enormity of lies, greed, collusion, corruption and heinous acts committed by groups under the Illuminati umbrella will be staggering as they are disclosed, but more so will be the emergence of truth about religions and their dogmas. Everything that the darkness has contrived to enslave Earth's peoples for millennia literally will "come to light" after a period of great upheaval." (4)

May 21, 2008: "More evidence of this dual energetic influence are the ever increasing numbers of stories about people in all walks of life, from small townships to national and international bodies, who have been engaged in such [activities] as sexual molestation, embezzlement, bribery, robbery, illegal business negotiations, child pornography and blatant lies; and at the other end of this particular spectrum is the truth being disclosed. Eventually there will be no ‘sacred cows’ remaining as nefarious activities even in long-honored institutions keep emerging into the limelight.

“This ‘housecleaning’ within governments, religions, banking, corporations, education, commerce, medicine and health care—every source that has been instrumental in forming your beliefs and conscripting your activities—will continue until all those sources of deception and corruption have been purged. This spiritual and moral cleansing is in tandem with, and is as imperative to your world as, the geographic cleansing, so please don’t feel dismayed or disgusted as one after another of these exposures comes forth—instead, welcome their ‘coming to light’ because each is another step forward to Earth’s Golden Age.” (5)

What Matthew has been telling us would happen for a number of years is now about to occur.

Recently I reposted a March 1, 2012 message from Matthew in which he said that “military leaders are cooperating with the light forces to impede aggression by troops still in the Illuminati camp, and the destruction of some of their cavernous underground areas has halted heinous experiments and other covert activities.” (6) Unfortunately he does not say that our military helped in the destruction of the underground bunkers. If he had, that would have established that the military was cooperating as of last August.

I’m quite sure the Navy was cooperating by that time and earlier, but not as sure about the Army or the Air Force.

Let’s now turn to what SaLuSa of the Galactic Federation, speaking through Mike Quinsey, has said about the upcoming mass arrests and clean sweep of the Illuminati stables. SaLuSa reveals that “you have been totally misled about your rights, that have been slowly taken from you to remove your independence. Your enslavement was been very carefully planned, and you were nearly under the total control of the Illuminati.” (7) Our enslavement had been planned millennia ago, he says.

“Your rights would have been strictly controlled and curtailed, so that you had little freedom unless you conformed to the new world order. It has not come about overnight, but has been planned for millennia of time. Slowly and almost unnoticed you have been fooled and misled so that you gave your rights away. There were plenty of warnings, but you were lulled into a false sense of security. You need to understand the reasons so that you fully benefit from the experiences.” (8)

As far back as May 3, 2010, he said it would be impossible for the Illuminati to stem the tide of freedom.

“It is in fact too late for the last cabal to stop the incoming tide that will sweep away the dross and lies, that have brought about your problems. . . . Fortunately, you have since seen through their plan to enslave you, and bring it about by creating chaos and taking away your sovereign rights.” (9)

On two occasions, he said that our rights would be restored and all unjust laws struck down.

June 14, 2010: “There will be changes in your laws so that justice can be seen to be operating in a fair manner. Your rights will be restored and fully protected, so that you cannot be held or imprisoned without sufficient evidence. It is also important that you are allowed legal representation as your right, and not held guilty until it is proven.

“Equally as important will be a re-structuring of the powers given to those who apply the law and police your streets. In actual fact, once we come to your Earth and address your problems, and people see a brighter future ahead, the level of crime will dramatically fall.” (10)

Feb. 22, 2012: “You will be freed from the many unjust laws that the dark Ones have brought in, and people unfairly imprisoned will be released. It sounds like a lot of time will be needed to bring it all about, but you shall be astonished at how quickly matters will move. We come nearer to that time when it shall commence in such a way, that you will know for certain what is taking place.” (11)

Not only would crime be eradicated but war as well, he told us Feb. 20, 2012.

“It is a Divine Decree that your cycle of duality ends with war having been totally eradicated, and peace having been firmly established. For too long your rights have been taken away, and the time has been reached for them to be totally restored. The old paradigm is now defunct, and will draw no more energy to sustain it any longer. A new day has commenced that will bloom into its magnificence with Ascension.” (12)

We can expect to have the extent of corruption revealed to us and all the agents of corruption replaced.

“Until you learn how you have been manipulated and used by the dark Ones, you will have little idea of how far their tentacles reached. Even some judges who you may have thought were beyond bribery and corruption are involved. None shall escape as we know exactly who has been guilty, and have all the evidence that will convict them. Your societies will become cleansed and start again with people you know you can trust. They will be responsible for implementing new laws, and revival of the Constitution that upholds your rights.” (13)

In this new era, “your rights will be restored, and power returned to the people.” (14)

Finally the Galactic Federation through Greg Giles gives more details on what to expect during the mass arrests. First of all they will come quickly and with little warning.

“The changes you wish to see in your world will come as a thief in the night. One moment your world will carry on with the hustling and bustling of the old paradigm, then suddenly, nothing that you have come to know as your reality will ever be the same. ...

“What will happen is a complete and thorough uprooting of the organizations of your world who have engaged in agendas and activities to pilfer the people’s money and resources as well as strip them of their rights and their health in order to further imprison them in their own world.” (15)

The arrests will come as the result of much legal planning and preparation.

“These are, of course, very serious charges, and that is one of the reasons much work has had to be done behind the scenes before justice could be dispensed. We have reached the point where all the necessary paperwork and initial legal proceedings are completed, and the time has now come to begin these arrests of the leaders and participants of the criminal empire we have referred to as the Cabal. ...

“Much has been put into these proceedings and a tremendous amount of preparation was needed, so we are sure you will understand why none of this could be rushed as sufficient time to make sure all matters were handled properly was called for. We are confident you will agree once the magnitude and scope of these proceedings is made clear to you.” (16)

The GF says it cannot be overly specific yet of exactly who will be arrested.

“The Cabal, of course, is not an official name of any of these groups, as there are so many different groups and individuals who swear their alliance to them that using only one of these group's names would send a wrong message of who is controlling your world and who will soon be facing justice for their crimes.

“There are also many individuals who have conspired and have taken part in these many crimes who do not consider themselves allied with any particular organization. They too will face the consequences of their actions, and will be held just as responsible as those affiliated with any of these groups.

“There are many of these individuals and many groups as well involved in serious crimes against you, the people, and through these arrests and many more to come in the following days ahead our intentions are to destroy these alliances. ...

“It has been decided by all involved that these organizations must be abolished, and abolished they will be. They will not be permitted to regroup again. We see this as one of the most significant events in the history of your world, and our hopes are that many of you will as well.”

Once the news of mass arrests is announced, the GF knows that at least the lightworkers will realize that something Earth-shaking is happening.

“Upon the news broadcasts of these arrests, all those who had been informed of this event and what it means will understand that something truly Earth changing is happening. This is what we are hoping for, and much rides on this part of the plan. We appreciate greatly all of you doing your part to see this phase of the plan reach a successful conclusion. Readings indicate great numbers of you are being exposed to this news, and we are very encouraged by this. Please continue on in your efforts, they will soon pay off for all of you.” (18)

And what will happen after the arrests? The GF through Greg reveals a few of the details:

“Moving ahead to matters after these initial arrests, there will be a great many legal proceedings before courts all across your world. These proceedings will be handled by those who have demonstrated their commitment and integrity in seeking justice in these matters, and you can be assured there will be no unjust bias permitted in any court where these proceedings will be handled. We will oversee these proceedings, and from our vantage point we will know if these cases are proceeding justly or not.

“No one, no matter their seat of power, connections, or financial stature will be able to successfully manipulate any of these proceedings. You can be assured of this, and any attempts to do so will be met with additional charges and harsh penalties. We have made ourselves clear on this.” (19)

The purification that is begun with the removal of the cabal will continue until all darkness has been removed from the Earth prior to Ascension.

“Your world is to be purified of all that is dark; this is what is planned for this Earth. These proceedings are merely the beginning as the light will continue to spread far and it will spread wide all across your planet, and these proceedings are the pebble splashing into the pond. The ripple effects will continue all the way up to your ascension, where a complete purification of all that is dark will take place. ...

“These proceedings are being carried out in order to help facilitate a smooth transition leading to your ascension, as it was decided these dark ones and their alliances would be too disruptive a force and needed to be removed from your societies. Upon removal of these dark ones, we see an upsurge in your collective vibration, and we would like to see the greatest possible boost from this event.” (20)

Thus the Company of Heaven is telling us that we don't need to fear cabalistic measures designed to take our freedom away. None will succeed and those that are passed will be rolled back. The enormity of the cabal's greed and corruption is about to be exposed and its members arrested and prosecuted. This housecleaning will not stop until all criminal and immoral elements are purged and even after, until Ascension, more and more darkness existing on the Earth will be eliminated until none remains.

Unjust laws will be rolled back and people unlawfully imprisoned will be released. The military will help in these operations and the courts will prosecute the cases. Our rights will be restored and power returned to the people. All this will happen quickly when it does. But much planning and preparation will have gone into it. Nothing now can prevent the defeat and removal of the cabal or push back the time at which the restoration of the people and their rights will begin.

Chapter 5 - Accountability in Full Swing

The Company of Heaven has asked us as lightworkers to give full publicity to the fall of the cabal, which is happening at the present time, so here is a brief review of what has taken place in the last two weeks.

The fall arose with a swiftness that startled many and will proceed like a tsunami which none of the cabal will escape. It will liberate the Earth once and for all from all corrupt influences in finances and government. It will cause a sea change in the world's power circles and reveal to all the unbelievable extent of exploitation and oppression in our world, from which we are about to be freed.

On Feb. 20, 2012, SaLuSa told us that we would be hearing news of the resignations of those who have attempted to exploit and enslave us.

“You are going to learn more frequently about those guilty of crimes against you being forced to resign. Corruption and bribes are endemic in politics and big business, but that will change as in time only those who are trustworthy and honest will survive the cleansing. A stand is now taking place to root out those who have worked only for the betterment of self. In future there will only be souls of Light that will represent you and look after your interests.”(1)

Two days later he told us that the changes were coming about because we the people had demanded an end to the cabal's stranglehold and we were now getting what we asked for.

“You the people have achieved the seemingly impossible, by reversing the fortunes of the Illuminati. You have done so by focusing upon the Light, and bringing into being a great grid of Light that now surrounds the Earth. No longer do they have the negative energies to feed upon, that have enabled them to come close to taking over the world. Wherever the lower vibrations exist, they are being transmuted and taking away their ability to superimpose their will upon yours.

“You have spoken out loud and demanded beneficial changes that are now taking place, and so shall they continue until those of the Light take complete charge. Although the cleansing has only just begun, you are to be congratulated for your unyielding support, and you will soon see some tangible evidence of your success.” (2)

He told us that if we listened carefully we'd hear news of actions against the cabal which would only grow in extent.

“With an ear to the ground, many of you are aware that banking fraternity are answering for their corrupt financial dealings. It is the commencement of more far-reaching actions, that shall ultimately remove the cancer that they have brought into your society. In trying to control the world's wealth, they have unwittingly brought about their own demise. It has also led back to political persons who have benefitted from their crimes, and they also will be removed. Have no doubt that they will pay the price for what they have done, and coming governmental changes will ensure that your future representatives are above such acts, and are true and honest.” (3)

He warned us that we would not realize the full extent of the corruption that afflicted society until the whole truth was revealed in future.

“Until you learn how you have been manipulated and used by the dark Ones, you will have little idea of how far their tentacles reached. Even some judges who you may have thought were beyond bribery and corruption are involved. None shall escape as we know exactly who has been guilty, and have all the evidence that will convict them.“ (4)

He hinted at the cleansing that will take place and what would follow it.

“Your societies will become cleansed and start again with people you know you can trust. They will be responsible for implementing new laws, and revival of the Constitution that upholds your rights. You will be freed from the many unjust laws that the dark Ones have brought in, and people unfairly imprisoned will be released. It sounds like a lot of time will be needed to bring it all about, but you shall be astonished at how quickly matters will move. We come nearer to that time when it shall commence in such a way, that you will know for certain what is taking place.”(5)

On Feb. 27, 2012, he informed us that all that has held us back is about to be released. The cabal will not be able to buy its way out of what will follow this time.

“You are witnessing the beginning of the end of all that has held you back, so that you can take the quantum leap forward that comes with Ascension. It has taken a long time to get to this exact moment, to enjoy the success of all our and your endeavours. It was inevitable regardless of what the dark Ones did to stop our progress, and in the end they laid themselves open to defeat because of their immense greed and arrogance.

“Not even money can buy them their way out of the collapse of their empire, which is now about to come apart. It obviously has not gone unnoticed, and it is giving confidence to people who have stories to tell that will reveal the truth.” (6)

On Feb. 29, 2012, he told us that the cabal now lacked any ability to oppose the changes underway.

“The call for freedom from your oppressors has been answered and their ability to cause further problems has been addressed, and they no longer have the powerful bases that maintained their hold over you.

“They may seek to change matters, but it is now beyond their scope to reverse the effect of the actions against them. Their roles have been reduced to ones of only a nuisance value, and soon their activities will have all but evaporated as their power structure is taken apart. Having come thus far it only remains for us to remove the Illuminati, and a major part of our mission will have been completed.” (7)

Sheldan Nidle’s Galactic Federation and Spiritual Hierarchy also informed us that the power of the cabal was about to be broken.

“The ultimatums, and the pressures resulting from them, have forced the resignations of many in the lower levels of the dark cabal. This marks the beginning of the denouement which will bring out into the open all that we have been working toward and telling you about in these updates. The power spheres of this cabal are to be broken!” (8)

He detailed the manner in which the overthrow of the cabal would take place both in the financial world and in government.

“The initial thrust is presently toppling bankers and will continue with the resignations, shortly, of major governments. The secret sacred societies’ vast resources, both spiritual and physical, are being unleashed and we expect the present flurry of low-level resignations to escalate, as the domino-effect of the takedown moves ever higher through the vast hierarchical web that is the dark cabal. We intend to oversee this exciting phase of the operation and assist our allies in whatever way they feel is most appropriate to their cause. To this end we have assigned various liaison teams to them and these will assure the dark ones that there is no way out of their predicament except through their mass resignation.” (9)

He described how this overthrow of the cabal related to new governments, disclosure and NESARA.

“The rise of new governance paves the way for the new economic system and of course, disclosure. These new common-law governments have an immense task before them, starting with securing your freedom and reestablishing your natural sovereignty. Next comes ending the vast and highly illegal system of debt which has inadvertently brought down the present economic system.

“This will kick-start the redistribution of wealth to create universal prosperity. Here the goal is to create a monetary system that soon becomes obsolete, as fully conscious Beings do not require banks or money in order to meet their needs. As you grow in consciousness, you come to see the Earth not as a resource but as a living Being who has graciously permitted you to reside upon her. In turn, you gladly accept the responsibility of sustaining her. This sacred covenant lies at the core of galactic society: to sustain our home world while at the same time creating a society that honors and sustains each one of us.” (10)

Matthew Ward also referred to the removal of the top echelon of bankers on March 1, 2012. He described the cooperation of white hats in the military.

“Now then, through meticulous arrangements to assure that all is in accordance with your laws, the top echelon of Illuminati in the banking and lending industry have been removed from their positions and will face legal prosecution. ‘Feeling the heat,’ others are leaving voluntarily, and retrieval of the Illuminati’s stolen fortunes is underway.

“Military leaders are cooperating with the light forces to impede aggression by troops still in the Illuminati camp, and the destruction of some of their cavernous underground areas has halted heinous experiments and other covert activities.” (11)

He predicted that Illuminati members and supporters in government would soon be weeded out.

“Within the months ahead, governmental shake-ups will weed out Illuminati members or those acting under their control, and persons with moral and spiritual integrity will step in. The nascent governments born in the ‘Arab Spring’ will become stabilized and tyrannical regimes will fall.”

He included multi-national corporations within the scope of this global housecleaning.

“Rampant corruption in multinational corporations will meet its well-deserved end; directors who serve the interests of the populace will remain; those who are greedy and self-serving will go. National economies in bankrupt status will not be successfully revived; the global economy will reach rock bottom and an honorable system will start operating worldwide. Wars, violence, deception, oppression and media censorship will cease incrementally as the dark hearts and minds among you leave the planet.

“It can be no other way—simply, this is the physics that governs life in this universe. As Earth continues apace into successively higher planes, nothing with low vibrations in any form—physical bodies, subversive plans, theft, dishonesty, unjust laws and imprisonment, bigotry, cruel customs and deeds—can survive.” (13)

Sananda said that the period of cleansing we were entering was unlike anything that had preceded it and compared the Light surge to a tsunami.

“Many changes are occurring at many levels throughout the planet. We are entering a time of cleansing unlike anything that has ever happened here.

“Powers that be are being quietly replaced or set for reassignment. In so doing, your world is preparing for sweeping changes that are only moments away. You, each one, have it within your power to be a part of those changes or watch them sail by with nary an inclination to participate. However, you are the light workers and came here to fulfill a mission that is fast moving toward completion. It is your choice to watch or become all you came here to be.

“Times are rapidly moving toward a crescendo, an avalanche or tsunami that will wash away all the injustice for ever more and leave in its wake, a new and empowered people. The “we the people” will be reestablished, never to be compromised again. Should you be ready to take up the arms of light and love , than you will find that all of heaven will be with you to accomplish your intended goals. (14)

The Galactic Federation through Greg Giles said the good news we had been waiting for all our lives was now here. The impact of these mass arrests would change the Earth.

“All your life you have waited for the good news, and that day has finally come. Very soon you will witness large-scale mass arrests all over the world of many men and women who you have come to know as our world’s political and financial leaders. These arrests will reach high into the U.S. Government and include many members of the financial and banking worlds. Many of these names you will immediately recognize, though some you may not immediately recognize, but all have actively taken part in serious crimes against the people, leaving our nations bankrupt why they looted our hard earned money.

“These arrests are groundbreaking, and these arrests are Earth changing. Humanity will finally be free from the tyrannical control of these powerbrokers commonly known as the Cabal. These arrests should come as no surprise to many of us as we all know deep down that there is something very wrong with this world, a place where so many go to bed hungry at night while a few others possess not millions or billions, but trillions of dollars, pilfered from the labors of the people. There has always been enough wealth on this planet to go around, yet these few men and women have been dividing up for themselves virtually all of the wealth of our world, leaving only crumbs for the rest of us to compete over. Upon these arrests, this will now change.” (15)

The GF through Greg also reminded us that the changes would be lightning fast.

“The changes you wish to see in your world will come as a thief in the night. One moment your world will carry on with the hustling and bustling of the old paradigm, then suddenly, nothing that you have come to know as your reality will ever be the same. ...

“What will happen is a complete and thorough uprooting of the organizations of your world who have engaged in agendas and activities to pilfer the people’s money and resources as well as strip them of their rights and their health in order to further imprison them in their own world.” (16)

He discussed some of the judicial arrangements that have been made to prosecute the cabal.

“These are, of course, very serious charges, and that is one of the reasons much work has had to be done behind the scenes before justice could be dispensed. We have reached the point where all the necessary paperwork and initial legal proceedings are completed, and the time has now come to begin these arrests of the leaders and participants of the criminal empire we have referred to as the Cabal.” (17)

He discussed how the arrests would sweep away all groups allied with the cabal.

“The Cabal, of course, is not an official name of any of these groups, as there are so many different groups and individuals who swear their alliance to them that using only one of these group’s names would send a wrong message of who is controlling your world and who will soon be facing justice for their crimes.

“There are also many individuals who have conspired and have taken part in these many crimes who do not consider themselves allied with any particular organization. They too will face the consequences of their actions, and will be held just as responsible as those affiliated with any of these groups.

“There are many of these individuals and many groups as well involved in serious crimes against you, the people, and through these arrests and many more to come in the following days ahead our intentions are to destroy these alliances.

“Your world would always be a tumultuous place with these dark ones permitted to use their powers of the collective to plot and scheme against the people. It has been decided by all involved that these organizations must be abolished, and abolished they will be. They will not be permitted to regroup again. We see this as one of the most significant events in the history of your world, and our hopes are that many of you will as well.” (18)

On March 5, 2012, SaLuSa told us that the arrests and resignations that have begun will proceed with all despatch and lead to widespread governmental changes.

“After months and years of preparation, a sudden push has started a whole series of arrests and resignations, that is sending fear through the ranks of the dark Ones. Having felt that they were safe and beyond reproach, they are shocked to find that they are now vulnerable. There will be no let up until the Illuminati are removed from their positions of power, and that is proceeding with all speed. It is enabling other missions to also move faster, and the way is being opened for the governmental changes to be lined up. It is all part of the continuing collapse of the old system, and no matter what is done to prop it up it will never be the same again.” (19)

He predicted that a wave of happiness would sweep the Earth as we see our freedom restored and happiness return to Earth.

“You are in transition throwing off the energies that will have no place in your future, and are rising up out of the morass of the old vibrations that have held back. Now you can feel the beautiful energy that is replacing them, and it is carrying you along on a tidal wave of happiness. Not only will you gain your freedom, but be free to enjoy all of God’s gifts as it was originally intended. Everything in its perfect state will be enjoyed and appreciated, and understood to be part of the whole. All will interact in a joyous harmony that will seem to last for an eternity. It is what you will come to recognize as your true home and state of being.” (20)

Archangel Michael asked us not to judge or blame the cabal as it falls but to respond with love and forgiveness in order that we leave the old world and the old order and embrace the new.

“You do not stand as judge and jury of your children, your family, your friends, your neighbors – not of anyone. Do we sometimes pick someone up and say, ‘No, you are not permitted to continue in this manner any longer?’ Of course we do! That is my job. And that is your job, as you work with me.

But we do not fall into that old human paradigm of old Earth and say, ‘Now we will punish you. We will judge you. We will seek retribution.’ No. That is not loving. That is not kind. That is not gentle. ...

“So during this time of what we have spoken of as incredible change and shift, as you collectively and individually are making peace with old Earth, with the Third Dimension, with all the old ways that have shackled you, that have barred you, do you wish to stay and continue that conversation? Or do you wish to ascend with us to a new reality where co-creation of the new is truly the focus and the watchword? ...

“Join us in the new. And in the new there is no place for fault or blame or guilt.” (21)

Thus, the Company of Heaven tells us that we'll be hearing the long-awaited news of the resignations of those who have attempted to exploit and enslave us. They say that these changes were coming about because we the people have demanded them and we were now getting what we asked for. The mass arrests and resignations will be lightning fast and will reveal to us once and for all the extent of the corruption that has infected our entire system of finance and governance. A tremendous cleansing will take place, which has been compared to a tsunami. The cabal will not be able to buy its way out of what follows. The impact of the changes will change the Earth and bring on a wave of happiness as our freedom is restored and abundance realized.

*The Galactic Federation of Light has assured us that once a suitable number of our human family understands that the imminent arrests of many members of the criminal Cabal means that humanity will finally be free from the tyrannical rule of our oppressors and from the shackles of poverty and debt, we will bear witness to these events. The Galactic Commands have asked us to do our part and share this information far and wide, and the following announcement has been created to assist us in this task. Please feel free to copy and paste these following words on Facebook and throughout every online social network and in no time we will together accomplish our goal. (Helpful hint If you include a photo with this announcement on Facebook, it will not be sent to the 'Facebook Notes' page due to it containing too many words. This is advised as your post will receive more views on Facebook's main page.)*

Additional Facebook tip: "Just as a reminder, if you wish to share this far and wide... set the Facebook privacy settings to Public for the post you create. On the upper right of the post there is a drop-down menu where you can select that. – Casey"

We Interrupt Your Regularly Scheduled Lives

For A Life Changing Newsflash!

All your life you have waited for the good news, and that day has finally come. Very soon you will witness large-scale mass arrests all over the world of many men and women who you have come to know as the world's political and financial leaders. These arrests will reach high into the U.S. Government and include many members of the financial and banking worlds. Many of these names you will immediately recognize, though some you may not immediately recognize, but all have actively taken part in serious crimes against the people, leaving our nations bankrupt why they looted our hard earned money.

These arrests are groundbreaking, and these arrests are Earth changing. Humanity will finally be free from the tyrannical control of these power-brokers commonly known as the Cabal. These arrests should come as no surprise to many of us as we all know deep down that there is something very wrong with this world, a place where so many go to bed hungry at night while a few others possess not millions or billions, but trillions of dollars, pilfered from the labors of the people.

There has always been enough wealth on this planet to go around, yet these few men and women have been dividing up for themselves virtually all of the wealth of our world, leaving only crumbs for the rest of us to compete over. Upon these arrests, this will now change.

Many new projects will immediately be implemented under the new leadership of men and women of the highest integrity who are committed to restoring our world to the utopia it once was, governed by a constitutional and true democratic process.

There are many men and women dedicated to this cause throughout the US Government, agencies at the Pentagon, militaries, the financial sector, as well as the private business sector who have committed so much of their lives to this effort, and they are so eager to present to humanity our new system of abundance that they have been working so diligently on in secret for years. As part of these proceedings, vast sums of wealth that have been stolen from the people will be redistributed through programs that will benefit greatly every man, woman and child on the planet. No one will be overlooked, and no one will be forgotten.

But there is more.

Upon the arrests of these many members of the criminal Cabal, the second phase of this operation will commence. Today our world is being visited by many spiritually enlightened beings who wish to openly reunite with their ancient family. These spiritually advanced men and women are assisting in the disarmament of the criminal Cabal which has controlled much of the world's military and possessed highly advanced weapons systems.

These advanced ancestors of the human race appear just as we do, although there are other beings that we shall meet as well that do not look like we do. All are ascended spiritual beings who are only here to assist us make the changes we all know deep down inside need to be made. These beings are the original planners of this world, and are the same advanced civilizations that built many of the great archaeological mysteries such as the pyramids in Egypt. They are not strangers to us at all, as we are their ancestors, all of us.

A very important social experiment has been conducted here over many years and each of us has been a part of it. We have been left here, seemingly all alone, to work things out for ourselves. This experiment is now over and it has been a tremendous success. We are now about to reunite with our brothers and sisters from the stars and be welcomed into the greater Galactic Community.

As there are many worlds that go by many names, it is easier to refer to them at this time by the name of their peaceful alliance: The Galactic Federation of Light, although other spiritually advanced organizations are here as well including the Ashtar Command.

Upon these arrests and our reunion with our Star Family, all the problems of our world will be quickly and smoothly brought into the alignment of our new Golden Age society through the leadership of souls of pure hearted intent.

Through a worldwide community effort, all wars, hunger, poverty, illness, and pollution will soon be a thing of the past, as will our lives of daily servitude. Advanced technologies will replace our need to labor our lives away, and everyone will be free to pursue every creative dream they have ever had.

All this will begin with the imminent arrests of the many members of the criminal Cabal, and these arrests will take place as soon as a suitable number of our planet's citizens are aware of what these proceedings will mean for our society.

This is why you are reading these words today, as many members of your human family are doing all they can to share this news with you and do their part to usher in our civilization's new Golden age of peace, freedom, and prosperity for every man, woman and child throughout our world.

Please participate in this great cause by sharing this message on Facebook and other online social networks. This is your chance to really make a difference and be a leader of your fellow man. If we all do our part to spread this news, we will all begin to witness these high profile arrests all around the world, and this will be your sign that everything you just read is true.
