With rumours of “Ascension,” “the Event,” and a planetary heart opening abounding, it’s time to consider - or, for some, reconsider - who the people were who talked of Ascension in years gone by.

Many other books on the Golden Age of Gaia Downloads Page tell about Ascension itself or New-Age spirituality.

But this one gets historical. It wanders through a museum devoted to the ways that our pioneers, our foreparents in other ages, lightworkers all, spread the message of Ascension and a New Age.

I can trace reports of it back to at least the 1870s, when “Imperator,” the prophet Malachi, was speaking through Rev. Stainton Moses. From there we encounter a raft of afterlife communicators discussing the matter - an explosion in the first two decades of the Twentieth Century and steady interest thereafter.

As we neared Dec. 21, 2012, interest in Ascension took off. I could very well be wrong but I seem to recall readership figures of well over 300,000 hits a day.

But who we look at here, as exciting as all that is, are early lightworkers in co-creative partnership with the Divine. What do I mean by that?

These were people who consciously served - whatever you wish to call It - God, the Light, the Mother, etc. - the Divine.

Some were in partnership with afterlife entities; some with ascended masters; a few with angels and archangels.

It wasn't just a creation of one; it was a co-creation, a co-creative partnership.

All of them had in common that they predicted a New Dispensation, a New Epoch, a New Age of Aquarius fast approaching. And we, ladies and gentlemen, are in it and we are serving it.

They had to stay within the focus of their generation. They were living in times of much denser vibration than we do now. They were subject to scorn if they said too much too publicly.

These writings were often kept out of public sight, unless one purposely wanted to make a statement as Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and Sir Oliver Lodge might - ardent spiritualists as they were.

Otherwise it was reading you tended to keep to yourself. The same with your opinions.

But in their spiritualist gatherings they were as ardent for what many then considered the Second Coming as we are about Ascension (same thing).

And they worked on themselves mightily, spreading light out to the world in any way possible.

This then is a record of a few of their accounts of the New Age, the Golden Age of Gaia.

The Golden Age in Modern Prophecy - Part 1/6

Apparently the planning for Ascension and the Golden Age has been going on for a very long time. It has involved the cooperation of numerous levels of existence and we've been given notice of its nearness by quite a few sources from the late Nineteenth Century onward.

Matthew Ward tells us that “the highest universal council planned the Golden Age.” (1) SaLuSa describes these elevated beings as “great Beings of Light that dwell in the realms of pure Light,” (2) “exceptionally powerful Beings who will ensure that all action is completed in accordance with the Divine Plan,” (3), “mighty ones such as the Elders who direct all creation and observe the edicts of the Creator.”

He adds that “they operate on an unimaginable scale, holding immense power that reaches through the different Universes,” (4) humbly confessing that “there comes a time when the magnitude of them is even eye-opening to us.” (5)

He tells us that “the line of authority goes all the way back to God, and passes through various groups and councils of high evolution and consciousness. It finally reaches you through us and the Masters, who wait in readiness to return to Earth.” (6) Matthew says that “the powerful energy of souls you call ascended masters and the White Brotherhood and other light forces you don't know about has been intensifying on the planet.” (7)

Nineteenth Century

Many teachings have predicted the coming changes, SaLuSa of Sirius tells us in contemporary times:

“The coming Ascension has been the subject of many teachings and messages for a very long time, as the end times have been clearly defined since this cycle began so long ago. It is the whole purpose of everything that has been taking place, and the plan has been played out so that you have gained the maximum benefit from it.” (8)

Moreover we've been preparing for it over many lives, he says:

“You have been preparing for this time over many lives, having already decided that you would put yourself forward for the process of Ascension. These final years are clearly the most important ones as they offer a unique opportunity to move out of the cycle of reincarnation. (9)

The ascended master Saint Germaine corroborates SaLuSa's estimate: “You have been preparing for Ascension for eons of time.” (10)

Imperator's "New Dispensation"

I'm only aware of the event being discussed in great detail from the mid-1870s on, when Imperator, the pseudonym adopted by the prophet Malachi, began discussing the event through his medium, Rev. Stainton Moses. He says:

“Ye know not how great is the work that is being done; how vast the vista that is being opened. Never before has there been such an outpouring of Divine Love as now. Silent influences are at work in men’s minds. All over the world they are being prepared to receive the teaching we are giving you here.

“Should it be necessary for the furtherance of this mission other great Intelligences will return, and bring their magnetic force to bear upon the earth. At present it is not needed, as the work is progressing.

“You are living in one of the remarkable epochs of the earth. The old creed must die before the new can be received; but it will die hard, as round it still linger the associations of many ages; but it is fast dying out, never to live again. Happy are ye, living in this age, and learning these new truths, if ye rightly appreciate and use the blessing.” (11)

"You are the recipients in no ordinary degree of a great development of spirit power. The spiritual sense is increasing amongst men, and, step by step, the presence of spirit agency is manifested. The wave of spirit influence now passing over your earth is analogous to that which passed over the world during the life of Christ." (12)

Imperator called Ascension a “New Dispensation.”

“What you are now witnessing are the signs and wonders that prelude the opening of a new dispensation, the advent of the Lord, not as man has fancied and as your teachers have vainly taught, in bodily presence to judge an arisen humanity, but in His new mission (the fulness of the old), through us, His messengers and ministers, in the declaration of a new evangel to your world.” (13)

The part that Imperator and his band were to play was to present a New Revelation, doing for Christianity what Jesus had done for Judaism.

"You are gradually coming to know an Omnipresent and Omniscient Loving Father, and you will have a new revelation, which will blot out the old falsehoods and give you new ideas of God." (14)

"That which we present for your acceptance is the complement rather than the contradiction of the old; the growth to a fuller stature; the development of a wider knowledge. (15)

"It is our task to do for Christianity what Jesus did for Judaism. We would take the old forms and spiritualise their meaning, and infuse into them new life. Resurrection rather than abolition is what we desire. We say again that we do not abolish one jot or one tittle of the teaching which the Christ gave to the world.

"We do but wipe away man’s material glosses, and show you the hidden spiritual meaning which he has missed." (16)

Although the meeting he describes below is just a small one held for mutual refreshment, if we multiply it by orders of magnitude, we might get a picture of the councils that were held to plan the Golden Age.

“It is our custom, now and again, to join together in the praise of the Almighty. So we refresh our own selves, worn and wearied by the toilsome work of guiding erring souls. So we renew our power and gather fresh stock of gracious influence.”

“We meet thus when we need support from mutual counsel, and from the efflux of spirit influence from those who are yet higher and wiser than ourselves.” (18)

“We have but now returned from a great council of the angels and spirits of the blessed, wherein we have taken counsel and offered up solemn adoration to the Supreme. With one accord our voices swelled in an anthem of praise, and so we received the efflux of divine aid which shall support us in the conflict.” (19)

“If the eye of man could have seen the vast concourse of the shining ones, massed together for consultation, and for the reception of the larger efflux of the Divine Spirit, they would have been of good cheer.” (20)

So frank was Emperor about the need to reform religion and determined to do it that he debunked in great detail many of the Biblical prophets' accounts and altogether challenged his reader to wake up in spiritual matters.

To fully appreciate the irony of "Imperator" stripping the prophetic record of its dross, we need to know that it was he, Malachi, who made the final choice of what would go into the Old Testament and what would not.

Probably no one has spent more time studying the prophets than he. And his New Revelation can be looked upon as what he might say today if he were to deliver the Biblical teachings a second time.

The Golden Age in Modern Prophecy – Part 2/6

Journalist and afterlife communicator Julia Ames

Twentieth Century

Spiritual Awakening all the Talk on the Other Side

In the second decade of the Twentieth Century, discarnate journalist Julia Ames told editor and medium William Stead of the coming of a “great spiritual awakening among the nations:”

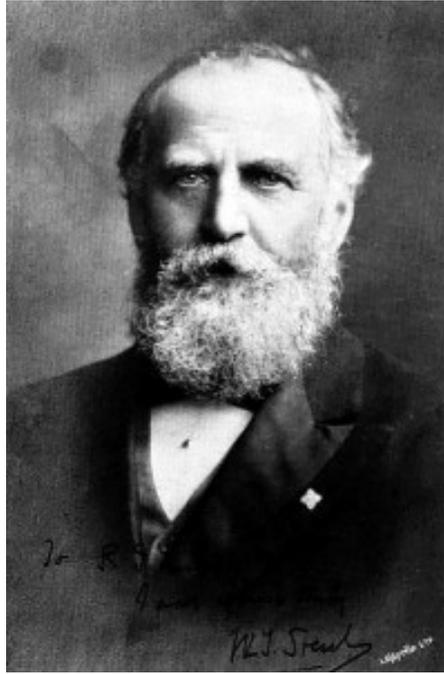

“What they tell me on all sides, and especially my dear guides, is that the time is come when there is to be a great spiritual awakening among the nations and that the agency which is to bring this about is the sudden and conclusive demonstration, in every individual case which seeks for it, of the reality of the spirit, of the permanence of the soul, and the immanence of the Divine.” (1)

Around the same time, John Heslop was telling his wife, from the Christ Sphere (Seventh Dimension?), that “a new heaven and a new earth” were coming:

“Angelic beings assist at the birth and development of these new worlds. They build up the conditions necessary for the ultimate production of life, though this process may take millions of years. At first the lowest forms only are produced.

“Gradually they rise in capacity till the world is ready for the highest intelligences. “It was so in your world and the angels are still working, as they have been since its inception. Recently they have begun a further and higher work. As a race you will rise, till in very truth it will become for you a new heaven and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.” (2)

W.T. Stead, medium for Julia Ames

On another occasion, Heslop returned to the topic:

“My Beloved, I want to tell you that I am busy with some new work for God. It is not very easy to explain, but it is all connected with the opening of reservoirs of Spiritual Power, which will ultimately flood your world as the waters now cover the channels of the deep.

“Many are associated with me in this work and I can best describe it as a gathering up of the pure Essence of Prayer and Love, ever rising heavenward from your earth and these spheres and forging them into bands of 'Divine Energy.' Then we direct them as rays of illumination into the prepared hearts of mankind.

“Already the effect of our work is becoming evident in the awakening of the people to perceive Spiritual truth. This is, however, only the first ... of the outpouring that is to follow. ...

“But do not be afraid of the present conditions of evil and unrest, the Christ is coming, and then everything will fall into its rightful place. The Christ is coming! Let all the earth keep silence before Him!

“To those who have attained the Spiritual vision he is already visible and from every part of the world will they greet Him and evil and evil-doers will flee away from the Light of

His Presence. Then will He reign upon the earth in Righteousness and Truth. Pray continually that the day of His Coming may be hastened for we here are also working to this end. The joy and glory of that Reign of Peace will far exceed anything you can dimly imagine.

“But I cannot tell you how heavy our work is just now; there are so many evil forces around your world, which must be counteracted or transmuted. It is a transition period of vital moment to all those who dwell on earth and to the many planes and spheres which impinge upon it. Legions of Angels are employed to uplift and purify so that the Christ may come and reign in your midst. Keep you faith strong in the Second Coming of the Christ.” (33)

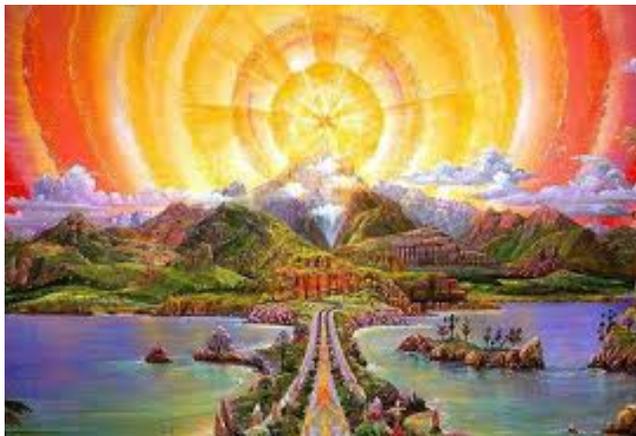

The medium's mother stopped by and gave a similar message:

“You must try not to get too depressed about the difficulties that still exist; they will pass away in God’s good time for the Christ’s Reign of Peace is at hand.” (4)

Her friend “Stella” also dropped in to predict the “end of time.”

“My special work on earth just now is in helping to prepare the way for the Coming again of the Christ and His Reign of Peace and Love, for He is coming and you are all helping to make the conditions necessary for His reception.

“He is never far from the soul that loves Him and to such He frequently shows Himself. But what you are longing for is – His Visibility to all – so that everyone must see and acknowledge Him. When the time is ripe, that is coming too, for never did the earth so need Him as it does now. This is the 'end of the time' spoken of in the New Testament, so pray and pray that these days may be shortened, as we too pray for you here.” (5)

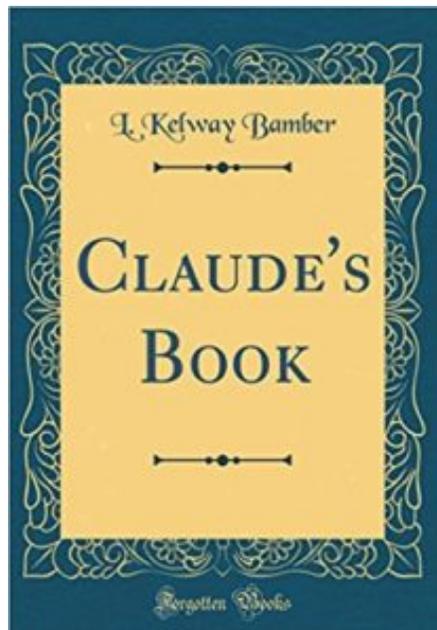

Finally another friend also reported the Second Coming of the Christ Force.

“Not only is the Christ coming, but He is actually now in your midst, and here and there are those who see and feel Him and thus know that this is true. Now, those to whom this certainty is given will also be permitted the joy of welcoming the Christ, when His Presence becomes more fully known upon the earth.” (6)

“What an honour to assist in preparing the way for His Feet! Rise to this Noble Mission, be worthy of this Great Honour, and, as you dwell upon it, the darkness will flee away and the sunshine from these brighter spheres will flood your soul.” (7)

A few years later, Claude Kelway-Bember suggests an opening of the door between spirit and matter:

“There is a wedge now being driven in to open the door between the two worlds of matter and spirit, and I love to feel that I may be a tiny splinter of that wedge.” (8)

Claude's Book (Claude Kelway-Bember)

In 1922, medium Charlotte Dresser began publishing spirit communications from spirit control Mary Bosworth which also announced the new world coming:

“The time is coming, and coming fast, when there will be a reconstruction of the religion of the churches. Creeds will largely go, and love and service take their place.” (9)

Here an unnamed communicator predicts the New World through Dresser:

“We are a band of workers and wish to add our knowledge. We wait not only in hope, but in certainty; for we go far and near and see all sides of the work among many people and many nationalities. There is a slow dawning of a great day. It is coming, coming surely; and we can watch it from afar.” (10)

On another occasion, another unnamed communicator gave the same message to Dresser:

“Do you understand how different life would be there if all would try to give as well as to receive; if all would learn to serve unselfishly the world in which they live, and learn the higher happiness of spiritual thought and life? The coming of the new age is not for one or for two to bring in, but rather the mighty influence from here moving through the spiritually discerning ones there.” (11)

What better description of coming together to build Nova Earth?

The Golden Age in Modern Prophecy – Part 3/6

Beinsa Douno

Beinsa Douno: The New Epoch is Coming

In between Emperor speaking in the 1870s and Silver Birch speaking in the late 1930s and 40s came the mystic master Peter Deunov, a member of the White Brotherhood, incarnated to tell us about the “New Epoch” approaching.

After his 1897 illumination, Deunov adopted the name “Beinsa Douno,” or the “the Bringer of Good through the Word.”

On March 9, 1914, Douno proclaimed the advent of the “New Era of Aquarius.” (1) From then until his death, he lectured about cosmology, the White Brotherhood, and the coming new world.

In 1917, the man later to be known as Omraam Mikhael Aivanhov met Beinsa Douno and became his fast disciple.

But it wasn't until 1944, shortly before his death, that he made his most pointed and detailed statement, in which he called the climactic event Ascension:

"Everything that is around you will soon collapse and disappear. Nothing will be left of this civilization nor its perversity; the entire earth will be shaken and no trace will be left of this erroneous culture that maintains men under the yoke of ignorance. Earthquakes are not only mechanical phenomena. Their goal is also to awaken the intellect and the heart of humans, so that they liberate themselves from their errors and their follies and that they understand that they are not the only ones in the universe. ...

"The earth is now following an ascending movement and everyone should force themselves to harmonize with the currents of the Ascension. Those who refuse to subjugate themselves to this orientation will lose the advantage of good conditions that are offered in the future to elevate themselves. They will remain behind in evolution and must wait tens of millions of years for the coming of a new ascending wave. ...

"A new culture will see the light of day, it will rest on three principal foundations: the elevation of woman, the elevation of the meek and humble, and the protection of the rights of man.

"The light, the good, and justice will triumph; it is just a question of time. The religions should be purified. Each contains a particle of the Teaching of the Masters of Light, but obscured by the incessant supply of human deviation. All the believers will have to unite and to put themselves in agreement with one principal, that of placing Love as the base of all belief, whatever it may be. Love and Fraternity that is the common base! ...

"Our mother, the earth, will get rid of men that don't accept the New Life. She will reject them like damaged fruit. They will soon not be able to reincarnate on this planet; criminals included. Only those that possess Love in them will remain. ...

"It is the end of an epoch; a new order will substitute the old, an order in which Love will reign on earth." (2)

He said "there will be a new heaven and a new earth, and a New Humanity." (3) In that new age, everyone "will have such freedom as when God first gave it to them." (4)

"When we enter [the New Epoch], we will be as free as those who are our Advanced Brothers: the Angels, the Archangels, the Cherubim and the Seraphim." (5)

At this time, "the idea of brotherhood will come into realization." (6) In those times, "the strong will be the servant of the weak." (7)

He painted a glowing word picture of what life would be like in the New Epoch:

"The houses will not be constructed as they are now, but will be built several kilometers away from one another. The animals will be given rest from the people. To the artists, musicians and other people of the arts, the best conditions for work will exist. ...

"The inner wealth, the knowledge which a person possesses, will be available to all. Now you are provided with air, light and water. One day the bread too will be given to you like the air, the water and the light. ...

"People will have bread in abundance. Everyone will have a home, a garden and fruit trees. When you pass through a place that is new to you, you will be asked from all sides to come in for a visit.

“In the new Order, everything old will disappear and all things will be completely new.

“Somebody may say, 'When we are perfect, what will we do?' We will then begin to live.
(8)

One cannot help but compare what Douno says to what SaLuSa, Matthew Ward and Saul say. They also predict abundant and a life of ease, in which people may pursue what interests them instead of slaving for others. They also say the animals will be given rest from people.

According to Douno, all of Heaven and the cosmos is interested in what is happening today on Planet Earth. This interest is also a common theme in contemporary 2012 literature. Douno says:

"That which now is coming into the world is so magnificent that all the Angels [peek] down from Heaven in order that they may see what is coming and what is taking place on earth.

"All of Heaven - the Whole of Creation - is interested in this. The Great Day is coming into the world." (9)

The Divine Wave of Fire

In one of his lectures, Douno uses the analogy of a fruit tree to distinguish among three groups of people alive today - the ripe, the unripe, and the bad.

“We wonder what will happen to those people who were not able to accept the Divine. The issue is clear. I come to a fruit tree and collect the ripe fruit, and for the others, I will wait. When they ripen, I will pick them as well, and the bad fruit I will use as fertilizer.” (10)

The ripe will ascend; the unripe must wait for another chance; and the spoilt will be destroyed. The unripe are those who reject Ascension, The spoilt are those who so reject the Light that their energy is returned to Creator for reuse. These types too have been discussed in current literature on Ascension. (11)

Douno describes the time of sorting as being the time during which a divine wave of fire sweeps the Earth. This may be a description of the Ascension or it may be a more general description of our coming into the photon belt.

If the former, then the sorting process may happen quickly; if the latter, it may happen slowly.

This divine wave comes from what he calls “Cosmic Space” and what we would call the Galactic Center. Some will be able to endure it and others would not.

“A new Wave is coming from out of the Cosmic Space: the Wave of Divine Love.

“It is also called 'the Wave of Fire'. This Wave has powerful vibrations which not every human being can endure. ... Those who are ready to withstand the vibrations of this Wave and assimilate them will become luminous.” (12)

Descriptions of residents of the Fifth Dimension often stress their luminosity when seen by residents of the Third.

The divine fire will wake sleeping souls and burn away impurities.

“Yet for those who cannot bear [the vibrations], it will be a Fire which will either consume them or will cause them to pass through great suffering. This will prepare them to awaken and receive Love. ...

“Everything old and impure will burn in it. After man passes through this Divine Fire, the Kingdom of God will come to Earth. I say: when the Fire of Love comes, some people will become luminous; but others will burn, will pass through repentance. (13)

“This Wave of Fire will soon pass over the world and purify it.” (14)

Perhaps we will have to wait until after First Contact to find out whether this purification process will take place gradually over the next three years or will be more sudden. The outcome however is not in doubt: the outcome will be Ascension.

“All human thoughts and desires will pass through this Fire and become purified in the most perfect way. The Great Life will enter you, and you will become transformed.

“As the smith places the iron in the fire in order to refine it, so too, the Intelligent World will pass us through the Fire so that we can be purified and tempered.” (15)

“The Wave of Fire will pass through the minds of all people. You all will pass through this Divine Fire; you will free your souls and be liberated from bondage.” (16)

It would be best for all of us to have settled our old issues before that time, he tells us. “Woe to those who have not yet managed to settle their accounts.” (17)

Not all of what Beinsa Douno says is easily translatable into the language now being used to talk about the “New Epoch.” Not all of what he says is understandable.

Beinsa Douno was a mystic, a man far removed from the ordinary mind, communing with unknown realities, which, for many of us, may await Ascension to understand.

Nonetheless, it is affirming to hear another voice from the last century predicting events that we today see unfolding before our eyes.

The Golden Age in Modern Prophecy – Part 4/6

Silver Birch

Silver Birch's "New World"

From the 1920s to 1981, the much-loved Silver Birch, speaking through British medium Maurice Barbanell, repeatedly discussed what he called the "New World" that was coming. (1)

His was a much gentler voice than Imperator's, but he covered all the same points, including the need to cleanse religion of its dogma.

The passage that follows is so relevant, I quote it at length.

"As always happens before there is a birth, there is much pain. The birth of the new order means much pain. Even when the new order comes, there will be growing pains."

That rings true for me.

"But there has been planted in your world a seed that will grow and the efforts of those in high places to destroy the seed will fail. It was said, a long time ago, 'Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.' That is going to happen."

This is happening as we speak (July 2016).

"There will be many big changes. There will be break-ups and there will be many upheavals. There will be what you think is darkness and difficulty. You will say, 'Things are worse.'"

I have done this.

"But, all the time, there is behind it all a power which is making for the progress of the world.

"There are many of us who have been allowed by those who are higher and above us to see your world as it will be one day. That conception we try to transmit to those who are receptive, to inspire them to go on with their work.

"The pictures I have seen make your present world [seem] more ugly [in comparison?] than it is. I see what it could be like – and what it must be like. It is only a question of time."

He now describes a higher-dimensional world, a world that works.

"One day, there will arise a new race that will recognize that all politics, religion, science and knowledge are part of one thing. Then pain, sorrow, fear, mourning and unhappiness will be banished and your world will be a place of smiles and happy laughter. ...

"You have tried to build a world where, when one man has something, instead of using it to help others, he tries to keep it for himself, with the result that in time he makes a system that must collapse because its foundations are wrong.

"When you have people who develop their gifts, which all come from the Great Spirit, and use them for the benefit of all the others, then there will be built a system founded on that which is eternal." (2)

People who develop their gifts and use them to help others - sounds like a lightworker to me. Building on an eternal foundation, of love and service, instead of an unstable foundation of greed and self-service.

"Silver Birch" himself is said to be a higher-dimensional, non-native being who used as his astral step-down transmitter on the other side a native American called Silver Birch. Here the higher-dimensional "Silver Birch" says that beings more evolved than he have showed him the future and that's what he's passing on to us now.

We have no way of knowing what dimensions he's describing as "higher," even when we read his descriptions of them. See if you can guess what dimension he's referring to in these descriptions.

"The realm or sphere which is my natural habitat has a radiance and a translucence that you cannot understand, clogged as you are by matter." (3)

"I come from a realm where all is light and colour, where hearts sing with the sheer joy of living, where all are busily engaged in congenial pursuits, where all the arts flourish, where each is imbued with the idea of service, with sharing what he has with those who have it not, where there is an intensity and vitality, a joy and radiance in well-doing." (4)

"I have only just returned from the higher spheres which are my natural habitat. I have sought refreshment and renewal in higher spheres than the one I usually occupy when I communicate with you according to the manner of your world." (5)

It's at least the Fifth but probably much higher. "A realm where all is light and colour" could be a formless realm. Tenth or above?

There were other sources over the years discussing the coming Golden Age - David Spengler's Revelation: The Birth of a New Age, Terence Mackenna's zero-point writings, Eric Klein's The Crystal Stair. The Sixties even saw a musical enacted about the coming of the Age of Aquarius. (14) The spirit of the "New Age" was fully alive back then in the flower children, Findhorn, Esalen, eastern religions, the drug culture, the whole potpourri. There was not a knowledge of Ascension among them however.

When we as a world hit a time of chaos and uncertainty, such as the present dying days of the cabal, I find it reassuring, encouraging, and inspiring to read channeled sources from bygone eras who discuss everything that was going to happen - and is happening now. Hearing the accuracy of their accounts seems to stiffen my backbone to carry on when the circumstances weigh me down.

Reassurance, encouragement and inspiration are exactly what I need right now, as the cabal causes yet more chaos, lashing its tail hopefully for the last time and causing all kinds of reactions among lightworkers.

White Eagle Predicts the New Age in 1967

In the past, we've discussed how word of the New Age has come from spiritualist sources in the 1870s (Imperator), the 1910s (Beinsa Douno), the 1930's (Silver Birch), and the 1970s (David Spengler).

John adds to our knowledge base by pointing to passages in White Eagle in which that spirit teacher points to a New Age approaching from the vantage point of the 1960s.

White Eagle is a spirit guide who gave comfort and sustenance to many in the English-speaking world from the 1960s to the present. I recall reading his books when I first started out on the spiritual path and returning to them periodically.

His manner of expressing many spiritual truths and his universal love were always inspiring. Here is White Eagle predicting the coming of the New Age and the help we will get from spirits and galactics:

"A rapid development is taking place now, although man may be largely unconscious of it. In a little while the human race will be uplifted by its own effort and the effort of the [spirit] hierarchies.

"There is also great spiritual activity in outer space, a penetration of the mists of Earth by the angelic life. Man must learn to be receptive to these radiations from outer space. He must prepare himself by gentle, good thought, by abolishing all that is cruel, unseemly, ungoldly, to receive visitors from other worlds, physical, etheric and spiritual.

Moreover he has to become aware not only of the life in outer space and in other planets, but also of the conscious life in all nature, and his own relationship to it in every kingdom." (1)

British Spiritualists of the Late Twentieth Century

In 1948, Alice Gilbert, as renowned for her Philip in Two Worlds books as Suzy Ward is for her Messages from Matthew, recorded her conversation with Sun-Ray, guide of a Mrs. Roberts, who predicted the coming events:

“Alice Gilbert to Sun-Ray, Mrs. Roberts’ spirit control: – Do you consider that there is a great drive going on in your world to educate people about [spirit]?”

“He – Yes, certainly. In time, we shall be able to appear in our etheric bodies amongst you.

“Myself – That won’t be for a long time, will it?”

“He – Not so long, perhaps in about a hundred years.” (2)

An unnamed master of the Brotherhood of Light used the occasion of Lesley May's contacts with his mother to interrupt and predict the advent of a “new era” in which everyone will reap what they have sown. He went on at some length to describe the nature of the times.

“Every vibration on the earth has been stepped up because you now stand at the threshold of a new era. Men are reaping the harvest of their sowing. Those who have sown violence will reap violence. Those who have sown peace will reap peace. For the harvest must be shared by all mankind; no man standing alone in his guilt, nor in his glory. Each is a fragment of the whole.

“Yet, my beloved, all is not lost, for I would reveal to you that within the law is yet a greater law, the law of transmutation. Many are they amongst you who have returned to earth at this time of crisis to enact the law’s fulfillment, as a voluntary service to all their brothers.

“Had mankind accepted and understood the teachings of the Master Jesus, the plan for your earth would have taken a vastly different course and the advance to perfection have been achieved with greater speed. However, mankind proceeded, unheedingly, upon a materialistic course, largely losing touch with the spiritual life-line of soul communion with the inner presence.

“Thus the harvest of their folly is upon them, but with the crumbling of the material edifice that they have built, the dross will be burnt away and the clear light of truth revealed. This will not be accomplished without suffering, yet, my beloved, much may be accomplished by those amongst you who have perceived the power of spirit, to turn the tide of disaster.” (3)

In his call to action, the master foretells the coming of our universal family to assist us with our evolutionary jump.

“Instruments are needed now, as never before in the history of your planet. Indeed, this is a momentous year and marks a beginning and an end of an era of evolution in the cosmic spheres, which will have repercussions, not only on earth, but in many planets and other planes of thought and action far beyond your understanding or imagining. There has been a vast concentration of energy from the cosmic spheres, which has been brought to a focal point at this time.

“A large measure of this energy has been and will be directed to mankind at your stage of evolution, both on your planet and to others in galaxies far removed. This we do not ask you to attempt to understand, for the reasons are beyond your comprehension.

“But we do ask that you should direct your thoughts upward in seeking for higher levels of attainment and that you should open your hearts and minds to the divine flow of cosmic energy. It is thus that the God Consciousness within you will be awakened to a realization of the encompassing love and compassion of the Divine Spirit and self-realization will be attained.

“Tread fearlessly on the path for though thousands may fall to the right and to the left of you, if you will but keep your minds single to the truth, no harm shall come nigh you.

“Go forward in confidence, my beloved. Listen to the still small voice within and be guided accordingly.” (4)

In our next article, we'll look at other late 20th-Century voices.

The Golden Age in Modern Prophecy – Part 6/6

Madame Helena Blavatsky, Founder of Theosophy

British Spiritualists of the Late Twentieth Century (Cont'd.)

In the late 1970s, Helen Greaves channeled a spirit who called himself an “Elder Brother,” and predicted Ascension, calling it "ascendency."

“Oh, Closed Minds, open to the revelation of the Divine Law! Fulfil the teachings of the Great Ones; accept the Living Water of Truth into your minds in preparation for the New Age of the revelation of the Spirit!” (1)

“The New Age of Aquarius [is] now dawning on the world. ...

“Yet, even as indeed we may be the Elder Brethren of your human race, and able to view the present trauma of your planet with detachment, still our duty and our joy is to release to your worlds some ray of that Divine Purpose by which all creation moves to its ascendency.

“Such a moment in the plan for your cosmos is now immanent. These powerful vibrations of truth will make ingress into man’s mind and heart as the Living Water of the Aquarian Age is poured out upon all mankind, in the centuries when, following these tribulations of retribution for past cruelties, remorse for lost opportunities, and the dismal errors of the substitution of temporal power and affluence for Spiritual Grace, have been purged from all nations.” (2)

Around the same time, Sir Ronald Fraser was also telling us from the spirit planes that the Aquarian Age was coming:

“There are so many new forces about to be unleashed that we all long to warn you. Conserve your mental and physical energy. It will be needed.” (3)

“Earth is ending – or nearing the end - of a cosmic day which in this case synchronizes with the end of an Age and the entrance into the Aquarian Age. Such times are always times of great distress and unawareness.” (4)

In the same collection of postmortem writings, the Polish martyr of the Second World War, Father Andrew Glazewski, used his time with Helen Greaves to report a Second Coming.

“We can do so much more with your planet besides just looting and despoiling; and for that reason I am hoping that a moment will soon come when other beings will join you on earth to show and to demonstrate another way of living. I want you to reach out in thought to these greater beings by asking the Christ to bring his Christed ones within the earth vision.

“This is the plan for which we must prepare. It has been called the Second Coming. But it is not in the least like the original Coming of Christ. This will happen at first slowly, and all over the world people will appear possessing great dynamic force and power.

“They will not command. They will keep in step with all of you in all the different walks of life, but slowly, gently, they will impress the love ray, and their gentle influence will be felt and guarded.

“Take this into your conscious mind and hold yourself alert to meeting, as you may well do, one of these advanced beings. The earth is ripe for this even and there are an increasing number of awakened ones now in the body. See that the number grows and do not lose heart because of the apparent futility of your efforts.” (5)

No one would associate Theosophy founder Helena Blavatsky with the late Twentieth Century. However, at the end of the 1970s, she returned, to Robert Leichtman to discuss the “new teaching” expected soon.

“There is a new teaching coming out. It’s going to come from fresh sources. This is the nice thing about the differences in generations – fresh sources can come along. So let’s not call it yoga, although I think Alice used that particular term, and I did too. We meant something that is not literally yoga – not Hatha Yoga or Raja Yoga or Kundalini Yoga or any of the specific forms of yoga. It will be a new teaching that is distinctly Aquarian, distinctly western, distinctly new, distinctly open, distinctly clear, distinctly scientific – and I hope distinctly humorous too.” (6)

Not only did Blavatsky return but Arthur Ford also visited with Leichtman and gave the same message:

“Humanity is vaguely aware that something momentous is about to transpire.” (7)

Psychic Arthur Ford

“The reason you’re seeing so many second comings of Jesus, second comings of Buddha, and even the rise of black magic and Satanism is because humanity is vaguely aware that something big is going to happen. ...

“Humanity is tuning in, more or less consciously, to these particular forces coming from within, from the inner planes, at this time. This is one of the reasons why there is such a rise in the interest in psychic phenomena, after all – because we are all making ready for the reappearance of the Christ. Jesus only had one harbinger, but the Christ of the New Age is going to have several million harbingers.

“As you know, several of the people who were associated with Jesus during His life have now reincarnated. They don’t advertise it, but these people are genuine.” (8)

Ford felt a single individual would arise as an avatar, but, really, we have several avatars alive today.

“Whenever there has been an avatar, there has been a lifting of the vibration of the whole human race. You can look for that and much more. The physical plane is rapidly moving into the fourth dimension. Part of the avatar’s work is to raise the consciousness of the planet so that this particular transition can be made. That is the first thing that will happen.

“You’re going to be noticing within your lifetimes that some things are not working quite like they used to, and this will be an indication that this transition is happening.

“At the same time there will be an increasing awareness of some of the inhabitants of the inner side of life – entities such as elves, angels, and spooks. This will be another indication of what is happening.

“The major work of the coming avatar is to lay the foundation for a truly spiritual civilization based on a clarification of ancient wisdom and a new revelation. He will guide us up the next evolutionary step for mankind, which is basically what every avatar comes to do. ...

“I don’t think he will be working through the framework of traditional Christianity any more than Jesus Christ worked through the traditional framework of Judaism. He will probably have his beginnings there, because that will be the predominant religion of whatever community he is in. However, I’m sure he will go beyond it. We forget that Buddha began in the Hindu religion and broke through the traditional framework for that and created something new, too.” (9)

Thus many guides and spirits have been telling us since the 1870s that we could expect a new era, a new world, a new revelation, and a new dispensation soon on Earth.

It would totally recast human relationships, our relationship with the Divine, and the way life would be lived on Earth.

It's surprising how accurate so many of those sources are when compared with what the Company of Light are saying today. Their names for the advent of Ascension and the Golden Age may not have lasted but the details of what they expected seem to have been for the most part borne out.

And now we stand on the verge of the first palpable Ascension events - perhaps a global heart opening - and the realization of all that these men and women tried so hard to wake us up to. The Great Awakening now begins.
