Practice Makes ... Ready

Play is also practice

When the time comes to take up our missions, I think two things will happen.

The first is that love will have washed us so clean that our own belief in our ability to do the job will be firm.

But there's a second factor that I believe may determine who actually does the job or not. And that is who's ready.

What I'm noticing, as I look around me, is that, while all of us are masters already, having come from higher dimensions and different star systems to be part of this first-time experiment in mass, physical Ascension, some of us are actually masters practising.

Not practising to be a master. We already are that. But masters practicing. Practising what? Practicing our roles.

I see people healing others, transmuting energy, working with money, looking out for galactics, working with Perro (the galactic language of diplomacy), therapeutically listening to others, going into banks and cleansing darkness, etc.

These people will not only have their final barriers and bonds removed, as we all will, but, at the same time, I think they'll have been practising enough in their roles that they'll be ready to step into them.

Others who've had their bonds lifted but haven't been practising, may not be ready to step into a role. And they may wonder: "What separates me from that other person over there? I could do the job as well.” Undoubtedly they could. But they haven’t been practising their role and so they may not be ready.

I don’t say this as a criticism. I say it as a factual, though speculative, statement, an observation based on what I think I’m seeing around me.

I listen to my colleagues making finer and finer distinctions about things or taking on more and more challenging assignments or channeling more and more healing light to others or transmuting things on a larger and larger scale and I marvel at what they’re doing.

I see people sending currency to others who can’t afford to buy it or walking in the poorer sections of town just to spread the light and I see people, whether they know it or not, practising their parts.

They’ll be ready when the time comes, I tell myself.

I think it’s up to us, really. If we actually want to play the role of our dreams, travel on space ships, sit at the council fire, work with the galactics, we’d best be up and doing whatever comes to hand.

If there’s anything we dream we can do, begin it, the poet said. Perhaps we can’t begin at the level we want to play eventually. Perhaps we can only begin on a very limited scale. But all the actions we carry out, even at that scale, are practice. And practice is, I think, what will make us ready.

The Scope of What's Happening

What's happening today for us has three elements in my view, two of which are challenging and the combination of which leaves me amazed.

The Return Voyage of Discovery

If I take the longest view possible, the Supreme Self, the One, decided that it would be enjoyable to create a world and pretend to launch separate particles of Itself out into it on a return voyage of Self-discovery.

As Source Creator says through Goldenlight:

“How would I get to experience Myself if it were not for you?

“Before you there was just Me, before the Earth and all the planets and star systems and galaxies and universes there was just Me and only Me. I needed to create. I needed to split apart and individuate so I could know Myself and see Myself and see all the wonders of creation. You are all ME!” (1)

The One appeared to become many and the many appear to return to the One.

Jesus may have been referring to this return voyage of Self-discovery when he said: “I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.” (2)

We are those particles of Oneness. The One set us on a course away from him (her, it) by depriving us of the remembrance of ourselves and then back to him as the circumstances in the Mother's school of life progressively help us to remember more and more of who we truly are.

We peel away the masks that cover our true identity, finding ourselves in progressively more expansive understandings of who we are, until the last mask is withdrawn and nothing remains but the Supreme Self Itself, the One underneath it all.

We discover our true identity amid peels of laughter. The prodigal son or daughter returns to a tremendous welcome and homecoming.

It was a wonderful dream experience and, as a result of it, according to Source Creator through Goldenlight, the One has had many enjoyable encounters with Itself along the way.

Physical Ascension

We particles of Oneness behind the masks, here on Planet Earth, are at the moment pioneering and exploring a new turn in the return voyage. We're experimenting with a form of it that will see us ascend with our physical bodies, rather than without them.

I'm led to believe that no one has ever done this before. Source Creator continues:

"This experiment in transitioning to the higher dimensions while within the hue-man body is a new one that has never been accomplished before. You are all the pioneers of this ascension experiment." (3)

We're opening up a whole new space in the universe, and perhaps the multiverse, creating a whole new environment.

Previously we left the body behind and ascended to a dimension already in existence. But my sense is that the exact dimensional space we'll be ascending to has not existed before. It's as if we're pushing into a whole new world, creating a whole new relationship with what already existed in life.

Death will be left behind as a mechanism of Ascension. The physical body will be altered from carbon-based to crystalline-based. None of this has ever been done before.

Everything about how we do this, what we do after, etc., is being written as we go along, so to speak. And this is challenging enough.

Mass Ascension

But we've taken the script a whole step further and added layers of complexity to it by asking that as many of us as can meet the requirements be allowed to come with us.

In previous Ascensions, those who were ready for Ascension when it happened ascended and the recalcitrant were left behind. On this Ascension, we've added a requirement which creates a lot more work for ourselves.

“Your evolution is coming about in a collective manner,” the Hathors through Wes Annac tell us, “and this isn't the norm for the ascension of most planets.” (4)

We've agreed to take into account the recalcitrant and help them ascend. Our ascension will be inclusive rather than exclusive.

We now must forgive a lot more people and forgive them in a more than merely emotional way.

Those who've harmed us, including those who harmed us in institutional ways for millennia, are being given equal opportunity to come along with us if they can do the work required to endure the more refined environment they'll find themselves in.

Sanat Kumara through Linda Dillon explains the ripple effect of our choice on the universe and beyond.

“Now, let me explain. I would be happy to do so. You see, when all the darkness and the illusion became so dense on this planet that it actually assumed form, and you see it in institutions, even in buildings, and certainly in people, it affected everybody, and I mean throughout the multiverse, not even this universe.

“This is what so many do not understand, that an act of hatred or greed or control is not a singular act! It has its effect everywhere.

“So with this [mass] Ascension, with this shift and the conscious embracing of love, everybody, everywhere, all beings, all planets – which are sentient, as you know – receive a new start. It is a transfusion and a new beginning.

“What it marks, the impact as you would think of it is the beginning of a new cycle of existence. It is not a minor thing. And what it does, it not only allows those who are already well underway and in different dimensionality to fly freely, but everyone upon the planet as well.

“But it also affects those who have been caught in what you would think of as darkness [anywhere] to return back to the light, to have that illusion destroyed, to have a new beginning as well.” (5)

The Company of Heaven through Wes Annac want us not to under-estimate the contribution our decision to ascend collectively will make.

“The evolution of the Universe will be aided immensely by the Earth’s [mass] ascension, and in return, will aid in the evolution of other structures of existence far beyond even the grasp of what’ll be your united and ascended Universal consciousness. ...

“You’ll establish, along with us, a collective Universal consciousness and from there, we’ll help the Universe ascend....

“The ripple effect the Earth’s [mass] ascension is causing couldn’t be expressed enough.” (6)

Even as challenging as the new form of physical ascension was to begin with, this new codicil that we added ourselves introduces a whole new level of complexity and range of challenges.

It’s this decision, in my view anyways, that adds to the creative chaos that we’re in at this moment and the work we must do together to make a mass Ascension possible.

When I see this and reflect upon it, I get the degree of commitment required even just to "put my arms around" the full scope of what’s happening and engage in the process consciously and willingly.

The very act of imagining it taxes my faculties and invites expansion.

So, yes, we’re immersed in creative chaos and it may be a much greater level of creative chaos than if we’d just agreed to ascend with whoever was ready at the time. That would have been easier and simpler all around.

But to ascend as a planet with whoever is able, to forgive those who've trespassed against us and welcome them on board the Ascension ship is calling on us to exert our spiritual and physical capacities.

It's beyond the call of duty for us and a game-changer for those from higher dimensions who were helping us with this new physical Ascension in the first place.

The Process and Goals of Financial Reconstruction

In Oct. 2013, Archangel Michael described what is happening at present in the world economy as “financial reconstruction. It is the shift in what you think of as basic societal and institutional values.” (1)

What are some of the goals of this financial rejigging?

One feature, as Sheldon Nidle's sources point out, is to “drain the cabal of its vast influence and to force upon its numerous banking institutions new rules of procedures that negate their many irregularities.” (2) Sheldon described the expected impact of the changes on the financial industry:

“There will be a vast transformation in the banking and financial services industry that will forever change how these various financial institutions operate. These new rules will enforce policies to end the tyranny that these financial institutions spread across this globe.

“In its stead, freedom and personal sovereignty will blossom once again.” (3)

Apparently, the bankruptcy of world governments is being hidden to avoid panic, Sheldon’s sources inform us:

“All the major governments on your world are either bankrupt or nearly bankrupt. This fact is being hidden to maintain the current ruse without arousing the ire and panic that will ensue when this truth is made public.” (4)

Besides the stress on the world economies caused by many of the bubbles of the 1980s and 1990s, the ultimate bubble - the derivatives crisis - is one that the world economy cannot recover from. It's estimated to have caused a debt level equivalent to $200,000 for every man, woman and child on the planet. Much of that debt is being hidden. (5)

Another way of putting the restructuring's aim is to say it will end the predominance of North America and Europe in the world, according to Sheldon's sources: "The proposed revaluations will set up a currency system that ends the dominance of North America and Western Europe." (6)

That predominance has seen Western nations launch financial warfare against so-called "Third World" and developing countries, bringing economies down and securing resources at rock-bottom prices and without environmental safeguards. (7)

The global currency reset, one part of that operation, according to Archangel Michael, "is a massive bureaucratic undertaking. And because it has to do with what human beings, might I say unfortunately, are obsessed with, and that is their money, they want to make sure that everything is perfectly in order and progressing in ways that do not cause upheaval, panic, division, derision." (8)

"There is much that is occurring behind the scenes," he continues. "It is not that there is obstreperous obstruction or that there is intentional delay. It is simply that this is a massive undertaking, both above and below, but particularly below." (9)

Sheldon's sources tell us that, as part of the reset, "a vast amount of protected gold bullion and sterling are now in position to force a more stable currency upon the world." (10)

St. Germaine called it last August "rivers of gold that are flowing quite rapidly all over your globe, all over the planet." (11)

We heard years ago that battleships had been sunk in the Pacific Ocean with dazzling troves of precious metals and bonds. St. Germaine revealed that these were being recovered, an operation that was not difficult for the galactics.

"It has not been a difficult process at all. Now, don't forget, we work with energy. Your star brothers and sisters, what you think of as technology is a different use of energy.

"And let me be very clear. The Americans aren't the only ones who have, hmm, shall we say, placed for safekeeping money, gold, treasures, underneath the waters. It has been a practice for hundreds and hundreds, in some cases thousands of years. And it is an open secret above and below.

"So it is rather humorous. Now, it is simply, there are many, many space stations that are located actually underneath what you think of as your oceans or large bodies of water. So it is not a matter only of your star brothers and sisters going to recover. But they are already there, and their ability to teleport to various locations is as simple as snapping your fingers. So it is simply not an issue." (12)

It isn't only the Reset that's occurring. Sheldon's sources tell us: "This vast change is to be the prelude to the delivery of the prosperity funds and the rise of new governance. (13) St. Germaine described the prosperity programs last August.

"There are twelve Prosperity Programs that were started hundreds of years ago. And that the participation in them, which has always been free choice and freedom, has grown and been protected over the centuries.

"As you well know, I would include within this my own prosperity program and what you think of as the St. Germaine Trust. But it is one of several.

"Those who are participants in the Prosperity Programs have undertaken not just a casual agreement, but a very deep, sacred vow to share the wealth as it has come forward and when the time was nigh, was right. And that is beginning right now." (14)

The Reset, or "the first stage of this complex procedure is underway," said Sheldon's sources. The rest of this new system [Steve: which historically has been called NESARA] will emerge when the new governance comes online." (15)

What we're aware of at the moment is chaos but Archangel Michael assures us that the desired end will be achieved.

Archangel Michael: First it looks like chaos. Let us use the example of the current situation in the United States of America with government shutdown. It looks, it tastes, it feels like gridlock, does it not?

Steve Beckow: Yes.

AAM: But really what is appearing as chaos is a breakthrough. (16)

AAM's memory goes back a lot further than ours. What he wishes to avoid is the annihilation of the intergalactic wars, rather than any event that may have happened on Earth.

"I reflect back to the gridlock that had occurred, not at the peace tables, but during the intergalactic wars. If it continued on, there would be annihilation." (17)

All of this is being carried on while carefully managing the introduction of extraterrestrials to the world and moving the Earth's population along the road to Ascension. The scale and magnitude of events underway are unprecedented in our history.

Social Reorganization Occurring

Just as we've all been going through a process of individual cleansing of our vasanas and false grids for years, so it seems as if society, and particularly business and finance, are also going through the wash cycle currently.

My pen is not equal to the task of looking at the subject in great detail. I'm obliged to give only impressions.

But it's my impression that one high level of the economy after another is being subjected to investigation and the removal of more and more people from their positions of influence.

Even as Jamie Dimon receives a bonus that could only be kindly called disproportionate (perhaps to buy his silence?), (1) leading individuals who've been fixing rates in the foreign-exchange sector are following others who've been fixing rates in other sectors of the economy in being investigated and removed from the scene.

And now as well we begin hearing something regrettable: some people in the banking industry are either choosing suicide or being murdered to keep them quiet. (2) This development is probably something that everyone of the Light wished to avoid.

Archangel Michael confirmed that there is a " global reorganization of financial systems" occurring and described how it would proceed.

"I am not speaking of the collapse of financial systems, which would cause panic and disarray. But what we are talking about is reorganization.

"Now, usually reorganization is a bureaucratic term for shuffling the deck with the same cards. That is not what I am referring to. We are talking about reorganization of financial systems – political financial systems, bureaucratic financial systems, global financial systems – that are becoming more congruent with the divine qualities of equity, of fairness, of ethical behavior, of charity, of prudence, and of becoming." (3)

I'd imagine the process started with containment back in July 2012, which was itself used in preference to panic-inducing mass arrests. Now the Vatican Bank is being overhauled, the Federal Reserve, the forex sector, and many other banking organizations and institutions. (4)

I believe SaLuSa was speaking about about this time when he said on Jan. 4, 2012:

"As you can imagine once we really get started, the planning is such that you will be reeling at the speed of change. It is possible because the plans have been laid down for a long time, but also consistently reappraised to ensure they meet your needs. Our allies and the Light workers in general are now self assured in their tasks, and becoming bolder where they come across opposition. There is no time for dilly-dallying around and they now know what has to be done.

"Many different actions are coming together, and you can expect to see a clear indication of the outcome. Much is currently focused upon financial dealings, and we have made it quite clear that there is no going back to the bad old ways. Be assured within a few months you shall know that to be so.

"So be patient and read between the lines when the media picks up on major happenings. For a while there will still be a tendency to hide the true facts, but even that is due to change when we can assure honest journalists that it is safe to report the facts. You have been kept in the dark over so many issues for many, many years but the truth will come out." (5)

Granted that things may not be happening for us at the speed of light, they do seem to be happening in the wider world at an accelerating pace.

The truth is coming out more and more these days. But we may need to read between the lines to get the full picture of the clean sweep being made.

If we look at the nuances in Archangel Michael's recent talks, there are certain clues that something confidential is going on behind the scenes. In the last Hour with an Angel he said:

“Now we are in a different phase of partnership. You are no longer – think of it as a low-level manager. You have been promoted and you are senior VPs – yes, all of you. And you are working on a very high level. And then you say to me, ‘Well, Michael, if I am working in concert with you and the ascended ones, and I am a senior VP, then I expect to be paid that way.’” (6)

The raising in our minds of the image of being “senior VPs,” I think, is to encourage us to step out of the passive role we've played in the past, leaving all initiative in building and running our institutions to someone else. I think he wants us to wake up to whatever our role may be in the social and economic reorganization that's happening right now.

When I bantered with him about when I'd receive my paycheck, he continued:

“Well, you know, there are many forms of currency. And we have harped and harped and harped, even to our ears we have harped on spiritual currency. We pay you in the currency of love, in the currency of joy, but we also understand currency.

“Do you really think that the Mother does not understand money and gold? Of course she does. She created it the same way she created time.” (7)

I personally consider Archangel Michael's use of words to be very careful and significant. He raises two images here: one of spiritual currency and one of actual currency.

I believe he's asking us to concentrate on spiritual currency while this phase of cleansing and reorganization occurs while knowing that they're entirely cognizant of the other form of currency.

As I say, I can only go by impressions in this area, but my impression is that this institutional cleansing and reorganization is vital to all that follows.

Without causing panic and disarray, the social and economic landscape is being reformed. To lead in this circumstance is to step in and lend a hand. To follow is to await patiently the outcome knowing that it'll free our economy from the dead hand of the cabal once and for all. If we cannot do either, then to allow the unfolding to take place.

The Background to the Global Currency Reset or Reval

The Global Currency Reset and the Reval are actually two different events. The Reval refers to the re-valuation of Iraq's currency. The Global Currency Reset refers to a much broader re-valuation of many currencies around the world.

But in the public's mind they've become linked together. I'll be using the terms interchangeably here.

Let's have a look at some of the background to the Reval to see what purposes it serves in the Divine Plan and how the Company of Heaven wishes us to look on it.

When Ashtar spoke of the Re-valuation of currencies, or Reval, in late August 2013, he suggested that it was one way to show that the events being spoken of were real.

“If you look to the outside for tangible evidence for our messages - although we tirelessly stress that you should seek changes within yourselves in the first place - each and every one of you who follow our messages will see the first widespread, tangible proof by noticing the change in your financial affairs, especially with the revaluation of many currencies.

“We are certainly aware that many - if not all of you - have some doubts now and then whether all this is real. And we understand this because of the many changes in the Divine Plan experienced by you throughout your journey.” (1)

The Reval would show many doubters that things are actually occurring, he said.

“This is the reason why the revaluation of many currencies is of such importance. It will show you that everything is for real and not a dream.” (2)

Sheldan Nidle’s sources spoke next about the event, in early September 2013. They saw it as the clarion call that signalled the end of the cabal’s political and financial rule.

“Until recently the dark cabal’s power was all but omnipotent, but now the point has been reached where it can no longer deny you your sacred destiny! A great prosperity linked to a global revaluation of your various national currencies is ready to happen.

“This grand event is the clarion call which will expel the old governance from power and influence. It will liberate you from your many illegal debt obligations by instigating universal debt forgiveness and this includes your release from any incurred indebtedness to this old governance.

“You are about to inherit not only this divine gift of freedom but also a never-ending supply of prosperity.” (3)

He spoke again a week later about the “grand monetary reset of the world’s currencies” that was about to begin and linked it to “the worldwide distribution of our various prosperity funds.” These two actions would end the cabal’s grip on power.

“Taken together, these two actions will complete the legal operation to swiftly bring down the once-mighty clutch of your illegal governments which have so long browbeaten your world. This feat will result in the termination of global debt enslavement which underpinned your fiat-currency financial system.

“The new hard-currency, prosperity-based system will ensure your freedom and guarantee you your personal sovereignty. Now the bumpy road to full consciousness becomes a clear and open highway!” (4)

Another week later, he said that “the dark cabal’s debt-based economic system is truly ‘on the ropes’ and continues to induce a rate of debt formation that is quite astounding.”

“In effect, it has reached a point where the weight of debt is beginning to gouge into the infrastructure of the system, threatening to rip it asunder, and it has become clear that the dark can no longer hold the center together. It sees the moment approaching when a new system must take over and recognizes that this signals the end of its time at the top.” (5)

He called the Reset “the ‘kick of the mule’ which is to jettison these haughty ones from power.” (6)

At the same time that the cabal was falling, the mass of society was rising, his sources said.

“The dark cabal is losing its wealth while you are gaining yours. Divine purpose is in play. Hence, use these funds wisely and permit your brethren to enjoy the fruits of this new prosperity.

“Realize that a new reality is dawning and reflect on your new fortunes. Be ready, when required, to explain why new governance emerged.” (7)

Most recently, Sheldon's sources gave the following summary of the Reval on Feb. 18, 2014:

"A process will be set in motion to make it possible for a great prosperity to be redistributed to you. Our liaisons are working diligently to explore a most needed set of protocols that will swiftly lead to a global currency reset.

"The currency reset is a natural process to set up a certain level of agreed-upon value between the world's nations. This is a basis for global trade, and in the end, the start of an operation that is scheduled to lead to a precious metal-backed monetary system. Included in this reset is the use of new banking regulations such as 'Basel III.'

"This revised structure will expand the distribution of various prosperity packages. The intent is to reform the current system of 'haves' and 'have-nots' and replace it with a worldwide spread of prosperity. The old system of income taxation needs to be revamped. A debt jubilee will be declared and the old corrupt system put to rest.

"This new system will redo the globe's infrastructures and establish a new foundation that takes advantage of now-suppressed technologies. This will later be added to by our off-world devices. Then your world can move out of its present technological dilemma and prepare for a new consciousness." (8)

Moreover, his sources say, the Reval will provide the foundation for the release of the prosperity-program funds and trigger provisions of NESARA. (9)

"The new currencies, the gold backing and new international banking rules will forge the foundation for the release of the two-step prosperity funds. These operations will enforce now-sequestered legislation to bring out the various provisions of 'N.E.S.A.R.A.' These rules will cause a domino-like effect to alter governance and return it to the people. In this milieu, governance will aid the Light and allow formal disclosure to occur. This new environment will also permit us to begin a series of worldwide lessons about your most dearly kept perceptions." (10)

Archangel Michael discussed the Reval in late September 2013. For some people, he said, "I bring you back a year, and for others of you I bring you back a decade, and for some of you a decade and a half. Because many of you have been at this for a very long time." (11)

Was it a scam, he asked? No, it was not.

"Is this a scam? It is a prayer, a promise, a trust and an act of change, not simply an act of faith, but an act, a pro-active movement, of change." (12)

Apparently according to AAM, "humans ... love currency."

"It is an idea. Currency has never been more than a concept and an idea. And it is an idea of abundance for many. Freedom, for food, clean water, housing, play, attending to your community. So you like currency." (13)

Therefore the Company of Heaven is using currency to transition us out of poverty into abundance and thence into co-creation.

"So why would we, when we have no need for currency, say, 'Now, you have no need for currency' when you love it? It is showing you, and it is transitioning you, into a place where currency becomes what it is – an idea.

"And the more you work with this creation of abundance, for many, for all, then the more it becomes your ability to simply create out of thin air. Because that is what you are really doing." (14)

So the Reval is intended to be the first illustration that "everything is real and not a dream." It's the first stage of the financial reconstruction that we'll notice and be impacted by. It's meant to be part of a transition from currency to the more developed ways of seeing to our needs that will come with the shift to higher consciousness. And it's the signal for other projects such as the prosperity programs and for many of the provisions of NESARA to begin.

Why Does the Company of Heaven Carry Out Some Actions in Secret? - Part 1/2

Subduing the dark and building a New Earth is a huge operation

“A great deal of the work of transformation that is taking place upon this planet is not seen,” Sanat Kumara told us in August of 2013. “So it is difficult and it is an act of trust, of faith.” (1)

Much of this work isn't seen because it's happening on higher dimensions, or at least being initiated from higher dimensions, and we can't see it with our physical eyes.

But there's a second aspect to things that are happening. Some of them are happening in secret and we terrestrials often have great reservations about anything that happens in secret.

The cabal used secrecy, and excuses like “national security,” etc., to hide their machinations and we've all been disadvantaged and some of us harmed by their actions. We now hunger for transparency but that's not always possible, at least not until the dark ones stop their harmful actions or are stopped.

Let's look for a moment at why some things for our benefit cannot be carried out in the open.

What's happening on the planet is huge. The scale is huge. The need for coordination is huge. The potential for opposition from the dark and the fearful is also huge.

The Company of Heaven is carrying out the Ascension of the planet and all its inhabitants. The particular type of Ascension being attempted is brand new (mass Ascension, physical Ascension). The Ascension scenario could easily be misinterpreted in a dozen ways.

The old economy is gradually being reduced and the new economy erected in its place. Wrong moves here could induce panic in society.

All of this is in part being staged by friends from other star systems. Their presence alone could cause panic in the populace unless revealed gently and carefully.

Ranged against the Company of Heaven are forces whose interests lie in keeping people poor, enslaving them, getting rid of "useless eaters," etc. They've developed a culture of secrecy, rife with "black projects," linked to false-flag events like 9/11, and supported by various arms and agencies of the government. They murder their opponents, as John Kennedy noted, and so must be met and overcome in secrecy as well.

[http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zdBmdFOvTs\[/youtube\]](http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zdBmdFOvTs[/youtube])

President Kennedy described the ways of the cabal

It therefore falls to the Company of Heaven not to advertise some of their plans ahead of time and to carry out many of their initiatives under wraps.

A good example is the Reval. One reason for its postponement has been an extensive sting and round-up of dark figures from the Vatican Bank all the way down to members of Congress. That sting couldn't be discussed beforehand or it would have alerted those who were slated to be removed from office.

"Our wish is to see all activity brought into public view, so that in future you know exactly where you stand," SaLuSa told us some time ago. (2) But that isn't possible just yet. Let's look at some of the reasons for secrecy.

Secrecy is Necessary to Avoid Interference or Resistance from the Dark

One of the most obvious reasons for secrecy is to avoid interference from the dark. SaLuSa said in 2012: "It is a matter of keeping our plans to ourselves as far as possible, and stopping interference ... from those still loyal to the Illuminati." (3)

Ashtar discussed the violent retaliation that might come from advertising the plans of the galactics. The Illuminati had well-developed plans for launching “Project Blue Beam,” which would have seen the staging of a false alien invasion through the use of laser-optical technology to induce fear in the population.

“Now, we also have maintained a level of secrecy, and in this case you can even think remaining hidden, because we did not want to invoke, or provoke, any level of violence. That is against not only universal law, but the laws to which we all adhere. And each of us has codes of conduct, of what you would think of as behaviors, of regulations, though they are not as codified as some of what you believe is law.

“We do not wish to provoke a violent response. So we stay secret in many of our undertakings, simply - in the past this is - so that there would not be retaliation. Because that would completely defeat not only our mission and purpose, but it would be hugely detrimental to the planet and to the human advancement.” (4)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8y06NSBBRtY>

President Eisenhower warned us of the military-industrial complex

Secrecy is Necessary to Avoid Arousing Fear

Even if the Illuminati did not retaliate, they created and broadcast so many movies that portray galactics as predators and conquerors that a sudden show of extraterrestrial ships could induce a wave of fear and panic in the populace. Ashtar tells us they want to avoid this as well.

“The biggest reason that we have for secrecy, and I think I would speak for all my brothers and sisters of the various forces, ... is ... simply because we did not wish to create any type of fear.” (5)

Matthew Ward offered the same explanation for why the Company of Heaven was not discussing the new economy in as much detail or as publicly as we might have liked.

“Conversion to a new economic foundation and operation is an enormous undertaking, and it cannot be publicly heralded that this is occurring as that would cause panic throughout the business world. The lighted souls who are leading the way know that panic would fuel the dark ones, who are clinging on for dear life. It is essential that these new leaders take judicious steps quietly to avoid creating a fear-filled populace.” (6)

Most people are not yet ready to consider that galactics are helping remove the dark figures on the planet who've cornered the world's wealth and who planned a nuclear World War III to reduce the population. The actions the galactics take are essential for the wellbeing of the planet and its inhabitants but could as easily be misconstrued as understood and cause panic instead of relief.

According to Ashtar, many of the responses to dark initiatives are carried out in secret to mask the level or extent of galactic involvement.

“You do not know - and these are secret operations to a great extent - the level to which we intervene, very often. Because we do not want that intervention to be either viewed or seen as coming from outside the human realm.

“Sometimes that intervention is being acted out and responsibility taken by some of our troops, our forces that are already on the ground, and sometimes it is taken as intervention directly from one of the fleets.

“But regardless, there is a lot more intervention that takes place than you are aware of. And that is a good thing. Because the interventions work, and the situations do not escalate or the events do not take place when those interventions are successful.” (7)

The galactics have prevented many instances of false-flag operations like a second 9/11. They've prevented the United States and Israel from bombing Iran. And they prevent incidents from becoming more tragic than they have been, like containing Fukushima radiation or removing depleted uranium from the atmosphere. But most people aren't even aware of these cabal-inspired plans so they would not be aware of why the galactics are doing what they're doing.

(To be concluded tomorrow.)

Why Does the Company of Heaven Carry Out Some Actions in Secret? - Part 2/2

The sudden sight of a mothership could cause fear

Secrecy is Necessary Because Some Matters are Beyond Our Understanding

Some matters are not divulged because they involve actions and technology that are well beyond our understanding. When something is beyond our understanding, we often become suspicious and afraid, Ashtar says.

“There are things that we do not discuss with the humans simply because you might not understand it. Now, I do not say this in any way that is derogatory, but there are simply ways in which we operate, such as technology, that is so far beyond what is currently available to you that you would not understand it.” (1)

Have you ever noticed that the most tragic of events can occur and what we humans want most to do is understand why? Understanding plays a big role in our feeling comfortable with something and so, when a technology is beyond our understanding, it creates a situation in which suspicion, fear and dread can arise. Many times when a spaceship shines a laser beam onto the Earth, we suspect malevolent intention. If a galactic emerges from a ship, we greet the incident with caution and fear. And the galactics know that and tread carefully where contact and advanced technology are concerned.

Secrecy May be Advisable so as not to Stop Momentum

Sometimes the Company of Heaven will not discuss a matter beforehand because, in our movement towards Ascension, significant momentum has been achieved which would be halted by discussion. Sanat Kumara related an instance of this before Dec. 21, 2012. The human population had asked at soul level to ascend together and the Company of Heaven agreed but to discuss it prior to 21/12/12 would have caused our forward motion to stop altogether.

“Why did we not warn you that you might be disappointed? Because the energy, the forward thrust of what you were creating together with us, was so strong that we had no desire, particularly in [regards to] the unfoldment of the Mother's plan, to say, 'Wait a minute, and stop. Let us take time out and breathe.' Because that would have ... hmm ... you have a saying, 'put a wrench in the works.'” (2)

We may not like that reasoning, but if we're concerned with Ascension, we may be able to understand it.

Secrecy Helps Avoids Raising False Expectations and the Fear that Comes Along with Them

The Company of Heaven may remain silent where disclosing their intentions and actions will set up false expectations, as Ashtar discusses.

“What we have kept secret in terms of our plans has also often been that we did not wish to set up false expectations, because [of] the number, the millions and trillions of variables that we are operating with, not only in terms of our own forces and our own fleets, but in terms of human variables - and you change your minds as quickly as your weather patterns.” (3)

Not all people on the planet are level-headed and realistic. Some react in superficial ways, without thinking matters through. Many are in dire straits and impatient.

False expectations often result from inaccurate estimations of what the galactics can and cannot do. It does no good to explain that they follow the universal laws and won't interfere with our freewill under any circumstances. People simply want to know why an event has not happened. To reduce the disappointment that arises from false expectations, the Company of Heaven may cloak their actions.

The Company of Heaven also warn that false expectations generate fear. Here is Jesus on the matter: "Long ago we have said to you the acronym for fear 'false expectations about reality' and there are so many false expectations about reality, particularly in the old Third, and it is not even real." (4)

False expectations and fear accomplish nothing, he reminds us.

"Now what [does] fear accomplish? Nothing. ...

"Fear has nothing to do with what is truth. And when you are in fear, what happens is your entire energy field freezes. So it is as if you have been flash-frozen and are ready for the supermarket, ready for somebody else's consumption. And you are absolutely not helpful or useful in your own life or your own process, your own journey and you are not useful to anyone else either.

"In fact, fear is a contagion. And so when you fall into fear, not only are you frozen, it spreads to those you love and because you are frozen there is nothing you can do about it. It is a very, very dangerous element to carry." (4)

To reduce false expectations and the fear they generate, the Company of Heaven may keep certain operations under wraps.

For all these reasons, Blossom Galactic Federation sources tell us that "we do not wish to be secretive or puzzle posers, yet there are certain details that simply would not [contribute to] that which we have in place."

"There are plans that are not yet ready to be opened up to you for the timing is inappropriate and to reveal certain matters now would not be useful to the overall benefit of the upliftment of your planet.

"We have much in place and, when it is able to be shown to you, you will accept reasoning that this time you may not be able to, because of measures that must be taken into account." (5)

To accomplish something as large as a reformation of the global economy, the introduction of new civilizations, and the Ascension of the entire planet makes it necessary for our friends from the stars and our celestial and spiritual partners to keep some of their initiatives under wraps until they're accomplished.

Perhaps in the end it all boils down to trust. Do we trust the Company of Heaven? We've had our trust betrayed so often by the governments of the world, their agencies, and their cronies and by religious, business, and educational leaders that we get spooked nowadays at the first sign of contradiction or inexplicability. Yet if we delve deeper, we almost always see the wisdom underlying the Company of Heaven's plan.

Archangel Michael on Why Things Seem to Take So Long

Lest anyone think that they're the only one squirming in their seat, wondering when the major events are going to happen, no, I've been squirming as well. And in my last personal reading with Archangel Michael, I had an opportunity to ask him: What is happening? Why so many apparent delays, seeming changes in plans, etc.?

I promised you I would post his comments. He answered me candidly and at great length and I feel quite satisfied with his explanation. That doesn't mean that you need to be. We'll probably respond to things differently.

He did go into why the Reval has taken so long. While he didn't say this precisely, nonetheless, built into it was an extensive sting operation which cleaned out dishonest bankers, foreign exchange people, corrupt senators and congressmen, etc. Unless they were cleaned out, we might not be able to hang on to our earnings. He can't say too much more about that or he'd be signalling the recalcitrant ones. But he did discuss it.

I believe that most of that work has now been done. But I can't speak about those matters as if I somehow know more than you. I'm as impatiently awaiting events as you may be. But here is what he felt he could say on the broad subject of the seemingly-slow pace of events.

Before I leave, let me add a note to concerned readers who interpreted my comment that the Reval and the Global Currency Reset are different as meaning that we'll have to wait for the one after the other.

Not to my knowledge. The fact that they're different events doesn't necessarily imply that there'll be a significant wait between the one and the other. To do so would be to open up the possibility that many people would exchange their dinars and then buy other currencies. That isn't what is wanted. But again I have no "insider" knowledge on the matter.

The Reval is the signal for the Reset, the release of Prosperity-Program funds and other funds which are not generally discussed because doing so would put those involved at risk.

If this discussion were not intended to be made known, I don't think he would have spent this much of a part of a personal reading going over the ground. And I did ask his permission to post it. Thanks to Ellen for her transcription.

Archangel Michael: We are pleased to talk about this.

First of all, one of the reasons that we do speak of what you think of, and what we think of, by the way, as events, such as disclosure, or the flow of abundance, is to plant the movement and the seeds, the will, the desire, the cooperation, the acceptance, the partnership, in the minds, hearts and consciousness of the lightworkers and light-holders.

You are the ones that are holding the vision.

Our relationship has certainly, in some ways, become more fruitful, more close, more malleable, but in other ways it has become more difficult, as we have entered, really, into more clear, more joyful, relationship and partnership with you, with each and every one of you, not merely those like you, my brother, who sit at the helm, but with all of the lightworkers, all of the love-holders, all of those even who have been sitting on that proverbial fence.

Now, one of the things that occurs with this instigation of events ... and we have always said it will be a series of events. Please do not forget that.

And there's more attention needed to what is occurring and to the, for example, number of encounters that are taking place between humans and your star brothers and sisters. Perhaps on your blog you should send out the clarion call for those reports, for those anecdotes, so that your readers – and my readers, by the way – come to realize how many have been stationed upon the planet.

[Consider the clarion call to have gone out. Send your accounts to "Contact Us" and tell us if we can use your name or not.]

And that it requires a huge adjustment period, not only for the humans but also for your star brothers and sisters. And this, in many ways, was a work-around by your friends who protect and guide you as well in many ways, and who are now working with you in a beautiful river of pink to calm you down, to lift you up, and to assist in partnership and to eradicate these residual seeds of concern, worry, and fear.

It is not the lightworker community that we are speaking of. It is the collective.

So, yes. Your lightworker community, and those to whom you are responding and who are receiving the information are ahead of the wave.

But also, by being part of the wave they are holding the energy. They are co-creating situations with us, in partnership, that will allow these events to come fully to fruition, but to assume that the events have not already been put in motion and are not underway would be incorrect. Are they obvious? Are they front-line news? In most situations, not. But they are very apparent if you choose to bring your attention to them.

And yes, although the channel has said it in a casual way [prior to the reading], the most significant shift has been in the hearts and the consciousness and the ability, the perceptions of those who are on the front lines, so to speak.

When we entered, can we say, more fully into a sacred partnership with you, with all of you, it was a change and not just a significant or massive change in terms of our rules of engagement. And I mean this for all of us, for the Company of Heaven, for your guides, your guardians, your star brothers and sisters and far beyond.

Because what it meant was that we work with you. And previously a great deal has been done for and to the collective of humanity. Certain events and situations have been manipulated in order to, shall we say, tilt energy in certain ways that would still not interfere with free will but would allow for Gaia to continue on, and for humanity to continue on their path of Ascension.

When we are working more closely in tandem – and I say this with the collective, and individually – then it becomes more of a cooperative venture. Now, I am not going to pretend – and none of us, dear heart, are going to pretend - that your capacities and abilities and role at this point in time is on the same playing field, shall we say, as we are.

Of course our abilities and our capacities, and yes, even our ability to turn on a dime [responding to an earlier comment I made], are there and will not be altered. But you have always had teachers, professors, gurus, or individuals who will who will take your hand and lead you and allow you, through your own process, to learn and to understand and to become rather than do it for you. Otherwise, there is no progress, there is no evolution, there is no becoming, there is no significant shift.

And so that is a great deal of what is going on right now. And from our perspective, from the Mother's perspective, the idea and the reality, in and out of form, of truly incorporating the divine qualities, of immersing yourself in her clarity and her purity in sacred union, also with us, is far more important than what you think of as a government announcement about the presence of extraterrestrials.

Unless the clarity is fully present, that message doesn't get incorporated in the way that it needs to.

So then your question to me is really, "Michael, I understand what you say. And if that is the priority, if the priority is the divine qualities, if the priority is the Ascension and the spiritual awareness, the heart expansion and the consciousness, then why bother talking about anything else?"

Steve Beckow: Or why bother talking about it months and months and months ahead of time.

AAM: Because we're planting the seeds. It has need to be in the collective consciousness.

SB: Can you not just say that we're planting the seeds now?

AAM: If we are to say that – and we are going to exclude and carve out the tsunami of love because that shift has already begun - the collective tends to focus on events because of the way that you've been programmed at this time.

If we say to you, as we did in '92 and '93, we are planting seeds, then there is a tendency of the human collective, that is in the very midst of their Ascension process, to say, "I'll put this on the back burner and I will see what happens in the Spring."

They do not pay attention, and they do not react. And if they do not pay attention, if they do not get involved, if they do not re-act and pro-act, then where is our partnership?

SB: And where is our progress.

AAM: Exactly. We have just talked about the multitude of thousands of star brothers and sisters on the ground, and yet that is completely overlooked.

SB: I don't think we're aware of it, Lord. The multitude of galactics on the ground. I don't know any. [In fact I did bump into one in a drugstore a few days before. But we did not exchange words.]

AAM: Look around you, dear heart. Look into their eyes. Notice the features, the attitudes, the body language, the behaviors. [In fact that is what I noticed. He was more gallant than most people in society are.] They are all around you.

SB: Really?

AAM: And part of the adjustment is that they are getting used to you. They are not so actively involved with you – and again we mean the collective – because there is so much discordant energy in the air, but they are attuning themselves, and the humans are attuning themselves, and receiving that vibratory adjustment as well.

But yes, dear heart, they are all around you. And that is why we say a clarion call to your audience saying, “What have you noticed of late?” would be useful, because it would be of encouragement.

SB: Okay.

AAM: Similarly, there is the beginning of the flow of money. The small number of lightworkers and loveholders has grown, but it is still a very small number, for the fruition of what we would call the flow of abundance in every connotation and meaning of the word.

Now, if the collective of lightworkers and loveholders were not holding it, then it would not be creating pressure on the dam for us to open the gates, to expose those who have been double, triple, quadruple dipping.

It would not bring that to light because it would still go on in back rooms and there would be nobody saying, “Wait a minute. There is an inconsistency here. There is something going on here.”

The deepest desire of those who have been behaving in ways that are not completely of integrity is to not be caught. So it stops them. They think, all right, I have been to the well three times, four times. I had better back away now.

So you are playing that function. This is the most important thing for lightworkers to understand. We are in this cooperative venture. And that is why we speak of what you think of as identifiable events.

The time lag is because of the universal law, the structure of your universe, which we would never tamper with. The Mother would not allow it anyway.

We are not going to interfere with free will. So, are there recalcitrant factors still at work? Yes.

SB: But remember, you said earlier there were no hold-ups on the Reval?

AAM: There are no hold-ups on the Reval. The Reval is well underway.

SB: But now you're saying that there are recalcitrant elements that are in fact holding it up.

AAM: But that doesn't mean it isn't underway, dear heart. It doesn't mean that the flow hasn't begun. It has.

SB: Okay.

AAM: Use this very practical example. You need a hundred dollars, and you need it urgently. And in the old days you would go to the bank, and there would be a long line. And you are so frustrated and agitated and nervous because you have to get to the grocery store by 5.

So you are anxious and you are waiting and you even fantasize that by the time you get to the teller there will be no money left in her till and you will have to go to another line or you will have to wait. That is exactly what is going on with the Reval.

SB: Okay.

AAM: So it is not that it is not present. It is simply that it is underway and slower. Can it be stopped? No.

HAARP, DUMBs, Dark ETs, and Secret Space Fleets

Readers have asked whether HAARP is still functioning and whether the deep underground military bunkers (DUMBs) are still around.

My information is that HAARP is not functioning and that the DUMBs have been destroyed.

On HAARP, Sanat Kumara said in May, 2013: “HAARP has been decommissioned, as you would think of it.” (1)

In An Hour with an Angel in Aug. of 2013, Archangel Michael and I had this exchange on the subject.

Steve Beckow: XX would like to know if HAARP has been deactivated.

Archangel Michael: Yes, it has. (2)

In one of Matthew’s Messages, posted Nov. 22, 2013, either Matthew or Suzy (it isn’t clear who’s speaking) wrote:

“That information was transmitted prior to the removal of weather-manipulating scientists by space family members living among you. Mother Nature is back in control of storms, earthquakes and wildfires, her means of releasing negativity.” (3)

In September of 2011, Montague Keen said, of the DUMBs, “their hideaways have been demolished.” (4)

In Oct. of 2011, Wanderer of the Skies reported:

“The underground bases, of which we have spoken in the past which harbor those factions of the Illuminati who have created the most resistance to these changes, have indeed been destroyed with no loss of life we have been able to detect.

“A clear message has been sent to some of the last holdouts to the agreements already in place for the surrender of the Illuminati and their capitulation in your affairs. Other sources have begun to report on these events and the Illuminati needs no confirmation of what has occurred.

“That message, as we have been able to monitor through the emotions and thoughts of those it affected, has been received quite forcefully. They are now aware there is no alternative and this is their end.” (5)

DUMB under construction

By May 2012, David Wilcock was reporting: “dozens of underground bases have now been completely emptied out -- beginning on August 23, 2011.” (6)

Matthew informed us in March of 2012 that “military leaders are cooperating with the light forces to impede aggression by troops still in the Illuminati camp, and the destruction of some of their cavernous underground areas has halted heinous experiments and other covert activities.” (7)

SaLuSa reported on the galactics’ methods in Dec. of 2011:

“We respect all life, whereas they have none at all even when it comes to fellow humans. Life to them is expendable, and they will use it to gain over anyone who gets in their way.

“We on the other hand will remove our ‘enemies’ to safety rather than kill or wound them. You may therefore be assured that we removed all personnel prior to destroying underground military bases. Anyone who says otherwise is untruly reporting events, and out to paint a false picture of us.” (8)

It’s my understanding that there are no dark extraterrestrials around the Earth at this time.

In October of 2012, SaLuSa informed us that:

“We continue to remove the dark forces that have been using bases on your Earth for a very long time. They are not allowed to stay any longer, and have no place in the Ascension process.”

“Their existence so far has mainly been a legacy from several thousand years ago, and the evidence still remains in your recorded history. As many of you know, in recent times the Greys were allowed to reside upon Earth by agreement with your U.S. government, but these must also leave.” (9)

In Feb. of 2012 he reminded us that “the rules are specific where duality is concerned and include Universal Law. It is the latter that prohibits other Space Beings from approaching you or Mother Earth, and we enforce the law. Again there are exceptions in circumstances where they are actually invited to Earth, and that was the case where the [little] Greys were concerned.” (10)

Little Grey or Zeta Reticulan held in cabal captivity

Hatonn through Suzy Ward informed us in late 2010 that:

“The light grid around the planet prevents any civilization with dark intentions from being anywhere near Earth. And if the bad guys try to put their own 'secret' craft in the skies and bring out some of the [tall] Greys living underground and claim it's an invasion, we can stop that charade before it gets going.” (11)

Finally, the friendly galactics are in complete control of the skies, not like they exercise that control often but it's there. The secret Illuminati space fleet, Solar Warden, cannot operate except by galactic agreement so there's no chance the cabal will somehow leave the planet and go to Mars, say.

Adamu expressed the matter best in 2008. It's a long quote but delightful and very informative.

“Some of you have all manner of fears about a so-called Project Bluebeam. Others fear our ships will be attacked and this could trigger a war and so on and so on. My young friends, I can send messages ... full time all day every day, until the day we arrive and every day there will be those that present new fearful scenarios that I might have to dispel. This is because you are falling for the manipulation games of those that do not wish for this event to take place.

TR3-B Aurora spacecraft of Solar Warden space fleet

“Please, take a second. Try to think. If we are able to surround your planet with millions of ships of living light. If we are able to bring ships across thousands of light years in an instant. If our consciousness resides outside of space and time. If we can manifest a ship many miles across by desire alone. If we can defeat a warring enemy without ever attacking them. If we can disable your nuclear devices without touching them. If we can balance your planetary magnetosphere. I could go on and on. The point is, if we can do all these things and so much more, do you honestly think your Earth cabal's tin toys and party favours are going to get in our way? They are not.

“And the other space races with which they are in cahoots? Well, it's time that I bring some light to that situation as well. ... Our spirit technology surpasses their material technology by an almost unimaginable margin. Now these others, they feel we stand in the way of their plans and they feel they want what we have. So they will attack us when they can. They would in fact destroy us if they could and take everything we have from us. But they cannot. They very rarely manage to even hurt one of us in the slightest way.

“We on the other hand could, if it was in our consciousness, destroy them right now. But we will not. Because, you see, we know that they are us. We know that they are actually one with us. They just don't know this yet. So in summary. They would destroy us but cannot. We could destroy them but will not. And that is the state of play.

“It would seem on the face of it to bring about a stalemate, but it doesn't. We are winning. And do you know how we proceed to win? Not by attacking them, not by hurting them. No, in fact by loving them. Each and every being that comes to us and says I am tired of fighting, I am tired of fear, I am tired of pain, I am tired of being alone. Each one is welcomed to us. And so over time it is an absolute inevitability that all will return to the oneness." (12)

The cabal has had bases on Mars since the 1970s. Of them SaLuSa says:

"The dark forces upon Earth have had ambitions to enslave you, and extend their activities into Space. They already have bases upon the Moon and Mars, and using force they would not hesitate to colonise another world. However, no matter what they do they will not be allowed to go outside your Solar System." (13)

Billy Meier travelled to Mars in 1976 aboard a Pleiaidan ship and took pictures of American craft in orbit. Here is Randolph Winters showing pages from Billy's photographic scrapbook of American satellites and spacecraft around Mars. See 1:10:12 - 1:12:45 for the Mars photos and 1:12:27 for a picture of an American spacecraft carrying the flag taken above Mars in 1976:

On the subject of Disclosure, Matthew said in Aug. 2012 that "we may ... invite your own Space Fleet to join us, and that way you will have one of the last great secrets revealed. It will of course be a demonstration of peace and in no way with any military connection. War and all things connected with it will be removed or disabled, as there is no place for them in the future." (14)

How Do We Discuss Matters as Sensitive as These?

There's so much that begs to be said from a reading of Zap's latest column on the unknown aspects of the Reval. (2) I'm just going to touch on one point.

Many, many of the details of what's happening right now in relation to the Global Reset can't be shared. If they were shared, the success of the operations involved would be compromised.

What do we want? To know all the details and have the operations fail because the people they are being mounted against find out or to see the cabal peacefully and quietly removed from power so that the world is not overly shocked by such a momentous, sweeping, and hard-to-understand event as that would be?

Let me give you one example. But before you read it, please keep in mind that:

(1) Everything that's occurring is part of a world-wide operation that requires planning, coordination, timing, etc. It cannot simply be done with a wave of the hand.

(2) It's being done in part by people whose very existence most people either don't know about or wouldn't believe. OK, hands up everyone who believes that archangels are real? Let's see. One hand here. Another hand there.

Hands up everyone who believes that extraterrestrials are real? One there. Everyone who believes that they're around our planet? There's a hand. Everyone who believes they're friendly? Everyone who believes they're helping to release us from the dead hand of the cabal and are bringing streams of prosperity to this planet from their own? No hands?

How are we to discuss what's happening today in the face of the uproar that would come from most people whose very foundational viewpoints are about to be shaken and in some cases shattered when they realize the reality of what's occurring?

On the galactics' concern for matters like these, Archangel Michael some time ago:

“Your brothers and sisters of the stars have said repeatedly and it is a conversation that I have with them repeatedly, that they will not come to create chaos. They do not come in a way that creates fear. They do not come in a way that promotes violence.

“And when there is fear of misinformation, very often the human reaction has been to resort to violence. And that would be defeating the purpose.” (3)

Can we see the difficulty in the task and the extreme care that must be shown in accomplishing it?

(3) The Company of Heaven - the celestials, ascended masters and galactics - cannot and will not break the universal laws or the legitimate laws of a country.

So therefore they're not going to do what the cabal does and run roughshod over people, harm people, etc. They proceed by the law and that means they proceed more slowly than what we're used to. They don't move until they have things well arranged and documented. And they move in lawful ways through legal channels.

Having said that, consider what Zap says here (a little bit of reading and I apologize for that):

“To counteract [the cabal's] behavior, the “sting” approach has been utilized frequently and repeatedly by the ‘good guys.’

“The most recent example of this concerns the expected RV of the Iraqi Dinar [IQD] currency , part of the Global Currency Reset. Because of their high exalted status, many Congressional seat holders and other D.C. ‘bigwigs’ were originally allowed to convert their IQD holdings to Bank SKR's, or Safe Keeping Receipts; these were originally done at various rates of expected exchange value which was in most cases substantially below the rumored $32.00 rate.

“These same people were recently [within the last six weeks] given the opportunity to convert these SKR’s to GFR’s, or Guaranteed Fund Receipts; at that same time they were generally provided approximately 10% of the GFR value in cash equivalents with the express promise that said cash would not be utilized to purchase more IQD.

“We are currently advised that many thousands violated such proscription almost immediately. Some of these people will be resigning their offices and some others will undoubtedly be prosecuted.

“Use of these continuing 'sting' operations has helped to weed out those who continue to support the cabal and accede to their instructions; most of the other ‘miscreants’ have been arrested one or more times [Timothy Geithner for example has been arrested more than four times] and currently face prosecution in the near future.

“The cabal is finished! Most of the high-level and medium-level people, both in and out of government, have by now either been “stung” or arrested, and now face some combination of disgrace, loss of financial advantage, loss of position of power, loss of official office, and/or near term prosecution.” (4)

We’ve heard from numerous people that a three-tier approach has been used, in which the “whales” or “big boys” (royalty, Illuminati, religious leaders) were paid out first, then the people of influence like Congressmen and women, bankers, etc., and then us.

Please remember that we bemoaned this three-tier approach and said that it reflected the fact that the cabal was still alive and well and was controlling the Reval process. Privilege lived. The common folk were being ignored. Etc.

Well, I think we may have been mistaken. The three-tier approach appears to have been used as the means of mounting the sting against remaining cabal members and their supporters. The Company of Heaven works in this way: through legal means, careful planning, and bulletproof documentation. And this is not the first sting that’s been used to round up recalcitrant cabal members.

Moreover, the “big boys” were not paid out completely. They were given only a small portion in money and that money many of them abused. So it isn’t the case that trillions were given to them, as we thought at first.

Most people who rely only on “insider” information would have no idea of who it is who’s behind these operations, how they proceed, etc. They’d have no idea of the extent of the operations or why the mills of the gods grind slowly.

Why would they? They look to Washington, the Congress, the intelligence community, etc., for their information and those so-called centers of power are not driving matters any more, even if they think they are.

(Admittedly many white knights among these communities are courageous and praiseworthy “Earth allies” but more on that another day.)

Even Zap, with all due respect, goes to a place next that I’d prefer not to go. He says:

“In my opinion, having closely monitored the events as they occurred, we have reached the position of imminent conclusion. ...

“Now having a fuller understanding of both the goals, and the accomplishments to date, I will once again stick my neck out to advise you all that your journey is all but over.” (5)

The total operation is extensive and complicated. We keep wanting to say “It’s here!” or “It’s over!” We may have reached the end of the beginning or the beginning of the end, as Churchill said, but I don’t think we’ve reached the end.

So many intel gurus are feeling such pressure, again many not appreciating who it is that’s driving events, how they operate, or what their overall goals are, that they’re sorely tempted to say “It’s going to come tomorrow.” I appreciate the pressure they’re under.

Maybe it will come tomorrow but probably it won’t. The process needs to be enacted with care to avoid unforeseen consequences or foreseen consequences that would have a baneful outcome.

The upshot? I think we really must be patient.

I know many people are hurting. Many people want this process to be over. But in fact, if it’s to be truly over, rather than going on and on because we rushed it and created residue which festers or erupts in civil war or war against the friendly galactics, then we must allow the process to run its course and not assume that the inconvenience to us is the only factor that must decide matters.

This is our time to support the process by being patient, trusting and courageous. And most of that courage is the courage to stand on our faith that the Company of Heaven is proceeding as fast as it safely can and has nothing else in mind than our ultimate wellbeing.

We're not forgotten. If anything, what we conceive of as delays are what probably must occur if our ultimate benefit is to result.

Are We There Yet?

I wanted to draw attention to something SaLuSa said yesterday:

"Progress is still being made to bring you release from the many conditions and restrictions that have been placed upon you by the Cabal." (1)

We've discussed numerous times in the past that the galactics and all the the "guys [and gals] in the rafters," as Poof used to say, conduct themselves by the laws of the universe, a planet, nation, etc., and so they don't simply sweep down and behave ... well, in ways the cabal would or in ways that the cabal represents the galactics as behaving.

They live by principles such as fairness and justice, not to mention love and a lack of judgmentalness. So we can't project our attitudes onto them and hope to be accurate. Or expect them to handle situations the way we would.

That means that when they carry out an operation, they do it at a much slower pace (at times) than, say, a squad of Navy SEALs. They also don't blow up the place, injure people, or create a residue of injustice and hatred.

And they may wait until they can accomplish a number of purposes at once. SaLuSa implies that here:

"For the time being it suits our purpose to let certain restrictions remain, allowing us to work towards completely releasing you from [the cabal's] control." (2)

Why are elements of the cabal still here? Because they too have an opportunity to ascend if they change direction and can "do the work" needed.

No, they haven't the power they once did. But they still can slow things down and make mischief, as they are on the financial scene at the present time (and being removed from office for their actions).

Now add to that what we also know: that the galactics' operations are transpiring on a global scale, that most aspects of their operations dovetail, and that they are simultaneously:

- (1) managing a consciousness shift
- (2) counteracting and reducing some old financial, political and other structures that have kept this a prison planet for millennia
- (3) protecting us from Fukushima, oil pollution, depleted uranium, chemtrails, and many other circumstances caused by the cabal
- (4) helping us to rebuild Nova Earth
- (5) coordinating events on several dimensions of consciousness, etc.

So, yes, if you're like me, you may be squirming and grumbling, making faces and saying "Are we there yet?" But in fact, though Gaia is there, we, the human population, are not quite there yet.

The tsunami of love will help and that's part of the consciousness shift. It's probably dovetailed with the release of all the prosperity programs (although I haven't actually heard that confirmed). But if you can get a sense of the scale and complexity of the operation that's going on, it may help with the wait.

Can we spend a moment considering that some of the folks involved are multitasking millions of operations at once?

Archangel Michael himself says that he is in millions of places at the same time - appearing in human form briefly to us lightworkers, talking to Ashira, chatting with us on A Hour with an Angel, talking to Ronna Herman, Celia Fenn, and perhaps thirty other channels in English alone.

Did you hear what Linda said the other day about the archangels?

Caller: Does each universe have it's own set of archangels or whatever?

Linda Dillon: No, the archangels are universal. Archangel Gabrielle is managing the multiverse, if you can visualize that, talk about multi-tasking.

C: So she's not just the Central Administrator for our universe?

LD: It's the universe, the omniverse. It's a big job. (2)

Is anyone having trouble wrapping their mind around that one? I am, for sure. How does one manage so many things at once?

And yet at every level of existence, people like Sanat Kumara, Jesus, Buddha, St. Germain, Ashira, Ashtar, and others are also handling lesser but still amazing levels of complexity. How many places is St. Germain of a day? Everyone who just saw him or chatted with him today, raise your hand?

This is a global Ascension, the first in a universal Ascension, and part of the Ascension of the multiverse. It isn't even just an Ascension. It's the opening of new octaves of existence, featuring new forms of existence, and I'll have more to say about that in a future post.

It's beyond the capability of our minds to grasp in any detail, even if that may change a little after the shift.

So "for the time being it suits our purpose to let certain restrictions remain." It isn't that the galactics and the rest of the Company of Heaven are moving slowly. It is that the operation is massive and complex and is being managed to "completely [release] you from their control."

So no, Steve. This is Big Steve speaking. We're not there yet. You're just gonna have to be patient, lad. I know you're hungry and tired and you've been waiting an awful long time. But we do have a ways to go before we're all the way there.

On Being Placed on the FBI Watch List

I've been told that I'm now on the FBI Watch List.

How nice.

An article I posted about Attorney Al Hodge made its way to Dinar Recaps (1) and earned me a place.

Well, ladies and gentlemen of the FBI, now that I have your attention... Undivided attention, I hope....

I can't think of another way I could get it because I don't make bombs, except perhaps love bombs. I don't rob banks or mug people or import drugs (you'll need to speak to the CIA about that, I'm afraid - another arm of the government).

Am I afraid of you? Not in the least. Come in. Sit down. Stay awhile. We have a library of articles reachable by the banner (<http://goldenageofgaia.com/library/>). We have a database on all the events happening today (http://goldengaiadb.com/Main_Page).

Invite the other members of your organization to watch as well. Come in. Come in.

I haven't been in law enforcement per se but I have been the custodian of a law, a statute - the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act of Canada. It was my job to uphold that law, as it's yours to uphold the laws of the United States.

It's been my experience that upholding the laws of my country is an ennobling experience. It taught me the centrality of fairness in life. And it gave me a tremendous sense of pride to be representing the people of my country in seeing that fairness - or justice (you remember that you work for the "Department of Justice"?) - is meted out to the victims of torture, repression and other forms of persecution who were fortunate enough to make their way to our shores.

Your organization has been severely infected in recent years by rampant corruption. I believe that some of your members were confederates in the destruction of the World Trade Center and the Pentagon so many years ago. I also believe that some of your colleagues have lied, forged documents, hidden crimes, and carried out various misdeeds that ill become you.

Your first Director, J. Edgar Hoover, misused his office on such a constant basis that I can well understand how you might lose your way. I hope you find it again.

Upholding the laws of the land is a sacred trust and doing that job well repays one with a tremendous sense of deep satisfaction. I think that satisfaction is the fondest memory I carry away from my years as the guardian of a Canadian law.

What is it I'd like to say in this hour in which I have your attention? That galactic beings exist and are here around the planet assisting us to clean house and put things on a moral and loving basis again? (2)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ulWK-Ni-xiw>

"I Know My Galactic Family is Here. Do You?"

That we are in a time of shifting consciousness and those who continue to support corruption and inequity will face hard times ahead? That the rest of us choose love, peace and harmony and will rise above the debased social and economic order and create something wonderful afresh? And that you're welcome to join us?

You too have before you the opportunity to put in the correction that your organization so badly needs. I'm glad you're watching me. You may wish as well to listen to An Hour with an Angel and Heavenly Blessings. (3) This is a magical time and I wouldn't want you to miss out.

We are committed to building a world that works and you're welcome to take up that work with us. Perhaps many more members of your organization would also like to watch us - and join us.

Core Issues

Core issues are vasanas that go so deep that they define who we consider ourselves to be and how we present ourselves in life.

A vasana is itself an automatic reaction pattern that has its roots in an earlier, similar traumatic event which has seared its way into our consciousness.

Some vasanas are so deeply felt that they have what Werner Erhard would have called “command value” over us. We obey their dictates and construct our lives based on what they tell us. These are our core issues.

This is not uniformly bad, by the way. But it has consequences.

One of my core issues was that I watched domestic violence in my family and promised my mother at an early age that I would help her “some day.” I eventually became a refugee adjudicator specializing in gender issues.

My core issue saw me become an adjudicator in the first place and that was not necessarily a bad thing. I was fulfilling my promise to my mother to help her some day.

But it also left me with an anger around gender issues. That’s something I’ve needed to overcome in recent years and haven’t necessarily completed.

Here’s a second example.

I was the runt of the litter in my family, which meant that no one listened to me. The three older folks would confer on any one thing and no one would give the time of day to my opinion on anything.

I grew up with a strong desire to be heard, to be listened to. So what does a person become in that situation? Well, how about a blog editor? Makes sense, eh?

Or a counsellor who uses deep listening as his therapy. Do unto others, etc.

Or a person who teaches the theory of listening to his company? Maybe I'll teach others to listen to me?

Or a person who sits for countless hours a day listening to people fleeing persecution. Or....

We can have more than one core issue, obviously. And many of us lightworkers have planned before birth to place ourselves after birth in situations where core issues develop to motivate us, given the work we have to perform.

Our core issues send us in certain directions and then we have to free ourselves from the remaining negative consequences, the automatic patterns we have which, living on past their usefulness, have to be seen and retired.

I have a friend whose core issue is she doesn't want to disappoint anyone (she disappointed her mother by being born a girl, instead of a boy) and now she excels - so as not to disappoint.

Given her light work, excelling is not a bad thing. And now that she's aware of her core issue, she can let go of the negative side effects and simply excel. She's about the fastest learner I've ever met.

So core issues have their good and bad sides. They're motivators, as Linda Dillon has said, and they have consequences.

How do core issues fit with false grids and paradigms? A core issue was formed from a traumatic event long ago. It has command value over us.

A false grid or paradigm is a way of seeing things that we inherited as a member of society. Some false grids have been purposely "sold" to us, like many of our religious viewpoints, and had as their purpose social control.

False grids and paradigms impact our behavior, sometimes by hiding some things from our view or consideration, at other times by mandating ways we "need" to act. But they're not derived from our own personal past and may not have come about as a result of trauma.

How do we “source” or complete a core issue? Jesus offered a good description in “The Third Way.” (1) It won’t work for us to suppress ourselves in the face of the core issue (first way). It won’t work for us to project it onto others (second way), which is what we (OK, I) most commonly do.

It does work to “be with” the core issue and allow the mind to reveal to us what the source of it is (third way).

In my case, when I went to source or complete the core issue of wanting to be heard with the help of a friend coaching me, I got back in my recollection to a colleague at the Immigration and Refugee Board who would studiously ignore me, and then back to a girl in my Grade Twelve class who would do the same and I stopped there.

But my friend had me look deeper and I finally got back to being a very young child among three older people in my family who would not listen to me. It was then that the light bulb went on, I had a moment of recognition (an “Aha!” or “Eureka!” moment), and felt release from the core issue.

A core issue identified and known thoroughly usually releases its grip. Jesus had the last word on that as well: “The truth shall make you free.”

Not only will the Big Truth of who we are release us from the round of existence, but the little truth of what is driving us will release us from the unwanted condition or upset.

The Basic Spiritual Movement x 2

Mother, knowledge of you is more precious than rubies.

I'm looking at a conjuncture of notions, and not just notions that don't make a difference, but notions that make a profound difference.

I may have referred to this earlier, but the sense of them is deepening and having an impact on me. But then what's not having an impact on me these days, blown-open as I feel?

I've been saying for years that the basic spiritual movement is to turn from the world to God. OK, that unleashes a storm of requests for clarification. What is the world? What's wrong with the world? Etc.

Nothing is wrong with the world. It's just that the Ultimate that we want to know and love does not live at that address. Sorry. Please don't shoot the postman.

So let me rephrase that a bit more technically, with thanks to Hinduism, which articulated this point much better than I ever could (Sri Ramakrishna, Shankara, Dattatreya, and so on).

The basic spiritual movement is to discriminate between the Real and the unreal, to detach from the unreal, and to devote ourselves to the Real.

We've been over that ground a lot and I'd expect that you know what that means and so I apologize if I'm covering familiar ground.

Discriminating between the Real and the unreal is to notice what changes and what does not, what persists throughout eternity and what does not, what is the Source of all and what is its product or creation, etc. Just notice. Make note of, see and recognize.

Why just notice? Because the ultimate act expected of us in life is to recognize who we are. Just to notice and get down to our bones that we are the One. So discrimination is very important on the list of what's asked of us.

Detaching from the unreal means to take back our yearning for that which does not persist, that which is changing, changing, changing (anitya, anitya, anitya), that which is not eternal.

God so designed life, I think (and so does the Buddha. I'm in good company) that everything impermanent fails to satisfy for long.

Test it out. From now on, drink nothing but champagne, eat nothing but the finest meats you can afford. Eat mounds of your favourite candy. Watch how soon the taste for it pales.

What we do with that is to go from one tantalizing object to the next, as soon as our appetite for the first one pales, in an endless cycle of desire. We seek one enjoyable experience after another, purchase one magic moment after another, but none of it permanently satisfies.

In fact we insist on being born again and again into this vale of tears to have one more ... whatever turns us on.

Remember the man hanging from the cliff by a root, hungry tiger above, impatient lion below, and a rat gnawing on the root? And he glimpses a strawberry! Ahhhh.... (1) That's us.

But God also designed life so that only he/she/it can satisfy.

So why not decide the matter and detach from the unreal and....

Devote ourselves to the Real. I could have said "attach" ourselves to the Real. One attachment will not harm us: the attachment to God and all things divine. One degree of the compass leads to Home: and that's the degree that points to God.

So this is the basic spiritual movement, stated again.

Now please look at this, if you would. We've been through two downloads and are now launched on a third.

The first download was the Mother's baptism of clarity. The second was her gift of purity. And the third is the tsunami of love.

What is clarity but discrimination or discernment? What is purity but detachment from the unreal? What is love but devotion to the divine?

Are we not being marched through the basic spiritual movement? Has the Mother not made it easy for us?

Is the whole package not being hand-delivered and placed on our table, just waiting for us to sign on the dotted line and accept delivery?

How easy could it get?

You're welcome to spend six years in a Tibetan cave drinking nettle soup.

You can close your eyes and refuse to open them until you have the vision of the One.

You can smear your body with ash and beg for your food. Be my guest!

And I mean no disrespect to renunciates and sadhus. We've all been there and done that in our many lives, ourselves, I'm willing to bet.

But the Mother is setting the table and serving the most exquisite dishes to her children this lifetime and how can we say no?

So the basic spiritual movement, which many people in past generations gave everything to know and master, is before us as if by an "Abracadabra!" All of us stare into the treasure box opened before us and have only to say "Yes!"

How lucky can we be? What more could we want?

Footnotes

(1) We face danger on every side and death is closing in on us and we're focussed on the delight-of-the-moment, rather than using this precious time to know God. As Sri Shankara said (paraphrase), infancy is spent helpless, childhood in having fun, young adulthood in satisfying our hormones, adulthood in raising a family. It isn't until our powers are waning that we even have a moment to turn our thoughts to God.

Completely at Sea

I personally am going through a transition which, for a man, has to be as difficult as any I can imagine.

Archangel Michael once told me of a life I lived as a warrior. I recently saw a TV program on my alter ego and it scared the wits out of me. Apparently his name was used to instill fear in the hearts of children in the nations against which he fought.

I asked him later whether these tales were true and he said they were not, that the tales were embellished by the other side in those wars and sold by today's historians as true. Well, that was a relief.

But I'm aware of this fearsome energy inside me and could detail all the incidents in my life when I seem to have drawn on it. Some of them were in the early years of writing this blog. That energy allowed me to write articles in which I listed the crimes of the cabal without trembling in fear and hiding under the bed. (1)

But the need for that aggressiveness is now passing. In fact all that now must go. And it's hard for a man.

I found myself the other day experiencing as much love as I thought I could hold in this Third-Dimensional suitcase we call a body. I had to express it or explode and the ways it came up to be expressed were so uncomfortable that I just hoped that no man saw me or I'd be considered to have turned into something that men consider to be "unmanly."

But that's the challenge for men today as the "divine feminine" and "sacred goddess" energies return to Earth. I know not what the feminine experience is. I can only report the masculine.

Men are learning to love, to express it, and to act from it. And, for us "tough guys," the living ain't easy.

We know that we're entering the Mother's tsunami of love, also known as "the Event." Natalie Glasson recently channeled a message that gives us the flavor of what's occurring.

"As we enter into the Era of Love, the presence of the Goddess is potent, it symbolises that spiritual growth and awakening can be achieved through graceful shifts rather than painful or difficult shifts.

"The divine Goddess vibrations are here to assist you in connecting with the gentler flowing aspect of your being, the peaceful and compassionate aspects of your soul. The purpose of the Goddess is to bring a graceful awakening for all carrying you into love, truth and oneness. You may call upon the presence and the vibrations of the divine Goddess if you are experiencing difficulty or hardship in your reality, mental body or emotional body." (2)

I never thought that connecting to the gentler aspects of myself could be such a rough ride! She continues:

"The Goddess vibrations are integrating, active and potent; you can now connect with this vibration more than ever before, feeling as if you exist in a cocoon of Goddess light. The vibrations of the Goddess present themselves so gracefully because you are conscious of your divine Goddess presence within your being.

"Your body is resonating with grace, beauty, gentleness, compassion and tenderness; these vibrations currently have a powerful impact upon your being." (3)

We often hear how some people may feel exceptionally uncomfortable in the face of the downloads of love. I don't think of myself as resisting them. Far from it. I'm opening to the winds of love as widely as I possibly can. But even for a man who welcomes it, the experience can still be confusing. She encourages us:

"Let the divine feminine vibrations wash over you as if they are cleansing nutritious fragrant waves of light drifting into every aspect of your being. Let yourself embrace the divine Goddess vibrations for they are truly merging with the Earth and the dimension of the planet. (4)

And she tells us:

"Not only are you attracting these qualities but you are activating them from within your being. This means that your body will react differently now to what could be described as more forceful masculine vibrations, these may feel heavy or painful to your entire being.

"As the Goddess is awakening within your being so your Goddess qualities are awakening, you may find yourself seeking a gentle, calming and soothing environment where you can be at peace allowing yourself to blossom gracefully from within." (5)

I find myself endlessly repeating Ajahn Sumedho's advice:

"Some of you might have the desire to become the Buddha of the age, Maitreya, radiating love throughout the world - but instead, I suggest just being an earthworm ... who knows only two words - 'let go, let go, let go.'" (6)

That about sums up the way I feel! I realize that there's less and less need for the warrior type I've always considered myself to be.

I have no desire to hold onto patriarchy. Much of my activism in years gone by has been to end gender persecution. But I also make a plea to women for whom this energy is second nature to appreciate the cognitive dissonance that their men may be going through as we make this transition from a world where courage had a place to a world where the courage to love has replaced it.

We will find our way home, to be sure, but we men are going through some pretty strange territory and stand a good chance of both looking a little weird and feeling completely at sea.

Awareness Transforms

There are so many things that seem difficult to understand and none strikes me as more difficult than consciousness.

In the article by Jesus, reposted yesterday, "Jeshua: The Third Way," (1) Jesus makes some startling, novel statements about consciousness. Consciousness or awareness is the substratum of life, but it may as well be unexplored territory. He says:

"You have to realize that consciousness is something very powerful. It is much more than a passive registering of an emotion - consciousness is an intense creative force. ...

"Consciousness is not something static; things do not remain as they are. You will notice that if you do not nourish the energy of the emotion or of your judgment about it, they will gradually dissipate. In other words, your equilibrium becomes stronger; your basic feeling becomes more one of peace and joy. ...

"Awareness transforms - it is the major instrument for change, yet at the same time, it wants to change nothing. Awareness says, 'Yes - yes to what is!' It is receptive and accepting of all that is there, and this changes everything, because it sets you free."

To be aware is to be neutral, but awareness itself is anything but neutral.

On occasion, I've compared consciousness or awareness to a very powerful solvent, like a paint remover. (2) Paint something with awareness and the unwanted condition we're observing will lift. I could as well have compared it to sunlight which causes moisture to evaporate. Or heat that causes ice to melt.

Of course, all conditions lift, wanted or unwanted. Nothing persists except the Self, except God. All else is impermanent and hence ultimately illusory.

But what Jesus points out in his article is that we can let go of our previous habits of identifying with, say, anger and projecting it outwards or suppressing our anger and "eating it" and try a third way: becoming aware of our anger and observing it.

If we do so, our anger lifts faster than by any other means and leaves no residue.

Expressing or suppressing leaves residue. Observing and accepting causes the lifting of the condition with no residue.

I said a few days ago that the chief illusions we have in the Third Dimension are that we're separate, we won't survive death, and resources are scarce. These three perspectives cause fear. Thwart us in our actions to overcome these three conditions or excite our fears about them and we become angry.

And when we become angry, we project that anger onto others or "swallow it" and damage ourselves. One way we leave a residue of shame and explosiveness; the other we leave a residue of dread and tension.

But using our consciousness or awareness as the powerful, creative force that it is to dissolve the unwanted condition is the way of the future. It harnesses the power of consciousness, what Eckhart called The Power of Now. Consciousness, presence, nowness all point to the same thing.

Awareness transforms. It doesn't just change a situation. It doesn't just move our piece, our Scotty Dog, around the board. It causes the underlying condition to lift completely. It's one circumstance that we know almost nothing about as a collective and need to learn about if we're to leave the ways of the Third Dimension behind.

Change causes the unwanted condition to persist but awareness causes the unwanted condition to transform, to disappear.

It may be time for us to become conscious of consciousness and to use it in the only way it works: to allow, to watch, and to understand.

Letting Go into What's Always Already There

Restricting my attention for the moment to our ongoing preparation for Ascension, I saw yesterday that important parts of that journey are not going to be accomplished by attaining, achieving, building, etc. Parts of it are going to be achieved by letting go.

By way of example, I often experience a yearning for unitive consciousness, connectedness, etc., and think that it'll come about by a process of merging. When I try to force the issue, I end up feeling frustrated, not knowing how to merge.

And then the penny drops.

In the instance I have in mind, I suddenly let go of a layer of protectiveness and the yearning dissipated. I was left with a glow of satisfaction, in which state I was much more accessible to unitive connection than before.

It wasn't that unity was created. It was that unity was always already there and I simply let go of a layer of protectiveness that obscured and blocked it.

The Divine Mother said the other day on An Hour with an Angel that the larger purpose of life was for us to realize our true identity (as God) and it was her dearest wish that we do so. (1) Implicit in that statement is the fact that that identity is always already there and the only thing missing is our uncovering it and realizing it.

She found it ironic that we stress progress (2) or moving forward because in the realest sense we're moving backward, are we not? We're recovering knowledge that we once had and lost out of our agreement to descend into the experimental circumstances of Third Dimensionality.

So why do I not simply settle the matter once and for all by acknowledging to myself that everything important that I feel is needed, everything desperately sought after, everything pined for is always already there? I'm engaged in a kind of releasing, a kind of unmasking, to uncover a truth that's always already here.

I don't have to build my true identity. I don't have to create unity. I simply have to let go of the layers of protectiveness that I've created out of my ignorance. Letting go is the discipline I need to master.

I'm reminded of what Ajahn Sumedho once said:

"The practice of 'letting go' is very effective for minds obsessed with compulsive thinking: you simplify your meditation practice down to just two words—'letting go.' Rather than trying to develop this practice and then develop that, and achieve this and go into that; ... just let go, let go, let go.

"I did nothing but this for about two years—every time I tried to understand or figure things out, I'd just say, 'let go, let go' until the desire would fade out. So I'm making it very simple for you, to save you from getting caught in incredible amounts of suffering.

"There's nothing more sorrowful than having to attend International Buddhist Conferences! Some of you might have the desire to become the Buddha of the age, Maitreya, radiating love throughout the world - but instead, I suggest just being an earthworm ... who knows only two words - 'let go, let go, let go.'" (3)

Everything that stands in my way of uniting and ascending is born of fear and the felt need to protect myself. But if I really look around me, I see that each thing is falling into place, as if by magic. Future colleagues show up in the course of a day. Relationships deepen.

What was it Goethe said?

"[Once one is committed] all sorts of things occur to help one that would never otherwise have occurred. A whole stream of events issues from the decision, raising in one's favor all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamed would have come his way." (4)

When was this more true or discernible than at this present time?

Lao Tzu described God as “ultimate emptiness.” (5) Surely emptiness is not attained. Surely it's always already there. There's no journey to it. There's no building it. There's no finding it. There's only letting go, as he also told us:

"The Way is gained by daily loss,
Loss upon loss until
At last comes rest.

"By letting go, it all gets done;
The world is won by those who let it go!
But when you try and try,
The world is then beyond the winning." (6)

How much easier could it be? Falling back into Self. Letting go of the illusion and resulting fears. Loss upon loss until at last comes rest. Definitely not rocket science. Definitely not an art that draws on the mind, except it be the quiet mind.

(2) "It is my honor to ... come to you in this way to speak to you not only of the unfoldment of our plan, but the unfoldment of yours, to speak of the progress – which is an ironic term, but you have a tendency, as a collective, to consider things in forward movement, and that is partly a construct of the time, the dimensional realities which you occupy, and the way in which your reality, as you consider it, has been constructed." Incarnated Angels and Composite Beings

Archangel Michael seldom uses a word that he doesn't mean. So when he twice called Nelson Mandela an "angel," that definitely caught my attention.

And his pauses are also significant. After calling Nelson Mandela an angel the second time, he paused, almost as if he were seeing whether I was awake or giving me a chance to intervene. I notice these things, well, I suppose, because it's my job to do so.

If he had described Nelson as a "bright light," I might expect that he was hinting at an ascended master. He has described President Obama this way: "Why would I throw my brother out the door when he has endured as much as any of you? Yes, he is a lightworker, a star being." (1)

The use of the term "brother" or "sister" may very well be significant and indicate either an angel or archangel.

It's not inconsistent to speak of an angel or archangel in one breath and a star being in another. How's that?

Because even an angel or archangel can "borrow" parts of another being, at which point Archangel Michael would describe that being as a "composite" or a "hybrid."

Merlin, for instance, was a composite, as was John the Baptist.

In a reading I had on Dec. 11, he was explaining an "emanation" to me by giving the example of Lord Arcturus joining with an archangel to form a composite being or hybrid.

AAM said that I could imagine Lord Arcturus as having billions of atoms of energy (these may be the "adamantine particles" he talks about through Ronna Herman) and so he has "cash" to spare. He gives some of those atoms to the archangel for use. But each atom is a hologram or fractal of Lord Arcturus and so contains all his qualities.

I asked him if the example of Swami Vivekananda was a good comparison. Here is the story of how Sri Ramakrishna, in the formless realm, came to the sage that Swami Vivekananda was and asked him to come down to Earth with him on his avataric mission.

I use this example only to illustrate the fractal aspect of Vivekananda vis-a-vis the sage, not the composite aspect of the hybrid that AAM was originally discussing.

“Absorbed one day in samadhi, Ramakrishna had found that his mind was soaring high, going beyond the physical universe of the sun, moon, and stars, and passing into the subtle region of ideas. As it continued to ascend, the forms of gods and goddesses were left behind, and it crossed the luminous barrier separating the phenomenal universe from the Absolute, entering finally the transcendental realm.

“There Ramakrishna saw seven venerable sages absorbed in meditation. These, he thought, must have surpassed even the gods and goddesses in wisdom and holiness, and as he was admiring their unique spirituality he saw a portion of the undifferentiated Absolute become congealed, as it were, and take the form of a Divine Child.

“Clambering upon the lap of one of the sages and gently clasping his neck with His soft arms, the Child whispered something in his ear, and at this magic touch the sage awoke from meditation. He fixed his half-open eyes upon the wondrous Child, who said in great joy: ‘I am going down to earth. Won’t you come with me?’

“With a benign look the sage expressed assent and returned into deep spiritual ecstasy. Ramakrishna was amazed to observe that a tiny portion of the sage, however, descended to Earth, taking the form of light, which struck the house in Calcutta where Narendra’s family lived, and when he saw Narendra for the first time, he at once recognized him as the incarnation of that sage. He also admitted that the Divine Child who brought about the descent of the rishi [or sage] was none other than himself.” (2)

AAM agreed that the spark descending on Earth was similar to a fractal of the galactic being being used by the archangel to add needed qualities to the hybrid.

Interestingly, Sri Ramakrishna predicted that the day Swami Vivekananda knew who he was he would leave: "Among other things, he came to know that Narendra was a sage who had already attained perfection, and that the day he learnt his real nature he would give up his body in yoga, by an act of will." (3)

By the same token, AAM also told me that, if he were to utter the spiritual name of the individual he was using as an illustration, who does not want to be known, that individual too would instantly return home.

You saw that President Kennedy did not want his past lives known, in the November 2013 Hour with an Angel program in which AAM paid tribute to him. (4) I once asked AAM a question about George Bush Sr. and AAM replied that that soul did not want the information discussed. And he also told me that Jesus did not want us to focus on his past lives. So this reticence is not at all uncommon.

I anticipate that, if word were to get out that Nelson Mandela was an incarnated angel, there would be scorn heaped on everyone asserting such a thing. And that will give rise to a moment of truth. Do we abandon our assertion as Mandela's sign interpreter felt obliged to do? Or do we face into the upholders of an outmoded paradigm of empirical materialism (5) and stand our ground, as Nelson Mandela did?

Many angels are incarnated at this point on planet Earth. I could open Skype and speak with perhaps ten or fifteen of them today. And angels can join with star beings to create a hybrid or composite being. In addition, many angels live on higher-dimensional planets in the Arcturian, Pleiadian, and other star systems.

Our knowledge of kingdoms like the angelic is almost non-existent and comes from stylized sources like the Bible. It can only grow in the years ahead.

We also need to remember that the assumption of a third-dimensional human body places a thick veil of forgetfulness over one that is hard to penetrate. I've often compared the human body to a lacrosse ball compared to the astral body being like the soft down at the base of a feather.

The human body does not conduct the emotions of the astral body very well at all. It muffles them, as I learned in an out-of-body experience. And apparently it stifles remembrance too.

Even an angel, nay, even a seraphim or an elohim, can lose touch with their original magnificence when they assume the veil. It happens much more often than we suspect and is in fact supposed to happen, as AAM made plain to me in my recent reading (I'll post that extract as soon as I've transcribed it). (6)

So I do accept that Nelson Mandela was an incarnated angel and having done the research and interviewing work I've done, and having met and worked with many incarnated angels in this lifetime, I'm not at all surprised to hear AAM name him as such.

Hopefully some day it won't be a surprise to the greater part of Earth's population to consider the matter as well.

(5) Empirical materialism holds that only what we can know with our Third-Dimensional physical senses is real. Well, goodbye to angels. Goodbye to the galactics who hover above us in cloaked ships. Goodbye to the Divine Mother, the Father, and everything else that cannot be touched, seen or felt.

(6) AAM was saying that the Mother did not ask higher-dimensional beings to come here in their full perfection. A Hitchhiker's Guide to the Tsunami of Love

Since the tsunami of love is the next great spiritual event (the Reval is a financial event) we have to look forward to, let's review what the most current news is on that.

Here's a brief review of what's been said before.... Last November the Divine Mother told us that:

“You have only begun with my gift of clarity to have a tiny baptism. Think of it as a drop on the forehead. Well, get ready for the tsunami.” (1)

On Dec. 18 of last year, I asked her if the tsunami of love was what others called “the Event” and she replied:

“The Event is a tsunami of love. But it is not a singular event. ... It may have marked the beginning of what you think of as the celebration, or the final unfoldment, but, dear heart this has been in unfoldment for a long time and particularly over the last year.

“This is not something that you can push back. If you push back, you will stop breathing, and there are very few of you that wish to do that.” (2)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tGt8Lo2aacQ>

On Dec. 18, 2013, in his Christmas message, Jesus to us told us that the tsunami of love was already here.

“The waiting is over. Stop waiting. ‘Well,’ you say, ‘of course, Lord, that's exactly what I will do. Just show me.’ Don't even do that. You say,

‘Well, what should I do, then?’ And what I suggest to you, as your brother, is to go into your heart and simply explode with love.

“Don’t wait, because the energy, the tsunami – it’s already not only at your front door, but in your kitchen, your bedroom, your basement, your attic.” (3)

And finally Archangel Michael told us on An Hour with an Angel Jan. 9, 2014, that “very soon – let us say in a timely, very timely manner, you will be swept away in the tsunami of the Mother’s love, in the tsunami of awakening.”

“The Mother and all of us have said to thee, the time of waiting is over. Now, what does this mean? It means that on our side that many of the hitches, glitches, delays and frustrations that you, and we, have experienced, albeit in very different ways, are over.

“So you are not waiting on the Company of Heaven. But it also means, sweet angel, that the waiting on your side is over. So we are encouraging you, we are begging you, jump into action, not from a place of neediness, but from a place of joy, of celebration of this expansion that you are experiencing.” (4)

He defined the tsunami of love:

“What is the tsunami of love? It is the outpouring of the essence of love from the Source, from the Creator, the Unified One that has been the creative force for the creation of many, many universes.” (5)

And he added: “We are speaking of an outpouring from the Mother. There is nothing more important, not in this or any other life.” (6)

He assured us that “this outpouring of love onto the planet will not disassemble or overwhelm you to an extent that you could not maintain or stay in your body, because, of course, the entire purpose of this glorious Ascension is that it is being done while maintaining the physical vessel, which is something that is brand new.” (7)

“Will it sweep you away with love?” he asked. “Will that sense of the creative force of all be overwhelming? Yes. Will it be sweet? Yes. Will it anchor firmly and permanently within your being? Yes.” (8)

I asked him if this tsunami would dissolve fear and he replied:

“That is absolutely correct, and that is why we are using the term of tsunami, and even the term of storm, of sailing, of moving from the North Atlantic to the placid crystal cove.

“So, yes, it is pushing it out so that you look at it and you may think, 'I used to be afraid. I should be afraid. I am not afraid,' because that is the residual illusion of the old third, and it is being swept away.

“That fear has never been part of who you truly are. So the Mother’s love is pushing it, dissolving it, not simply leaving it on a distant shore, but completely eliminating it.” (9)

He assured us that everyone is guaranteed to receive it but not everyone will welcome it.

“Is it guaranteed? Yes. That everyone will receive? Yes. Will some choose to say, 'Oh, no, thank you'? Yes. But that decision, that choice also has the ramification – and we’re not talking five minutes here – but it has the ramification of consequently not being able to live on Nova Earth, renewed Gaia, because it is in a vibration of this higher realm of love. So if you do not want that within or without, it is not that we are going to alter the universal law.” (10)

It will incapacitate us for a short while but after that we’ll emerge renewed.

“It does not incapacitate you indefinitely. For some of you, it may be hours or minutes or days, but you emerge from the waters, the waters of life, the waters of love, transformed.

“So it is a form of cleansing, but restoration, recovery, rejuvenation. So you emerge from those waters better prepared, more acutely aware, more able to multitask, more competent to see the bigger picture of your actions, the ramifications of your actions, the clarity of what is really required.

“What you are concerned about is, ‘Do I lose my capacity to operate? Do I lose my sensibility?’ And the answer is no. It is increased.” (11)

Was the outpouring of long duration, I asked and he replied:

“The initial outpouring will be brief. But we have used the analogy of a tsunami in a purposeful way, because you know that a tsunami approaches, withdraws, approaches, withdraws. ...

“The initial tsunami will be brief. We will say, hmm, about a 24-hour period in your reality. Then there will be another wave, and then – and you will adjust – and then, another wave.” (12)

No one will be excluded because of a disability.

“Absolutely none [will be excluded]. Say one is disabled mentally, or emotionally disabled, or of a lesser intelligence – and we are using your terms – then, in fact, it is more welcomed. Because these beings, these souls, know how they have been trapped.” (13)

After it will come peace in the world.

“We anticipate – and we know that the human beings have the capacity to constantly surprise us, but from where we stand, in this eternal now as you would call it – we suspect and anticipate that peace will reign rather rapidly, that people cannot continue to hold up their guns, their swords, their drones, their missiles and be in the love. We are talking widespread laying down of arms.” (14)

How should we prepare for it or experience it?

“Once it begins, dear heart, you have need to simply breathe deeply, extend your heart, know that you are not in danger, that this is what you have worked, prayed and prepared for, and allow the expansion, the lightness, to come.

“That expression that you have, ‘the [incredible] lightness of being,’ that is what you will experience. But do not fight it. Simply allow it. So if it means that you are so overwhelmed, blissed out, that you cannot go to work that day, then stay home. If you feel that you cannot put one foot in front of another because you are in what you may feel is an altered state, then do so.” (15)

Is this part of our Olympic sprint to Ascension? He replied:

“It most certainly is. So, grab your torch and run.” (16)

More recently, in a presentation that Linda Dillon made, she suggested that we meet the tsunami of love by throwing open the doors and windows of our hearts, not only when the tsunami hits, but each day from here on in so we can receive the full outpouring of the tsunami of the Mother’s love.

That's our update. We now await these multiple transformative waves, this tsunami of love, an outpouring from the Divine Mother that will bring peace to the world and prepare us for Ascension.

Just Love

Yesterday I felt so much love that what I thought of as “me” disappeared.

What do I mean by that?

That which I experience as “me” comes along with worries, hopes, fears, concerns, anxieties, preferences, desires, etc. When the love I felt washed away the me, all the worries, concerns, etc., disappeared as well.

When I noticed they had disappeared, I also noticed that the point of reference that I considered “me” had also disappeared.

I’m not sure for how long it disappeared because I fell asleep at some point and lost track of my situation. The “me” that I think I am was back by the next morning with all its worries, hopes and fears.

I’m not saying it was part of the tsunami of love, although it may have been. But I think it was a second preview, the first being the wave of bliss I experienced on last Thursday’s Hour with an Angel. (1)

I say a “preview” because the Mother said that the impact of the tsunami of love would be permanent and this was not. But even as a trailer, it was dramatic and utterly welcome.

The sense of peace I felt was the result of all my cares being swept away. It wasn’t something that descended. My cares were washed away leaving nothing in their wake.

One of the things I saw from this is that, at this moment, I exist as a point, a focused spot, which I would imagine is infinitely elastic but definite and unmistakable (relatively speaking).

It's as if I have an IP address in the universe, as if I can be located by GPS - almost. That spot, that point of focus is "me."

And around it cluster all my worries, hopes and fears. When that point or spot is evaporated or blown away, well, I'm not sure what happens to the worries, hopes and fears that cling to me, but I'm no longer aware of them.

And, at that moment, I was no longer aware of myself as a definite entity. I was only aware of love. Just as the explosion of love I felt in November washed away separateness for a time, so here the love I felt washed away my worries, hopes and fears for a time.

Now I descend into speculation. I'm not a spiritual teacher and I don't want to leave the impression that I want to be or am trying to be. I don't want to be one. It isn't my mission. But I do love this subject.

I speculate that the ultimate disappearance of the point of focus that I consider myself to be is (potentially) the same as the heart opening that Sri Ramana Maharshi discusses here.

“[The] heart [hridayam] is the seat of Jnanam [Wisdom] as well as of the granthi (knot of ignorance). It is represented in the physical body by a hole smaller than the smallest pin-point, which is always shut.” (2)

“It is this knot or nexus that results in the experience of myself as a point of focus, I think. The nexus is loosed when the heart opens.

“When the mind drops down in Kevalya Nirvikalpa [Samadhi], [the heart] opens but shuts again after it.

“When Sahaja [Nirvikalpa Samadhi] is attained it opens for good.” (3)

Kevalya Nirvikalpa Samadhi, also known as God-Realization or Brahmajnana, occurs when the kundalini reaches the seventh chakra and results in a temporary heart opening. This is not liberation from the need to be reborn into physicality (Third Dimensionality).

Sahaja Nirvikalpa Samadhi occurs when the kundalini reaches the Hridayam or spiritual heart (not the heart chakra) and results in a permanent heart opening. This is liberation or what we call Ascension.

We've already heard our sources say that the tsunami of love, in which I believe we'll have a heart opening, probably partial, probably temporary, is not Ascension. I asked the Divine Mother that question:

Steve: Now, my understanding is this event is not Ascension. But can you tell us what this event is and what we can expect from it, and where it fits into the Plan, what it contributes to our movement towards Ascension, please?

Divine Mother: It is another expansion of your ability to hold love and heart consciousness. (4)

And more recently Ashtar through Philipp said:

"I'd like to emphasize that the Love Transformation is not your Ascension. Ascension, as you all know very well by now, is a process that unfolds step by step. But this Love Transformation is one of the key elements of your Ascension journey." (5)

If it were Ascension, the heart opening would be permanent. It seems that there will be permanent expansion but not to the extent that Ascension will bring.

I think expansion has to be considered as a question of degree, with the added parameter that reaching a certain degree will have us reach a tipping point, a critical mass that will bring Ascension in its train.

Returning to Sri Ramana, he says:

"The granthi is the knot which ties the insentient body to the consciousness which functions in it; that is why when it is loosened temporarily in Kevalya Nirvikalpa [Samadhi] there is no body consciousness." (6)

I wasn't aware of whether I felt body consciousness or not. I didn't focus on it - or anything else to be quite honest, except the love I felt.

“He for whom the Atman [soul, Christ, Self] alone shines, within, without and everywhere, as (clearly as) objects to the ignorant, is called one who has cut the nexus. ...

“Once the knot is cut, one is never bound again. This is considered the state of power supreme and peace supreme.” (7)

So once the knot is not simply loosened temporarily in the experience of kevalya, but cut asunder in the experience of sahaja (Ascension), one is never bound again. I can imagine that Sri Ramana would see it as "power supreme and peace supreme" but we know it as no more than Fifth-Dimensional consciousness and we also know that much more lies beyond it.

I think Sri Ramana also knew that but probably could not take the conversation that far with his listeners without confusing them. But here we are a little more than a half-century later and becoming familiar with the mechanics of liberation. How cool is that?

I'm not saying that I experienced a heart opening. I don't think I did. But I do think that the utter disappearance of the point of focus that I think of as myself, when it does come, will lead first to what Sri Ramana calls Kevalya Samadhi (Brahmajnana) and later to what he calls Sahaja Samadhi, which to us is Ascension.

That movement will be from a temporary to a permanent heart opening and will see the disappearance of what we conventionally think of at this moment as "me."

When that happens, I surmise that I, or you, or we, will just be love.

AAM: And this has been my goal this day, to give you a wash, all of you, to feel our love. ("Archangel Michael: Swept Away in a Tsunami of Love - Part 2/2," Jan. 11, 2014, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/01/archangel-michael-swept-away-in-a-tsunami-of-love-part-22/>.)

Lost at Sea!

Wes Annac sends along the comment: "Those fools who will not sing, or dance, mad with God's name, will never attain God." - Paramahansa Ramakrishna. Indeed!

Gee, does singing “Somewhere Over the Rainbow” in the middle of a supermarket mean anything?

Does tapping my fingers on my knees with the rhythm of a Glenn Gould, me a rhythm-challenged dancing lump (watch your toes, dear) count for anything?

Does falling in love with everyone I meet, loving the color of everyone’s hair, flashing a mile-wide smile at everyone whose eyes meet mine signify anything?

“Troubles melt like lemon drops...”

I'm lost in an ocean of love. Castaway, lost at sea, drowning in the sea of love. So subtle, where did it come from?

Sunk to the bottom of the Marianna Trench. Someone send Challenger. Or a higher-dimensional St. Bernard. Or a mermaid. Yes, that's the ticket!

Hello, there, little guy! I love you!

My GPS says “Everywhere, Nowhere.” “This way to Zeropoint.” “Around the corner from the Null Zone.”

Yesterday I was practising my automatic writing (on instructions from the Boss) and found myself pouring out my love for God and away I went, wafted aloft on the wings of bliss.

Fatal but not serious. Totally lost but doing fine. Swallowed up and wish you were here!

The Stage of Purification

I've always approached my Ascension work as if, once I was cleansed of all vasanas, core issues, and false grids, I'd be ready to start in on the next phase of lightwork. For me that will be working with the galactics.

But I'm now becoming aware that there's at least one more stage of preparation and that stage is purification.

We've been through a chaotic cleansing process and it's as if we're taking assessment after a storm.

There are things that need repair, cleaning, reorganizing, rearrangement. Things need to be put in their place.

What makes it all bearable is the wonderful companions we have to make this journey with, the amazing beings who are here on the planet today.

Incarnated angels, archangels, seraphim, ship's commanders, prophets, saints - don't get me started. I could go on and on about the types of people here, from all ages, all corridors of space, all kingdoms.

Chief among them, from my vantage point, are the pure beings, from whatever dimension they hail. I've had the privilege of being around a few of them lately and it's impacted and inspired me.

The joy of working with them leads to the joy of us all going up together, so to speak. Up in vibration. Up in willingness. Up in mood. Up in every way.

And I've been observing them and learning from it. It seems to me that a pure-being is not simply one cleansed of impurities, but functioning as a whole being in an atmosphere of joy, satisfaction, and equanimity.

Their actions seem to me to be effortless, joyful, and harmless. Wherever they go, they seem to produce an addition to the store of love on the planet. They appear to leave each person they meet rewarded.

I don't consider myself a pure being. I joke that I'm a rhinocerus compared to one. They seem like hummingbirds to me.

But the call to purity, which the Mother gifted us all with last year, shows up as very strong in me nonetheless.

And without these contacts, I might not have known what was available.

So, yes, I feel the need to purify my being after the chaos of cleansing and after these welcome encounters. It seems like a two-stage operation to me.

Tighten my screws, oil my joints, gather my strength. And true up to the ever-higher standards emerging as we meet and agree to work with each other.

I am Consciousness and Its Qualities

I'm seeing that I am the divine qualities.

Our consciousness is like milk. Milk is white. It's a liquid. It's thicker than water. Its taste varies from sweet to sour. It is itself and it also has qualities.

Similarly, consciousness is itself and it also has qualities. Love, joy and peace are three qualities of pure consciousness, just like being liquid, being white and having taste are three qualities of milk.

I am consciousness and its qualities, like love, joy and peace.

There are encrustations or what I've called vasanas and masks, as well as what Linda Dillon and the Company of Heaven have called false grids and core issues. The Buddha called them obfuscations. They are impurities in the mind.

They overburden consciousness. But consciousness itself and the divine qualities are one and the same thing.

Pure consciousness cannot be thought of without thinking of love, joy and peace. Consciousness and its qualities are synonymous. I think of them in the same breath.

I can let go of the encrustations and I need not hold onto the divine qualities because they are me and I am they. I could no more easily let go of them than watch them disappear.

They're always with me, whether I'm always with them or not. They're not changeable. They're eternal.

I said earlier that we could afford to let go of anything because the Real, the permanent cannot be let go of and only the unreal, the temporary can. The encrustations are temporary; the divine qualities are permanent.

Underneath the encrustations are the divine qualities. We always are pure and the encrustations lie over that purity.

A Time for Us

Archangel Michael has been telling me for at least months and perhaps years that this is not a time for gurus, but I'm only starting to get it now.

It's a time for partners. Sacred partners, team partners, project partners.

It isn't a time for us to be teachers to one another per se. Not necessarily.

Yes, some are teachers by profession. Not saying they're not.

But speaking in terms of us more generally, it's a time to be friends, companions, helpmates.

Apparently, it isn't the time for "I." It's the time for "we," for us.

So often we see that, in the work we do, "I" is not that important, but the work is. Doing the work almost seems to await us getting out of the way.

I see people healing others and they tell me that the most important part of their work is to get themselves out of the way and be a pure conduit for the healing power of love.

I watch Linda Dillon channel and she repeatedly says, "Let me take a minute to get myself out of the way." Yes, perhaps let's all take a minute to get ourselves out of the way.

What a humble, modest role. But then anything else - arrogance, vanity, self-promotion - seems to inhibit the flow of love. Why? Well, I could make a hundred guesses, but what it appears to boil down to is that the One planned it that way.

I think God designed life so that we'd discover and uncover love. And he (she, it) further designed it, I believe, that, if we focus on our own self-importance, it impedes the flow of love.

We know he is love. What was it John said? "God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him." (1 John 4:16.)

We know that life is designed so that we come to know ourselves, which is the same as saying that we come to know him, which is the same as saying that we come to know love. So knowing love and knowing him are one and the same. And knowing love and knowing ourselves is also one and the same. A = B = C. A = Love. B = Him. C = Us.

If I want to dwell in love, I have to get myself out of the way. And if I want to play a role in what's up-coming, I also have to get "I" out of the way. The small self, the ego (not the inner child) needs to be left behind with the Third Dimension while the Self of all, it seems to me, opens the door to the New World and the New Way.
