*** The Delegations.... *****

Introduction

Our galactic sources tell us that they've given up waiting for our terrestrial governments, religions, or other world leaders to disclose the existence of our star family in countless ships around the planet.

Instead of waiting for them, our star family has decided on staging meetings or delegations, here on Earth, where the leaders of galactic societies can meet with the leading members of our society, celebrate, and broadcast the news of their existence and arrival to the world.

And so will Disclosure be accomplished on Planet Earth.

What will we find? We'll find that our star visitors are our ancestors and our future. They peopled this planet with the race of homo sapiens that ended up replacing Cro-Magnon humans. As SaLuSa explained in 2010:

“You do not exist by some freak of nature, and are not the result of natural selection, but purposefully and lovingly created to exist in your environment. You are a special species of Humans that have taken over from Cro-Magnon Man, and have been genetically engineered to allow for a speeding up in your evolution.

“That we would say has been particularly successful, and the proof lies in how many of you now stand in readiness for Ascension. On your part it is in fact a tremendous achievement, to have had lives during the darkest hours and to have risen up from them.” (1)

We'll find that our star family has saved us from annihilation many times - most obviously in preventing nuclear weapons from being exploded on the planet. But equally by the removal from the atmosphere of depleted uranium, described by physicists as a planet-killer and omnicidal. (2)

We don't ask ourselves where the Gulf of Mexico oil spill disappeared to. We assume that all chemtrails we see in the sky are activated, rather than neutralized. We believe that all the nuclear residue from Fukushima is still around.

In all three cases we don't know about - or even suspect - galactic efforts to neutralize and remove dangers to the planet and humanity.

It's time we met our star family and began a new era for humanity. Our sources tell us the delegations are underway so the baton has now been passed to us lightworkers to prepare for the society's response.

This book is a contribution to those preparations.

The Delegations are Underway, September 9, 2019

"The Delegations are Underway," September 9, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/09/09/the-delegations-are-underway/>

In Linda Dillon's Conscious Creating with the Mother class Sept. 7, 2019, the Divine Mother announced that "the delegations are already underway." (1)

In three sets of readings, the Company of Heaven have repeated that news.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, Sept. 6, 2019.

Archangel Michael: The delegations are underway and they are being kept quiet very purposefully because there are those upon the planet who truly wish and who declare that they wish to engage in war with space, with your star families who only come in peace, with a great deal of prosperity. (2)
[My emphasis.]

...

Steve: You mean that people have actually met? Galactics and terrestrials have actually met?

AAM: Yes.

Steve: Good, Lord. That's excellent!

AAM: These are being kept quiet simply because, well, primarily for the protection of the human beings that are engaged in this process.

So yes. Now, have the delegations been far and wide, as yet? No. But this is the beginning stage. Think of it as an introduction and a test drive even. So yes, it has begun.

---

The Value of Impatience:

Archangel Michael: Everybody... everybody... is impatient, dearest heart. There is a time and a place, as my beloved sister Gabrielle would say, where impatience is very valuable because what it does is it creates a situation of readiness ... whereby individuals – groups – are willing to jump hurdles in order to reach the finish line.

So yes, everything is in order. Everything is as it needs to be.

Rollout of the Delegations:

*Archangel Michael: The Delegations are – seen and unseen – already underway. ... There is an assumption that those who are part of the Delegations are merely lightworkers, and that is not so. In fact, a large number of them are physicists/astronomers/astrophysicists/politicians of the highest realm – and yes, those who have been kept under cover.

What is happening with these Delegations... it is already people who either know – or who have scientifically or spiritually known – that there is a connection with their Star Family. But it is to reach the broadest base possible... but yes, they are already underway.

Commander Plaed’or of UFOG: So yes, the work with the Delegations comes along nicely. Have there been a few hiccups? Yes, but that is always the case with such a big rollout. Has the plan changed? Not in the slightest.

‘The Event’:

Ellisianna: I also say the shift is at hand. We have repeatedly said – from the Mother to every single one of us – ‘the event’ is not a singular unfoldment. It is a series of undertakings, of revelations, of shifts in the fundamental functioning paradigm of how humans operate – and this is already underway. All the pieces are in place.

If you were to think of this as a combination... a very complicated combination lock – a very old-fashioned combination lock where the tumblers have need to align and there is a ‘step-click, step-click, step-click’ – you are at the point of the final unlocking. The pieces are in place, the tumblers are aligned, the unfoldment is at hand.

And that is in unfoldment. Yes, much of the political lies – which you have need to be very diligent and clear about. Do not be distracted, and simply hold the vision ... It is past time, but it is time.

The Historic Roots of the Delegations, September 9, 2019

"The Historic Roots of the Delegations," September 8, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/09/08/the-historic-roots-of-the-delegations/>

Here are two statements from 2010 and 2013 in which the Company of Heaven alerted us to the fact that our governments would probably not disclose and that a second option must be explored - what became known as the "delegations."

In the first from 2010, Matthew Ward discusses the broad outlines of what would later become the "delegations."

Matthew's Message, Sept. 11, 2010, at <https://www.matthewbooks.com>

Illuminati activists are trying to prevent official recognition of other civilizations' presence in every way, and from the earthquake in Haiti and last winter's uncommonly heavy snowfall in Washington DC to flooding in Pakistan and Hurricane Earl, their use of technology has achieved their dark purpose. ...

As for the televised announcement to your world, "They are here and they come in peace," no conclusions had been reached about what the program should include, and your leaders who were involved in the planning sessions several months ago have been occupied since then with matters of importance in their respective countries.

Therefore, some individuals who participated in those early meetings are talking about scrapping the program and, in its stead, a few small craft would land in safe areas around the globe.

The landings would be coordinated with colleagues on the ground so the greeting of "the extraterrestrials" by persons who are well-known to you can be filmed and simultaneously, or perhaps later, televised through arrangements with persons who are in positions to manage that.

There would be sufficient evidence that the visitors are indeed from other civilizations - peaceful civilizations! - so that any outcries of "Hoax!" or "Invaders!" from the dark ones would have no validity whatsoever among the populace.

Other introduction possibilities also are being discussed, and at this point, nothing has been decided.

In the second article, Adamu, in 2013, acknowledged that the galactics consider it unlikely that our governments would ever disclose.

---

“A Message from Adamu of the Monadic Entity of the Pleiadian Civilisation ~ Disclosure & Unity Consciousness,” May 2013, at <https://>

And so finally, when will disclosure occur? Let me say that it is vanishingly unlikely that your world governments will disclose. At root, the ones that wield the power are completely STS [service-to-self vs service-to-others].

And [for them] to tell the truth about their knowledge of and engagement with extraterrestrial intelligence is tantamount to admitting to all kinds of atrocities committed against humanity and a long-running game of lies and deception. And then, for their efforts, they would immediately lose all the power they so desperately crave as you realise what has really been going on.

If they disclose all, you will abandon all their games like money, politics and organised religion. You will give up on hatred of each other. You will ignore national, racial, social and religious boundaries. You will see each other for what you really are: one family of beings that is an integral part of a much greater universal family. They will lose everything they have worked so hard for and get nothing in return. So they simply won't do this.

The lie is sometimes told that they keep you from knowledge in order to keep you from panicking and harming yourselves. Well... STO [service-to-other] groups have staged a number of powerful demonstrations to prove that this is just another fabrication. It has been shown that humanity is very much robust enough to handle knowledge of and interaction with extra-terrestrial beings.

So the governments will not come clean. Some disclosure has happened amongst various world governments that have nothing much to lose from doing so. But the real government... the hidden ones behind the scenes... they are highly unlikely to show any of their cards.

Many of the events you know about where you were promised disclosure or where you were promised a great showing of ships were really a game that was being played out between the STO and STS to either force their hand or to bring your consciousness forward towards your own awakening.

You see, THIS, your awakening, is the only way true disclosure will happen. No worthy and wise government representative will appear on your television screen to tell you the truth. They have squandered all such opportunities. Indeed, as the age transitions, you will be able to disclose to yourself what you know to be true.

The transition will happen and you will choose. And then timelines will diverge. (1)

And then you will see what you know to be true. You will find yourself inhabiting a reality in which there is no question but that there are races from other places in the Universe who are able to interact with you. The quality of those engagements will depend on you and how you choose. What you awaken to...depends on what you are telling yourself about yourself now, while you dream.

Footnotes

(1) Adamu refers to what SaLuSa called the time of separation, which is already underway. Later he will say that three timelines have been created - one continuing Third Dimensionality; one ascending:

"Two timelines flow according to our choice to be self-responsible (SR) or other responsible (OR). ...

"Besides these two timelines...the SR and the OR ones...consciousness arose that at least one additional timeline must be created, because there's something very special happening on Earth right now.

"From the Matrix up, beings are awakening, but a very small number of them are awakening in a way that is "completely delightfully amazingly surprising. ...

"Those that are awakening in this way would be wasted on the SR or OR path. For those on the accelerated path, this would be a plodding, slow journey.

"So, a transcendent new level of reality needed to be opened up for those." (Suzi Maresca, "Notes on Adamu Speaks ~ Timelines... and the Dissolution of the illuminati!" August 13, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/08/13/notes-on-adamu-speaks-timelines-and-the-dissolution-of-the-illuminati/>.)

Here's SaLuSa in 2010 on the time of separation:

"If you can find balance and harmony in your life now, we would say that you are already living from a higher state of consciousness. Is it then no wonder that you feel different to many people around you, and find their ways no longer acceptable? It is a sign of the separation that is occurring at the present time, and it is a perfectly normal development. " (SaLuSa, May 31, 2010 at http://www.treeofthegoldenlight.com/First\_Contact/Channeled\_Messages\_by\_Mike\_Quinsey.htm.) [My emphasis.]

As Adamu says, not all who leave now are remaining within the Third/Fourth Dimension. In addition to the third timeline, many lightworkers who have completed their contracts may choose not to remain with Earth's civilization, and may return to the dimensions and planets they came from.

*** Historical Development.... *****

On Being Human

“On Being Human,” September 14, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/?p=303045>

The Adam Kadmon/Human template

To the people who are going to be delegates, may I share a few thoughts?

Thoughts on how the galactics experience terrestrials, in their own words.

If you agree, please fasten your seatbelts because we may hit a little turbulence.

Before I go there, can we establish the origin of the species we're talking about?

The species we call homo sapiens was apparently engineered by the galactics, who were probably helped by the celestial legions, including the Elohim. }

SaLuSa tells us:

"You do not exist by some freak of nature and are not the result of natural selection, but purposefully and lovingly created to exist in your environment.

"You are a special species of Humans that have taken over from Cro-Magnon Man, and have been genetically engineered to allow for a speeding up in your evolution. That we would say has been particularly successful and the proof lies in how many of you now stand in readiness for Ascension." (1)

So when we're called children of the stars, the name largely fits. Our star family are in fact our parents and ancestors and we're literally their children - as far as the physical form goes!

And now they've come to celebrate our graduation from Third Dimensionality. Matthew Ward says:

"Of the innumerable other civilizations in this universal family, many are advanced consciously, spiritually and technologically far beyond Earth's current population.

"Members of some of those civilizations are the ancestors of Earth's peoples, and they are assisting the populace and the planet in myriad ways—some are in spacecraft surrounding Earth; others are living among you. (2)

If we've established that the family is rejoining us after a very long time, then could we discuss some of the difficulties they may encounter in meeting with us?

These are examples of what the galactics actually say about our Third-Dimensional condition, forms, and beliefs.

The Arcturian Group tells us that "the human condition, with its worship of the intellect, is in actuality the bottom rung of a very high dimensional ladder." (3) Ahhhhl-right.

"Without being disrespectful to you," SaLuSa confides, "you are more like babes in arms - but within a few years you will have achieved full consciousness, something that is beyond your present understanding." (4)
Aha. Babes in arms. Hmmm....

"In some ways," he confessed, "you are amongst the least advanced life forms. But that is of course changing right now." (5) The least advanced, huh?

Hmmm.... Hard words to hear for some.

The Council of Nine explain what the difference in dimensionality calls for from those who come here to help us.

"Since we exist, live, and function in the Fifth Dimension and higher, it takes tremendous effort on our part to descend into the heavier and, might we also say, highly polluted atmosphere of your planet now.

"Each of us who does make short landings has to undergo a thorough cleansing process before we are allowed back on our mother ships where we reside, so as not to contaminate our own living quarters.

"We do not say these things to shame you, but to let you know that there remain some differences in our living environments that make it difficult for both sides to come together as one." (6)

Try to imagine the galactics' situation.

Michael and the Angels speaking through Goldenlight tell us that coming down to our vibratory level carries risk for our star family:

"[Humans] must raise their vibrational frequencies to a high enough level that they can resonate on the same frequency as these higher dimensional beings.

"It is too much of a risk for them to lower their vibration to yours... this is why you could never see them before." (7)

The risk to them might be a need for rest or convalescence or something similar after spending time with us.

Therefore we can predict that the people that the delegates meet with will have gone to great trouble to make themselves available to us. It may not be a pleasant experience for them, no matter how historic and joyful it may be for us.

The bright side is that our position at the bottom of the dimensional ladder makes our future unlimited. It's all up from here.

And, as Michael reminds us, this generation brought our full potentiality with us in this special lifetime:

"Every single being upon this planet at this time has brought the fullness, the totality of their soul's design to the planet. They did not leave anything behind.

"So you are well-equipped to take these steps of action, each of you in your own way." (8)

The bottom line for me is: I appreciate the price the galactics pay in coming to meet with us. I feel grateful that they'd be willing to pay that cost to work on our behalf. And I feel the need to be sensitive to their situation to minimize discomfort to them.

Ashian adds more detail:

Ashian: Physical meeting is slower and more reserved than you might imagine. We are family. This is true, but for us as well as for you, this will be a new experience. It will also bring feelings of physical overwhelm to our body systems as they are more finely calibrated than yours at this time. ...

When you come in contact with us, we pick up your emotional state, your thoughts, intentions, fears... it is not that we ‘read’ them. It is more that the whole of these thoughts etc carry a vibration that we can experience as heavy.

If this is combined with rough, physical movements or uninvited contact, the vibration becomes even heavier for us, especially among those of us who have not had a lot of exposure to humans.

Jennifer Crokaert: So are you saying: Move slowly, speak quietly, don’t touch?

A: Not in quite that way. That is also too coarse, too rough. We are saying, you see people move more respectfully and consciously when they are around dignitaries than the way they interact with their best friends. There is a difference in the quality of both sets of movements, although the intention – to interact with someone – is the same.

J: OK...

A: Let me put it like this, we will be able to stay with you for longer sessions with far greater ease, if we are not overloaded by rough actions and words. ## Blue Angel: Change is Imminent, July 14, 2019

"Blue Angel: Change is Imminent," July 14, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/07/14/blue-angel-change-is-imminent/>.

I'm happy that Blue Angel is keeping us up-to-date on the delegations and other expected changes.

There can be no doubt that events are moving forward with surprising speed. At a more esoteric level, channels for the galactics are being told about imminent contact, while David Wilcock is highlighting the approaching avalanche of change in the US with the opening of Epstein's sealed indictment.

Personally, I'm experiencing a heightened sense of expectancy, a sense of urgency: things are about to change. I have paid attention to this and have been actioning what I need to do.

Two days ago, I received confirmation from another lightworker on a similar path that I think would be uplifting to share with you.

This light worker and I have both received inner guidance on a location for a meeting and dates. Interestingly, the dates that are within a week of each other, but as we live in different parts of the world, the locations are very distant.

Before we get over-excited (is it possible not to be?!), these markers may be for contact on the inner realms before the physical contact begins.

We really don't know what will occur on these dates and in these locations. Indeed, it's wise that we too are kept in the dark, given the history with such events.

So, for now, it's prudent that s/he and I keep the specifics to the side, but rest assured that as and when something tangible in the inner or outer realms occurs, we'll report in.

Blue Angel Update 2, July 4, 2019

"Blue Angel Update 2," July 4, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/07/04/blue-angel-update-2/>

Billy Meier meets Semjase the Pleiadian: An early delegation

Blue Angel will be a member of one of the delegations, meeting the galactics at some early point in time.

I got the impression that I had passed another marker.

I was asking, rather than assuming, being respectful of the differences between us, and being aware that I bring a lot of human vibrational ‘garbage’ that can drain the Galactics’ energy.

The elder turned to me and signalled me to lift my arms, into a surrender position with my palms facing forward. He put his palms to mine and I felt the new energy flow through my physical body, especially down my legs.

We then entered a room, where I assumed there were only male Galactics, but I couldn’t make anyone out clearly. As I wondered where the women were, a woman wearing robes and a turban emerged from nowhere, with gleaming eyes that shone with the warmest welcome.

Then the vision ended. I am struck by how similar this process seems to be to Genii Townsend's visits to the Light City in Sedona.

Several days later, I'm still aware of this new feeling of light and spaciousness within that I have never had before.

Blue Angel: First Contact, June 23, 2019

“Blue Angel: First Contact,” June 23, 2019 at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/?p=301433>

Billy Meir had extensive contact with Pleaidians

It has only been four days since Linda's reading, and two noteworthy things have already happened.

I've been told to daydream, I need to be more, and I started to practice the two fingers to the heart salutation, along with a bow of the head.

Should I actually meet with galactics, I thought, I may be so overwhelmed with adrenaline, shock and emotion that I may forget, so I'm trying to make this salutation an automatic response.

This morning, I was sitting in front of my laptop, when I had the idea to practice the salutation.

Normally, when I do this, I see myself standing on what looks like a silvery white ramp leading to an opening of a galactic vehicle, where a tall, fair young galactic male greets me at the top of the ramp.

The image had no sooner appeared in my mind's eye when it suddenly bounced to an image of a much older male galactic, wearing what appeared to be long flowing robes, standing inside a room.

I found myself standing in front of him, acknowledging him with a bow and two fingers to the heart. He acknowledged me with solemn gravity; in fact, the entire atmosphere could only be described as one of spacious gravitas.

It lasted a minute at most, but the after-effects lasted much longer. When I'm practicing the salutation, I don't feel anything. This time, I was totally zoned out and I felt 'empty,' in a spacious way, inside.

When I checked this with my friend [N...], he confirmed that that this is how he feels after visits to the astral plane. He also suggested that there is a certain order to the process; first unconscious (sleep) meetings, followed by semi-conscious meetings (astral plane), and then physical meetings.

I'll keep you posted!

Please do, B.A.

Blue Angel and the Divine Mother on the Delegations: The Biggest Exchange is Wisdom, June 22, 2019

“Blue Angel and the Divine Mother on the Delegations: The Biggest Exchange is Wisdom,” June 22, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/?p=301428>

The Divine Mother is the active side of God

Blue Angel is a member of the delegations. She comes forward with words from the Divine Mother on that event.

We use a pseudonym to mask her identity for her own security.

Blue Angel: My other question was about disclosure. Like everybody, I'm looking forward to something that we can see and go 'Yes! We're moving forward', as opposed to the subtle, internal....

Divine Mother: And so are they, sweet one, so are they! Because for you, you say, ‘Well I haven’t heard from [your guide].’ It is like an old friend, right, that shows up after decades!

BA: [laughter]

DM: And says, ‘Hi, how are you? What’s new?!’

BA: Nothing! [laughter]

DM: And yet look at what has transpired. Both within your own life, but also within the collective awareness. It is no longer considered peculiar for people to have thoughts, or ideas, or beliefs that there is grand life far beyond the planet.

The star family, the star beings, the various forces that have gathered, have been waiting, some of them for thousands of years, so, yes, it has been quiet on both fronts.

But now the information, the delegations, the actual engagement piece is underway and there are those that have been chosen and selected, and self-selected, that are bringing forth the bridge, shall we put it that way, between the star families and the human collective.

These are not necessarily – in fact it is rare that these are – people in public office, or with public visibility, unless they have come to a place of inner peace and knowing that the purpose of these gatherings is not financial, and it is not personal aggrandizement; it is simply for the union to restart.

And it has been, when Atlantis was in full bloom, the visitations, the sharing of technology, of culture, of information, was commonplace. And that is the whole purpose; it is quite peculiar on the planet that you occupy, that there is discussion of nations, and economic zones, and trading and tariffs. You are simply a single trading unit, that has not come to full recognition of that!

And the trading, is given freely. It is the sharing of what you have. Are there exchanges? Yes, of course there are. But the biggest exchange is not related to finance. It is related to wisdom, and values, and intelligence, and things that bring peace rather than... friction and war.

So, this is about to – well, it has already started – and so this is underway, sweet one. It is not a matter of waiting 20 years. That is why [guide's name] has been back in touch. It is because it is time.

BA: Super. Thank you.

DM: You are welcome. You are a part of this, as you well know. And that will be disclosed to you, so when you receive the irresistible urge and message, you will heed it.

BA: Sounds very mysterious!

DM: It does not need to be mysterious, sweet one. It is no more mysterious than “I have to go to yoga class today.”

BA: Ah, ok!

DM: So, you will see and you will be in position exactly ... how and where and when you need to be.

BA: Ah, OK! Wonderful! Thank you.

DM: You are welcome. Do not limit yourself. Yes, we know we have suggested to thee this day to be concrete, but in the broader spectrum, beloved daughter, do not limit yourself and the scope of what is desirable and possible.

So, yes, while you, shall we say, till the garden, do not deny the potential that you can be picked up and positioned in order to participate in a grander unfoldment, and then brought right back to where you need to be.

Your potential is unlimited. You have not fully anchored that as yet.

BA: Wow! That's brilliant thank you.

DM: You are so loved. You are so cherished. You are so treasured, sweet one. Go with my love and go in peace.

Commander Ashian on One-to-One Meetings on the Ground by Jennifer Crokaert, June 18, 2019

“Commander Ashian on One-to-One Meetings on the Ground by Jennifer Crokaert,” June 18, 2019, at <https://jennifercrokaert.blogspot.com/2019/06/normal-0-false-false-false-en-gb-x-none.html>

Jennifer: Hi, Ashian! There's a lot being said about delegations and imminent viewings, meetings and all sorts of exciting things! I wondered if you wished to say anything on the subject.

Ashian: Hello, dear heart! We are delighted to align with you this day. Yes, there is an enormous amount of energy going into the disclosure project at present and it is creating excitement both on planet and off planet.

Now let me share with you some of the details. The disclosure ... well, it is not a disclosure to everyone; it is more of an introduction, face to face, for many of you. This will occur in a multi-faceted way.

There are millions of ships here. Some are the size of planets, and some are very much smaller. Some will coordinate larger scale, formal introductions and some will be much ... softer, gentler... one-to-one meetings, on the ground, on your ground, so that you may see us and interact with us and understand that we are, in so many ways, just like you.

It is perhaps the latter that is most interesting to you, because this is how the vast majority of the populace will have their first experiences with us. Not through the more formalised, 'high level' delegations, but by being in the 'right place at the right time'.

In this way, many, many of you will be meeting with many, many of us. This will, inevitably, be caught on camera by others and soon there will be a whole spate of videos showing humans and galactics meeting peacefully, lovingly and joyfully.

This will happen so quickly, that it will be impossible to deny the truth of it and claim that they are hoax videos. Now, by quickly, I don't mean in a few hours! It will start slowly enough, and then build up speed.

We are very, very close to the point where the resonance of humanity matches the welcome resonance, the vibrational level where humanity's light quotient is so high it assures us of a welcome and not a gun.

J: Wow! That's rather a lot more than I was suspecting you would say!

Ashian: Sometimes we can surprise you!

J: So I know you measure vibration not time, but...!

A: No! I would not even dare! What I would say is that right now, every good thought counts. Every kind deed counts. Every wrong forgiven counts.

These are subtle times, when you have enormous power and all action through the light has a magnified impact. By owning and using this power – power with – you are bringing that vibration closer moment by moment.

J: So our thoughts, actions and intentions count?

A: Now more than ever. We leave you with our love. We are never far from you, indeed you might be surprised to know just how close we are to you all, so never fear that you are alone.

J: Thank you. Is there anything you want to add in conclusion?

A: We are done! This is enough to digest in this moment!

Archangel Michael on the Delegations, June 16, 2019

In addition to what the Lord Arcturus conveyed about the delegations, (1) Archangel Michael also commented in the same reading.

He discussed the need for lightworkers who sensed they were involved to watch for signs or feelings and follow what they're guided to do.

Steve: What update, above and beyond what Lord Arcturus said, can you give us on the delegations, Lord?

Archangel Michael: Everything is in place. Now the final, as you would put it, the final button or the final go is the various individuals that are being collected and contacted to meet with these delegations.

But in terms of all the organization - which has been monumental - with the various fleets, that is all in place.

And there is great excitement and anticipation because it has been a very long time in coming. And when you think of your star family, they have been waiting for thousands of years so there is a great deal of excitement. Just let us put it that way.

They are not all simultaneous meetings. There will be a variety and a number of various meetings that are taking place with various groups around the globe. And so those people -the human beings we are talking about or the hybrids - are being put in position and basically there is already a knowing in the individuals. There has been a subtle knowing in those individuals for most of their lives, that they were potentially on deck to do work with the star beings.

Steve: So EBSS is an example of that lifelong knowing. Is that correct?

AAM: Correct. Now, what is being activated is more of an immediate sense that perhaps not the detail of what is coming but a sense of impending action.

The feeling (and these are sensitive people) but the sense of impending phone call, for example.

“I have to stay home this afternoon because I’m getting a phone call. No, I don’t know who’s calling or what time but I do know I have to stay home.”

Or, “I am waiting for a message.” Or, “I am being told to go to this vortex and simply be there and I don’t know why but the impetus to do this is so strong, I have to obey.”

That is what is being activated, not implanted. It’s already there. But activated at this time.

Steve: Is this being organized according to language group?... Like a delegation for Russia, a delegation for China... That kind of thing?

AAM: Oh! You are meaning human language groups! Yes, it is primarily by language groups or cultural groups. And some of the first delegations will be in places where there is not active, shall we say, artillery or bombs going off.

Steve: Anything more you want to say about that?

AAM: The message would be to those individuals that are feeling that they have been put on high alert, that is not simply their imagination. For them to truly pay attention and to follow what they are feeling is the guidance to proceed.

Steve: I assume at least some of these people will be currency holders and they might be saying to themselves, “Oh my gosh, what happens if the Reval happens and I’m on a delegation somewhere. It has to be done in three days and I didn’t even hear about it.” What would you say to them?

AAM: I would say your most important mission is to be part of the delegation and if you are hesitating and thinking that you will not be generously rewarded, then you are not perfect for this delegation.

Steve: You bet.

The Lord Arcturus on the Delegations, June 13, 2019

“The Lord Arcturus on the Delegations,” at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/06/13/the-lord-arcturus-on-the-delegations/>; from the Lord Arcturus in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, June 12, 2019.

Lord Arcturus Credit: Kaspar, 2006

Most of us have dual natures. We probably don't think about it much, but we do.

We're both angelics and galactics. We have both a life as an angel and a life on the Pleiades, Sirius, Andromeda, or Arcturus.

As an angelic, I serve Archangel Michael. As a galactic, I'm from Arcturus and serve the Lord Arcturus - as a communicator.

I spoke to him through Linda Dillon for the first time recently.

I wanted to post his discussion of wanting starseed Gaians to be Gaians, rather than starseeds and of their excitement about the delegations, which are already underway.

Lord Arcturus: Gaians need to examine themselves. Yes, there is great help and [there are] many, many missions (1) from around the omniverse there (2) to assist [you] at this time.

Not only to assist, but then to participate, on planet and off, with humans, with Gaians.

But the focus for humans right now needs to be on themselves because they ... now I do not mean this in a judgmental way; I say this as a kindred spirit to my brother with clear thinking, critical thinking ... humans are easily distracted.

And very often, even with the best of intentions, they can get distracted with thinking about off-planet things so that they deny their Gaian self in favor of saying, "I am Pleiadian" or "I am Arcturian" or "I am Hussian" when the entire purpose of their life is to be Gaian.

So we don't want to distract.

Steve: Aha. It's kind of a mixed thing in the sense that we do want to keep people informed of news of the delegations, etc.

A: Absolutely.

And there is great excitement, not only on Earth, but throughout the galaxy about the delegations, let me be very clear about that.

But understand what we say: The delegations are coming to you. We didn't invite you and give you the science and technology - which is actually very simple - to come and visit us.

So again all the focus is on YOU! We are coming to you! We are coming to your house!

We are not saying that we want you to be insular. Not insular in the slightest. We most certainly don't want you to be xenophobic. But we want it to be clear. Where the party is being held, where the celebration is being held is upon Gaia because THIS, this grand event, this unfoldment of the Mother's Plan is on your planet.

It is spectacular and it has been awaited for so long.

So, yes, that is what I mean insofar as we want Gaians to pay attention to not only currently what is going on, which is very disruptive, but what is possible to be achieved on this planet of light, on this planet of love.

It is extraordinarily exciting.

Steve: Will this happen soon?

A: The delegations are already underway. You will be hearing about them shortly.

I've found additional references to the work of the delegations.

When they happen, the delegations will constitute "First Contact" and "Disclosure."

Let me post an updated summary.

"Zalishia of the Pleiades: RV and Disclosure Tied; Disclosure by a 'Synod' of Leaders," February 26, 2017, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/02/26/zalishia-pleiades-rv-disclosure-tied-disclosure-synod-leaders/> . Thanks to Earthbound Star Soul (EBSS).

---

The current lay of the land, shall we say, is that it will be a group Disclosure. It will be a number of world leaders, both former politicians, but also people who are in positions of power – and we mean financial power, political power, institutional power – will come together in what used to be called a synod (a noun / def./ An assembly of the clergy and sometimes also the laity in a diocese or other division of a particular church).

They will come together to make some very public decrees – or disclosures – as you would call them. And this is very likely to happen in the next couple of months. This plan has been altered and adjusted many times, as you well know.

But, part of the going forth in a unified manner is not only because this is the way of Nova Earth; it is the new paradigm. But it is also more difficult to those who have, shall we say, vested interests in maintaining the old myths, when several who have great credibility come together. So, they can't say 'So-and-So is delusional, or So-and-So is revealing state secrets, or so and so is out of his mind' because it will be a number of people – ALL who are well respected.

Yes, you have said, "Can you not hurry it along?" And believe you me, we say that 20 million times a day – every day! [Laughter] But we won't override [your free will] because – and we are preparing right now to come in peace, as the Ambassadors of Peace – then we are credible. Then we are believable. Then what we come and offer is seen in the truth, not in the ways of being despots or dictators, but truly as a set of helping hands and a kind and loving heart.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with EBSS through Linda Dillon, January 2019, at <https://counciloflove.com/2019/01/archangel-michael-victory-is-at-hand/>.

It cannot be simply the lightbearers who are holding the light, and shining the light, and beaming the light, and being the light – it cannot simply be them doing all the heavy lifting for the entire planet to go forward.

Now, we are not saying that those recalcitrants will fully embrace the light. Even those who have been in strict containment continue to argue and fight! However, when they reach the point of exhaustion where they are fed up, that is victory – and that, my beloved friend, my brother, is what is at hand!

And you are being assisted not only by the Mother's legions but by your Star Family, increasingly apparent and present – and will be very clearly present upon the planet very quickly – not simply as boots on the ground but in the full splendour of a delegation.

You are a commander. You are an emissary. You are an ambassador and that is why you have come to this life in this form at this time, as [Bright Star].

Because it is time for the Planet of Love to emerge and in so doing, to take your place amongst the Intergalactics and Galactics.

In the past, and we mean this literally, there has been such fear of your star family that they have kept their shields up and stayed at arm's length. Also they do not fully wish to engage in a warring planet because they come in peace.

It is inconceivable to them because political structures, shall we say nation-based, financially-based interests on the planet, have been so entrenched in control and greed and the usurping of authority. The delegations do not come to interact with power mongers.

They come to engage with you and through you, by the way, with emissaries that understand the importance of neutrality.

Cdr Plaed'or in "Belle' Anna & Plaed'or: Readiness of the Human Race to Embrace Star Family," Counciloflove.com, April 2019, <https://>

What I come to say to you this day isn't about "oh, you only have 12 more decades to wait" [chuckling] – quite the contrary!

The readiness, both consciously and unconsciously and in the heart-mind, shall we say, the balance/activation that is there to truly engage with the Star Family – not simply for us to be saviours because we don't want to be seen that way either – but there is a readiness, a willingness, to engage with us as equals.

We do not want to engage in any kind of hierarchical configuration. That is why, in terms of the, shall we say, the Delegations, that the Plan is not to go through hierarchical governments or governance where the power plays and the abuse of authority has been rampant.

That is why we have selected people on planet who have the balance and the authority and the wisdom – and the heart, the love – to truly work with us on an equal footing.

Perhaps not an equal footing of knowledge – and when I say 'knowledge' I mean let us just put it in the basket of science, etc. – but it is the heart knowledge, it is the heart willingness, it is the heart openness.

And so this has actually been very clearly lined up not for some distant future but for the very, very, very near future. ...

So yes, we will be together sooner than later. And the details, shall we say, of the official welcoming will be made available shortly. ...

Oh no, beloved one. [Laughing] We have rounded up the human beings and you are in deep love and friendship. You may not know all who are engaged in the Delegation – and Delegations, by the way – but even those you don't know at the moment, when you meet them you will say, "Oh, I have known you forever."

The Divine Mother in "Enter the Delegations – Part 2/3," May 5, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/05/05/enter-the-delegations-part-2-3/>.

Divine Mother: I am not talking about what you think of as Disclosure. I am talking about the arrival, the obvious arrival, and already the prearranged selection of those that are interfacing with your star family. ...

There are simply those that have selected long ago as part of their soul journey and their soul mission to be part of these groupings, shall we call them, to interface with those who are also responsible for the, shall we call it, official presence of your star families upon the planet. ...

It is not a matter of volunteering for a mission or a cruise. It is those who have already been contacted and selected and are well aware of their upcoming assignments. ...

It is about the coming in peace, in harmony, in [the] quietude of small delegations, coming to the planet to make themselves known in an official way.

Steve: Official?

DM: As you well know, there have been many, many boots on the ground or different species on the ground for a long time. And so what is occurring is that this is a more formal arrangement and it is not being done through what would you think of as government or official channels. ...

The reason that government, and I speak of pretty much all the realms, the reason that they are not the channel is because of their desire for interference, their desire for control and do not underestimate the ability, certainly of citizens, yes, but also of your star family.

[They have the] ability to cloak various meetings until it is too late. Oh, governments will attempt to exert their influence and power and control but that is not the agenda. And that is why in many ways that this meeting, various meetings, have been so long in coming. ... It is to be on planet. So not a ship hovering 20 feet above.... On planet.

Divine Mother: No, we are not.

"Adamu: Unlikely Your Governments will Disclose," May 7, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/?p=300707>. Thanks to Mikhail for bringing Adamu's message to my attention.

Let me say that it is vanishingly unlikely that your world governments will disclose. At root, the ones that wield the power are completely STS [service to self]. And to tell the truth about their knowledge of and engagement with extra-terrestrial intelligence is tantamount to admitting to all kinds of atrocities committed against humanity and a long-running game of lies and deception. And then, for their efforts, they would immediately lose all the power they so desperately crave as you realize what has really been going on.

Ashian: There are many events about to 'kick off' in your dimension, disclosure is about to come in some dramatic, though not fear-inducing ways. There have been well-respected people from your planet who have already met with delegations and the preliminaries are all in place for the public announcement of this fact.

It is true that this is being forestalled by those reluctant to release power, but it will and must happen, and within a short time frame, as the required vibratory markers have been met.

Jennifer Crockaert: Well that sounds exciting! Any names? Is X among them?

A: Yes, but he is just one of many, from many different spheres of life, including people who are unknown to the public who will serve as local liaison officers, so to speak, answering questions in their communities so that this is not a moment 'out there', but something that is real and tangible across the entirety of sweetest Gaia.

J: Could they not be targeted?

A: You may be assured that if they are doing this job, they have an enormous amount of protection!

Through Jennifer Crokaert, May 21, 2019, jennifercrokaert.blogspot.com

Ashian: Greetings Jennifer, we have been awaiting contact and are very glad that you have given into the nudgings we have offered you.

Jennifer: It was hard to avoid them!

A: 😊

J: Your last channel has been really well received and left people with many more questions, but I feel that you really wish to discuss protocols, for want of a better word, related to meeting with Galactics.

A: Yes, this is such. We are aware that there is an increase in the amount of interest in the imminent arrivals of our delegations – and we stress that this is the public arrival, for the arrivals have been happening behind the scenes for some six months on this new footing.

J: ‘New footing’?

A: 6-9 months ago (you remember you work in time and we work in vibration and frequency) there was an agreement made that a turning point had been reached: the vibration had, for the very first time, tipped one of the ‘indicator levels’.

Let us explain it like this, there is not a single vibration level that marks ‘the beginning’, or even ‘the end’; there are a series of vibrations points that indicate spiritual expansion and willingness into spiritual maturity, where one becomes able to acknowledge the innate divine and your Galactic brothers and sisters.

You have similar markers; when someone turns 18 it is sign they are maturing, but you all understand that there is more wisdom yet to be gained. Similarly, 30, 40, 50 years and so on, all mark points in your life where you have amassed a collection of experiences and, ideally, developed wisdom and compassion from them.

It is similar in the spiritual realm, but we are looking at light frequencies, rather than years. In this way, your children and grandchildren are often reaching the frequency markers far quicker than you are, for a variety of reasons we would not go into now, as it would deflect from our current focus.

J: I think you've already provided a lot of interesting information!

A: Let us proceed, dearest heart... It will soon be the case that the delegations will be more visible and more open. They will be more accessible to everyone, not just those in the assigned Gaian Delegation. And while there is great enthusiasm about meeting you, we would delicately suggest the need for delicacy in our initial meetings. Let us explain further...

Life on Gaia has been hard, and you have become used to 'the pushing and shoving' that is involved in your lives, for example on transport at rush hour, entering and leaving concerts, sporting events, schools, factories... there is much thoughtless physical contact that is frequently rough and discomforting in your physical lives.

This is not the case for the Galactics. We are exceptionally aware of the physical, emotional, mental and psychic space of each other. Many of us only converse telepathically, so we are honour-bound to respect each other's space, to seek permission – through the use of a vibrational message that is the equivalent of your 'hello, are you willing to interact in this now' – we must be invited before we extend into the space of another.

It is not that we do not enjoy physical contact, we very much do. However it is of a very different vibration than the thoughtless physical interactions on your planet.

J: Yes, that all makes sense now that you say it. So, what does this mean for approaching you?

A: It means that physical meeting is slower and more reserved than you might imagine. We are family. This is true, but for us as well as for you, this will be a new experience. It will also bring feelings of physical overwhelm to our body systems as they are more finely calibrated than yours at this time.

When you come in contact with us, we pick up your emotional state, your thoughts, intentions, fears... it is not that we ‘read’ them. It is more that the whole of these thoughts etc carry a vibration that we can experience as heavy.

If this is combined with rough, physical movements or uninvited contact, the vibration becomes even heavier for us, especially among those of us who have not had a lot of exposure to humans.

J: So are you saying: Move slowly, speak quietly, don’t touch?

A: Not in quite that way. That is also too coarse, too rough. We are saying, you see people move more respectfully and consciously when they are around dignitaries than the way they interact with their best friends. There is a difference in the quality of both sets of movements, although the intention – to interact with someone – is the same.

J: OK...

A: Let me put it like this, we will be able to stay with you for longer sessions with far greater ease, if we are not overloaded by rough actions and words.

J: That makes sense. There’s something you are wanting to add...

A: Yes, thank you. We would like to state that only those beings who have worked on developing their vibration, their light quotient – whether consciously or unconsciously – will be of a vibration where we can interact together. Those who have not yet reached that level of spiritual maturity will either have no interest in meeting us or be hostile to meeting us. Either way, they will not be entering into our fields.

J: Is shaking hands acceptable?

A: It would be better a small bow of the head, with a right hand raised to the heart.* Let us begin with gentle mutual respect, as familiarity increases, this will evolve rapidly.

J: What if we get it wrong? What if someone does something wrong in the heat of the moment?

A: I do not wish to be like a school dragon! We sense your intentions, and where this is a genuine mistake, there is no offence taken at all.

We are looking forward to the meetings immensely and we do not wish to overwhelm you with instructions, but rather to explain to you how we interact between ourselves, so that you may understand us better. In this manner, all sides are preparing for good first encounters that leave all of us feeling energised and excited to meet again.

J: Thank you so much Ashian.

*This is the image I saw in my mind's eye, but it may have been two fingers to the heart. I believe it to be real, but I cannot guarantee it isn't my imagination filling in a blank!

Jennifer Crockaert

Beloved emissaries of light, my brothers and sisters, this is Ashian.

The colours have moved through the spectrum from muddy, sludgy red at the fall of humanity in this cycle through orange, yellow, green, blue and now, now you are vibrating at the outer edges of violet and indigo, just at the point where you will bounce into pure white light, expanding in an instant into every colour, encompassing all that you are and knowing that to be your truth.

My brothers and sisters, you stand, like a symphony orchestra – well, they sit, but you understand my point! – at the moment of poise before the greatest performance of their lifetimes.

It has not been billed as their greatest performance, because in truth there is never a certainty about which performance will be The Greatest.

Before they begin, they feel only the excitement and apprehension of a diver, in the infinitesimal space between the decision to move and the actual movement itself.

You are that close, mere heartbeats away, from the greatest changes you have hoped to see on your planet, changes that you have worked so determinedly, so committedly to manifest.

Even when you have felt defeated, exhausted and battered by the path of being sensitive souls in societies that are hard and aggressive, you have continued to shine your light, you have continued to have compassion, you have continued to be warriors of light.

Perhaps there may be a better term, wielders of light... for you have used light with the artistry and skill of mastery. You have fallen down, but you have got up and served again.

Rejoice now! Be sure to turn your compassion inwards, to be gentle to yourself now, for in the final moments, on the galactic 'eve' of great changes: you are our heroes.

There is no need to push harder, for that requires effort. What is required is the release of effort, the flow of light that emerges from joy and spontaneity. That is the highest service you can perform.

These are the moments before the summit is reached. While you must still continue to walk forwards, do so with a light heart, with happiness humming in your ears. The quest of the ages is at an end.

Jennifer: Ashain, I'm really grateful for you coming through, but in all honesty, I don't feel that this adds anything new, it's just the same old, 'keep on going' message.

Ashain: Sweetest sister, we are delighted to converse directly. How may we be of service?

J: Well, 'moments away' is very close but very vague. I know not to ask for dates, but something about the nature of the events to expect might be helpful.

A: There are many events about to 'kick off' in your dimension, disclosure is about to come in some dramatic, though not fear-inducing ways. There have been well respected people from your planet who have already met with delegations and the preliminaries are all in place for the public announcement of this fact.

It is true that this is being forestalled by those reluctant to release power, but it will and must happen, and within a short time frame, as the required vibratory markers have been met.

J: Well that sounds exciting! Any names: is X among them?

A: Yes, but he is just one of many, from many different spheres of life, including people who are unknown to the public who will serve as local liaison officers, so to speak, answering questions in their communities so that this is not a moment 'out there', but something that is real and tangible across the entirety of sweetest Gaia.

J: Could they not be targeted?

A: You may be assured that if they are doing this job, they have an enormous amount of protection!

In tandem with this, alongside this, there is to be, coinciding, some great changes in society that will remove the illusion of goodness from those have power for bad purposes. The leverage to manipulate is about to dissolve without them fully realising that their moment has passed.

J: So is that accountability?

A: Yes. When the boards are being swept clean, then changes such as the revaluation of currency can be rolled out, this further increases the vibration bringing the start of the heart opening event much closer, in both vibration and time.

So all is in readiness. We are in readiness and great excitement, for it has already been for us, as there is no time, so we have felt what you will experience and I can assure you that it will have been worth everything.

J: Thank you for this. It's very heartening.

A: it is our pleasure, we are in your service, for that is what brings us greatest joy.

J: Thank you

Evidence of Delegations Mounts, May 8, 2019

“Evidence of Delegations Mounts,” May 8, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/05/08/evidence-of-delegations-mounts/>

Semjase the Pleiadian, Billy Meier and a beamship: an early “delegation”

I’m finding more and more evidence related to the use of "delegations" as the means to introduce our Star Family and Friends to Gaians.

Up till now, we've all been waiting for a government or some official to make the announcement of our star family's presence.

However as long ago as 2013, Adamu warned us that the governments of the world would not release the news of the galactic presence. They could not afford to disclose it, he said:

"Let me say that it is vanishingly unlikely that your world governments will disclose. At root, the ones that wield the power are completely STS [service to self]. And to tell the truth about their knowledge of and engagement with extra-terrestrial intelligence is tantamount to admitting to all kinds of atrocities committed against humanity and a long-running game of lies and deception. And then, for their efforts, they would immediately lose all the power they so desperately crave as you realise what has really been going on." (1)

Checkmate. Game over.

We've already heard from the Divine Mother (2) and Cdr. Plead'or (3) on the plan to use delegations to get around the persistent governmental embargo of the truth.

Now I'm reminded that Earthbound Star Soul (EBSS), whom I've known for almost as long as I've published the blog (or so it seems), and Bright Star both received messages, in January of this year, which raised the subject of delegations. In one, Archangel Michael said to EBSS:

"You are being assisted not only by the Mother's legions but by your Star Family, increasingly apparent and present, [who] will be very clearly present upon the planet very quickly – not simply as boots on the ground but in the full splendour of a delegation." (4)

Very clearly stated. Expect "the full splendour of a delegation."

The three - EBSS, Zentar and Zalishia - are a team working with Archangel Michael. In his message to EBSS in December 2018, Zentar had this to say:

"You are exuberant in your very nature. It is the truth and the construct of who you are. And look where it got you: on planet, ready to welcome your star family and friends! ...

"We won't override because then – and we are preparing right now to come in peace, as the Ambassadors of Peace – then we are credible, then we are believable. Then what we come and offer is seen in the truth, not in the ways of being despots or dictators, but truly as a set of helping hands and a kind and loving heart. ...

"You are our ambassador – you know this – and in that, you have need to know that much is already underway in terms of our not only actual presence, because you know full well that there are many boots on the ground ... but it is the recognition of a formal declaration that you as human beings, as Gaians, are not alone, and the recognition and the welcome to us, as we come in peace." (5)

So here is the full intention of the meeting: "A formal declaration that you as human beings, as Gaians, are not alone, and the recognition and the welcome to us, as we come in peace." And EBSS, a terrestrial Gaian, is a part of it.

Nor is EBSS the only person who's been named as an ambassador to the delegations. Bright Star was as well. His discussion occurred around the same time as EBSS's. When I read it at the time, the full importance of the message did not hit me.

In January of 2019, the Divine Mother named Bright Star as an ambassador.

"You are a commander. You are an emissary. You are an ambassador and that is why you have come to this life in this form at this time, as [Bright Star].

"Because it is time for the Planet of Love to emerge and in so doing, to take your place amongst the Intergalactics and Galactics." (6)

The "delegations," which word she uses below, will not meet with "power mongers."

"In the past, and we mean this literally, there has been such fear of your star family that they have kept their shields up and stayed at arm's length. Also they do not fully wish to engage in a warring planet because they come in peace.

"It is inconceivable to them because political structures, shall we say nation-based, financially-based interests on the planet, have been so entrenched in control and greed and the usurping of authority. The delegations do not come to interact with power mongers.

"They come to engage with you and through you, by the way, with emissaries that understand the importance of neutrality." (7)

So the Company of Heaven is repeating a message to us to expect the arrival of an off-planet delegation to meet with an on-planet delegation in a cloaked setting. Following meetings, there would be a joint declaration in which the Gaians acknowledged the existence of our star family and declared their belief that they come in peace.

It seems quite clear to me, given the Mother's discussion of the subject in my own reading of April 30, 2019, (8) that we may be looking at the launch of a world-changing initiative. And it's equally clear that the Company of Heaven wants prudent and measured reportage of the event.

Anyone who's ever predicted a date up till this present moment has been wrong. Anyone and everyone. I won't discuss dates, myself. "It's in the works."

Hopefully First Contact will result in more direct and lengthier conversations with the galactics and celestials. Right now the discussions are time-limited and no opportunity presents itself for clarification. (9) It'd be welcome to pursue some of the questions we all have at greater length.

World history (10) is being made, as we speak, and our collective job is to get the word out and reassure anyone for whom news of the events creates discomfort.

(10) Given that our Ascension, which is mass and physical, has never been done before, universal history is probably being made by events on Gaia.

Adamu: Unlikely Your Governments will Disclose, May 7, 2019

“Adamu: Unlikely Your Governments will Disclose,” May 7, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/05/07/adamu-unlikely-your-governments-will-disclose/>

Steven Spielberg's idea of delegations (Close Encounters of the Third Kind)

Thanks to Mikhail for bringing to me a message from Adamu of the Pleiades, in which he asserted that we shouldn't expect Disclosure from our governments. That having been said, it's left up to us to disclose. Enter the Delegations.

Zingdad channels Adamu:

And so finally. When will disclosure occur? Let me say that it is vanishingly unlikely that your world governments will disclose. At root, the ones that wield the power are completely STS. And to tell the truth about their knowledge of and engagement with extra-terrestrial intelligence is tantamount to admitting to all kinds of atrocities committed against humanity and a long-running game of lies and deception. And then, for their efforts, they would immediately lose all the power they so desperately crave as you realise what has really been going on.

If they disclose all, you will abandon all their games like money, politics and organised religion. You will give up on hatred of each other. You will ignore national, racial, social and religious boundaries. You will see each other for what you really are: one family of beings that is an integral part of a much greater universal family. They will lose everything they have worked so hard for and get nothing in return. So they simply won't do this.

The lie is sometimes told that they keep you from knowledge in order to keep you from panicking and harming yourselves. Well... STO groups have staged a number of powerful demonstrations to prove that this is just another fabrication. It has been shown that humanity is very much robust enough to handle knowledge of and interaction with extra-terrestrial beings.

So the governments will not come clean. Some disclosure has happened amongst various world governments that have nothing much to lose from doing so. But the real government... the hidden ones behind the scenes... they are highly unlikely to show any of their cards. Many of the events you know about where you were promised disclosure or where you were promised a great showing of ships were really a game that was being played out between the STO and STS to either force their hand or to bring your consciousness forward towards your own awakening.

You see THIS, your awakening, is the only way true disclosure will happen. No worthy and wise government representative will appear on your television screen to tell you the truth. They have squandered all such opportunities. Indeed, as the age transitions, you will be able to disclose to yourself what you know to be true.

The transition will happen and you will choose. And then timelines will diverge.

And then you will see what you know to be true. You will find yourself inhabiting a reality in which there is no question but that there are races from other places in the Universe who are able to interact with you. The quality of those engagements will depend on you and how you choose. What you awaken to...depends on what you are telling yourself about yourself now, while you dream.

Enter the Delegations – Part 1/3, May 4, 2019

“Enter the Delegations – Part 1/3,” May 4, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/05/04/enter-the-delegations-part-1-3/>

From two sources (a galactic commander and the Divine Mother), the Company of Heaven has released word of an initiative that the galactics will be taking, which they're calling "the Delegations."

It'll take two more posts to convey entirely what's been discussed.

Rather than going through government, "where the power plays and the abuse of authority have been rampant," the galactics will be meeting on Earth with selected delegations of terrestrials.

These will then become ambassadors or intermediaries for the galactic presence.

The delegations have been or are going to be very carefully decided. It isn't a matter of volunteering.

It was first announced by Commander Plaed'or of UFOG (United Forces of the Outer Galaxies) in a reading with an anonymous lightworker through Linda Dillon. In this first part of the series, let me report what he said; then go to the Divine Mother:

---

Excerpt from "Belle' Anna & Plaed'or: Readiness of the Human Race to Embrace Star Family," Council of Love.com, undated, at <https://counciloflove.com/2019/04/readiness-of-the-human-race-to-embrace-star-family/>.

---

We do not want to engage in any kind of hierarchical configuration. That is why, in terms of shall we say, the Delegations, that the Plan is not to go through hierarchical governments or governance where the power plays and the abuse of authority has been rampant.

That is why we have selected people on planet who have the balance and the authority and the wisdom – and the heart, the love – to truly work with us on an equal footing. Perhaps not an equal footing of knowledge – and when I say ‘knowledge’ I mean let us just put it in the basket of science, etc. – but it is the heart knowledge, it is the heart willingness, it is the heart openness.

And so this has actually been very clearly lined up not for some distant future but for the very, very, very near future.

Now I am not wanting to tread and give way to the [chuckling] ... classified information, shall we say, from the Intergalactic Council. The reason that I am speaking of this is that even as I am talking to you – you are an enormous filter and transmitter – so as I am speaking to you, it is also being transmitted out to the entire planet saying that we are ready.

Let's listen tomorrow to what the Divine Mother and Archangel Michael told me further on the subject.

The Mother proposes to hold gatherings where delegations of terrestrial lightworkers will meet with our star family in cloaked settings on Earth.

They are then expected to act as ambassadors or intermediaries between the galactics and terrestrials. The government is not expected to cooperate and so the galactics are going directly to the people of Earth.

The Divine Mother in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, April 30, 2019.

---

Divine Mother: Make no mistake, Sweet One, Love will win because that has been my Plan always. So your real question is, “How are we advancing?” And what I am saying is that individual Ascension is and has been happening for some time in terms of the quantum collective leap.

In your terminology, you are almost there.

And this is being triggered by a number of external events as well, such as the imminent arrival of your star family.

Steve: Mother, you say “imminent.” Are you saying that Disclosure is going to be happening very, very soon?

DM: No, I am not talking about what you think of as Disclosure. I am talking about the arrival, the obvious arrival, and already the prearranged selection of those that are interfacing with your star family.

Steve: Are these the “delegations” that Commander Plead’or talked about?

DM: That is correct.

Steve: I’d like to communicate to our readers about this idea of delegations. Can you tell us a little bit more about it please?

DM: There are simply those that have selected long ago as part of their soul journey and their soul mission to be part of these groupings, shall we call them, to interface with those who are also responsible for the, shall we call it, an official presence of your star families upon the planet.

Now those that have [stepped forth] and are stepping forth are also those that have been true to their missions. There have been many in this large collective that, prior to arrival on planet, had said, “I wish to be part of that.”

But they have either gone to sleep and chosen to remain asleep or they have chosen alternative pathways. But there are those that are growingly aware of their purpose to engage. You would think of it as intermediaries between ... Well, it would be silly but we will call them “new arrivals” (1) and the human collective.

Steve: I know that a lot of people will be saying, probably even writing into me saying, “How can I be a part of these delegations?” But you’re saying, “No, no, no it’s part of their soul contract.”

DM: That is correct. It is not a matter volunteering for a mission or a cruise. It is those who have already been contacted and selected and are well aware of their upcoming assignments.

Steve: Is there anything else you can tell our readers about this whole thing? How is it to take place? How will somebody suddenly find themselves among the Galactics? Will they beam us up or...?

DM: No, no, no! It is not about being beamed up, Sweet One. That has been the pattern for a long time. Speak to this channel, she knows.

But no, it is about the other direction. It is about the coming in peace, in harmony, in [the] quietude of small delegations, coming to the planet to make themselves known in an official way.

Steve: Official?

DM: Because as you well know, there have been many, many boots on the ground or different species on the ground for a long time. And so what is occurring is that this is a more formal arrangement and it is not being done through what would you think of as government or official channels.

There will be some people, that you think of as officials, that will be part of it. Again, long since previously selected and self-selected, for that matter, to participate in these meetings.

Now, the thing is that in this way it is not becoming a matter of political intrigue or political power mongering or deconstruction for that matter. It becomes part of the construction of the new, of Nova Earth and of this planet that I created to be a place of Love. So it is the stepping forth in greater unity and in peace. So this is very attuned to ME KI AL's [Michael's] mission of peace.

Steve: I just can't conceive of the governments remaining passive while their citizens are having meetings with Galactics. I'd think that they would be all over this kind of thing and forbidding it and what have you. Am I incorrect?

DM: You are giving, as do many, far too much authority to what you think of as government. Now there is a place, always, for governments. But this human race, which I have birthed, was created for love, yes. But it was also created for freedom.

And the reason that government, and I speak of pretty much all the realms, the reason that they are not the channel is because of their desire for interference, their desire for control and do not underestimate the ability, certainly of citizens, yes, but also of your star family.

[They have the] ability to cloak various meetings until it is too late. Oh, governments will attempt to exert their influence and power and control but that is not the agenda. And that is why in many ways that this meeting, various meetings, have been so long in coming.

It is simply because of that human desire of those in, shall we say, not in power but in positions where control and abuse of power has been rampant. And that will not be the platform in which integration of the various galaxies takes place. That is not the plan.

And I know very clearly, Sweet one, as do you, if it is not my plan then it will not occur.

(Concluded in Part 2, tomorrow.)

(1) The galactics have been associated with Earth since the inception of homo sapiens (their design) and probably much earlier.

When they left in 1200 BC, Mediterranean civilization almost collapsed and societies were thrust into a period of fighting for dominance that has lasted down to the present day. The false flag 9/11 is the most obvious example in modern times. See "Archangel Michael: What Happened to Civilization in 1200 BC?" Steve: Does this represent a change in the plan because up until now the conversation has been about respecting planetary free will but now we're sort of amending that a wee bit.

Divine Mother: No, we are not amending it. It is allowing for the play of free will not to be overridden by those that would like to usurp control.

Steve: Alright. So we're not talking about a year down the road, two years down the road... We're talking about...

DM: No, we are not.

Steve: Well, that's very exciting, Mother!

DM: Regardless of whether you are Gaian, or Hussian, or Pleiadian, or any species, it is very exciting. And it is going to have one of the biggest impacts for people to truly, not only claim but to live in their divine authority. ...

Steve: Very, very exciting. The size of the delegations?

DM: Small. Very small. This is a very important element that you have need to give attention to: It is to be on planet. So not a ship hovering 20 feet above. ... On planet.

Steve: Isn't that interesting. Elizabeth Kubler Ross once met with the spirit at a pre-arranged conference. (2) Is that the kind of thing that's going to happen?

DM: This sweet angel [Kubler Ross] has met with many spirits many times. But, yes, it is similar to this, yes. But it is not what you would think of as a wraith. (3) It will be a physical presence.

Steve: Well, thank you very much for that notice Mother. I am just on fire with excitement.

DM: Well then, dearest heart, you can say that you got it from the horse's mouth!

Steve: I thank you, Mother.

DM: Go with my love, Sweet One. Farewell.

Footnotes

(1) It was not clear whether the Mother said at this point "unofficial" or "an official." The pronunciation of this word is a little confusing.

However she later repeats that it is an "official" mission.

(2) I was present at her lecture to a Vancouver audience at the Orpheum Theatre in which she described being asked to attend a conference. It turned out to feature an appearance of an evolved spirit. It told her that the work of the rest of her life was to convince people of the reality of life after death. That event was allegedly covered by a number of people equipped with tape recorders.

I've searched the Internet for any account of this meeting and was unable to find any.

(3) An apparition.

Need for Prudence, May 6, 2019

“Need for Prudence,” May 6, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/05/06/need-for-prudence/>

Earth or Turtle Island

A high degree of secrecy surrounds most details of the delegations.

Not the best circumstance for reporting, but clearly necessary nonetheless.

I recall in the earlier unsuccessful venture to the Neptune (1) that black vans were tailing two members of our Nova Earth Team. One member was hit by an EMP which nearly knocked her over and caused her watch to go awry.

So I can appreciate the need for prudence.

The subject of meetings is not new. Back in 2011, the Nova Earth Team and the celestials were discussing them. In that case, they were to be held aboard ship.

I know from many reports that people have lives aboard ship or are present often at meetings there. Only seldom do elements of our night life bleed through to us.

To work around government is new. I've heard, relative to Abundance and Disclosure, that if the Powers That Be did not allow them, the celestials and galactics would find a work-around: The Mother's Plan would succeed no matter what the circumstances were and the Mother would only wait so long.

In 2018, Michael said to me that, if opposition to the Reval went on too long, St. Germaine would do the work of the Reval in a different way. Of Plan B, he said:

"In the current amorphous structure - well, amorphous as you know it - St. Germaine's World Trust is tucked under that umbrella of prosperity packages. There is also the chance - because it is not written in stone, not even in amethyst - that if things do not go forward at a pace that is desirable for the unfoldment of the Mother's Plan, that he will proceed with the disbursement of his funds in a different way." (2)

St. Germaine World Trust, Chinese elders, sequestered Illuminati funds, off-planet gold - abundance will arrive by whatever means the Mother chooses to work through. As Werner Erhard said: "When the time for things comes, they happen by whatever means are available." (3)

I'd think that to identify oneself as a member of a delegation would be to paint a target on one's back. I don't encourage anyone to do that. If I were only discreet around the Neptune venture! But I wasn't and it exploded. Let's not lose this opportunity.

Anyone having an excerpt from a transcript from Linda's channeling relating to the delegations is invited to send it in. The matter is of general importance even if all we can expect to get are general details.

Footnotes

(1) In early 2012 a small group of people were invited to come aboard the mothership, the Neptune. Before long however the number of people who wanted to come aboard reached more than 100 and had to be cancelled as too large to be workable. I failed to organize things well on that occasion.

Let me take this opportunity to address a false impression that was left. Grener of Ashira, President of the Intergalactic Council, joked that we'd be picked up by black limousines. I did not know at the time that he was joking and assumed that that was what would happen.

Only later was I told that he was having fun with us. Grener's comment is being reported by our critics around the Internet as an example of the unreality of the Neptune trip.

“The Tide has Turned: Reading with the Divine Mother and Bright Star, Jan. 29, 2019,” February 3, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/02/03/the-tide-has-turned-reading-with-the-divine-mother-and-bright-star-jan-29-2019/>

"Bright Star" who shared with us his heart opening (1) and the difficulties that followed it, (2) now shares with us his discussion with the Divine Mother of his early Ascension, as a wayshower.

Who is the Divine Mother? When the One stirs and becomes active we call It the Divine Mother. The Mother creates, preserves, and transforms our world(s). (3) While the One is the Source of all, the Mother is the Creator.

---

The Divine Mother in a personal reading with Bright Star through Linda

Dillon, Jan. 29, 2019.

DM: Greetings, I am Mary; (4) Universal Mother, Divine Mother, Mother of One, Mother of All and Mother of you. And I step forth first and foremost and first Sweet One, Sweet [Bright Star] to embrace you, to hold you, to nurture you, to reassure you not only of my love, for that is known and a given.

I come to reassure you and many, by the way, of the fulfilment of My Plan.

Yes, it is so, that I work infinitely and eternally in what you think of as the grand Ocean of Time. But Sweet One, even within that ocean, even within the gentlest and the strongest currents, the changing of the tides, the changing of the seasons... there is a time of fulfilment.

Think of it, My Beloved, in this way. All (and when I Say "All" I mean ALL) is in the infinite process of becoming. You, Sweet Angel of Blue, my son, are also in the infinite process of becoming.

But within that process, there are certain happenings, events, undertakings, fulfilments that have need to occur so that the next step, the next phase can begin.

You do not build this skyscraper upon sand. You secure the footings. You secure the foundations and then you build.

But you do not merely hold the vision of a city of light and skyscrapers of silver and gold and crystalline and never begin because that is not the fulfilment of the entire purpose of Gaia, of why she has a form, why she has - in service to me - assumed this form.

A planet of beauty, of infinite diversity, a planet of love and what has happened? This has been a planet of war. It is not Mars. It is Gaia. It is Earth that has been transformed into a warring planet for far too long.

There are times and situations, not with me overriding the human free will, but let me put it this way. My Influence and My Energy, My Love, My Presence can be extraordinarily strong. And so what is occurring during this time of ascension - and we use that term generically because it means so much more - what is occurring, and what you are feeling (and feeling correctly by the way) is that I am exerting my loving, nurturing, strong and powerful influence over the human race, over the human collective.

So that this process of ascension, of coming to the next phase of the unfoldment happens and not that it happens in some distant way, in some distant galaxy, in some distant eon...

What you have been feeling, my beloved son, in the sense of urgency, and might I say in the sense of excitement, is that the tide has turned and while some do not fully acknowledge or recognize it as yet, it matters not.

The tide has turned and there is an unconscious and subconscious and conscious choice being led by beings such as yourself, to proceed with love.

Now what does that look like? You are a commander. You are an emissary. You are an ambassador and that is why you have come to this life in this form at this time, as [Bright Star].

Because it is time for the Planet of Love to emerge and in so doing, to take your place amongst the Intergalactics and Galactics.

In the past, and we mean this literally, there has been such fear of your star family that they have kept their shields up and stayed at arm's length. Also they do not fully wish to engage in a warring planet because they come in peace.

It is inconceivable to them because political structures, shall we say nation-based, financially-based interests on the planet, have been so entrenched in control and greed and the usurping of authority. The delegations do not come to interact with power mongers.

They come to engage with you and through you, by the way. With emissaries that understand the importance of neutrality.

So often, humans have seen neutrality as very boring, as very ho-hum. But in fact, to hold neutrality is to be anchored in love, to be anchored in grand discernment beyond judgement.

To be able to act, quite literally, in form as the balancer. To reassure those who have fears and issues and uncertainties, whether it is about their star family or about their own capacity to evolve. And to maintain neutrality for those who come so that you are not seen as in greater favour of one or the other. You are a rainbow bridge.

But more importantly, Sweet One, you are my bridge. This is not some distant dream. And that is the only reason why we have begun in earnest after dropping hints for years, that we begin to truly speak to you of this undertaking. So that you are prepared.

It is not about a denial of what you think of as your everyday life but it most certainly is an enrichment.

You have asked your heart question to me. Is there a delay in the working of the plan? Are they so far out as to be not seen?

And what I say to you, is this part of my plan, the ascension of humanity as One, but certainly lead, guided not only by Us, by Michael and Gabrielle and Uriel, but by you, by those who hold the love is underway. There are no more delays.

(3) For Hindus, Creation = rajas (rajoguna), Brahma; Preservation = sattwa, Vishnu; and Transformation = thamas, Siva. The gunas are a subset of the Mother. The Mother discusses it here:

Steve Beckow: I have a question for you from our Hindu readers. They want to know if the gunas, the cosmic forces which are called rajas, sattwa, and tamas, are the same as the Trimurthy [Triad] of Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva.

Divine Mother: Yes. We are the same as that triad.

SB: All right. And the Trimurthy of Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva is a subset of the Universal Creative Vibration that you are at your essence. Is that correct?

DM: That is correct. It [the Trimurthy] is much the same as we have been speaking of. It is a way in which my beloved children can come to know me and to have that experience. It is formless, and yet it is form. It is a way of connection, and it is a way of understanding and entering into a higher vibration of being. So it helps the emergence into my energy.

SB: Sort of like stair steps?

DM: That is correct. ("The Divine Mother: Come to Me as I Come to You – Part ½," Oct. 17, 2012, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2012/10/the-divine-mother-come-to-me-as-i-come-to-you-part-12/>.)

(4) The Divine Mother apparently incarnated as Mary, Mother of Jesus, but she also often makes a play on words, saying "Mary, Maré." "Maré" is the Latin word for "ocean." She's indicating here her identity as the Ocean of Love.

Archangel Michael: Victory is at Hand! January 2019

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with EBSS through Linda Dillon, January 2019, at <https://counciloflove.com/2019/01/archangel-michael-victory-is-at-hand/>

In a second reading in January of 2019, EBSS (Earthbound Star Soul) talked with Archangel Michael about the upcoming meeting between Gaians and our star family.

Michael used the term "delegation" for the first time in my awareness.

Archangel Michael: Greetings, I am Michael.

EBSS: Greetings, Michael!

AAM: Welcome, welcome, welcome! I come as Archangel of Peace, Warrior of Love, Bringer of News. I come with encouragement! And yes, I come in fulfilment of our Mother's blessing of greater hope, greater trust, and yes, even greater forgiveness.

Many of humanity are not only confused, they are tired. They are weary. And they look at what they believe to be growing chaos and they wonder when the breakthrough, or ‘if’ the breakthrough, will come – when the light will shed the darkness and eliminate what is not of truth and, most certainly, what is not of peace.

It is fully understood how this mental and emotional and spiritual exhaustion plagues many, but it is not a time of giving up. It is not a time to engage in battle either! But it most certainly is not a time of retreat, for what the loveholders/lightworkers are doing is basically holding the line, shining the light, beaming the light into some of the darkest situations of this collective called humanity.

And I call them “humanity” rather than “Gaians” because, in this mix, there are many who do not consider themselves Gaians, do not consider their home planet – this place of beauty, of might, of tranquillity and peace – to be their home. In many ways, they think of it as a hotel room, and they will simply move on after they have decimated and destroyed what is beautiful and valuable and sacred.

The reason why I speak of this is that many of you – and you, beloved, included – look at situations and you say, “Well, how can it get much worse?” And that is because you, and many, come from a place of love and purity of intent. But you also know that everything that has need to be eliminated, everything that has need to be relinquished, everything that needs to be healed in this cesspool that we call “chaos” has need to come to the surface.

Otherwise – and this has happened many, many times in human history – what happens is there is a belief, there is a healing, an accommodation, a remedy, and then the human collective tends to think, “Okay, now it is cleaned up, now it is healed, now it is done.” But the core – the core issues – of the collective, and of course of the individuals, has not been addressed, and therefore it simply settles in and it festers.

In this part of the infinite, eternal unfoldment of our Mother’s Plan, it all has need to be surfaced so that this subtle and actual festering, until it again boils over, cannot happen. It is simply, in your time and in the Mother's time, the juncture at which this has to be healed. So it continues to rise to the surface.

You see, those who are even deeply engaged in, shall we say, dark deeds, erroneous behaviour, false beliefs or paradigms which are all components of the chaos – very often, what has happened is that the chaos doesn't bother them, and they thrive upon it. But the level of chaos that has come to the surface, that is being exposed in every quadrant of the planet – in every society, in every institutional structure, in every political and financial structure – it's exhausting!

So not only is it exhausting because of the tumultuous nature, the sullied nature, of the energy that is being brought to the surface. It is also beginning – in fact, very significantly – exhausting those who have been engaged in the errant or aberrant behaviours. And that is a significant improvement. It is a significant departure.

It is anticipated – and what you would even think of as natural – that those that are of a higher vibration, those that are carrying the love and the purity in their hearts, those who are of the lightworker and loveholder community – of course, when they look at it, it is exhausting to them. That is to be expected. In many ways, it is as if, as lightworkers, you have been sitting on the edge of a volcanic waste dump for years. Of course, it is exhausting!

But it is important that those who you think of as having been neutral, and those who have actually been the perpetrators of violence – because it is all of violence – are also becoming fed up, exhausted, overwhelmed. It is no longer simply a foray into the darkness and then a retreat to the comfort of home. This is exactly what has need to transpire.

It cannot be simply the lightbearers who are holding the light, and shining the light, and beaming the light, and being the light – it cannot simply be them doing all the heavy lifting for the entire planet to go forward.

Now, we are not saying that those recalcitrants will fully embrace the light. Even those who have been in strict containment continue to argue and fight! However, when they reach the point of exhaustion where they are fed up, that is victory – and that, my beloved friend, my brother, is what is at hand!

And you are being assisted not only by the Mother's legions but by your Star Family, increasingly apparent and present – and will be very clearly present upon the planet very quickly – not simply as boots on the ground but in the full splendour of a delegation.

You have held the centre, beloved one. And yes, you have witnessed, and you have beamed, and you have been exhausted. So I bring this message of hope to you and to many. You're almost there, and victory that I have worked on for eons is at hand.

Now where do you wish, beloved one, to start this day?

EBSS: Well, you'll want Ellen to transcribe this, I see?

AAM: Yes, these words of encouragement have need to be shared. And so I thank you and I bless you for doing so – and of course I bless sweet Ellen as well.

EBSS: "Victory is at hand!" – that's the title!

AAM: That is the title, and that is the message, so take heart my friends! The end is in sight and it is not a mirage!

Zentar of the Pleiades: Ambassadors of Peace, Dec. 2018

Zentar in a personal reading with EBSS through Linda Dillon, Dec. 2018, at <https://counciloflove.com/2018/12/zentar-of-the-pleiades-ambassadors-of-peace/>

In the third of his readings, EBSS (Earthbound Star Soul) shares his discussion with Zentar, one of his team of guides and guardians, in which Zentar also says that the meetings with the galactics are near.

Zentar: Greetings, I am Zentar, guardian and friend, protector of your sacred being, defender of your portals, keeper of your flame, brother of thy heart, brother of thy soul.

And yes, I am honoured, thrilled, pleased to step forth this day to bring you not only greetings but the offerings of my heart, the offerings of my being as starbeing, as angelic – no, never as human, for you are the brave one who comes (1) to bring the hour, the time, the period of awakening to this planet and to this planet of love, to this planet of light.

Beloved friend, you are finally healing (2) – and you are in the completion of this phase of what we would term reconstruction, reconstitution, resurrection – but it is important, critical, that you not overextend. You are exuberant in your very nature; it is the truth and the construct of who you are. And look where it got you: on planet, ready to welcome your star family and friends! (3)

But it has also been... if I did not say “difficult,” I would most certainly say a “challenging” journey/mission... for the chaos has reigned not only in what you think of as current reality, but has really reigned for centuries, millennia, upon this beautiful Gaian planet. (4)

So is it a clean sweep? The answer is “yes!” But we do not do so, and they do not do so, the Mother does not do so, Michael does not do so, in ways that are mean, cruel, dismissive and overriding of free will. The rebirth of humanity – the rebirth, the re-ignition of humanity – is not to destroy or in any way override what has been precious within this or any civilisation. It is to reignite that element of will – not only free will but Divine Will – to act, to behave, to extend and to be the love, and that cannot be achieved by simply overriding anybody.

Humans, Gaians, are truly experiencing - not merely in your nation, what you think of as the United States, but all over the planet - there is such a glaring overriding of individual free will, of free choice, of Divine Will and divine direction. And it is in this that the humans awaken and they claim their sovereignty, they claim their freedom, their independence, and from there truly express not just what the Mother wants – although that is/always has been the end game – but what they want, and their expressions of their divine qualities.

Has it been an incredibly rocky road? Well, you know that answer, for you have lived that answer! But it is in the rocky road, it is in the turmoil and in the chaos that that essential yearning for peace, for harmony, for love, for kindness, for simple human kindness and consideration, rises to the surface and demands – absolutely demands – not only to be seen and recognised. It demands to become what you think of as the operating system, the modus operandi of the planet, of Earth, of Gaia, and of the collective.

So, yes, you have said, “Can you not hurry it along?” And believe you me, we say that 20 million times a day – every day! [Laughter] But we won’t override because then – and we are preparing right now to come in peace, as the Ambassadors of Peace – then we are credible, then we are believable. Then what we come and offer is seen in the truth, not in the ways of being despots or dictators, but truly as a set of helping hands and a kind and loving heart.

So has your patience and the patience of the collective of humanity been pushed and tried to the limit? The answer is “yes”, and my beloved friend, that is a good thing because it is pushing, urging people into making different choices in declaring that their patience has not only worn thin; it is worn out. And so it results in the demanding and the implementing of a different paradigm.

And it is most certainly not a paradigm when any force – galactic, intergalactic or human – overrides another. It is a system of unity – not only of heart unity but of collective unity, of integrated unity of heart and mind, of talents, of technology and science and capacities. It truly is a Golden Age, but what makes it golden is that it is peaceful. It is not forced; it is birthed through free will and in alignment, by choice, with Divine Will.

You are our ambassador – you know this – and in that, you have need to know that much is already underway in terms of our not only actual presence, because you know full well that there are many boots on the ground – yes, including your artist friends – but it is the recognition of a formal declaration that you as human beings, as Gaians, are not alone, and the recognition and the welcome to us as we come in peace.

Zalishia of the Pleiades: RV and Disclosure Tied; Disclosure by a "Synod" of Leaders, March 26, 2017

“Zalishia of the Pleiades: RV and Disclosure Tied; Disclosure by a ‘Synod’ of Leaders,” March 26, 2017, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/02/26/zalishia-pleiades-rv-disclosure-tied-disclosure-synod-leaders/>

In a reading with EBSS (Earthbound Star Soul) through Linda Dillon on Feb. 18, 2017, Zalishia of the Pleiades shares her perspective. Thank you, EBSS, for sharing her comments with us!

Zalishia: Go forth bright one in the anchoring of truth, in the anchoring of love, and the anchoring of peace, and act as anchor and beacon, transmitter and bridge. The old has faded away and there are those who wish [to] grab at the vapors of what no longer exists.

They do not have the wherewithal to recreate that old paradigm. Yes, they may be trying, difficultly, to do that, but it will not succeed. It is not that they do not have the creative energy, it is simply that it is not in accordance with the will of the Mother.

It is not that She overrides free will, but the free will of the collective is of the nature that collectively is over-riding the desire of those who wish to pull humankind back into the old 3rd – and it is simply not going to happen.

So is there a great deal, upon your planet, that is at the surface, at this moment in time, in what you think of as time, and what we know as time... But it is necessary. Whether it is of hatred or greed or control, it has need to be seen.

Now, not every particle of that has to be seen, but can we say the broad strokes have need to come to the surface. And they have need to come to the surface not only for healing, and elimination – but for reconfirmation by the collective - that this way of the old strategy, the old way of being is not what they choose. It is not what they desire, and it is not what they bring forth in their daily creation.

It is good that you have prayed and called forth a wondrous sense of humor, because seldom has the human experience contained more hilarity. Yes, it is tragedy and comedy all mixed into one. And it is important, beloved one, that the sense of humor, to see the ridiculous nature of much of what is in front of you, and to just be able to smile, and shake your head.

You know, and have always known, the value of a good laugh. So enjoy what you are witnessing and then, let it go for it is not of love, and it has no place upon restored Gaia.

The things that are near and dear to your heart, such as, can we say, public Disclosure, and the public re-evaluation of financial systems are much closer than you think. So, do not even pay much attention to the dis-information that is being circulated.

The current lay of the land, shall we say, is that it will be a group Disclosure, that it will be a number of world leaders, both former politicians, but also people who are in positions of power - and we mean financial power, political power, institutional power - will come together in what used to be called a synod (a noun / def./ An assembly of the clergy and sometimes also the laity in a diocese or other division of a particular church).

They will come together to make some very public decrees - or disclosures - as you would call them. And this is very likely to happen in the next couple of months. This plan has been altered and adjusted many times, as you well know.

But, part of the going forth in a unified manner is not only because this is the way of Nova Earth; it is the new paradigm. But it is also more difficult to those who have, shall we say, vested interests in maintaining the old myths, when several who have great credibility come together. So, they can't say 'So-and-So is delusional, or So-and-So is revealing state secrets, or so and so is out of his mind' because it will be a number of people - ALL who are well respected.

EBSS: When might we see the RV?

Zalishia: It is all tied [together]...when we say that things are literally under way - we mean exactly that, that things are well under way. There will be very little of what you think of as public disclosure or discussion about the shift in wealth management, but it has already begun. (Zalishia of the Pleiades in a personal reading with EBSS through Linda Dillon, Feb. 18, 2017.)

Commander Ashira of UFOG ~ We Are Your Complements, August 16, 2016

“Commander Ashira of UFOG ~ We Are Your Complements, “ August 16, 2016, at

<http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/05/11/300735/>

Arcturians

The Pleiadians

In 2016, on Heavenly Blessings, Cdr. Ashira gave us a background discussion on what can now be seen as preparations for the widening of galactic contact that's being discussed today.

---

Suzanne Maresca: Host, InLight Universal

Ashira: Greetings. Greetings, my beloved friends, family, allies. Welcome.

Suzi: Welcome to you.

Ashira: I welcome you this day, not only as Commander-in-Chief of UFOG [Unified Forces of the Outer Galaxies] but as friend, as brother, as ally, for we do not operate on hierarchy, and we most certainly do not stand on ceremony!

Oh, that doesn't mean that we do not have many, many, many delightful ceremonies. We do, and we practice them almost every day, for there are always things to celebrate, always things to create, always things to bring forth in a sacred manner. But I welcome you. I welcome you to our ship, to our home, to where we have lived, many of us, for thousands of years.

My beloveds, so often you are saying to us, "Come and join us, come and walk with us, and let this disclosure (as you term it) be fulfilled." And you know there have been so many various announcements upon your planet, and by people in what you think of or consider 'authority'. And yet, so often it simply goes ignored or unreported. It matters not.

But in the same way, my friends, we have been beckoning you, we have been calling to you, we have been inviting you. Earth, Gaia (sometimes also known as Gia) that we often call Terra Nova, has been part of the Intergalactic Council for well over a decade.

Your original representatives, Wakana Taka and company, those who have also served at the council fire of the Mother Gaia, have performed and served extraordinarily well, but this delegation, as we would call it, is rapidly expanding. Your period of internship is over. The period of finding your legs, as it were, is over. And it is time for Earth, for Gaia, to be fully represented – and not only in ceremonial ways but fully as humans.

Yes, you are still in the process, collectively anyway, of your ascension. Many of you have been on board ship – well, some of you – for decades or eons. But the number of you who have been cohabitating back and forth has been increasing significantly every single day. [Linda clears her throat] Excuse me, for my channel adjusts the vocal cords, does she not!

But let me explain. As much as you are calling and beckoning to us, we are calling and beckoning to you. Now that is not a universal call but, nevertheless, it is important for you to know – and specifically those that we have been calling – that your presence with us is rapidly expanding; your participation with us is growing hour to hour.

Now the purpose of this is not merely your presence at the Intergalactic Council – which, by the way, is hosted, located if you will, here – but it is the daily interactions as well. Many of you are becoming more conversant with our science, with our technology, with our communication methods, with science and healing, even with teaching. We haven't invited any chefs yet, but that will come!

Some of you are simply coming to acclimatise, to become familiar with our customs and culture, our ways of doing things, because your role is as emissaries upon Earth, upon Gaia. And that will be a very important role as our presence is more clearly known and identifiable, so that the human beings will welcome us as brethren, as friends, rather than as beings who come with agendas of power or control or even sabotage. That is not only not true, it is not possible.

And you say, "Ashira, why would that be? Why would it not be possible?" Like you, our commitment, our mission and purpose is in service to the Mother, the Father, the One, the unfoldment of Her Plan upon this planet and far beyond. Our culture, our being has been in that alignment for a very, very long time.

Do we have free will? Yes, we do. But because of our history, the way that we have built our civilisations, there is no will, there is no desire to proceed in any way that is contrary to the Divine Plan or the will of Mother/Father/One. So would we be, in your terminology, physically capable of altering that? Yes, but in our collective and individual consciousness, that is inconceivable.

Now you as a collective – and this is part of your ascension process – are learning about that use of will in creation and the marriage, the union, the sacred union, between your beloved heart, the love, and the expression of it in the outer and the inner realms which is activated by will.

A very simple way to think of it is that it is will is love in action. So we have no will within our beings or within our history – what I would say 'current history' which would be many thousands, about 10,000 years – to do anything but help.

Think of us in this way: we want, we pray, to be your complements. And I do not mean that in the necessarily romantic way, although for some of you it is – and we are happy about that as well, especially for those of you who have been waiting for a very long time for your partners. But when we say “complement”, we mean that as a desirable add-on, a recognition, a bowing, an assistance to the human race, to this magnificent race of Gaians.

You are correct, Suzanne, dearest Suzi, when you say that we see you more clearly at times – and might I say most times – than you see yourselves. I do not mean that in a way of superiority. I mean it as compliment.

We see your beauty, the beauty of your hearts, the commitment of your hearts, the power of your will, your desire to create and to bring forth Nova Earth, Terra Nova, and to live in peace and harmony and joy on a planet that is based on freedom and equality, prosperity and abundance. And I do not mean that in terms of money; I mean the abundance, the bounty of your planet is overwhelming.

I do not say that in an acquisitive way, but when you look at this planet, at the elements alone of water and air and sunshine and light and energy, of food – many of you are reacquainting yourselves with the delicious nature of the experience of food in the true form of what Gaia has to offer.

I am not talking about chemical machinations. I’m talking about food that is grown from the heart of the Mother, water that is pristine. The abundance of this Gaia Archangel is truly beyond imagination. Now has it been sullied? Yes. And can it be remedied basically in the blink of an eye? Yes. And is that already underway? Yes.

There are many things that we do with you, as complements for you, to enhance your life. We are not sitting here waiting for approval, although we will never proceed in ways that can be in the slightest way interpreted as aggressive. But there are many things that we do simply because of who we are, wanting to enrich your experience, and in that to anchor the fullness of the Mother’s Plan.

And the Mother’s Plan isn’t simply for heart consciousness – yes, that is part of it; transformative love – yes, that is part of it. But in that is the harmony between all kingdoms, all species, all races, all belief systems, all nations. That is why we address you as Gaians. That is why you are at the Intergalactic Council. But it is also the fullness of Gaia, the peace of the kingdoms, so that they are not harmed or dishonoured in any way.

So much of what we have been addressing has been about this as well. And let us also preface that by saying we have absolute confirmation and direction in these actions, as do all the fleets from the Intergalactic Council of which Earth has been a full, participating member. And many of you who are now stepping forth into that role as emissaries on that Council are bringing many of the needs and desires of the collective to the Council to be worked on and to be fulfilled.

It is not just a matter of handing over technology. I hear those pleas written, shouted, whispered daily: “Give us our replicator.” But can you imagine, not to those who are individuals, sweet and pure – and we know you – but to the collective at this point? It would be like giving car keys, or the ignition switch to a spaceship, to a 2-year old. In fact, a 2-year old would be more equipped because they remember from whence they came. Let’s say a young teenager who is acting out. It would not be wise.

Why would you wish to replicate disaster or mayhem, nuclear bombs or weapons? You have already developed destructive technology – even your 3D printers which are star technology have been abused for weapons of war. So we are very cautious and prudent in terms of what we are sharing.

Now our forces on the ground, our boots on the ground – although many of them wear sneakers, high-tops, low-tops and everything in between! – are growing daily, and they are in every walk of life. Our favourite spots and our favourite towns are highly populated, but they are in Wall Street, in Washington, in Moscow, in Saudi Arabia, Israel. There is no nation that is not being attended to; there is no group that is not being attended to and watched over, assisted where and can we may.

So do not think, my friends, that things are not going forward. They are.

Now having said that, I would like, Suzanne, to hand it over to you.

Suzi: Well, thank you Ashira. Firstly I want to speak my heart and express my gratitude, our gratitude, for all the loving actions that you and the Unified Forces have taken on behalf of humanity and of Gaia. Thank you so much, very much. We don't even know what you've done.

I will say for myself, whatever I've done that's outside of my conscious awareness, I am absolutely volunteering to be emissary, ambassador... whatever you guys need basically to make a nice, smooth transition here. And I just know that there are many, many of our listeners, if not every single one, [laughter] who would also volunteer to do that. (Read more....)

Sanat Kumara: You are the Angels of Change, August 2, 2016

"Transcript ~ Sanat Kumara on Heavenly Blessings: Choose Love and Action, August 2, 2016," August 16, 2016, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/08/16/transcript-sanat-kumara-heavenly-blessings-choose-love-action-august-2-2016/>

In my research to trace back references to the current initiative in First Contact, I came across a wonderful anchoring discussion from Sanat Kumara, Planetary Logos (now Universal Logos), of our role in an ascending world. I repost it here.

Beloved friends, you have come from far and wide, from the angelic and archangelic realms, from star systems far away. You have come as ancient earthkeepers, as hybrids, as elementals, as Venusians. But you are all human, you are all Gaian, and you are already at the table of the Intergalactic Council.

It is time that you all step forward, yes, in your individual splendour and the unfoldment of your plan within our Mother's Plan, but as Nova Beings creating Nova Earth, bringing forth the splendour, the magnificence, the truth, the peace, the wonder, the awe, the balance. There is only one reason you are on this planet at this time, and it is to not just witness but to be a part of the rebirth of love.

My task, my role as Planetary Oversight, is to assist in the anchoring and the re-anchoring of the Creator Race and the essence of love, not only the recognition of divinity but the practical actuality of divinity within you and in all of your doings, societies, structures, institutions, families, communities, it matters not. There is no delineation.

Now at this time, very dramatic mirrors are being held up to you. And in the Tsunami of One, you are seeing and receiving inputs, adjustments, attunements, raising in frequency, vibratory rates, so that you may physically hold more love, more energy.

Now you say, "How do these two connect? You say, "vibration and frequency and love." Everything is love. That is of the Divine Nature. Now there are many human creations that are simply distractions and deviations from that, and that has been the speciality of your old 3rd dimension. But there is no room for that any longer. I do not know how many times we have to say this!

Now I know in some ways, my friends, I am preaching to the choir, but understand what I have said this day. I am speaking to all upon Gaia. And it is time for this distraction, deception, lies, untruth, deviations, of such a magnitude that they hide the truth – it is time for this to come to an end.

Now we are doing our part, and you are being uplifted as never before. And many of you, most of you as a matter of fact at this time, are flying in and out of the portal knowingly and unknowingly. But what does it look like to create Nova Earth? Could it be smooth, non- confrontative? No, not because we do not desire it, but because human choice at this moment of what you construe of as "time" is of a nature that there is a lack of consistency in the choice for love.

And this is a word that I am almost hesitant to use. Can you imagine, as a servant which we all are of the Mother, that I hesitate to use the word “love” because upon your planet at this time, it is being bandied about without understanding that this is a sacred word. In some traditions of ancient times, and even recent times, there are words that were so sacred that they were not spoken, only held within the heart and within the pattern.

“Love” is the most sacred word. If you are to think of a term of reference point, to speak truly of the awe of One, it would be love. If you wished to nickname the Mother, it would be love. If you wished to understand the essence of the Father, it would be love. And yet this word has become misunderstood in many ways.

Now we do not halt the use of this word because the design is that it is seeping into your consciousness – and I mean the collective consciousness – that although it is misunderstood, somehow, somewhere, love is important.

And so, for example, in your political shenanigans in the United States of America, you are seeing the use of placards and people declaring love. And yet their behaviour is not of love. It is not of love of the Mother and the Father and the One or the Son. And it is not of love of humanity and unified consciousness, anchored in the heart consciousness and transformative love. It is none of these things.

And you say, “Yes Raj, we know that. How can you help us?” Well, first of all, rest assured we are helping you and the legions are at work like never before, so it is not only my company but the company of all. Understand what I am saying to you: the “company of all” – all delegations, all masters, all angelic realms, all star systems. It is not just a cheerleading team that is sitting on the sidelines!

We are working with all of you, and as we do with those that truly do not want change, it is appearing chaotic. Now let me go further. There are those that want change, and who are reverting back to what you can think of as an ancient understanding of Source, of God, of God the Father with a controlling, aggressive, thundering, punishing being. And that is a human construct. It does not have its basis in truth. It most certainly does not have its basis in love.

So what you are witnessing – yes, in the United States but also in many countries where there are despotic leaders, male and female, of every religious tint – are those who wish to be in control and who are more than eager to assume this role, to be the controlling patriarch. But what is even more chaotic is the number of Gaians eager, not simply willing but eager to embrace that type of system. So that is reversion back.

It is change but it is not, shall we say, progressive or forward thrust, new being, Nova Earth change. It is change that is based on fear and saying, “Let me run away and let Daddy take care of it.” And that is a total abrogation of self-responsibility. It is not being the observer; it is not inserting participation where you have need to. It is an abrogation of why you are on the planet. I cannot be clearer than that!

Then there are those in the middle road who believe that nothing has really changed. Gaia has ascended. She is interdimensional in her nature, hard-anchored in the 7th, present in all dimensionality. You are seeing the shifts and yet there is this group that says, “Oh, nothing has changed and we can maintain the status quo.” And even if there wasn’t the new wave, which I will speak of next, that is not possible because you have these revisionaries on the other side so that is not going to do it.

So these people are pretending that they are deaf, dumb and blind. I do not say that in the way of insult, my beloveds. I say that if you choose the middle way – and that has been preferred by many sages – then be true to the middle way, the middle path, the middle journey. It is a preferred journey of balance for many. But again, be true to the love.

Remember you are only here for one reason – to be the re-patterners, the re-weavers, the re-anchors of the Mother’s Plan. Your plan and the reason you are here is that you chose, because it was essential to your fulfilment to do this. So if you are going to sit in the middle, be true to truth.

And then there are the wayshowers, those who see the chaos and are participating in what we would call “creative chaos”. The change could have been, could still be very smooth, but because of the human choices it is not unfolding in that way. Now, did we anticipate that? Yes. We were surprised at your spiritually mature choice of collective ascension, but it was a choice.

But now there are many that are saying, “I yearn, I desire, I know who I am; I may not know every detail of how to get there,” and none of you do by the way. It is a walk of trust; it is a walk of heart; it is an unfoldment. We cannot tell you or even write the fullness of the script because that would be denying your free will, and dear hearts, you have surprised us time and time again. Even when we know we’re going to be surprised, we’re surprised!

Those who are wayshowers, who are the agents and angels of change – and it doesn’t matter whether you are hybrid, starseed, earthkeeper – you are angels of change. And the reason you are here is to be the constructors, the catalysts, the re-weavers. You are on track!

Now, do not deviate. Stay in the love. Expose what you know to be simple attachment to the old 3rd, to the paradigms, the false grids of aggression and control, lack and limitation – the list is endless. And we don’t even want to repeat it anymore because it is non-existent. There are places in the universe still to awaken, and the ascension of this planet and this race is part of laying the pattern for those that follow.

But if you desire to be part of that old, then pass on and you can reincarnate on one of those planets still in progress. There is no requirement to stay. Is there a desire on our part that you will stay and fulfil? Yes. But is it a requirement? It has never been a requirement.

The unfoldment of the Mother’s Plan is not dependent upon 7 billion or 1 billion lining up. We don’t want... it has never been the Plan that people line up and obey, salute. It has always been the Plan that the flowering of love in the heart would be such that it puts you beyond any other choice, because when you are experiencing this – what has been termed “transformative love”, what we call “real love” – there is no other choice.

Grener of Ashira in "HB Transcript: Galea and Grener of Ashira of Neptune ~ When Will You Be Willing to Step Into the Fullness of Your Role as Citizens of the Galaxies?" October 28, 2015, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/10/28/heavenly-blessings-transcript-galea-and-grener-of-ashira-of-neptune-when-will-you-be-willing-to-step-into-the-fullness-of-your-role-as-citizens-of-the-galaxies/>

Here's another very full discussion of the whole subject of delegations from Grener, President of the Intergalactic Council, from 2015.

We have worked on this Project Terra Gaia intensely – oh, for 200 years – and even more intensely... yes, certainly the last 50, but the last several years. The reason – and the only reason by the way – that I was in the slightest bit interested in assuming this role of President of this Council... and it is not what you think of as “president”, for there is not a modicum of control. It is conciliatory; it is ‘evolved’. It’s the only word I can use. My rationale was my Love for all of you.

That was my rationale in wanting to bring you on board ship, (1) and that was strongly discouraged by the threat of warfare and annihilation of those who would choose to gain entry, and even the threat of nuclear warheads against our forces. That could not be permitted, but now I am free to talk about it at least.

But I do not come to talk about such affairs. What I come to talk about is touched upon by Communications Officer Galea and it has been this mentality, this mindset held by particular leaderships and many of the human race of invasion, because this has been the pattern of the human race for thousands of years. And this is with the all-out efforts, not only of us but of Archangel Mi-cha-el himself.

To land on foreign soil – and is that not a strange concept? – is considered an act of invasion or of war or of terror. It is a very peculiar mindset, and it has been reinforced time and time and time again by those who have done the landing.

Think of the Europeans who landed on the shores of North America and then proceeded to annihilate the entire population of Native Americans, to seed them with disease, to starve them and then to herd them into places of desolation.

So there is a history, whether it is the Romans or the Greeks or the Americans or the Syrians or the Iraqis, the Somalis or the Russians. There is a profound history, an ingrained history of this belief of invasion. And that is one of the reasons why we have worked – mostly invisibly and from a distance – because we have been waiting and awaiting the maturing of this collective.

And we know your discouragement, sweet Suzi and many of you who listen this day, but from our perspective – and particularly with the recent upgrades in frequencies – we see within the human collective an outrageous joy at the mere thought of our joining you. And it is not simply in the Lightworker community; it is throughout the general populace and this is good news in many ways.

You have a tendency upon planet to think of periods of time. We work a great deal with what you think of as the period of 13 years, and Terra Gaia has reached the point where her initiation period into the Intergalactic Council – and there are several of you who sit on this Council – the initiation period comes to a close.

And it is time for Gaians, for actual human beings, to take their place – not secretly – at this table. And in order for that to occur, you have need – and it is time – for you to have greater Community, to know us more fully.

You have been asking for a long time, “When?” And now this day, I ask you, all of you across this planet: “When? When will you be willing to step into the fullness of your role as Citizens of the Galaxies?”

Well, we know the answer so I am being somewhat pedantic aren’t I, but I will tell you. We know that in order for you to feel fully comfortable in doing that, that you must have a greater, a deeper, a more knowing relationship with us.

Now this channel – my daughter – would in fact see red if I was to give an actual date. But what I tell you is that in the very, very near future, we begin our presence to be known, seen, acknowledged and welcomed upon this planet – not merely as boots on the ground, not merely as servers in Starbucks – but in terms of emissaries, of delegations, of landings, as you would term them, upon the planet that we might more fully engage and begin to introduce ourselves.

And that is why I have asked permission, both of Galea, of Ashira and of this channel to come this day and to visit.

You cannot even begin... Personally... of course your expression would be, “I am over the moon!” ... but I am also speaking on the part of this Council.

We desire, for reasons of planetary and humanoid Ascension but also because your participation in Galactic, Intergalactic events, unfoldments; the process of Ascension on other planetary systems; the process of Peace throughout the Universe; the process of Peace, Intergalactic and Galactic and Gaian upon Earth; the expansion of technology, of wisdom, of what you think of as science, of communication – for all these things, your presence, your full participation... yes, your current mind, your expanded mind and your expanded heart... are not only invited and welcome, but needed.

We cannot plan and go forward in this next phase, shall we say, of unfoldment without the Gaian participation. We need you – and, I dare say, you need us.

We will never come as an invading force. That is against not only Universal Law but our laws, the laws that govern our covenants. We have learned: invasion, war, violence of any kind, it simply is unacceptable. Even when we speak in rallying language, before we do so we declare that we are speaking in such a form.

We come in Peace, and we believe – yes, it is an assumption but it is also a knowing – that your planet... we already know the Kingdoms welcome us; they have for a long time... but the humans, they are ready too.

You know, you have had a terrible history – I do not bring any newsflash! – of discrimination upon your planet in terms of gender and race and economic, social status. Well, when you have interplanetary visitors, all that discrimination will go away, not because we are miracle workers or magicians, but because the realisation, the beauty of diversity and the futility of hierarchies... when you think of the expanse of diversity in the Universe, it will simply dissipate into thin air.

Now, we don't come to fix you, to shift you. Now, will our presence shift you? Yes, as your presence shifts us. We have come to understand more about the incredible spectrum of human emotions and thoughts; it has been fascinating and you bring that to the table. We do not seek to eliminate it. We seek to complement, to assist, to join together, to create something that is beautiful and new and ancient and original.

So we come – as I say one more time – in Peace, that we may harmonise together, that Gaians will gladly take their place at the table.

Ashtar Speaks via Philipp: “Contact” is Imminent, April 3, 2014

“Ashtar Speaks via Philipp: ‘Contact’ is Imminent,” April 3, 2014, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/04/03/ashtar-speaks-via-philipp-contact-is-imminent/>

Ashtar: We, your Galactic Family, are in the process of organizing physical contact with you. It is imminent.

This contact between us will be on an individual basis and will be down on your beloved planet Gaia. There will be neither mass landings nor a beaming aboard a ship.

Rather we will visit those of you who have managed to raise their energies to a certain level that matches with our own energy.

Please make no mistake. Such an encounter makes high demands on our energy vessels.

Our energy levels are at different stages, and we – in order to cope with your levels – have to lower our energy to a certain degree. Such a degree is our lowest limit and to go further down could cause us serious damage. That is the reason why you have to meet us halfway.

Philipp: What can you expect from our contacts, and how does the contact happen?

We can assure you that we will not approach you suddenly out of the blue and cause you fear or any other unpleasant feelings. The contact will happen in a situation which you are familiar with.

Each contact will be individually tailor-made so to speak, to cover the needs of each of you.

There are plenty of possibilities how we can achieve our goal to meet you without "frightening you to death".

For some, the contact could happen while they are on a walk or preparing to relax in front of the TV. For others it could be whilst they are preparing for meditation in a quiet place of their home. The possibilities are endless, but again, always focused on your well-being.

Although each contact will be individually tailor-made, all contacts will have the same underlying principle – the contact will happen while you are wide awake.

It will not happen during your sleep or meditation. It will happen when you are fully awake and anchored in your body. You will experience it with all your senses. It is exactly the same as you would meet a beloved member of your family or a friend. And in fact, we are your family!

You are allowed to take pictures and make recordings. Please share these widely. Can you discern what impact this will have on the Disclosure process?

Think big and then even bigger! And yes, we know how much you like "Selfies" and we are looking forward to your creativity in taking pictures with us.

There are concerns of how to interact with us.

First of all, we are as much eager as you are to finally reconnect with you. We, too, will be "nervous" and we understand how nervous you must be when you meet us.

Just listen to your heart and follow its advice. And you will know perfectly how to "behave" during the contact.

Philipp: When will the contact happen?

As stated above, it will happen when you have sufficiently raised your energy levels and during the best occasion to meet you.

But many contacts have already happened. Because more and more of you are reaching the required energy levels, the contacts will gain momentum exceptionally.

Words are insufficient to express our deep joy in meeting you "face to face".

Go in Peace and be assured of our never-ending Love for you!

On behalf of your Galactic Family,

Your brother,

Ashtar

Adamu: Disclosure and Unity Consciousness, May 2013

“A Message from Adamu of the Monadic Entity of the Pleiadian Civilisation ~ Disclosure and Unity Consciousness,” May 2013, at <https://archangelsanddevas.wordpress.com/2013/05/13/a-message-from-adamu-of-the-monadic-entity-of-the-pleiadian-civilisation-disclosure-unity-consciousness/>

Zingdad

Greetings to you my friends!

I AM Adamu of the Monadic Entity of the Pleiadian Civilisation.

Of all the questions put to us who you identified as “extra-terrestrial” intelligences, the one we hear the most often, the question expressed with the most emotional intensity is this: “When are you going to appear in our skies? When are you going to land on earth? When is disclosure going to happen?”

This line of enquiry is so often put to us that you have probably begun to weary of our vague responses. Either this or you have become disenchanted with one or more failed promises of our arrival.

So now I wish to address this issue with some clarity. It is time for plain speaking and honesty. There is no more place for coyness. But in order to address this, I will require of you that you pay attention and follow my line of reasoning with me as I unravel the issues for you. It is unfortunately not as simple an issue as you might think it is.

To begin with. There is not simply one group of extra-terrestrials “out there”. It is not a criticism if I say to you that your vision is somewhat myopic. It is simply a statement of fact given that you are a particle of consciousness incarnated into deep density. So it is natural that many people on Earth don’t even believe in extra-terrestrial life. And of those that do, most think in terms of “extra-terrestrials” as being one homogenous group of aliens. The broader thinkers amongst you might conceptualise there being a number of other inhabited planets which might send the occasional ship out to sneakily observe you. Well, the truth of the matter is vastly more complex and, dare I say it, more exciting and interesting than this.

Earth is one of an infinite number of places upon which life exists. Of that infinity of points of origin a truly vast number of civilisations have, in this Universe, evolved to the point where the boundaries of space and time have ceased to constrain them. There are many methods to move faster than light. It is in reality nothing more than an imaginary boundary.

In the past, on your planet, there were those that said the speed of sound was an unbreakable barrier. Now your faster aircraft measure their speed in how many multiples of the speed of sound they are able to fly. And in a similar way the light-speed barrier is very much one that can be overcome. You simply need to think a little differently about the physics of the universe.

Some methods allow craft to travel very fast indeed and traverse inter galactic spaces in a matter of, what would seem like, weeks or months. Other, more advanced techniques are more about consciousness than physics. The craft is really a being that is able to elevate its consciousness to higher dimensional levels where this Universe is just one of many parallel structures of reality and then to return to the lower dimensions again, this time at the space/time nexus of the desired destination.

Such a process allows the traveller to go from any point in space and time in any one of the possible alternate universes to any other point in space/time/probability in an instant. The translation might to a traveller objectively feel to have occurred in a matter of moments. But those moments are... mind expanding to say the least.

You move into oneness with the Universe and then return to separation and individuation again. It is a strange and wonderful thing to experience, especially the first few times. But I digress.

What I wish to convey here is that there is a profuse abundance of life “out there”. Nothing I can say will stretch your imagination enough to even begin to understand how much life really is “out there” and how varied and complex it all is. And how many different consciousness’s are, right now, teeming around, upon and within your planetary sphere.

If you could raise your awareness right now and observe your planet from all the various densities of consciousness, you would be staggered to see how many craft of how many types are constantly engaged with Earth. Right from the little tin buggies of the more junior races, though the vast city-sized Mother-ships of the intermediate races, right up to the crystalline and pure-light form entities of the more advanced beings.

So many are here that you could scarcely look anywhere without seeing this kind of activity at one density level or another. And as many as are here, there are orders of magnitude more races that would be able to be here but are, quite simply disinterested. They have other business elsewhere and they apparently feel that what transpires here does not directly interest them. So why can you not see us? Why are we not landing and walking amongst you?

These are valid questions. Let me say that, on the one hand we very much already are here and have landed and are walking amongst you! There are craft and beings upon the planet all the time. But that is not the point of your question, is it? What you want is to SEE us for yourselves and to interact with us. Correct? Well this too does happen albeit on a very limited scale. Many see all kinds of things in the skies and KNOW they are seeing an extra-terrestrial craft.

Many have had direct interactions with one of a variety of extra-terrestrial beings. But this still does not answer your question. What you actually want is for us to make a dramatic show that is undeniable to all. You are asking us to land and interact with you on a massive scale. For some obscure reason, more than a few of you seem to want us to land on the Whitehouse lawn. A thought that is more than a little odd.

What part of “declaration of war” is not understood by those that wish for us to do so? For certainly, this is how such an action would be perceived! But back to the sponsoring thought of your request for us to appear. You wish us to show ourselves in a way that ALL upon the planet are forced to admit to our existence and in a way that rips apart the tissue of lies that has been told about us.

So why do we not do this?

Let me assure you it is not because we cannot do so! It is because we will not. I will now tell you why. But to do so you are going to have to endure a short lesson in the evolution of galactic civilisation. All civilisations go through a number of steps in their growth and evolution. First the civilisation is seeded at its point of origin. Mostly these are planets but sometimes civilisations begin inside stars, it might surprise you to learn.

Or indeed in other places that might seem even less likely to you. How about the periphery of a black hole for an interesting origin.

But be that as it may. Wherever a new civilisation is seeded, it is the norm for it to be nurtured and watched over by an older more developed civilisation. The gods of your myths and legends are actually just this: space faring civilisations that interacted with earth humans when your race was newly formed and in need of teaching regarding certain basics like agriculture, language, writing and various other subjects like mathematics or astronomy.

At some point in the civilisation's advancement, however, there comes the time when separation must occur. The older race that watches over the younger race must depart. They must seem to leave their protégé's to their own devices.

This is necessary as it is only then that the younger civilisation can move properly into the 3rd density of consciousness. As long as the old ones are hanging around watching over you, you are doing as you are told. You are not truly choosing and discovering for yourself who you really are. So their role is to get you going so that you can carry on without them and then to exit stage left. Or at least they must seem to do so.

They can of course watch over you from the shadows where you are not aware of them. It is possible that they might also have their own attachment issues and that they might continue to try to tinker with your development from behind the scenes.

It does happen! But be that as it may, with this departure the young planetary civilisation takes its first tentative, shaky steps into 3rd density consciousness as it chews on the fruit of the knowledge of good and evil, as it were.

And this is where your planetary consciousness has been for the last many thousands of years. And since the gods of your myths have seemed to leave you to your selves, you have been deeply immersed in your own choices about who you, individually and collectively, really are.

This is the hallmark of the 3rd Density of consciousness. It is ALL about CHOICE. The choice is this: where will you put your energy? Or put another way: where will you focus your love? You have had the ages of choice to sort this out for yourself before the next age begins. And right now you are pretty much in the very centre of the transition between the age of choice and the next age. The opportunity to make up your mind and choose is drawing to a close as it has for countless other planetary civilisations that walked some variation of this same path.

So let us take a look at the choice that lies before you. This can, essentially, be reduced to four main possibilities. First there is the choice to steadfastly continue NOT to choose. It is your right to refuse to choose and you will not be forced.

This approach is for the soul that has not seen sufficient examples of the options and it will result in such a being going back into the 3D-Cycle again for another go-around. This is not a step forward. It is a choice to take the same class again. Where such a being will end up will depend on that being's higher-self. But it is entirely possible to come back to planet Earth at the beginning of this self-same cycle, if that is what is desired.

The SECOND CHOICE is to choose what is popularly called "Service to Others". This is the choice for one that is love-and-light oriented. If you feel the good and right thing for you to do is to put others before yourself and to give and serve and love and to make the world a better place... then STO is for you. If you have firmly made this choice then you are already living these ideals.

As the transition plays out you will find yourself moving into a reality where you will be surrounded by more and more beings of your own polarity and at some point you will even begin to meet and interact with space-family who are of this same polarity. Perhaps you will even be going with them to a planet which is more truly "home" for you than Earth is.

Planetary civilisations that are polarised this way are in the main very peaceful, kind and gentle places to be. There is a harmonious coexistence that is quite pleasant for many, if possibly a little boring for others.

I say boring because things can tend to the predictable as conflict of any kind is rare and no-one seeks to put themselves forward over another. But there IS opportunity for excitement for the STO oriented individual. At the fringes of these societies there is an eternally raging conflict with members of the opposite polarity. Let me first tell you all about those.

The THIRD CHOICE is for what is called “Service to Self”. It is the opposite and balancing polarity to other. STS is the choice for those that seek their own pleasure, power and advancement before that of any other. If you feel you are the most important person in your reality and it is right for you to always put yourself first, then this is your polarity and you will find yourself living this ideal already.

You will most likely either be in a position of service of power over others in some legally legitimised way, such as being a corporate leader or a government power-player, or you will find your way to power over others illegally such as through crime or even just victim/perpetrator psychodramas. You will also gravitate to those who you perceive to be powerful and you will serve them but only as a vehicle to your own advancement.

As the transition plays out you will find yourself inhabiting a reality surrounded by ever more beings who, like you, are seeking their own self-service. And in due course you shall also meet members of other space civilisations who themselves are predominantly service-to-self. I shall not be coy about this. STS is a hard path and I feel great compassion for those that travel this road. The path of ego over heart is the lonely path. And there is no soft place to fall ever. No one can be trusted and everyone is manipulating for their own interests.

It is very much eat or be eaten in such a reality. But many thrive in such circumstances. They are adept power-players and they get to the top of every heap they are in. They love the power and glory of having minions to do their every bidding. And they are very willing to play the role of the cruel and heartless master to keep everyone in line. There are many compensations for life in such a hard reality. Certainly the ego may be given full reign in its search for gratification.

One of the hallmarks of true STS civilisations is rapacious use and abuse of planetary resources. Another is unbridled expansionism. Put these two things together and it is obvious that such civilisations will be constantly seeking to colonise other planets. Where they find other civilisations on those planets they will seek to dominate them and take from them what they need.

Resources, slaves... whatever it is that they desire. And so it is that borderlines are quickly drawn.

STO civilisations band together and defend what is theirs from constant incursions from STS civilisations. And so it comes to be that there is an on-going never-ending war in the heavens between these two polarities of being. The war often reaches a kind of stalemate and borderlines seem to become permanently drawn. This is because STO civilisations are naturally harmonious and are very willing to co-operate and help each other. They will leap to each other's mutual defence as a matter of course. So they easily form vast pan-galactic alliances which have access to so much by way of combined resources that they become a very formidable defensive foe.

STS civilisations, by contrast, do not easily form alliances. If they do these agreements are weak as they exist only to serve the transient, narrow self-interest of the signatories. At the drop of a hat the parties stab each other in the back and the alliance collapses. STS civilisations grow by conquest. Empires grow to span many planets and then schism and collapse in on themselves as internal conflicts over power pull them apart. But these civilisations are always seeking advantage over all others and war is a natural expression of their way of being. And that outlines the STO and STS duality between which you might now be choosing.

BUT THERE IS A FOURTH CHOICE: It is the choice to simply leap-frog the realm of Duality altogether, and to ascend your consciousness above the petty squabbles. This is the choice for Unity Consciousness.

All STS and STO civilisations will themselves come to a window period such as you are now in. And there they will have the opportunity to either switch polarity, which is rare, or to make the leap and come to the realisation that POLARITY IS AN ILLUSION. There is, in truth, only Oneness. The “self” is in deepest truth, one with The All. “Other” and “self” are temporary illusory constructs that are brought to us via the veil of unknowing.

Separation is, it is discovered, an optional experience. It is entirely possible to hold onto individualism whilst releasing separation. If this choice is made then a whole new way of being blooms for that civilisation. A reality which is based upon each particle... each individuated portion of soul, simply expressing itself as it must. Where each being gives its greatest gift and receives in exchange all that it needs from those around it.

Coming to THIS level of awareness is incredibly liberating and empowering. It means there is never any further need for conflict at all. And there is certainly no boredom from lack of diverse interaction either! What happens to those of Unity Consciousness is that they come to know themselves to be One with the Infinite Source of All.

The significance of what this means can scarcely be explained. It means you are directly connected with infinite energy, infinite creativity and infinite potential. You are able to focus your attention anywhere and everywhere you like. You are able to blink from here to anywhere you can imagine. You are able to create by an act of will.

Whole realities and Universes are expressed like so many playful thoughts by such beings. In fact the Universe you are now in is really nothing more or less than a fascinating conversation between such beings. And you, yourself, no matter who you are, are ultimately one of many simultaneous expressions of one such a being.

And here is the good news. If you are willing, If it is your heart's desire, then you are able to make the choice for Unity Consciousness and in so doing transcend the intermediary duality polarities. THIS is in fact the great miracle of what is happening on your planet right now.

Yours is the first planetary civilisation in which this is being tried:

To go directly from the choice stage of deepest duality right up to Unity Consciousness. It has never been done before and your planet and this space/time nexus is the test case. It is the model according to which a whole new way of doing the business of spiritual evolution will be played out.

So this is possible for you. You can begin to awaken to true Unity Consciousness right now.

Now, please understand. There is no judgement of those that choose the polarities or indeed of those that choose NOT to choose. But it is simply so that it is not essential that you spend the next age of your existence in one or the other polarity. And there is something else you should realise.

If and when you do awaken to true Unity Consciousness then you will realise that everyone actually also made that choice. Eventually, you see, everyone does. And when you do then you step out of the game and find everyone else there too. That's the point of Oneness. It is all encompassing. No one and nothing is not really, a part of the Oneness.

But... the more attentive amongst you are now wondering... what does all this have to do with disclosure? Well, now that you have a little background in galactic anthropology, I can finally tell you:

Your planet has been kept in a kind of semi-quarantine since the departure of the older races that we were talking about a moment ago. Many of the craft that are in the vicinity of your planet are there, primarily, to enforce this quarantine. This is to make sure that you are not unduly interfered with.

In the main, your civilisation must be allowed to proceed unhindered so that you can each make the aforementioned choice. Assuredly there are STS races who are eager to pounce upon the incredible diversity of resources that you and your planet represent. And equally there are STO races that are diligently working to keep them at bay whilst also performing a number of services to your planet.

But ultimately all the elements of both of these polarities MUST make representations to the Planetary Council before they are permitted to take any action. Or else they are simply denied access. Your planet is surrounded by what I can only describe as a kind of a spiritual membrane. A zone of much higher dimensional energy. It is actually a spirit being that provides this service. And this forms a boundary that cannot be crossed by anyone of less than pure Unity-Consciousness.

However, it is the best interests of the All that some work be permitted to be done on your planet. Perhaps you have heard of some of the STO civilisations sending ships to help with the cleaning up of this pollution or the balancing of that problem in Gaia's energy body. Perhaps you know of them strategically inactivating nuclear weapons from time to time. These kinds of things must be allowed to happen if catastrophic destruction of your whole civilisation is to be averted. So STO races apply to the Guardians of the Planetary Council and are given permission to carry on such activities.

But the Planetary Council is of balanced Unity Consciousness. So it is that each such activity by an STO group will draw a Counter-Request from an STS race. They will want to gain access to your planet for this or that purpose. These requests are weighed against the greater good and sometimes they are permitted. So, for example... a human being on planet Earth might have a soul contract in place that allows for him to be interfered with by an STS group. In such a case a so-called abduction experience might be permitted.

There was an instance in your history when you discovered the powerfully destructive forces of nuclear weaponry. The dawning of such a capacity for self-destruction is a trigger moment for interaction. The leaders of the nuclear aggressor nation were approached by beings of both polarities, STO and STS.

Two competing offers were made. The Earth leaders at the time chose to rebuff the offer by the STO group. They chose the STS offer of deep secrecy and behind-the-scenes chicanery at the expense of the peoples of their own nation and the earth at large. They did this in exchange for access to weaponisable technologies.

A contract was opened in this way with the STS races. But even the activities which occurred under the auspices of that contract are heavily monitored and limited. But it did mean that the STO offer was turned down. And this would have included a process of peaceful disarmament of the whole planet in exchange for clean free-energy technologies and techniques for eliminating illness and hunger.

And so your planet has progressed with this most momentous of interactions hushed up and hidden. And those in power that had, and continue to have, interactions with extra-terrestrial consciousness's have worked quite diligently to procure a situation where discussion of and belief in UFOs and ETs is relegated to the realm of kooks and crazies. Ironical that they themselves know that it is all true!

Now, it might dawn upon you to ask why only STO and STS groups are permitted to interact with you. Why, you might ask, are there not true unity conscious beings playing their role. The answer is quite simple. Ones of Unity Consciousness are not able to engage with you consciously. You see, in order to inhabit the reality you do, your consciousness must be passed through what is called the Veil of Unknowing. You cannot know Oneness while you are on that side of the veil. And so a unity conscious being cannot interact with you.

It is as if such beings are permanently perfectly cloaked from your perceptions. The only way you will be able to become aware of such beings is if you raised your consciousness and ascended your own psyche to a higher density of awareness. But this is something that very seldom happens and so you don't really hear about people suddenly becoming aware of a being of pure radiant crystalline light.

On the rarest of occasions, when this does happen, it is a powerfully transformative experience and the person sets off on a new course of seeking truth and love after that.

But the point is, unity conscious beings are not primarily able to interact with veiled beings. Not in the normal sense of having someone sit opposite you for a conversation. But that is not to say that we do not do work in consciousness. We are present with you all the time and are constantly offering you guidance and help – if you are but willing to receive it and act upon it.

And so finally. When will disclosure occur? Let me say that it is vanishingly unlikely that your world governments will disclose. At root, the ones that wield the power are completely STS. And to tell the truth about their knowledge of and engagement with extra-terrestrial intelligence is tantamount to admitting to all kinds of atrocities committed against humanity and a long-running game of lies and deception. And then, for their efforts, they would immediately lose all the power they so desperately crave as you realise what has really been going on.

If they disclose all, you will abandon all their games like money, politics and organised religion. You will give up on hatred of each other. You will ignore national, racial, social and religious boundaries. You will see each other for what you really are: one family of beings that is an integral part of a much greater universal family. They will lose everything they have worked so hard for and get nothing in return. So they simply won't do this.

The lie is sometimes told that they keep you from knowledge in order to keep you from panicking and harming yourselves. Well... STO groups have staged a number of powerful demonstrations to prove that this is just another fabrication. It has been shown that humanity is very much robust enough to handle knowledge of and interaction with extra-terrestrial beings.

So the governments will not come clean. Some disclosure has happened amongst various world governments that have nothing much to lose from doing so. But the real government... the hidden ones behind the scenes... they are highly unlikely to show any of their cards. Many of the events you know about where you were promised disclosure or where you were promised a great showing of ships were really a game that was being played out between the STO and STS to either force their hand or to bring your consciousness forward towards your own awakening.

You see THIS, your awakening, is the only way true disclosure will happen. No worthy and wise government representative will appear on your television screen to tell you the truth. They have squandered all such opportunities. Indeed, as the age transitions, you will be able to disclose to yourself what you know to be true.

The transition will happen and you will choose. And then timelines will diverge.

And then you will see what you know to be true. You will find yourself inhabiting a reality in which there is no question but that there are races from other places in the Universe who are able to interact with you. The quality of those engagements will depend on you and how you choose. What you awaken to...depends on what you are telling yourself about yourself now, while you dream.

The centre of the window of opportunity is, for some fairly complex reasons, the end of the year, 2012. And as you move forward so it will become more and more powerfully apparent that YOU BRING EVERY experience you have to you, by your choices, beliefs and ideas. As you do this more consciously so it will be ever more powerfully apparent to you. You will be able to leave behind ones that are deeply dis-resonant with your own energy.

And then the change will be done and you will find yourself in a Reality that is entirely resonant with your own vibration. And then you will see what you know to be true. And no talking head in a suit will need to appear on a quaint little picture-box to tell you anything about your reality. For outside in the night sky will be ships of light!

And with that thought I leave you.

I love you with the heart of oneness.

I AM Adamu of the Monadic Entity of the Pleiadian Civilisation

Where are the Delegations Leading? March 2012

"Where are the Delegations Leading?" May 7, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/05/07/where-are-the-delegations-leading/>

Originally from Archangel Michael, "The Multidimensional New Earth Takes Shape," through Celia Fenn, March 2012, <http://www.starchildglobal.com/>.

We might ask ourselves what the meetings associated with the delegations are leading to. What form of governance for Gaia are they ultimately planned to result in?

We might consider, in this regard, a passage from Celia Fenn, channeling Archangel Michael, in 2012.

Yes, Beloved Family of Light, after 2012 and the Earth's Passage through the Portal of Light in December, the Earth will be entrusted to the keeping of those of you who are chosen and elected to the first New Earth Council of Earth Keepers and its associated Council of Elders.

These Beings will be initiated into the 8th and 9th Dimensions where they will work with the Solar Councils and the Galactic Councils of Light. At last, Earth will take its place as a "star of Light", whose evolutionary path is determined by Divine Will and Divine Creative Intelligence, and those who follow the Divine Will.

You may ask how this is possible, given the state of politics on your Earth today. We say simply that the new multi-dimensional Earth is taking shape and the "old" energies of conflict and duality will have little importance in the Future that is being manifested.

The frequency of duality and conflict belongs to the old third-dimensional world, and it is fading away. The new fifth-dimensional Earth is based on flow and harmony, and the shifting of polarities into unity.

Those in your Earth society who are advanced seek to bring polarities into unity through dialogue and discussion. This is the way of the New Earth and it will become the predominant mode of political life in an awakened fifth-dimensional Earth.

But, more importantly, the real power to determine the future path of the Earth is passing into the hands of the Earth Keeper Council and the Council of Elders. These ones are called and chosen in the higher dimensions and they have access to the Solar and Galactic Councils.

They are not "obvious" to those in fifth-dimensional society, but they are those who are multi-dimensional and can access Higher Consciousness and create and manifest according to Divine Will as it is expressed in your Golden Rose Galaxy that is birthing and forming now.

With these structures in place, Earth ascends into her new "orbit" as the Blue Star Planet, the first planet within the Galaxy to achieve full multi-dimensional status and to be governed by a Council of Earth Keepers and Elders.

These are "elected" by their soul communities on the higher level for their wisdom, commitment and courage.

Indeed, Beloved Ones, there is much excitement as these new structures are put in place and connected with the New Earth grids. We know many of you have thought that the Beings of Light would come down to the Earth, but we say that it is you who will ascend to meet with the Beings of Light in the Solar and Galactic Councils and take your place as part of the Golden Galaxy.

Notes on Adamu Speaks ~ Timelines... and the Dissolution of the illuminati! August 13, 2019

Suzi Maresca, "Notes on Adamu Speaks ~ Timelines... and the Dissolution of the illuminati!" August 13, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/08/13/notes-on-adamu-speaks-timelines-and-the-dissolution-of-the-illuminati/>

This transmission by Adamu of the Monadic Entity of the Pleiadian Civilization came through Zingdad on August 9, 2019:

There are high-frequency consciousnesses that each hold a plan for life. This plan is called a "timeline". They do this by holding a vacuum into which life must flow. Except they hold that vacuum not in space, but in time. Prior to this incarnation, we would have sat with our Guides, knowing that we're about to take flesh in order to achieve an objective.

The goal for incarnating might have been to transform or awaken to unconditional love or to greater compassion, or perhaps to heal trust for the self or the Divine. There are many possibilities and objectives for transforming consciousness.

We wished to arrive at whatever intended outcome. The journey is the timeline we live. There might be a number of journeys as part of our lives...careers, relationships, etc. The strands of our individual timelines get woven together into greater and greater timelines...individual, planetary and galactic on out. There's a consciousness that oversees each timeline that makes sure that it flows in the desired direction.

We've expressed ourselves into lives on planets beyond number, in this galaxy and beyond. Each planet has had its intention for each civilization that arises on it. There have been a number of civilizations on planet Earth before ours. Each time our Galactic friends have witnessed a civilization arising, flowering, coming to full consciousness and ascending, they've refined their view of what makes a successful journey through timelines. What makes planetary consciousness arise?

They've seen things that work and support the awakening of consciousness, and timelines have been created to support that. Timelines are conscious beings.

Adamu speaks of a past channeling by Zingdad of a being called Master Eight about densities. Master Eight is the holder of the gate between the 7th and 8th densities of consciousness. Our planetary consciousness is in 3rd density. Those arising from the matrix are third density beings. Those listening to this transmission are mostly from outside, coming in from other places beyond this reality to support this process of Ascension. We work to raise consciousness from 3rd density to higher.

So far, we have the duality choice of the service-to-self path or the service-to-other path. This is where he speaks of the intentional loving misinformation.

Timelines diverge according to self-responsible vs. other-responsible. Why is it now time to correct this information and what does it mean? Loose lips sink ships as a phrase is relevant to the reason why misinformation was deemed necessary.

Some things shouldn't be known to all because there is an agenda in place on Earth that is deeply light-deficient. They (the deeply light-deficient “DLD”) don't want the consciousness of the matrix to arise to full Divine Awakening and God-consciousness. They wish to maintain control of what's happening on the planet.

In a manner of speaking, the DLD feed on us and our emotions. They like to be in control of us and use us as minions and puppets. They want the whole of the matrix to remain in a somnolent state (sleeping for unusually long periods.)

If the DLD are told what the streams of consciousness are to wake us up, they'll use that information against the Children of the Matrix. They've already weaponized timelines against us.

The idea that service-to-self is less benevolent and service-to-others is more benevolent has been used against us.

Look at what's happening in the press, in academia and in our collective consciousness. Our best motivations have been used as a vehicle to harm us, our bloodlines, culture and our personal sense of security. It's been done to turn Humans against each other so that we remain malleable and controllable.

It turned out to be a good move to not release this information until it was too late for it to be used against us, and that time is now.

The two timelines flow according to our choice to be self-responsible (SR) or other responsible (OR).

The difference between the two is that a self-responsible soul takes action either on their own behalf or simply when action is called for. The other-responsible soul thinks somebody else has to fix them, or fix the situation

Adamu goes into detail on what each soul choice looks like and why it matters so much to us if we want to be in more tangible contact with our Galactic friends.

Self-responsibility leads directly into creator consciousness. It leads to an acceptance that the Divine resides in us.

Other-responsibility leads directly to victim consciousness, lashing out and anger.

There's a separation between the SR and OR souls. The Pleiadians can engage productively and usefully with SR souls. That isn't possible with the OR.

They could re-resonate their lightships to the frequency we're inhabiting and drop into our awareness right now, land on our front lawns and come to say hello to us. They could engage with SR politicians, and they would be able to come and help.

They would be able to do this because when they arrived they would be welcomed. The awareness of those of the Pleiadian monadic entity is billions of years old while Earth Humans have only 6,000 years of awareness. As an older civilization, they've ironed out all of the kinks of what we struggle with and could be as an older brother to us. They would be able to do that with the self-responsible because we look to ourselves for solutions but are also open to help.

The other-responsible would be fearful and reactive if our Galactic friends just showed up. It would create chaos and pandemonium. If the OR did get to a place of believing that Star Family is benevolent and here to help, the attitude would be to say, “Just fix everything for us” and then do nothing for themselves.

That would cement our culture exactly where it is. We would stop growing and evolving and become either their prisoners or like recalcitrant children who never grow up.

Were timelines to diverge and were we to find ourselves in a SR society, members of the Galactic Federation of civilizations, determined to support the positive evolution of consciousness, would be able to engage with us. They would want to. It would be good for all parties and serve the greater good.

The timeline with the OR has no chance of contact with benevolent ET races such as those of the Galactic Federation.

Currently there's a mix of such diversity on the planet that they have to leave things alone until we create a divergence in our timelines. That moment of the fraying of the timelines into other possibilities and the process of the divergence of those timelines is called "The Event." (1)

What The Event actually is, is not fixed. When and how it happens and over what period of time is very variable. Earth Humanity, both those who come from the outside in and those who are awakening from the Matrix up, are the ones who decide how The Event will unfold.

Besides these two timelines...the SR and the OR ones...consciousness arose that at least one additional timeline must be created, because there's something very special happening on Earth right now.

From the Matrix up, beings are awakening, but a very small number of them are awakening in a way that is “completely delightfully amazingly surprising.”

We have a part of our brain which is dedicated to speech. It's part of our nature, so even very young babies have the desire to speak.

If our animal companions suddenly started speaking, we would be very surprised, because they don't have a speech center built into their brain. It would be miraculous.

That kind of miracle is busy happening with Humanity. We haven't got the brain wiring necessary to do what we've been doing in waking up. There's an awakening to miraculous talents. Our ability to engage such gifts is accelerating.

Those that are awakening in this way would be wasted on the SR or OR path. For those on the accelerated path, this would be a plodding, slow journey.

So, a transcendent new level of reality needed to be opened up for those.

To the Wanderers, almost certainly all those listening to this transmission, the Starseeds, the Lightbringers, those who came from a higher plane of existence to help out here ~

“You have gifted so courageously, given so much and risked so much. Your sacrifice has been so deep, and you've come to this planet and had the slings and the torments and the pain. You've suffered as a result of incarnating here. You've shattered yourselves to be here. And you've learned to love this planet.”

(And here is where tears started rolling down my cheeks)

“Many of you speak to us of your great love of nature and animals and life here.”

Consciousness arises that there's a better outcome for us than to simply return to where we came from when this great gifting is over.

So for those on the accelerated awakening path and for the Starseeds and Light Bringers who wish it, there is a third timeline that's recently been opened. He can speak about it now because it can no longer be blocked.

This third timeline is the Unity Conscious timeline. It's neither SR nor OR, but it is for those who have the dawning of the Light, of oneness of God, Source, Creator present within ~ those who want to experience a blissful, joyful life on a planet very like this except surrounded by others who are themselves unity conscious.

We'll be surrounded by those who are wise and kind and loving...surrounded by those who have magnificent gifts to give. And in that space we can discover and give our own great gifts.

This third timeline has been opened.

The demise of the Ancient Red Vampire (transmission posted here) is what triggered a realization that this third timeline needed to be opened.. They knew that if they were transparent and clear about what they were doing in opening that timeline, those agents of the deeply light-deficient agenda would work against it and make it as impossible as they could for the timeline to be anchored.

They told a story that was a lower version of reality. They told a story of creating Light Circles which would exclude certain demonic activity. He mentions the Marzons, spoken of in a previous transmission.

That was true, but the Light Circles actually are and always were unity conscious reality timeline anchors.

They placed anchors in Hawaii, Los Angeles and New York. The anchors were so placed because they were most crucially needed across the United States. More of these will be created around the world, but only one anchor was truly needed. He goes into detail about who did this with him and from where.

There's work to be done and to be co-created by us. He speaks of the next update they'll do, which will be about how we can create and maintain those Light Circles ourselves. How to create and manifest our own individual timeline. How to weave that with others and create the vast, high-consciousness timeline. Lots of information still coming.

Regarding the dissolution of the illuminati ~ They can speak much more freely now. The gathering of the ancient bloodlines had been somewhat monopolized by the Ancient Red Vampire. With his death, these blocks of power that he had formed and was holding with the strength of his personality have been shattering.

The Federation needed to wait for the internal strife and conflict to create schisms and crumbling in the structure that he had built. We can see this taking place now. The structures of power are beginning to conflict and compete with one another. In so doing, they lose coherence and direction.

Had this not happened, we would already be engaged in planetary war.

The illuminati is now no more. There's no longer one single goal for these old bloodline families

It's good news for those engaged in the awakening process.

After the next update about creating Light Circles, Zingdad and Adamu will create one about The Event itself and the moment when the various timelines fragment from each other. What is it? How does it work? Why do we want to delay it? The longer it takes and the greater period of time over which it unfolds, the better for everybody. Why that is true will be addressed in a following update.

Adamu ends the transmission with this ~ “I wish you Love, Peace and Joy, and I wish that you are ever more present to the Divine Light that burns in your own center. Until then, I love you with the Heart of Oneness.”

Dear Ones, there is so much to take in during these changing times, so let go of the old ways unless they serve the Light, and be ready to change your beliefs to those that come with the New Age. The way is simple and the direction is signposted by Love and Light. If you can find balance and harmony in your life now, we would say that you are already living from a higher state of consciousness. Is it then no wonder that you feel different to many people around you, and find their ways no longer acceptable? It is a sign of the separation that is occurring at the present time, and it is a perfectly normal development.

Archangel Michael: What Happened to Civilization in 1200 BC? May 8, 2019

“Archangel Michael: What Happened to Civilization in 1200 BC?” May 8, 2019, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/05/08/archangel-michael-what-happened-to-civilization-in-1200-bc/>

Given that the galactics are indicating their intention to meet with us in "delegations," the whole subject of the galactics opens up again.

The new emphasis lends meaning to the following article from late 2017. The article looks at what happened in 1200 BC that saw so many civilizations falter and some fail.

Michael's unexpected answer was that the galactics left the planet after having been in co-creative partnership with our civilizations. "[The galactics] no longer saw that their creativity and guidance, input and sense of community were welcome."

As an historian by training, I have an abiding interest in historical matters. One mystery has long intrigued me and I asked Archangel Michael about it in my last reading through Linda Dillon, Nov. 15, 2017.

Right around 1200 BC, many civilizations fell, were eroded, or suffered some other obstacle to their progress.

Various theories have been advanced - natural disaster, invasion of the "sea people," etc. (1)

But what actually happened? Archangel Michael says it had to do with the withdrawal of our star family from active participation in our societies. They felt it was time for us to manage our own affairs.

We promptly turned on each other and started a series of wars of conquest that lasts to this day.

Steve Beckow: There is a mystery that I'm hoping you can help me solve and that's that something happened in 1200 BC to numerous civilizations and they experienced at least a hiccup in the case of Egypt but also fell in the case of the Hittites and some of their neighbors. What happened in 1200 BC, Lord?

Archangel Michael: There was a great deal that happened in that area that you would term 1200 BC. First of all, during that time many [galactics] returned home (2) and we do not just mean to the Sacred One (3) but also many returned to the ships (4) and there was a cleavage, a breaking of much of the partnership and co-creative partnerships between your star brothers and many civilizations.

There was also a similar time, a rise of what you can think of as darkness, what we would term as a resurgence. Yes, you tend to think of these fear factors as recent. They are not. They are ancient and they are original.

[How did we humans do in the absence of our star brothers and sisters?]

There was a strong component and a re-anchoring of many of the false grids and the paradigms of control and abuse. Freedom was severely suppressed.

In suppression and control, what happens, if you are suppressing creation and creativity, you are suppressing the ability of being, individually and collectively, truly coming forth in what is possible.

So you had a massive rise in the upswing of creativity, of what you can think of as one of those efforts to create Nova Earth in partnership with many of your star family and the divine.

And then you had the resurgence of the human paradigms of lack, limitation etc. You know the list.

And then [you had] the placing in positions of authority and control, not creativity, [but people into] control-authority-abuse, those who really engaged in those paradigms. That's what happened.

So what you see is civilizations fade away - civilizations that have been in flourishing mode, in blossoming mode.

And then you have seen the rise of those who say, "No, no, no, this is getting out of control. We do not have the lid on that pressure cooker. We are not able to contain this."

And so it is that duality - war - has gone on for a very long time. Now, do civilizations rise and fade? Note that I am saying rise and fade. In that fading, think of it as seasonal, there is the rise and the bringing forth of the new. So it is the ebb and flow as well.

But never was it intended, in this ebb and flow of seasons of tides, that people be squashed and that is what has happened in human history. It has not been in organic ebb and flow. It has been the rise, the squash, the rise, the squash.

Now what you are saying is that there is a fading of what you can think of as, not just as Western civilization, but a fading so that the new of the Earth community and Gaian community can come to the forefront.

Steve: So now why [did they] leave in 1200? Why?

[I'm hoping for the citing of a specific incident or some marker that I can use to look more deeply into the history.]

AAM: They were no longer welcome and they no longer saw that their creativity and guidance, input and sense of community were welcome.

Steve: Twilight of the Gods

AAM: That is correct.

Steve: I'll be darned. But there's no written evidence of this, I'm sure, right?

AAM: No.

Steve: All right, but the decline wasn't due to the "sea peoples"?

AAM: No.

Steve: And the heavy stones at Hattusa and in Egypt and in Babylonia, were they lifted in place by extraterrestrial strategies or devices?

AAM: All of this was done by your star brothers. That is part of what we had this channel do. (5) These are markers. These are basically ancient landing markers that are being revitalized with the Cities of Light.
