Hour with an Angel, 2011

December 12, 2011: Archangel Michael

Graham Dewyea: Hello and welcome to An Hour with an Angel. I'm delighted to have joining us as special guests Archangel Michael and Linda Dillon, who will be channeling Archangel Michael, and as the channel for the Council of Love. Also joining us is Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario. Steve will be asking questions for Archangel Michael to answer. My name is Graham Dewyea, your host.

Because of the nature of the program we will not be taking callers, and the chat room will be closed tonight. However, we invite you to join us live each Monday evening at 9 pm Eastern Standard Time, and the show will be archived for free at Blog Talk Radio for your reference and enjoyment. And now I'll pass it over to you, Steve.

Steve Beckow: Lord, thank you for making yourself available to our listeners. I'm very pleased that everything has come together and you're able to be with us. Let me just review what I plan to ask you this evening. I'll be asking you questions on NESARA, which is also called the Abundance Program, the Bridge Project, disclosure, and President Obama. And to begin with, I'd like to offer you the opportunity to make any introductory comments you'd like to make on this 12/12 day as we approach the final year of 2012.

Archangel Michael: Welcome.

SB: Thank you.

AAM: Yes, I am Michael, Archangel of Peace, warrior of love, bringer of truth. And I welcome all of my beloved friends this night, this time of unfoldment upon the planet of Earth, of Terra Gaia, and Nova Earth. Let us begin this way.

This unfoldment that you have been in has been in process for some time. But I wish, before we even start, [to] ask each of you to ignite with me the blue flame of truth that I have embedded in your heart, the blue flame of truth that I have embedded within your third eye, within your throat. Take this moment with me, that you will hear not only the truth of my words, but the love of the messages that we share together this day.

I have given you this. We have travelled together through dark times and through brilliant times, which you often refer to as darkness and light. Often you think that now you are in a time of chaos, that you are headed towards the darkness, and that's simply not.

And so I want you to know this. Everything is in divine order. We did not simply pick a year in Earth time for this unfoldment, for this plan. And your plan with us has been in place for eons, and certainly for thousands and thousands of years that you have known and inhabited this Earth. You have gone through the clearing. You have gone through the integration of the fullness of your soul design. You have anchored your divinity.

So I begin tonight, in this time of miraculous change, asking you, my brothers and sisters, why do you doubt? Doubt is of the old way. It's of the old paradigm. It's of fear. It's polarity and duality. And it does not serve you. If there was one thing I would ask you to do with me, with the Company of Heaven, with the Council of Love, with your own guides and friends, with your own human circle, it would be to point yourself, steer yourself, aim yourself towards the light.

And you say to me, Lord, how do I know it's light? And I laugh, because this is within you. It's within your heart, it's within your mind, and yes, my beloved ones, it's even within your ego. You have done the work. Is there further yet to go, as we approach this time of massive change, this time that we've all been waiting for? Yes, of course there's. And we will talk about that tonight. But as we start, listen with your heart, listen with your flame, and prepare yourself to step forward in peace, in truth, and in the wholeness of who you are.

We have never asked, required, or even wanted you to be anyone else. For each of you are unique, and part of this mosaic. Each of you are necessary. That is why you are listening tonight. This is not simply about the Company of Heaven, the Higher Realms, as you so often call it. Applying the unfoldment of Universal Mother's plan, it's the divine partnership that we've with you, that we've with our beloved sister Gaia, that we've throughout the Omniverse, of what you think of as the Galactics and the Inter-Galactics. All of it's of a piece.

So as you enter this time, think now with me of 12/12, of this day in your time and in your history. Feel the wider opening of the energies of unity, of balance – for this is the key. This is not something you need to seek hither and yon, running around. It's what you find when you stop, when you align, and then move forward.

I do not wish – none of us do – for any of you to look at this unfoldment of what you have thought of as 2012 as a drama. And we've been hearing plenty of drama around this issue. And, my dear ones, much of it comes from the light-holders and light-workers. So I say to you, let go. This is not a time to be involved in that fray. It's a time to rise above it. Yes, you have talked about Ascension. And this is a time that has been talked about for years and years and years. It's not doom and gloom, it's you assuming your rightful role with us in this time of love, in this golden age of peace.

SB: Thank you, Lord. Do you want to say anything to our listeners specifically on what has happened on this 12/12 day?

AAM: Yes. I do. For you know me well. I would always want to make comment on pretty much everything, [chuckles] so, on this time, in this period known as 12/12, which – as some of you understand, and some of you may not – began many, many years ago. And it's the time of the re-establishment and the coming of balance, of balance within your human collective, within yourself, upon the planet, for Gaia, in concert with the rest of this Universe, and even universes beyond. You say to me, well, that's nice, but what do I feel? What do I know? And, yes, how do I know?

Well, the floodgates are wide open. And they began, as we say, many years ago – 92, 93. They have opened even wider, just on this past 11/11, and now they open even further, on this day. On 11/11, the quality was more for the human collective. It was in many ways a jump start – of your hearts, of your minds, of your beings – for this process that you think of as Ascension, that sometimes we will speak to you of as shift.

On 12/12 there's a deeper opening. Think of it in this way. When you are in a new relationship, whether it's with a child or a loved one, a partner or friend, there's the beginning, and there's the excitement and the electricity – and a little craziness. And that's what many of you felt on 11/11.

Now, with 12/12, feel the relationship maturing, deepening into that sense of trust and knowing that you are genuinely in a partnership. And in that relationship – with us, with each other, with yourself – there's a deeper anchoring of balance and of inter-connectedness to all, to all forms, not just your human collective, to all elements, to all elementals, to your Star Brothers and Sisters.

This is how a shift happens. It's when trust and love are restored. It's when the heart opens enough and is balanced enough to begin to move into living in trust and in beingness. Now, I use that term and it doesn't mean sit still. Often I have asked you, find your joy. And that's also what 12/12 is about. It's about an enormous increase in what you can think of as your quotient of joy. Remember, my friends, you live in an infinite, ever-expanding universe. That means that the joy, the love is also expanding.

Many of you say to me, but Lord, I have never really experienced joy. So I ask of you, with my sister Gabrielle, to sit in your heart, to feel my blue flame, and hers of gold, and allow the joy to penetrate you. How it demonstrates in real life is a greater sense of being anchored firmly, two feet on the ground, but a sense of well-being that may have eluded you for years, a sense of knowing that even if it doesn't seem like everything is in order in your life, or in the greater cosmos, that you are all right, and that you are in that place of oneness. You are joined in love and light.

Now, many have ascended this day. Yes, and most of them are coming back, just as they did at 11/11, and earlier. They come back as gate-keepers, as showers of the way, to assist in this process. You say, well, how can it happen in the space of about a year? Well, it happens because there are so many volunteers, above and below.

SB: Is there anyone we know, Lord, anyone that would be known to the readers of the 2012 Scenario or other related blogs?

AAM: Yes, there are. And here I am going to practice – and share with you, my friend – discernment. Because I do not wish to bring attention to these people.

SB: All right, thank you.

AAM: Understand, they are – like you – they are part of the legions of light. And they are doing a job very specifically that has been part of their contract and part of their heart's desire and promise. There are those, still, that would not wish to see this shift be complete, even though it's already underway. And now I talk about the human collective, not Gaia or the rest of the Universe. The human collective, much of them, many of them, like the status quo. So I do not want attention drawn. There is enough attention being focused.

Now, it's either ironic or, can we say, idiotic that in many cases those who believe – and I emphasize that word, because it's still their belief system that they are caught in – they believe that they are still in control. And they dismiss, overlook, minimize, often, the power that's coming together in this undertaking of the light-workers and light-holders. And I tell you, that's just fine with us, because the energy is accumulating and growing. The movement is stronger. It's, to use your word, viral. It's catchy. It's communicated in the air that you breathe, so that even those who are believing and trapped in their own illusions are breathing the truth and the change. And they are being affected by it.

So we'd rather they be breathing than trying to affect the lives of those who are working as the gate-keepers. But each of you – and I guarantee this – each of you listening this night knows at least one being who, you may think in your mind or in your heart, they've really changed in the last couple of months. I don't know what it's. Maybe it's availability, maybe it's a change in their patterns, their personality, the light that they radiate. Take a moment and look at them, really look at them, and you will see who has gone and returned to help, and who has simply gone.

SB: It's amazing to contemplate, Lord. Can I ask you – I know that our listeners will want to know about NESARA and disclosure. And I'll just mention to our listeners that NESARA stands for National Economic Security and Reformation Act, which is an act of the American Congress, but it's also called the Abundance Program, the Wisdom Economy, and it's the new economy that's coming in. And disclosure stands for or represents the arrival of the Galactics who are currently around our Earth in cloaked space ships and who are here to help us with Ascension and to prepare Mother Earth. Lord, would you care to comment on both of those?

AAM: I would be pleased to. And, as you know – Nésara, Nesára – it has many opponents, you know.

Yes, indeed.

I've wondered what the delays have been, and part of that delay is those that I have referred to, those who believe that they are still in control, those who do not wish, in their hearts or in their minds, to share. Now, I also tell you – and it will be a theme throughout what I say this night – do not doubt that this will go forward regardless. And many of you think that's outrageous: “This will never happen!” Dear hearts, it's part of the change of your planet! I have spoken to you many times about freedom and equality, about fairness. That is what this is about.

Now, we've emphasized that NESARA and disclosure are not co-dependant, one upon the other. But they are so closely related that it's good that you have asked this question in conjunction. So what I am going to do is speak about disclosure, and then come back to NESARA.

There are many beings that have already agreed – above, in the inter-galactic council, below, in your halls of state, in your governments, and in your power structures, which are very different than your governments – they agree that it's time, because they cannot hide it any longer. The information about the presence of your Star Brothers and Sisters has been known for a long, long time. But there has been this very strong wave of denial. But now there's an eagerness in the air. The difficulty is the governments who would make such announcements are wondering who is going to be the first. And it's because of some of the economic ramifications.

It's that issue again of economy and control, the desire to maintain power over the human collective. And I use this word in the sense of enslavement. And I know that that's a very strong term to use. But can you imagine, from our perspective and from the perspective of your Star Brothers and Sisters, being kept from your family, that bear gifts – technologies, science, wisdom, commerce, trade – who come in peace to assist, and that you are kept from them? Because that's exactly – except for a handful of you, it's exactly what has happened.

But even despite that, the man on the street looks at the stars and sees the ships, and wonders, what's that? And there's a growing eagerness. It's like years ago when people began to talk of angels. Now they talk of their Star Brothers and Sisters as if it's a given. Because of this, and because the economy is a factor, disclosure will come very soon.

And let me tell you about the fear with the economy. It's because when they come, when that announcement is made, or when they simply appear and we say, oh, my, we've visitors, they know the technology and science that was required to get here.

They have known about these gifts for a long time. Now, some of those gifts have already been implanted in the human collective by Star Beings who have volunteered to anchor and to come, what you think of as first wave. But when they come, your global economy will shift. Because things that are valued today will assume a different value.

There will be new technology, new uses for resources, new understandings about cleansing the Earth, getting her ready for her journey homeward. And so it's, again, back to this issue of NESARA, and those who do not wish to have this go forward but see the necessity as an incentive for the humans and the collective to remain loyal, to not panic, to not fall into anxiety, revolution, civil unrest.

And so, in that way, your global economy doing not so well, shall we say, is a boon. It's a benefit. Yes, even now we know that even many of you who are with us tonight have suffered. And we will get to that, as well. But this sharing of the resources is not just part of the Mother's plan, it's also the way of inter-galactic peace, of participation, of fairness in distribution.

Gaia is one of the most diverse, abundant planets anywhere. Yes, her purpose is love, but she was created so that there would not be want and need. If you come to have a physical experience of joy, it does not in any sense make sense that there would be want and need. So there has to be this equalization. And it will come from various sources. It will come through government. And you have seen some of the beginning of those aid programs. It will come when the banks are infiltrated more fully and the compassion is introduced.

So those of you who are working as bank managers and tellers and middle management, know you are there holding the light! It will come from all kinds of sectors. Because there will be a fresh breeze that blows across the globe.

SB: If we've time this evening, perhaps you could address the impression that people have that it's going to be little green men, or little gray men who are going to come down off those ships, which of course is a mistaken impression.

AAM: No, it will not be. First of all, I tell you that as of last October – well, there have been infiltrations for many years – but as of last October, many troops since then have been put on the ground. And when we say troops, I mean it in the same sense as I call you my legion and troops. I do not refer to military might and power.

And they will appear humanoid. Yes, they might be slightly taller, they may have distinct features, but by and large, because they also have this capacity, they will appear much like the humans that are listening. And this is also because there will not be a panic. So it's not that they are so different. They will assume different forms. So no, you will not be seeing little green men running amok.

SB: Well, in truth Lord, the Sirians, Andromedans, Pleiadeans and others, don't they look like us? Are they not our forebears?

AAM: They are. They absolutely are. Now, they've evolved somewhat. But the humanoid, what you think of as humanoid features are all there.

But let me suggest to you that should someone from Andromeda be on a mission to another Universe or place, they also have the capability to shape-shift. As do you. You just haven't realized it.

SB: So you say. [laugh] I'd like to shape-shift younger.

AAM: That's part of the plan. You know, it's a package deal. And the rejuvenation – that's another way you can also see who has gone through the portal and gateways, to the fifth, to the seventh. And you can see that they look and begin to look younger and younger. But that has already been part of what's going on with the human beings and the human race. They are being rejuvenated. Now, many of them are kicking and screaming, but nevertheless, it's happening.

SB: Well, I have two questions that I want to ask before we run out of time. One is I'd like to hear from you your own impressions of President Obama. And if you could explain to us why this wall of criticism is happening, and whether we should be believing it, that's one.

And the second is if you could double back at some point and tell our listeners a little bit more about the Bridge Fund or Bridge Program. So those are the two questions I hope to get in before we need to go.

AAM: Let us speak first very briefly about the Bridge Fund – what we've referred to as the Bridge-NESARA Programs. And these are monies that are coming – hmm, can I say – from private sources, though there will be some public funds, what I think of as industrial funds, that will also come forward. But basically it's private monies that come to begin that sharing and that spirit of freedom, of not being under the yoke. Because that has been a difficulty for so many light-workers, and it's something that has need to be addressed.

But one of the things that this does, the Bridge funding – which begins pretty much right away, by the way – is that it begins to put in the air, in the very fabric of your societies, the understanding that it's important to share, that the light-workers, and I mean those who are truly doing that work, both covert and in the limelight, and somewhere in between, need to be supported.

These have been unpaid jobs in many ways, and many have made financial and personal sacrifices in order to do it. And so this is the beginning of the acknowledgement of that value. It's the encouragement to keep steering for the light.

Now, let us turn to Barack Obama, whom you know as a Star Brother, and he – no, he is human, but he would be what you think of also as starseed. But we would not encourage that, because he has already had enough confusion about where he was born!

The wall of criticism that's aimed at him, it's twofold. First of all, use your flame of truth, your discernment, as you look at these criticisms, because there's a great deal of lack of truth in what's being said. Now, that's not to say that he has accomplished and gone forward with everything that not only you hoped for, not only that we hoped for, but that's also part of the plan, a very key part of the plan.

This country, and in fact we know that there's distinction, but when we look at North America, it's a place of freedom, it's a place of liberty, it's a place where you are free to express truth. And that was the hope for Barack Obama, that he would re-establish that.

Now, in his desire to be conciliatory, in some cases he has not lived up to his potential and to his promise of change. He has been weighed down by the politics, and, yes, seeking the truth and the balance. But he has also guided, as you all are – but let us be very clear about this, it's like a strategy that's in unfoldment. And yes, there's much criticism. So we say some of it's legitimate.

But then I ask of you – because I spend much time walking those halls – where's your heart? When you look at this situation, where's your hope and your dream? Do you abandon those you love and cherish so easily, or do you rally behind them and help them, if they've lost their way or mis-stepped? Do you encourage them, as we encourage you, to go forward, to hold that line, to go forward with things that would be in some situations unpopular – such as disclosure, which will happen very soon, by the way; such as NESARA; such as the Abundance Program. Because it starts in North America and then it sweeps the planet.

There are many cities of light that are being activated all over the globe. And yes, you know where they are. You are probably sitting in them.

But understand, it's not time to believe anything and everything that's leveled at Barack Obama. So where he has erred, encourage him to correct. And where he has done well, speak out.

SB: All right, Lord. Two quick questions on – supplementary. Was he born in Hawaii, and where was George Bush, Senior, born?

AAM: Yes, he was born in Hawaii. George Bush, Senior, does not give permission for this to be disclosed publicly. [inaudible]

SB: Yes, yes, okay. Thank you. I don't want to have anything disclosed that's not permitted. Okay. All right. Let's see. Let me just review the questions I have here. I usually have a lot of questions to ask you, and then you answer most of them in your answer, so...

AAM: So let us talk then about the dream!

SB: Sure.

AAM: Can we do that for a few minutes?

SB: Absolutely. I'd love to have you do so.

AAM: Let us talk about the unfoldment of the plan.

SB: Please.

AAM: When the Earth – when Gaia volunteered to take this form of planet, it was intended to be a place of love, of joy, and of physical experience. That is the definition of the realm in which she had come to occupy known as the third dimension, in your terms. It was for beings, angelic and otherwise, to come assume form, have that experience, and come and go.

This is what the stalling part is for so many on Ascension – the freedom to come and go as you please, or shift form. If you wished to try out what it was like to be a tree or a mountain, you could do so. If you wished to be human, you would do so. Now, as you know, through all the illusions that were constructed by humanity, this was not laid upon you. This came to be lost, this dream of love, and every now and then, as you know, Masters would come. And they would still spread this message of love – in the East, in the West, in the North, in the South. And often these messages, these understandings, also included the fact that the human race and this planet was also part of a bigger family. And that's also something that was lost with this building up of illusions.

So now we come, after a very long time, to a time of shift, because I want you to know the promise, to be in love, to know that absolute connection in Unity, not only with me, but with All. And to be in human form, which is glorious! It's one of the unique creations that you participate in. You get to choose what you look like, where you go, how you operate. But it will be in societies of light, hubs of light, what you used to think of in the Greek times as city-states. And these will be places of equality, of compassion – of qualities that have been forgotten. Prudence – that's a rarely used word on your planet these days. It will be where all thrive, and where all are welcome. And in this time as Gaia, understand this process and this unfoldment. It's the process of Gaia, as she ascends. She is already well underway. And of course, you are accompanying her.

We mention that the human collective is the slowest to join in this, but now it has started, and everyone has already begun rushing for those doors. And the doorway is peace. It's a world without struggle. That does not mean from time to time you will not have tiffs or irritation or frustration, but then you will go back to your heart because you know how to deal with it. And you will see the truth of either the person or the situation.

You will welcome beings from other worlds. You will share. You will walk with Masters. You will have the wisdom vision. You will see and hear, and you will not have this belief that has been so deeply engrained as separation. It was never intended that you would be stuck here, on Earth, with the inability to hear us, or to see us, or to be with us. That is the plan.

You say, how does this happen in a year? And it happens by will, and alignment with will, and heart, and mind. Do not underestimate each one of you, your power to effect change simply by building your field. We have noted that, as the portals for Ascension open, there are many who come to the door and then turn around and say, wait a minute, I'm not quite ready to leave the third. And that's absolutely all right. And I tell you why. Because many of them say they are fearful of leaving those they love and cherish. When the reason is love, the fear can dissipate.

Some have not made peace with the third. They have not blessed it, thanked it for the lessons and released it. It's not about escaping the third reality. It's about making peace with it, whatever that means to you. And what it feels like is joy and serenity. So, as you make peace, you are free to go.

This is the plan. It's a plan that we are all awaiting, that's well underway. We know sometimes you are tired, and you feel as if you have been run over and defeated. When that happens, turn to me. Let us restore you. Let us lift you up and gently remind you who you are. Let us wrap you in the Mother's cloak and cuddle you until you are healed. That is what we are here for, not only to show the way, but to assist and take care of you.

SB: Thank you, Lord. I think that's all my questions, and I think we probably have just a minute or two left. Is there anything, any comment you want to make in closing, Lord?

AAM: Yes. Look for your inter-galactic, galactic, Pleiadean, Arcturian, Andromedan brothers and sisters. Look for them in your neighborhood, for they are among you. Welcome them. When you look at the sky, see how it shifts and changes. When the announcement comes, as it will, hold the center of peace. Do not engage in the drama. Be the voice of reason, be the anchor. Never before has it been so essential that each and every one of you anchor firmly in the heart of Gaia. And in this way, as you are anchored, you are free to fly. So we invite you to fly with us. We invite you to soar into your dreams. Go in peace.

SB: Thank you, Lord. That's such a lot to mull over, and listening to you brings a great deal of joy to me. Thank you very much for being with us here tonight.

AAM: It's my honor. You know I have never really been on the radio before!
[laugh] Our inter-galactic transmissions are somewhat different!

SB: [laughter] Well, thank you for joining us...

AAM: I'll join you happily.

SB: Thank you.

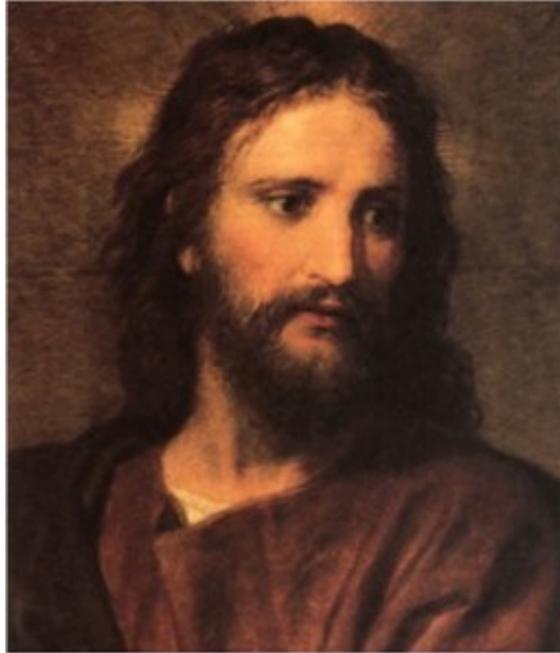

AAM: And I will have questions for you as well!

SB: Very good, I can't wait. Thank you, Lord.

AAM: Farewell.

SB: Farewell.

December 17, 2011 Jesus Sananda's Christmas Msg

This is not an AHWAA production but it fits with Jesus' later Christmas AHWAA program.

Jesus: So many of you have been asking me, Yeshua, what is going on, how do I ascend? What is the mechanism? What is the lift off? Why do I not feel differently? How come it didn't happen? How come it did? Cause you are not hearing from those who have left. Well, those who have left earlier without us.

My friends it makes me laugh, not at your expense, but it reminds me so many times you would say "How are we going to do this? How did you do this?" And I would turn to you and say I didn't really do anything. I used the Mother / Father's love and it seemed to work! What don't you try it! Because you will do this more. Far more.

Before we begin this, I wish to share with you a vision that I have been sharing with this Channel, because I think it will help you understand, and I want you to understand. Yes, you can go on faith, but your conscious, your unconscious, your ego, your personalities, course you want to know. I get it.

I want you to think... I'll go back a little bit...

The reality that has been open, always open, before human experience, is twelve dimensions, and within that, twelve steps for lack of a better word. Yes, you are in a twelve step program, that is correct {laugh} and that is why sometimes you have confusion with people talking about multiple dimensions.

So think of this, only for purposes of demonstration, as a tower or a spiral. So within the 1st, the 2nd, the 3rd, the 4th, there are twelve layers - that is where the 144 that is keeping you up at night comes from.. So, think of it this way. Think of Gaia as a small globe, & on this spiral of many layers she has been anchored, heart anchored, moored, to the 3rd dimension. And initially she was moored quite high in the 3rd dimension but as the darkness fell that sank, but this globe is very big. Now this is for you visually to understand. So it has occupied, although she is anchored in the 3rd, the top of her has often been in the 4th, some of her what you would think of as the bottom of the globe, has touched the 2nd and sometimes the 1st. Do not forget my beloved ones that the 1st is the dimension of ideas -- no form. It is a wonderful, wonderful place to be. But it is without form. So that is why even within the 3rd dimension you have had experiences of magic, of alchemy, of seeing the Fairies – all the time, the Elves, the other Kingdoms, the Elementals.

Now Gaia, for years now, has been working her way up that spiral. Do you understand? So now, because you asked me these questions, what do you mean we're 3rd, 5th, 7th, 9th, 11th, 12th, 13th octave, you ask me all the time ! {laughter} So this is the answer, she is rising up, she is spinning up the spiral, and she is anchoring or about to anchor, because let us face it, a year is a very, very short period of time. We have been friends for over two thousand years. One year is nothing.

So she is going up and she is going to anchor her heart in the 5th, but as she has spun she has also grown. Just like you have expanded, so has she and her field. So now, her heart, is and will be anchored in the 5th, but she is huge so she still stretches to the 7th dimension and above, touching the 8th. And the bottom, certainly incorporating the 3rd so that you can have an experience of physicality, and brushing the 1st, the place of ideas. And that will shift because you are going to find different ways of co-creation.

The rules of the 3rd dimension do not apply in the higher or different dimensions. So you will be having inspiration directly from each other, from yourself, from your higher self, from us, from the Universe, from your star brothers and sisters; but the “boat” is moored in a higher realm.

Now, having given you that explanation, I also want to contradict myself, {humorous tone} and you say well Lord you are always doing that ! First you tell us one thing, then you tell us another. Which is it? Well it is both, because we do not think of the dimensions necessarily as a hierarchy. So we are using the tower / spiral as a visual, but it is not an ego arrangement.

So many of the Star Seeds, in fact, 99% of the Star Seeds, come from the 9th dimension, now they are in the 3rd. They are going to the 7th, maybe the 5th, exhibiting, manifesting in the 3rd; but really living in the 5th, because they want to stay and to be really close to the heart of Gaia. They basically want to be on earth. You want to see the fulfillment, the return of the plan of being in physical form, and knowing love & joy.

Alright. Now some of you have begun this transcendence with Gaia on October 28th [sic 2011] and you know it “took” because you’ve been sitting and chatting with me and the Universal Mother, Kuthumi, Mitreya {sp?}. And we’re glad to have you ! Some of you have come on the recent 11 / 11 [sic 2011]. Some of you have come and are coming on 12 /12 [sic 2011]. But I suggest to you that this is a great day to travel with me! If there is no food I will feed you. If there is no water I will quench your thirst. If you are cold I will warm you. I will take care of you.

Now when you come with me this day, and I mean when I say “you come with me” I mean with all of us. For the airwaves, your house, her house, is filled. So you come with us to anchor in the 5th. It is a process yes. Think of it as moving house. Gaia does. And think of it as moving house and leaving where you live right now in the 3rd dimension, exactly As Is. You’ve won the lottery, and you are going to another home & it will be perfectly furnished with everything you want & need. And then from time to time, you will be bi-located is the best explanation I can offer. Reaching down into the 3rd dimension, most of you, to do your work of preparing others for this glorious event. For this gift. Gaia’s invited you to her ascension. That is a gift beyond. Yes it is the Mother’s Plan, but it is a tremendous gift.

When I ascended, I ascended home. Yes, I took form, so that people would understand. I was not dead in the ground. I did not die. But this is not about dying. This is about living. In a beautiful new reality, where you will create Nova Earth, because you are Nova Beings. Where the Cities of Light will emerge. Where your Star brothers & Star sisters will walk with you and there will be peace & harmony. Equality & freedom. So you can go back to the 3rd to help your friends out, to invite them to come along with you having made peace with the 3rd, but you will live in the 5th, and that is why as you adjust to this you may feel a little dissociative, a little schizophrenic ! But dear heart, you have occupied the universe You can do this.

So. If you are ready, I would like to begin. Close your eyes, and go in to that heart of yours, and feel that beautiful Tri-Flame burning brightly. Deeper. And breathe Pink, breathe the pink diamond of your wholeness. Deeper. And you are taking my hand, or the hand of your most beloved Master, your favorite Archangel, your favorite Guide, or maybe it is someone who has passed on to this side. Take the hand of the one you love and come with me as we journey across the starlit sky, looking at the Aurora Borealis, the Northern Lights. Further & further away, unto you feel just the essence of being with us, and the brightness of your Tri-Flame.

You do not do this journey alone, it is a group undertaking. So as you travel, if there are those you wish to come with you, your partner, your daughter, your son, your mother, your father, your best friend. Barack Obama? You choose. Call to them to join you in this journey of oneness and see them arrive right now, next to you, holding your hand. There's room! Take their hands, and if it is a long chain even better; and yes that includes your four leggeds as well. You would never travel without your friends.

You are at the foot of a golden spiral. Yes, located somewhere throughout the universe, in this beautiful midnight sky and it is the spiral of Archangel Gabriel, it is the spiral of the 13th octave, it is the spiral of dimensions & inter-dimensions. It is the spiral that takes you home. And you stand there, in wonder. Are you ready my friends? Take my hand, and let us begin, to travel up this spiral, right thru the center, flying free, faster, faster. Hear the angelic hosts. Hear the hosannas, the hallelujahs.

Let Go. Let go. Look at your wings. You are soaring, higher & faster. Let it go. All the chords that have connected you to old earth fall away, there is nothing holding you back. Higher. Keep going. Through the Central Sun, into the blinding white light, into the heart of One. Into the heart of One. Mother / Father / You, as One. And feel that love & wholeness, and that knowing of divine perfection that you are.

Now feel yourself drifting down the golden spiral, as if you are a piece of white feather down and you are just drifting gently down, down thru the 12th, down thru the 11th, the 10th, the 9th, down gently, gently, softly, smoothly. Feel the qualities of the Masters, the 11th - the creation. The 8th - the love, the Christ Consciousness. Now you are at the 5th, and you are stopping, and there sits Gaia, your stem connected still to her, and she is pulling you towards her, to your new home. And simply allow, all you need to do is allow, allow yourself to be here for the rest of your life. Here, at home in the 5th dimension. Free to travel to the 7th, the 6th. Free to travel to the 3rd to help out, but anchored with Gaia, with I, with your beloved Yeshua, here in the 5th.

It is done. Allow yourself time to adjust. I will help you. Gaia will help you. Stay firmly anchored to her. This is the fulfillment of our dream. Of our journey. No not the completion, for there are lots of adventures that lie ahead. But I will be there with you waiting, guiding, laughing, playing. I am with you my beloved ones. I love you deeper than any ocean. Any sky. Any universe. You are held so dear. So allow me to help you with this period of adjustment. Turn to me. Turn to your Masters. Turn to all of us. We are with you. Go in peace. Fair Well.

Linda Dillon: Whoooo! When you're ready, just allow yourself to drift into your body. You may well feel a little spacey; this is not the time to get in your car & go somewhere. Take the time to let the energy & these gifts really anchor within you. You may feel that you're kinda living in two places for awhile, and you are, and that's the good news!

I'd love to hear how this went for you. I'd love to hear the miracles that we can share together. So you can always send me messages on the Council of Love website.

Ok. And Jesus is reminding me that he will be on the radio with Archangel Michael on blog talk radio, at 9pm {est} on Monday night [12.19.11]. So tune in.

I love you guys and Merry Christmas. Bye bye.

December 19, 2011: Jesus

Graham Dewyea: Well, hello, and welcome to An Hour with an Angel. And I'm delighted to have joining us some very special guests tonight. Jesus will be joining us, as well as Linda Dillon. Dillon is the channel for the Council of Love and will be channeling him. Also joining us is Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario, and who will be asking questions tonight for Jesus to answer.

So, without further delay I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

Steve Beckow: Thank you, Graham. Lord, thank you for being with us today. I'm very honored to be speaking with you. I'm sure that every one of our listeners has probably been deeply touched by your teachings and example. ... Would you be so kind as to give us a message at Christmas-time 2011?

Jesus Sananda: I would be pleased to, and I welcome you all. Yes, I am Jesus Sananda. I am Jesus, I am Yeshua. And it is time that you are ready to ascend, to enter into a new realm that is so distant and so far from what you have experienced historically in this third dimension, not because there was ever anything that was of such deep illusion planned from our side, shall I say, for this reality, but the illusions grew over thousands and thousands of years. They are reflecting in your belief system, in the conscious and unconscious and subconscious fears that so often will rear their heads. But if I had one message to speak about this time, it would be about freedom. It would be about peace on Earth, and yes, it would still be about love.

I am glad, and honored, that so many do take time at this juncture of year, at the solstice, to honor my birth. It is not the exact birth date, but that does not matter. What matters is that you come together to remember my messages of love.

My friends, being human, being part of this exciting, glorious and frustrating collective is a gift. It is a gift beyond measure that you participated in, in the formulation, in the choice of who, where, when, how – in many ways, the same as I did. And in many ways, you walk the Earth just as I did. Yes, society has changed, but have you noticed that politics don't? And I bring this up because we are talking about Ascension. We are talking about that transition into a new reality where the word of power and the underlying tone of control does not have meaning.

So much of what you have been working for in this third dimension, on your beautiful planet Gaia, this incredible being of diversity and of such love, has had to do with shifting your own sense of power, your own sense of might, your own sense of direction, of what is right and what does not serve.

Still, I look, and I see, yes, greater cooperation growing. But, my beloved ones, I know I repeat the messages of all the Masters, our Mother and Father, your Star Brothers and Sisters, but let me say it anyway: Do not underestimate who you are. Do not underestimate your power to create and to bring forward not only Ascension and movement through this year into the Higher Realms with Gaia, but here and now to also create what you are desiring, what you are demanding on a soul level, and even on a personal level – that which comes forward.

Often, when I observe, I hear and I see, "Well, we are waiting on NESARA," or "We are waiting on disclosure," and so much of this depends upon those that you deem are in positions of power. That is true, and it is not true. I have asked you in many ways to follow my example, yes, of love, and, at times, of meekness. But there were also times when I would turn my back on what you would think of as the establishment, the rabbis and Pharisees, and I would go my own way and I would speak to the people. And some would listen and follow, and some would call me crazy and jeer at me.

The point is the more of you who speak of the truth of what is required for freedom, the more you translate that into personal action – no, I am not asking you to march on Washington, Beirut or Paris; that is not how it is done. Creation is done in the silence of your heart, and then living every day in that truth. We will talk tonight about illusion. The illusion is that you have the power and sometimes you think you don't. It is yours. It is your birthright.

You talk of me as the incarnation of divinity. And you talk of me as hu-man. This is no different than each of you who carry that divine essence, so bright, so brilliant. I can see it! It is lighting up the world! So yes, you are below the radar, but being below the radar gives you the latitude to go forward with your creations, both personal and global. You are supported, not only on Earth, and by more millions than you can even imagine, but from those above, from what you think of as this Council of Love, the Company of Heaven, your Star Brothers and Sisters, the essence of One.

But let me make it more personal. I support you. I believe in you. You have chosen to live [in? and?] love, not hiding out in a cave. Your actions and your being reflect this. And yes, sometimes you falter. And that is when you practice forgiveness and let go of judgment. I have learned that lesson well.

So, during this time, not only where I wish to see peace on Earth, but when we transition, not only the year, but the reality that the human collective is occupying, the peace is made with the third as you travel forward. But you are carrying the flag of freedom. You are determined, and do not underestimate that determination and stubbornness; you have never given up. Perhaps you only recall this lifetime. But, my dear hearts, I have known you time and time and time again, as have Michael, Sanat Kumara, certainly our Universal Mother, and you have never given up. Sometimes it has cost you your life. And then you began again. I have faith in you, and I love you. Let us go forward during this miraculous unfoldment together.

SB: Thank you, Lord. One of the best uses of this time we have together, I think, would be to iron out some misunderstandings of your teachings, and also to show the universality of your teachings and where they link up with other religions. So, my first question of you is, one of the teachings of yours that I think may have been misunderstood is the saying, "I am the truth, the way and the life." Did you mean,

"I, Jesus," as has been interpreted by the Church, or did you mean something else, Lord?

JS: It was much bigger than any church or "ism." And yes, I have said, many, many things have been misunderstood or misquoted. But that is all right. When I have used the term "I am," I was aligning with All, with Source, with Father/Mother/

One. That is the alignment. And if you, Steve, or listener, say, “I am the truth,” then you have aligned with that, and you have become that.

The personality— and let me say, I loved my life as Yeshua. It was fulfilling. There were moments, of course, that you all know of, of despair, sadness, grief. But, by and large, I loved my life. But my purpose was to bring the messages back in a pure form, to bring things back to some basics that had been forgotten in the growing illusion of mankind. And so, when I made that statement, it was in my full divinity. And it was an invitation to come and join with me, or to claim it for yourself.

Let me be clear. I, whom you revere and love, I cannot be your life; I cannot be your truth. You join me in the understanding, but it will always have to be translated and lived and felt and incorporated into your being, and not just into your being of your human self at this given moment, but into your personality, into your ego, into the actions that you take throughout your life.

You cannot simply say – there are far too many people who say, “I follow Jesus, I follow Jesus Christ, I follow his teachings.” That is not what I wish. What I wish is for you to own it, that you are as connected as I to the Mother/Father/Source/One – however you wish to conceive it in your own “ism.” But it is not enough to just say the words and to think that somehow, by magic, that that gives you grace, connection. It was not meant as an ego statement, and if you have taken it as that, then you have not heard my heart within it.

SB: That is perfectly clear, Lord. Thank you for that. I wish people had understood that hundreds and hundreds of years ago.

I'd like to see if a linkage can be made between some of the teachings of Christianity and those of Hinduism. Is it correct to say that the Trinity, the Christian Trinity of Father, Son and Holy Ghost, is the same as the Hindu Trinity of Brahman, Atman and Shakti?

JS: More or less, yes. And let me tell you, it is because there are slight differentiations, understandings – again human understandings I am talking about, I am not talking about the sages or the [rishis?], I am talking about the human understanding. But that Trinity of energy – and I would like you to think of it as a diamond of energy that includes the Divine Mother as well – but, yes, that is a very similar reality. And what it does is it creates, it addresses the duality and illusion from which you are moving now, it addresses the essence of the human being in form, as the Atman, as the sun, and it addresses the essence of One, of [Parabrahman, the Godhead], that can be known and experienced once the illusion has been overcome.

It goes back because this has evolved, particularly in the Hindu tradition, over many, many, many thousands of years. It is not a religion. It is a way of understanding the Universe of cosmology, of how things work. What is the essence that we are seeking, and that we sometimes struggle with as human beings? So you are given, in each tradition, different ways of understanding what is there for you to access and to reach that state of completion, of coming-into One. Now, that does not mean that as a human being that you do not participate, because this, do not forget, the both of these, yes, are your Trinities.

When we have begun these conversations with this channel, and she had asked why so many Masters from the east as well as the west, and we have said it is a time for these beliefs and knowings – this knowledge, not just information, but knowledge, through deep meditation and sacred spiritual practice – it is time for these to be united into one, so that there is not differences that cause [strife? rife?], that cause conflict.

So, yes, my short answer to you is yes, with some cultural, historic differences in understanding.

SB: All right. Just as soon as I asked you I had realized I had used terms that were open to interpretation. So let me just spend a minute clarifying the individual rungs of this Trinity, if you wouldn't mind. Is the Atman the same as the Christ Light?

JS: It is absolutely the same as that Christ Light, or the divinity within.

SB: All right, now, that's – I'm sure a lot of religious scholars will be very grateful to you for confirming that. Now, the Holy Spirit, is that equivalent to what Hindus call the Divine Mother, or Shakti, or Aum, Amen, Procreatrix, Prakritri, the Universal creative vibration? Is that the essence of the Holy Spirit? Yes?

JS: She is, but she is also more than that as well.

SB: Okay.

JS: For she is the, yes, she is the procreator.

SB: Right.

JS: She is the will to bring into form.

SB: Yes. Okay, thank you. I'm going to leave Brahman and the Father out of it, because there are so many levels to Brahman and the Father that I think we get bogged down. So I'm really more interested in the Holy Spirit and the Christ equivalents with Hinduism. So thank you for that.

Is it true that the Bible was written, partly at least, in a code?

JS: Well, it was, but what happened also was that so much of it was deleted, so that what many people know as the current Bible is not in any way complete. But yes, there were numeric codes, there were symbolic codes, there were ways in which keys could be found.

SB: All right.

JS: But it was not meant just in that way. It was also meant to be the story. You know, you have stories, whole industries of stories. It was meant to be a philosophical treatise and a story on how to live.

SB: Absolutely.

JS: I make huge differentiation, dear one, between Old Testament and New Testament.

SB: Thank you. I'm glad to hear that, even though I'm an adherent to the Old Testament. Thank you.

JS: It is not that I ask you not to adhere. Not at all. But it was in a different time and a different reality. And very often what we have referred to as Brahma or the Father was very much thought of in the substance, in form –

SB: Yes.

JS: – and very cruel and thundering. And that is not – that is not all truth. The human beings create also what they anticipate that the Source will be like. And it was a very patriarchal, and punitive in many ways, society that [unintelligible] were sorely tested. There was no denying that. But they were also greatly rewarded.

SB: All right, Lord. I'm going to give you three examples of code, and I'd like you to tell me whether this understanding is accurate or not. The first one is. "The light is always burning on the altar." Is that a reference to the Christ light?

JS: Yes.

SB: The altar or the heart?

JS: The altar is the heart.

SB: All right, thank you. Here's the second one. Moses' trip up – Moses' journey up Mount Sinai. Is that a metaphor for the progress of the kundalini up the human spine?

JS: Yes, it was. Now, Moses was also known for taking little side trips, you know. He liked to get away by himself and do some thinking without so many people always around.

SB: Much like you?

JS: Yes, much like you as well, dear one. So, yes. But the analogy, the code, is the rising of what you can call kundalini or energy. It is the firing of the energy to come up. So yes, that is absolutely right, that that journey up the Sinai was his journey of raising his energy.

SB: And was that written in the Bible in the fashion it was to burn an image of – related to enlightenment in our minds?

JS: Yes. You must have noticed that there are so many images and references to burning.

SB: Yes.

JS: And it is to – we could use the word "etch," but we didn't use that word, we used more of a word [such as?] carve. But if you carve something, it could fade over time. But if you burned it into somebody's being, they always remembered. That is why I ask when your tri-flame is bright. It is burning, it is burning on that altar. When you have inspiration, which is exactly what Moses had – inspiration, yes, messages, but also inspiration – it burns. It burns you until you cannot contain it, so you do something with it. That is how what you think of as the Father-Mother moves us.

SB: So, would it be accurate, then, to say that the Bible is a formulary of enlightenment motifs?

JS: It is a formulary. But I also want to say this: It is a code, it is a formula, and there are those who will say, “I don't know about formulas. I don't know about codes. All I want is the basics. Just let me read the basics.” That is fine. But when you read them, read them with an open heart, and the formula will emerge directly into you.

Steve Beckow: Wonderful. The next question I have, the next example of a coded statement – I invite you to spend as much time on this one as you would like because I think it's so important. The parables that you gave – the parable of treasure buried in a field, the pearl of great price, the great fish among fish, the measure of meal that leavened the whole loaf – those each seem to me to speak about an enlightenment process. Is that correct? And if it is, could you expand on what you were saying – in – let's take the treasure buried in a field. Could you expand on your meaning there, please?

JS: There is a quality amongst men – and of course when I say men I mean all beings – to be seeking and looking for the treasure. And of course the treasure is the truth. The treasure is the enlightenment. The treasure is the knowledge and the understanding. It is the riches of heaven, and whatever you conceive of as the Omniverse.

Is that part clear?

Steve Beckow: Very clear.

JS: So, because of the tendency for humans to seek, and keep seeking and keep seeking, I speak of a treasure that is buried in the field right there for you to discover. And I have said to you, you do not need to dig up the whole field! You do not need to really dig at all, but we will get to that. If you walk the field – and the field is an analogy for your life, for the Earth, for the journey, but it is also an analogy for you, for your own physical, spiritual, mental, emotional being – if you seek within, if you travel within, you will find that treasure.

But if you follow your heart and you walk the field, as most do, eventually you will come to the place [where] one of two things will happen: you will either be so exhausted you will lie down and then realize that the treasure is within and without, and all you have need to do is to ask, to reach and receive, or your heart will make you stop at the proper place where that treasure is buried, and you will sit and you will meditate, and you will pray, and you will not wander any longer, as you will have found the treasure.

So you can wander your body, you can wander the Earth. The result is the same. The treasure is there for you. It always has been. There would make no sense otherwise. Why would you incarnate? It is this journey of seeking and finding, of rediscovering, of sharing, but it is not a journey of being lost in the wilderness.

Those who feel – and I speak to them – who feel that they are lost in the wilderness, the wilderness of either they feel of their creation, or of the creation of the environment, stop this night. Simply stop. This searching is making you desolate and desperate. So take the treasure. It is yours.

So many feel that they are looking and looking and looking, and they are not seeing the light in the field, they're not seeing the treasure mound. And they are depressed, and they are frustrated, and they believe that they have been forgotten. That is just not so.

If you want to know how to access the treasure within, simply ask for help. And that is what I mean when I say it is within you, that help, but it is also without, for I will help you.

SB: All right, Lord. Thank you. Is the treasure buried in the heart?

JS: Yes.

SB: And when you said sell – the man sold all that he had, did he sell all his desires for anything else but God?

JS: Yes. [? ?]

SB: And meditated on the – excuse me, I'm sorry?

JS: God is the only thing left. When you sell everything you have, when you let go, it is not that I anticipate you to sell everything you have. It is your desires, it is your expectations, it is the old way. So yes, it is a – it is a metaphor for letting go.

SB: All right. And the man who sold all other desires but for God, did he then meditate on the Christ Light, which then became the Light of the Father?

JS: Now I will [go] deeper within you. When you meditate on the Christ Light, and you do so, it is not so much a span of time as a depth of connection. Within that, you catalyze and also receive – think of it as a coming down, for lack of a better way to explain it – the light and love of the Father.

SB: All right. Thank you. I'm going to try to squeeze in a few questions. I see we're running a little low on time. So, let's see how well I can do this. St. John the Beloved said, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God." Some people say that Christ was the Word and some people say that the Holy Spirit was the Word. Which is correct, Lord?

JS: It is the Christ.

SB: All right, okay. Thank you.

JS: But that is not the [conclusion?]. You know, that would be very wrong, to believe that that Trinity is not intact.

SB: Yes. Absolutely. All right. Were you Elishu in your former life, before Christ?

JS: No, I was not. It was an over-lighting.

SB: Could you explain what it means to be, to say it was an over-lighting? What does that mean, Lord?

JS: It was a participation. You can even think of it as an over-lighting by Sananda as well.

SB: Ah, okay. That's very helpful. Thank you very much for that. A reader has asked if the Urantia book is reliable. Is it reliable?

JS: It has certainly prodded many to think, to discuss, to explore that treasure chest. And so in that way it is a wondrous book. There are a few things that I would say are a little off, but I do not wish to take away from that book. There are a few things in the Bible that are off as well, you know. So, yes, it's a good book.

SB: All right.

Jesus Sananda: But the goodness of this book, the reliability of this book – do not take it, or anything, just on the face value. If you are wanting to read a story book just for that sake, Urantia is not your book. It is very much in code.

SB: All right. What about the Aquarian Gospel, Lord, by Levi? Is that accurate?

JS: That is a beautiful piece. And yes, it is very accurate.

SB: So would it be correct to say that we can read Levi's Aquarian Gospel and know about the events of your early life?

JS: Oh, yes, you can.

SB: Well, that's good to know.

JS: And I would be happy to share them anyway, but yes, you can.

SB: Oh, I intend to have you back and talk about your early life, Lord, and your later life, too. It's just that we can't get it all in one hour. But I'd love for you to return. Is the Gospel According to Thomas accurate?

JS: Yes, it is.

SB: All right.

JS: My dear friend Thomas. For so long he was struggling, then he became that man who let everything go, who sold everything. And he discovered his treasure. It is a shame that it is not more widely known, and more widely read.

SB: I'm sure it will be in the future.

JS: The elimination of so many books and information has limited the understanding, no, not just of me, for I am almost incidental, but the understandings, the messages, the bringing-forth of the way to go forward.

SB: All right. Sri Ramakrishna was born of a virgin birth, as far as I'm aware, and I believe that Zoroaster or Zarathustra was as well. Is it accurate to say that you, yourself, were born of a virgin birth or an immaculate conception in the same way that Sri Ramakrishna was?

JS: Yes, that is correct.

SB: Would you mind spending just a few minutes with our listeners telling them how such a thing can be? I'll share on the blog site about Sri Ramakrishna's virgin birth, but how can that be, given that we believe that the male and the female cells must merge? How can that be, Lord?

JS: Because there is – what you think of as your human reproductive ways are very useful, but it is not the only way that conception takes place. We have talked about, earlier, a little bit about inspiration, and about how that can burn and explode. Well, joy can explode within the womb, within the female, if she is of a nature that she is in complete alignment, as this one was. She was prepared diligently, throughout her entire life.

So it was by the spark of the, yes, of the Holy Spirit, but also of the Father. It was the joy outpouring that there would be an embodiment of light. That embodiment of light, we do not say it could not come from Joseph, but it did not come from Joseph. He did not have the wherewithal for that level of energy, of what you can think of as lightning, to enter in and to fertilize.

It is not a difficult thing. It is only the humans – the other beings understand it perfectly – the humans have always been reticent to understand that one can be so filled with light that it can create new life.

SB: All right, Lord, that's very helpful. We have a few minutes remaining, and I wonder if you could spend some time addressing yourself to world Islam. Muslims have been blamed for acts of terrorism, and have gotten a – they've been criticized pretty heavily, particularly in America. What are your thoughts on that, please?

JS: There is one Source, one Trinity, one diamond, and many paths. And each are sacred and holy, because whether you commit yourself to the path of Islam, or to the path of Christianity, you are committing yourself to the One Source of All. Are there misunderstandings in the interpretations? On all sides, at times, yes. But let us suggest this: The criticism that is anchored – and we mean anchored, not aimed – at those of Islam are unjust. They are judgmental, they are unfair, they are not of peace, they are not of love. It is a darkness that pervades much of the light. And what it does is it formulates hatred, which eliminates the opportunity for the very thing Michael and I work for, which is peace on earth.

Their religion is sacred. Yes, sometimes the politics are skewed. And sometimes the politics in the west are very skewed. It is like throwing stones. Clean up your own house first.

SB: Thank you, Lord.

JS: I do not say this casually. I say this because unless you can love your brother, your sister – and the more different they are the more important it becomes. It is very easy to love someone who is just a mirror image of thee, even with their personality, because it is enough of the ego that becomes involved, and then it is often called love. But it is important to truly honor and love all your neighbors.

And this has become more important, not less, as the complexities of your world have evolved. This lesson has been learned throughout the galaxies at a terrible price. But it has been learned. Now it is time, during this phase, to make peace with your brethren, because in that you make peace with the third. If you say to me, "Lord, I can never love someone of Islam, someone who is Hindu, someone who is [Jan??]," this will not do. It is all; it is not highly selective. It does not mean that you agree with everything they do, they say. But there is an honoring of their divinity, and their devotion.

SB: Thank you, Lord. I think you've given our listeners a tremendous amount to think on, and I'm very grateful. May we have you back in January?

JS: I would be very happy to do so.

SB: Thank you, Lord.

Farewell.

An Hour with An Angel, December 26, 2011

Graham Dewyea: Hello, and welcome to An Hour with an Angel, a weekly radio program with Archangel Michael channeled by Linda Dillon, the channel for the Council of Love. Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario will be asking Archangel Michael questions tonight. So, without further delay I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

Steve Beckow: Thank you, Graham. Good evening, Lord.

Archangel Michael: Good evening. And I am Michael, Archangel of peace, Archangel of love. And I stand here this night with many – not only with you, my beloved friends, with you, Stephen and Graham, but with Yeshua, with my beloved Archangel Gabrielle, with Raphael and with the Universal Mother. So here we are to begin yet again as we bring to a close one year and begin the opening of the new, and of the final. So, let us begin. I wish to speak to you this day –

I wish to speak to you this day of peace – of peace on Earth, but more importantly, my brothers and sisters, peace in your hearts. I know. You feel that I have lectured you and that I have spoken to you for eternity about this very subject. But still, I wish tonight to reach into your hearts – yes, as I ignite the blue flame once again of truth, but to truly ignite the flame of inner peace. I ask you, I encourage you, I urge you – I beg you, pick up your sword and shield that I have gifted you so long ago and wield them. This is not simply a defensive posture. It is the declaration of who you are in awakening peace within your heart. I also wish to awaken fully your warrior self. When you are in peace, it is not simply a blissful, quiet place, it is a place where there is no fear, where there is no worry, where there is no anger, where there is no frustration, that there is only the clarity of your soul.

And this is something I wish also to speak to you about. Many of you have spent a lot of time thinking about clearing, and you have integrated your divine self, your soul design, your new grid. How much time, my dear friends, are you spending on discovering the wonder, the desires, the urges, the directions, the guidance of your soul? How much are you allowing that inner peace to anchor and grow? This is a time of duality, but the meaning of duality, my beloved friends, has changed. For the duality right now that you are experiencing is having one foot in the fifth to the seventh and one foot in the third. And in the third, there is the crumbling building of the old paradigm. So you cannot allow that to be within yourself, or you will be part of that crumbling, decaying building in society.

So I'm asking you, do not spend time in worry and fear. And yes, at the same time I am asking your warrior self to step forward, not only your [few?], which is magnificent, but your sweet self. There are still too many of you hiding your light. You are fearful. You do not speak to your neighbors, or the person on the bus or in the line at the grocery store, or, heavens forbid, the bank. You do not talk about what you believe because you are fearful that they will judge you, that they will find you lacking, that they will think you crazy, instead of thinking, maybe I am giving them a ray of hope, maybe I am giving them the very spark that they need to ignite their being, to ignite their peace.

Stop the fear. Stop thinking about, "How am I going to survive?" Because this is a walk of trust. When you get angry, when you get fearful – and I do not say this in any way of judgment or criticism, my beloved ones, I say this to you as the legion that I love! So when you are in that place where you are lacking discernment about who you really are, you are supporting the old way, the way of decay, the way of death, of what we are trying to defeat. So when you are fearful of whether you will be successful, whether we will be successful – this is a partnership; I know you do not understand fully what that means, but I would like also to speak of that tonight; but this is a partnership – so when you turn away, even in the slightest way, instead of facing us and being with us, your energy is depleted. And as soon as that old duality, that old polarity feels it they will suck you dry.

So, my beloved ones, allow us who stand here with you tonight to fill your hearts, your minds, yourselves, your bodies, with peace. And within that peace, within that flame of truth, within that flame of courage, let us also awaken your warrior self. There is no more time, either on our side or yours, for hesitation. We understand about time. We know that you think often we don't, that we don't get it at all. And yes, there is divine timing, and divine unfoldment. This is not simply an experiment, this is the unfoldment, in divine timing and your timing, of the Universal Mother's plan. So let us be clear together that we go forward together.

You are never forgotten. And we would ask, humbly, that you not forget us, that when that slight shadow impinges upon you that you turn to us – your favorite archangel, your favorite ascended one – and just say, “help.” We will be by your side before you know it.

I am sorry, Steve, that I have rambled. Of course we may begin.

SB: Thank you, Lord. I'm awestruck by your statement that the Divine Mother is with you today, Lord. Could I ask you, does the Divine Mother have form?

AAM: She can assume a form. But, shall we say, she is larger than form.

SB: All right. Okay. Well, I have a number of questions from readers and a number of questions of my own. Perhaps I could start with one about a comment that Ben Fulford made about Japan. Ben said that Japan stood threatened with nuclear bombs that would cause a second catastrophe, and I'm concerned that a lot of people out there may feel fear as a result of that statement. Could you tell us if Japan stands threatened by a second catastrophe, please?

AAM: Yes, I can tell you very clearly that Japan does not stand threatened by a nuclear threat – at this time or at any time in the future. Now, there is a great deal of fear woven around this. And it is unfortunate, and perhaps momentarily purposeful, that this subject be brought up, because, of course, Japan has been the trauma center for this kind of abhorrent warfare. And as a result of that, very much, not only in the collective consciousness of the people of Japan, but of course many of those people who suffered and died at that time have chosen to reincarnate elsewhere, much the same as those who survived or did not survive the concentration camps in Europe decided to mostly reincarnate in America. So there is a collective consciousness of fear that is stirred up at this very thought.

The benefit of that, of course, is to let it go, that it is within the being and therefore it can be brought to the forefront and completely released. But that is the only benefit. To keep that on the front burner is just exactly what I was saying. It is feeding the old paradigm. I know there is a place for vigilance. Yes, I have been in charge of many universes, and in charge of peacekeeping. So I am aware of the importance of vigilance. But there is a very large difference between being astute and vigilant and simply being fearful.

The Japanese people are phenomenal. You have seen that in the situation of the tsunami. They are the example of how unity and community can come forth and work, not in chaos, but in serene cooperation. So, look to that example, not to those in dictatorial situations that would like to embed fear in the hearts of many. Because, of course, it would never simply be just Japan who would be injured, it would be Gaia.

You will remember several years ago that Gaia herself spoke through this channel and spoke about perhaps leaving, not ascending, cancelling her part of the plan and simply leaving. But that was changed and that was shifted, not only by this beloved Gaia herself, but by the many, many, many light workers who sent her love and healing. And the plan goes forward.

So there will not be a situation where either we or your star brothers or sisters will allow such devastation to occur again. I hope that is clear enough.

SB: That is very clear, Lord. Thank you very much for giving us a detailed response.

There are people who are watching the year 2011 draw to a close and recalling your words on June 16th that disclosure was “going to happen before the end of the year regardless.” Obviously we still have five more days, but can you tell us, is Disclosure going to happen before the end of the year?

AAM: We are still saying yes. We are still anticipating that this will occur. And let us suggest to you that if it does not occur, because in the private conversations that we have had with those who are involved in this arena, and yes, we do mean political leaders, the star brothers and sisters themselves, you see, much of the balance has changed, the balance of fear has changed. That is why we are talking about the eradication of fear tonight, and the birth, the full birth of the warrior self. The star brothers and sisters intend to reveal themselves. If the governments who have agreed to this – which now stands at about 20 governments around your planet – if they agree, then they will make their presence known.

SB: All right. Though there is a divine deadline for disclosure, is there not?

AAM: Yes, there is.

SB: And I'm not asking you to reveal that, because I'm sure that would not be a good thing. But if terrestrials don't agree to Disclosure before the divine deadline, what is it that changes at that moment, Lord? What does divine deadline signify?

Is it correct to say that the galactics can simply ignore the wishes of terrestrials? Or how – what is it that happens with the passing of the divine deadline?

AAM: We always honor free will. Now, what is interesting about this question is the underlying question, because the concern of the human collective has always been – and by the way that's how you got in trouble – was the non-interference in that free will. And that is something that we have always honored. But what you do not always fully comprehend – and I do not mean your listeners, I mean perhaps those far beyond, but I am hoping that this message will also reach them – do not think that your star brothers and sisters do not also have free will. Of course they do.

Now, they do not exercise their free will, nor have they, in negative or destructive ways. And that is why they have supported and held the planet in balance for so long, why they have sent gift after gift, whether it is by an individual who has become a [plant?], as it were. Now, there are, oh, over 60,000 beings on the ground. So there is a lot of work that has been accomplished, all in the most peaceful way.

Now, I want to introduce another concept, an idea that we can talk about. You do not think of us, this Company of Heaven, as the Divine Mother's source, as having free will, because it is All, it is love. But when there is creation, that is an act that entails the extension of will, of form. So, to answer your question, if the beings of Earth simply choose not to acknowledge their star brothers or sisters, that does not mean that their presence will not be made known and that the plan – because they have come to help with the ascension process, not only of Gaia, not only of humanity, but the ripple effect for themselves, for their planets, for the multiverse.

You have no idea how far this ripple goes out. It changes everything. It is a repositioning, it is a raising of vibration. And so, even those who have been assigned to alternate universes so they would not interfere with this ascension will feel it and be raised by it.

So there comes a point in which what you would think of [as] divine deadline would equal divine intervention. Now, you were always praying for divine intervention. So think of it that way. There will come a time, if you simply choose not to move, that we will help. We do not come in waves of destruction. This has never been about punishment, Armageddon, or destroying what is valuable and beautiful. We keep saying we are in partnership.

And there are many on Earth who are saying to us, well, we're waiting for you to step up. And we are waiting patiently for your warrior selves, also, your creator selves – that is your warrior self, you know – to step up. And if not, in this partnership, as in all partnerships, sometimes one partner is not up to doing the full deed, the house needs cleaning and one person has a migraine, and so the other takes charge and makes sure the house is clean. Because company is coming. Is that clear?

SB: Thank you, Lord. Now I'd like to turn our attention to NESARA and specifically the progress of the Bridge Fund. Can you tell us what progress has been made?

AAM: The progress of the Bridge Fund is well underway. And yes, because if we are to continue the analogy, we also do not want people to go forward, our warriors, to go forward without equipment. And that includes being able to feed and clothe and house themselves. You did not come to Earth to suffer. That was not this year's assignment. It was not this life's assignment. It was not this cycle's assignment. And the Bridge Money will be there.

SB: Is there any comment you can make about what the apparent hold-up might be attributable to?

AAM: It is attributable to what you think of as human bureaucracy, of human trepidation, of human fear of being exposed, or thought foolish, or declared crazy or insane, incompetent. It is fear about, what about tomorrow? What if I need this? But these people, from the contributors to the bankers to the tellers to the bureaucrats, are being worked on mightily. But – and it is the particular undertaking not only of myself but of Archangel Uriel and Archangel Jophial – but I would ask tonight – and this is a very concrete way in which we can share this partnership – I would ask every single person who listens, either today or in the future, to this message to take one person involved in this process, and they will appear, they will know who to send the energy to. And I would ask them to put them, to surround them in my blue, which is the blue of change, the blue of peace, and a more vibrant blue of the Mother, and I would ask the listener, on a soul level, to ask this person from their heart, not from the head – this is not a logical conversation, as you are all learning – ask them from your heart to please cooperate, to find generosity in their heart, to let go and to literally allow this to move at the speed of love. And the speed of love is the speed of light squared, so it is instantaneous for all intents and purposes. If each person does this, it will be done in the blink of an eye.

SB: All right, Lord, thank you. A matter of clarification. Now, many listeners and readers hear that the Illuminati have been defeated, and then we hear that certain events have happened. We hear from Ben and David Wilcock, for instance, that there's a lot of resistance going on, and, yes, we're going to be successful, but there still is resistance. Could you make clear for our readers and listeners, please, to what extent have the Illuminati been removed? To what extent do the Illuminati still survive and exist?

AAM: We would be pleased to talk to this. Now, is this not a clear term, Illuminati?

SB: Indeed.

AAM: So, but we all know that we are speaking of those who wish to practice the old ways of control, and control in every way – mind, heart, soul, physicality. It is about the worst form of greed. It is greed for another soul. And that is not permissible. And in this shift that is already taking place, that is already well underway, it cannot survive. So most, I would suggest to you about, oh, 67 percent of your Illuminati have been completely disarmed, disempowered, removed. The others? There are still some kicking and screaming, but also understand at the same time the population of the planet that is ready for ascension, that is consciously and unconsciously going through this shift, has increased exponentially.

Years ago in the old times, you would have a war end, but then what would happen is the news would not reach some corners of the front, and so there would still be some pitched battles going on. But that is about to come to a halt because it cannot exist. Understand what I say. It cannot exist in the higher vibrations. So yes, there is a lot of kicking and screaming, and “No, I don't want to go, I don't want to do this!” And it does not matter. Because it is over. So it is clean-up.

SB: All right, Lord. Is it accurate to say that – that some Illuminati power exists at some levels, like for instance in local police forces or militia or the financial system – It's accurate to say that?

AAM: It's accurate to say that, but what we want you to distinguish is situations that we would have called, and do call, this strange term, Illuminati, is very different than those who have what you are saying is Illuminati attitudes, or in other words, puffed-up senses of ego. They are completely in their false sense of power. Now, because everyone has bought into that belief of their power, they wield it. And that is why I have begun tonight by asking each of you to pick up your sword and shield. No, I am not asking you to go and to confront the corrupt police chief, although some of you already are, and some of you will, or to confront the corrupt owner of a bank. But that will fall as well. But those who have wielded the puppet strings are mostly gone. So you know what happens to the puppets when the strings are not working.

SB: True, but at the same time there was a plan to take over the Earth and to put the people who survived the various campaigns that they planned into enslavement. And sometimes it seems to me as if that plan continues to be played out at most local levels. Is that an accurate statement or not?

AAM: It is a statement that is accurate and it is also a statement that is based in fear. It is also a statement that is based in understanding that some people are not going to choose to ascend and will be relocated elsewhere.

SB: All right.

AAM: Let me be quite clear. Yes, there are pockets. And yes, there are people in positions of power that have abused their power. And this goes from priests to parents to police chiefs to presidents, whether it is banks, or corporations, or yes, even countries. It is simply not going to be permitted to continue. We have emphasized that this is Gaia's ascension, and yes, you are right, the plan of old Earth was very dark. And that is why it has been so difficult at times, and we are saying, wake up, wake up, please, wake up. Because she's going, regardless of anything else.

And what that means, my brother, my beloved brother, what it means is those who are not of the vibration to be able to breathe in the fifth to the seventh will suffocate. They cannot go there. So that is why this is a very pivotal time, where so much – and we know this – that so much is happening at once. And yes, much of it has been behind the scenes, things that we cannot openly speak of for reasons of everybody's security. But do not think that things are not being addressed. Yes, it is a big question of faith, and it is a question of trust, but we are also placing our hope, our trust and our faith in you.

SB: What does faith mean, Lord?

AAM: It means the alignment. It means the alignment with what you think of as one source, one love, one beingness, what we have, you have spoken of with Yeshua, the Trinity. What he would like to see as a diamond! But it is the state. It is not just belief, it is knowledge, it is knowing, it is anchoring in wisdom. That is what faith is.

SB: But certainly faith is what I use to overcome the gap or the chasm or the gulf where I don't know. If I know –

AAM: That is correct.

SB: So what –

AAM: It's not –

SB: – Where

AAM: – detailed information. It is not filling in the logic. Faith is the knowing that there is simply more.

SB: So, general outlines, if I can't fill in the details. I know that there is, for instance, a Divine Plan for this age. And I trust that that –

AAM: That is correct.

SB: – is – So I'm getting close, am I? I'm getting a little bit more on track with that. Okay. My – the next question that I have of you is that some people say that we could have made it on our own. Earth, the terrestrial population could have overcome the Illuminati and emerged from this awful time of control and enslavement on our own. Do you think that could have been the case?

AAM: Yes. Yes, we have – we have faith in you. The other element of faith, my friend, is also faith in yourself, even though you don't have the details. Just knowing that you don't know how you're going to do it, but you're going to do it.

SB: That's determination, is it not?

AAM: Now, would it have taken much longer? Would it have been more violent? Yes, it would have been. We do not, and never have had, a desire to overcome what you can do as the human collective. In the third dimension – do not forget, the third dimension was created for physicality, to experience love, joy, peace in physicality. To have the senses, the physical experience. It was the humans who built up all this other density and debris. That did not come from anywhere else.

Could you have overcome it the same way you built it? Yes. But at the same time, for all this time, you have been inhabiting a sentient being, a magnificent being, Terra Gaia, a sister who has her own path, and who has endured and practiced patience and love and nurturing. But in her cycles of evolution, in her cycles of traveling up that spiral, it is her time. So would we say to Gaia – as we have, by the way – can you hold on a little longer while the humans sort it out? We've done that, you know. And she has agreed. But that frame of time has come and gone. And it is not as if you did not know that when you incarnated. For most of you it is the very reason you incarnated, like, this is it! This is the time when we will get to elevate and return to love! There is no being, not even those that you think have the darkest of hearts, that does not yearn for love. There is no being!

And so it would not be fair, it would not be just to ask her again, can you wait for them to sort it out? Do you have the ability to create peace on Earth in the third dimension on your planet, right now? Ten years from now? Twenty years from now? Yesterday? Yes, you do. That has never been the issue. But there are other things, other patterns of evolution that are concurrent and expanding. This is what is so exciting. That you are part of this magnificent expansion. Do you not feel it, my friends? That you are bigger and brighter than you ever have been?

SB: Certainly, but this is attributable in the greatest part to the energies that are flowing here from other regions of space and other beings. How could we have done the cleansing of the Earth without that energy?

AAM: But the key to that, that started this, is that you said, yes, to accept it. You did not say, no, and bounce it back.

SB: No.

AAM: Yes, now there are energies that are flooding the Earth, that it is not whether you say yes or no, it is an equal opportunity energy that is absolutely wiping away what you can think of as the dust, the dark, the smears, the dark corners. But yes, you could have done it. But let us also say, to say that we would not be in partnership, to say that we would simply abandon you and not be in attendance, that would not be feasible or possible. Just because you would want to sort it out yourself does not mean that we would divorce ourselves from you. That is simply not our way. So when we say yes, you could sort it out, it means that you would not have had the level of partnership with us consciously, and unconsciously, that you do at the moment. But it would have taken a while, and you know what I mean when I say a while.

SB: A thousand years, Lord?

AAM: Yes, about that, if not longer.

SB: Hm hmm. In the few remaining minutes that we have left, could you comment on what is meant by a Divine Plan? From time to time I think you're meaning that an idea arose in the mind of God. But then I hear of universal councils and various personalities like Sanat Kumara and yourself. How did this Divine Plan for this age evolve?

AAM: It was an idea, an inspiration of light, born of the Mother/Father/One. And yes, then it – you can think of it as people, beings, archangels, star brothers and sisters, all volunteering because as this idea – and you see this in your world all the time, an idea is born, and then it spreads, and people think that is a wonderful idea, I want a piece of it. And so it came to pass that beings such as myself, my sister Gabrielle – not only messenger, but administrator; Raphael – healer, not only of universes, but of human collective and of Gaia herself; Sanat Kumara – volunteering and being appointed as planetary logos; people assumed roles over a very long period of time. So it is the pieces got put in place. But when we talk about our piece of the Divine Plan, we are all referring back, truly, to the Mother's plan, to the Mother's idea.

Of what she has –

SB: All right.

SB: Excuse me, Lord.

AAM: Yes.

SB: All right, Lord, thank you very much. I don't think there's time any longer to ask another question, but as I said earlier, I'm grateful and awestruck at the presence of the Divine Mother at this talk. And –

SB: Can I say one –

SB: Please.

AAM: Your platform, dear, dear heart, that is part of the Divine Plan. Never underestimate what you are doing in reaching out and allowing the human beings to participate in this unfoldment. And the Divine Mother blesses you, and she blesses all who are present.

SB: Thank you, Lord. It's been a pleasure to serve. Thank you, Lord, for being with us tonight. And I look forward to our next program in a week's time. Thank you, and thank you to all who came with you.

AAM: And it is our pleasure to serve as well. Farewell.

SB: Farewell.

January 2, 2012: Archangel Michael

Graham Dewyea: Hello, and welcome to An Hour with an Angel, a weekly radio program with Archangel Michael, channeled by Linda Dillon, the channel for the Council of Love. Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario will be asking Archangel Michael questions tonight, so without further delay I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

Steve Beckow: Thank you, Graham, and welcome to our listeners. Linda, before you give place to Archangel Michael it occurs to me that, I've been working with mediums since 1977, so I'm very much used to and comfortable with working with mediums. But some of our listeners may not understand what it is you're doing, what channeling is. So would you mind spending just a few minutes talking about channeling itself?

Linda Dillon: Good evening, everybody. And yes, Steve, thanks, I'd really like a chance to talk about, well, what it is I do. I've been the channel for the Council of Love for about 30 years now. I can't believe that much time has actually passed! So I can only speak of it really from my perspective.

I – unlike you, Steve – have not been an individual who has worked with a variety of channelers or mediums. So what I wanted a chance to talk about a little bit was what it is I do when I channel. When the Council of Love first announced themselves to me, they said that they were very much a collective group, of what we tend to think of as a spiritual hierarchy, or the Company of Heaven: a very large group that incorporated angels and archangels; what we tend to think of as the Trinity, the Mother, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, regardless of what culture you come from; the Ascended Masters; some saints; the apostles; and our enlightened star brothers and sisters from other planets that had come to help us; and then beings that had emerged as sheer energy, planets or cultures that had just emerged to that state of oneness.

So, I've been working with this energy for a long time now, and it took me a long time to get comfortable with it. So what I do when I channel is I basically beforehand go into a very deep meditation and prayer state, and I step aside and allow the entity, the enlightened being, the archangel – in this case Archangel Michael – to come into me and to use my body, my voice box, to be able to speak directly to all of you.

Now, all of that work, and all of the work that we do with the Council of Love is exactly what its name implies, and that is to bring love to the planet, to assist in the unfoldment of the plan of the Mother for the reestablishment of love. So all the work we do and all the channeling that I do is heart based. I remember, I – my background is very much in human services, and then eventually health care services, but I was well educated, have several degrees, and was an avid reader. And one of the first things that the Council said to me is, “We don't want you reading anything. We will teach you and we will reach you and we will show you what you need to know.”

So the Council literally has been my teachers. These beings, these incredible beings that come through, have taught me everything I really know and understand about this field, and how things work in our Universe. I remember about 13 years ago sitting at a stoplight in Sedona where I lived at the time, and Archangel Gabrielle said to me, “Well, now you can read now.” And it was sort of like, well, first of all, what are you doing in my passenger seat? And secondly, what do you mean? She said, “Well, now you can read.”

But by that point I'd reached a point where the conversation with the Council was so embedded and so constant – which is what I want for you guys – that I didn't feel the need to go out and explore everything that was out there; that I had reached a point of trust, of what they say and communicate to me, and to you; that that was all that I needed. And that's how I channel. I don't run off to the library, or the internet these days, and cross reference or cross check. I allow it to come through – often I don't even go back and read it until some time later, and then I go, oh, my gosh, that's what they meant, that's what they were talking about. And things they told me 20 years ago are now coming to fruition, because the very first thing the Council talked to me about, all these years ago when I was 31 – and now I'm 61 – was the shift, and the shift of the planet and humanity moving out of the third dimension.

So I wanted to clarify for all the listeners just a little bit about how I go about what I do, and my process, and how I let the beings and in this case Archangel Michael come into me. I leave, I go as far away as I possibly can. If I'm lucky, I get to eavesdrop. But if it's really important I go and play amongst the stars and I let him speak to you, because that's what's important. I'm not the factor in this. They are.

So, thanks for giving me that little platform, Steve.

SB: Okay, well, that's great. Thanks. I don't think we can just assume that everybody knows that information. So thank you, Linda, and whenever you're ready to allow Archangel Michael in, please, go ahead.

LD: Thanks. So now I'm leaving. [laughter]

Archangel Michael: Greetings.

SB: Greetings, Lord.

AAM: I am Michael.

SB: Thank you for coming.

AAM: Welcome. Welcome, my beloved friends, and welcome to this time, yes, of peace on Earth. You know me as warrior of peace, archangel of love, and for many, many years we have endeavored in my strategic peace initiative to anchor peace, not only in nations, or communities, but in each of your hearts. And that is going forward at the speed of light and the speed of love.

My beloved friends, you are doing well. Yes, you are looking around – oh, and we will get to the discussion. But first and foremost, you have need to know this is not an enfoldment that happens to you, or around you, it is occurring within you and with you – yes, within and without, above and below, in accordance with universal law.

You are pivotal to this plan. Last week I have asked each of you who have listened, either now or later, to go ahead and to work with those involved in the changes, both in terms of disclosure, or what you think of as disclosure, of NESARA, of abundance, of freedom, and to send them light. And I am here to thank you, because so many of you have done just that. It is a very simple process.

When you go out into your world each day, and you have one of those days where people are kind to you – where they reinforce you, where they support you, and you feel the expansion of their hearts to you – you perform better. You feel better. You feel more integrated and whole. And that is the gift that you are giving those who are in that in-between state, or who are truly caught still in the chaos.

So I ask of you, again, to continue this practice; each of you to choose one person, one fellow being, human or otherwise, and to infuse them, yes, with the blue flame of truth, with the blue diamond of the Mother's healing, with the violet flame. And if you don't know, simply give them love, give them light – because it is making an enormous difference.

So I wish to thank you, each of you, for your help. Often we speak of the partnership, for this phase and this unfoldment is completely about partnership – yes, genuine, not junior or senior, but equal partnership. And when you are doing this, this is how our partnership works. Yes, of course, each of you, either intuitively or actually, receives information and guidance. And whether it always makes sense or not, we urge you to follow your hearts, for that is where your truth lies, that is where your journey lies. So we do not always ask you to double check with us. If you are listening to your heart, then you are doing what has need to be done.

But I know that there are many matters that you are eager to talk about tonight. And so I will not delay this discussion any further.

SB: Well, undoubtedly you not only know that there are many questions, but if – I keep thinking to myself that it's superfluous of me to ask them, because I'm sure you know what's in my mind already, Lord. But I will ask them. I think there are a lot of light workers out there – if I can abstract from conversations I've had with people – who are almost ready to snap. They've been waiting a long, long time for NESARA and disclosure. They've been through October 14th, 2008. They've been through various other circumstances since then. They've heard SaLuSa say it would be in the first quarter of last year, June 21st, and most likely that it would be before the end of 2011, regardless. And it hasn't happened. And I think people – some people – are on the warpath. They're very upset.

So what can you tell us, what can you say about the fact that you yourself said that NESARA and disclosure would happen by the end of the year, and it didn't happen? What explanation can you give us?

AAM: You give me a form, and it is a very broad form. So first we will speak to some facts, but then we also need to speak to this issue that you raise, that so many light workers feel that they are about to snap, because that is more important than any single announcement.

First of all, the NESARA discussions and the undertakings have already begun. They have begun quietly, and yes, in some cases, behind closed doors. It is not an announcement that you are going to have on Fox TV. For there are many who have been won over, that have been penetrated by this very light and love that we have been talking about. And yes, we know that you feel you have been waiting quite literally an entire lifetime for this to come and to transpire.

You are not alone in this feeling of waiting and of frustration. And if we take ourselves out of that equation, you are still not alone, for there are your star brothers and sisters, [?] beings throughout. But let us suggest to you that the quiet candle, not the bonfire, of the discussions has already begun. It does not begin with an inferno, because that is not the way to win people over. Neither we nor anyone who is involved in this will proceed in ways, first, that interfere with free will, but secondly, that will cause such fear and trepidation. So the discussions about the reorganization of the financial systems, the global financial systems, are already – you are already hearing leaks and discussions about it. You know this.

SB: Are you referring to the James Martinez video?

AAM: Yes, but not only that. We would suggest that you also check alternative press, that you look to your own monetary system in the western world, and then to the eastern world. And you will see that there is, in even the mainstream press, there is this announcement – they're not putting it as such; they're not saying, "Now we are introducing a new system for the planet," but – they are saying that we have need to reach an agreement on what will be viable. And what will be viable, and where the discussions have been going, and that from our perspective are very encouraging, is that what they are saying is it has to be based first on equity, on freedom, on sharing, relief from debt, and integrity, ethical behavior.

You have seen massive movement away from what you would think of – particularly in the United States of America – you have seen massive movement away and disintegration of your financial systems, of your banking systems, to more of a community or the local lenders. But this idea of lending and debt, because it has been such a marvelous and terrible fiasco, it is bringing people to this understanding that Gabriel, Gabrielle, has stated for many, many years: there is no such thing as bankruptcy. And there is a desperation, and there is a desperation particularly as you have said amongst many of the light holders, light workers, that they are feeling bankrupt, not just financially, but emotionally and spiritually. And that is simply not the case. What you are doing is you are looking for a tidal wave, and it is not a tidal wave. It is the movement of the tides in and out, and with each movement of the waves, you are seeing a shift. With each cycle you are seeing a shift.

So it has begun. It has not begun with fanfare announcements from your national reserves or your banks or your president. It is being done quietly, low key, just the same way many of your star brothers and sisters are arriving in a very low key way, so that it does not cause fear, more disruption and panic.

Now, I do not say that there are not those – in all of the communities, because it is only one community – that are still holding on, for dear life, for what they believe is theirs. And so there are a variety of motivations – yes, sometimes it is greed, the desire to control, the feeling of not wanting to lose power because they have been powerless as children, being afraid that they will not be taken care of, and therefore they need to hoard – but at the same time there is also this subtle awakening that, gee, this has not worked.

The other part of that – and if we are pushing on any front, it is this co-creation with you – we are not doing this for you or to you, we do this in partnership. And you, including you, my beloved friend, are creating, and you are learning what powerful creators you really are. And that is also part of the fabric of Ascension, of making peace with the third dimension, as you leave or as you choose to stay. We were creating this as well. I know and I hear your frustration. And you are saying, Lord, it isn't enough.

SB: Close. [laugh] I am –

AAM: Well, let's talk about this. Can we take a moment? Because it relates to what you are saying, that many feel that they are at their wits' ends, that they are at the end of their rope, that they are tired of what they think are – and I use the word think, not feel – what they think are false promises, empty promises, empty agreements.

SB: Please.

AAM: First of all, we don't make empty promises. And when we do say that it will occur, it will come. But more important than that, yes, you, the collective, in this instance are more important than that. Because if you are feeling – my friends and partners, if you are feeling at the end of your rope, then this is something that has need to be released. And you say, well, that is fine; and, by the way, Michael, I will turn in my membership card. And I say, that is all right. You may do that. You may tear it into pieces and fling it into the Universe, because this will be a very good release for you.

If there is anger, if there is fear, if there is frustration, all of those are still of the old paradigm. You have need to let go. Let go of that rope. And you say, if I let go of that rope, I am falling into oblivion, and I can't count on you – Michael or Yeshua or Raphael – to catch me, because where have you been? And I say to you, we have been right here. So let go of the rope. Because it is not serving you. And yes, we will catch you.

And in that fall you will see that you have that resilience, you have your own wings, and your own power to create. We are assisting and co-creating the new Earth and what it entails. And it does not come as a single announcement from on high. And the big governments have been particularly resistant. But there are many behind the scenes, and that is why you are seeing all these leaks, all these beginnings of the conversation.

So yes, we are asking you to read the wind and pay attention, but we are also asking you to acknowledge that it has begun. This is not a hoax! This is a very subtle plan.

SB: Well, Lord, I think I wouldn't be doing my job if I didn't say to you, and be heard to say to you, that we want action. Light workers want action. It seems sometimes that the Company of Light pays more attention to the Dark than they do to the Light. We hear that they are respecting the free will of the Dark to do bad things. We are serving the Light, and we want action. I think we're tired of hearing from people like SaLuSa that the plan can be changed in a moment because the Galactics are very adept and can take care of all circumstances. We've heard this a lot of times. What we don't hear is that the Galactics and the Celestials and the Ascended Masters are actually doing this, are actually modifying circumstances or rushing in to fill a space. We want to know that you are hearing our collective call and our collective will that we want this to start. We want it to start now. We're tired of waiting. You can hurl me to Herculobus if you want to.

AAM: [inaudible] Because we have said this to you, time and again. It is time for action, it is time for stepping forward. And I know many of you, in ways that you may think have been small – don't forget, we observe a great many, but we also participate – and we know that you have been moving into action, quite literally taking action. But no, do not think – the time actually where you think that we have been spending most of our efforts in assuring the freedom of will for those who perhaps are not of the Light, that has come and gone. Because as we have also said, many have already come to the Light.

So the action is underway. What you are saying is, "I want to feel when I wake up tomorrow morning that there is tangible evidence that my life –

SB: Tangible –

AAM: – and the lives of my brothers and sisters are getting better."

SB: Tangible evidence would be good. We need some tangible evidence. We haven't had any tangible evidence, except perhaps for the expansion of our being from the rising energies. But apart from that we haven't really had any tangible evidence for years. And we want tangible evidence. Yes, that's true.

Can I mention something else, Lord? If you will allow me. I – in the last 24 hours I have been told that I stand in peril of very, very bad things – I don't think they were ever specified, I presume it's torture and murder. I am not in the slightest bit afraid of that. Not in the slightest. And I am also not afraid to say to the light we need tangible evidence. We need something to happen soon. We've been asked to wait long enough. And I'm not afraid of the Dark, and I'm also not afraid of the Light. And I know I don't need to be afraid of you. We need something to, to, to – reassure ourselves, reassure our minds and the parts of us that are human, that this is real, that something is happening. Now, why can't something be given us? We've been told, for instance, that there'll be displays of UFOs. Well, if that's the case, it hasn't been that impressive. Why cannot there be a really impressive display, something to show us and to show the loved ones that many readers have told me that they've said, oh, no, it's going to be happening by the end of 2011, and then it didn't, and just like on October 14th, 2008 we were left feeling abandoned. We need something.

AAM: Yes, you do. And you also listen to what I say. I ask of you to listen with your heart and feel what you feel as tangible is also in your heart. And yes, there is that part of you that is the – not just the small child, but the – adult crying out and saying, “I need some help.”

SB: That is there, too. I actually don’t need a great deal of reassurance because I have benefitted huge amounts. But there are people asking that this message be delivered to you, and I am speaking for them.

AAM: Yes, I know that, dear heart. And when I say that you need something tangible in your heart rather than your head, I am speaking to the collective as well.

SB: And I know you are.

AAM: What I’m asking is also do not just look with your eyes or your brain or your ego, but also look at what has shifted, not just in the global scene, but in your own life, in your own reality. Because you are right, it is time for a big show. That message is very loudly heard.

SB: All right, then, let’s, perhaps – if you’ve heard it, then maybe I can be allowed to move on, because I really do have quite a few other questions to ask of you. You know, if I get flayed for abandoning this line of inquiry, I’ll live with that. But I also want to cover some of the other matters. Is that okay? Are you okay with that?

AAM: Yes, it is. Because it is not the first, the last or the middle time that we will visit this subject.

SB: I’m sure it’s not. The James Martinez video has been called a hoax. For me, it seemed like a quiet announcement of NESARA. Was it a hoax? Was it a quiet announcement of NESARA? What was it?

AAM: It was a – a starting flag. It’s not a hoax. It was a starting flag.

SB: From whom? Who gave that –

AAM: A quiet announcement that things are moving. And it was done in a way that it was meant and intended to reassure people that things were underway, that all the details that have need to be put in place cannot possibly be shared on a very wide spectrum at this moment, or it would cause complete chaos and the collapse – it would cause more harm than good. So it was done in this manner to give hope and encouragement and to say it's started.

SB: Well, the Monaco Accord group says it didn't come from them. Who did it come from? Or can you say that?

AAM: It has come from a group, and it is a combination group of star beings, human beings, and, can we say, with our input, that is working together.

SB: Okay. I don't want you to expose Earth Allies or anything like that. That's enough for me personally. All right, the – AAM: [?] that this individual would expose himself this way. He has done so at great – not risk, but – risk of ridicule to himself.

SB: Yes, indeed.

AAM: And he has not faltered. He has gone forward.

SB: Indeed. I very well understand the kind of risk of ridicule that he places himself in the path of. So, and I respect that. The Monaco Accord people, are they or are they not part of NESARA?

AAM: They waffle back and forth. So they have certainly been part of NESARA. There is some internal derision. There is some internal politics. We are very confident that with the infusion of light that is being put there, that this will all be sorted out.

SB: All right. So – all right, okay. Now, the Bridge Fund: if the Bridge Fund doesn't show up soon, I'm going to look pretty darned silly. Where is the Bridge Fund?

AAM: Those who are the contributors are in that place of feeling the nervousness of will I be taken care of? Am I safe in doing this? What if the world comes to an end and I need to buy provisions for me and my family? That is where the bridge fund is. Those people are being – actually they are being worked on by not only this realm but also by your star brothers and sisters.

SB: All right.

AAM: They are being given the tangible reassurances they need. So the block really is with the contributors at this moment.

SB: Well, when you say contributors, the contributors are far away. Right? I mean they – I – I'm not at liberty to go any further than that, but –

AAM: That is correct.

SB: So you're talking about those contributors? The ultimate contributors?

AAM: We are talking about human vehicles who are acting as contributors.

SB: All right. Okay. I apologize to listeners. I just simply am not at liberty to be more specific than that. If we can turn to this group in the Philippines, Udo and JP, who've been getting the word out on a huge treasure of gold and platinum and palladium and hundred thousand dollar bills. Are they – are they safe in coming forward and saying what they're saying?

AAM: Yes, they are very well protected.

SB: They are well protected.

AAM: And this is their mission and purpose. You know there are those who are invited to go into the heart of chaos, who will have that level of very high exposure. And then there are those who work in between. And then there are those who are allowed to be in the quiet places. So yes, this is part of their mission and purpose, but they are protected.

SB: Okay. Why did – what's going on there? I mean, the American government was told that all this incredible amount of treasure exists, and they didn't even respond. And yet JP Morgan opens up a bank in Cebu, and of course JP Morgan ostensibly owns some of this treasure. What's going on?

AAM: It is part of the – can we say – greed, lust, control. The American, as you think of as the government, do not want to be seen as getting involved in what they believe is basically a treasure hunt. They are fully aware of what has transpired and what is available. But what they, what you are changing, particularly in the United States – but it is a global issue, as you know – is that the banks have controlled so much, so the government doesn't need to do anything. They will leave it to the financial institutions to take care of it. And that is what is changing.

SB: All right. Now, is the ultimate destination of this incredible treasure NESARA?

AAM: Partially.

SB: All right. Is this part of what David Wilcock was talking about when he mentioned battleships sunk at the bottom of the ocean with an incredible amount of gold? Is that part of it?

AAM: Yes.

SB: The Filipino – It is. So these ships were intentionally sunk?

AAM: At the time, yes.

SB: Why? To keep the treasure safe?

AAM: To be protected, yes.

SB: Very strange. Is there anything else you want to say about this whole episode? To make it –

AAM: No.

SB: No? All right. All right.

AAM: Understand. If you were to look around your planet you would be amazed, and we do not want people going and digging up the streets of New York, but you would still be amazed at the caches of what you call treasure that has been positioned in various places all over the globe, to be used at the right time and in the right way. It is not just treasures of money, although this is one of the equalization times, so that is why we are talking about gold and treasure. But there have been different stashes, like the generator crystals, the Lemurian crystals, that have brought libraries of information forward. So there are treasure chests, caches, very large caches that have been placed there for when the time is right.

SB: All right. I recall hearing somewhere that Galactics had brought gold to this planet from their own regions to aid in NESARA. Am I correct in that understanding?

AAM: And they did it a long time ago.

SB: Ah. Okay. All right. And compared to the amount of gold which David Wilcock has said exists, an incredibly large amount of gold, what is – how large is the gold that the Galactics brought for us?

AAM: You cannot even begin to count it.

SB: So far from the Galactics today coming to demand gold from us, they brought us gold, is that correct?

AAM: They brought you gold. They brought you materials that you do not even have names for yet. They brought you so many gifts. And yes, they have been planted in the Earth and planted in safe places for recovery at a later time. But they also, now, bring you gifts again. But the greatest gift they bring you is not technology or science or gold or information, it is peace. It is brotherhood. It is community.

SB: All right.

AAM: But what it does is it eliminates this have and have-not situation.

SB: Okay. I have been called foolish for relying on channeled messages, and I'm only referring to the reliable channeled messages, instead of the testimony of insiders and other terrestrial beings. What do you have to say about that?

AAM: We would like you to be able to rely upon your fellow human beings. Now, the difficulty has been is in this reliability factor, has it not been?

SB: Yes. Yes, that's true.

AAM: So that many have operated with a great deal of information that they have shared. And I do not say this in a critical way. I do not say this in a way of judgment, for that would not be loving either. But what you call insider information has been a disastrous route. We do not say, "Only listen to us!" That would be foolhardy. But we do have a different, and perhaps a fuller, perspective. Yes, it is true, sometimes there are translation difficulties – and you have more than pointed those out to us – but to only listen to humans, who are in their evolutionary process, and who have their own issues and vested interests? Now, we do not say those interests should not be there. But they are on a journey.

So it is not an either/or. It is this practice of discernment. It is taking the information from the Galactics, the inter-Galactics, the Celestial Realms, from your best friend, from reliable sources, from insiders, and then taking it to your heart, and saying, okay, what makes sense here? What feels like truth? And given that information and what I am choosing to create, for me, for my family, for my community, for my planet at this time, what information do I use? What is of love?

And if the message from your next-door neighbor feels more reliable and more loving and more caring in your heart than the messages that you receive from this Council of Heaven, then, dear heart, go ahead. We will support you. That is what partnership is about. It is about honoring your choices and your decisions. We do not always agree with them, but we will support them. But to say there is one source is ridiculous.

SB: All right, that's fair enough. A while back something happened which was most unusual, and I'm still scratching my head over it. And that's that a very good source, Wanderer of the Skies, appeared – gave the appearance to lecture terrestrials. I was quite taken aback by that. Is Wanderer of the Skies a reliable source, and can you interpret that particular channeling in which he looked like – I'm not saying he was, but he looked like – he was giving terrestrials, more or less, a lecture?

First of all, we want to say that this Wanderer of the Skies is a very pure and clear and centered and loving being, and channel. Now, you have talked this night about frustration. And yes, there are times when the Galactics themselves become frustrated as well. [?] level of frustration of moving things along came through perhaps more strongly and not as lovingly as it should. No, there are times.... Do not think of us, and certainly your star brothers and sisters, as having the same range of emotionality, but that does not mean that there is not feeling or what you would construe as emotion. So was it a bluff? Did the frustration come through? Yes. Would you [?] messages that this one has to share? That would be very sad.

SB: All right. All right. Well, I'm glad to have that reassurance. I've missed Wanderer's posts. I hope they'll start again. And thank you for helping me to understand that. Light workers have long been waiting to begin to serve, and to get into action. How can we serve? What are the opportunities for us now?

AAM: You have done well, and when I say you, I mean you, Steve, but I also mean you all. You have stepped forward, each in your own way. The best way you can serve, today, tomorrow and the day after, is to let go of these lower level frustrations. Take them out of your solar plexus, take them out of your head. Give them to me. Give them to Sanat Kumara. Give them to Archangel Gabrielle. Give them to your guides. Give them to the Mother. But give them away. Let them be washed from you by the white light of the Holy Spirit. Let it go.

And then tackle the human obstacles, and the human obstacles are not just those in what you perceive as places of power. The human obstacles – yes, we still continue to ask you to work on, every single day, one person who is in the financial system with NESARA, and then a second person to deal with the fear factor of your star brothers and sisters' full appearance. But then begin, every single day, create one thing. And it means to create joy, to create something of love, to create something that is affirming of your belief. And if it is only speaking to a neighbor or a friend that you have hesitated to speak to because you think that they will judge you or chastise you or shun you, then be brave. Start to raise the bar in terms of collective consciousness in terms of what is really going on. Occupy your neighborhood.

SB: AAM: all right. And there are so many questions, but we're nearing the end. I'm going to ask three quickly if I may. A reader has taken exception to the fact that you characterize Archangel Gabriel as a female. My understanding is that you're androgynous.

AAM: That is correct.

SB: So is Archangel Gabrielle a female, because most of us consider Archangel Gabrielle to be a male.

AAM: Well, she [?] makes sense. But she is both, she is male and female. And when this channel is working with her it is mostly as the Lily of Love. And it is that feminine aspect that comes forth.

SB: All right, Lord. The music is overtaking us, and I'll have to leave the rest of my questions. But thank you very much for being frank with us and tackling our frustrations and helping us to find a way out of them. Thank you, Lord, for this week.

AAM: Do not forget your sword and shield, and do not forget your flame.

SB: No, Lord. Certainly not.

AAM: I am with you. Go in peace.

SB: Thank you Lord. Thank you. Farewell.

AAM: Farewell.

January 9, 2012: Jesus

Graham Dewyea: Hello, and welcome to An Hour with an Angel, a weekly radio program with channeler Linda Dillon, the channel for the Council of Love, along with Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario.

Tonight Linda will channel Jesus and Steve will ask him questions. So without further ado, I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

Steve Beckow: Thank you, Graham. And thank you, Lord, for revisiting us today. I mentioned last time we spoke that it seemed better to reserve a time after Christmas to discuss some of the details of what have come to be called “the lost years,” and also other matters relating to your ministry on Earth. Our purpose is not to cause any heartache to your followers, but simply to iron out some of the mysteries that surround your life. Is that satisfactory to you?

Jesus: Yes, it is. Although I would not say that there are any lost years! But I welcome you, Steve, and I welcome all of you. And you may call me Jesus, or you may call me Yeshua. But I am pleased to be here with you this evening.

S: Thank you. I don't think I can call you anything but Lord, Lord! It just comes naturally, and I'd feel a little strange. I'll try.

Before going on to the lost years, Linda herself has asked me to ask you a question, and so maybe I can ask that first. And that is: what can we do for people who are in despair? And by despair, she means, “Is Ascension really going to happen? Am I going to make it?” She reports that a lot of people are feeling somewhat despondent. Can you discuss that with us first, please?

J: Yes, I would be happy to. For we have all known a dark night of the soul. We have all known a time when there does not seem to be any light that creeps in, either with the dawn or under the doorway, when we forget the light that is our inner light and our inner guidance.

And what is transpiring for many during this time is not simply the concern, or the fear, or the despair, or the lack of hope around the Ascension or around the events of 2012, but also around the issue of their lives, around the meaning of their mission, the fulfillment of their mission, the feeling of love in their hearts, or the lack thereof.

Our Mother [the Divine Mother or Holy Spirit] has said often, where there is no hope there is no life. And I know that many of my followers had fallen into this place, now and then, and even I at times had had feelings of despondency, though I never had the occasion to live without hope.

But this situation is often a residue of what has gone on in the individual's life, or in the collective's lives, or even in earlier lifetimes, that is coming to the surface now for complete elimination, for cleansing, for letting go, for whatever you choose to call it. (1)

Now, that does not always help, to know that it is something that you are letting go of once and for all. The ironic thing about what many feel is the lack of hope is not because there is no solution, from above or below or from the inner being, from the soul or from the higher self; often what the yearning is is for contact, for communion, for union, for unity, community, for reaffirmation from the human race, from friends, from neighbors, from family – sometimes even from strangers.

It is the time we have talked about, for action and for standing up and for sharing what you know to be truth, and the truth of your own individual journey. But part of that action is also reaching out to those fellow light-holders, light-bearers, and light-workers who are finding themselves in this predicament, in this place where they do not know how loved and valued they are.

They have forgotten their own inner worth and their own sense of hope. The thing that I recommend, the action that I recommend and ask of you, is to reach out to those, not simply by sending healing, or by sending light and love, but in a physical way as well, by a chat on the phone, by a conversation – in person or [by] other media.

Let the individual know that you are there holding the hope for them until they are ready to resume their place in this unfoldment. It is to reassure one another that you are not alone in this journey, that it is a journey of the collective. And of course that goes not only for light-holders, [but] for those that you think do not understand that they have not understood what this unfoldment, or what 2012 or Ascension or any of this business that we are so keen to talk about, is about, for these are people who also need greater hope.

So have the conversation with them, too. And if they do not understand, it does not always matter. What matters is that you're communicating caring and love. That is the only thing that is necessary. So this is what I ask for you to do. Extend yourself, and in extending yourself you are giving the gift of hope, you are reinstalling it within your friend's heart, whether they are family or stranger.

S: Thank you, Lord. Perhaps a subsidiary question to this is that some people – I think of Matthew Ward, particularly – have said that your followers who fall into the category of Fundamentalists will have a great deal of trouble accepting the Ascension, and in fact they may choose not to Ascend, and may choose to leave. Can you speak any words of encouragement to them at this moment around Ascension?

J: Of course I can. And there are many, many who fall into this group. And perhaps it is also with what many have come to understand as Ascension. It is the word, it is the phraseology. And we have run into this for centuries! But it is the word that frightens them, first and foremost. But it is also an issue of self-worth and self-love. But they think in terms of my Ascension, for example, but there have been other examples as well, as you well know.

But we are not talking about taking your corporal or even astral or spiritual body and ascending into the oneness of all, into what they would think of as heaven. We are talking about ascending in a trans-dimensional way. We are talking about movement, and for this reason we have often had this channel use the word shift. But the key to Ascension is not fully, intellectually, just understanding it, or not understanding it. It is the holding of love in your heart.

This has always been the case. And it has always been the message. The Fundamentalists have carved a path – we do not say this in judgment – but rather than carving it with flowers and grass, and moveable sand, they have carved it out of stone, out of rock. And they believe that this foundation is firm. And that is reassuring to them. And of course we always want people to feel reassured, but the difficulty with that is that too much of these beliefs that are human-made, not divinely directed, have become entrenched, and that they think that their path is proscribed. They do not think that there is any flexibility. They think in terms of reward and punishment. And of course that is of duality. It is of polarity, and at its worst it is of judgment. It is very sad, and sad in the fullest sense of the word, as in disheartening, but also as in pathetic, to feel that we would judge in that way, that some are welcome and some are not, that some are lost and some are found. That there is only a chosen few? That is simply not the case.

Now, when the time comes –

S: [?] – they will see this. They will be given their own signs and their own revelations, and this will give them the opportunity to move, or not. Many will come. Many will choose at the last moment to ascend and to accompany the rest of the collective in this new adventure. And for them to let go of this yoke, that has really been self imposed, will be so freeing. And then they will truly know what it is to bask in my love, to walk with us, to share with us – for that has always been the plan. We do not save some and condemn others. That is not the way of love. Graham Dewyea: Hi, Jesus, this is Graham. We seem to have dropped Steve's call, so I'm going to monitor the panel here so that when he comes in I can bring him back on. And I invite you, if you'd like, to use this time to speak further of Ascension or any other comments you'd like to share. Thank you.

J: I would like to begin with what Steve has asked me about my early years, about my life as a child and as a young man, as an adult becoming of age. And I want to begin by telling you, I had an incredible life as Jesus, as Yeshua. I had an incredible family. Yes, both above and below. And that is where so much confusion often occurs. But I and my human family, and my beloved mother and my beloved father, and yes, my siblings, my extended family, they were so supportive since the day I was conceived. And yes, of course, it was known, although it was kept in many ways quiet – although it could not be kept that quiet, because I was quite adventurous. They supported my journey, and of course that is why I had been sent to this family in such exceptional circumstances.

My education, my exposure was brought – but let me go even beyond that. At a very early age, around five, five and a half, I was completely, can I say, reunited or filled with the Holy Spirit. That full reconnection to Father-Mother-One, what you think of as God or Source, what I think of as Mother-Holy Spirit, took place. And so that awareness and that connection, that knowing, and what you would think of as information, was available to me from the start, or from the very early age. But I was also of a very educated family, and one that placed great value – not just my mother or father, but my entire family – who placed value on the learning, and what you can think of as the sacred learnings, of both Hebrew, certainly of the Laws, the Laws as a Jew, but also the universal laws. So I learned not just the languages of Greek, and I travelled. There is – and I have spoken in other situations about my learning to assist my Father in this, what you would now think of as construction business. He was far more than just a humble carpenter, although that is the job that he took or assumed when we first returned to Nazareth. But through these family ties I was brought to study and exposed to many scholars and many different points of view, including the Eastern philosophies.

My cousin, my beloved cousin John, who I loved as a brother, with him we studied and became familiar with the Essenes. So the exposure was brought. The difficulty was very often that I would correct my teachers, or I would challenge my teachers, not in a way that was offensive, for I was a very polite boy, and even a more polite young man. I did not ever wish really to draw great attention to myself. But what I could not understand sometimes was when there was a point of law or a point of philosophy that I knew was either incomplete or not rounded or even incorrect, I would ask about it. And it was wonderful, because we would then [ensue?].... This is the gift of being trained in a true scholastic environment: it is not just about obeying or obedience or adherence – and that is also the message that I would give to our fundamentalist friends, or any -ism – it is about exploring. But it is about exploring from the inner knowing, and from your connection, because there is no being – no being – on Earth that is not touched or gifted with the wisdom, the energy, of the Holy Spirit. It is available, and it is truly gifted to many. Yes, you can turn away and say no, but that has never been understood – not while I was in human form, and not really now. It always comes back to this situation of self-loathing or self-worth, the lack of self-worth.

Now, you would say to me, Yeshua, if you were filled with the connection and the knowing, why was it necessary for you to be prepared in this way? My parents – particularly my mother, a very astute woman – it wasn't just the value of education and culture. She knew that I would move in and amongst the people, in and amongst the cultures, and that in order to have credibility in my teachings, as I entered my more public life, that there would need to be a full understanding and an acculturation into these belief systems, even those that I did not completely agree with. And that would be necessary in order for me to be accepted amongst my people. Because, although my message was universal, and always has been, it was to the people of the Jewish faith, those who had been promised and who were looking for a savior, a messiah, for a leader to take them out of this bondage, to make them what they thought would be leaders of the world.

But of course it is not of this world that I lead you. Yes, I teach you, I guide you, I help you. I help you every single day, whether you know it or not. I help you to maneuver and to deal with this world that you live in. Whether you feel that you are on top of the world, on top of your journey, on top of your game, or whether you are lost, I am still with you, and I am guiding you. And I have many voices, and even many faces, but they have always been the same message.

So, now, Steve?

S: Yes, I'm –

J: We welcome you back.

S: Thank you. Graham, could you just orient me to where we are in the questions?

Graham Dewyea: Absolutely. Welcome back.

S: Well, thank you.

Graham Dewyea: Jesus was just talking about his upbringing and childhood, and just continued on your original question around Ascension.

S: Okay. So have we asked you, Lord, about the manner of your birth yet?

J: What do you want to know about my birth?

S: Okay, so I take it we haven't asked that question. Well, the problem is that some people say you weren't born in a manger or a stable, that you in fact didn't come from parents of a humble and poor background – humble obviously – but that instead you came from a well established family, they weren't poor by any means. Which version is correct, Lord?

J: We have known good times and bad. I was of a very well-established family. Let me make that very clear. And the establishment of our family was in the lineage, and yes, position, not just in terms of wealth, but in terms of heritage, of respect. Were my parents humble? Absolutely. For they could not have brought me forward if they were not. But as I was saying, in my family there was a tradition, and a deep respect, and yes, in your society you would say an expectation, of what an upbringing would be, and what that would be entailing in terms of training and scholarship, education, exposure, acculturation.

Now, when I was born, when I took form, let us put it that way, upon the planet of this beautiful Earth, it was during a time of mass migration and confusion. And it wasn't what you would think of, has been romanticized as, a stable, a manger, but it was in a very humble situation, where there was a back room, yes, where animals were close by. But that was not unusual, you know. So yes, in that situation, because of the requirements of government, I was born as [laughs] somewhat of a displaced person. But my family, my family was what you would think of as a very well-placed lineage.

S: All right. Well, that's very helpful. When your parents left Israel, where exactly did they go? What part of Egypt – I think it was Egypt – did they go to?

J: We went to a small village just outside what you would think of now as Alexandria. It was very humble. But then again there was family. So you have to understand, in our society, as in many of yours, the family took care of us. So it was not that I was in any way, or that our family was in any way, deprived. That simply was not the case at all. We had comfort. My mother tended, in the beginning – well, always, really, but – to be what I would say would be very protective. She did not want to have me exposed to too many people in a strange and foreign place. She often feared that, should people know of the promise of my being, that it would place me in harm's way. And so I was kept very close in the early, early years, not that I would wish to go anywhere anyway. But she kept me very close by her side within the family compound.

S: All right. And the Aquarian Gospel describes you as coming into contact with the Egyptian hierophants. Did you in fact take a course of study with the Egyptian priests while in Egypt?

J: Yes, I did. As I have said –

S: Like the description?

J: Yes, we have. But understand what I say, because I came into my knowing, into the fulfillment with the Holy Spirit, at a very, very early age. And so yes, I studied with the high priests and was exposed to their belief systems. The Egyptians, later the Greeks, the Romans to some extent, although that did not really have great impact at all, but the early times, and the understandings of the workings of the universe, the role of a priest in society was embedded from those early teachings in Egypt.

But it was – also there were studies with the Hebrew scholars as well. I learned Greek. I studied many cultures, and especially from the East, from that tradition, which was common, not unusual, in my family. But it did not – it did not cause contradiction, because there is no contradiction. Yes, you may ask your question.

S: Thank you. When you say that, “I studied with Greeks and Romans,” are you saying that you studied with them in Alexandria, or did you go on the same philosopher's circuit that Apollonius of Tyana did, namely to Delphi, Egypt, Persia, India?

J: Yes, I travelled a great deal in my early years, as a young man – as an adolescent, and as a young man. My family felt that it was very important. My mother in particular knew the universality of the messages that I would come to share with many, and she wanted me to be fully prepared. Now, she did not always understand when I would challenge or debate, shall we say, some of my teachers. But they always understood. They welcomed the conversations and different insights. There was no restriction. You see, this is what has been misunderstood. There has always been a feeling that the belief system was very constricted, and it was not. So yes, I was exposed and studied and went on many pilgrimages.

S: Apollonius of Tyana describes a circuit that many people followed almost as if it was well known in those days –

J: [?] sequential.

S: Sequential. And did you actually set out to follow that same circuit?

J: Not step by step by step. But through exposure, yes, we did. And when I say we, I mostly mean that I was always accompanied by someone from my family.

S: All right. I know that we have many listeners in India, and I'm sure they would be most interested to know where you went in India at this time, who you studied with, what lineage they were or what path they followed.

J: What you would think of is it would be the path of Hinduism. It is the path of the Masters, of the Teachers, of the Yogis.

S: Would you have made a distinction between, say, Vedanta or karma yogis, or bhakti, at that time?

J: At that time, no, we did not. There was very little. It was more preferential, but it would be more bhakti than anything, if you were to look at it in terms of today's. But it was also very rigorous in terms of also physical discipline and training as well.

S: And where did you go in India to study?

J: Everywhere.

S: I passed a marker outside of Pondicherry that celebrated the passage of Matsya, the fish prophet. Was that you?

J: Yes. Yes it was.

S: That's very, very interesting. What else should we know about these years before you started your ministry? What else would be relevant to us appreciating you as you began your ministry? What was important?

J: What I would want people to know – yes, in India, in Africa, in the Himalayas, certainly, in what you think of now as the Middle East – was the universality. My family obviously was in the Judaic tradition. But the level of sophistication – and yes, because I had the privilege to travel, to study, but also to work along side many fellow travelers, I was not alone. And I never thought of myself as the only voice, or the only teacher, or the only way. I was one. I was one where the Word, because of the Holy Spirit, was in flesh. But I certainly was not the only one. So there are those who have said oh, yes, Jesus, another prophet. And then there are those who take great offense at that. I do not. Because each tradition that I have studied, whether it was in India or Egypt or in the temples, or at home, whether it was with the philosophers or the rabbis, they all were really telling me and teaching me the same thing. And it was ironic in many ways. Yes, I understood – and it was rigorous! Do not think that I got to go on tour and live in the lap of luxury, because there was none of that. Yes, I was attended to. But it was far from luxurious. And there were times when my family depended on the extended family, always for support. But it was considered important – because everyone knew that I was being prepared – that I know all paths.

So this is not meant in any way to say that what I taught came from here or there. And yes, I have traveled, even further than most think. As I travel these days, amongst your star brothers and sisters. But it is the universality, it is the community spirit that I would wish to emphasize, it is the community of love. And that was the message I received. I received it from the high priests, I received it from the yogis, I received it from the teachers and the masters, from the rabbis. They all had valuable teachings, and they taught me also not to be arrogant or conceited, to bring humility to my work, and to know that I was simply honored to be in service, as are each of you.

S: Well, you have mentioned the Holy Spirit in flesh, so I'm going to turn at this moment to another line of questioning. I'm quite sure we're not going to get finished with our discussion today, so if you'd be so kind as to return next week, we can continue and I won't try and rush through this. If that's satisfactory to you?

J: Yes, and why do you think I have turned it in this direction, dear friend?

S: Very good. Thank you. I know I can rely on you to guide me. You mentioned the Holy Spirit in flesh, and that raises questions about your ministry. Do you consider that the word avatar applies to you and your ministry? Sri Ramakrishna says

J: Avatar is not a word that I particularly cherish. Let me put it that way.

S: All right.

J: There are those who wish to label me as an avatar. And I would accept that label, but I would not choose it. I would choose the label, or the description, of teacher.

S: Okay. Well, maybe we could creep up on it then from another route. Sri Ramakrishna considers you an avatar and publicly declared that. Can we talk about who was here then, please? You were here in bodily form. But –

J: Yes.

S: – Sananda was also here overlooking you, was he not?

J: Yes.

S: So that would be a second layer to your ministry, so to speak, the overlooking.

J: That is correct.

S: And then in addition to that, the Holy Spirit descended into your form. Is that correct?

J: That is correct.

S: And did that, by the way, happen when you were being baptized in the River Jordan?

J: No, it happened at a very early age, actually. The baptism was a – a symbolic refilling, if you want to put it that way. But, no, in order for me to go forward in my journey on Earth, there was an infilling of the Holy Spirit at a very early age, of about five, five and a half. And then it was renewed, or – symbolically renewed, so that the people would know that this was available to everybody.

S: All right. Well, if you were the human form that was overlit by a spirit as exalted as Sananda, and the Holy Spirit descended in you, that I would call an avatar. Would you – would you disagree?

J: [laughs] I do not disagree. I simply say to you that it is a designation that I am not so eager to claim.

S: Okay.

J: Yes, I will accept it. You know there was so much controversy, when I did walk the Earth, not only about my family's position but about the politics of “King of the Jews” and wanting leadership and political intrigue. So I am always very hesitant to give myself or to accept designations.

S: I accept that.

J: And I will tell you why. Because you, or your listeners, will then say, “Oh, well, he had this overlighting, he had this infilling, and that makes him different or separate,” and it does not. If anything, it allows me to be closer to you.

S: All right, I accept that, Lord.

J: All right. So I have made my point, then! [laugh]

S: Yes, Lord.

J: And I want you to accept, each one of you, I have often teased this channel that you are M-in-Ms, masters-in-the-making, but now we will call you A-in-Ms, avatars-in-the-making.

S: [chuckles] All right. I had another question for you, but it's entirely slipped my mind. So perhaps I can then pick up with your life, and if it returns to me I'll ask you again. Were you in fact married to Mary Magdalene?

J: Let me put it this way. Yes.

S: All right. Formally married? I don't know the customs of that age, so forgive me if I've asked an indelicate question, but married according to –

J: She was not my mistress, dear heart, so yes, we were formally married. She was my beloved wife. She was my sacred other. She was my divine other. She was my partner, that made my walk on Earth full with joy – and more human. It was anticipated, you know, that a young man would marry. But it was not simply because of custom, or because I wished to be part of or separate, it was because I wished to be in sacred union with my Magdalena. The love that we have shared was deep and profound. And there have been many who have naysayed and made up many myths and stories about her. But she was my support as I was hers. She was my sounding board. It was a very difficult.

When we came together, she knew. We discussed very fully what the future held and the road that we would walk together. She was one who always prepared ritual, and helped to put ceremony, often, around our situations. Now, as you well know from the Egyptians, and from the travels to India, I had learned about ritual and ceremony and the importance of it. But in many ways, even from the family that I was raised in, I was a very relaxed and casual person. I wanted to move amongst the people. And often she would say, yes, we will move amongst the people, and we will have the joining and the teaching, but let us put some ceremony and ritual, for she had also been trained in this way. So yes, not only was I married, we had a family as well.

S: And that would have been my next question. But before turning to that, could I ask you, why would the gospel writers neglect to mention that?

J: It was not considered particularly important, but it was also considered protection and reverence for her.

S: All right. Okay. So you actually had children, did you not?

J: Yes.

S: How many?

J: We had two children.

S: Two children? A girl and a boy, or – ?

J: Yes, we had a son. A son and a daughter.

S: Could you tell us about –

J: Our son died very young. It was very hard. But our daughter lived.

S: And is she the Holy Grail?

J: That is correct. Our Sarah is the Holy Grail.

S: Sarah. Where did she go after you left the Earth? France?

J: She went to the south of France.

S: And was she that which was revered by the Cathars?

J: That is correct.

S: Oh, it takes my breath way to hear you say this, Lord. I actually notice that the time is getting close to our ending, but again, I'm just going to continue next week, if you'll permit me. So perhaps this could be a wind-up question. Did you teach reincarnation during your ministry?

J: Yes, I did. Now, is that not a radical statement for many to hear?

S: Yes.

J: But yes, I did. Because this was a very common understanding – not always agreed to by the rabbis, but in many of the other cultures. The continuity of life, the continuity of the flame of the soul. How could I teach that you did not die and not talk about reincarnation? How could I raise the dead and not talk about reincarnation?

S: Yes.

J: So yes.

S: But you also – you also say – you also speak about enlightenment conferring immortality. But I take it that by that you mean that someone would not need to be born again, and not need to leave the temple and go no more out. Is that correct?

J: That is correct.

S: All right. So we are immortal?

J: Yes, you are immortal. Every single one of you. And we will talk about karma and the requirements for reincarnation when next we meet, because this has need to be clarified.

S: And I'm looking forward to that immensely, Lord. Thank you for visiting with us tonight.

J: It is my pleasure. And I bless you, and I thank you. And I give you my love.

S: Thank you, and we – Farewell.

January 16, 2012: Jesus

An Hour with an Angel, January 16, 2012

Martin Luther King, Jr.: We must come to see that the end we seek is a society at peace with itself, a society that can live with its conscience. And that will be a day not of the white man, not of the black man. That will be the day of man as man.

I know you're asking today, "How long will it take?" Somebody's asking, "How long will prejudice blind the visions of men, darken their understanding, and drive bright-eyed wisdom from her sacred throne?" Somebody's asking, "When will wounded justice, lying prostrate on the streets of Selma and Birmingham and communities all over the South, be lifted from this dust of shame to reign supreme among the children of men?"

Somebody's asking, "When will the radiant star of hope be plunged against the nocturnal bosom of this lonely night, plucked from weary souls with chains of fear and the manacles of death? How long will justice be crucified, and truth bear it?"

I come to say to you this afternoon, however difficult the moment, however frustrating the hour, it will not be long, because "truth crushed to earth will rise again." How long? Not long, (Yes, sir) because "no lie can live forever."

How long? Not long. Because "you shall reap what you sow." How long? Not long. Truth forever on the scaffold, wrong forever on the throne. Yet that scaffold sways the future, and, behind the dim unknown, standeth God within the shadow, keeping watch above his own.

How long? Not long. Because the arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends toward justice. How long? Not long.

Graham Dewyea: Hello, and welcome to An Hour with an Angel on this day, January 16, 2012, a day in which we celebrate and honor Martin Luther King, Jr., for his important work and service. The speech you just heard is an excerpt from his speech on March 25, 1965 in Montgomery, Alabama, and it's certainly relevant to the work we're doing today. He offers his vision for a society of peace. He talks of hope, justice, and however frustrating or difficult it will be, it will not be long before truth and justice will rise.

Well, tonight, Jesus joins us once again, channeled by Linda Dillon, the channel for the Council of Love, and Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario, will be asking him questions again. So with that, I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

SB: Thank you, Graham. And just before beginning, may I say that Linda has the flu tonight, and that does put certain – it makes it somewhat more difficult for someone like Jesus to speak his words through her, and I just would like the audience to know that. But Linda has bravely decided to come on the air, because she knows people are looking forward to tonight. Welcome, Jesus.

J: Welcome. And I tell you again, you may call me Jesus, or you may call me Yeshua –

SB: Thank you.

J: – or you may call me brother or friend. But I welcome all of you tonight. And yes, I welcome the channel as well, and we will work her to make sure that we can go forward together.

SB: All right. I'm – have – sorry, Lord.

J: I thank our host for playing these words and reminding our audience about this wondrous soul, Martin Luther King, a man who believed in what he was doing and who brought about great change, not only in your North American society, but all over the world. But I also know that he echoes a question that so many of you hold in your heart, and that is, how long? How long until truth and justice will reign?

And so I ask each of you, my beloved friends this night, within your own hearts, how long? Is truth and justice and fairness and love resting there? Because that is the nature of my messages. That is the nature of my being. And it is what I truly come to offer. It is about all I have to offer, for I do not bring riches, I do not bring food this day. I am not in the loaves-and-fishes business right now. But what I bring you is hope, but this hope must be married to what is in your hearts. And if the truth and the hope is not within you, then you do not match it throughout the universe, you do not find it because it is not there with the light within you.

If you ever have any doubt about the truth of your being, about the justice that you deserve, in every moment of every day, in this and every other incarnation you have ever had or will have, then look to my light and let it give you that hope to continue on. Because what you are seeking is right around the corner. There is far too much discussion these days about ascension, about shift, about movement forward, and about the opening of hearts, about a society that is based on love, on fairness and heart. But it begins with you, dear ones. It does not just begin with me. It is within each of you to effect this change and to build this new world, this Nova Earth, this Nova Gaia.

We are partners in this undertaking, not simply I but the legions that serve and who stand ready to extend their help. But it is in direct partnership. You are not in servitude in the way of waiting for us to do for you. That is not the way of this unfoldment. It is you claiming your birthright as creators, acknowledging the divinity within you, and from that place, walking in tandem – hand in hand, arm in arm, heart in heart together. So, as many years ago, with your beloved leader, Martin Luther King, I ask you tonight, across these airwaves, to put your hands together and to commit your hearts to this change that we are all seeking.

SB: Thank you, Lord. Sorry, I – everybody relates to the saints and the Ascended Masters in different ways, and I'm finding it very difficult not to use the word "Lord." I will do my best, but that is the way that I relate to the Ascended Masters.

Jesus, I feel a little sad this week because I've lost one of my best friends who believes that this is a hoax, that I'm not speaking to Jesus or Archangel Michael, and that Linda is hoodwinking our listeners. I don't believe that for a moment. But could you direct your attention to that and tell us whatever you can that would help listeners who are having difficulty with thinking about you speaking right now?

J: I wonder how long it will go on, Steve, that people will think that what I say or what I have to offer – as Yeshua, as Jesus, as Sananda, or as any of the Ascended Ones that speak through this channel – how long do people need to think of it as a hoax? What is this issue of doubt? What is this need to not believe? This is not new. This even predates when I have walked the world. And it has predated many galaxies, even universes that have gone astray. Doubt is based in fear, and it is the fear of being led astray, it is the fear of being wrong or being thought of as foolish or thought of as incorrect.

What I say to you is not as important as what I would say to your beloved friend, and that would simply be, what does your heart tell you? What does your heart yearn for? Does it not yearn for friendship and trust? Does it not yearn for fellowship? Put your faith in me aside and look to the brother whom you have known for so long, and the times that you have cherished together.

Each of you who are listening this night – you, Steve, Graham, yes, the channel Linda – have all had times when you have lost those that you thought were very dear to you, who you thought loved you and whom you certainly loved, and who have said, I cannot walk down that road with you, I cannot walk that path with you. And even I, in my lifetime, have certainly experienced that. But I will say to them, and to each of you, what I said then: You do not always have to walk with me. You do not always have to agree with me, for as we have talked about last week, I am one that is interested in lively discussion. But do not give me your doubt. Do not try and place your doubt upon my shoulders or within my heart. But what I would ask of you, do not eradicate the love. Do not eradicate what is so precious and what needs to be, what each yearns to be, unconditional.

What I say to you, Steve, is be courageous as you have been, and accept the support of those who cherish you, myself included. And know [we?] will come when your friend will be back, and while many feel that they are going through separation right now, the time of union and of new community is truly at hand. It is not a bad thing to have doubt, but it is an obstacle when you let it stop you, when you let that fear interfere with what you wish to do with your life. So acknowledge the fear, acknowledge the doubt, embrace it, and then keep going.

SB: All right, Lord. Thank you for that. Readers have sent in questions, and I feel obligated to ask you some of them. One of them requires me to read a couple of paragraphs, and I ask you to excuse me for that. Montague Keen published a message recently saying that much of what has been said about Israel and the Israelites actually pertains to the Irish. And mk says there are still one or two of you who have not yet grasped the importance of Ireland. He goes on to say that the ten commandments of the ancient Irish truths are almost identical to those given to Moses. The preservers and disseminators of pre-diluvian knowledge were the Druids. The Druids were Aryans. This means a spiritual caste, not a race. Their languages were Aramaic and Hebrew. They are not Semitic and were not invented by Jews. The 22 letters of the ancient Irish alphabet were the sacred alphabet of the ancient Irish. Now they expect you to believe it is Hebrew. Everything was stolen from Ireland, the Irish people. Judeo-Christianity is but a result of deliberate plagiarism.

I've been asked to ask your comment on that, please.

J: Well, it is a night of controversy, is it not?

SB: Yes, indeed.

J: I will be pleased to answer this. And it is important that people know. First of all, when I come to speak to you, I am interested in what you think and what you feel – you, the collective. And so I am pleased when I hear or receive questions from readers or writers. But let us not mistake what we are doing here as a review of history. What we are doing together is building the future. What we are doing is entering into partnership. We are laying the foundation and building actually the structure, that golden spiral through which each of you are ascending.

When we have spoken of universal law and universal law that pertains above and below, that is basically what your ten commandments and the ten commandments that were developed pertain to. And there are variations in every culture, for there are rules and laws that pertain to sloth, to stealing, to thievery, to murder, to mayhem, to lust, to greed. There are many truths that have been in the Irish history, in the ancient ways of Ireland. I would have no reason to deny that or to challenge that. But to suggest that the history or the development of the Judaic tradition has been based on theft – I think this is a little overboard, do you not?

SB: Well, it certainly did sound radical to me, that's for sure.

J: It is the need. Again, we are going back to the need. And whether it is of an individual or a group, it is this deep desire to be acknowledged as important, to be acknowledged as unique, to be acknowledged as divine. That is not a problem. The divinity of the ancient Irish, of the Druids, of the Egyptians, of the Hathors – all beings – is always beyond question. But it is not a contest. The law is – "is". And it has been understood and translated in many universes. So it was not a race, and it was not a theft. It was a gift.

SB: All right, Lord. Thank you. I'd like to read you another passage that is controversial and ask your comment on it.

"The truth about Christianity is it is based upon fabrications about Jesus's birth, crucifixion and resurrection. And his teachings were deliberately distorted through dilution and omission. Jesus was conceived and born just like every other baby, and he was never put on a cross. He was flogged by the Sanhedrin, who ruled church and state, and was banished. They wanted him out of that land, not [to] make him a martyr whose death would increase the numbers of his followers. But with his pregnant wife, Mary Magdalene, Jesus went back to the east where he had gone as a youth and spent many years studying with the master teachers."

Could you – would you care to comment on that, please?

J: I guess I could say that it is wishful thinking and that it is certainly distorted thinking, or distorted channeling or understanding. Yes, I am born. And we have discussed how that has taken place – by the ignition of light, of holy spirit, of the energy of creation within what you think of as a virgin womb. Did I assume a human form? Yes, I most certainly did. And I have had human experiences. But also what I have shared with thee is that I have also been filled with the light of the Holy Spirit and overlit at a very early age, so that sense of knowing, that privilege of connection, not being in the, what I would call the illusion that had penetrated so much of the human race, was not part of my reality.

I've been flogged many times, more than I would choose to remember. For justice was not always within the courts, and there were many who thought one way to tame me was to throw stones or flog or jeer. Or yes, even sometimes, to call my teachings or what I believed to be a hoax. There were many who wished I would go into exile. And there were certainly moments when that was, as a human alternative, very attractive. But that was not the path or the agreement.

So no, I did not travel with my beloved wife to the east. Had I studied with masters? Yes. And I was privileged to do so. And in some small way that seed and that exchange of energy contributed to all who were part of those conversations.

You may have wondered when last we spoke why I was so hesitant to say names or places, or who did what, but it was – one of the reasons was that I do not wish people to say, well, he was a student of, or a follower of, and then try and dilute what I have to teach and what I have to say. There are many, many masters that have wisdom and love to share. There are certainly enough to go around. But there is no need to make fantasy out of what occurred in my lifetime.

Did I die? Was I crucified? Yes. And it was far from what many people have thought of as holy or sacred. It was painful, humanly painful, and at moments spiritually painful. But each of you have also known moments of extreme pain, either in your heart or your body, your mental or emotional fields. I am not unique in that way, do not need to lessen it. So no, let us be done with this mythology of the “great escape” once and for all.

SB: All right, Lord. Thank you. There are a cluster of questions about what happened following your crucifixion. By that I mean who went to France. Could you give us more details of the life of your daughter Sarah in France? Did Joseph – well, I’ve already said who went to France. So could you give us a little bit more detail about what happened to Mary and Sarah and the others who went with her to France?

J: Yes. My wife and Sarah, James, my brother Joseph, and a retinue of disciples who would attend to the family went to France. Andrew as well. The life was –

SB: There in France –

J: – very simple, and very quiet. The Magdalena in many ways retreated. But Sarah did not, for she moved amongst the people, and she embraced them. And they embraced her as well. And she is the one who carried the lineage.

SB: Is there anything we should know about the lineage, Lord? Is that a subject that would be profitably explored?

J: No. Because there is too much time and too much interest, although it is a fascinating subject, is it not?

SB: Yes.

J: But many wish to know who was where when, and so I would ask each of you, where were you? Do you remember being with me as we walked those shores, as we trod those dusty, dusty roads? Those paths, those goat paths, really. And then too many are willing to say, well, I was there, I was there at the flogging or the crucifixion, or I was this apostle or that apostle. And in most causes you are absolutely correct, you were. But that is not the issue.

The issue is as those beings you have chosen to come back right now during the fulfillment of the promise. In some ways, the plan was evolved, born, long before I ever walked the Earth. That is most certain and clear. But some think of it as the birth of the promise. You can think of it that way or not. I certainly came to simply remind people about their potential for love. But now, you who are living in a very different world that is absolutely no different, you are the fulfillment of the promise. And yes, I tell you, aside from myself, that all of you have returned, and as you ascend into the fifth or the seventh, that I will walk with you again. Many of us will. But most of you are already there.

Now, I do not mean to imply that this is simply a rerun. It is not, because there has been such evolution. And there have been some steps forward and some steps backward. But you have persisted, each of you, in your own way, whether you were centurion or governor, judge, apostle, handmaiden. You have said, "I will go again, and I will keep going until this promise is fulfilled." That is why you are here.

SB: Thank you, Lord. Another reader has asked, if you were the source of the Course in Miracles – I think they want to hear it from your own lips – is there anything you'd like to say about that project and your connection with it? I'm sure our listeners would be interested in anything you want to share about the Course in Miracles.

J: I was a full participant, let me put it that way. Yes, I am a source for that. The full course. I certainly am not the only, what would you call, contributor. What I would say is that there are many – well, there are millions and millions who have taken this and taken it to heart. Now, what I would like you to do is to speed it up. The lessons are all there. But time really is shortening, you know, in your human reality. Yes, even the number of hours in a day are getting closer together, they are shrinking. I'm sure you have noticed that. So take these wonderful messages, these lessons, and bring them, accordion them, and then place them in your heart. Yes, still, one, two, three a day – it matters not. The lessons are eternal and valid. But get going with them.

This is not a time to simply be studying. Always the study continues, life after life after life. But it is also a time of action, and that is what the course teaches as well. It is to internalize and then bring forward into your life the [axis?] of love and the lessons of manifestation, of creation, of attraction, repulsion – all of these. Bring them to the forefront now.

SB: Lord, when the prophet Malachi assumed the name Emperor and spoke through the Reverend Stanton Moses, you're aware of that channel, are you not?

J: Yes.

SB: And when he did, he brought along with him Plotinus, Al Ghazzali, and other exalted beings whose names have slipped my – Apollodorus, etc.. But you were saying that the Course in Miracles involved a group of beings. Can you name any of the others?

J: You can think of it as the group of ascended masters. You can think of it in that way.

SB: Okay. And you are the head of the Great White Brotherhood, are you not?

J: I am considered the honorary head. I would never imply that I am the head of the Great White Brotherhood. The Great White Brotherhood, like many of the brotherhoods, is also part of Council of Love. So we are all connected, and all one. But yes, I am part of this –

SB: All right.

J: – esteemed group that loves to teach.

SB: Okay. I thought it was Sananda who said you were the Hierarch. But I'll let that go.

I have a question from myself, and one that I would like answered from myself, if you would. Jan Ruusbroec in the Middle Ages once described the Christ, and he said this. He said, "In this darkness an incomprehensible light is born and shines forth. This is the son of God, in whom a person becomes able to see and contemplate eternal life. It is Christ, the light of truth who says "see," and it is through him that we are able to see, for he is the light of the father, without which there is no light in heaven or on Earth."

Is that light indeed the Christ in its essential form?

J: It is the Christed light, yes, you are correct. In its fullest form.

SB: All right, now, can you – I – It'd be such an important thing for me if you could discuss your relationship to that light. Were you embodying it in the fullest manner? Was that your role or mission? Or what was your relationship to the Christ?

J: That has always been the fullness of my mission, in whatever form I have taken. I am the light that burst forth. I am the light that came from the heart of One, from the heart of God. And my purpose in all this relationship was to simply ignite, not only what has been referred to as Heaven and Earth, but far beyond. If you look to my essence, dear friend, all you will see is light. That is all there is. And it can assume relationship, and after relationship it can assume various form. But it is – light was beyond the Christ light. Can you think of it as a [tearing?]? That was how – It was an implosion, explosion of light, and it has never changed. And it will never change.

SB: And when you say, “I am the light,” who is “I am”? Are you speaking as Jesus, or are you speaking as the Christ, as the light?

J: No, I am speaking as the light. I am speaking as the light.

SB: And is that something –

J: The light that then transfers into the Christ light, that then transfers into the being that you, sitting here this night, call Jesus. But you were asking about my essence.

SB: I am. Is that light that became the Christ is that the Father?

J: It is – think of it as a replication of the Father.

SB: So the Father –

J: It did not take away from the Source, it just expanded it. It is part of the infinite extension of creation. It is not born the way you think. It is just an explosion of light, that is.

SB: And that is not the Holy Spirit you’re describing?

J: That is the feminine. And when that also explodes, it becomes the light. And I am that blend.

SB: All right. Well, there’s definitely more for me to understand then. I do [impress it?] because that is a very deep explanation, and not one that I certainly fully comprehend at this moment. But I thank you for –

J: It’s not what you expected.

SB: No, no, it’s not. No, of course, it isn’t, but my view is simplistic. How could it be otherwise? I know that.

J: You are not a simple man. When you think of creation, when you think of all that is, the creation is more light. And that initial light that bursts forth is who I am.

SB: Um-hmm. Well, I ask that you make this clear to me on some occasion in the near future, Lord. Thank you. And I will listen to this tape again and again. Thank you.

J: You are welcome.

SB: Oh, let’s see. You wanted to speak on karma and reincarnation, I believe.

J: Yes, I did. Because there is a time right now, as you may know, of great karmic dispensation. For there is a great deal of concern, doubt, worry, fear, and the circle of karma that has been the circle of life and reincarnation time and time again needs to be discussed. And so we would ask people – all people, all beings, all isms, all realities – to pray, to ask, to request, however you go about this, to ask for this karmic dispensation, to ask for this time that all karma, that is owed to you or that you owe, that all deeds that have been left unattended to, be cleared, so that you are all free during this time of rebirth to go forward without hindrance.

Now, we have talked briefly about immortality and incarnation and reincarnation, for, of course, that cycle has gone on and on. Many of you are starseed and have traveled thousands and thousands of years to be present at this time of rebirth on Earth, the unfoldment of a shift, of the rebirth of love, of a higher dimension of reality than you have known. You have come to witness and to learn about what love looks like and how it is constructed and to help – and your help is needed in this process of construction, and yes, reconstruction.

Each of you has this ability to continue on, free, and to break free of these bonds that have held you in this circle and in this cycle. Now, I am not talking about dying for immortality. I am talking about living and assuming your human form, or, for that matter, whatever for you choose, to continue on into the golden times. Do not limit yourself to what has been a construct or a belief system of your third dimension, that you only come for a certain length of time and then you disintegrate and you die – not that death is a difficult process. In fact, it can be quite pleasant. But that is not what you are here for at this moment. You are here to fly free in form, whatever form it is you choose. So I'm taking this opportunity to ask each of you to request this gift.

A long time ago, when I did die, there was a great deal of mythology then as well. And the churches who liked to keep control said, "Well, he died for your sins." That has always been distasteful to me, because it is mired in guilt and shame and blame. During that period – what you think of as my death and then ascension – was a time then of great karmic dispensation, not just for those present but for all upon the planet at that time. And that gift is renewed during this period once again. And so that is why I ask to bring it to your attention right now. You cannot do this quickly enough. Let go.

SB: Were you finished, Lord?

J: Yes.

SB: Thank you. Would it be – could you comment, please, on the teaching that some people say that belief in you will remove all sin? Is that an accurate statement?

J: If you believe in me – and I am going to do this to you Steve I am going to turn on it again – I am going to say if you believe in me the way I believe in you, if you love me the way that I love you, the way that the Mother, Father loves you, the way that Sanat Kumara loves you, Archangel Michael loves you, if you love in that way, then there is no sin, because you are in alignment.

There is this belief, good people do bad things. That is not so. When you are in the truth of your being, your mind, your heart, your soul, and if you believe in love, then yes, anything, anything can be forgiven. But the biggest obstacle has always been the forgiveness of self, forgiveness of each other.

SB: Well, there are some who consider that there are levels of knowledge, from mystery to belief to thought to feeling, to actually touching something, and on up to an enlightened or natural knowing. And they say that belief is a low dimension of knowledge. If I simply believe in you as I believe in Visa or MasterCard or the government, so to speak, is that enough to –

J: No, of course not. That is like believing what you are watching on TV, or believing in what you see on the news.

What I am asking – and I invite you to believe in me the way that I believe in you – is to come to know me. The belief is the starting, the faith is the starting point, but as you come to know me, as you come to know me, you come to know all. As you touch me, you touch all. If you know and believe in me, then you are there, you are home. But we do not believe in the way that it is used colloquially or in these levels.

Because if there is a small child who only holds belief, if there is a man on Wall Street that only holds belief, or a shepherd in the Sudan, do I say no, because they have only believed? It is these ones that I feel very often the most attraction to appear to, so that they will have their belief confirmed. So do not underestimate belief. But I mean it in the truest heart sense of belief. I do not mean it unwittingly buying whatever is told to you. It is what you explore with your mind and your heart and your very core, and what seems to you to be beyond question. And therefore through that you come to know. It isn't always through study. Or sometimes the study is directly with me.

SB: That's very clear. It sounds to me that what you mean by believe in me is somewhat similar to what you mean by "Come to me," –

J: Yes.

SB: –"approach me, love me." Is that correct?

J: That is correct. And it is an open invitation.

SB: Well, some of your disciples said to you at one point, “Well, now, Lord, now you’re speaking plainly,” but you were not speaking plainly at that moment, were you? As far as I can recall. What you said had very deep meaning.

J: That is exactly correct.

SB: [laugh] I thought that was a form of a joke that was left in the Bible!

J: Yes. I was teased a lot, you know.

SB: [laugh] Uh-hunh. What – we’ve just got a few minutes left. Can you talk to us about Nicodemus and your interaction with him? What was happening there at a deeper level than the words indicate, Lord?

J: It was a soul-to-soul conversation. It was an awakening of his being. It was a plea for belief in justice. It was an opportunity to shift some axis almost of power. That is what was taking place.

SB: And he was a member of the Pharisees, was he not?

J: Yes.

SB: So he was a member of the powers-that-be of that age and was taking a tremendous risk in talking to you, was he not?

J: He was taking a risk, but understand, he was also representative of a group. So it was not as great a risk as you might assume. You know the Pharisees did not care for me.

SB: Yes. [laugh] Yes.

J: But it was a – there was what appeared on the surface and then there was the true questions that we were asking one another. And it was his opportunity to shift and to become a very active supporter. And part of his question to me was, “Will you continue on this journey that you know is going to lead into trouble for you?” That was the real conversation, and what was the purpose of it. And it was about faith.

SB: All right, Lord. Thank you for coming tonight.

J: You are welcome. Farewell.

SB: Farewell.

January 23, 2012: Archangel Michael

Graham Dewyea: Hello, and welcome to an hour with an angel, a weekly radio program with archangel Michael channeled by Linda Dillon, the channel for the Council of Love, and Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario will be asking questions. Tonight's special guest Archangel Michael will be joining us, so without further delay I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

Steve Beckow: Thank you, Graham. Hello, Lord. Thank you for being with us this evening.

Archangel Michael: Thank you for inviting me.

I welcome all of you, as always, as does this entire Council of Love, to this joining in love, of unity, of community, of connectedness, of balance, for this is the time where balance is necessary in order to go forward not only in your individual Ascension process but in the collective Ascension process.

This shift is not lopsided, you know, and you have need to also be anchored deeply within the heart of Gaia, and within the heart of One.

My beloved ones, I come this night not only to share information and greetings with you, but also to share my energy, my essence, my love. And because you are ready, I am going to share more of this than I have in the past. So relax, my dear friends, take a deep breath of my blue flame and join with me as we go forward as one.

So, dear Steve, where do you wish to begin?

S: Lord, why anchored in the heart of Gaia? You've mentioned that to me personally. You've mentioned that in other talks. You've said to send down our anchor into the heart of Gaia. Why? What's the significance of that?

AAM: This Ascension process – what you are calling the shift – is essentially a shift, yes, in paradigms but of course in dimensions and realities as well. It is the shift of Gaia to higher or different dimensions, to the fifth through the seventh dimension, and further on if you choose to go.

We tell you, we advise you, we ask you, we guide you, we beg you at times to anchor deeply within the heart of Gaia so that you are going in tandem, that you are going in connection, so that, as she is going through her Ascension process, you are connected heart-to-heart, that you are not simply flying off in free form, as it were.

This is a collective movement. This is a collective Ascension. Yes, each one of you in your own unique way are going forward. Many have already done so. And I invite each and every one of you to do so every day. There is no need to wait, you know, although most of you will. But part of that ability to do so, and to do so smoothly without any bumps in the road, is through the anchoring in the heart of Gaia, of being connected to her energy, so that, as she ascends, you ascend.

S: Now, regarding most of your listeners, Lord, would it be accurate to say that they have already ascended previously and that they're here to help others with their Ascension?

AAM: Yes, that would be a very accurate assumption. For there are very few who are listening this night, or who will listen in later, that have not begun this process at least. But most of them, whether they are fully conscious of it or not, have shifted their dimensional reality. They do not sometimes realize that it is not like a big bang. It is more like a whisper of the heart, the coming of the dawn. It is a shift in where you live, in where you have placed yourself within the domain that is available to the humans and to this reality that is occupied at this moment by Gaia. So yes, most of you have already mostly completed this Ascension process.

That is one of the reasons why you tend to be so ... aggravated ... by what you feel is the human drama, or the restrictions of the third reality or dimension. It is because you know it is not real, that it is based mostly on illusion. It is based on issues of greed and separation, and you know that they no longer apply to the reality within which you live, the alignment within which you have formed not only above but below, with the sentient being, Gaia.

What we would ask of you is to give yourself some leeway to spend a greater amount of time with me, Yeshua, the Universal Mother or Father, Sanat Kumara – it matters not, with all of us – and to allow these energies and this knowing to penetrate your being to the core, to your heart. Because it is the shift from your head to your heart that is the most significant shift as you ascend the golden spiral into this new place of being.

As you do so, as you anchor more firmly in this fifth or seventh dimension – wherever you choose, child – as you anchor further and further, what you are also doing is holding this vibration for the collective, for humanity. So it is not simply a matter of reaching back and assisting people through this portal, through this inter-dimensional transference, it is also a matter of holding the vibration and anchoring it firmly within the human collective.

S: But, Lord, could we take that a step further and not only say that most of your listeners are in the process, but that in fact most of your listeners have ascended in a previous life and are here to either model Ascension or help others through? Is that a correct statement?

AAM: In one way or another, the majority – let me put it that way; and this is not a test, this is not that some have and some haven't, for all are equally welcome and qualified; but yes most of them – have gone through a similar process in a different incarnation, in a different reality and lifetime.

Similarly many of your star brothers and sisters have gone through similar experiences as well. But what the difference is, and why so many of you are here, both on Earth and hovering slightly above, is because it will be anchored very much in physicality and form, and that this shift is not simply an Ascension out of form into sheer energy or into a different dimension or reality, it is an Ascension while having the full opportunity and choice, the selection, to maintain physicality.

And that is why most of you are here. Most of you have witnessed and been part of the formulations of this Divine Plan. You have asked in your heart – to me, Steve you have asked – how does this Plan get formulated? And it does not simply come from what you think of as the heavenly realms or the divine heart. Yes, that is where the inspiration is born. But each of you have had a piece of the formulation of this Plan. That is also why you are here. You have said, “I will go, and I will be in form, and I will part of that unfoldment. I will be part of the anchoring of that promise, of that new reality of love.”

S: And, Lord, could I mention to our listeners that I have on my list of questions to ask you – which Linda does not know about – questions about the Divine Plan, and you just answered one of those questions before I got to it. I just want our listeners to know that.

All right. Lots of men, Lord, have trouble thinking about the heart and wondering where it is. Is it not the same as the center?

AAM: It is absolutely the same as the center. Why is it that you are so afraid, so fearful or so reticent, to go to this obscure place we call the heart, the center, the soul, the seat of the soul? Even the chakra point makes many of you nervous. And yet you are born from the heart of One. You are birthed from the heart of the Mother. You are all heart. What has happened – yes, over thousands of years of darkness, of the development of the human levels of intelligence, and certainly many levels of ego – the belief has been, and has come to be held as true, that in fact the mind, the center of intelligence, is the primary factor of human existence.

Now, human intelligence is a wonderful thing, and something that none of us, above or below or anywhere in between, have any desire to eradicate or interfere with. Quite the contrary, we expect it to grow exponentially. But it is not a matter of a master-servant relationship. It is not a matter of primary or secondary.

And it has particularly become true with males, the masculine of your race, that it has come to be seen as weakness to be heart-centered and heart-led, to think, to see, to be, to act first and foremost from your heart. And yet that is who you are. So in denying this you deny the quintessential part of who you are and what you came to Earth as part of your plan to experience. It was to know love and joy, in form yes, but that springs from that center that you and we call heart. It is nothing to be feared. It is to be embraced.

Most of your anger and your fear comes from issues of self-worth, but you have been diligent, all of you, in eradicating these issues and eliminating the old paradigms of old Earth. So now it is time to allow that love of self, that acknowledgement that not only can you love, but that you are loved, that you are lovable, and that you are the essence of love, that you can live in your heart and not be afraid. In fact, you can live your full potential and not sacrifice anything, for that was never the intention, to sacrifice the sense of self-sufficiency. No.

Intelligence? No.

But as we started to say at the beginning, you cannot ascend if you are lopsided, if you are out of balance. And therefore you must be in all parts of your being, and your center is where you emanate from and where that balance is established. It is in the still point of your heart. So think of it as the very center of a circle. You do not eliminate the circumference; it helps define you. But that center is pivotal.

I am known throughout many universes, and certainly within this one, as the Warrior of Peace, as the Archangel of Peace. Long before I was a warrior, I was an artist and a musician, and the time will come again when we will do this together. But as that masculine energy that so many of you know and feel a kinship with, I speak to the hearts of every man, not only those listening tonight, but every man on Earth, whether it is in a tribal village or a bustling metropolis. And I ask you to come with me to be the warrior, and come home to your heart.

I will take you there. I will travel with you. I will keep you safe. You will feel secure. I will help you. And then when it is done, you too will claim your place as warriors, as the gentlest beings in the universe bringing peace wherever you are, whether it is at home, at work, or in any dimension, on any ship, on any planet, in any situation. This is my offer to you. Take me up on it.

S: Thank you, Lord. I'm going to ask you some relatively short questions that readers have asked me to ask you about, just to have them be concluded so that we can then settle into another topic that I'd like to discuss with you tonight.

First, somebody has written in asking about the low-level sounds that have been heard around the world from January 9 through 12. Can you tell us what those sounds are?

AAM: It is a combination of sounds. It is Gaia breaking her shackles, and it is humanity breaking their shackles. You may think of it in many ways as the sound of freedom. There are many energies that have been can we say discarded? And that it is a vacuum that has been created, and so it is a sound of release, of letting go, in many ways an out-breath. But primarily it is the sound of Gaia breaking free, and it is the sound of you, my sweet brothers and sisters, joining her.

Oh, do not think that you cannot hear the sound of your collective or of your planet! You are always hearing the sound of the universe, that high-pitched ringing in your ears. So do not be surprised by this low vibratory sound that is now reaching you. So many of you have said, “Now, how will I know that anything has changed? Will I see differently? Will I hear differently? Will I intuit differently?” Well, dear hearts, your hearing has shifted.

Not everybody is hearing these sounds. But you, my beloved ones, are. This is good news. And it is news to be shared far and wide.

S: All right, Lord. Thank you. A question on Eric Holder. Is Eric Holder guilty of the crimes he’s been charged with, or a conflict of interest, or is this a cabal mounted attack?

AAM: I will turn this question on you. One of the things that we always ask, and that we actually make a plea of, is do not ever stand in judgment, not of your own dear self, or of each other, because judgment is never of love. So if you ask me about whether certain actions took place or not, that is one question. But please let us not talk about guilt or blame or shame. Yes, there are still last-ditch efforts of those who would like to destroy credible sources. Let us leave it at that.

S: I think that does answer the question.

AAM: Yes, it does.

S: Yeah, I’m happy to leave it at that. All right. President Obama gives the State of the Union speech tomorrow night. Is he going to announce Disclosure?

AAM: He will not announce Disclosure directly, but there will be many veiled references. So we guide you, we ask you, we suggest to you that you listen closely. There will be many references to the fact of the growing concern for global community. The fact that we are not alone in the universe and that cooperation and mutual support is necessary. So look for the subtle announcements rather than the outright one.

S: All right. And can you tell us what state of Disclosure is at the moment, what might be holding it up?

AAM: Well, one of the things that is holding it up is this three-ring circus you call American elections. And we do not make a joke of this, for it is the truth. What happens is so often that people become leery of appearing to be a renegade or on the edge where they can be criticized. Now, we do not suggest in any way that the United States of America is the only nation, for there are many nations involved in this, as you well know.

The subtle announcements have already begun, and that is why you are to look for those subtle announcements tomorrow. But also look for it in the international news as well, for the references are already beginning to fly. And your brothers and sisters of the stars, yes, they have agreed always never to come while there is a cover of fear. But that fear is rapidly dissipating. People of all walks and belief systems believe in their brothers and sisters of the stars. It is simple fact. It is not something that I am inventing for a radio show. It is just what they believe.

So the only question that truly remains is the introduction. Now, they may well end up, as we have suggested, introducing themselves very soon, if this does not become a part and parcel of a united front of various political agendas, in many countries, not simply North America – Canada, the United States, Mexico. So, you may look for Disclosure. It is already underway.

S: Okay. Thank you, Lord. The Bridge Fund. Can you give us an update on what is holding up the Bridge Fund? We haven't seen funds arrive. Without of course endangering anybody who's involved in it.

AAM: No, we would never mention any type or name of any individual involved, either in the Bridge Fund or in NESARA, that would compromise anybody's situation, for again that would not only be not fair, it would be extremely unwise. The Bridge Fund is held up by human bureaucracy, by what we would call – no, it is not so much greed as simply an unwillingness to let go, and a – a laziness, a spiritual laziness, of being stuck in a place of inaction.

Now, many, many weeks ago – I am answering your question, but I am also asking, we are all asking once again for your help – many weeks ago I have asked for all of you, every day, to send the energy of love and of movement, of release, of completion, to those involved in both the Bridge Fund and with NESARA. That goes for Disclosure as well.

Now, this is the nature of our partnership. You would say to me, “Lord, why has this not been completed yesterday or the day before? For there are so many in need.” My dear friends, my beloved ones, do you think we do not realize that? Do you think that we are not as anxious and excited for the release of this miraculous generosity to flow forth as well? But the partnership is even more important. And this whole enterprise is in partnership, above and below. And so we ask for your help still, not when you think of it, but every day.

Choose one person and send the energy of trust, of hope, and of release. Often we have spoken when we have referred to the old paradigms of Earth as the greatest difficulty being the addiction to human drama, but secondary to that is the human addiction or habit of lack of completion. And this entire process – whether it is the Bridge Fund, NESARA, Disclosure or the entire process of Ascension and the shift – the whole thing is a process of completion. This is not something any aspect of which will go undone. But we do so together.

S: All right, Lord. Was there anything, anything further you wanted to say about NESARA, either where it is or how it will unfold? There is one prominent light-worker who believes it's just a hoax, and he's taken his information from a Wikipedia article and various things. Is there anything you'd like to say to that?

AAM: It is not a hoax. There are many who believe it is a hoax because you have a belief system – an old belief system – that if it's too good to be true, it's not. Well, that isn't a belief system that is shared by us at all! In fact, it is quite the contrary. It is what you have need to get used to upon the planet. If it is too good to be true, then go for it. The legislation is drafted, it is on the books, it is in the process, it is in the discussion phase, it is coming forward. Hold that vision. It is not lost, and it is certainly not a hoax.

XXXXXXXXXX

S: Thank you. Now, a discussion about predictions, if you wouldn't mind. I would like for you, if you would grace me with this, to discuss the whole topic of predictions and specifically around NESARA and Disclosure, but also the Cities of Light, pillars of light, return of the Masters, even the UFO flyovers.

We've heard many predictions that have not materialized, and this goes back many years. And when you come across people who have been following Ascension for decades, they say the same thing. Why have so many predictions been made that have not materialized? What is it that we're not considering here? What is it that we don't know about?

AAM: It is not so much what you do not know about, but we will gladly talk about predictions and the nature of predictions, how you use predictions and how we use predictions. How will that be? That is if the channel will allow me! [laugh]

S: [Linda's] fighting you, is she?

AAM: As you know this one does not like the whole topic of predictions. But nevertheless, it is something that we do and have done collectively and as single archangels or ascended ones. So let us discuss it.

And let us discuss it in the terms of the Divine Plan, but also the unfoldment of that Plan, and the unfoldment of our partnership, not only with Gaia and the star beings, but with each of you, our human brothers and sisters. Because that partnership cannot be over-emphasized, but we also will not use it as a guise to say, “Oh, it was the failure of the partnership,” because from our perspective, let us be very clear, the partnership is thriving.

Are there things that we ask you to do and that you are doing and are completing ahead of schedule? Absolutely. And then there are things that still lag behind. And that is not, again, using that word of judgment; we do not find fault or blame. It is simply sometimes some things in the unfoldment of the human temperament and the environment within which not only you but we [inject?] ourselves. Sometimes things take longer than anticipated.

Now, let us be very clear, when we of the Council of Love suggest to you or tell you or promise you – and our promises are very few and far between, but they are made – that something will occur, when we give you a prediction, what you call a prediction that something will come to pass, then you can count that it is exactly what will come to pass. It may not happen exactly as you anticipate. Sometimes it is not even exactly as we anticipate, because of that human flare and factor. But nevertheless it will come to pass.

Now, let us talk about this issue of dates. It is the bane of everybody’s existence, is it not?

S: Yes, Lord.

AAM: And we have gone both ways. We have given dates and we have not given dates. But let us suggest one of the things that we are doing when we do give dates. We are looking at what is occurring, not in the moment as you would think of it, for your timespans are so very minute, but we look at what is occurring and what is the likelihood of coming to pass within that timeframe of human understanding.

Now, when we also give a date we are doing so to energize, to catalyze our human partners as well. So we are not just catalyzing and moving forward the energy of the Company of Heaven, but the Company of Earth as well. And particularly of the light-holders and light-worker community. Because when that vision, united above and below, is held firmly, then the energy of creation, of bringing something forward, of magnification or what you would think of sometimes as the law of attraction, it makes it move in time and space in your realm as well as ours, to come to be at that time, or within a short distance of that date and time. When it does not come to pass, what we witness is disappointment and the feeling of many being disheartened, and in some cases feeling that they have been lied to, cheated or duped, betrayed.

We know that this may be difficult for you to understand: we do not lie. We do not wish ever to give false hope. We are not capable, it is not within our realm of possibility, to create falsehood. So when we say in human terms that we fully anticipate something to occur, it is because everything is lined up and ready to go. Now, when there is incompleteness or interference, and at this stage of the unfoldment of the game, the interference or the stagnation, the lag in time, mostly occurs on events, human events, but sometimes inter-galactic events, but mostly human events that are occurring upon the planet of Earth. That does not mean that these events will not come to pass.

Now, you say to me, “My dearest Michael, how can this be so wrong?” I hear the collective murmur, I hear the messages of disappointed hearts, and often, my dear friends, that is when I come to you at night and I instill in you my peace rather than asking you to travel with me to war-torn places. I simply visit with you and do repair work. But that is not the answer I am beginning to give you.

The question is, “How can you be wrong? How can you not know?” We know within the framework, the divine framework, and, yes, even the human timetable, because we are at the shortened end, shall we say, of that timetable. Not that we wish to work according to the calendar; we don’t. But we do know that within that timeframe that certain things will come to pass. And we do know that as human beings it excites and generates movement and activity on levels that you can’t even begin to comprehend. And I say that not as an out.

When you hold intention, excitement, expectation, when you plan on an event, the energy you generate changes the energy of the entire planet. You underestimate your power, the role that you are playing, significantly. And so when we say, “Do this, and on February 21, 2012, X will happen,” we are doing so because we know and believe that everything is a “go” for that time. Now, we will not use these hard and fast dates out of consideration for your broken hearts. But we do reassure you, we tell you. Let us talk about some of these.

There have been many witnesses to massive flyovers by your brothers and sisters above. Are they hushed up? Yes. Are they hidden? Yes. Have there been massive changes in the, hmm, armament structures of your planet? Yes. Have they been hushed up and quieted? Yes. Have there been so many back-room discussions about how to go about disclosure, or how to re-establish the financial systems? Of course there are. You are privy to these. So while we would ask you to, please, do not doubt us, we also ask, do not doubt yourself.

So when we talk about predictions, think of it this way. If you do everything and we do everything, then that is what is going to come about, because that is part of the Divine Plan. But the Divine Plan will not be thrown out because on a certain day an event did not come to pass. That will not be tolerated or permitted. No, it is not that the Divine Plan in any way – as we have said, you are partners to this - so it is not a sword of Damocles hanging over you. But it is a Plan that has been formulated and participated in for the highest enlightenment of the collective not just of Earth, but far beyond. So that will not go away.

So what we have to pray for is that your faith does not go away and that your true knowing – because that is why you are so stalwart. You know within your heart – not that I tell you or Sanat Kumara tells you that this or that will happen – it is because you know in every fiber of your being what is transpiring and what is truth and right. That is why it rings within you, and that is why you are so disappointed when dates come and go.

S: All right, thank you, Lord. I have to tell listeners that you're so able to anticipate my questions that you answer one after another before I pass them on to you. And that does simplify my job.

We have about – a little more than 10 minutes left, and I'd like to talk about the Divine Plan, which you anticipated my discussing with you. First of all, as an archangel – I'm not going to take us back to the Mind of God, which is probably impossible to do, but just to say – when the Divine Plan comes to you, how is it presented? It certainly doesn't arrive in an envelope. It's not described on paper. How is the Divine Plan communicated to you?

AAM: With great excitement, with inspiration. You have an expression on Earth called “a download” that many of you like to use, and I will steal that phrase from you, because that is one of the ways in which it arrives. I cannot tell you, as an archangel or as a brother, the exact moment in which I became aware of the Divine Plan, because it has always been there.

So what I would say to thee is, in my awakening, in my explosion, creation as an archangel, in this very honored and humble way, I have always known and been excited and enthused and aware and inspired of the Plan. Now, the Plan – and now I will refer a little bit to what I know about the Plan, because usually what we are talking about is the Plan right now of Ascension, of the shift, of Gaia, of the human collective, who is doing so well. But as you well know, my friends, the Divine Plan is infinite. And it is always expanding.

So as an archangel, in your understanding, I have great opportunity to sit and talk about it endlessly, and to have input and comment and further definition of my role. Because there is nothing that can come from the Mind of God or the heart of the Divine Mother that I would not jump forward and say, let me help. So it is immense.

And it is evolving. Each of you also has that role in participation. The Plan has always been. In its course it evolves and it changes, and it grows. But each of you have also had your say, your input. You know, so often when we say to you that you underestimate who you are, when you return out of form and you are with us fully in a different form – a different reality, your essence – you will come to understand just how mighty you are.

But in the Divine Plan what you are trying to get at is there are what you would think of – as humans, I mean – you would think of as concrete benchmarks, timelines, events, situations and unfoldment – unfoldments such as the shift in reality, such as the shift in dimensions, such as peace on Earth, such as the return of the Masters. And by the way, many of the Masters are sitting and chatting with those of you who have already ascended. That is already passing.

So there are physical benchmarks that you can look to as well. The one thing I tell you is that the Divine Plan is never set aside. It is never ignored or overlooked. It is never said, “Well, we will do that later.” Yes, our timeframes in terms of what you would think of as time is substantially different, because it has worked in thousands of years rather than periods of weeks or months. But it is always according to the Plan.

And when something goes awry in the unfoldment of that Plan, then it is still part of the Plan to do the correction, to do the reorganization, as it were. So, for example, when the darkness fell upon the planet of Earth and the human illusion became so concrete as to form institutions and structures, it still became part of that expanded Plan of how that would shift, how that would be righted, and how the truth of who you are, when I say humanity, and how that would return to the truth... Do you understand at all what I am saying?

S: Absolutely. And I'd like to comment myself that one could talk about the Plan, at its most rarefied dimensions in which the individual leaves God, travels out into the world, comes to know its own identity, and returns to God again. So one could talk about this infinite endless Plan. And of course the individual could come back to God and be released again, into the world.

AAM: That is correct.

S: So one could talk about that, or we could limit ourselves to this era and talk about the Divine Plan for the Ascension of this Universe, this planet. If we limit ourselves to the second, and I'm remembering now a passage from a spirit guide – I don't know if it was Silver Birch or Emperor or who it was - who went away to a meeting, a council –

[Music begins.]

Oh! We've run out of time. [laughs]

AAM: We will continue this conversation for I have great interest in it.

S: Good! Okay. I'm looking forward to that, Lord. Thank you very much again for joining us.

AAM: Go with my love, farewell.

S: Farewell, Lord.

An Hour with an Angel, January 23, 2012

Graham Dewyea: Hello, and welcome to an hour with an angel, a weekly radio program with archangel Michael channeled by Linda Dillon, the channel for the Council of Love, and Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario will be asking questions. Tonight's special guest Archangel Michael will be joining us, so without further delay I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

Steve Beckow: Thank you, Graham. Hello, Lord. Thank you for being with us this evening.

Archangel Michael: Thank you for inviting me.

I welcome all of you, as always, as does this entire Council of Love, to this joining in love, of unity, of community, of connectedness, of balance, for this is the time where balance is necessary in order to go forward not only in your individual Ascension process but in the collective Ascension process.

This shift is not lopsided, you know, and you have need to also be anchored deeply within the heart of Gaia, and within the heart of One.

My beloved ones, I come this night not only to share information and greetings with you, but also to share my energy, my essence, my love. And because you are ready, I am going to share more of this than I have in the past. So relax, my dear friends, take a deep breath of my blue flame and join with me as we go forward as one.

So, dear Steve, where do you wish to begin?

S: Lord, why anchored in the heart of Gaia? You've mentioned that to me personally. You've mentioned that in other talks. You've said to send down our anchor into the heart of Gaia. Why? What's the significance of that?

AAM: This Ascension process – what you are calling the shift – is essentially a shift, yes, in paradigms but of course in dimensions and realities as well. It is the shift of Gaia to higher or different dimensions, to the fifth through the seventh dimension, and further on if you choose to go.

We tell you, we advise you, we ask you, we guide you, we beg you at times to anchor deeply within the heart of Gaia so that you are going in tandem, that you are going in connection, so that, as she is going through her Ascension process, you are connected heart-to-heart, that you are not simply flying off in free form, as it were.

This is a collective movement. This is a collective Ascension. Yes, each one of you in your own unique way are going forward. Many have already done so. And I invite each and every one of you to do so every day. There is no need to wait, you know, although most of you will. But part of that ability to do so, and to do so smoothly without any bumps in the road, is through the anchoring in the heart of Gaia, of being connected to her energy, so that, as she ascends, you ascend.

S: Now, regarding most of your listeners, Lord, would it be accurate to say that they have already ascended previously and that they're here to help others with their Ascension?

AAM: Yes, that would be a very accurate assumption. For there are very few who are listening this night, or who will listen in later, that have not begun this process at least. But most of them, whether they are fully conscious of it or not, have shifted their dimensional reality. They do not sometimes realize that it is not like a big bang. It is more like a whisper of the heart, the coming of the dawn. It is a shift in where you live, in where you have placed yourself within the domain that is available to the humans and to this reality that is occupied at this moment by Gaia. So yes, most of you have already mostly completed this Ascension process.

That is one of the reasons why you tend to be so ... aggravated ... by what you feel is the human drama, or the restrictions of the third reality or dimension. It is because you know it is not real, that it is based mostly on illusion. It is based on issues of greed and separation, and you know that they no longer apply to the reality within which you live, the alignment within which you have formed not only above but below, with the sentient being, Gaia.

What we would ask of you is to give yourself some leeway to spend a greater amount of time with me, Yeshua, the Universal Mother or Father, Sanat Kumara – it matters not, with all of us – and to allow these energies and this knowing to penetrate your being to the core, to your heart. Because it is the shift from your head to your heart that is the most significant shift as you ascend the golden spiral into this new place of being.

As you do so, as you anchor more firmly in this fifth or seventh dimension – wherever you choose, child – as you anchor further and further, what you are also doing is holding this vibration for the collective, for humanity. So it is not simply a matter of reaching back and assisting people through this portal, through this inter-dimensional transference, it is also a matter of holding the vibration and anchoring it firmly within the human collective.

S: But, Lord, could we take that a step further and not only say that most of your listeners are in the process, but that in fact most of your listeners have ascended in a previous life and are here to either model Ascension or help others through? Is that a correct statement?

AAM: In one way or another, the majority – let me put it that way; and this is not a test, this is not that some have and some haven't, for all are equally welcome and qualified; but yes most of them – have gone through a similar process in a different incarnation, in a different reality and lifetime.

Similarly many of your star brothers and sisters have gone through similar experiences as well. But what the difference is, and why so many of you are here, both on Earth and hovering slightly above, is because it will be anchored very much in physicality and form, and that this shift is not simply an Ascension out of form into sheer energy or into a different dimension or reality, it is an Ascension while having the full opportunity and choice, the selection, to maintain physicality.

And that is why most of you are here. Most of you have witnessed and been part of the formulations of this Divine Plan. You have asked in your heart – to me, Steve you have asked – how does this Plan get formulated? And it does not simply come from what you think of as the heavenly realms or the divine heart. Yes, that is where the inspiration is born. But each of you have had a piece of the formulation of this Plan. That is also why you are here. You have said, “I will go, and I will be in form, and I will part of that unfoldment. I will be part of the anchoring of that promise, of that new reality of love.”

S: And, Lord, could I mention to our listeners that I have on my list of questions to ask you – which Linda does not know about – questions about the Divine Plan, and you just answered one of those questions before I got to it. I just want our listeners to know that.

All right. Lots of men, Lord, have trouble thinking about the heart and wondering where it is. Is it not the same as the center?

AAM: It is absolutely the same as the center. Why is it that you are so afraid, so fearful or so reticent, to go to this obscure place we call the heart, the center, the soul, the seat of the soul? Even the chakra point makes many of you nervous. And yet you are born from the heart of One. You are birthed from the heart of the Mother. You are all heart. What has happened – yes, over thousands of years of darkness, of the development of the human levels of intelligence, and certainly many levels of ego – the belief has been, and has come to be held as true, that in fact the mind, the center of intelligence, is the primary factor of human existence.

Now, human intelligence is a wonderful thing, and something that none of us, above or below or anywhere in between, have any desire to eradicate or interfere with. Quite the contrary, we expect it to grow exponentially. But it is not a matter of a master-servant relationship. It is not a matter of primary or secondary.

And it has particularly become true with males, the masculine of your race, that it has come to be seen as weakness to be heart-centered and heart-led, to think, to see, to be, to act first and foremost from your heart. And yet that is who you are. So in denying this you deny the quintessential part of who you are and what you came to Earth as part of your plan to experience. It was to know love and joy, in form yes, but that springs from that center that you and we call heart. It is nothing to be feared. It is to be embraced.

Most of your anger and your fear comes from issues of self-worth, but you have been diligent, all of you, in eradicating these issues and eliminating the old paradigms of old Earth. So now it is time to allow that love of self, that acknowledgement that not only can you love, but that you are loved, that you are lovable, and that you are the essence of love, that you can live in your heart and not be afraid. In fact, you can live your full potential and not sacrifice anything, for that was never the intention, to sacrifice the sense of self-sufficiency. No. Intelligence? No.

But as we started to say at the beginning, you cannot ascend if you are lopsided, if you are out of balance. And therefore you must be in all parts of your being, and your center is where you emanate from and where that balance is established. It is in the still point of your heart. So think of it as the very center of a circle. You do not eliminate the circumference; it helps define you. But that center is pivotal.

I am known throughout many universes, and certainly within this one, as the Warrior of Peace, as the Archangel of Peace. Long before I was a warrior, I was an artist and a musician, and the time will come again when we will do this together. But as that masculine energy that so many of you know and feel a kinship with, I speak to the hearts of every man, not only those listening tonight, but every man on Earth, whether it is in a tribal village or a bustling metropolis. And I ask you to come with me to be the warrior, and come home to your heart.

I will take you there. I will travel with you. I will keep you safe. You will feel secure. I will help you. And then when it is done, you too will claim your place as warriors, as the gentlest beings in the universe bringing peace wherever you are, whether it is at home, at work, or in any dimension, on any ship, on any planet, in any situation. This is my offer to you. Take me up on it.

S: Thank you, Lord. I'm going to ask you some relatively short questions that readers have asked me to ask you about, just to have them be concluded so that we can then settle into another topic that I'd like to discuss with you tonight.

First, somebody has written in asking about the low-level sounds that have been heard around the world from January 9 through 12. Can you tell us what those sounds are?

AAM: It is a combination of sounds. It is Gaia breaking her shackles, and it is humanity breaking their shackles. You may think of it in many ways as the sound of freedom. There are many energies that have been can we say discarded? And that it is a vacuum that has been created, and so it is a sound of release, of letting go, in many ways an out-breath. But primarily it is the sound of Gaia breaking free, and it is the sound of you, my sweet brothers and sisters, joining her.

Oh, do not think that you cannot hear the sound of your collective or of your planet! You are always hearing the sound of the universe, that high-pitched ringing in your ears. So do not be surprised by this low vibratory sound that is now reaching you. So many of you have said, "Now, how will I know that anything has changed? Will I see differently? Will I hear differently? Will I intuit differently?" Well, dear hearts, your hearing has shifted.

Not everybody is hearing these sounds. But you, my beloved ones, are. This is good news. And it is news to be shared far and wide.

S: All right, Lord. Thank you. A question on Eric Holder. Is Eric Holder guilty of the crimes he's been charged with, or a conflict of interest, or is this a cabal mounted attack?

AAM: I will turn this question on you. One of the things that we always ask, and that we actually make a plea of, is do not ever stand in judgment, not of your own dear self, or of each other, because judgment is never of love. So if you ask me about whether certain actions took place or not, that is one question. But please let us not talk about guilt or blame or shame. Yes, there are still last-ditch efforts of those who would like to destroy credible sources. Let us leave it at that.

S: I think that does answer the question.

AAM: Yes, it does.

S: Yeah, I'm happy to leave it at that. All right. President Obama gives the State of the Union speech tomorrow night. Is he going to announce Disclosure?

AAM: He will not announce Disclosure directly, but there will be many veiled references. So we guide you, we ask you, we suggest to you that you listen closely. There will be many references to the fact of the growing concern for global community. The fact that we are not alone in the universe and that cooperation and mutual support is necessary. So look for the subtle announcements rather than the outright one.

S: All right. And can you tell us what state of Disclosure is at the moment, what might be holding it up?

AAM: Well, one of the things that is holding it up is this three-ring circus you call American elections. And we do not make a joke of this, for it is the truth. What happens is so often that people become leery of appearing to be a renegade or on the edge where they can be criticized. Now, we do not suggest in any way that the United States of America is the only nation, for there are many nations involved in this, as you well know.

The subtle announcements have already begun, and that is why you are to look for those subtle announcements tomorrow. But also look for it in the international news as well, for the references are already beginning to fly. And your brothers and sisters of the stars, yes, they have agreed always never to come while there is a cover of fear. But that fear is rapidly dissipating. People of all walks and belief systems believe in their brothers and sisters of the stars. It is simple fact. It is not something that I am inventing for a radio show. It is just what they believe.

So the only question that truly remains is the introduction. Now, they may well end up, as we have suggested, introducing themselves very soon, if this does not become a part and parcel of a united front of various political agendas, in many countries, not simply North America – Canada, the United States, Mexico. So, you may look for Disclosure. It is already underway.

S: Okay. Thank you, Lord. The Bridge Fund. Can you give us an update on what is holding up the Bridge Fund? We haven't seen funds arrive. Without of course endangering anybody who's involved in it.

AAM: No, we would never mention any type or name of any individual involved, either in the Bridge Fund or in NESARA, that would compromise anybody's situation, for again that would not only be not fair, it would be extremely unwise. The Bridge Fund is held up by human bureaucracy, by what we would call – no, it is not so much greed as simply an unwillingness to let go, and a – a laziness, a spiritual laziness, of being stuck in a place of inaction.

Now, many, many weeks ago – I am answering your question, but I am also asking, we are all asking once again for your help – many weeks ago I have asked for all of you, every day, to send the energy of love and of movement, of release, of completion, to those involved in both the Bridge Fund and with NESARA. That goes for Disclosure as well.

Now, this is the nature of our partnership. You would say to me, “Lord, why has this not been completed yesterday or the day before? For there are so many in need.” My dear friends, my beloved ones, do you think we do not realize that? Do you think that we are not as anxious and excited for the release of this miraculous generosity to flow forth as well? But the partnership is even more important. And this whole enterprise is in partnership, above and below. And so we ask for your help still, not when you think of it, but every day.

Choose one person and send the energy of trust, of hope, and of release. Often we have spoken when we have referred to the old paradigms of Earth as the greatest difficulty being the addiction to human drama, but secondary to that is the human addiction or habit of lack of completion. And this entire process – whether it is the Bridge Fund, NESARA, Disclosure or the entire process of Ascension and the shift – the whole thing is a process of completion. This is not something any aspect of which will go undone. But we do so together.

S: All right, Lord. Was there anything, anything further you wanted to say about NESARA, either where it is or how it will unfold? There is one prominent light-worker who believes it's just a hoax, and he's taken his information from a Wikipedia article and various things. Is there anything you'd like to say to that?

AAM: It is not a hoax. There are many who believe it is a hoax because you have a belief system – an old belief system – that if it's too good to be true, it's not. Well, that isn't a belief system that is shared by us at all! In fact, it is quite the contrary. It is what you have need to get used to upon the planet. If it is too good to be true, then go for it. The legislation is drafted, it is on the books, it is in the process, it is in the discussion phase, it is coming forward. Hold that vision. It is not lost, and it is certainly not a hoax.

XXXXXXXXXX

S: Thank you. Now, a discussion about predictions, if you wouldn't mind. I would like for you, if you would grace me with this, to discuss the whole topic of predictions and specifically around NESARA and Disclosure, but also the Cities of Light, pillars of light, return of the Masters, even the UFO flyovers.

We've heard many predictions that have not materialized, and this goes back many years. And when you come across people who have been following Ascension for decades, they say the same thing. Why have so many predictions been made that have not materialized? What is it that we're not considering here? What is it that we don't know about?

AAM: It is not so much what you do not know about, but we will gladly talk about predictions and the nature of predictions, how you use predictions and how we use predictions. How will that be? That is if the channel will allow me! [laugh]

S: [Linda's] fighting you, is she?

AAM: As you know this one does not like the whole topic of predictions. But nevertheless, it is something that we do and have done collectively and as single archangels or ascended ones. So let us discuss it.

And let us discuss it in the terms of the Divine Plan, but also the unfoldment of that Plan, and the unfoldment of our partnership, not only with Gaia and the star beings, but with each of you, our human brothers and sisters. Because that partnership cannot be over-emphasized, but we also will not use it as a guise to say, "Oh, it was the failure of the partnership," because from our perspective, let us be very clear, the partnership is thriving.

Are there things that we ask you to do and that you are doing and are completing ahead of schedule? Absolutely. And then there are things that still lag behind. And that is not, again, using that word of judgment; we do not find fault or blame. It is simply sometimes some things in the unfoldment of the human temperament and the environment within which not only you but we [inject?] ourselves. Sometimes things take longer than anticipated.

Now, let us be very clear, when we of the Council of Love suggest to you or tell you or promise you – and our promises are very few and far between, but they are made – that something will occur, when we give you a prediction, what you call a prediction that something will come to pass, then you can count that it is exactly what will come to pass. It may not happen exactly as you anticipate. Sometimes it is not even exactly as we anticipate, because of that human flare and factor. But nevertheless it will come to pass.

Now, let us talk about this issue of dates. It is the bane of everybody's existence, is it not?

S: Yes, Lord.

AAM: And we have gone both ways. We have given dates and we have not given dates. But let us suggest one of the things that we are doing when we do give dates. We are looking at what is occurring, not in the moment as you would think of it, for your timespans are so very minute, but we look at what is occurring and what is the likelihood of coming to pass within that timeframe of human understanding.

Now, when we also give a date we are doing so to energize, to catalyze our human partners as well. So we are not just catalyzing and moving forward the energy of the Company of Heaven, but the Company of Earth as well. And particularly of the light-holders and light-worker community. Because when that vision, united above and below, is held firmly, then the energy of creation, of bringing something forward, of magnification or what you would think of sometimes as the law of attraction, it makes it move in time and space in your realm as well as ours, to come to be at that time, or within a short distance of that date and time. When it does not come to pass, what we witness is disappointment and the feeling of many being disheartened, and in some cases feeling that they have been lied to, cheated or duped, betrayed.

We know that this may be difficult for you to understand: we do not lie. We do not wish ever to give false hope. We are not capable, it is not within our realm of possibility, to create falsehood. So when we say in human terms that we fully anticipate something to occur, it is because everything is lined up and ready to go. Now, when there is incompleteness or interference, and at this stage of the unfolding of the game, the interference or the stagnation, the lag in time, mostly occurs on events, human events, but sometimes inter-galactic events, but mostly human events that are occurring upon the planet of Earth. That does not mean that these events will not come to pass.

Now, you say to me, “My dearest Michael, how can this be so wrong?” I hear the collective murmur, I hear the messages of disappointed hearts, and often, my dear friends, that is when I come to you at night and I instill in you my peace rather than asking you to travel with me to war-torn places. I simply visit with you and do repair work. But that is not the answer I am beginning to give you.

The question is, “How can you be wrong? How can you not know?” We know within the framework, the divine framework, and, yes, even the human timetable, because we are at the shortened end, shall we say, of that timetable. Not that we wish to work according to the calendar; we don’t. But we do know that within that timeframe that certain things will come to pass. And we do know that as human beings it excites and generates movement and activity on levels that you can’t even begin to comprehend. And I say that not as an out.

When you hold intention, excitement, expectation, when you plan on an event, the energy you generate changes the energy of the entire planet. You underestimate your power, the role that you are playing, significantly. And so when we say, “Do this, and on February 21, 2012, X will happen,” we are doing so because we know and believe that everything is a “go” for that time. Now, we will not use these hard and fast dates out of consideration for your broken hearts. But we do reassure you, we tell you. Let us talk about some of these.

There have been many witnesses to massive flyovers by your brothers and sisters above. Are they hushed up? Yes. Are they hidden? Yes. Have there been massive changes in the, hmm, armament structures of your planet? Yes. Have they been hushed up and quieted? Yes. Have there been so many back-room discussions about how to go about disclosure, or how to re-establish the financial systems? Of course there are. You are privy to these. So while we would ask you to, please, do not doubt us, we also ask, do not doubt yourself.

So when we talk about predictions, think of it this way. If you do everything and we do everything, then that is what is going to come about, because that is part of the Divine Plan. But the Divine Plan will not be thrown out because on a certain day an event did not come to pass. That will not be tolerated or permitted. No, it is not that the Divine Plan in any way – as we have said, you are partners to this - so it is not a sword of Damocles hanging over you. But it is a Plan that has been formulated and participated in for the highest enlightenment of the collective not just of Earth, but far beyond. So that will not go away.

So what we have to pray for is that your faith does not go away and that your true knowing – because that is why you are so stalwart. You know within your heart – not that I tell you or Sanat Kumara tells you that this or that will happen – it is because you know in every fiber of your being what is transpiring and what is truth and right. That is why it rings within you, and that is why you are so disappointed when dates come and go.

S: All right, thank you, Lord. I have to tell listeners that you're so able to anticipate my questions that you answer one after another before I pass them on to you. And that does simplify my job.

We have about – a little more than 10 minutes left, and I'd like to talk about the Divine Plan, which you anticipated my discussing with you. First of all, as an archangel – I'm not going to take us back to the Mind of God, which is probably impossible to do, but just to say – when the Divine Plan comes to you, how is it presented? It certainly doesn't arrive in an envelope. It's not described on paper. How is the Divine Plan communicated to you?

AAM: With great excitement, with inspiration. You have an expression on Earth called “a download” that many of you like to use, and I will steal that phrase from you, because that is one of the ways in which it arrives. I cannot tell you, as an archangel or as a brother, the exact moment in which I became aware of the Divine Plan, because it has always been there.

So what I would say to thee is, in my awakening, in my explosion, creation as an archangel, in this very honored and humble way, I have always known and been excited and enthused and aware and inspired of the Plan. Now, the Plan – and now I will refer a little bit to what I know about the Plan, because usually what we are talking about is the Plan right now of Ascension, of the shift, of Gaia, of the human collective, who is doing so well. But as you well know, my friends, the Divine Plan is infinite. And it is always expanding.

So as an archangel, in your understanding, I have great opportunity to sit and talk about it endlessly, and to have input and comment and further definition of my role. Because there is nothing that can come from the Mind of God or the heart of the Divine Mother that I would not jump forward and say, let me help. So it is immense.

And it is evolving. Each of you also has that role in participation. The Plan has always been. In its course it evolves and it changes, and it grows. But each of you have also had your say, your input. You know, so often when we say to you that you underestimate who you are, when you return out of form and you are with us fully in a different form – a different reality, your essence – you will come to understand just how mighty you are.

But in the Divine Plan what you are trying to get at is there are what you would think of – as humans, I mean – you would think of as concrete benchmarks, timelines, events, situations and unfoldment – unfoldments such as the shift in reality, such as the shift in dimensions, such as peace on Earth, such as the return of the Masters. And by the way, many of the Masters are sitting and chatting with those of you who have already ascended. That is already passing.

So there are physical benchmarks that you can look to as well. The one thing I tell you is that the Divine Plan is never set aside. It is never ignored or overlooked. It is never said, “Well, we will do that later.” Yes, our timeframes in terms of what you would think of as time is substantially different, because it has worked in thousands of years rather than periods of weeks or months. But it is always according to the Plan.

And when something goes awry in the unfoldment of that Plan, then it is still part of the Plan to do the correction, to do the reorganization, as it were. So, for example, when the darkness fell upon the planet of Earth and the human illusion became so concrete as to form institutions and structures, it still became part of that expanded Plan of how that would shift, how that would be righted, and how the truth of who you are, when I say humanity, and how that would return to the truth... Do you understand at all what I am saying?

S: Absolutely. And I'd like to comment myself that one could talk about the Plan, at its most rarefied dimensions in which the individual leaves God, travels out into the world, comes to know its own identity, and returns to God again. So one could talk about this infinite endless Plan. And of course the individual could come back to God and be released again, into the world.

AAM: That is correct.

S: So one could talk about that, or we could limit ourselves to this era and talk about the Divine Plan for the Ascension of this Universe, this planet. If we limit ourselves to the second, and I'm remembering now a passage from a spirit guide – I don't know if it was Silver Birch or Imperator or who it was - who went away to a meeting, a council –

[Music begins.]

Oh! We've run out of time. [laughs]

AAM: We will continue this conversation for I have great interest in it.

S: Good! Okay. I'm looking forward to that, Lord. Thank you very much again for joining us.

S: Farewell, Lord.

January 30, 2012: Grener

An Hour with an Angel, January 30, 2012, with Grener of Ashira, President of the Intergalactic Council

GD: Hello, and welcome to An Hour with an Angel, a weekly radio program with Linda Dillon, the channel for the Council of Love, and Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario, who will be asking questions. Tonight we have special guest Grener of Ashira, from Neptune, the President of the Intergalactic Council. So with that, I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

SB: Thank you very much, Graham, and good evening, Grener.

Grener: Good evening, and thank you for this surprising and delightful invitation to speak to the people of the world.

SB: Thank you for coming. And, sir, how do I address you? Because you are the President of the Intergalactic Council, and it seems a little strange for me to be addressing you as Grener. How do I address you, please?

G: I would like it if you would call me Grener.

SB: All right.

G: I would like it if all of you would call me Grener.

SB: Okay.

G: Yes, I am President of the Intergalactic Council, and that is my honor and title for the time being. But we know that these things come and go. But I will always be Grener. Prior to being President of this Intergalactic Council, I was Commander in Chief of the Unified Forces of the Outer Galaxies, what you think of as star fleets. And still people called me Grener. So I would be honored if you would do so, too.

SB: All right, sir. And you're from Neptune, but Neptune in our dimension does not seem to be able to support life, as far as I'm aware. What dimension are you speaking to us from?

G: I am speaking to you – let me say, I am meeting you in the fifth dimension and the seventh dimension. I am from the eleventh and twelfth dimensions. Now, long ago, long, long ago, there was a form of life on Neptune, and it has been one of my favorite places forever. But it is also a reference to the name of my ship, the ship on which I reside and have resided for a very long time, and that is called the Neptune.

Often you will have us, many of us, as you come to know your star brothers and sisters and different members of the Council of the Intergalactic way, you will know that we are called by the title of our ship, because it has been home. So, yes, we can travel inter-dimensionally. That is not a problem. And that's exactly what we have done, actually, to travel to Earth. So here we are.

SB: Well, thank you, sir. Am I correct in assuming that you've asked to address our listeners this evening, that you have something that you wish to discuss with them?

G: I want them to begin to more consciously understand what is transpiring in the bigger picture. And, yes, I have a message for your listeners. Would it be agreeable to you if we were to begin with a little explanation of the Intergalactic Council? Because I do not think that this is something that all of your listeners and readers are familiar with.

SB: Please do, sir.

G: I do so because there are many parallels to this situation that is now occurring on Earth. Tens of thousands of years ago, many of you remember the intergalactic wars. And if you do not remember, then that is a gift, for it is nothing to really be fondly remembered.

It was a time of great devastation, of destruction, a time when many of the situations and paradigms that became so prevalent upon your planet of Earth, of Gaia, were rife throughout many universes. The war took its toll. And many planets, and of course everything upon them, were destroyed. And there was much mayhem and hatred, intolerance. And what probably you would think of as genocide took place.

And so the first Intergalactic Council was formed. And I would add that that is the form upon which your United Nations, and even your earlier League of Nations, was modeled after. For this is not a new concept, you know. For a long time, I would say thousands of years, the wounds of war took a long time to heal. But the fighting stopped, and the murdering stopped. The bloodshed stopped. And so what took place was the building of tolerance and understanding among people of different galaxies – of different universes in some cases.

And then, what started out as mere tolerance became appreciation, inter-cultural appreciation. We developed ways in which to resolve differences and to appreciate diversities without having to resort to violence. That was the primary purpose, in what we call the early years, it was that war and violence against one another would cease.

But it grew and it flourished. And yes, for this we have a great deal to thank our beloved Archangel Michael, for he was pivotal in assisting us with much of this undertaking.

I do not think that dog is from Sirius. [Sirius means the “dog star.”]

What happened with our Intergalactic Council is that it became a form of mutuality, of understanding, of cooperation, of trade, of commerce, of science, of medicine, of healing. And we came to honor and respect our differences. We grew, just the same way that everybody upon the Earth is growing and changing.

Now, thirteen of your years ago, Earth was invited to take their place at the table, to take their place in full membership with the Intergalactic Council. And it marked the coming of age for Earth. And at that time what transpired is we sought amongst what you would think of as political leaders.

Announcements were given, invitations were issued. But those who accepted the invitation, and the primary being who sits at this table with us, as the representative of Earth and as head of your delegation, is Wakanataka [Wakan Tanka? Note: Wakan Tanka is Lakota for the Great Spirit or Great Mystery]. And he is a very ancient being – and notice that I do not say ‘spirit’ – for he is the being that has tended those who have tended the council fire of Gaia.

And during that time of the initiation and the welcoming of your planet to this Intergalactic Council, there was also a shift of who tends this council fire of Gaia, for always it had been ancient Earth beings. Now that is not so, for some of them have joined with us, and some of our star beings – your star brothers and sisters – now tend and watch over that life flame, that council fire, the heart of Gaia. So there was a great deal of transition that took place.

Now, we do not want to give the impression that this was all done on a spiritual level. Membership in this Council has come to be seen and accepted as an honor, but also as a very real responsibility.

There were not political – what you could think of as political – leaders of that day that were prepared to step forward, to announce the membership, what you would think of as Disclosure, and to truly join in the fullness of membership in the Council, which would have meant – and will mean, by the way – the fullness of sharing, of trade, of commerce.

Now, the fleets that hover above your planet – and there are many – they are related to us, because all of these beings, all of these cultures, all of these planets, all of these galaxies have representatives upon the Council. But we do not control them or seek to control the various fleets. But the rule of cooperation throughout all of the Intergalactic Council territory, as it were, is one of peace, one of cooperation, of non-aggression, of non-violence – and of love. These are our guiding principles, and these are principles that we have learned over thousands of years to put into very practical application.

Now, you are present at the table. My brothers and sisters of Earth, you are present at this table. And there has never been truly an official welcome. So that is the first thing I would like to do tonight, is to welcome each and every one of you. Yes, you are citizens of Earth, you are children of Gaia, but you are also our brothers and sisters of love. And we have positioned ourselves close to you to participate, to help, to assist – no, not as foreign aid, but as equals. As equals.

And this is the thing that so many upon the planet, and particularly those in political situations that are so anxious to maintain power, they do not fully realize, not only do we come in peace, we come and ask to be treated as equals. We have no designs – and I will speak on behalf of the fleets as well in this matter. We have no need of your resources. We do not need your bounty, we do not need your food, we do not need your water, we do not need your minerals, we do not need or seek to take anything that is on Earth. And we most certainly do not wish to ever impose our will, our beliefs, or our views upon the collective. But what we do wish to do is to share our views, to share our knowledge.

Now, we have done that through this Council and through your participation – because you have not been absent, you were fully represented – and we have had agreement, what you sometimes think of as [plants?], and we have begun to share intergalactic and galactic star knowledge in your information systems, in your technology, in what you think of as medicine and healing, in your culture and your music, in the very sounds that your ears are able to perceive.

But it is time. That is why I come tonight. That is why I have been nudging, hither and yon. We respectfully request for all Earthlings, for all human beings, for all brothers and sisters of Gaia to acknowledge their membership in this Council and to acknowledge us, your brothers and sisters of the stars. You are in a very rapid time-frame, and you are hearing that from one who is ancient, one who thinks in terms of thousands of years. And we know – we listen in to your broadcasts as well, you know, and so we know – this broad discussion around time and dates. We are not asking for a date. What we are asking is in this day and in this time for each of you to acknowledge not just our presence but your presence with us, that we may move your participation in this Council, in this Intergalactic Council, to the next level.

It was never intended that you be a junior partner. We don't have junior partners. We are anxious to help. We know about Ascension and we know about shift. But what we are really good at is love. And that is what we desire to share with you. And we cannot understand why one would say no.

If you have suspicions and fears, we will talk about them, and we will resolve them – with mediation, with communication, and with open hearts. We did not just travel all this way; we did not position and bring the Council, even, all this way, to simply be observers. We have been observers of what has been transpiring upon your planet for a very long time. And we held the planet herself, Gaia, in a bubble of pink for many, many decades, so as the axis and your polar caps wanted to shift, they were held intact. When oceans wanted to split aside, they were held intact.

But that has even been removed, because you have graduated. You have assumed responsibility for yourselves and for your beloved planet. But why would you wish to sit alone? You are one, and you are part of a magnificent galaxy, but there is so much more. So it is time for each of you to begin Disclosure.

Yes, go ahead, Steve.

SB: You have brought up many themes which I've been wanting to address with you. We humans are also eager for disclosure, and we're eager to meet with you. And so I have a request to make of you. I'm not sure if you already know my request, or know that I've been planning to make a request of you. Have you been aware of that?

G: I know that you have been thinking very diligently about how this opportunity of union can come together. And I am with you in this.

SB: Thank you. Oh, very good. Well, here is my request.

The governments are dragging their feet on Disclosure, and oftentimes we individuals think, well, there's nothing we can do. But there is in fact something we can do.

We ask you to receive 20 of us, to take us aboard your mothership, to introduce us to the Council and to Ashtar and other of your officers, perhaps even to take us on a trip to Sirius or the Pleiades or Neptune or Arcturus, and then return us to Earth so that we can spearhead Disclosure. Would you accept that proposal?

G: Yes. Yes, I do, on behalf of the entire Intergalactic Council, and yes, I do so on behalf of the Unified Forces of the Outer Galaxies, and that would include the Ashtar Command.

SB: Thank you.

G: We have already thought about who we would like, because many of you have already been, consciously and un- [i.e., unconsciously], aboard our ships our fleets. But it would be most appropriate that you would visit the mothership. And I would suggest to you that the Neptune is a beautiful – a beautiful ship. And what we would also suggest, that 20 would be a minimum. But yes, we will...we will...I will help you, my staff will help you coordinate this.

SB: All right. Thank you. I – we – no sooner discussed this than 20 people came forward immediately. I'd be most happy to have more join us. Now, I'm sure you know that we have discussed various arrangements. We've discussed Disclosure and the Abundance Program and what have you, and we've dealt a lot with the word 'soon', and I think most people are a little wary of making arrangements that could happen 'soon'. Could we please have a definite date from you where we could begin this journey, so that we can plan?

G: We can do this in your parlance – because we are always on high alert, you know – we can do this basically right away. We will touch the humans that we know are [well-positioned, who are on top of the 20 that Steve named] – and we will let you know who they are – who are the best positioned.

So what I mean by that is that we are going to ask those who would not have any hesitation upon return of sitting with the media and creating a credible presence. And so, yes, we will begin this right away. So when we say 'right away', it does not need to be translated. We can begin this within this week.

SB: All right. And for the benefit of the people who may be involved – I've already spoken to 20 people of the, so 20 from the total – could we say that the trip will commence on Saturday?

G: Saturday is a good day....

SB: Saturday is a good day? All right. So we will then prepare for that, and we'll assume that you will include other people...

G: Yes, and make sure that families are left so that they do not fear the fact that their beloved ones have disappeared.

SB: All right.

G: They've just taken a holiday, a brief holiday.

SB: Indeed. And I think that will be the best contribution to Disclosure that we, as human beings, could possibly make.

G: You know, we did something very similar long ago.

We would take [?] to different quadrants, and particularly quadrants that had been war torn. And once they had the experience it changed them permanently, and they became the strongest advocates for peace and cooperation. So do not be surprised when you see [Archangel] Michael leading the way.

SB: I'll be happy to see Michael.

G: Yes. He is always happy to see you.

SB: Thank you. Here's a question – I wanted to discuss this with you right off the bat so that we wouldn't run out of time. Perhaps I could now turn to a question, and that is that our good friend Adamu of the Pleiadean Monad has said that Disclosure will not happen until after Ascension, and that the service-to-other forces here are not able to make Disclosure happen. Is that a correct estimation?

G: No. No, it is not completely correct. Do not forget that there are now millions of beings that are ascending. So it is best put that it could not happen perhaps until the Ascension doorway was open, but that doorway is open. And so is ours.

SB: So the ... so the message that we've been hearing from Archangel Michael and Sanat Kumara and others that Disclosure will happen – here's this dreaded word –

'soon' is more accurate than the message that it won't happen until after Ascension. Is that correct?

G: That is correct. It is already underway.

SB: That's very good.

G: Otherwise I would not be sitting here, delightful as it is, I would not be sitting here having this delightful conversation with you.

SB: Absolutely. What obstacles are we encountering at the present time to Disclosure?

G: The biggest obstacle – and it is one that I have tried to address in my opening comments to everybody, and I would like this message to go far and wide – is that we do not have an aggressive agenda. Now, you know – and Michael referred also last week to some of the, umm, behind-the-scenes adjustments that have been taking place with regards to, umm, military armaments. Now, let us back up even further. And by the way, there have always been observers from your National Security Council as part of the Earth delegation. So it is not that they are not aware of what is going on, and fully involved as well.

There are sectors of your society that are entrenched in the belief of their power. And that power, and how they have manipulated thought patterns and emotional patterns, has been through fear. So this best example is if you would go back to the cold war where there was such friction and such fear that a nuclear warhead would be dropped on your schoolhouse if certain things were not adhered to. And this was a game that was very popular, and many, many participated in.

Now, those who have had that kind of power – and sometimes it is military, sometimes it is financial, those are the two biggest obstacles – and they do not want to give [up] what they think they still have. Now, the irony in this is that they think they have it. And because they think they have it, they are also able to dupe others into thinking they have it. That is not really the case.

Now, I have no desire to create fear or threatening situations, because what happens – and it does not matter whether it was in Sirius or on Earth – people become reactive, defensive. So that is the last thing we want to do.

But those in power cling. And now you can say – you have an expression, holding on by their nails, or the skin of their teeth, and that is exactly what is going on. And that is why we are pushing the envelope. You think that you – and I know, dear brother, that you – are anxious, excited, and want this opening. But so do we. We want to help, we want to observe, we want to see what you build that looks like love.

Yes, there are dimensional shifts and paradigm shifts, but what we really want to witness and to participate where we are welcome, is to see how do you build with love. Because this is a model. This will be changing many universes. So the obstacles, the biggest obstacles are simply those – and it is a human obstacle – that are clinging to false illusions of their own power, or the power of their nation, a misplaced belief that there are boogie men behind every bush, and that they must defend to the death. That is a very outmoded and outdated way to live. And more importantly, it is not even a nice way to live. It is not a joyous way to live.

That lack of joy, the heaviness of those belief systems, is what has abbreviated human life spans. You were not constructed just to last several decades! So these obstacles can be blown away like dust, and they can be blown away by the sharing of concrete evidence, yes, but also by the anchoring of understanding.

SB: All right, thank you. Just before continuing with questions – I don't want to run out of time and forget to ask you these very short questions – how long will people be away for? How many days would you estimate?

G: Don't forget we travel very fast!

SB: I actually am aware of that. [laugh]

G: Now, we will [?] so that there is an accommodation, because there are some physical considerations that need to be taken into account. But no, you will not get space travel illness. That will be taken care of. We have taken care of that a long, long time ago. You can anticipate being gone about ten days.

SB: Ten days? All right. And what do they need to take with them?

G: Their toothbrush. That is a joke. [laugh]

SB: [laugh] What – what else?

G: They do not need to take much. And the pick-up will be rather rapid. So understand that as well. Take what is meaningful to them. So even though you know that we have communication tools, bring your own. Yes, they will work onboard, whether it is a journal or an Ipad or a camera. But also bring those things that will bring you comfort, because you will be in an alien environment. Now, the ship is very comfortable, let me reassure you. But you will be in a very different environment. It will be amazing. It will be phenomenal. But it will be alien. So bring what comforts you. And if that is your flannel pajamas, do that; if it is your teddy bear or your rosary, do that. Bring what comforts you, and bring pictures of your family.

SB: All right. Do we need to bring 10 days' worth of dress, or ... how....?

G: No, we have ways of cleaning as you walk through a door.

SB: Okay, that's very good. And how should we dress – informally, or more formally?

G: We ... the ... what you will find on board ship is that we tend to stay in uniform, but when we are off duty, they tend to be very casual. It is about comfort, so there can be no suits, no ties. Bring a sweatshirt, bring comfortable clothes, and bring what you call running shoes.

SB: You're describing my favorite outfit, so that's fine with me. And how shall I convey the names to you of the twenty or slightly more, because I predict that I'm going to get some call probably this evening from a few people, how do I convey the names to you?

G: How public do you want this? I do not want their houses or their homes to be harassed. Send them to Linda.

SB: Send them to Linda? What arrangement would you like us to make? Or – we won't be talking to you before next week.

G: Yes, you will be.

SB: How's that, Greener?

G: You will be talking with us. But, yes, –

SB: Okay.

G: When you make the arrangements, do not worry about people being picked up. As long as they feel that they are ready for – transmittal, on the Saturday, that is what we will plan on.

SB: All right. Okay, that ...

G: So the gathering of our guests will take place on Saturday.

SB: All right. And I'm presuming that you have all that in hand. We don't have to worry about the details.

G: We have the ability, we have limousine service. They are called space bicycles.

SB: Okay. Gee! What form do they take? Are they like small ships?

G: Yes, that is correct.

SB: Okay. Well, this is very exciting. This is very, very exciting. All right, I – so, we have about 10 minutes, 15 minutes left to go, and perhaps I can ask you some questions that listeners have sent in, if that's okay?

G: I would be honored.

SB: All right. First of all, has the divine deadline for Disclosure itself passed?

Oh, yes. It passed quite a while ago.

SB: So it didn't automatically mean that you would disclose. So what is the meaning of divine [deadline], given that it's past? What did the passing result in?

G: It's resulted in us formulating a plan where we would be able to bring forward what we thought the human beings would do on their own. So you're witnessing part of that tonight. What it did was to bring into place a different, perhaps a more assertive, injection of energy to ensure that this came to pass.

We don't really care about politicians, because it is not politicians that sit at our Council table. Or it is not politicians of the ilk of how you think of politicians. We don't care so much, and the Divine doesn't care if the politicians announce what is already known far and wide. What we have cared about has been that they, in fact, would create fear-mongering, so that it would go the other way. So that if Disclosure was made, they would say, “These are our enemies, and we must activate our military forces to combat those who would come to rule us.”

Now, ideally, yes, we wanted those who we respect as the head, the elected officials of different countries – your G-20 – to come forward and say, “We have a magnificent announcement to make,” and it would have been done in a very unified setting. But this underlying power, this desire to maintain power with missile silos and monetary control got in the way.

But the Divine has a way of helping us always. They always have defined different ways. As long as it does not create fear. Because we come in love. That is the promise that we have made, not only to the Trinity, but to ourselves. That is our pledge, that we operate under.

SB: All right. Thank you –

G: There are many species, many galaxies, but our pledge is unified.

SB: That leads me into the next question. Rather than ask them singly I’m going to read them out to you, and you can answer them collectively.

Some listeners want to know how many ships are around the Earth presently, why they can’t be seen. Are they all manned by galactic humans? And why is the Ascension of so much interest to others?

G: Well, at any given time – I do not want to overwhelm you, but – there are levels, layers of ships. You cannot see them all, but you see many of them in your night sky. There are – when you compile the what we would call motherships with the science ships, the healing ships, the small explorer ships, what you think of as space bicycles – oh, we have millions of ships. Now, over, right directly over? Within reaching distance? We would have about, oh, 16,000.

We are in constant rotation, while there are some that have never come too close. They are manned by what you think of as humans, galactic humans. I myself am Hussian [sp?], but I appear as human. We all appear as human. And certainly for the time being –

SB: What does Hussian...? What does Hussian mean, Grener? What do you....

G: Hussian is an ancient race. It is an ancient race. You are familiar with it, you just do not know it. We look, we have a tendency to look – although in human form, humanoid form, very catlike.

SB: Such as the –

G: As the Hathor.

SB: As the Hathor? All right. Thank you.

G: So, there are many of us. And yes, we will all look familiar. Now, those of you who come to visit with us will have options to see many different kinds of allies. But most of us appear very human. You're a little taller, perhaps a little broader. But not significantly different.

SB: Will we be permitted to tape-record and take photos?

G: Yes.

SB: And should we purchase tape-recorders and cameras, or do you have equipment on board that –

G: Oh, we have lots of equipment that we can loan you, and give you, actually. Then you can bring the equipment back too, and that will give them something to look at it, will it not?

SB: Oh, yes. Indeed it will. And would it be compatible with our equipment here?

G: Yes. We can do those adjustments. We have no problem doing that.

SB: By thought?

G: No, by technology. We will give you what you think of as adapters.

SB: All right. Will we be on the third dimension, the fifth dimension, seventh dimension, eleventh dimension?

G: You will not go the eleventh dimension. We will not go – it is very unlikely that we will go beyond the seventh. But it will also feel and you will have an experience, a physical third dimensional experience, but it will shift and you will know what it is like to be in the fifth or the seventh. Or the sixth, for that matter.

SB: Now one of our team members has said that we would need to take a pill, and I know from my readings of the astral planes that if a person travelled higher they were put in a protective covering, etcetera. Is there some procedure such as that that would be taken to allow us to be on the fifth or sixth or seventh dimension?

G: What we do is we place you in the – first we attune you in the healing chambers, and we make sure that everything is in alignment so that you would not be suffering any physical effects. You would feel that you are a little, at times, light headed. But we can adjust that as well. In the direction that you need. We have no desire for any of you to experience a moment of illness.

SB: All right. Thank you. Is there anything that I haven't asked you that the people who go on this trip should know?

G: Yes. Because I have seen it in my own forces, as I said. I used to be the commander. Now, when you are about to embark on a mission, whether it is a day, an hour, or a thousand years, you get nervous. You get a little antsy and maybe even a teensy bit frightened. Just breathe. We would never, ever do anything that would place you, or any of you, at risk. This is a joy ride. Quite literally. This is something we haven't done in thousands of years! [laughs]

SB: And just for our listeners, when you say breathe, breathing actually breaks up fear patterns, right? By expanding the chest?

G: Yes.

SB: Is that why you tell us to breathe?

G: Keep breathing. And we always like the halion, the midnight blue and gold. If you are frightened, ask Michael to come with you. He will.

SB: Wonderful. Thank you, Grener. We're looking forward to our trip with a great deal of anticipation. Thank you for coming here today and addressing us.

G: Thank you for having me. Farewell.

SB: Farewell.

March 19, 2012: St. Germaine

An Hour with an Angel Transcript of Conversation with St. Germaine

Graham Dewyea: Hello, and welcome to An Hour with an Angel, with Linda Dillon, the channel for the Council of Love, and Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario. I'm Graham Dewyea. Our guest tonight is St. Germaine. So with that, I'll pass it on to you, Steve.

Steve Beckow: Thank you, Graham. St. Germaine, it is said of you that you have courtly grace and a charming manner, speak many languages without an accent, play many musical instruments excellently, could write a poem with your left hand while writing a diplomatic letter with your right, and lived for centuries without aging.

It's worth a whole show to me to tell you that I don't know anyone who has quite inspired me so much as you have, and there's so much I'd like to know about you. But I think our listeners most expect me to keep our discussion to current events such as NESARA and Ascension.

Would you like to make any opening comments before I ask you questions?

St. Germaine: Welcome, and welcome everybody. Yes, I am St. Germaine, keeper and master of the violet flame. And I thank you for inviting me here this night. Courtly and graceful? You speak kind words, for I've had a human experience, and I would like to assure you, and to assure your listeners, that your experience, your human experience of this life, this incarnation that you are having on Earth at this moment, is just as clear and just as full of potential as any of the lives that I have had.

It delights me, and it honors me, that you say that I have inspired you. And I would like to think and believe, and continue to inspire you. I would like to inspire all of you. The purpose of my role in the evolution and the changes upon your planet at this time most certainly has to do with Ascension—yes, first with healing and then Ascension, and with the anchoring of grace and freedom, with the anchoring of equality. And although I have been well known as being very political—very political!—when I speak of equality and freedom, I do not simply speak of politics, or even economics or social structure.

All of these are but prongs of a single socket. All of these are simply parts of the society that you create that is based on the illumination of the human self, the acceptance and the acting of the human self as the God self, the acceptance and living the divinity of who you are.

I have great interest in what is occurring on your planet at this time. And yes, as you well know, I have particular love and fondness for North America, for this is the place of anchoring this freedom and the I Am presence. But it is the anchoring, it is the beginning, not the end, for this ripples out across the oceans and the nations and the entire planet, until everything is aflame with a beautiful violet, with the grace of One, and with the law of One love truly ruling.

But I do not wish to detract or sidetrack you from what you wish to talk about.

SB: Not at all. But since you've raised the American experience, perhaps I could ask you a few questions about the early years of the American experience. Were you...did you appear before the signers of the Declaration of Independence as an old professor and cure them of their hesitancy by crying out to them to sign the document?

St.G: "Crying out" is quite the accuracy of what I did and said. Yes, I did appear as a strange old fellow. It was one of the few times I have actually appeared old. And yes, I decreed to them to sign the document that we had worked so hard on, that we had incorporated into the principles of this nation, the belief in equality and the belief in a different way of government, of society and of existence. So yes, that was I.

SB: It's been pointed out that a lot of the founding fathers were Freemasons, and some people today—and, by the way, that a lot of the symbols were Freemasonry symbols—some people today say that that reveals that even the founding fathers were part of the cabal. Could you talk to us a bit about the founding fathers, who they were, not in name, but in derivation? Were they ascended masters themselves, people like Benjamin Franklin and George Washington?

St.G: Let us say that they were well upon their way, and they were certainly fully within their divinity. And yes, they came very particularly to play this role in the founding of the United States of America. They were not part of what you have tended to think of as the cabal or the dark forces. They were idealists.

We had seen...

St.G: Go ahead.

SB: No, please, St. Germaine, you continue. Thank you.

St.G: We had seen the tyranny—of monarchies, of despots, of individuals who felt that they were leaders and rulers. And it is the tyranny of the ego, it is the tyranny and the decline of the human collective, of the human race, into greed and lust. What the founding of this country, the United States, was about was a declaration of freedom, that it would be founded quite literally on liberty, equality and justice.

These are not simply words. This is the bedrock of freedom. To understand, when we talk about equality, equality has gotten lost, and it has gotten lost in the political furor and in the density of bigotry, whether it is racial or economic, or sexual, gender. But equality was meant to reflect the God-presence in each being, and that each being had the right to pursue and to fulfill that destiny, and to do so in ways that were not hindered. And we do not mean that the individual would be unfettered in terms of consideration for society, for is that not part of being a divine being?

So, the founding fathers, we came together—and yes, it is true, many were Freemasons; most of us were Freemasons. Most of us had an ancient history that went far back to the time of the Templars. So, it was also a time where the secret societies had been formed as a protection in order to do the work that was necessary to lay the foundation for what was to come.

These days, in your current event time, there is not a need for secret societies. In fact, quite the contrary, there is a need for light and sunshine and openness, for the breeze to flow freely, so that things are not hidden. So if there was any kind of society today, it would be a freedom society, a forgiveness society, a compassion society.

Do we protect the heritage, the lineage of those that we have committed to forever? Of course we do. It is the only way. But we do not hide in the shadows. And we do not want any of you hiding in the shadows either.

SB: Now, you founded some of these secret societies, did you not? Like the Masons?

St.G: Yes.

SB: Did you... Sorry?

St.G: And a form of the Rosicrucians as well. And we...

SB: So you weren't Christian...

St.G: We did so to work together, and to also do the sacred undertakings, to learn the lessons that were being shared with us that were not generally shared, can we say, with the public, and that the public, or those in power, could not be privy to because it would be power that would be abused and misused.

SB: You must have been disappointed when the Freemasons above the 33rd degree were taken over by the Illuminati.

St.G: Disappointment is a very human term. And having been human many times, yes, I have been disappointed. But the thing that you will come to know about me, and I think that you already do know about me, dear Steve, is that I am irrepressible.

SB: Yes, indeed.

St.G: So if I get disappointed, it simply puts more wind in my sails.

SB: Uh-hunh?

St.G: So, I do not get discouraged about the Illuminati or anybody else. Yes, it is a step backwards into the dark, and that is why I say do not allow anybody to stand in the shadows, and certainly do not engage in their drama and shenanigans.

But no, they will not rule, and they will not succeed. This is also the advantage of having long sight. Your world is changing, and what has been a very dark period—or can we say a detour?—is coming to an end.

One of the requirements of freedom is to claim it. It is not just served up. And if it sits there, there is always, in the old form of what the humans had declined to, there is the opportunity to abuse it. So, now, the people—and not just the people of North America, but the people everywhere—are claiming their freedom and their rights. So, have I been temporarily discouraged? Yes. Has that given me renewed vigor, and those that I work with? Yes.

SB: So you're pleased with what's happening today on the planet, Arab Spring and the Occupy Movement and other examples of people claiming their freedom?

St.G: I am overjoyed. Because it is the experience that you came to have. So yes, although it may look a great deal like high drama, high tension, and yes, chaos, it is part of the unfoldment; it is the people rising up and claiming their rightful place. They're demanding, not asking, not seeking permission, but claiming what is their God-given right, their birthright.

SB: And this has a lot to do with the rising energies on the planet, I presume. Could you talk to us a bit about where these rising energies are coming from?

St.G: Oh, I would be pleased to talk about this. And the simple answer would be, of course, that they come from the heart of One, of the collective godhead Source Divine. But that would be the very simple answer. But let us also tell you, you are being bombarded! And it is all in alignment with the unfoldment of the Divine Plan, and certainly with the unfoldment of my role within the Divine Plan.

But there is probably not one sector that is not sending, giving, beaming energies to your planet, whether it is from the...when we talk, we would talk in terms of realms. You often think in terms of hierarchies, and this is something that we are trying to flatten somewhat.

But you are given the increasing frequencies, of course, initially from your star brothers and sisters, although they have removed their cocoon of protection around Gaia some years ago in order to allow her to begin her Ascension, and because the wobble, shall we say, of the axis had ceased. But they also send love and higher dimensional wisdom, understanding, peace, to the planet in ways that are far beyond.

SB: All right. Thank you. I would like to turn to Ascension and the violet flame a little later in the show, but I know that many of our...

LD: I would interrupt a moment, please.

SB: Please.

LD: I would ask—this is Linda, and St. Germaine—I would ask Graham to do a technical check. We've had some calls that there's no sound coming through on Blogtalk. So, Graham, if you could just go ahead and do that, and then Steve and I will continue, and I'll get out of the way again.

GD: Yeah. Will do. Thank you.

LD: Thank you.

SB: Okay. I presume the show has been taped, so the listeners will still be able to hear it.

So, St. Germaine, I'll be turning to Ascension and the violet flame soon, but I presume that our listeners would very much like to hear from you about NESARA, or at least the abundance program that is best known as NESARA. You are said to have founded the World Trust that is the kernel of NESARA, along with Serapis Bey and Paul the Venetian, many centuries ago. Is that a true statement?

St.G: Yes, it is. I would not step forward, although I have been known in many situations for my rather flamboyant ways. Let me share this with you.

SB: Please.

St.G: We have always known—and when I say “we” I mean all of us that you honor and call the ascended masters—but particularly I have always known about the need for abundance. And as you well know, it was never my forte to live in poverty. I have done so....

SB: No.

St.G: ...but no, it is not my preference. And I will tell you why. The purpose of coming into form, yes, of course, is to discover and to live in your divinity and your God-self. But it is also to have this wonderful, joyous, sensual experience of being in physicality—and when I say sensual, I mean the senses—and to experience the bounty, the wonder, of what this magnificent planet has to offer.

And what I observed very early on, whether it was in the time of David or the time of Ur, or France, or Italy, or even the United States, when people do not have financial wherewithal, their energies become redirected to that security and survival mode. And what happens is it takes their mind off of their true purpose.

So, not only are they not enjoying the experience—and I'm not talking absurd wealth, but I am talking complete comfort. And why would you not have that? And there is no room...and let us face it, most people do not live for extended periods of 350 years, or more. They can, but they don't.

So, what we conceived, what I conceived, very early on, is that there needed to be a sacred trust, what I would call a planetary trust. You know I was a famous alchemist?

SB: Yes, I do.

St.G: Well, it is very simple when you are not in a place of distraction to turn energy, to turn the molecules of love into whatever you want. And that is certainly the transformative power of the violet flame as well. But we speak now of the Trust. This Trust was formed so that the human beings could focus on their true purpose. It was the basis, again, of the fundamental belief in freedom and equality.

Now, as we founded that, the paradigms of greed and control were rampant, well underway—and hatred and bigotry. And so it was controlled, shall we say, from this side. But it was never abandoned, and there have always been numerous, numerous individuals who have accessed and taken advantage of the planetary World Trust.

But that, in and of itself, was the kernel of an idea. And then it has grown. And it has grown in tandem with the growth of greed and control, monopolies, hoarding. None of these situations are natural to the human condition. That is why you have seasons and cycles and harvests and bounty. So the balance, as the evolution of the humans took place, lost the sense of that rhythm.

Now, the Trust has also been used—always—to fund, can we say, projects also of the Great White Brotherhood. And mostly those are not discussed in great length, but you have been aware of them from time to time. But the idea was that there would come a time, and what I suggest to you is that this time of illumination is occurring right now. Yes, you have had many false starts, particularly in this millennia [sic], but it is occurring now. But the claiming of freedom is also the claiming of what is rightfully belonging to the humans—and the hybrids, for that matter. We do not make any distinction.

But it is for people to live in their comfort that the incredible wealth that this planet has, but also that we have stored, in various places, that it can be accessed and shared. First, the first step has always been people acknowledging their own power, acknowledging and living by the rules of love, and in that acknowledging community and the sharing of resources—and resources of every kind.

So this idea, this idea and this physical Trust, and the movement that you have called Nesára, Nésara—my goodness, there has been a great deal of furor about this! It shows the fear that not only those that you think of as Illuminati or cabal, but the general public, it shows the fear they have of claiming their own birthright. So this fear is being worked on—by the Kumaras, by the Brotherhoods, by the Archangels and the Angelic Realm, all of the realms, and yes, especially now, the Seraphim have even taken action.

There is no group that is not sending energy to every human being on this planet to break through. And as they do, as you collectively and individually claim your birthright, you are also claiming your right to wealth, to comfort. It does not reflect the law of any of the Universal laws that some humans live in squalor, that children starve, that individuals and institutions generously loan money and then charge usurious rates.

A loan of money, of diamonds—even my famous opal! I have loaned it. It is a gift. It is a gift that says, if you are in need, here you are. Because I know I can create, and I know there is infinite plenty in the universe. So go ahead, and it is not a loan.... You have this idea about repayments. That is absurd. If you are in need, you receive. When you are in abundance, you share. But the goal, my goal, and the anchoring of the seventh ray, is the abundance for all.

That is why it is called an abundance program. It is not simply about money, it is about that freedom that we have been talking about. So, there have been many in governments, and particularly the government of the United States has played with this idea. It did not start in the 1990s! It started long ago. It started with the founding fathers. And then it very rapidly disintegrated...over ownership of human beings.

This has been corrected. It is being corrected. And it will be no more. Part of the key—and yes, I used the example of the United States, but it is true in Canada, it is true in every country of Europe, it is true in the Sudan. It is claiming. And how you are claiming, because of the way, particularly in the western world, that you have set this up and organized yourselves, is through the vote, and voting not for those who will continue the repression and the limitation.

Why, why would you want a system that says, “Show me how little I can spend on human beings”? It is beyond ridiculous. You vote for people who are of integrity, yes, and brilliance, and who have not only experience, but lineage. And we know that when we speak this way, people say, “But that sounds like monarchies.” That is not what we are talking about. We are talking about electing individuals who are wise enough to guide the collective through the transition and to allow legislation that is reflective of this equality, and who will release, and stand up for what is true and right. And who will not hoard.

It is a myth, and it is a myth that we do not even understand how humans could believe, that there is not enough. And if you doubt this, that there is enough, then know, there is already a sacred Trust. There is enough. There is more than enough.

SB: Now, NESARA, as I understand it, or the Abundance Program, is to start in certain countries and radiate outwards. And it is also, if I am correct, designed to relieve of us our burdens so that we can prepare for Ascension. And, at the same time, light-workers have a special role to play in events after NESARA, if I’m correct.

What...what are you wanting to see happen from light-workers, since most of our listeners are light-workers, once NESARA is introduced?

St.G: I want you to go forward like the dam is bursting. Years ago, I have asked, and I have received, an armada of teachers, of healers, of channelers, of communicators. When the dam breaks—and it will, shortly, but—we urge you to be very cognizant of how you are directing your energies. Then what we want you to do, especially when you are free—because as a group, as a collective, light-workers have not been adequately financially supported for the work they do. Yes, there are pockets here and there. But as a collective, it has not been seen or viewed as a work that is paid for, or that receives compensation.

Now, I want to bring you back to my original Trust. I wanted everybody, but especially my legions, my armada, to be free from this concern of worrying about money, so that you would be free to work on Ascension, that you would be free to guide others through the portals, so that you would be free to speak without fear of reprisal, that you would use the money to get the word out and to eliminate the conflict, the drama, because the purity of the work that you do, there is no room for this conflict and drama. It is not part of the law of love.

So what I would ask each light-worker—and most of you are multi-talented, so do not limit yourself—but begin, as a healer, as a channel, as a teacher, to reach out to those who are disenfranchised. Because when NESARA hits, the disenfranchised, those who have been downtrodden, who have been incarcerated emotionally, mentally, physically, spiritually, certainly socially, they will need a hand-up. And it is a hand-up even before they break through. In many cases, their spiritual life is strong, but I want, we want, to see their physical life strong as well, for their life force flame to burn brightly.

So, reach out to those who need it most urgently, and then reach out to those whose mindset needs help in adjusting to a new world, to a place where they do not need to worry, paycheck to paycheck to paycheck, whether they can put their children in school or have food on the table or pay a mortgage at usurious rates. They will need to be freed as well.

But do not think that you do not need to work with the wealthy and the powerful, because there are ego adjustments and healing, massive healing, that will be accomplished on that front as well. What you are doing, my beloved friends—and yes, you are the brave ones who said, “I will go and I will do this”—you are creating a world community. You are replicating what my brothers and I had in Tibet.

It is miraculous. It is exciting. And yes, at times it can be overwhelming and exhausting. And when you feel yourself in that place, then turn to me, turn to your beloved Mother, turn to Michael, Raphael, turn to all of us and let us comfort you, because you can rest. You are safe, you are secure, you are free. So, if you stop to heal and breathe and replenish yourself with food and water and perhaps a glass of wine, then the world will not fall apart, because you are an armada, you are a legion, and you are supporting one another.

The money, the abundance, is just to get people out of that mindset, to free them to be who they really are. So many light-workers are under cover. You are like our secret societies of old, and you are in hiding because you are in fear of reprisals. I do not chastise you, quite the contrary—I have lived just like you. But as this change occurs, as the new dawn is breaking, there is no need for secrecy anymore. Step out into the daylight and declare yourself, and you will be supported in those declarations. And people will shake their heads, say, “Well, I guess you were right. I guess you’re not crazy after all.”

When I have lived, particularly in my last incarnation, there were times when people thought I was crazy, when they thought I was insane, or worse—a wizard or alchemist. There were those who thought I was in league with the devil. But this was ignorance. And when you can shine the light of love on ignorance, it simply dissolves.

So, that is what I would have light-workers do. I would have them begin by sending the violet flame to everyone who is sick or poor, or who feels that they are limited in any way. We cannot do this, this cannot come to pass without each of you. We are depending on you, yes, as you depend on us.

SB: Can I take one example, Lord, just to deepen our understanding here? It's my assumption that NESARA will start in certain countries, like the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Australia, move outwards. Now, if we took the example of Africa, what would be the role of the light-workers who are already enjoying NESARA in approaching that country? What could they be expected to do to assist Africans to come up to our standards and emerge from illness and various other things? What would that look like?

St.G: It would look like a light brigade. It would look like an armada of healers and teachers. It would look like you are not superimposing values or belief systems, but rather allowing the culture and the beliefs and the light of those people—and it is a very large continent—to emerge. Now, do not forget, as this begins—soon after, anyway—that you will also have enormous help from your star brothers and sisters, and there will be concerted efforts.

So, first and foremost, we are talking food and water, clean water. We are talking—oh, yes, we can do medical supplies, we can do all the traditional things—but, truly, we are talking about igniting the violet flame and allowing it to build and spread like wildfire through a place like Africa. Some will bilocate. Some will travel.

There is a human limitation belief system that such massive problems, such massive devastation, takes years to remedy. It doesn't. It takes will. It takes massive human grace and will. And when it is approached in a loving, sharing, not hierarchical way, when it is shared in the way of, "If you are in need, here, here, I have this gift for you. And if you do not know what to do with it, let me show you," when it is done in this way, change can occur very rapidly. Because, do not forget, every being on that continent is also being bombarded by the light and love that is being sent to this planet.

The frequencies are increasing daily. I'm sure you have all noticed it. It is not so much, "Oh, here comes another wave," it is constant. And it will not let up. So, those in Africa are prepared to receive as well. And can you imagine—because I can—the delight of so many light-workers to be able to do this work, to be supported to do this work?

This is the gift. This is the shift in consciousness. This is the magic and the alchemy. Because, do not forget, as the light-workers go forward, they're not just bringing the tangibles, they are bringing the light, they are bringing the violet flame. And that is instantaneous, my friend.

SB: Could you talk to us a bit about the violet flame, how it is that it's transformative, what it is in its essence, please?

St.G: You may think of it...its essence is the energy of the Source of the Godhead. It is very electrical, is a way in which human beings can understand it. You can think of it as miraculous, magical. It is the ability to transmute, transform, transubstantiate whatever—physical, mental, material, spiritual. If there is anything that is not of God-essence that needs or wishes to be, agrees to be transformed, it is done instantaneously.

Many call upon my violet flame, and yet they do not trust and believe that the change, the incredible transformation, can be instant. And constant! That is the other thing, the other quality that people do not acknowledge. It is not just lit and then going out, lit and going out, it is an ever-present energy throughout the Universe. But it is my purpose and mission to have this anchored on Earth. It's my honor.

SB: What is it about NESARA that you think that we humans either overlook or haven't even thought about yet? What...is there anything in our attitude towards it or our expectations around it that is missing...?

St.G: Yes.

SB: What is that, St. Germaine?

St.G: You need to believe that you're in charge. There are too many attitudes, as you put it, waiting for the benevolence of those you have chosen to legislate your lives. You need to believe and to know that you are free to access the World Trust. You need to know that abundance is your right. It is not a favor or a gift that is being bestowed upon you. Too many of you think it is beyond your wildest dreams. And so you hold to the dream, but you don't quite claim it. If you were all to claim it, today, tonight, with me, it would be done.

I am glad you have asked this question. So I would ask you all to join with me in doing this, and in knowing: this is a promise, and this is something that I started—yes, with my beloved brothers—a very long time ago, for now, for this time of unfoldment, to completely eradicate what had grown in darkness, in the dark corners of people's souls on Earth.

It is trusting that you have the power to make this change, and that it is not something outside of you. It never has been. Yes, I know, most of you do not have the luxury to go and sit in a cave for 85 years. But you don't have to. I give this to you. My beloved friends, I give this to you. I give you my violet flame again, and again, and again, and I ask you to claim your freedom. It is much more than money, it is your right to breathe.

SB: Well, we're just a minute away from ending, St. Germaine. There are so many questions I haven't had the opportunity to ask you. Indeed, I've tried only to ask you the most important questions. But we hope you will come back again, to discuss many more aspects of what's coming up—Ascension, and our preparation for it.

St.G: I would like to come back and speak about Ascension. I would like to speak about Nova Earth and Nova Being. I would like to speak to my beloved friends and offer encouragement and to share my sense of wonder.

Farewell, my...

SB: Thank you...

St.G: ...friends. Farewell.

SB: Thank you, St. Germaine. Farewell.

March 26, 2012: Archangels Michael and Gabrielle

“Archangels Michael and Gabriel on the Angelic Realm: Hour with an Angel Transcript, March 26, 2012,” at <http://the2012scenario.com/2012/03/archangels-michael-and-gabriel-on-the-angelic-realm-hour-with-an-angel-transcript-march-26-2012/>

An Hour with an Angel, March 26, 2012, with Archangels Michael and Gabrielle

Geoffrey West: Hello, and blessings to you. And welcome to An Hour with an Angel, a weekly radio program with Linda Dillon, the channel for the Council of Love, and Steve Beckow, editor of the 2012 Scenario.our guest tonight is Archangel Michael. So with that, I’ll pass it over to you, Steve.

Steve Beckow: Thank you very much, Geoff. Archangel Michael, I understand that Archangel Gabrielle is here today as well.

Archangel Michael: Greetings! And yes, I am Michael. And I do bring greetings from both of us—from Gabrielle and from I, from Gabrielle and I. We see that this is a family affair. Many have come this day to join us from the angelic, archangelic, and the various angelic realms. You have indicated that you wish to speak to us, and so we have made our presence known through the channel.

But first, I simply wish to say, hello. Hello, light-workers, light-holders, light-builders, my trusted friends of light that I always love to enlist in my legion of blue.

The time of war, of mayhem, of chaos, comes to an end. Yes, we know you think that it does not look this way. And you know that we have a very different perspective, and our barometer is always the hearts of humankind, the hearts of the collective. And so we wish to give this encouragement this day, this night, this time of fundamental change. You will feel it within your being. You will feel it in the air. You will feel it in your heart.

I say this to you that you will gather hope and that you will go forward not engaging in any way, shape or form in the chaos. For that is not where we direct you at this moment, but to stand back and allow this unfoldment and the opening of many, many hearts. We are with you.

I would step aside for my beloved sister as well. (1)

Gabrielle: Greetings, I am Gabrielle. I am Gabrielle, lily of love, trumpet of truth, messenger of One. Welcome. And I am pleased also to be here this day, invited by my beloved brother Michael. We could wait no longer for an invitation. I accompany him this day as messenger, messenger from the heart of One, messenger and spokes-being for the Council of Love, central administrator of the universe, the Omniverse. I come because I am an organizer, I am an administrator, and I am helping in the administration not only of your universe, but of humankind.

I bring you the messages, the qualities, the virtues, the blessings of love. So, I am pleased to stand here with him, and I am pleased, my dear hearts, to stand here with you. No, I will not intervene. And I invite you, dear Steve, to direct your questions to either one of us—it matters not. We always bow to each other, for that is the way of our kind.

SB: All right. Thank you, Archangel Gabrielle. The first question I have, for either yourself or Michael, is when human beings try to imagine what angels are, they—I think probably always—superimpose human form, human qualities onto angels. But angels are different from human beings, are they not? Can you tell us in what ways angels are different, and describe to us please the angelic kingdom?

AAM: We would be pleased to. And yes, I am Michael, and yes, we will go back and forth on this one. In many ways, my dear friend Steve, my beloved brother of blue, it would be more straightforward and simple to speak about the ways in which angels are similar to human beings.

Yes, we have presented ourselves within the human psyche, within the human archetypal knowing, the wisdom, and the experience, as having attributes of the human form. And it is very easy for us to do that. And let us reflect back, before we talk about the qualities of our beings: There is knowing and understanding amongst each of you. And if it is not a conscious knowing, it is certainly embedded within your DNA, and within your hearts, that you are created in the image and likeness of God, of One, of Source, of Mother/Father/Trinity. (2)

And we have held that so that when we have appeared to you, or when we work with you, or when you envision us, that you know and recognize the similarities. But let us also say at the same time, if you were to see us in physicality, it can be substantially different. We also have the ability to take a myriad of forms, from...everything from an orb, which you all delight in, to a beam of light, to a gigantic angel with wings. Very often, we are simply an energy of winged light. And the wings are symbolic. They are symbolic of the ability to move, to create, of transversing the universe, the multiverse, the Omniverse. It is symbolic of having flown free and having been gifted with that ability from the heart of One.

Similarly, within your realm of understanding, and in many of our attempts to speak to the human race throughout time and space, we have talked about differences, or orders, or what you would think of as classifications of the angelic realm. Now, I want to say, before we even begin to address that, that we do not ever consider this a hierarchy. If we are ridding the human collective of one addiction, it is the addiction to think in terms of hierarchy rather than a spiral or a circle. No, we do not criticize you, we love you! So we share this understanding.

If we were talking to other realities or other realms, we might use different classifications—and we certainly do sometimes amongst ourselves. And we do not differentiate, and we would not wish you to differentiate, between what you think of as classes, or choirs, orders of the angelic realm, because there is back and forth.

Let us use the example that there is movement and bleed-through between your various energy levels. So it is within the angelic realms. There is movement. We are not restricted. Do we stick to our jobs, to our mission, to our service, to our One? Of course. But every now and then there is one, or two, or twenty, or twenty million, that say, “You know, we would really like to try this.” And off they go.

So, having given that understanding, let us speak of the mighty seraphim. Now, when my sister and I have said that we bow to each other, it is important that you realize that we all bow to each other. The seraphim are those that surround the throne, the essence, the beingness of One, of Source, of Mother/Father/Son — however you define that, again. And that is depending on your tradition and your religious understanding or philosophical understanding.

These are amazing beings in any reality. Their powers are mighty, and their beingness is mighty. Now, you have need to understand that the Godhead has surrounded themselves with the most beautiful, with the highest energy. And so, these are beings of adoration, and these are beings that you will often hear us refer to as those of the pink ray—it is pink-gold, actually. And their purpose is simply to be in attendance, in adoration. They are the singers of hosanna and praise.

Now, why we wish to speak of this—and interrupt me if you wish—the seraphim have never truly spent much time or attention on focusing upon the planet, or certainly upon humankind, for that has not been their purpose, that is not who they are. But at this time of magnificent unfoldment, at this time of the anchoring of the plan of the blessed Mother/Father/One, they have slightly turned their head[s] and their attention to humanity in order to assist with the fulfillment of this plan. And, unheard of, some of them have even taken on human form. This has never occurred before. (3)

And so, some of you are encountering these mighty angels of pink, and you really do not know what to do with them, because externally they are huge. You can even perceive their wings, their six layers of wings, their fierce independence, their enormous beauty and grace, and their core of independence, their core of steel, because they are very clear about who they are. And they really do not need human direction. They really do not need any direction!

Many of you think of the cherubim upon the human realm as little valentine creatures, cupids with arrows. This is a very sweet interpretation, but—and we have no problem with it—but it is also a misconception, for the cherubim are also the keepers of grace and beauty, of knowledge, of the creation of One. So they often hold the energy of the Creation and assist in the manifestation of that infinite, eternal creation throughout the universe. They do not tend to insert themselves, shall we say, into the areas of human affairs. They are gentle, they are sweet, and they are powerful.

There are other realms as well, as you know—the dominions, the virtues, the principalities, the powers. Each has their distinct role. And I speak of these as a grouping because I have never truly, in this form, spoken to you about the thirteenth octave. But, my dear friends, it is time, because it is time for all of you to understand the enormity of this gift.

When you ascend through that process, given from the heart of God, to the place of the thirteenth octave (4) and to the place of being far beyond your twelve planes and realms, you also receive the gifts of all of the nine angelic realms. That is where the blessings and virtues come from, the necessities that you will bring back down to Earth to anchor in your Nova Earth and in your Nova Reality, in your fifth or seventh dimension, or higher. Yes, we keep increasing the game, do we not? (4) And it is the game of Ascension. It is a process sacred unto each of you.

So come to understand those who have dominion and you come to understand those who have power in the best sense of the word over the caretaking and the spirit of a nation or a group. You come to understand who guards the realms and the borderlands, as you can think of it, of that, because you on Earth are very involved in borders.

And then there are the archangels, and, of course, the angelic realm, the guardian angels, as well. And let us also infuse into your understanding, each of you have connection to a being, an angel, within each of these realms. And as we say, they are not [succinct?]. We do not see this as a hierarchy. But each of you have your own angelic protectors as well as those that you have sworn allegiance to, have lineage with, that in some ways you have been connected to.

Can we speak to this a little? Because each of you, my beloved brothers and sisters, each of you have begun your journey, not only as a spark of light, not only as an emanation from the heart of One, but as an angel—some of you, a few of you, even as archangels, or one of the keepers of the dominions or the principalities or the virtues. (5) And you can see this when you look at somebody.

And then, yes, you have incarnated, you have been the adventurous ones, you have been the explorers, and you believed in yourself strongly enough to say to the Mother/Father/One, “I am going to go. I will assume form. I will know the joy of being in form and physicality, and then I will come home and resume my form.” Well, some of you have not resumed in eons. But that matters not. Whether you are starseed or hybrid or Earth-keeper, you still are angelic. And this is something we want you to remember. You spend time during this process of Ascension incorporating, inviting in, all of your glorious aspects.

So, do not forget to invite your own angelic self to be with you. This is not your higher self. If you want to think in the way you do, in terms of layers, think of your angelic self as above your higher self and pull them all in—to your core, to your heart, to your feet, to your toes. Because our purpose in speaking of this is for you to acknowledge and to know your own being as well.

They call the archangels “the mighty ones”. And we are honored by that title. And we are also honored by the role that we have been given, to work and to interact with the realm of humans and with the unfoldment of the Divine Plan.

Now, I have spoken and spoken. I am sure you have questions, Steve.

SB: Boy, I hardly know where to start, Lord. I have so many questions! Just based on what you said, never mind what I had on my piece of paper here. Perhaps we can just pick up the listeners on a number of scores.

First of all, you weren't giving us a complete list of the angelic realms, I'm sure. We'd need to add the thrones to it?

AAM: Yes.

SB: Are they closer to the cherubim side or closer to the archangel side?

AAM: No, they are closer—you would think of the thrones as being with the seraphim and the cherubim.

SB: Okay. That was a question I had from quite a while back. You've used three terms that perhaps we could get clarification on: A hybrid—I don't know if our listeners would know what a hybrid is; and a former angel—you used, I think, with Graham once, and we wondered, are you saying that many humans are former angels?

AAM: And they will be angels when they relinquish their physical forms and complete their missions upon the planet.

First of all, let us talk about hybrid, because this is important for your readers and your listeners to understand. Hybrid is a term that many of you will think of as starseeds, and yes, it can certainly include a starseed. But then there are hybrids that are, oh, a mixture of starseed and what we would think of as Earthling, completely Earthling. And these are also ones that are very involved in the forward movement of Earth and Gaia as she ascends, and the creation of Nova Earth.

A hybrid can also be an angelic human. So, while they are on the planet, you think of them somewhat as a hybrid mix. But when you leave your form, when you abandon and glorify, then what you do is you return to what you can think of as this side, this realm, where a number of things [occur] —as you well know, and that is an entirely different conversation.

But some will choose to simply remain in this realm as their angelic self, whereas others will continue on. They will either incarnate as starseed or on other planets or on Earth, or they will return to their ships. So there are a variety of ways in which we tend to think of as hybrids. And so that is the way in which we use this term in speaking to you.

And it is important for most of the listeners to realize, most of you, dear hearts, are hybrids, in one way or another, some more clearly. Some are pure starseed, and they have simply incarnated or assumed a form into the human realm in order to assist with this change in what the experience on Gaia is like.

Does that answer your question?

SB: It does for now. I'm conscious of having only an hour, so I don't want to take any one thing too far. But I wonder if I can convey this, that sometimes when one reads spiritual literature, there seems to be this grand progress, this spiritual evolution where beings are going closer and closer to God, so to speak. But you paint a picture of beings coming back, and taking a detour, and serving in another realm, and then....

You know what, you don't paint a picture of a kind of a divine progress, but more of people reassuming roles and serving on other dimensions. They don't seem to go forward. You've even talked about angels coming back into physicality.

AAM: Oh, but what you are thinking of is that the progression back to the heart of One is completely linear.

SB: Yes, I guess I am.

AAM: And that is not completely accurate. (6) And it is also not accurate to think—and this is where the confusion comes, because you are applying the linear understanding of the human race. Let me really shock you tonight and say to you that you can be in form, in your human form—as you think of your enlightenment journey—and still be connected, consciously, in that place of full connection to the heart of One.

SB: Oh, that is a shocker!

AAM: And when you go home, and you can reunite in the heart of One, do not think that you go off on another tangent or another journey simply because you feel like it or because you are earning your way back to that linear path. You go back out into the universe as a brilliant spark of pure light!

So you come, you return, you gain not only understanding, wisdom, knowledge—what you can think of as spiritual regeneration—and then, in concert with many, including your guides and guardian angels and, many times, whoever you are going to be working with—for example, myself or Archangel Raphael—you emerge again. But let us suggest to you that on this journey of what you are thinking of as linear, you have emerged bigger, brighter, clearer, more connected. And that is why you spend your life, very often, in the knowing of certain things, of certain truths. That is why you teach, communicate, heal others, because you have this knowing already within your sphere.

So it is not that you are still trying to go along your path to earn the right to go home. It is much more fluid. And one of the things that you have been thinking of—and it has been true of all pathways taught—is that it is linear. If you are good, if you follow the righteous path, if you do good deeds and keep love in your heart, then you will deserve and become one with One again.

SB: Yes, that's true.

AAM: And there is a time—well, what you would think of as time—where you do go back and simply unite.

SB: All right. I am going to ask another question, but at some point do give us more information on what the thirteenth octave represents. I know you've spoken about the twelve planes of human existence, but I'm not sure if the thirteenth octave represents the angelic kingdom as a whole or just another realm that we haven't discussed above the human. But the question I want to ask you prior to that is, what does the angelic kingdom want humanity to know about itself that we don't know?

AAM: We understand. And I will include the angelic realm. But before I do, I also want you to understand that there is the realm of what we call guardianship, protectors, both of the borders of the nations, of the people, (7) but there are also legions and legions of angels. Think of them. I have my legion of blue. Archangel Raphael has his legion of green, of emerald. There are legions of angels that are available to you to help. That is their core, and that is what they are available for. And that is also true of our realm, of the realm of the archangels. It is also true of the realm of virtues, of dominions, of powers, of thrones.

So do not hesitate, in your understanding of that classification, to call on us, because we are available. Yes, it is so that the archangels and the angels, our primary interaction is with the realm of humankind in terms of this planet, and particularly this unfoldment. But do not think that you do not have access to all nine realms; you do. It would be the same as thinking that you do not have access to the heart—the love—of God, of Source, of One.

Understand this: We, like you, are created from the energy of love, from the heart of love, of one being and of all beings, far beyond what you can even imagine. But that is all right, because our purpose is not only to help you understand, our purpose is to help you imagine, to dream, and to create! We invite you to join with us the way we join with you.

You say, "Well, what's this mean, Michael?" So often you will invoke me or call me, and I am glad you do, and I mean all of you. But never think that you cannot also come—as most of you do in one way or another, during your time of sleep or dream—and be with us increasingly as you are ascending and shifting dimensions. This is going to be clearer to you.

Now, I also want you to know—all of you to know—the angelic realm, all of us, are not part of that twelve dimensions, twelve planes of human existence. We are a realm beyond that. Now, do you experience us, as you are in human form, within that bubble, that existence realm? Yes.

But I am inviting you; you can begin to break through. And that is really the invitation of Ascension. And yes, that is really the invitation of love. It is the invitation of the thirteenth octave. And the thirteenth octave is simply the process of coming home to the heart of One, to join in that sacred union of love, so that you do remember, that you do draw upon the entire universe and the infinity of creation that is available to you.

You are changing. Understand this. You are changing what it means, or what your understanding has been, of what it is to be human. You are coming full circle to the place where it began, and to the place where it meant to simply be spirit in form.

What we want you to know about us is we are committed, and when we say “committed,” we mean indelibly, infinitely, eternally. Our commitment to Source, God, One is to be in partnership with the human beings right now. That is also the commitment of the entire angelic realm, what you think of as angels. You cannot fathom the help that is there and what is being done—yes, mostly unseen. But that does not matter! We don’t need credit!

What is being done behind the scenes, and the work that is being done in awakening people’s hearts and minds and bodies to the wonder of who they are, and to the wonder of each other, the shift, to stop being defensive and in fear, to the deep desire and passion to be in community and unity and sacred union—never before have we heard such a consistent plea and prayer from the human collective as to be in the unity of sacred union, of partnership, with one another.

This is a grand opening, because it is an opening of the heart, to say, “I am ready to love” —not just to have a love affair, not simply to love something or other, but to truly commit and to be in union, because that becomes and is a reflection of union with One.

So, we want you, human beings of Earth and far beyond, we ask you, we invite you, always you think of our help and calling our help, which we are glad to respond to, as coming down to Earth. Now, answer our call and come and join us in play and change this planet and far beyond.

We can help with this shift. We want you to begin to experience it. Be with us as we are with you. Be with the Mother the way she is with you, the Father, with the ascended masters. This is a different form of unity and community, but it is just as joyous, just as profound.

SB: All right, Lord. And just for our listeners’ information, if I’m correct—and I’m sure you’ll correct me if I’m not—the Divine Mother is the Divine Energy and the Holy Father is the formless Godhead or Creator. Am I correct?

AAM: Yes.

SB: All right. Thank you. This is my next question: What is the chief mistaken view or estimation that humans have of the angelic kingdom which you would like to correct?

AAM: The biggest error—mistake, if you wish to call it that—that humans make, well, it is twofold, if you will permit me. One is that the higher realms, as you think of them, do not care, that we do not care about what is really happening or occurring in your lives or upon the planet, that we are busy elsewhere with the adoration and the service of God.

That is not so, because love is inclusive. It is as inclusive of each one of you, and your star brothers and sisters, and every other being in the outer galaxies and universes you have not even imagined yet. And that we do not perform—can you say, your term would be—“acts of kindness or grace,” that because we do not interfere in your realm—and it is true in many ways, we do not interfere, but—that does not mean that there are not miraculous gifts that descend to each of you and to your planet. That is the first thing.

And the second thing, so often, is that there is a belief that prayers are only heard, that pleas and creation activities, designs, are only heard or acted upon part time, that sometimes we hear and sometimes we don't, sometimes we answer and sometimes we don't. That is not so. That is a very mistaken view. And let me tell you how this misconception has come to pass.

Very often you will plead, from your very core of your heart, your soul, your being, and you will ask for help, and the help is being formulated and things are being put in place. And then you say, “I guess they didn't hear me,” and you grab back the request, and you do what your will—and I am talking personality and ego—desires to direct you. And you basically cancel out the assistance that we have desired to give you.

The other piece of that is that you will say, “I need help right now.” And it is not that we do not hear you, or that that request, that heartfelt request, is not received. But also sometimes, in your plan and in the larger unfoldment, there is divine timing.

So, our desire is for you to know every heartfelt, sincere prayer is heard and acted upon. And stop pulling it back, please. We all are here to assist, as you are assisting us. You are our ground crew. You are the brave ones. You are in form on Gaia, in service to the Mother/Father/One, to partake and to activate this Ascension, this miraculous change.

Let us help, as you help us.

SB: Thank you. You corrected my linear thinking and hierarchical thinking, and told me many things that I didn't realize or know—and I'm sure there are an infinite number more. One of the things you've said that I still have trouble understanding is that you can be a million places at once. My mind simply cannot fathom that. And a large number of jokes go on in my mind, like, “Which Michael am I speaking to?”

How is it possible to be in a million places at once?

AAM: Well, usually I am not in a million places at once—first let me make that very clear as well. But I will give you an example. You have a capacity. You can be sitting, having coffee with somebody and you are present in form, but your mind is a million miles away, and then another part of you is writing an article, and then another part of you is thinking about a family matter. Now, of course you are not bringing the totality of your being to any of those activities.

What I am saying to you is that I have the capacity—we all do; and when I say we all do, I mean the mighty ones, the archangels—we have the capacity to bring the fullness of our energy to many, many, many, and yes, if you wish, millions—millions!—of places simultaneously. It is not bilocation. It is not multilocation. It is the ability to be present fully and completely where we are called, where we are required, where we wish to be. Because I am always connected also infinitely to the heart of One, and I am always infinitely in this moment with you, on the radio, fully connected to you.

Do I give you the entire, full blast, the full presence of my energy? As you know, there are days when I will give you more and I will give you less. I modulate it according to what can be handled. But, make no mistake, my beloved brother, and every listener upon the planet, I bring you the fullness of my being the same way I can simultaneously bring it to your brothers and sisters onboard the Neptune, or on Arcturus or Venus, or how I can bring it to a mother who is trying to protect her child in a war-torn country.

So, yes, it is beyond human understanding; but nevertheless, it is the gift that we have. It is a beautiful gift that allows us to do the work and the service that we have committed to.

SB: All right. Thank you, Lord. Just before we are overtaken by the music, is it true to think that there is an evolutionary spiral and humans become angels in the normal course of affairs?

AAM: Yes, you can think that. Yes.

SB: All right.

AAM: But it would be incorrect to think that then you would become archangels or a virtue or a throne.

SB: Why is that?

AAM: Because the progression usually will be that you will emerge—it is not that it is not possible, understand that, but—that you will move through the angelic realm back to sheer light within One.

SB: I'm confused, Lord. Could you repeat that statement? I didn't quite follow it.

AAM: Do not think that you are going to evolve as a human being—or a starseed—into your angelic self, into being an archangel, into being a dominion, into being a virtue, into being a cherubim, a seraphim, and then to the heart of One.

SB: All right. What would be more correct, Lord?

AAM: To know that you can jump, that you can travel up that spiral faster than the speed of light, at the speed of love, and go directly home.

[music up]

SB: Well, I suppose we've run out of time! I've only asked you about four questions out of twenty!

AAM: We will return again, because this is an important conversation.

SB: Wonderful. Thank you very much, Lord.

AAM: Go with my love, and go in peace. Farewell.

Footnotes

(1) Gender does not have the same meaning at the level of an archangel that it does with us. For instance, angels are not given in marriage and they don't bear children. We humans assume different genders when we wish in our incarnational cycle. We have normally considered Gabrielle to be male, but AAM has always insisted that she prefers to present as a female.

(2) Mother/Father/Trinity. Father: The Transcendental, the Formless, the Void, Brahman, absolute stillness and silence. Mother: The Phenomenal, the material world, matter, mater, Mother, the Holy Spirit, Shakti, all energy, movement, and sound. The Son: The Transcendental in the Phenomenal, the Self, Christ, Atman, pearl of great price, treasure buried in a field, mustard seed that grows into a great tree.

(3) I certainly have never heard of a seraphim incarnating. For an account of a seraphim enlightening Alfred Lord Tennyson, see here: <http://www.angelfire.com/space2/light11/fdl/a1.html#angels16> (scroll down).

(4) We started out years ago considering that Ascension meant going to the Fifth Dimension. But gradually over the years, the Company of Heaven has revealed that many of us are here from higher dimensions than the Fifth and will go to higher dimensions than this after Ascension is over.

(5) "You are special Beings of a highly evolved state, except that very few of you are aware of it. You are slowly but surely beginning to understand your spiritual history, even although the idea that you are Angels is quite astonishing to you. The fact that you already have a link to your higher consciousness means that you will sub-consciously know when you are being offered truthful information." (SaLuSa, March 22, 2010.)

(6) This is the first time I've ever heard that spiritual evolution is not necessarily linear. But it makes perfect sense. It takes a paradigm that was being stretched and pulled by anomalies and re-forms it, allowing it now to account for what were formerly problems with the original formulation.

(7) In a reading I had with Archangel Michael today (March 28, 2012), I asked him if he was referring here to the Nirmanakaya and he agreed that he was. Here is a note on the Nirmanakaya, a little known group composing one element of the Guardian Wall:

"The Guardian Wall is mainly made up of semi-divine beings.... The Wall is built from the accumulated efforts of long generations of Yogis, Saints, Adepts, and especially the Nirmânakâyas to invisibly shield mankind from 'still worse evils,' from 'greater misery and sorrow' than we already suffer, and from terrors inconceivable to us. The human condition makes these things as imperceptible to us as are the protectors themselves and their words of wisdom, and also unfortunately as a result makes them unthanked by us. ... The Guardian Wall is thus inseparable from the hierarchy of compassion. ... One is only ready to take one's place in the Guardian Wall when his inner nature is 'pure gold tried in the fire,' with nothing weak or counterfeit in its nature, for 'no weakling can stand there.'

"The Guardian Wall is composed of the host of translated adepts, Narjols (who are Saints, glorified adepts, or the saints collectively, who are supposed to watch over, help and protect humanity. This doctrine is called the Nirmânakâya doctrine in Northern mystic Buddhism. I think this doctrine refers to the actual beings who also make up the Guardian Wall, the Nirmânakâyas, the highpoint of spiritual evolutionary development. Choosing selfless compassion over self-salvation, Nirmânakâyas become 'wedged as a stone with countless other stones which form the Guardian Wall.' Nirmânakâyas upon death self sacrificially choose not to enter Nirvâna because Nirvâna is an existence lasting only 'til the end of the (universal) life-cycle - it is not 'eternal.' They make this sacrifice to 'help mankind in an invisible but most effective manner'; to enter Nirvâna would forever seal them off
