Matthew Ward on the Darkness

September 8, 2021

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/09/08/matthew-ward-on-the-darkness/>

Matthew Ward is always clear on the topics he covers. In these passages, he looks at the dark forces, the darkness, and the dark ones.

Looking at Team Dark falls under Michael's request for "exposure so that it doesn't re-entrench itself because this is rather entrenched behaviour on all kinds of levels." (1)

Notice Matthew's Sept. 9, 2011 entreaty not to "dim your light by focusing on punishment for them."

Matthew's Message, Jan. 19, 2013, at <https://www.matthewbooks.com/january-19-2013/>

---

We thought that our last message covered why your world cannot change as swiftly as some lightworkers had hoped or anticipated. However, the questioning thoughts let us see that in connecting the dots of information in many previous messages, we omitted this dot—the difference between the dark forces, darkness and dark ones.

The dark forces, by far the most powerful, is a gigantic force field of negative thought forms that meanders throughout the universe looking for lesser evolved civilizations to enshroud in darkness. Although this vast field has the ability to manifest into whatever individual forms it envisions, it rarely does because its goal is to capture an entire civilization by enshrouding it in darkness.

Thus darkness is the dark forces' offspring, you could say, and it can be likened to a cloud cover that is so dense that the people feel lost in the miasma. And indeed they are lost insofar as conscious awareness of their beginnings, of their god and goddess selves and of their inseparable connection with the Supreme Ruler of this universe and all other life forms herein.

The dark ones are the individuals in an enshrouded civilization who have a proclivity toward greed, cruelty and lust for power. The low vibrations of those tendencies form “cracks” in the psyche, and by the universal law of attraction, the cracks permit the entry of the matching negative thought forms that are the makeup of darkness.

Henceforth darkness influences and ultimately controls those individuals' thoughts, intentions and actions. They become puppets of the darkness and carry out the dark forces' goal to enslave that civilization through tyranny, fear, deception, corruption and ignorance of truths about their beginnings in Creator, multiple lifetimes, the universal laws or the reality of other civilizations.

So where are those three dark sources now in relation to Earth?

The dark forces started moving away from your solar system after the infusion of light from far distant civilizations saved the life of your homeland planet seventy-some years ago. That force field left because light is anathema to its very existence—just as lighting a candle in a dark room pierces the darkness, so does the energy of love-light pierce the energy of whatever darkness is nearby.

Even though the dark forces left, its dense cloud of darkness remained on Earth, which the forces futilely had sought to capture for once and for all. Darkness continued to preclude spiritual and conscious awareness in the collective consciousness, and via the law of attraction, Earth's residents kept producing the negativity that almost killed the planet.

That changed when the intensive in-beaming of light started diffusing the density of the cloud and gave Earth the energy she needed to jar loose from the depths of third density and begin her ascension journey. Only in recent weeks were the last weak remnants of the cloud transmuted into light and the planet triumphantly passed through the doorway of fourth density.

So, now that Earth is in that density, how can it be that violence and unjustness still goes on? It is because the location of a planet is one kind of density and soul evolvement status of each of its residents is quite another. Mother, please insert the date of the message that explains the two densities. [September 9, 2011]

Matthew's Message, October 19, 2014, at <http://www.matthewbooks.com/mattsmmessage.htm>.

---

Although Earth and all of her residents are in fourth density location-wise, the majority of the populace still is within third density awareness-wise.

Matthew's Message, Sept. 9, 2011, at <https://www.matthewbooks.com/september-9-2011/>.

---

Love is the key to everything! Please keep this foremost in mind when the ones still hidden behind their dark deeds are identified. Do not dim your light by focusing on punishment for them, but rather think of them as what they are, the weakest links in the chain of Oneness, and send them the healing energy they need to uplift themselves and strengthen the chain for all souls. ...

The confusion about density is compounded because the word has two definitions. One is mass or the placement of a mass as distinguished from discarnate—without body or form—which is how you think of souls in spirit. You can't see us even when we are standing beside you because our etheric bodies vibrate at frequencies that third density vision cannot detect, just as you cannot see blades of a fan on its highest setting. But indeed etheric bodies have a degree of mass that lessens in density as souls continue to evolve spiritually.

And that brings us to the other meaning of density, which denotes the status of a soul's spiritual evolution. Earth's planetary mass started spiraling from its plane of manifestation in fifth density as negativity amassed in the collective consciousness of her ancient civilizations. The planet's descent continued in consonance with the inhabitants' reduced evolutionary status as darkness increased in their thoughts, motives and deeds, and eventually the planet reached deep third density in mass and her population regressed to that density in spiritual status.

(1) The larger discussion is germane:

Steve: It's what my role is in bringing it to the public awareness I wondered about.

Archangel Michael: It is in discussing in the public awareness the various reasons (and we do not mean the political excuses, the power abuses) why this type of behaviour has emerged over centuries, thousands of years.

It is abuse and control of the most vulnerable. So it is the descent into appetite. But where our forte is is, yes, exposure so that it doesn't re-entrench itself because this is rather entrenched behaviour on all kinds of levels.

So you start to bring forward the justice, the truth solutions and it is not merely (and I say that very cautiously) forgiveness but it is the application, yes, of compassion, patience, determination, vigilance... So that this does not occur and reoccur and re-entrench.

So you are speaking in neutral ways about the events that are uncovered, pointing to the deeper systemic, ancient situations that have contributed to this.

And then, you are pointing the way to the new because you cannot create a Nova Society where there is not an understanding, an agreement about what is acceptable in the most basic, human-rights ways. (Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, Jan. 18, 2020.)

The New World Order Becoming Visible Worldwide

February 21, 2022

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/02/21/333259/>

Excerpt only

I had this sudden experience where all at once I saw everything evil on Earth within recent memory - the persecution of the Tutsis, Jews, Gypsies, Armenians.

Trafficking in children, who are then used for sexual pleasure and tortured to produce the stimulant Adrenochrome; then murdered; I'll stop there.

Assassination.

Satanism.

Dictatorship.

Eugenicists led by the World Economic Forum are trying to depopulate the globe through a virus that hasn't proven much of a problem and a vaccine that's the real killer.

It pumps graphene hydroxide into us, turning us into a radio receiver that can be used, in extreme action, to kill a person through frequency modulation. (1)

If that were not scary enough, it causes blood clotting which usually results in a heart attack or other fatal condition.

Everything evil on planet Earth seems to have been brought into focus right now.

I'm so happy because now I know through visible behavior who and what it is we're facing. And others, I'm sure, see it too.

The organization we're facing may have a million faces but it's the same group at the head, whether they sit on the Committee of 300 or the Bilderberg Group. Sometimes they call themselves the New World Order; sometimes the Illuminati.

President Eisenhower called them "the military-industrial complex." President Kennedy said they act in darkness, killing their opponents. Matthew Ward described them:

"The Illuminati is not an organization of card-carrying members, but rather the 'umbrella' name of disparate groups and a large number of powerful individuals who have been controlling or heavily influencing the most important aspects of life throughout your world for centuries.

"In recent years they also have become known by other designations, such as the secret government, New World Order, dark cabal or the elitists; and they include the top figures in financial institutions, investment markets, multinational corporations, religions, education, media, military forces, judicial systems, entertainment, the medical 'establishment,' regulatory and advisory bodies, royal families, Zionists." (2)

"And, Mother, it doesn't matter who occupies the Oval Office - this same situation would exist because both Illuminati factions have the same intention, to control your world. Their strategies differ, but the agenda is the same, and that agenda is to conquer other countries through fomenting civil wars, economic enslavement or outright invasion." (3)

But at last all of us are witnessing them in action. Justin Trudeau serves the World Economic Forum, which intends a Fourth Reich - or Fourth Industrial Revolution - for the world. Trudeau also serves the Chinese Communist Party, and is probably their partner in the creation and release of the virus; undoubtedly their partner in the subversion of the last Presidential election.

Bill Gates, Fauci et al plan to depopulate the world, bringing it down to an agreed-upon 500 million, this "second class" serving the first.

To that end, Gates has been buying up land and taking it out of agricultural production, creating food shortages at the same time he's pushing toxic vaccines.

Add to the mix Jeffrey Epstein, Ghislaine Maxwell, Harvey Weinstein, on and on.

Because the truckers of many nations have converged on their capitals, the New World Order, World Economic Forum, Illuminati is becoming visible.

What was only rumor can now be witnessed on people's computers, cellphones, and TV sets. The lies the police offer us can be "fact-checked" immediately from all the videos being taken. The use of paid mercenaries to spread terror among us is there in full color, plain to see.

Now is the time to peacefully refuse to deal with the New World Order any longer - in any of their manifestations.

The Only Thing We Don't Know is When

February 18, 2022

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/02/18/the-only-thing-we-dont-know-is-when/>

I felt uplifted when I read what St. Germain said through James MacConnell recently:

"It is unstoppable now. The Light has already won.

"It is only the darkness that is receding now in every pocket across the planet." (1)

Then he tells us what we've suspected:

"They are still attempting to hold on. They are finding it more and more difficult to do so. As the vibrations increase, lower-vibrational energy cannot exist in the higher-vibrational frequency." (2)

If you think confusion may exist among lightworkers under assault by the deep state, the deep-state folks themselves are also probably experiencing massive confusion - at the way they feel, at the impotence of their once-powerful thoughts, at the loss of energy, drive, etc.

They'll begin to "feel their age." They'll make slips and become less and less effective opponents.

This debilitation comes on top of the more general decrepitude that afflicts the dictatorial. I've cited the Divine Mother's discussion of this so many times, you must know it off by heart:

"It is painful for a being that seeks power for themselves or power over another, whether it is a parent over a child, a husband over a wife, a man over an army. It matters not. The yearning [for], the exercise of control never gives joy. The pain simply grows. And so the actions become more grotesque, larger, until the breakdown is and has [been] and will be occurring." (3)

The Mother is the active face of God. She's not a master or even a celestial. She's the One behind everything. (4)

But back to St. Germain. What's the result?

"They are finding this more and more difficult, which is why they are reaching out, yelling out in many respects, doing many things that at one time were hidden, but now have come out of the shadows and are now being revealed as the darkness that they are." (5)

So the dark is and will be, in a manner of speaking, revealed and will fall apart. That would explain why we have Justin Trudeau calling the truckers a small minority of racists and misogynists and Emmanuel Macron saying he doesn't mind "pissing off" the anti-vaxx crowd. Few are bothering to remain diplomatic.

St. Germain continues:

"You are seeing the transformation happen within your Freedom Convoys that are developing everywhere, are in motion everywhere. Because it is this motion that is catapulting the freedom, the freedom train, if you will, to spread across the country. Freedom of the Republic. A Republic that is by the people, and for the people—not against the people." (6)

And what will be the result?

"The forces of Light are forging ahead and bringing the wakefulness, the Great Awakening, the Grand Awakening to all of those who have been becoming ready for it.

"It is only a matter of time and, more than that, a matter of vibration. And as you know, vibration is increasing everywhere. We see it in the light quotient that is spreading across the planet as more and more people are saying, 'I love you.' More and more people are saying, 'I forgive you.'" (7)

***

What happens to those of the dark who transition? Have they escaped justice? Not at all, SaLuSa tells us.

"Bear in mind that whatever happens where your dark ones are concerned, they will stand in the Halls of Justice before they start a new experience." (8)

"None shall escape as we know exactly who has been guilty, and have all the evidence that will convict them. Your societies will become cleansed and start again with people you know you can trust. They will be responsible for implementing new laws, and revival of the Constitution that upholds your rights." (9)

This is the basis of my hope.

He shares that the cabal's arrogance is what has brought them down.

"The changes that were insidiously introduced bit by bit ... were removing your rights brick by brick. Thinking that they were infallible has allowed us to use the arrogance of the dark Ones to turn the tables upon them, and they have been taken unawares." (10)

Sheldon Nidle's Spiritual Hierarchy and Galactic Federation tells us that they helped the Alliance (military, civilians, and the Q team) plan out how to take down the dark. That's the first time I've heard their help acknowledged:

"As we watch the way the Alliance, our Earth allies, work together to implement the very discreet and painstakingly orchestrated blueprint that we helped them formulate, we can't help but feel some pride." (11)

"The very discreet and painstakingly orchestrated blueprint that we helped them formulate...." I find that a very interesting statement.

Since they're helping with med beds, ameliorating the impact of virus and vaccine, neutralizing nuclear weapons, why would they not be helping to orchestrate the takedown of the cabal?

So why does it need to take so long? Blossom's White Cloud tells us:

"You will experience the change ... after more upheaval, I am sad to say. But it has to reach a point where it can no longer continue." (12)

Not only no longer continue, but no longer go into hiding and then re-emerge or re-entrench itself later - as the Nazis seem to have done.

Michael says:

"This type of behaviour has emerged over centuries, thousands of years. ...

"Our fort  is is, yes, exposure so that it doesn't re-entrench itself because this is rather entrenched behaviour on all kinds of levels. ...

"So you start to bring forward ... the truth solutions ... so that this does not occur and reoccur and re-entrench." (13)

Will do.

White Cloud reminded us of the wave of love that's expected to sweep the planet. Others have called it a tsunami of love, a ring of fire, a planetary heart opening, etc. (14)

We've heard about it for years and don't know when it'll happen, but it is a factor in all of this.

"When [the] time comes, that wave of love, that energy of love will sweep over, through, within your planet.

"You know this because it was shown to you before you came and you agreed that you would put up with all you are putting up with now in the knowing that this wave of love, this Event if you like, will take place.

"And when it does the change in vibration upon your planet and within [you] will feel so different from the way you are feeling now. ...

"Bring your world into the Light and rid it of the darkness for it is the Divine Plan that you do so." (15)

"And when it does the change in vibration upon your planet and within [you] will feel so different from the way you are feeling now" - I have felt this tsunami of love and spent time in an ocean of Love. I know what he's referring to and it will have a transformational effect on world society if it's what I experienced.

Rid it of "the darkness," not Team Dark. Lightworkers are dispelling darkness, not people.

So that's the complete picture of what's happening and what the Company of Heaven has planned, with our participation.

They tell us that the dark are finding the going harder and harder and assure of us of success. They tell us that they're working with the Alliance to bring the dark team to justice.

The only thing we don't know is when.

Killing for Market Share: The Old Paradigm in Business - Part 1/2

July 14, 2015

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/14/killing-for-market-share-the-old-paradigm-in-business-part-12/>

*It's eat or be eaten in business.
Credit: joannapennebickley.typepad.com*

As financial wayshowers, one of our tendencies might be to look to see how people did business in the past and then to borrow from them.

But we have to consider that those who went before succumbed to some pretty shallow and often corrupt business practices and have very little in the way of philosophy to bequeath to us. My own suggestion to financial wayshowers is to forget how business in the past operated and to carve out new paths, based on love, compassion and integrity.

The article that follows was written some time ago. I began to craft it anew and realized that the way I'd written it then was far clearer and more precise than the way I was recrafting it now.

What's missing here is an appreciation of the extent to which the Illuminati owned the economy and were working it for their own enrichment and the subjugation of the working and middle classes.

While I suspected collusion in business, I had no idea that everything - business, politics, religion, medicine, education, the military, etc. - was permeated by Illuminati control.

I'd like to look here at the philosophy I call "Business Darwinism." Business Darwinism is the pseudo-scientific application of the principles of Charles Darwin to business.

Business theorists who followed its tenets represented business as a struggle for existence in which only the fittest survived. The business world was a jungle, red in tooth and claw, and the business that succeeded was the one that could pounce first.

"In that modern-day tribe called a corporation," said a Dow Jones ad in Business Week, "it's still the survival of the fittest." (1)

Firms rose and fell because "it's evolution. Successful firms will grow big, and smaller ones will shrivel and die." (2) This doctrine was held to be synonymous with economics itself, as if it were an invisible law of the universe.

Megafarms, for instance, many of them in Florida and California, favored letting the weak go under. "It sounds cruel, but that's what economics is all about," says John Zonneveld Jr., who had a 10,000-head operation in Laton, Calif. (3)

"Social Darwinism is respectable again," Report on Business Magazine observed in 1991. (4) The modern firm had to be ready to turn on a dime, downsize their workforce, locate overseas, and do anything else to see that no one else ate their lunch.

The sense of urgency that business leaders saw all around them in the nanosecond nineties moved some to declare that "a major shakeup is coming soon -- one in which only the strongest, best prepared companies will survive." (5) This was the decade of the major global meltdown, the first in which computer technology combined with global telecommunications to make world trade wars possible in real-time.

"If management really wants to be around in the nineties, something has to be done. We no longer are just competing with the company down the street. Today, the name of the game is global competition. Survival is what many businesses are facing." (6)

The Nineties were considered to be the first decade of true global competition and global economic warfare.

"Today's manufacturing market is a truly world-wide market where only the world class manufacturers will survive. ... To achieve the dramatic results needed for world class competition, dramatic changes are needed in manufacturing philosophies and techniques." (7)

The business page read like the sports page. Where nations once squared off against each other, now global businesses went toe-to-toe. Sometimes America lost ground:

"While internecine strife hogged attention at home, the U.S. retreated in the far more important war of global competition. Biggest winner: Japan, where companies stay in fighting trim without having to listen for predator's footsteps." (8)

At other times America surged forward: With the rise of low-cost capital, the U.S. "scored a victory in its battle to become more competitive in the global economy." (9)

The successful survivors were lean and mean. "What is GE Capital's edge?" asked Business Week. "Most important is a culture that successfully blends an entrepreneurial spirit with the hard-driving and intensely competitive focus of its parent." (10)

This point of view supplanted the liberal tone of discussions from the Seventies and early Eighties. Where once caring and commitment had been praised, now lip-service was paid to the would-be-masters of the universe who overpowered, dominated and controlled. (11) In the service of market share, global firms were pictured slugging it out and fighting glorious battles.

Business Darwinists often described the competitive process as a game like boxing, hardball, or football. For example:

“For much of the last decade, U.S. companies have been maligned as wimps that lacked the grit and gumption to stand up to Japanese and European rivals. As they cowered in the big shadows thrown off by the Siemenses and Matsuhitas of the world, American firms caved in to quarterly earnings pressures and skimmed on long-term technology investments, But lately, the derisive criticism has begun to ring hollow.

“Domestic corporations, perceived by many as the world's weaklings, have put on new muscle and become industrial warriors capable of blowing away even the most intimidating global competitors.” (12)

Facing stiff competition from Germany and Japan, the nation was encouraged by tales of American companies muscling their rivals, aceing them, trouncing them, and leaving them quaking. (13) American firms were depicted blindsiding their opponents, blitzing them, and giving them palpitations. (14)

Like IBM and Microsoft they were "fighting tooth and nail [for] market position." (15) Like U.S. Surgical, they "took the market by storm and left once-dominant [competitors] stunned." (16)

Those who toughened up were congratulated for "[getting] the jump on the competition" and "[knocking their] socks off." (17) Examples ranged from the local to the international, from companies to nations.

The supermarket down the block "squares off" with its union. (18) An international computer maker "goes toe-to-toe" with its international rivals for its share of the world market. (19) The American nation enjoys enhanced prestige because of its "new economic muscle." (20)

When the business press talks about life in the global ring, it classifies companies into fast and powerful. Nissan and Toyota are powerful. Europe is fast. The Japanese carmakers are characterized as "heavyweights," facing "a leaner, meaner Europe Inc.", which is "just what's needed to fend [them] off." (21)

Hewlett-Packard is powerful and also fancy. Attacked by Japanese clone-makers, HP is eulogized for "slugging back" and "packing a powerful punch." (22)

"By 1989, more than 60 Far Eastern clones were closing in on HP's market. In a lightning-fast response, the Silicon Valley company struck back with cheap and technologically advanced machines.

When firms slug it out, some “get pummeled”; others “clobbered.” (24) The weak end up “showing bruises.” (25) However, no matter what the situation brings, it's expected that no competitor will “give up ... without a fight.” (26)

Whether fighting among themselves or against foreign competition, says U.S. News & World Report, “America's toughest companies [are displaying] tenacity and innovation in beating up global foes.” (27) In case its drift escapes its readers, the commentators make it abundantly clear: “The moral of these stories is simple: Getting tough is the only way to thrive in today's global market.” (28)

Business gets bloodier than the boxing metaphor allows. In some accounts, savvy companies are metaphorically represented as bloodthirsty predators, searching for prey. A European firm is congratulated for having “a killer instinct for competition.” (29) Airbus is depicted as “aiming at Boeing's jugular.” (30) General Electric is “always prowling for new businesses” to expand into. (31) When it finds one, it strikes quickly and “gobble[s] up assets from weakened rivals.” (32) These companies will kill for market share.

A normally conservative company (Corning), “which had been eyeing Damon for years, jumped in with a decisive strike -- a $401 million cash offer of its own. Done deal.” (33) Counsels a broker in Business Week: “The people who can pounce first are going to make money.” (34)

Competition here is truly bloodthirsty. But the situation is praised for waking complacent corporations up. Says one CEO: “There's nothing like the survival mode to get humans moving.” (35)

(Concluded from Part 1.)

Sometimes even failing in the chase paid off. Dealmaker Samuel J. Heyman "never bagged his prey, but he pulled down about $500 million in profits from his investments," reported Business Week. We would be "hard put to find a dealmaker whose instincts were so beautifully in sync with the quick-buck mentality" of the times. (6)

The business environment is dog-eat-dog, "a cutthroat marketplace," (37) in which "we'd all kill for [profitable] savings." (38) Businessmen are warned: "He who hesitates is lunch." (39)

Scenarios are replayed in which readers are warned who is eating whose lunch: "Competition from the likes of Hewlett-Packard and Co. was eating CalComp's lunch," offered Electronic Business. (40) A senator fumes: "While the White House is debating ideology, other countries are eating our lunch." (41) Quipped a phone company ad: "In the 90s, let's do lunch may have a slightly different meaning." (42)

When metaphors of slugging it out or pouncing on prey did not get business's message across, the business process was compared to war. Said one "super-banker" of another: "We don't meet, we have battles." Here is Business Week's account of that "meeting."

"Bennett A. Brown ... the chairman of Citizens & Southern Corp. rejected a hostile takeover bid from NCNB Corp.... Even though [NCNB chairman Hugh L.] McColl [Jr.] told Brown that he had launched his missiles, the brash, acquisitive McColl backed off with uncharacteristic meekness." (43)

Explained Business Week: "Every day around the world, corporations do battle." (44) Among the trade warriors, "Japan is the force to beat." (45) Public attention was focused on the Japanese as "the world's most feared global competitor." (46)

First American and later European corporations were reported to be "running scared. The reason: They feared an onslaught of competition, especially from the Japanese." It was left to a British union official to remind us of the fate of the weaker trade rival: "Everyone realizes only the fittest will survive." (47)

The U.S. electronics industry is "pinned down in the trenches of an economic battle, according to our troops in the R&D labs and engineering workplaces of America. And right now, the battle is going nowhere." (48) The U.S. semiconductor industry has been "driven to its knees by Japanese targeting of the industry." (49)

"Having softened up the U.S. semiconductor industry by sapping its profits with low-ball pricing, Japan's electronics giants are moving in for the kill.

Semiconductor
(50)

The American press watched for any sign of winning and leapt on it.

"At first glance, it would appear to be sweet revenge on the Japanese corporate titans that have been beating up on their North American and European counterparts. ... More Japanese companies fell off the [Business Week Global 1000] list than those of any other country." (51)

Domestically and internationally, said small-business author Jay Conrad Levinson, "it's a marketplace out there. In order to survive, let alone thrive and prosper, you've got to be a guerilla." For the "guerilla marketing attack," he offered "strategies, tactics, and weapons for winning big profits." (52)

Levinson took Business Darwinism to its logical extremes and showed the doctrine's ultimate direction. According to him, business competitors were our enemies.

"You are surrounded. All around you are enemies vying for the same bounty. They're out to get your customers and your prospects, the good and honest people who ought to be buying what you're selling. These enemies are disguised as owners of small and medium-sized businesses.

"These enemies thrive on competition. They're out to get you and get you good. ... Your enemies mean business, your business, your profits." (53)

The businessman with the most powerful arsenal will win: "Your bank account will brim with profits in direct proportion to how your marketing arsenal brims with these weapons." (54)

Levinson supplies business with the marketing weapons to take to war: "[These] fundamentals for winning the battle for healthy, honest, and growing profits ... will serve you well on your way to the battlefield." (55)

Daily the skirmish reports and body counts roll in from feature wars, price wars, standards wars, PC wars, cola wars, and semiconductor wars. Said the executive VP of an industrial research firm: "We're seeing the industry move in such a way that these two big forces are going to be really fighting it out. ... The battle will take place on the fronts of 'audio, video, voice CD-ROM, stereo, mass storage'." (56)

The corporation was represented as being engaged in a "do-or-die marketing battle to win over increasingly sophisticated and demanding customers." (57) The fate to be avoided is "unconditionally surrendering the ... market" to the enemy (58) while the highest grace lay in emerging dominant.

U.S. News & World Report observed: "Merely being competitive is not enough in today's global markets. Rather, [a firm's] long-term success will depend upon [its] domination of markets." (59)

Said Peter Cohen in The Gospel According to the Harvard Business School:

"Tomorrow is the future. We trained our business leaders to successfully wage its battles.

"World War III is going to be fought on the shelves of your neighborhood shopping center, and the Harvard Business School is a sneak preview of it. How its generals are prepared. The weapons and tactics they learn to use. How, fighting against each other, against humiliation and delusions of grandeur, they run each other down, yet somehow, desperately at times, seek to maintain at least the appearance of friendship. (60)

"This is an account of [the] education [of a class of 94 MBA students] to become lords over a new kind of army in a new kind of warfare, ready to take over from the military who have perfected their technology to the point where its use is guaranteed to leave nothing worth using it for. But since men will continue to be ambitious; since they will still want to be, they don't know what, except different, they will go on fighting for those things of which there aren't enough to go around -- money, love, land, praise, power and perquisites." (61)

"Epic tales are told around the campfire. Not all the participants are happy with the process.

"At the Vick School of Applied Merchandising: It was a gladiators' school we were in. Selling may be no less competitive now, but in the Vick program, strife was honored far more openly than today's climate would permit. Combat was the ideal - combat with the dealer, combat with the 'chiseling competitors,' and combat with each other. There was some talk about the 'team,' but it was highly abstract. Our success depended entirely on beating our fellow students, and while we got along when we met for occasional sales meetings the camaraderie was quite extracurricular.

"Slowly, as our sales-to-calls ratios crept up, we gained in rapacity. Somewhere along the line, by accident or skill, each of us finally manipulated a person into doing what we wanted him to do. Innocence was lost." (62)

The author also questioned the satisfaction that predatory competition brought its new entrants:

"The Harvard Business School's blind faith in competition alienates its students from one another, driving them to the destructive selfishness, the rugged individualism that, for too long, has been mistaken for a mainspring of progress." (63)

That was about as much lip service as "destructive selfishness" got but no truer words were spoken. The selfishness at the heart of Business Darwinism conditioned society for the final push that began with 9/11.

One might ask how much these metaphorical ways of speaking actually translated into business practices? Just as, upon listening to President Nixon on the Watergate tapes, our view of White House policy-making shifted, so our view of business's wisdom and maturity may also shift when we listen to the tapes presented at a trial between Bankers Trust and Procter & Gamble.

What the evidence (and other earlier examples of Bankers' shoddy practices) demonstrated was that ethics took a back seat to profiteering at the bank. In the Economist's account, the Business-Darwinist drift is plainly seen being translated into action.

"In January [1995] the bank settled a similar case with Gibson's Greetings, a card company, after internal tapes revealed the bank's employees giving the client false information about trades in 1993.

"Now BT has been shamed by further revelations about its derivatives sales practices in 1993-94, following a court ruling on October 3rd, which made public previously sealed documents and tapes relating to the P&G case. Astonishing comments by BT employees raise fresh concerns about the bank's culture at that time.

"Consider, for example, oral references by BT staff to a 'rip-off factor' that was attached to complex deals involving leveraged derivatives. One BT salesman describes how he would 'lure people into that total calm and then totally f*ck them.' Perhaps worst of all, a video shown to new employees includes a telling description by a BT instructor of how a swap works: he says that BT can 'get in the middle and rip them [the customers] off.'" Remembering that cameras were rolling, the instructor then apologises. (64)

Anyone not harmed by events could reflect on them philosophically, as Fortune Magazine did, capturing the mood of the times.

“The financial civil war that swept across America in the past decade was a ripsnorting string of shoot-'em-ups like nothing ever seen on Wall Street or Main Street. Withering volleys of money shot back and forth as insurgents stormed one entrenched corporate position after another.” (65)

But the fact remains that getting tough with one's rivals, which would have been repulsive in a gangster, was made right and desirable in the predatory market environment of the 1985-95 period.

No quarter was given or expected. Getting your licks in, bagging prey, and blitzing one another were just good competitive practices.

Had these been two boxers fighting each other in the ring, perhaps matters might have stopped there. But these lean and mean contenders for the world title stripped millions from their payrolls to get into fighting trim. And they used any weapons they could find to achieve competitive advantage.

Many of those weapons were technological and meant that the employees so eliminated would never return. Thus, what was represented as being in America's interest may have been in the interest of CEO's who, like IBM's Aker, laid off 14,000 in 1990 and had his pay doubled to $2.2 million for (and I speculate) having “what it took to do what was needed.” (66) But it was not in the interests of the wave of Americans who had to walk the plank.

An unbridled wave of global competition was initiated by following the tenets of a philosophy of predatory competition, a phenomenon which harmed workers in every country it affected. The leaders of business would have said that nothing could be done about it, that it was the market working itself out according to its own ineluctable laws.

However, there's nothing in any natural law that specifies the human community must operate this way. Their explanations, needless to say, were small comfort to the millions whose lives were, in this age of the smart machine, irreversibly impacted.

Is Nature Red in Tooth and Claw?

November 28, 2020

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/11/28/is-nature-red-in-tooth-and-claw/>

Mother Nature

Well, if we're shelving old paradigms by way of this creative chaos, then I nominate the Social Darwinist model for retirement.

It holds that life is a struggle for survival in which the strongest survive and the weakest go to the wall.

It points to nature for its authority. Nature, it says, is red in tooth and claw.

This became a sacred, unassailable, and obvious truth among many people of influence, especially imperialists and financiers of the late Nineteenth Century.

But we keep hearing descriptions of the original Earth and Nova Earth that bear no resemblance to this view of "nature."

Sanat Kumara described the original plan and how it devolved over millions of years:

"The 3rd dimension was simply so that you angels and star beings could come to Earth and have a physical experience, whether it was for thirty seconds or three thousand years. It was simply intended in the Mother's plan to be a planet of play for her angels.

"Now when the humans assumed form, and we are talking a progression over millions of years, the density rather than being in joy, we are just even talking about the density of physicality, became enormous." (1)

Nowhere was predatory behavior written into the Plan. Nowhere is there a mention that we'd eat animals or enslave each other, for example.

Then certain off-planet civilizations began exploiting terrestrials. There are many versions of this story. Here's one from Suzanne Lie's Arcturians.

"For eons, the third- and fourth-dimensional Beings lived in co-operation, harmony and great peace. The Blue Planet, Earth, was one of the most beautiful jewels in this Local Universe.

"Many developing civilizations visited Gaia to experience Her beauty and peace. However, since these civilizations were still 'adolescent' in development, they were often selfish and took from Gaia without replacing what they had taken. They experimented with Gaia's Kingdoms, especially the Animal Kingdom, to attempt to create workers for their selfish needs.

"Wars were fought and dear Gaia was left on the edge of annihilation more times than She would wish to count. Again and again, Gaia had to call on her fourth-dimensional Elemental Kingdom and Her sponsors in the higher dimensions to pull Her from the grasp of destruction." (2)

Kryon agrees that death and destruction were visited on the Earth and "in part, Humans created it. Humanity has gone through at least four stages of civilization through different ages and have almost terminated each time" (3)

Matthew Ward tells a similar tale. What caused the devolution of Earth? Matthew was asked.

"In a word, darkness. Originally the planet, the embodiment of the soul named Gaia, was an unpopulated paradise, the Garden of Eden in its entirety. ...

"The first people to arrive on the pristine light-filled planet, which then was called Shan, was a group from Lyra who hoped to find gold. They hadn't obtained clearance from the Intergalactic Council to go there and hadn't submitted a mining petition because they didn't want to share a potential gold lode with other civilizations.

"Those violations of universal laws sowed the seeds of deception and greed, and that initiated the low vibrations of negativity on the planet. Then the group brought a subhuman species to do the arduous labor of mining; harsh treatment of that slave population and damage to the land by gold extraction added more negativity." (4)

Where in these descriptions is nature red in tooth and claw? Humanity - on-planet and off - is, was, or became red in tooth and claw, and attempted to subdue and control nature.

I know from my own experience and the testimony of our channeled sources that predatory behavior, implicit in the description "red in tooth and claw," does not exist in the higher realms. Where then can we find it?

I need to step back to answer that question.

Who or what is "nature"? Well, how about us using another term for it? How about "Mother Nature." The Mother of the natural order, the material world. Matter, mater, Mother.

"Nature" in fact refers to the Divine Mother and her domain of matter, the domain that's ruled by the natural law. (5) No law can extend to the Father's transcendental domain. It's void of anything material, though filled with love.

The Divine Mother - her Kali portrayals to the contrary - is not a source of predatory behavior. I just quoted a passage from her the other day where she says she does not build her Nova Earth platform on abusive or controlling behavior.

Divine Mother: [I am speaking about] those in ... positions where control and abuse of power have been rampant. That will not be the platform [from] which integration of the various galaxies takes place. That is not the Plan.

I know very clearly, sweet one, as do you, if it is not [in] my Plan, then it will not occur. (6)

"Integration of the various galaxies" refers to the ripple effect that our on-planet, in-form Ascension is planned to have throughout the universe. We're opening up a brand new space.

So "control and abuse of power" have no place in her Plan or in her world. It's humans who introduced that behavior.

It won't exist in Fifth Dimensionality. In the higher worlds, the lion lies down with the lamb. There are no killing machines. No one's eating anyone else's lunch. Or each other.

So, no, nature is not red in tooth and claw. Humans have subverted the natural order in many places. Their behavior has been red in tooth and claw. Look no further than World Wars One and Two.

Fact checker: No pass. Retire one obsolete paradigm.

The Illuminati Economy - Part 1/4 - Introduction

July 22, 2015

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/22/illuminati-economy-part-1-introduction/>

Credit: dailyvoicenews.com

An excellent companion piece to this study is Matthew's latest Message (see below, at the end of this four-part series).

I've gotten requests again to continue developing the story of the economy in the recent past. Let me continue by delving into the Illuminati, after 9/11, as the channeled literature reveals them to us.

My purpose again is to show the depth of depravity our society has emerged from, to give us permission to cut our ties to the past and encourage us to create, invent and manifest the new.

We reached up till the end of the Nineties in our story earlier. The intentional bombing of the World Trade Center and the Pentagon marks the beginning of the end game out of which the Illuminati planned to dominate the world. One of their plans was to cause World War III, while they waited out a nuclear winter in their underground military bunkers.

They counted on there being 500 million people who'd survive above ground to serve as slaves for the Illuminati, much as the Sumerians, I believe, had been slaves to the Annunaki. Matthew Ward is our best source on the Illuminati.

The Illuminati began as a secret society. Many who do the bidding of those at the top, Matthew says, "may not even know the name Illuminati and have no idea that they are aiding ruthless exploiters of humanity." (1) His description of it is one of the best I've read:

"The Illuminati is not an organization of card-carrying members, but rather the 'umbrella' name of disparate groups and a large number of powerful individuals who have been controlling or heavily influencing the most important aspects of life throughout your world for centuries. In recent years they also have become known by other designations, such as the secret government, New World Order, dark cabal or the elitists; and they include the top figures in financial institutions, investment markets, multinational corporations, religions, education, media, military forces, judicial systems, entertainment, the medical 'establishment,' regulatory and advisory bodies, royal families, Zionists.

"They have controlled governments, started civil and international wars, caused famines and widespread impoverishment, created boom times for industrialists and depressions for the poor, released laboratory-designed viruses, assassinated opposition. They are the perpetrators of unjust laws, Satanic rituals, chemtrails and other toxic pollution, destruction of animal life on land and in the seas, mind control, the 'illegal' drug industry, erosion of civil rights and denial of God-given freedoms, suppression or misuse of technology, political and ideological divisiveness. In short, the Illuminati have been profoundly adversely affecting all life on Earth - indeed, the very life of Earth herself!" (2)

Matthew tells us that shortly after the colonies won their independence from British rule, European control crossed the Atlantic Ocean and infiltrated the nascent United States; and that country's 1913 Federal Reserve Act cemented the dark ones' hold on it and the international economy. (3)

He credits them with responsibility for every major conflict on the globe.

"The Illuminati 'operation,' you could say, has been responsible for all major wars, divisiveness, impoverishment and rampant deception and corruption for the past 265 years or so, after the name Illuminati came into being. It was devised by individuals in Bavaria who felt that they were the most intelligent, knowledgeable and capable persons in the world—the 'illuminated' ones—and in their self-aggrandizement, they felt entitled to control the lives of everyone else." (4)

He says they live off fear:

"The Illuminati require the energy of fear to keep refueling themselves; tyrannical regimes generate an enormous amount of fear, thereby serving Illuminati needs extremely well without any effort on their part. The high death toll in countries with brutal rulers is aligned with the Illuminati goal to reduce the world's population, and all wars serve that same purpose." (5)

Let's look at some of the Illuminati's actions to reduce the world's population and subjugate it. Matthew looks at their activities in agriculture:

"Shortages of corn, rice, grains, seafood and other foodstuffs being caused by any means, including the attempt to force on farmers genetically-altered seeds that produce crops without viable seeds for the next planting, are part of the dark plot to reduce the world's population; and the recent emphasis on ethanol as an alternative to gas for transportation fuel is but another part of that insidious plan." (6)

St. Germaine analyses how the Illuminati engineered a crisis in food, that's intentionally keeping millions in starvation. Here's his analysis of how it's being done:

- Central banks in every country are furiously printing money causing a general worldwide inflation causing prices to go up. The chief culprit of this printing mania is the US Federal Reserve as the US dollar is the de facto reserve currency and used to price most commodities on the world markets. So basically, there is too much money sloshing about the earth today with no place to go.
- World prices for essential food commodities such as rice, wheat, corn, cooking oil, meats etc. are unfortunately controlled by the worldwide casino known as the derivative or futures markets primarily located in Chicago and

New York . These markets play with futures contracts, options, options on options and money.

- The excess amount of money sloshing about the earth is in the hands of a very few huge investors (hedge funds, pension funds, mutual funds and the like). Because of the downturn in other economic sectors such as the disastrous real estate market, this extra money is being poured into the food commodities derivative markets and thus causes futures contracts on food commodities to shoot up artificially. The amount of grains on the market is irrelevant.
- It is this excess money that is competing for limited numbers of grain futures contracts and options that is driving prices of food commodities. For example, Investor A owns a rice futures contract that bets rice will be $100 per ton in November. Investor B (with a lot of money in his pocket) will buy that contract from Investor A for $120.00 because he knows he can in turn sell the contract to Investor C for $150.00. So in this example, the price goes up $50.00 per ton without having any connection with the actual supply of rice on the ground.
- While this casino game is being played out, world-wide prices of grains and staple foodstuffs increase by the day, if not by the hour. Growers hold back releasing their crops because they think they will get more money if they wait. This then creates an artificial shortage on the market and increases the price even more. In the meantime, their storehouses are bulging waiting for the highest price for release onto the markets.
- In the meantime, billions of poor are being pushed to the brink of starvation. (7)

We'll have occasion to look at the derivatives crisis later. But let me say here that derivatives, also called credit default swaps, was the biggest scam ever floated by the cabal. It failed leaving banks and financial houses owing so much money ($200,000 for every man, woman and child on Earth) (8) that could never be paid back. Derivatives sit in off-ledger books, a ticking time bomb dooming the Illuminati economy.

The Illuminati Economy - Part 2/4 - The International Economy

July 23, 2015

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/23/the-illuminati-economy-part-2-the-international-economy/>

Iloilo Airport where George Bush trans-shipped narcotics as head of special black ops

Let's start with the international economy generally.

The Illuminati manipulate it for their own enrichment, says Matthew Ward.

"The economy as reported is more myth than actuality. Only a comparative handful of people know how tenuous and corrupt the global economy is or that international trade and the stock markets are manipulated by the Illuminati, a group of darkly-inclined people who have passed their tight global reins from generation to generation.

"They have amassed vast fortunes through that control as well as by charging usurious bank loan rates and accruing mammoth amounts from their illegal drugs industry, and they use that money to buy governments; bankrupt countries and exploit their natural resources; keep billions of souls at barely subsistence level; and fund both sides in wars that they precipitate and perpetuate because from wars they derive handsome profits." (1)

They manipulated the poorer nations, installing dictators and lining their pockets with loans that the populace were expected to pay back.

"The illuminati's ... exploitation of natural resources worldwide will end. Since that power base is what enabled them to set government and banking policies and own multinational corporations, those corrupt controls also will end. The huge debts of the poorest nations were incurred by their state of desperation, often caused by Illuminati actions and influence; but the loans went to the despots ruling the countries and did not benefit the citizens, so those debts will be annulled and assistance given directly to the people.

"Many national borders have been set by the victors in war who wanted the natural resources, and that created 'have-nots' who formerly were 'haves.' When the LOVE in souls ends all conflicts, borders no longer will be cause for dispute because all peoples will be 'haves.'" (2)

The CIA has provided the Illuminati with muscle to control things like the international drug trade, to found terrorist groups that would attack the United States, and to stage false-flag operations like 9/11 and the London bombings. Matthew says:

"A large group within the CIA, which only superficially is an intelligence gathering agency to serve the security of the United States, is composed of Illuminati leaders and operators with diverse nationalities, political persuasions and belief systems, but with one aim: world domination." (3)

Keep in mind that George Bush Sr., later to be President of the United States, was CIA Director and later Vice President and used Ilopango Airport in El Salvador to trans-ship narcotics to America. Never mind the fact that he was born in Germany (and therefore ineligible to be President). (4)

Of CIA control of the drug trade, Alex Collier once wrote:

"We have known since the Sixties that the CIA has been trafficking narcotics. We know this. We have known that the CIA has been assassinating and overthrowing governments." (5)

Matthew Ward discussed it on many occasions. The drug trade finances "terrorists" and wars while the secret areas house buildings full of scientists doing heinous experiments.

"The enormously profitable illegal drug industry funds both factions' 'black ops,' including terrorist activities blamed on innocents and vast underground areas where their scientists conduct unconscionable experiments on humankind and develop spacecraft, weaponry, surveillance and weather-control systems using technology introduced by the 'Little greys.'" (6)

SaLuSa also commented on the situation:

"On a larger scale your money is siphoned off to fund black operations that have not been authorized by your government, and are often directed at you the people they should be serving. These situations have been going on unchecked for far too long, and with our allies who have our help we have made it clear we are going to put a stop to them. So you see, Dear Ones, we are working towards bringing about the changes needed." (7)

Despite the looting of the United States Treasury and nation and the treasuries of many other countries, Matthew reported that "the United States, considered the wealthiest country on the planet, was bankrupt." (8) He offered a description of the state of the American economy.

"Except at the higher levels, there is a perpetual cycle of investment and loss, rising prices and reduced or lost incomes. Property is being purchased with minimum down payments and low interest rates, and increasingly owners are losing their jobs and thence their homes.

"Unemployment figures are much higher than reported; corporate mergers that wipe out smaller businesses and theft by top management continue; and retirement funds have been stolen by the billions, creating financial hardship for people who depend upon those to sustain them after their working years.

"Whether out of necessity or frivolous spending, credit card use with its usurious interest rates adds to the worsening situation. Diverting your attention from these situations is the media's emphasis on trivial matters and entertainment and the meaningless promises of the two leading presidential candidates.

"Further, income tax laws allow great loopholes for the wealthiest while additionally burdening those who still have small incomes." (9)

Matthew asserts that "a severe imbalance like this cannot be sustained by individuals or a nation - and the imbalance WILL BE righted, do not doubt this! But in the short-term, financial situations will continue to deteriorate until reforms are in place to turn this around." (10)

And of course we see them deteriorating around us. Is this the crash of the world economy? No. Matthew describes the process that's actually happening right now:

"The foundation of the new system has been slid under the old so that when its collapse comes, the new foundation will be well established. That will enable the transition from the old system to the new to come about without the dam breaking, so to say." (11)

So this is the tightest place of all that we've had to encounter, the darkest part just before dawn. People are rankling under financial restrictions. Arguments are breaking out. This is exactly the time when all our valor is needed. And the essence of valor is to keep going.

Is that the only reason I'm writing this? To describe the Illuminati structure that's collapsing? No. I'm writing this to say: This is your government. This is the Illuminati economy. This structure contaminated and influenced every branch of economic analysis and financial activity.

The world of the past has nothing to offer this generation as it turns its attention to financial wayshowing.

The divine qualities are the only guide we'll need and the only guide that has never before in human history been tried, tested, or followed.

If you want to step out on the bridge that wasn't there a few minutes ago, saturate your financial wayshowing with the divine qualities.

The Illuminati Economy – Part 3/4 – Dooming the Economy

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/24/illuminati-economy-part-3-dooming-economy/>

Divvying up the pie.

I said the matter better some years ago than I could do again, I think. So let me repost a synopsis of how and why the American Illuminati economy failed. This is a view from the ground. The Company of Heaven give the bird's-eye view.

What Factors Doomed the Economy

While Washington goes through the final act in a Kabuki play, pretending that the debt ceiling is the real problem for the American economy, I, though not an economist, believe the real problem goes much, much farther and is irreconcilable and irrecoverable.

Whether fast or slow, the American economy, as it's presently constituted, cannot avoid radical reform and reconstruction. Congress leaning to this side of the train or that side of the train, even if their intent was honorable, which in most cases it isn't, cannot stop a train headed for disaster.

Let's look at what trends and events doomed modern western economies generally and made the introduction of a new economic system inevitable.

Anyone who lived through the period can remember the malevolent trends and practices that led to many bubbles that sucked value out of our economies.

The junk-bond era, mergers and acquisitions, the dot.com bubble, just-in-time production, the mortgage and foreclosure scam, bank bailouts, and the derivatives debacle terminally weakened the structure of our economies.

One business analyst called them "Frankenderivatives." (1) The derivatives crisis doomed world finance by leaving nations with a debt load equivalent to $200,000 for every man, woman and child on the planet, something that could never be paid off no matter what strategy was adopted. (2)

The depredations of currency traders, investment houses and economic hitmen on the economies of the developing world often saw their currencies collapse and their resources taken in payment for debt loads that had been manufactured in the first place and forced upon them by unscrupulous parties. (3)

The computer (the silicon chip having been salvaged from the Roswell crash of an alien spacecraft) (4) eliminated work and saw a whole generation of young people denied entry-level employment.

Many firms which had vertical structures were now hollowed out. They became horizontal structures with no chance for advancement. Many full-time, permanent employees became contract labor, with pension and benefit plans eliminated, unions busted, etc.

The shipping out of jobs to overseas low-wage countries where labor was unprotected saw much work lost to western nations and workers in the new manufacturing nations exploited and subjected to anti-labor practices by firms with foreign ownership.

Government funds were siphoned off. Governments and their agencies entered into criminal enterprises such as terrorist training at institutions like the School of the Americas, sex slavery and drug importation by agencies like the CIA and large private corporations. The funds were used in black projects such as staged false-flag attacks.

These included the Oklahoma City bombing, 9/11, the London bombings, and many other smaller “terrorist” attacks, Mind-controlled assassins ("Manchurian candidates") were responsible for individual shootings, etc. (5)

The CIA was running drugs through Ilopango Airport in El Salvador under Director George Bush Sr. and bringing them in through Governor Bill Clinton’s Mena Airport in Arkansas, murdering DEA agents who opposed them and their own CIA operatives who threatened to blow the whistle. (6)

Funds generated were also used to bribe, coerce, or take over the mass media so that nothing of these events ever surfaced. And to suborn one Congress after another. And even the Supreme Court.

It therefore comes as no surprise to hear that shiploads of gold and platinum and other forms of wealth were sunk in ships off the Asian coast to be resurrected if the time were to arrive when the financial elite were in total control of the world. (7) Of course that day will never come, but the wealth will be put to good use - the common good, that is, in a commonwealth.

And it seems a fitting end to hear that gold bars stored in various repositories around the world have been swapped for tungsten bars coated in gold. Even the very standard of value in western economies was debased and lost.

The economies of the West, subjected to such forces, have not been able to retain robustness, initiative, or moral strength. They devolved into a force that simply preyed upon anyone vulnerable, including their own. Everyone was considered someone else's "lunch." There wasn't even honor among thieves - especially among thieves - and we're now seeing the result.

So there's no going back for the leading economies of the world. It isn't that the new abundance program once known as NESARA (after the American National Economic Security and Reformation Act) is likely to be introduced. (8) There's no alternative to a new economy running along its lines and there never will be as long as the same financial forces who so sapped our economies remain at its helm.

It isn't a case of how we'll revive an economy that's been dead for some time now. We cannot revive a dead patient with economic CPR. There's no other way forward than to introduce a new economy based upon the ethical lines that NESARA is.

I'd most like to see the ending of the discussion of how to get this economic show back on the road. The only road the present Illuminati economy will take is the short and direct road to the ash heap of history.

But there's much room for economists and analysts to look into what the contours would be of an economy that works for everyone. To hear about that I'm a willing - nay, an eager - listener.

The Illuminati Economy - Part 4/4 - Their Downfall

July 25, 2015

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/25/the-illuminati-economy-part-4-their-downfall/>

Illuminati gold will be redistributed. Credit: www.mxtrade.com

St. Germaine told the Illuminati centuries ago what future awaited them:

"The ones who have been holding the financial power, you're going to see them desperately trying to get it, trying to take it back, trying to manipulate it. ... Don't feel sorry for them one bit. ... They knew it was coming.

"In the 1500s, in the 1700s and late in the 1900s, we had some, what you would call, very multidimensional, very spiritual, mystical discussions with these groups who have held the power. We showed them what would come. They did not believe it. It caused them to hold on more desperately to the power and now it's here.

"So there is a level at which they knew it was coming." (1)

How has the Company of Heaven been proceeding against the dark? One way is to intercept their money flows and take them back for abundance. Matthew describes one action being taken:

"ET technology will be directed at electronic issues wherein money movement will not go the way the dark forces intend and undetectable glitches in their communication efforts will create confusion and errors. I am not speaking 'out of school' here as the dark forces are aware that this has started happening and they cannot locate the origins or detect and correct the flaws. This adds to their fear that they are losing control and their activities will become even more clumsy and obvious until all is 'brought to light.'" (2)

"The Illuminati's illegally and immorally garnered fortunes will be put [back] into circulation," Matthew tells us. (3)

"The vast fortunes immorally and illegally amassed by various Illuminati members and institutions they control will be recovered and distributed on a global basis to the neediest among you, the billions who have been the most exploited and ignored by the greediest; and fair taxation and lending rates will replace the current ones until you reach the consciousness level where money no longer is an issue at all." (4)

SaLuSa tells us much the same:

"Your world affairs are dominated by the financial crisis, but we see the outcome as helping remove members of the Illuminati who have not only monopolised monetary policies, but manipulated them to their advantage.

"Some of the biggest crimes against humanity are in this connection. Your money has been stolen either directly or indirectly, and lined the pockets of those who have set themselves at the top of the pyramid. The wealth of the world will be taken back and fairly distributed, and all shall enjoy a satisfactory life where you no longer have poverty or slavery." (5)

Back in 2004, Matthew was advising lightworkers that the release of abundance funding would be delayed, but to be patient.

"Mother, twice recently you have been asked by individuals about matters related to money, and in both cases I replied that a renewed and stronger attack on all avenues of funding for light services and products has been initiated by the dark forces. I advised the requestors' that anticipated funding would be delayed, but to keep focused positively and eventually the money would be available." (6)

Where is the money and gold coming from that will bring abundance to the planet? Some of it is coming from other planets. I interviewed St. Germaine on the subject in 2012:

Steve Beckow: St. Germaine, there's even talk of gold being brought from other planets....

St. Germaine: You are correct, and there are also minerals that have been placed upon your planet by your star brothers and sisters that are far more valuable than gold. They just have not been discovered or detected yet. And that is to come. But that is not part of the Trust that I am speaking of. It is ancillary.

SB: All right. And palladium and vanadium I think are two of those metals, are they not?

St. G: Yes, as well as serenum.

SB: Serenum? The last two are metals we haven't discovered yet, I think.

St. G: The last three are metals you haven't discovered. (7)

There's even gold that the Illuminati have secreted in sunken battleships. Overall, there's more gold than we can imagine.

Steve Beckow: And of course there's the gold that's sunk in battleships.

St. Germaine: Yes.

SB: So there's a lot of gold on this planet. Is that correct?

St. G: There is more gold than you can imagine. And there is certainly more gold — think of it as currency — there is certainly more gold than has been assumed. There are caches of gold that have been placed there all over the grid. And sometimes the gold has been hidden in very plain sight. (8)

SaLuSa assures us that "in time the wealth of the world will be properly shared for the good of all." He reminds us that "your present times are the result of deliberate plans by the Illuminati, to create friction through lack and make you reliant on them for your existence." (9)

The world will become a true commonwealth and a pristine environment, Matthew suggests.

"Not only will the Illuminati money be distributed wherever the need is greatest, but their control of natural resources will [stop], as will the wanton destruction of the environment through oil and gas extraction, mining, logging and pollution. Technologies now suppressed and the more advanced technologies that will be introduced by your universal brothers and sisters will clear the pollution and provide renewable energy and building materials." (10)

SaLuSa also gives us a picture of their plans for this world.

"So many of you are experiencing difficulties in your lives that the Abundance Programs would help. I want to tell you that, in the near future, poverty will be eradicated from Earth, and the wealth mainly secreted away by the Illuminati will be reclaimed and redistributed for the good of all. Financial Institutions will be re-modelled to cater for a new society that has set greed and corruption aside." (11)

Therefore the Illuminati will be deprived of their wealth and, with it, their power. Their wealth will be redistributed among the people of the world. National debts for "foreign-aid" loans which merely lined the pockets of dictators will be cancelled. And abundance will be spread out over the globe until eventually everyone has what they need to live, learn, and evolve.

There's no usefulness to be found in following the financial ways of the past. The last economy that worked even a bit was in the Fifties through Seventies. Every economy since then has been too corrupted to emulate.

The path for us starts at the trailing edge of our leading foot. The bridge that wasn't there a minute ago appears when we step out into the unknown. In your financial wayshowing, don't look back. Leave the past behind. Look ahead and invent, create, and inspire.

Out with the Old and In with the New - Part 1/2

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/13/old-new-part-12/>

Robots do not pay taxes Credit: www.nanowerk.com

Some lightworkers, when they contemplate serving the Divine Mother as a financial wayshower, may think that they need to "learn how it's done."

If that's a generic term, I agree. If it's a felt need to operate as we used to in the old Third, I think I'd demur.

The prevailing business models are what got us into this mess in the first place, all in the service of the people who controlled the economy. Why in Heaven's name would anyone want to imitate them? Surely that simply prolongs the crisis.

We're arguing for a heart-centered approach on this blog and we probably won't find a business model for that among those the masters of business held out to us from pulpits like the Harvard Business School or Business Week.

Let's look at what happened in the germinal 1990s.

I'll be ignoring some elements of the economy that doomed it, such as the derivatives crisis, which was a scam and has resulted in a debt so large that it probably can never be liquidated. I'm focusing on the work force.

The fall of the ordinary worker started in the 1980s when waves of mergers and acquisitions tore many companies apart. Then a series of corrupt schemes like junk bonds, the dot.com bubble and later the mortgage-foreclosure scam sapped America of jobs and profitability and condemned the middle class to ongoing indebtedness and a lack of prospects.

But what really finished workers off was computerization or automation. That led to jobless recoveries from what were considered to be "recessions," the loss of careers, the demise of benefits plans, and many other forms of hardship for obsolescent workers who bore the brunt and costs of automation.

It was a double whammy because robots don't pay taxes so the very same class that was deprived of its livelihood was also asked to bear the increased tax burden that resulted. More people off work meant more call on government services and that meant higher taxes, all borne by the people who were under assault from automation.

The rise of outsourcing to low-wage countries completed the defeat of the worker. Now people hired themselves out as consultants without benefits, at low wages. Many held down two or three part-time jobs. And all the time their debts mounted.

Companies took a Just-in-Time attitude towards their workers:

"'Companies are managing their workers as they manage their inventories of unsold goods,' said Leslie McNulty, research director of the United Food and Commercial Workers Union. 'They are trying to keep both sets of inventories -- employees and merchandise -- as low as possible.'" (1)

Let's look here at the impact of automation on it. Later I'd like to look at the philosophy behind that mess, which I came to think of as Social or Business Darwinism. Please consider this an attempt at consciousness raising in the area of financial wayshowing.

One business analyst asked the $64,000 question in 1991: "What is a computer for, if not to save labor?" (2) Exactly. A computer is a labor-saving - or labor-destroying - device.

Fortune Magazine described how extensive the “labor saving” was.

“[Computers are taking] over progressively more of the work that can be routinized ... from guiding machines that make things to transmitting information within the organization or across its boundaries. Bingo, you've got flexible manufacturing, programmed trading, and point-of-purchase terminals wired into the supplier's factory.” (3)

I've said on occasion that the younger generation has never known a permanent, full-time job with benefits. This is the era in which those jobs were decimated.

Because automation created a buyer's market for labor, companies could ditch their benefits plans along with their permanent, full-time workers - and they did in droves.

Business Week in June 1993 noted that “companies are often using outside consultants, many of whom were laid off earlier, to lower their costs.” (4) In that same article they suggest that “even when companies have work that needs to be done, they often use temporary workers to avoid paying the cost of benefits.” (5)

Employees were fired and hired back on as consultants, without the benefits they once enjoyed and only for as many hours as were deemed to be absolutely necessary. Society embraced “just-in-time” employment. The cost of benefits plans now came to be called “the burden rate.”

I remember how afraid I was to leave my job at the time. Electronic Engineering Times in 1991 suggested that the feeling was general: “Disgruntled employees don't dare leave their posts in 1991. There might not be another job down the road. So they stay and gripe.” (6)

Said another business analyst: “Fear is rampant in the workplace.” (7) I remember how that was. We all led lives of quiet desperation.

One banking executive suggested a formula for estimating when employees should be replaced:

“Theoretically every time you make a $10,000 investment on technology you should have replaced one employee.” (8)

Automation replaced hundreds and hundreds of thousands of workers. And, said the Financial Post, “most of the jobs lost are lost forever.” (9)

No one was safe. Here are some of the occupational activities that became extinct, diminishing the number of jobs available to the younger generation:

- Storing, filing and retrieving;
- Monitoring, analyzing, accounting and reporting;
- Middleman work such as booking, selling, ticketing, dispensing, shipping, and receiving;
- Making transfers of money, mail, stocks, or information;
- Issuing information policies that consumers can just as well request from a machine.

This list grew as “systems” got better at doing our work. No occupation, not even computer programmer, was immune from what is essentially a social virus.

What was usually not said was that not only jobs were lost, but whole careers. Workers moved from one new career to the next, trying to stay one step ahead of the computer. One group moved to the next occupation even while employees in that occupation were moving to another.

Travel agents might become medical-lab assistants. Lab assistants might become hospital unit coordinators. Unit coordinators might become travel agents, all running in circles, trying to stay ahead of the machine which seemed to be just a few paces behind them.

"Social Darwinism is respectable again," one analyst wryly observed. (10) According to Social Darwinism, not just nature, but society also, is red in tooth and claw. The fittest survive and the weakest go to the wall. Such a philosophy has no truck or trade with the divine qualities. Indeed this era of the 90s was the high point of Social Darwinism - or Business Darwinism - as a social philosophy.

Business Week described how bleak the picture had become:

“As companies large and small embrace new technologies and eliminate jobs, millions of workers are finding that their old careers are becoming obsolete. In just the past year, even as the [U.S.] economy grew by some 2.6%, more than 500,000 clerical and technical positions disappeared, probably forever. And better information systems are eliminating the need for lots of middle managers.

“It's no wonder that so many Americans are distressed: they see their paycheques lagging inflation, and they worry about joining their families and friends in the ranks of the unemployed.” (11)

Said one business executive in 1991: “Whole levels of middle management have been wiped out and will not be replaced.” (12)

Added Business Week in 1993:

“Corporations have been laying off huge numbers of middle managers because the re-engineering and technology make it possible to do without them. In the old corporate hierarchies, middle management's function was to transmit information from the field or factory to the executive suite and relay commands from the corner office back to the troops. Databases and computer networks now do the job faster, better, and for less.” (13)

Out with the Old and In with the New - Part 2/2

Who's winning? The lure of the computer lulled everyone to sleep

(Concluded from Part 1.)

For the longest time, business analysts were calling the automation revolution a cyclical recession. But they could not account for the “jobless recoveries.” Said Business Week in 1993: “This is the first time in the postwar period that [manufacturing employment] has failed to bounce back in the wake of a recession.” (1)

At last it became impossible to ignore the huge job and career losses that happened after each “dip” in the economy. These were not cyclical recessions; they were structural deconstructions of work and the work force, the shedding of whole occupations which, once shed, did not return.

Said another source:

“Some critics ... call it deconstruction rather than reconstruction -- jobs are a casualty at every point in the delivery chain. ...

“[International trade consultant Patrick] Couling says the cost-cutting electronic revolution is one reason why economic recovery in the U.S.

has yielded 3.5 million fewer jobs than past recoveries. Employers are investing in systems, not workers.

““The fallout can be devastating. But it is more of a disaster to do nothing. It is a case of damned if you do and damned if you don’t.” (2)

“Growth without jobs,” it was called. The impact caused the growth movement of the 1970s and 80s to shrivel on the vine. I think this business analyst pretty well summed the situation up: “Stop finding yourself, pal: It's time to get back to work -- if you still have a job, that is.” (3)

When I woke up in 1990 to the devastation that the computer was causing, I tried to warn my provincial premier, whom I knew personally, the head of the British Columbia Federation of Labour, and anyone else who would listen. No one wanted to hear about it. No effective voice that I knew of could gain the attention of people so fascinated with what the computer could do that they allowed the drama to unfold without taking effective action.

Today's generation of younger folk have never enjoyed the kind of security that the older generation enjoyed during the 1950s through the 1970s. They don't even know what it was like to live in a system that provided pensions, benefits plans, supposed job security, a social safety net, and so on.

It's our job as financial wayshowers to change that situation, to come up with a business model that honors the worker, does not overwork people, and provides for their unemployment, illness, disability, and retirement. A world that works is a world that knows that business is not about the enrichment of the few but the needs of the many.

So, financial wayshowers, if you'd permit me to say it, perhaps don't drive the car looking in the rear-view mirror. There's nothing to be learned from the past except what not to do. Consult your heart. That's the new paradigm.

Calling a Spade a Spade

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/05/07/calling-a-spade-a-spade/>

Covid-19 is a bioweapon aimed at omnicide

I'd like to bring two words, which seem remarkable by their absence, back into our discussions.

And, thereby, I'm simply stating my opinion. I'm neither a scientific nor a military expert.

Those two words are "bioweapons" and "omnicide." I think they describe what we as a world face.

We keep talking about Covid-19 as if it's a virus.

Let's call a spade a spade.

A spade

Covid-19 is a manmade bioweapon. Many sides are producing them. All virus pandemics in the last forty years, I believe, have been bioweapons and the world at large has been the guinea pig.

A bioweapon

Strangely enough the people responsible for our health keep wanting to up the number of people who succumb to "the virus" and yet reduce the reported number of people who die from the vaccine. Why is that?

Shouldn't they be proudly touting numbers that show a decrease in the spread of the virus and rant, horrified, against people dying from the vaccine? They are, after all, protecting our health. Aren't they?

Is their job not to decrease rather than increase the number of cases? Why then this reporting bias? Why are they trying to scare us rather than reassure us?

What was this bioweapon intended for? I'm going to borrow a word from radiation expert Dr. Rosalie Bertell and call it "omnicide," by which she meant species annihilation. (1) Matthew Ward explains:

"What is not publicized because it is known by only a few is that the intention of the coronavirus was to decrease the world's population by billions. That will not happen because [star] family members reduced the laboratory-designed virus's potency to the greatest possible extent." (2)

I hope Matthew's right.

That doesn't mean that the Company of Heaven will not use Covid-19 as an exit route for those who've reached the end of their lifespan or service contract. They will and do.

Try to find out who manufactured Covid-19 and who released it, etc., and we get mired in accusations and counter-accusations. But pointing the finger at each other ignores (or covers up) the fact that both sides are manufacturing bioweapons capable of omnicide. That fact seems to get lost in (or obscured by) the debate.

All of this is happening against the backdrop of the time of separation. Many are leaving now, Michael told me in 2016, in an almost wistful aside:

Archangel Michael: Many are leaving, as you know.

Steve: Yes.

AAM: Many are choosing alternative realities. The reality that is of pain and suffering, lack and limitation is not of Nova Earth and not of [the Divine] Mother's creation of 12 dimensions. There is no place for it. So they either have to leave or be relocated. But most of them die. (3)

Violence, murder, war - none of these things could possibly exist in the higher realms. Only love does and the divine states it leads to.

Those who are wedded to the dark side of life will have to stay behind. As Matthew says, it's only physics.

"It can be no other way – simply, [because] this is the physics that governs life in this universe. As Earth continues apace into successively higher planes, nothing with low vibrations in any form – physical bodies, subversive plans, theft, dishonesty, unjust laws and imprisonment, bigotry, cruel customs and deeds – can survive." (4)

Darwin's struggle for survival in which only the fittest survive is not true in any dimension but some people are doing their best to make it look true ongoingly in their lives. And the Divine Mother will grant them their wish, just in another world.

Footnotes

(1) "The International Criminal Tribunal on Afghanistan accepted the term 'omnicide' to describe the outcome of war prosecuted with DU [depleted uranium] weapons. Dr. Rosalie Bertell defined the term:

“The concept of species annihilation means a relatively swift, deliberately induced end to history, culture, science, biological reproduction and memory. It is the ultimate human rejection of the gift of life, an act which requires a new word to describe it as omnicide.” (Internationally-renowned radiation expert Dr. Rosalie Bertell, quoted in judgement of Professor Ms Niloufer Bhagwat J, International Criminal Tribunal For Afghanistan at Tokyo, 13 March 2004, downloaded from https://www.traprockpeace.org/tokyo\_trial\_13march04.doc, 30 Aug. 2007.)

Just as the galactics have helped with the virus, so they also helped with depleted uranium, or, as Michael tells us, Gaia would have quit.

Steve Beckow: If the galactics had not neutralized depleted uranium, would this planet have died?

Archangel Michael: Yes. Now let me explain. It is not just that she would have died. It would have been that her will to continue on would not have been there.

SB: Wow, eh? That serious.

AAM: Yes, that serious. (Archangel Michael through Linda Dillon, personal reading for Steve Beckow, August 6, 2013, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2013/08/haarp-chemtrails-and-depleted-uranium-all-neutralized-or-gone/>.)

How Does It Feel to be Red-Pilled?

Cheryl has brought a video to my attention. The Canadian Centre for Constitutional Law released a leaked memo in April 2021, originating from the Prime Minister's Office.

The memo, itself from Oct. 2020, allegedly lays out the Canadian government's "road map" going forward to meet the Covid19 pandemic.

Folks, I found it chilling. Every detail of what has happened here in Canada is in there. And the future they propose?

They've taken parts of NESARA like debt relief and are calling it their own. Moreover, in exchange for debt relief, the individual forfeits all claims to ownership of any and all property and assets.

They're offering a universal basic income but then they're eliminating Canada pension, unemployment insurance and other benefits programs. UBI will be our one source of income - from a corrupt regime?

With no other benefits except one basic income and a corrupt government, won't it be easy to withdraw that from (say, unvaccinated) individuals and control us?

And we must be vaccinated - twice. Those that won't suffer an escalating variety of consequences.

Oh my gawd. Where is government that served the people?

(<https://hooktube.com/E0HB4BVQeBI>)

Now all manner of unconnected bits of information are tumbling out - the Picton farm, child trafficking in Vancouver, Satanism, missing native women, residential schools, the Highway of Tears, oh my heavens. Not Canada too.

Rocco goes into the role of the press in labelling the leak as fake news. It wasn't fake news.

Wasn't this all laid out in documents like the Rockefeller Lockstep 2010 Report (1) and the cabal's "Great Reset." (2)

Never mind an "emergency" response. This is the plan for Canada's part in mass extermination and world domination.

Pierre Trudeau was my hero. I was proud in those days to have shaken his hand. He represented bringing Canada into a very much better world. He gave us the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

I had heard from George Green that Pierre attended cabal parties. That shook me a bit.

But seeing how thoroughly the government of Justin Trudeau has succumbed to the deep state's playbook - seeing it in black and white - I am weeping at this moment. What am I to think?

Well, Ok. What does it feel like to be redpilled? We need to know, right? We're in the business of red-pilling others. So how does it feel?

I'm shocked. I'm dizzy. I don't know what to say next. I've just lost something I never thought I'd lose - a belief in the basic decency of the Canadian government, personalities aside, philosophies aside - basic decency.

Right now I'm in grief. I anticipate anger. I think I'm past denial.

I've had quite a few experiences now of my world falling apart and this is another of them. The Canadian government is actively engaged in the New World Order's "Great Reset" plan to take over the world.

Thank heavens I know how the play ends.

Thank heavens I know the deep state will fail.

I'm still weeping deeply.

I'm very sad for my country's leadership today. How low we have fallen. So this is how it feels to be red-pilled.

Matthew Ward on Virus, Vaccine, and 5G

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/12/21/matthew-ward-on-virus-vaccine-and-5g-2/>

In Spring 2021, Matthew Ward thoroughly reviewed the situation with the Covid vaccines and the 5G network. His treatment is perhaps the best available from our sources.

Of most concern to many of you is covid vaccines, so let us begin by addressing your questions and comments about them.

Vaccines cannot separate you from Source or prevent personal ascension, the evolvment in conscious and spiritual awareness that continues until the immortal soul returns to its Beginnings within the pure love essence of Creator Source.

What does affect that journey is the energy of thoughts, feelings and intentions. When those are fear, greed, brutality, betrayal, dishonesty or any other low-vibratory sensation or intent of an action, the energy generated decreases light within the body. Light is bodies' life force. It is what transforms carbon-based cells into the crystalline structure that strengthens immune systems and enables physical viability in the higher vibrations of fourth and fifth density planes where Earth is heading.

The society has been conditioned to believe vaccines prevent diseases. They don't — what they do is introduce diseases into individuals with weakened immunity, damage bodies' healing mechanisms, and cause autism-like symptoms in young children. Nevertheless, time and time again medical "experts" say Get him/her/ yourself vaccinated!

Thus, solutions containing the virus that was laboratory-designed to cause the influenza called covid-19, nanochips programmed to track and control individuals, and foreign tissue that can change bodies' DNA are claimed to be vaccines.

Medical establishment members who are urging everyone to get vaccinated don't mention it actually is an experimental gene therapy with potentially dire effects, that won't be apparent for a year or two or more, and manufacturers bear no liability whatsoever for death or other harmful reactions.

Crystalline cells don't interact with incompatible substances, and they leave via bodies' elimination systems. However, even though scientists in extraterrestrial special forces reduced potency of the virus and decreased viability of the genetic material, bodies with weakened immunity and/or carbon cellular structure have much less ability to resist foreign substances. That is why some persons die after being inoculated and others develop serious health issues or their existing conditions worsen.

Those scientists also erased the chips' programming, but it isn't the chips that cause death and medical problems. They are in the solution for a different sinister reason and the rapid rollout of 5G is part of it. By intent, the devices' emissions damage bodies' electrical systems, but it is the technology itself that is of more importance to those who conceived the idea to inject bodies with programmed nanochips.

Not only can they transmit to a designated source individuals' location, communication, purchases — almost nothing one does can be withheld — but they can send signals to the brain to perform whatever task is specified. We hasten to assure you none of that ever will come to pass because the programming was eliminated. The scientists also reduced 5G's emissions' impact on bodies.

The purpose of the virus itself and the substances in the solution is two-fold: decrease the population by billions and technologically control survivors and subsequent generations. The diabolical minds behind this crime against humanity failed to achieve the intended death toll, and they will fail in the other goal, too.

Light keeps intensifying throughout the planet and cells of people who are absorbing light are becoming crystalline, thereby gaining resistance capability, and many souls now incarnating came in with crystalline structure. Eventually all of Earth's peoples will be of that makeup.

Foreign substances injected into a body do not affect the soul. The soul is love-light energy, which is indestructible and impervious to issues that affect physical bodies. The etheric body—the “light body” in which a person transitions from physical lifetime to a spirit world—is affected because the two bodies are attached until death of the physical.

Each person's unique frequency relays notice of imminent transition and health condition to the record-keeping section of Nirvana. Individuals with damaged etheric bodies or traumatized psyches are met by a medical team at special portals where they receive immediate treatment and constant attendance until health in body and mind has been fully restored. Then they join the realm's other residents and embark upon an active life in Earth's glorious spirit world.

It is by intention that vastly bloated covid statistics and claims that only worldwide vaccinations can end the “pandemic” have been front and center of daily “news” throughout the past year. The individuals who planned and devised the “pandemic” control mainstream media, where information is fabricated, factual happenings are distorted or omitted, and fearful information is emphasized because they know fear weakens immune systems.

They control the Internet, where truthful information about all happenings is taken down as soon as it is discovered. They know how the universal law of attraction works, that thoughts and feelings about something bring back more of the same. They know nothing can last without energy to sustain it.

Energy is what everything is about, and attention focused on covid-related issues produces it in abundance. Fear about contracting the disease. Bitterness about forced separation from loved ones and grief about those who died. Stress about masks and depression about isolation. Anxiety about loss of income. Anger about closed businesses. Resentment about the proposal that authorization to travel and enter specific areas requires a “vaccination passport.”

Let us say a bit more about the passport. The concept came from the dark ones who caused the “pandemic” and profit handsomely from the sale of vaccines, but only governments can mandate the requirement. While it is possible that some may do that, in this moment the concept doesn’t have enough momentum to become probable; however, that can change abruptly if sufficient energy is directed into what now is only consideration.

The passport and other aforementioned situations are factual. Not everything related to the “pandemic” is, but they are gathering energy from your thoughts and feelings about them. Tests for covid containing fibers of morrellons disease is but a dark concoction to cause worrying [sic].

The baseless claim that people who have been vaccinated will “shed” the disease and infect people who haven’t been inoculated adds to the worrisome mix. Another of those claims is, the virus is mutating, vaccinated people aren’t protected from new strains, and waves of the disease could go on for years.

Some scientists now contend that covid did after all come from an infected bat. The implication is that humans have no way to prevent pandemics because they start by means that are uncontrollable. The coronavirus-19 is patented—how did a sick bat manage to do that?

Many people are rebelling by refusing to wear masks and not staying six feet away from everyone else, and the numbers who are vehemently denouncing “the shot” are growing. But millions are eager to get it. They are relieved and grateful when it is their turn, and with that comes the satisfying feeling of being a good citizen by fulfilling what they have been told is their “public safety responsibility.”

And last, if we knew when the truth about the “pandemic” will come forth and when it will meet its end, we would shout it with such exuberance that you might even hear us. What we can tell you is, the end is assured—rising vibrations will see to it.

Dear ones, the energy of the mind-boggling number of reactions, positive and negative, to everything related to the “pandemic” is what keeps it going. You are divine sovereign beings and need not be subservient to this heinously-contrived scourge.

Now that we have answered your questions about it, make it more quickly run out its course by switching your thoughts and feelings to what you do want for yourself, for persons dear to you and for your world. Visualizing Earth in golden-white light, remembering to breathe deeply, living from your heart, and asking for protection from all darkness also will add immeasurably to your wellbeing and the world's.

Far from There Being Any Shame in It, I Salute You

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/09/24/far-from-there-being-any-shame-in-it-i-salute-you/>

I hear some people talking as if they're afraid to say they oppose the vaccine.

I can appreciate why - they stand to lose their job. I understand that.

I realize that many if not most people will need to hold onto their jobs to support themselves and their families.

But thus has it always been with dictators. They threaten our livelihood, our safety, our freedom. And we cave in.

But those of us who are free to act (especially the retired) can't cave in this time. To do so would mean the death of millions if not more.

This is not a play. This is not a dress rehearsal. What was only considered "conspiracy theory" a year ago is playing out on our streets as we speak. Those who won't lead or follow in this situation are asked to stay out of the way.

Sooner or later, we're going to have to shift the conversation from being afraid and ashamed to say we're "vaccine hesitant" to being proud to say we're vaccine refusers. And prepared to suffer to maintain our freedom.

We know the vaccines have toxic elements in them, are designed to connect with 5G networks, spread throughout the body rather than being localized at the injection site, etc. We've heard Matthew Ward say:

"The purpose of the virus itself and the substances in the [vaccine] solution is two-fold: decrease the population by billions and technologically control survivors and subsequent generations. The diabolical minds behind this crime against humanity failed to achieve the intended death toll, and they will fail in the other goal, too." (1)

What more do we need to know to just say "no!"

It's important to hang on if we can because this won't go on forever. Meanwhile a vaccine injury could last a lifetime. Med beds may not be a cure because they copy the DNA, which may have been compromised. Other therapies are being investigated.

It's probable the galactics have some remedy. And the theater we're watching being played out won't go on a great deal longer before the whole play is closed down.

We need to band together in pods and see that every member of the group gets across the finish line.

Knowing what we know already, I say it's our duty to refuse the vaccine and something to be immensely proud of later on. We didn't agree to the deep state's depopulation agenda; we wouldn't allow something toxic into our bodies; we wouldn't consent to becoming our own executioner and paying for the privilege.

We knew the truth and we acted on it.

Far from there being any shame in it, I salute you.

Of the People, By the People, For the People: Moving from Divided to Decided

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/category/news/accountability/pandemics/page/5/>

Happy Fourth of July, America!

In 2013, I wrote that we were moving from being divided to being decided - and at no time has that ever seemed more accurate than today. (1)

In my view, the million-strong march(es) in London typifies this. I'm sure the people in the crowd differed on many questions but on wanting freedom for the world, they were united. They went from divided to decided.

They could also be said to have made a transition from "I" to "we" - from isolation and ineffectiveness to unity and collaboration.

The Sardine Movement in Italy that brought so many people together like sardines, unmasked, in protest of political corruption is another example. They went from divided to decided, from "I" to "we."

Once trust is re-established, at that moment we the people are irresistible. I say that for two reasons.

First, the energies are rising and affecting the dark as much as us. The honest among them will be feeling the awakening of love.

We're their kin. They never signed up to shoot us.

The dishonest will be embroiled in the very unpleasant feelings that arise in the clearing process. This will affect their judgment, patience, and perseverance.

They can count. They know when they're facing a tsunami of love. Their only concern is survival and, in their world, that goes to the fittest (translation: biggest). They'll face strong pressures to turn tail and run.

Second, we're banding together for principles so basic to a quiet and enjoyable life - peace and freedom - that no one can fail to respond to them at some level and feel dissonance if they ignore them.

As long as we remember that we have strength in love, peace, and numbers, not in weapons or force, I think our demonstrations will be effective.

This planet has been embroiled in conflict for millennia, most of it because of residual hatred and related issues.

In my view, we can't keep creating the wars of the future out of our self-righteousness and vengefulness today. For wars to stop, we have to stop hating and start loving.

At some point the creation of residue has to cease. Only peace leaves no residue.

At some point the bill in totality must be forgiven. Some generation has to put an end to the strife. We're saying to the nations of the world: Stop the feuding.

We need to switch to win/win processes of negotiation. The threat of force has to be absent from our deliberations.

Only in peace - local, national, and global - can growth and prosperity for all take root. And that growth and prosperity is waiting in the wings.

Only in peace can the restoration of trust occur and this planet return to a very new normal - in which all of its governments are of the people, by the people, for the people.

Not Our True Colors

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/05/23/not-our-true-colors/>

I don't think we have any idea how revealing this pandemic has been. On a global scale.

People trying to profit from it by scamming others. Nations busy backfilling and "designing" their message so as not to be found at fault. Propaganda flying from everyone.

Financial ties becoming manifest. Nations pulling the plug on other nations who don't comply.

No, these are not our true colors. These are all the results of vasanas or core issues, (1) in many cases on top of minds that have been MK-Altered or just altered by the media.

But their actions have to stop. The behavior that takes as its aim world domination or anyone's domination has to stop. And the person needs to demonstrate rehabilitation before being admitted back into the herd.

No false repentance and more harm visited. All of it ... has to stop.

The network that's being presently taken down is vast. It thought itself impervious - with a few notable exceptions. (2) As Q has said, they never thought she would lose.

They regarded themselves as Masters of the Universe. They had control of the world. They could do what they want. They would never be found out (think upside down crosses and Wilson's heads). And then the music stopped.

Not like they didn't allow some secrets to leak out, such as through sources like George Green and Phil Schneider (until they killed him). But we didn't believe them, as they expected.

I didn't believe them. Or I couldn't see any way I could make a difference and became resigned.

But through all these years, as the President says, the Storm has been gathering off the radar. And now it's breaking.

I'm told it's taken so long because everything has had to be done legally. I'm confident in the way it's being handled. I'm not as confident in the outcome.

If we execute convicts, for instance, we'll simply perpetuate an old, unworkable paradigm.

We can't cure inhumane behavior with more inhumane behavior. That simply generates more resentment and the cycle continues.

The only way to break it is with fairness and loving-kindness. It costs more; it carries more risk; but it has the potential to cure.

Sooner or later we'll have to start taking the long view into consideration. We're eternal beings. The cabal are also eternal beings. (3)

Killing them does nothing to solve the problem long term.

They go on their post-execution way thinking of nothing but revenge. This is our race to the bottom that I mentioned in an earlier post. (4)

Rehabilitation is what's needed and I have no understanding of that field. But it is what's needed, in my opinion.

We need to discover its principles, apply them to this situation, and reverse the direction we've been going in. That resulted in the prison industrial complex, one outstanding result of our race to the bottom.

There's work for us to do as a world. If our leaders won't initiate it, then we should.

What work? Well, in my personal estimation ...

- We need to plan out our recovery from this.
- We need to help free the world from the makers and spreaders of viruses and toxic vaccines. Just as we shut down HAARP, we need to shut down the malicious aspects of Big Pharma, Big Agra, MSM, etc., that support the outbreak of pandemics.
- We need to support the work, in any peaceful way we can, of the Alliance, the white hats in the military and other agencies whom I'm led to believe are taking down the corrupt power structures worldwide, as we speak.

That's my order paper. What's your advice?

(2) The existence of Russian Sunburn missiles, for instance, which could take out any aircraft carrier in existence, so sophisticated was it. Why are we still pretending our fleet is invincible?

The use of depleted uranium, which would have poisoned the entire Earth, the cabal included. The discovery of trojans in all military Motherboards made overseas designed to shut a machine down if it went into operational (war) status. The boards were found in trucks, guns, radar, etc.

The revealing of the B52 in-transit with an outboard nuclear missile, discovered at Barksdale AFB. Bound for the Middle East. The missile was prevented from getting there, but key witnesses were killed.

Missile silos rendered inoperable. Missiles intercepted in mid-flight. Need I go on?

(3) If we can look at the bigger picture for a moment, we're all of us here to carry out the same mission: To realize who we are so that God can meet God in a moment of our enlightenment. This is an eternal journey for all of us, the cabal included. They have truly lost their way. The job of some of us - those skilled in rehabilitation - is to help them find it again.

Matthew's Message via Suzy Ward, July 19, 2015

<https://www.matthewbooks.com/july-19-2015/>

With loving greetings from all souls at this station, this is Matthew. Many of your analysts think that the Greek people's resounding "No" on the recent referendum put their country on the road to irreversible economic ruin. The country will manage. "No" put the Illuminati on the road to irreversible economic ruin.

Going back a long, long ways, bartering worked splendidly in communities, but the expanding borders of commerce required a different means of exchange; and with the introduction of coinage, money became the axis on which your world turned. The forerunners of the Illuminati and later that group itself controlled the turning by devising taxation, banking and lending systems; and, as centuries passed, "numbered" bank accounts, stock markets, Federal Reserve System, International Monetary Fund, regulating agencies and credit cards with usurious interest rates. Everything they established was specifically designed to add to their fortunes, tighten their economic control over the peoples, and increase their influence within national governments.

The Illuminati began as a cohesive group of like-minded individuals whose objective was world domination. As time went by, egos grew and tempers flared, and eventually two competitive factions with that same goal emerged. Later, the Rothschilds and their adherents, who operate out of London and the Vatican, came up with a plan to solidify their control throughout Europe—the European Union, European Central Bank and euro currency. Let us borrow your expression, "How's that working for you?" There is no bandage large enough to patch the crack the Greek vote made in the Rothschild network. The crack will spread like a spider web around the world and into it will fall the Rockefeller faction headquartered in Washington, DC, and on Wall Street.

As if that isn't enough for both factions to deal with—and Pope Francis' goodness and wisdom keeps upsetting their apple cart—now there's the agreement between negotiators from several major nations and Iran's leaders that their country will not pursue development of a nuclear weapon. It is no surprise that Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu, a top-ranking Illuminati, denounced the agreement or that Illuminati in the United States Congress and members whose election campaigns were funded by that group are opposing President Obama's efforts to get congressional approval. They want to invade Iran and, along with taking over that country's oil, reap the riches that come from producing the machinery of war.

The vibrations of intensifying light that led to those reversals for the Illuminati will keep increasing as the planet continues on its ascension course. If we could tell you when their total undoing will be, we would do so joyously; but activity in Earth's energy field of potential indicates that their inevitable demise will come in stages, not one fell swoop. They still have some power, dwindling though it is, in their “black ops” branch of the CIA; other intelligence sources, including Mossad; high-ranking personnel in some military forces; leverage within mainstream media and some governments; and huge caches of monies to initiate or exacerbate uprisings, fund the Islam State, and pay their minions to hack computer systems, oversee the street drug trade, fill your skies with chemtrails, deny pollution's contribution to climate change, or disseminate false information on the Internet.

While a few within the higher ranks of both Illuminati factions are talking with principals in reform movements, the hardliners are talking about joining forces; some have abandoned their fast-sinking ship, died of natural causes or by their own hand, or been arrested. You would recognize some names, most you would not, and it is unlikely that any of the Illuminati will be identified as such in mainstream news reports.

Upheavals will keep popping up as the ages-old light vs dark battle for Earth's civilization at last is nearing its end. You have waited a long time to see the light triumph as predestined, and you can welcome the bumpy ride through the last phases. However, most of the populace don't know about that long conflict or that everything transpiring and what is ahead is about planetary and personal ascension out of millennia of dark bondage.

Many people are fearful or angry, and with each new bump, others will have the same reactions. Your calmness, yet excitement, and explaining to the extent individuals are receptive can encourage them to have an optimistic outlook. But please do not be disheartened if family and friends don't respond positively—they will waken in their own times of readiness.

And, we ask that you keep foremost in your thoughts that every person in your world is a part of God, by whatever name the Supreme Being in this universe is called. Every person is inextricably connected at soul level with all others, and God's love for each and every one is unconditional. Seeing "offenders" through God's eyes doesn't mean wanting them to forego justice by your world's standards—already this has come to some and shall befall others. What it does mean is, you will uplift yourselves and your world by envisioning those individuals within the light rather than focusing on their punishment. The impartial, nonjudgmental and unavoidable laws of the universe will serve them justice in a spirit world according to their lifetime deeds.

LOVE and PEACE

Battle of Memes in a War of Words

October 11, 2019

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/10/11/battle-of-memes-in-a-war-of-words/>

What a crazy situation we're in.

Political debate has descended into name-calling.

People are inventing memes as fast as they can so that what used to be fairly-distinguishable positions now mean whatever you want them to.

What do "right" and "left" signify any more? Anything you want, right?

And what happened to the "center"? Well, I tell you, that'd be my position if I thought taking one would work.

Michael assesses the situation:

"Humans (and now I speak for the collective again) have lost the sense of prudence, of balance. It is extremes, extremes in behaviour, extremes in emotionality, extremes in belief systems...

"Bring them back to the centre." (1)

Back to balance, moderation, groundedness, calmness, stillness.

Memes are fine to rally people. But they also trivialize political debate. They're not new. "Give me liberty or give me death" is a meme. They have their pros and cons.

Meanwhile, in the world outside the Internet right now, there seem to be issues piled on issues and complexity piled on complexity.

Here's one case in point to illustrate the complexity: Greta Thunberg. Yes, I admire her. And yet some folks represent her as being influenced by Soros et al. Do I know if she's influenced by Soros? Michael says she's not. (2)

More complexity: Do I believe in the view of climate change that Greta holds? No, I don't. You know that I accept the galactic view that the climate is in fact being brought to a globally-temperate state. (3)

But I admire her willingness to spark a global movement. At sixteen? Heavens, at sixteen, I was smoking my lungs out and looking cool.

But let's not stop with Greta. Let's add another layer of complexity to reporting climate change as an issue.

Some people whose point of view I share, who are quite well known to lightworkers, use ad hominem arguments (personal attacks), memes, proof by repetition, bias, etc., as their argumentation - shaming and blaming their subjects.

I won't use non-credible articles like these as evidence despite the stature of the author in the lightworker community. So even research from my colleagues is sometimes unusable for - in a word - bias.

So now what?

How do I make sense of this maze of issues, that just keeps on growing in complexity?

Folks, I tell you now, I'm not going to try. Michael once told me:

Archangel Michael: You have stood at the edge of the fray and you have inserted not only rationality but a sense of balance and of light and of peace. So for this I commend you.

Steve: But go no further, right?

AAM: Yes. Because this has the energy of quicksand. It will suck you dry.
(4)

I totally know he's right. Suck us dry. That's why I never chose to look into this area in any depth. The closest I came to it was reading How to Succeed in Office Politics when I was a young office employee.

Taking a side (pro-Trump, anti-Trump, pro-Greta, anti-Greta, pro-Dems, anti-Dems) immediately lowers one's consciousness under the weight of duality and the density it brings.

The Divine Mother has asked us to "build what is divinely beautiful. I give you my divine authority to do so." (5) I'm convinced that if we build what is divinely beautiful, the recalcitrants will come. (6) Sanat Kumara gave this advice:

"Do not engage in the mayhem and chaos. Do not bother any more trying to convince the recalcitrants. Make your side of the fence, as it were, your pathway so attractive, so beautiful and easy that everybody wants to go there; the same way as it once happened that everybody wanted to go to Venus." (7)

On top of that, I get joy out of building the new. I very much honor those, like Greta, who are playing a much-needed global-activist role amid all the chaos. When the work of rejuvenating Mother Earth begins, I fully expect to see Greta in the vanguard.

So I'll be over here, taking note of major events and trends. But otherwise I'll be quietly continuing to lay the groundwork for a cross-cultural spirituality, exploring what we might do after the Reval to build Nova Earth, tracking the delegations, and explaining what's happening right now in individual and collective consciousness.

Resisting the Old World Order or Building Nova Earth?

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2018/05/23/resisting-the-old-world-order-or-building-nova-earth/>

I've recovered from my recent yearly TV Fest while away from home.

I had to keep my brain in a bottle of sudsy water for three days afterwards, but it seems to be working again.

It's far, far more than the brainwashing that goes on on TV today that really disinfected me. It's a basic commitment to building Nova Earth.

We lightworkers know that we'll have little success trying to change the minds of the dark actors. We've been advised not to go that route. ...

I'm interested in building the new, rather than proselytizing the old. (1)

What does it look like for me to build the new? Perhaps that may help you consider your own role.

I'm like an architect. I design things in my head.

I'm paid to be a dreamer. I have other roles as well - reporting the truth, explaining strange events to newcomers, managing a group of companies, etc. But I'm mainly paid to dream.

As it turns out, there's a committee of five on the other side tasked to keep me in dreams. And I never feel short of them - these days. I did years ago.

I am dreaming of: A global (cross-cultural) spirituality; joyful listening; heartfelt sharing; basic universal incomes for several countries; gender equality on the planet; an end to war.

The sign outside the door reads, "Dream Dept." Let's pretend that that's the only department in a very large building in a City of Light and you're about to add the second department. What would it be?

Nova Earth needs everything and everyone. Name your department and claim it. Start building it. Get in on the ground floor, pun intended.

So, no, I have no more interest in being force-fed commercials, with a chaser of content. But I do have great and lasting interest in building Nova Earth. Let me use my time for that.

(1) Sure enough, as soon as I finished this article, I returned to work on the dictionary. And what quote came up?

"We would strongly advise you to ... back away from the chaos and the drama. Do not be an active participant. It can only distract you.

"This is massive distraction and so many are engaging in the blame-fault-shame-guilt game and that is of the old third.

"If there is a conspiracy, and there are many, the greatest conspiracy is to have the human race re-engage, re-energize the old false paradigms of the old third of which fault and blame and shame and guilt are primary." # Will the Economy Collapse?

Jan. 31, 2015

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/01/31/will-economy-collapse/>

Credit: Veterans Today

Illuminati structures are falling all over the planet and no statistic tells the story in sharper detail than the deaths that are occurring in key cabal areas.

The Illuminati appear to be taking down anyone who could do further damage to them. The number of bankers and scientists who've died in the recent past (going on statistics from, mid-2013 in the case of bankers; from 2014 in the case of scientists) seems to tell the story.

Approximately 65 bankers have died in suspicious circumstances since that time, from being rammed by cars while riding a bicycle, to hearts suddenly stopping, (1) to leaping - or being pushed - from buildings. (2)

One banker is said to have "died from seven or eight self-inflicted wounds from a nail gun fired into his torso and head." (3)

I don't know about you, but if I received one wound in my finger from a nail gun, I'd be totally incapacitated. I'm not sure how a person could shoot seven or eight nails into his torso and then his head. But these reports are published without comment or question.

Approximately 74 scientists have died in the past two years. (4) Some have been tropical disease experts (AIDS, Ebola); others working on high-security projects; others working on space-related projects. Some have been people who began to suspect that they were working on black projects and tried to withdraw, only to be killed.

We know that many pandemics (AIDS, Ebola, SARS, swine flu, avian flu, etc.) were created by the black ops folks at Fort Detrick. (5) Are these deaths an attempt to prevent whistle-blowing or hide past sins?

Many commentators look at the chaos and turmoil that's occurring and predict the complete collapse of society or the economy. Here's an example: Jim Rickerts claiming to speak with the sanction of every national-security agency in the U.S. Put your shields up before watching.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9lcNrJVlgb8>

Is our society or the economy going to collapse? The answer, according to our sources, is no.

A distinction must be made between the collapse of the Illuminati structures and the collapse of social and economic structures generally. Jesus said last summer that "the final wars and conflicts [will] enter into a phase of self-destructive collapse or melt-down from which [the cabal] will not recover." (6) We're in that phase now, but it doesn't mean that everything will fall.

To the largest extent, institutions will be reformed, as Archangel Michael discusses here:

"I am not speaking of the collapse of financial systems, which would cause panic and disarray. But what we are talking about is reorganization.

"Now, usually reorganization is a bureaucratic term for shuffling the deck with the same cards. That is not what I am referring to. We are talking about reorganization of financial systems — political financial systems, bureaucratic financial systems, global financial systems — that are becoming more congruent with the divine qualities of equity, of fairness, of ethical behavior, of charity, of prudence, and of becoming." (7)

Matthew Ward explained that the foundations of the new economy are already laid under the foundations of the old.

"The global economy, which is a product of smoke and mirrors, to use your term, is irreparable. The foundation of the new system has been slid under the old so that when its collapse comes, the new foundation will be well established. That will enable the transition from the old system to the new to come about without the dam breaking." (8)

He reassured us that those who'll direct the new economy are ready to take the helm.

"The teeter-tottering of the international economy cannot be sustained much longer, nor can the history of its control by the Illuminati's illegal manipulations remain hidden much longer. They are using obscure legal processes to hold onto their ill-gotten fortunes. Thus we cannot tell you when the economic collapse will come.

"However, the time cannot be far off because many nations are bankrupt or on the verge, and their leaders and economists know that there is no financial backing for the daily computer transactions in the trillions of dollars and other currencies.

"When the collapse does come, welcome it in the knowledge that those who will direct the new system are at the ready and during the transition will keep financial disruptions to a minimum. You can lessen the anxiety of those around you by remaining positive, and you can do that confidently, knowing that Earth's Golden Age is right around the corner." (9)

SaLuSa offered a similar picture.

"Already the foundations are in place for a quick change, where your financial systems are concerned. Our allies in many countries are agreed on a plan for a metals-backed currency, and the end of the paper currency that has led you into bankruptcy." (10)

At the end of 2012, he said:

"Your present government, along with others largely in your Western World, are near to being replaced and it is an important move that will enable so many other things to go forward. They cannot handle the present crisis brought about by the collapse of a number of banks, and the corrupt systems used by them to bolster their own profits through false trading

"The answers are already known to us, and the new ways are prepared and ready for implementation at very short notice." (11)

And finally Saul encouraged us not to feel despondent at the changes that are occurring.

"Do not become upset as the markets flounder and then founder, as this will only be a temporary destabilization which is a necessary precursor to the establishment of the new worldwide monetary and financial system. The new system will enable the distortions and errors — which the inadequacies of your present system allowed and encouraged — to be set to rights. Then, true global cooperation of a completely harmonious nature, and that is good for all and good for the planet, will be possible and will come into operation.

"As economic stability returns, safety valves will be installed to ensure that the liquidity of the financial system can no longer be threatened or drained away by unseen or unexpected leaks." (12)

So the fall of the Illuminati economy has been planned and is being carried out. But that doesn't mean the fall of the international economy generally. The foundations of the new economy have been laid and its leaders are ready to take charge quickly and ease the new economy into operation. The new economy will solve the problems that have plagued us for so many decades and reverse the trend of concentrating money in ever fewer hands.

⌘ No Mass Executions! ⌘

This is My World; Massacring Prisoners is not OK with Me

Unposted.

I'm weeping and I don't even know why I'm weeping.

I look.

I'm weeping at my own apparent powerlessness to stop a massacre which, if I can't stop it, could ultimately rival the Holocaust.

If, as has been alleged by a source that wishes to think themselves credible, "Nuremberg 2 Tribunals are in full swing: 2,700,000 executions have already been carried out," then we'll have committed a terrible error.

The Nazis killed more than 3 million Soviet POWs in the winter of 1941-42 by starving them to death. If our commentator is correct, we're at 2.7 and climbing. Eagerly, it seems. Who are we modelling ourselves after? Not George Washington or Abraham Lincoln.

No war has been declared. No bombs were dropped. This massacre happened one by one.

But we are civilized. We gave them the choice of how they exit.

Is that what we're truly saying? Is it true?

What am I to say? Congratulations on ... what? One of the biggest legal massacres by a lawfully-constituted government arm in human history?

What a way to leave Third Dimensionality. What a way to begin a Golden Age.

I'm not trying to insult or stigmatize anyone. I just want the killing to stop.

This is my world. Killing millions of our enemy is not OK with me. It's not what I want to see. Shoot me too, why don't you? I wouldn't want to live in such a world.

We've made a grievous error. That's one thing to deal with. Now let's stop compounding it. That's a separate matter.

Stop the killing. Another way must be found going forward that does not involve execution.

What Happens to Evil-Doers on the Other Side?

Philip Gilbert, killed during WW2

In one of the emails I'm receiving, the reader is infuriated.

"I've read both your recent articles on this subject. I find them infuriating. I'm just glad you are not making any decisions for humanity. You should keep these ridiculous opinions to yourself. It's difficult to find this website credible when you spout such nonsense. ...

"Death to the cabal is merely slight justice for the incomprehensible crimes they have committed against humanity. Anything less is no justice at all."

Your email suggests that you've been actively fighting the cabal and I honor your military service.

I get your fury. I agree that the cabal's crimes have been incomprehensibly evil - and I don't use that word often. They "deserve" to be executed.

How many executions are being touted? I'm not saying where this quote comes from because I'm not wanting to shame anyone. It's the view I'd like to discuss.

"Nuremberg 2 Tribunals are in full swing: 2,700,000 executions have already been carried out." (1)

That's 2.7 million executions before you even heard they were happening, correct? I don't accept the statement as accurate but it's the cheeriness of the announcement of 2.7 million deaths that sends a chill up my spine.

Hitler fought a war of annihilation, but that's not our way. We don't annihilate our enemies. Do we?

What are we overlooking?

***

First of all, the energies are rising so that many of Team Dark will soon die of their inability to tolerate the higher vibrations. Mike Quinsey says today:

"The dark Ones cannot survive in such a high level as their vibrations are too low, and, if they tried, they would find it very uncomfortable." (2)

Secondly, I wonder if we're worried that the cabal will escape justice or get away with something if we don't execute them? However, the truth is, by the outworking of universal laws, no one gets away with anything on the other side.

What awaits the cabal's high-level members? Perhaps read about where they'll go - the Dark Plane - here: "The Astral Plane - The Dark Plane" at http://goldengaiadb.com/index.php?title=The\_Astral\_Plane\_%E2%80%93\_The\_Dark\_Plane.

Any life lived on the Dark Plane is miserable. The inhabitant must endlessly relive each dark event, experiencing the feelings of their victims as well as their own.

The place itself is undesirable in every way. The souls are ministered to and helped to progress out of this pit.

I once asked Michael about Hitler and I'll put that conversation in a footnote. (3)

***

For those who are absolutely evil and intransigent and have been given ample opportunity to pull back, there's a fate we'd think of as ultimate: A return to the First Dimension.

That means starting all over again from the bottom of the evolutionary ladder, which ultimately leads back to God for everyone, even the evil.

Do we have an account of it happening to anyone? Yes, we do. Philip Gilbert, who was to me on the afterworld what Matthew Ward is on this world (a credible informant, an honest witness to the truth), described his assignment to "cope" with "the Belsen gang."

The Belsen gang were Nazi SS officers who ran Bergen-Belsen concentration camp, deemed one of the worst of the Nazi death camps. Camp guard Irma Grese, formerly a black magician, was sent back from her Earth life to the First Dimension to start over again.

"We coped with the Belsen gang, but the details are difficult to describe. With some, [escorting them to their levels] was easy for they were cowards and perverts and made no positive attempt to assert themselves. They all, of course, knew they were dead.

"The most evil, Irma, was absorbed at once into what is her kind, a descending whirlpool of, as it might be called, sewage. They tell me that there are, very, very rarely, entities who get so low that they can only descend - and be liquidated. We don't like to think of it here.

"She had a strong will and there was need to exert power upon her - her aura was the foulest I've yet seen, or smelt....

"Irma was an 'old soul' in the bad sense - she had been forced to re-incarnate as a last chance." (4)

Complete annihilation would be what I'd call merciless. But the soul is never annihilated. It's always allowed to start over.

We can be assured that Heaven has educational opportunities aplenty for the cabal, when they transition. They won't be coming with us whenever the separation takes place. The problem will be taken care of regardless of what we do or don't do and probably in the near future.

Therefore, there's no reason for sullyng our entrance into the Golden Age by executing "millions" of our "enemies." I see no justification for it and cannot live with the idea of such an action.

(1) "Nuremberg 2 Tribunals are in full swing: 2,700,000 executions have already been carried out." I don't believe the figures but the very idea raises alarm bells.

I notice the sentence has now been deleted from the post - after I took a screenshot.

And Matthew Ward:

"By the laws of physics that govern life in this universe, the low vibrations of darkness cannot enter the high vibratory levels of fourth density. Because individuals who persistently refused the light have carbon-based cells that can't survive in high vibrations, they will die and their dark activities will cease." (Matthew's Message, April 1, 2012.)

(3) Steve: What happened to Hitler after his death, Lord?

Archangel Michael: Well, he was brought back home, if you can think of it in that way. He spent a long time in review, deeper levels of understanding, might we suggest, what we would call reintegration?

It was a very sad situation and there was a great deal of repair work, I guess you would say, to be done and so this one has been contained [in a bubble of love] for a very long time. Well, a long time in your reference point, not a long time in terms of our reference point.

Steve: No, I've heard of people supposedly being down there [on the Dark Plane] for 250 years.

AAM: That is not unusual.

Steve: For him, we've only had about 70 years or so since....

AAM: So he is still in process.

Steve: Kathleen thought he was reincarnated.

AAM: No, he is not. No, there is much further yet to go. (Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, Jan. 20, 2017.)

We could learn from Michael's attitude. Notice that Hitler ended up on the Dark Plane while a concentration-camp guard ended up in the First Dimension. I'd have expected the reverse.

On Irma Grese:

"Irma Grese, The Angel of Death"

"Irma was captivated by Hitler and joined a Nazi youth group. She was later sent to Ravensbruck which was used to train female SS guards. Here she became a camp guard. She was then transferred to Auschwitz where in 1943 she became the senior SS-supervisor which is the second-highest rank a female camp guard could have. In this position she had virtually complete control of over 30,000 female prisoners. Many survivors provide extensive accounts of the murders, beatings, and tortures that Irma engaged in. She was known for her arbitrary shooting of prisoners, sexual excesses, cruelty and her unrelenting half starved dogs that she would unleash on the prisoners. She was thought to be held accountable for nearly 30 murders a day. Many survivors remember her being dressed in heavy boots and carrying a plaited whip and pistol to beat her prisoners, often to the point of death. These atrocities continued in the Bergen-Belsen camp where she was transferred in 1945.... When Bergen-Belsen was liberated, there were three human lampshades found in her quarters.

"After the camp commandant Josef Kramer, Irma Grese became the most notorious defendant at the Belsen trial. Irma's only defense during the trial was that 'Himmler is responsible for all that has happened but I suppose I have as much guilt as the others above me.' Irma was sentenced to death and was hanged on December 13th, 1945." (Downloaded from <http://www.history.ucsb.edu/faculty/marcuse/classes/33d/projects/naziwomen/irma.htm>, 15 Jan. 2008.)

What's the Plan Here?

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/08/22/whats-the-plan-here-part-1-2/>

The Allies at Yalta

At the Yalta conference in World War II, when President Franklin Roosevelt had only a short time to live, Russian Premier Josef Stalin joked that, at the end of the war, 50,000 Germans must be shot.

British Prime Minister Winston Churchill shot a glance at him. Stalin repeated himself.

Churchill rose to his feet and exclaimed:

“I would rather be taken out into the garden here and now, and be shot myself, than sully my own and my country’s honor with such infamy!”

Roosevelt, who wanted to placate Stalin, from whom he was trying to extract a promise to join the war against Japan, joked that, yes, it should be only 49,000. Churchill stormed out of the room.

I'm not the only one flabbergasted by what I hear. I've been sitting back and saying to myself, the military have the situation completely in hand. Trust Q. Trust the Plan.

What is the plan? Executing Harrison Ford, Jennifer Anniston, Demi Moore, Bruce Willis, etc.? Is that the plan? And yet documents circulate with long lists of the supposedly dead.

What will a generation do and say when it wakes up to the orgy of bloodshed just engaged in.

What will that make us?

I draw the line here. Like Churchill, I'd rather be taken out into the garden here and now, and be shot myself, than sully my own and my country's honor with such infamy.

Protesting against the people I support is the last thing I want to be doing. But it feels like something I must do. For my own honor.

Killing our enemies en masse is not part of democracy's way of handling its foes or its problems. We don't bury our mistakes, do we? President Kennedy said that's what the cabal does, not us.

Killing our enemies is a statement of our own bankruptcy in terms of rehabilitation. We don't know how to work with people so evil and so we kill them.

What's the difference between us and them at that point? We're a little more polite about it. We hear them out before we pronounce sentence. But they're dead just the same.

- I believe we're emphasizing dispatch in these proceedings - getting them done quickly. That risks perverting justice.
- How can we be so sure that our sentences in all cases are just? We are after all doing something final, something that cannot be undone - we're killing someone. Why the rush?
- A judicial proceeding has safeguards to protect against a perversion of justice. The right of appeal is one of them. We seem to be dispensing with safeguards.

We're losing sight of the long view. We're acting like empirical materialists, who see only this physical life, failing to see that life has eternal continuity and a larger purpose. (1)

Jesus knew that and, because he did, he didn't say kill your enemies. If you were living in his times, he'd be standing between you, with your swords drawn, and these condemned prisoners. That is not the way.

Yes, they're guilty. Yes, they did heinous, heinous things. But life in prison, where they can ponder their crimes, is enough.

It represents our failing as a people that we must exterminate our enemies, that there is no other way to handle this than killing, that we have no conception of rehabilitation.

George H.W. Bush once joked to his secretary that, when we find out what the cabal has done, we'll lynch them from the nearest lamppost. We all laughed. We wouldn't do such a thing. But evidently he was right.

Human history is a history of war. War is the business of killing. Human history is the history of killing. Haven't we had enough?

What's at Stake Here?

Aug. 23, 2021

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/08/23/whats-at-stake-here/>

Let me go over for readers of the blog what I believe is at stake if we are, as the news report say, executing numerous members of the cabal. (1)

If we (not the cabal) become vengeful and get behind mass executions, what's at stake is our ability to contact, connect with, and claim as our own the divine states of love, bliss, and ecstasy.

Vengefulness is a vibration that's low and dense. We become defensive and solid.

Our awareness plummets and our morals go out the window. We say "We did what we had to do." "We followed orders." (2)

The vengeful person will have made their consciousness too dense to be able to detect and enter into the vibratory regions we call the higher dimensions.

I know this because I watch my own movements in and out of the various divine states. I'm not in a place to enter them when I'm angry and hostile. There's nothing divine about anger and hostility. They compete with love; they prevent a still mind.

Sadly, the people who fan these feelings within themselves are writing themselves out of the play.

People used to chide me about being a global policeman. I'd wade in wherever there was a crime or a fight. It's been a long walk back from aggressiveness and hostility.

But I know now what I stand to lose. Do I want to trade the divine states for getting even? For taking revenge? For "giving it" to them? No, I don't. And neither would any sane person who's spent time in them.

If we sentence large numbers of people to death as is being rumored and reported, we become the perpetrators. That is not how this was supposed to turn out.

I urge us all to express our opposition to mass executions and to demand a return to the ways of justice, foresight, and compassion.

The Killing Needs to Stop with Us

Aug. 19, 2021

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/08/19/the-killing-needs-to-stop-with-us/>

My email is running heavily in favor of executing the cabal. I'm dismayed.

Are you aware of how many executions that could be?

The mountain of skulls might outdo Tamurlaine.

This, in my eyes, is a monumentally important question and so I'd like to spend some time on it, if you'd permit me. And I'll leave the article up overnight.

(1) Replicating the methods of the cabal?

First of all, why are we replicating Tamurlaine's methods? The cabal's methods? Trading the Clinton Body Count for our own body count?

Tamurlaine's killings were sanctioned by the state (Tamurlaine was the state). Even the cabal's were. Our killings are sanctioned by what we recognize as the state. Everyone is right in their own eyes.

Does that somehow protect any of us from the voice of our own conscience? No, it doesn't.

What kind of a tribute will our "mountain of skulls" be? To our bloodthirstiness? Vengefulness? Sanctimoniousness? Meanness of spirit?

I recognize that people want accountability but executions are not the way to go.

(2) Jesus did not say kill your enemies

Jesus did not say kill your enemies. He said to love them. And why did he say that? Because he knew that life goes on and everyone eventually returns to God.

I submit that, knowing that, he took the longer view. If I kill this person, they'll be ejected onto the dark planes with one more grievance. Have I helped to create a new Hitler? Added to the likelihood of a new war somewhere, some day?

If things weren't this way, why wouldn't Jesus have said, kill your enemies. Hate those who abuse you. But he never did.

In my view, a second reason he asked us to love them was because love calls a response forth from whatever light there may be in them and it begins to grow. What will defeat their ghastly behavior is the growth of that lovelight within them. That is our "weapon."

(3) Every war has justified itself on the basis of the latest grievance or link, ignoring the chain

Every war has justified itself on the basis of the latest grievance, ignoring the chain of events before the last link. Someone has to stop the chain of grievances. Someone has to be willing to take the slings and arrows of outrageous fate for doing so ... but have the killing stop.

(4) Killing under these circumstances, by going against the higher values, closes the door of our heart

Does killing (except in medical circumstances or self-defense, etc.) close the door of our heart and shut us out from the experience of love, bliss, and ecstasy? I think it would. It certainly would me.

That's just my opinion. But I think it would tie up our minds in confusion and doubt with attacks of conscience for years and prevent a quiet mind and therefore the experience of the higher states.

If I'm wrong ... we'll find out. We'll either create a Golden Age or a lost generation.

(5) I refuse to become a killer

I refuse to become a killer, unless in self-defense or a few other circumstances. (1) I'm not helping to build a new cabal. I'm helping to build a New Earth. And killing others is not a feature of it, except in very constrained circumstances.

(6) Killing needs to stop

People, what generation is willing to take the stand that the killing stops with them?

There must be a generation who say I'm tired of this. I put my grievances aside and decide for peace.

They refuse to go one more round on the carousel of death.

I say that generation is us.

I'm not just speaking of killing the cabal. I'm speaking of the Middle East. I'm speaking of the United States. I'm speaking of China. I'm speaking of the world.

Will you join me in the resolve to stop the bloodshed? For heavens sake, for our sake, for the sake of our children, let's stop the killing.

We stand on the threshold of a new Golden Age and killing will not be a feature of it.

We Need to Commit Ourselves to Stop the Killing

Unposted

I feel myself being drawn to restate what I consider to be the purpose of life in view of our recent discussions.

Readers of this blog are familiar with the vision I had on February 13, 1987, in which I was shown that the purpose of life is enlightenment. (1)

If I can speak metaphorically, we were born from God unconscious of our parentage, our identity.

We spend lifetimes in matter (mater, Mother) learning who we are until we re-unite with God: From God we came, to God we return.

Taking the widest possible view, planets were created for life forms to inhabit; dimensions and cycles all created to move sentient beings along an arc, first away from God out into the world and then away from the world to God again, as our self-knowledge grows.

Focusing right in on us as individuals, we live many lives, learning, learning, learning. An ineluctable, sub-tidal thirst for God - a longing for liberation, as Shankara calls it - keeps us moving back towards God.

On the Third Dimension, the physical plane, we evolve through the feedback mechanism of the universal laws. Gradually we begin to stop killing each other; then to work together; then to serve, etc.

The physical plane is the great school. Here we have needs that we don't have on the higher planes - hunger, thirst, fatigue, and so on. These force us to cooperate with each other.

This is not the case in the higher dimensions where thought creates what we want ... and we have no real needs. Learning is much faster on this plane because of the challenging conditions.

People being born here have soul designs and soul contracts. But the outcome of all of it is to increase our ability to love and the extent to which we do love.

Turning now to the rumors of executions, in this case, both the executioner and the executed are impacted by the act.

The executed leave this plane feeling victimized - like Hitler after World War I. They now see themselves as needing to seek vengeance. I suspect that we may actually extend their criminality into the future by executing them. (2)

The executioner is coarsened by the act and the subsequent attacks of conscience. Dimensional doors close for the coarsened. It's simply physics.

We on this planet need to stop killing each other (period). It isn't just in this case. It's the entire willingness to kill each other that has to go.

Sooner or later we need to commit ourselves to stop the killing. And what better time than now?

It's not our way to become a death factory, no matter what the provocation. Otherwise, what are we fighting for?

I'm not trying to be holier than thou. I'm trying to stop us from doing something we'll later more than regret; we'll feel ashamed.

I await clarification of whether this single statement, which I see has now been dropped from the publication, is true. I sincerely hope it isn't.

I hope I find that the military are not engaging in what amounts to mass executions.

(2) Of course we could say that we're ascending and they won't be so we won't be troubled by them soon. That's just kicking the can down the road for someone else to clean up.

Us stopping the killing is for our wellbeing, not for anyone else's (although they may benefit as well).

Time to Look Again at the Postulates of a New Society

Aug. 24, 2021

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/08/24/325546/>

Until now I've been assuming that the white hats had all things in hand.

Now I have to acknowledge that a doubt has entered my mind, hearing a rumor that millions of executions have taken place and reading the alleged accounts of tribunals at Guantanamo.

I'm bothered by reports of the tribunals which, if the things said were uttered in my refugee hearing room, they'd have led the federal courts to throw out my decision on a presumption of bias.

The way the accused are being addressed, the insults tossed at them, the prosecutor appearing to also act as the judge, the basing of an execution order on whether the accused had kept a promise, etc. - none of this is OK with me.

What it says in the larger picture is that we may need to discuss some of the broader philosophical issues that underpin our creation of a new society. Sooner or later we'll have to come to some kind of agreement on what we're doing (and not doing) and whose version of reality we're following.

Empirical materialism, for example, is too small a philosophy to explain the changes that are soon going to happen. It holds that only what we can see, hear, touch, taste, etc., is real. That will never explain what's about to occur.

I have no credentials for doing this. But I also have no heart or stomach for standing aside from it when we're making what could be serious errors.

Tomorrow I'll be posting a new book, entitled Towards a World that Works for Everyone. (1) That lays out the goal. Of the notion, Michael and the Mother have said:

Divine Mother: This change that I speak of, the creation — yes, dear Steve, I use your words — of a world that works for everyone, everyone and every being, [will not take] decades or millennia. (2)

Archangel Michael: Creating a world that works for everyone [is a goal] I heartily agree with. (3)

Therefore I can assume that this goal represents her Plan.

Consequently I'm now starting to look at some of what I consider to be the basic postulates of such a society.

⌘ The Time of Separation ⌘

Not Everyone will Choose to Come with Us

January 10, 2020

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/?p=305204>

While the human collective chose in 2012 to wait a few more years so that as many as possible could ascend, the time at which a choice must be made is, according to many sources, upon us.

We're in the phase of the great divide or time of separation, when the profoundly negative will find they can no longer survive in the higher vibrations of Earth. They'll have to depart and allow the remainder of the population to go on.

Please make sure to distinguish between these souls who've chosen darkness and other souls who depart simply because their soul contracts have been completed. Not all who leave are dark.

Matthew Ward explains the predicament of the latter:

“Earth is nearing vibratory levels where the light is so intense that all who have refused the light—the ones we speak of as dark simply to indicate their lack of light—will die.” (1)

In another place, he says:

"Men and women alike who are captivated by darkness are leaving the planet and will continue to do so, each when his or her vibratory level is exceeded as Earth continues apace into successively higher planes of vibrations." (2)

Others make similar predictions:

St. Germaine: "Your Guides will encourage you to focus on all that is positive and manifesting the beneficial changes, thus leaving the dark side to its own demise." (3)

Ela of Arcturus: "There is of course an overall plan for your upliftment, and those who cannot respond to them in a positive manner will continue to feel uncomfortable. That is unavoidable, and eventually such souls will move off Earth to a more suitable dimension." (4)

Arcturians through Sue Lie: "As the Earth expands her frequency, those of a very dense frequency will not be able to tolerate this Earth. They will get diseased. They will die. They will not be able to live. It will be too high of a light for them to tolerate." (5)

SaLuSa: "[The future of all] is bound by the degree of Light that you have drawn to yourself, and whether it is sufficiently high enough to enable you to ascend." (6) "There will be a time when nothing of the lower vibrations will be able to exist in your dimension. It will have been lifted up beyond their reach, and they will find a place at their own level." (7)

It isn't judgment or punishment, Matthew says, but physics that decrees that the committedly-dark must leave.

"That may sound unduly harsh, but it is not a matter of some 'divine' judgment or punishment—it is simply the physics governing life in this universe that bodies bereft of light cannot survive in those higher vibrations. In short, all those who have been causing fearful conditions will be disappearing." (8)

"Ascension is possible for all who have absorbed the light," Matthew asserts. (9) And again: "Your 'travel ticket' is the absorption of light." (10)

"Anyone who accepts Ascension and is able to hold the amount of light needed to survive in higher dimensionality is welcome to come along with us.

"It is the light within a body that transforms its carbon-based cellular structure into the crystalline form that enables the body to live in the high vibrations of energy planes beyond third density." (11)

On another occasion he explains the process again:

"There is no seat of judgment or arbitrary selection of which humans can ascend and which cannot - it is strictly a matter of science and souls' own choices. Light changes third density's carbon-based cellular structure to the crystalline form that lets bodies survive in the higher frequencies, or vibrations, of fourth density and beyond.

"That is why persons who choose to live in the light can ascend with Earth and those who choose to cling to their dark ways cannot. After a time in spirit, souls in the latter group will incarnate in a world that corresponds to their Earth lifetime energy registration and have more opportunities to 'see the light.'" (12)

Until then, it's simply a question of (spiritual) physics.

The off-world rulers of the planet have been denied access to Earth. Their determined servants are among those who will be reassigned to other Third-Dimensional settings, says Mike Quinsey.

"The negative forces are in disarray as their Rulers off world are no longer able to support them. The collapse has already caused some to make plea bargaining to save their lives, and providing they accept what is offered they will be placed where they can no longer interfere in the future plans for Earth and her civilisation." (13)

The Arcturians through Sue Lie agree:

"They [the off-planet controllers of the dark] will have to pull their [unsuccessful] members up and take them off to a darker planet." (14)

In one way or another, those who've chosen the dark will continue in Third Dimensionality as I'm sure we all have done.

They've decided at soul level that Ascension is not in their future right now.

Eventually they'll join us.

Archangel Michael on the State of the “Recalcitrants”

November 15, 2015

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/11/15/archangel-michael-on-the-state-of-the-recalcitrants/>

In the following passage from a personal reading I had with Archangel Michael through Linda Dillon on Nov. 11, 2015, AAM comments on the state of the cabal, or recalcitrants, at the moment. Posted prior to the Paris Massacre.

Steve: What’s happening with the Cabal, and them being brought under, I hate to say control, but peacefulness.

Archangel Michael: There is a peacefulness about it. Understand, when we talk about such issues of control, we are not talking about (and this may be difficult for many to understand) we are not talking about our assuming control of certain groups or this or that individual.

And we will separate out here those who have been put in containment most certainly are under the purview of our control. But let us talk about the general populace.

And we won’t just use this phrase, “the Cabal”, “the Illuminati,” etc. Let us use the phrase of those who do not wish to share the love or the highest good of the collective and do not wish to really participate in the unfoldment of the Mother's dream and plan.

Trust us. You have talked of challenges and we understand the many challenges you have faced and you are warriors of love of the first degree). But the challenge that we face is not asserting our control over this group of what we would call extreme recalcitrants, extreme-resistance beings or groups.

It is getting them to a point where they, in the first step, are willing to relinquish their false attachment and belief in control, [their belief] that their rampant, egregious desire and practice to control others. They fear to such a significant degree that they are not in control, that they are not love, that they have gone to the other end of the spectrum.

So our challenge is to get them to relinquish control, relinquish greed, relinquish hatred (that is a triad). And our progress - if I might say so on behalf of all of us, the Company of Heaven - has been stellar, in your definition and in ours.

Now, are you seeing it, because that is always the question? There is a nursery school inside of each human being who wants to say, "Show me."

How you can judge, discern, in the positive way, that this progress is being made is the distaste, the disenchantment, the disdain, the sense of pushing back that the human collective is expressing for those who are trying to exert that level of control.

So, at the same time, your evidence as it were, is not so much the softening (and it is softening) of those you have called the Cabal. It is also collective's response to that level of behaviour and action.

So there are two things, well, there are many things but there are these two things that are happening simultaneous.

Now, one of the reasons, and if we go far enough back, that this group of beings have developed this attachment, false attachment but nevertheless attachment, to wanting control, expressing hatred, living in hatred, living in greed is because it was allowed - tacitly, actively, permissively.

It was part of what you can think of as the downfall of the human race, the construction of false grids, false belief systems. But one of the keys to that was in the illusion. The majority of humanity actually came to believe that it was natural order - we will not say divine order, but natural order - that some would be in control in this way.

Of course that is not only egregious but erroneous.

So, as the collective is saying, “No, I don’t believe you have control over me. I do not accept your control. I will not participate in your greed. I will not participate in your hatred.”

What is happening to those who have been living in that illusion and falsehood are saying, “That means I am moving further away from my desire to be acknowledged, to be in power. And it is certainly moving me away from my deepest desire, which is to be loved.”

So it is having this back-and-forth bouncing effect and it is affecting not only those who have been in control and who have practised and literally lived in hatred of themselves and others, regardless of what they say; it is also affecting the collective.

So great advances from your perspective and from ours are being made.

Think of it, going back to our conversation about disclosure. The human populace does not believe what you can think of as authority voices saying, “These aliens are coming to harm and control you.”

They are saying, “No, we know we are not alone in the universe and I want to meet them and I think they might have some presents for us! I am curious! I am excited! I might be a little nervous, but it’s okay.”

Now that is a tangible expression that what you have termed “the Cabal” is losing their control and power because they are not being heeded and the collective is not going along with what they are saying from their supposed position of authority.

S: Okay. Are the recalcitrants going to be allowed to shoot down an airliner and set Russians against Americans?

AAM: No.

S: Does publicizing a matter like that [the airliner] on the blog make a difference [to whether it happens or not]?

AAM: Yes, because what it does, is it is a level of exposure. And the last thing anybody wants, who is playing these games and strategies, is exposure.

S: Because there is such a small crew on the Golden Age of Gaia at this moment, I'm having to choose very carefully what things I research and what I don't. I have limited time. So it's important for me to know what is doing good and what is not doing good.

AAM: Yes, we are not suggesting to you to publish things that focus on war, mayhem and fear mongering. But to say, "There is a game afoot and this is what it looks like and is this not absurd because we are on to it?" is very helpful.

What of Those Who Leave Early?

Feb. 9, 2010

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/ascension-as-of-2012/the-fate-of-those-who-do-not-ascend/what-of-those-who-leave-early/>

Haiti

In their January 13, 2010 message, the Hathors, through Tom Kenyon, state that, with the earthquake in Haiti, we have entered what they call the “chaotic node.” (1) I have called this period elsewhere the “time of chaos.” (2)

SaLuSa agrees that for a while things “will remain chaotic and uncertain” and adds that “what you are going through is a karmic cleansing, to clear all of the negative energies that have built up over thousands of years.” (3) He goes on to explain:

“In some cases they lay deep within the Earth, and you have pockets where it is particularly powerful such as the Middle East. In your history you will find that such areas are continually the seats of much evil, and wars are endemic. Peace cannot be fully achieved until the negative energies are transmuted, and the people themselves are prepared to live in harmony with each other.

"The [seemingly] impossible will come into being in your time, as it will across the world. It will require a great change where your perception of each other is concerned. Once you realize the you come from the same source and that you are each other's brothers and sisters, you will more easily accept the Oneness of all that is." (4)

What I'd like to look at here is the allegation that increased numbers of people will be leaving the planet during this time and that this decision to leave does not invalidate the fact that we are headed for a new Golden Age.

The Hathors tell us:

"You may ... experience a greater number of individuals choosing to exit the Earth plane [during this chaotic node]. These exits will take place through unexpected accidents, unforeseen illnesses, and of course, earth changes and weather anomalies." (5)

Atmos of Sirius reminds us that they are leaving in line with their pre-birth agreements.

"Naturally some souls will leave the Earth due to the changes, but any so doing will be acting out their end time as arranged in their life contract." (6)

He reassures us that our loved ones have not left us forever.

"When your loved ones or friends leave the Earth plane, ... be happy for them. They have not gone from your lives forever, and soul groups will come together time and time again. As often happens, you sense them around you, and if you listen they sometimes 'speak' to you. Lack of belief in such possibilities simply blocks the chance of it taking place." (7)

GF spokeswoman Diane of Sirius amplifies Atmos' comment and adds that the galactics are not permitted to interfere with important life choices.

"Some of you would rather leave the Earth now, and provisions are already made for it to take place in the natural way in accordance with your life plan. It would have to be a matter of some urgency before we would be allowed to intervene. We know this is a point of contention with some of you, but we are not allowed to interfere with your choice as to how you will end your lifetime." (8)

SaLuSa goes further and explains that souls who have transitioned to the astral planes will join us in Ascension.

“Of course some of you will leave beforehand, and that will have been planned purposefully for you.

“Let us assume that like most souls you find yourself in the astral regions, where you will still have your links with Earth. You will not therefore be totally cut off from what is happening, and you will certainly become aware when Ascension takes place. Numbers of you would move forward into the new vibratory pattern, and join those who had ascended.” (9)

Matthew Ward agrees with SaLuSa:

“Persons who make transition from physical to spirit life during Earth’s journey, as well as many who have transitioned in recent years, may indeed have been 'eligible' insofar as having sufficient light; however, in accordance with either original or amended soul contracts, their choice is a life in spirit for the time being.” (10)

This is an important subject which requires us all to rethink our notions of “death.” People who leave their physical bodies during this time of chaos and before Ascension have not “died.” Their passing is not something to mourn. They will rejoin us.

The Hathors inform us that “in some ways the veils between life and death are being lifted, and the veils between dimensions are being parted.” (11)

Rethinking our paradigms of life and death is something that the New Age will require of us.

For anyone wanting to know what I consider to be the truth about life and death, a good starting place might be to read New Maps of Heaven. (12) It's a subject that we'll need to get up to speed on later.

The Fate of the Dark – Part 1/4

Jan. 25, 2011

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/ascension-as-of-2012/the-fate-of-those-who-do-not-ascend/fate-dark-part-14/>

How Many People Will Ascend?

I write this series on the fate of the dark for three reasons.

First, I write it to lessen the anger of lightworkers towards the dark by showing the former what fate awaits the latter. I reason that, if lightworkers know where the dark are headed without lightworkers needing to do anything, they will refrain from damaging their own chances at Ascension by incurring karma from venting their anger on the dark.

Instead the attention of lightworkers can be maintained on Ascension, where it will do the most good, and the dark can be left to their destiny, mediated by the Light forces and their Earth allies.

Second, I write it to wean any borderline cases from the dark to the light so that those people may also ascend. I reason here that, with all the many tens of thousands of employees of the national-security state hired since the black operation of 9/11, someone is monitoring this site and will ensure that these papers are seen by other dark ones.

I invite it. Perhaps some darkworkers will read it, realize the peril they face, and abandon ship.

Third, I write it for those who are neither lightworkers nor darkworkers, who have suffered at the hands of the dark, in the hopes that they will see their situation and refuse to accept further abuse at the hands of the dark. Let this series speed the day when the dark lose control of society. Let it hasten the return of the Light.

The more the light energies rise in the world, the more the happiness of lightworkers increases, the Master Hilarion pointed out to us in January of 2011.

“You will find yourselves experiencing a feeling of greater freedom and the sense of the lightening of a great load from your shoulders.

“The feeling of joy and happiness is now taking firm hold within your hearts and emotional bodies and it will be much easier for you to stay in a positive frame of mind with grace and ease, rather than the sense of struggle you experienced before.” (1)

However there is also cause for sadness because some people will choose not to ascend, forcing division and separation, as SaLuSa reveals: “It is in some ways a sad time as a division of the people based on their Light quotient is inevitable.” (2)

What does SaLuSa mean by “light quotient”? Matthew Ward explains:

“The glories of the Golden Age will be available only to the souls who absorb the light that will enable physical survival along Earth's ascension journey into the high frequencies of fifth density.” (3)

“The profound changes on the planet that were set in motion by the in-beaming of light are assisting Earth to rise above the third-density negativity that almost caused her planetary body to die. As many of you as receive the light will accompany her physically and those who refuse the light, will not.” (4)

In Jan. 2010, Matthew explained what each person - but especially those who served the dark - needed to do to ascend.

“The universal alignment window for Earth to totally leave third density is narrowing, and individuals who want to go with her physically must have enough light to meet that exit timetable.

“Earth's passage to her ultimate destination is assured. It is the destination of her human residents that is at issue: Will they absorb the light that changes carbon-based cells to the crystalline that enable physical survival in fourth density vibrations?

“Absorbing light requires ones at the negative end of duality to change from violence to peacefulness, from greed to generosity, corruption to honor, unjustness to fairness, anger to reason, oppression to freedom. The bodies of those who refuse to stop the negative behavior that boosted them into powerful positions will die, and the souls will go to worlds where the energy is the same as those persons generated during their physical lifetime.” (5)

Time is accelerating. Little time remains for the stragglers to make up their minds.

“This acceleration means that there is very little time left for choosing to live in the light, which is necessary for the spiritual clarity and cellular restructuring that enables physical survival in the higher frequencies along Earth's ascension course, or choosing to keep on slumbering unawares.” (6)

Darkworkers will have to cease harming others and begin serving others if they want to make the voyage with the planet to Fifth Density, according to the White-Winged Collective Consciousness of Nine.

“As this circle [of Light] grows and embodies more and more individuals into its collective vibration those living within fear and darkness shall have to make their choice, they either join the circle of service-to-others light or continue their existence elsewhere on a place that can no longer be called Earth.

“For Earth has Ascended into a higher vibration and she shall not lower her quotient of Light now but shall go forward and embody more and more as the culmination of the Consciousness shift draws ever closer and Earth and all Humanity return to Zero Point.” (7)

Diane of Sirius informs us that no one can fail to make a choice. Even standing still is a choice: “Everyone stands at the crossroads of evolution and either you choose to go forward and move to a new timeline or remain in your present dimension. You cannot fail to be touched by the higher energies.” (8)

Arrangements have been made to remove the darkworkers from Earth and resettle them at a place of appropriate vibration, SaLuSa tells us.

“In the long term the energies cannot be rejected, as their function is upliftment of the lower energies. However, where an individual soul is not ready to receive them, arrangements are made for their placement where they can continue as they wish.

“This normally means lifting them off Earth and allowing them to continue their experiences at a similar level.” (9)

Matthew says that the dark ones must embrace the light or die.

“As Earth rises into higher densities where the light is more intense, the dark ones—puppets of the dark forces—will embrace the light or their physical bodies will die and the souls automatically will be drawn to worlds where the energy density matches the energy of the physical lifetime.” (10)

How many people on the planet have chosen to ascend? Speaking in 2008, Matthew was unable to say. Many variables were at play.

“We cannot say how many souls will accompany Earth all the way to her destination because there are many unknown variables: provisions of original soul contracts, uncompleted contracts, amended contracts, free will choices that affect only Self, and choices that profoundly affect many others.” (11)

However, by 2010, Matthew could state that “at present there are less than half of you that are consciously making changes in your lives to [ascend].” (12)

Some people who choose not to ascend cannot be considered darkworkers. There are many reasons why some will depart prior to Ascension, Matthew explains.

Some advanced lightworkers will have fulfilled their soul contracts to assist the Earth and her inhabitants to ascend. Their services will no longer be needed.

“Prior to birth many of today’s populace chose to enter spirit life before Earth reaches that era, and among them are highly evolved souls whose light is as bright as noonday sun.

“Those who came from higher civilizations to assist Earth in special ways during her ascension may quickly pass through Nirvana on their way to a higher density spirit world, most likely the one serving their original homeland, or they may manifest new bodies and incarnate in another civilization for different kinds of growth experiencing.” (13)

Another group whose longevity clauses in their soul contracts so stipulate will ascend from the other side of life. My father passed away this year and may be one of their number.

“Not all light-filled people will go all the way to the Golden Age — it depends on the longevity clause in soul contracts. ...

“[They] will stay for a time in Nirvana, which will remain Earth’s spirit world and ascend in tandem with the planet. Souls who have completed third-density karmic lessons may choose another Earth lifetime or join a civilization in a different fourth density world.” (14)

Some devoutly religious souls may not accept what is happening on the planet and elect to leave.

“A large number of people who have lived in godly ways will choose not to ascend with Earth after the truth about the origin of religions emerges: [these religions] were designed in darkness to deceive and control the peoples, by the most divisive element of life on Earth, and reap wealth for the heads of churches.

“Although everyone on Earth knows that truth at soul level and it is a contract choice to consciously remember it, many of the devoutly religious will be unable or unwilling to accept that their deep-seated faith is founded on false teachings.” (15)

Matthew cautions us against trying to discern who has died for what reason.

“There is no way for you to distinguish between light-filled individuals who leave Earth lifetimes in accordance with soul contracts, those who choose to leave rather than accept the truth about religions, and persons whose bodies' viability is snuffed out because they lack the light to survive in the vibratory level Earth entered." (16)

It is not the way of the Light to judge others, to wish any ill, or to refuse Ascension to anyone who chooses it and is able to assimilate sufficient light. Therefore we are advised to look only to our own situation and refrain from judging those who depart or those who desist from following the dark and take up the Light.

This paper does not concern itself with the starseeds and walk-ins who return to their planet before Ascension, or with those whose longevity clause has run out before it, or with the religiously-devout who choose not to participate in events they cannot accept.

For the greatest part, it follows the career of darkworkers who sought to control the planet, enslave it, and use its population to serve its own interest. The galactic and spirit teachers generally refer to these people as the Illuminati.

The Fate of the Dark – Part 2/4

Jan. 25, 2011

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/ascension-as-of-2012/the-fate-of-those-who-do-not-ascend/fate-dark-part-24/>

Who are the Illuminati and what have they been responsible for?

The subjects of this paper are the people, as Matthew put it, “who choose to stick with their deceitful, controlling, greedy, violent ways.” As a result of their choices, they “will not be in that [new] world.” (1)

The galactic and spirit teachers whose messages are examined here refer to these people collectively as the Illuminati.

Matthew Ward describes who is being referred to and the extent of their influence in the world:

“The Illuminati is not an organization of card-carrying members, but rather the 'umbrella' name of disparate groups and a large number of powerful individuals who have been controlling or heavily influencing the most important aspects of life throughout your world for centuries.

“In recent years they also have become known by other designations, such as the secret government, New World Order, dark cabal or the elitists; and they include the top figures in financial institutions, investment markets, multinational corporations, religions, education, media, military forces, judicial systems, entertainment, the medical 'establishment,' regulatory and advisory bodies, royal families, Zionists.

“They have controlled governments, started civil and international wars, caused famines and widespread impoverishment, created boom times for industrialists and depressions for the poor, released laboratory-designed viruses, assassinated opposition.

“They are the perpetrators of unjust laws, Satanic rituals, chemtrails and other toxic pollution, destruction of animal life on land and in the seas, mind control, the 'illegal' drug industry, erosion of civil rights and denial of God-given freedoms, suppression or misuse of technology, political and ideological divisiveness. In short, the Illuminati have been profoundly adversely affecting all life on Earth—indeed, the very life of Earth herself!”

“Illuminati members lead national governments and their regulatory agencies; global economic agencies and banking; European royalty; international corporations; the United Nations; legal, policing and justice systems; educational institutions; all media forms; church hierarchies; the various medical and prescription drug establishments. I may have forgotten some areas, but in short, there is NO area of your world that is not Illuminati-infiltrated and influenced.” (3)

Illuminati is a self-appropriated term, Matthew explains.

“The Illuminati gave themselves that name, which means 'the enlightened,' but they don't publicly refer to themselves that way. They work in secret but the results of their efforts are seen throughout your world.” (4)

In 2006, Matthew explained that the Illuminati had agreed to play a “heavy” role but had subsequently become prisoners of their own dark tendencies.

“That violence is still a fact of life in your world is related to the destiny of people who will not ascend with Earth. At this juncture, the collective consciousness includes the elements associated with the tentacles of darkness that still are lurking about the planet. Persons who refused to relinquish their 'heavy' roles that once were components of karmic balancing became captives of the darkness.” (5)

What does Matthew mean by “heavy role”? Apparently the Illuminati agreed to provide the scenarios in which people might complete their karma prior to Ascension.

“On Earth they are the people whose greed and control got way beyond their soul-level agreements, which was to serve in powerful positions to balance their own and a multitude of others’ chosen karmic experiencing. At the point when that had been accomplished and the collective karma had been satisfied, the intensity of greed and control in the Illuminati members was to have quickly reversed into the equitable sharing of their resources and power.

“For some time, with full knowing of their soul-level agreements and the consequences of not abiding by those, the most powerful members of this group have refused to follow the agreements. Rather, this hard-core few intend to continue their amassing of the planet’s resources and suppression of entire nations.

"They have been told that they will not be able to do this, but they are deaf and blind to all urging of the light, and in their intention to relinquish nothing, they are using every possible means to keep lower-level members of the group fighting for this as well.” (6)

The Illuminati's oppression is what brought the galactics here in the first place, Matthew tells us.

"It is because of the Illuminati's long reign of bloodshed, corruption and oppression that about seven decades back in your linear time Earth was in death throes. Her cries of despair were a call for help, and God immediately authorized the assistance of spiritually, intellectually and technologically advanced civilizations to come to her aid." (7)

SaLuSa reveals that the Illuminati planned a third world war that would have destroyed the whole planet.

“War became more mechanised and you developed ways of killing masses of souls more quickly. In the Second World War you extended it to those not directly involved in it, and the toll reached unimaginable levels.

“Since then you have sophisticated weaponry that can devastate areas with almost total loss of life, and the whole world has been at risk. Fortunately we have been allowed to put a stop to any ambitions of the dark Ones to start a Third World War, It would have had the potential to totally destroy the Earth, and that was not going to be allowed in any circumstances.” (8)

The Illuminati received technology from the little Greys after World War II to develop weapons of mass destruction and control in return for allowing the Greys to experiment on and abduct humans, Adrial says.

“In the 1950’s there was an agreement between the government of the United States and a race of aliens who wished to experiment on human subjects. They traded technology for the right to perform biological experiments on ordinary humans with an aim of improving their own biology. These experiments are at the root of the missing children and abduction phenomenon.” (9)

The Greys supplied technology that allowed the Illuminati to control the weather, Matthew tells us. The dark are still using this technology to create floods, earthquakes, and other extreme weather today.

“The enormously profitable illegal drug industry funds both factions' 'black ops,' including ... weather control systems using technology introduced by the 'Little Grays.'” (10)

“Most of Earth's weather and geophysical events are caused by technology used with malicious intent. The flooding and earthquakes that resulted in massive death tolls, ruined vast croplands, killed food animals, and left millions injured or homeless were intended to create the negativity that is generated by such devastation.” (11)

Matthew tells us that the galactic force saved the planet from destruction at the hands of the cabal.

“With such a massive infusion of light and technologies that you cannot even imagine, countless numbers of your universal family stabilized the planet's orbit and performed other life-saving measures. Their invaluable assistance is in action this very day, some of it directed toward preventing the plans of the Illuminati from reaching fruition.” (12)

Freewill operates at all times

No matter how low a person descends, SaLuSa tells us, he or she can still turn the situation around. Wayshowers stand ready to assist them.

“There are of course souls who have slipped so low in their vibrations, that it is difficult to turn their attention to the Light and all it has to offer. Yet at any time they can turn their lives around, and when they do many Beings of Light accompany them for the rest of their journey.

“You can always call upon the Beings of Light to assist you, as they look for signs that a soul has become aware and show you the way forward. At all stages the choice is yours as to which direction you head for, and no pressure is placed upon you to go other than the way desire.” (13)

Some of the Illuminati actually did turn to the Light, Matthew tells us, but were subsequently killed.

“Of those who turned to the light in accordance with their soul contracts, some have been assassinated. Family members have been killed as a warning to those in positions of influence where they still are needed by the top leaders. In the more weak-willed members, bribery is a successful tool because greed is in the hearts of all Illuminati. Threats of exposing embarrassing information about personal lives is another common control method.” (14)

Who ascends and who does not, Matthew explains, begins with freewill choice.

“The decision about who ascends and who does not is the province of each individual. It is not an arbitrary decision—it is a matter of the energy within the individual and that is determined by the free-will choices within either the light or the dark. Light-filled people will ascend.” (15)

The Master Hilarion points out that each person here today in this run-up to Ascension has chosen to participate:

“Each who is upon the Earth plane at this time has chosen to be here, to be a part of this Great Awakening and the great change that is happening and those who are leaving and will continue to leave, are those Souls who have chosen not to experience the days ahead. All is as was chosen by each Soul.” (16)

Whatever the outcome, the galactic and spirit teachers, here to help us with Ascension, will not interfere with our free will, as SaLuSa reminds us.

“Freewill operates at all times, and is essential to give you freedom of choice where your own evolution is concerned.” (17)

“The beauty of the Light is available to everyone and as always it remains your choice whether to accept it or not.” (18)

God has decreed that no one shall be forced to ascend, SaLuSa says.

“God does not impose the Creator’s Plan upon anyone who chooses a different experience, because it is known that eventually they will find the path to the higher dimensions and the Light.” (19)

The dark have been given opportunities to choose Ascension, SaLuSa reminded us in 2010: “The dark Ones have had their opportunities to have a change of heart and move towards the Light. It is their choice as to where their future lies.” (20)

The longer the cabal holds out, Matthew says, the more “it is putting in jeopardy a good destination for souls who choose to continue negative behavior instead of absorbing the light that would enable them to leave forever third density's limitations for growth in spiritual awareness and intelligence.” (21)

Some years ago (2004), Mathhew's mother, Suzy Ward, asked him to give her a timetable for the departure of the dark. He could not at that time and explained why.

“Mother, I know you would like me to give you at least a general timeframe for the darkness to exit completely, and I cannot. It is a misconception that 'destiny' is carved in granite. Free will embodies the choice to behave throughout the gray spectrum between 'good' and 'bad,' simplistically speaking, and even though Eden WILL return to Earth, until the existing duality is reconciled and balance attained, violence and greed and betrayal will continue, albeit in ever-lessening measure.” (22)

In the next instalment in this series, we'll look at what future awaits the dark workers who refuse to turn to the Light.

The Fate of the Dark – Part 3/4

Jan. 25, 2011

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/ascension-as-of-2012/the-fate-of-those-who-do-not-ascend/fate-dark-part-34/>

What will happen to the Dark?

I sincerely hope that everyone connected with the following crimes, acts of persecution, and black operations reads this article and ponders its implications:

Honor killings, bride burnings, acid attacks, wife abuse, persecution, racism, human trafficking, sex slavery, pedophilia, religious deception, derivatives, foreclosuregate, financial treason, financial warfare, theft of aid funds, judicial corruption, police brutality, agent provocateurs, election rigging, mind control, torture, assassination, false-flag operations/state terrorism, the international drug trade, the military-industrial complex, the prison-industrial complex, chemtrails, HAARP, ULF, weather warfare, codex alimentarius, pandemics, tainted vaccines, depopulation, genocide, warmongering, depleted-uranium weaponry, war crimes, Satanism, etc.

What will be the fate of the dark souls? SaLuSa begins by reminding us generally that, like all of us, “their future will be in accordance with their beliefs.” (1) The year 2013, he says, will see “the commencement of another cycle, but this time of Light without the interference of the dark Ones. They will have moved on to what is appropriate to their present vibration.” (2)

“For eons of time you have been under [the Illuminati's] influence, and in consequence Beings of low vibration have infiltrated your Earth. Now the vibrations have risen considerably, and your Earth is no longer a suitable place for them. As it continues to rise, so their influence is weakened and they lose their power over you. Eventually they will have no option but to leave the Earth, and that time rapidly approaches.” (3)

According to Diane of Sirius: “If you cannot assimilate [the Light] into your being you will eventually leave the new Earth that is emerging.” (4)

The final fate of the dark is to be sent to an alternate destination consistent with their registration of light. Before looking at that final destination, let's consider the process whereby people either absorb or fail to absorb light. Matthew explains that the light being beamed to Earth changes the cells of our body from a carbon to a crystalline base. Only the latter is capable of surviving in the higher vibrations.

“The light that is absorbed by receptive souls is changing their cells into a crystalline structure for physical survival in the higher vibrational levels as well as increasing spiritual clarity and thus soul evolution.

“Those who refuse the light will not have survival capability, and when Earth reaches the higher levels, their bodies will die and their souls automatically will go to stations where their lifetime free will choices have energetically registered them.” (5)

Having failed to absorb the light, members of the cabal will go to alternate locations than the Fifth Dimension, Matthew tells us.

“Their energy levels are too dense to absorb the light that bodies require to survive in those lighter frequencies, and the souls will automatically be drawn to dense areas that are compatible with their lifetime energy registration and where remedial lessons will be offered along with light continuously beamed to them.” (6)

“When the bodies of those who refuse the light no longer can sustain viability, the souls will go to worlds where the energy matches their lifetime energy and where they will have other opportunities to raise their consciousness and evolve spiritually.” (7)

“The souls who choose to remain dark will be led automatically to energy realms aligned with their lifetime energetic registration, and those will be areas of primitive intelligence with opportunities to learn anew the need for balanced experiencing.” (8)

In 2009, he elaborated on the dark's future:

“As Earth enters higher and still higher frequencies along her ascension pathway, individuals with dark proclivity—the unconscionably brutal, greedy and abusive of power, some in ruling positions but many others controlling behind the public scene—will leave the planet.

“Without light except the spark that is the soul’s very life force, those persons’ bodies will die and their souls automatically will go to the very dense energy planes that correspond with their lifetime energy registration. In those placements, they will be offered a constant beam of light, and if they respond, their consciousness levels will rise.” (9)

The worst of the dark ones will regress to first and second density placements, Matthew tells us, where further contact with us will not be possible.

“Reunions are not possible with the souls that are consigned by their lifetime energy to first or second density worlds, where intelligence is almost nonexistent and no memories or feelings exist. That is not punishment — it offers those souls a new beginning free of the negativity they created that automatically led them to those lowest levels of existence.” (10)

Earlier that year, Matthew gave more details on these lower dimensions. (11)

“Where will the souls of all the various densities now living on the planet go if they do not accompany Earth, and will they remember why they did not or will the veil of forgetting fall?

“The souls whose lifetime energy registration was of the basest density—what some would call pure evil—automatically will be drawn to the only part of Nirvana that is separate from the flexible layers, the tiny orb near your moon where the density is so great that it holds those souls captive. They are aware of where they are and what they did that led them to that densest part of Earth's spirit world because it is there that they review their entire past lifetime moment by moment and feel their every emotion along with the emotions of everyone whose lives they touched in any way. This review process is the hell of some religious concepts.

“Light is constantly beamed to those souls, and if they choose to accept the light, they will embody in a first density placement in primitive forms that have no memories or intelligence, but only an instinctive existence. This allows those souls to start with a clean slate, unencumbered by memories of the dark behavior that led them to that densest of placements in your part of this universe.

“Persons whose lifetime energy was of very low density—those who ignored their soul contracts and whose deliberately ruthless actions prevented others from fulfilling their own contracts, but were not as tyrannical or diabolical as the souls consigned to that tiny orb—automatically are drawn to a first-density world and start over from scratch.

“When they accept the light that is beamed continuously into the placement, they can incarnate in a second-density world where they will have no memory of other lifetimes but do gain a conscience, a capacity for reasoning, and free-will choices. With this greater degree of innate abilities comes the option to act within the light or the darkness, thus they can have many lifetimes in second density, relapse into first, or progress into a third density world.” (12)

For those who would like to know more about the First and Second Densities, here is more from Matthew on the subject.

"But first to answer your question, will those souls who knowingly refuse the light go to first or second-density placements? Yes. In accordance with the cosmic law of like attracts like, the energy of their lifetime free will choices will draw them to the placement where the energy is in accordance with that which they have generated and is automatically registered in their lifeprints.

"So you can see that this is purely scientific and neither an arbitrary judgment nor a punishment. In fact, it is the opposite—it is an opportunity for these souls to break free of the spell of darkness by starting over with a fresh slate and with light constantly beamed to them. And yes, life in those lower densities is in physical form as that is the only mode that can provide the kind of learning the souls require.

"Now then, in the lowest order of inhabitants in second density there is the merest spark of reasoning processes, so reactions to any stimuli are primarily intuitive at a primitive level. The purpose of this nearly tabula rasa mind is to offer the choice of growth steps free from the malice of prejudice or any false preconceptions.

"So not only is there no memory of previous incarnations where the elements that formed negative emotions and inclinations were a part of life, but there is no reproduction, thus no orientation from parents to children that could include those. The beings in second density are in ageless forms, you could say. As the intelligence level slowly evolves, free will choices become correspondingly wider in scope, and eventually the souls who “see the light” evolve and incarnate in third-density realms. If they don’t, they remain in the virtual unawareness of second, and if their choices become heinous, they regress to first density.

"First density is not a place you would want to look upon. The life forms could rightfully be called beastly appearing creatures rather than people. Just as the souls who evolve into the densities higher than third incarnate in beautiful forms, however differently they may appear from you, souls in the lowest density can only be in forms that befit their free-will choices that pulled them into those lowest frequencies.

"Since the darkness in their souls steadfastly refused the light, they literally choose their living atmosphere to be with barely perceptible visibility, so it is the dimmest and bleakest imaginable environment and the permeating energy is the negativity that they themselves created in previous physical lifetimes. Once again incarnate after a life in spirit, their resolve in that spirit realm to stay within the light when they embody again catapulted back into free will choices like wanton killing, cruelty, hatred, greed and willfully causing others to suffer.

"Light energy is constantly beamed to these creatures just as it is to all souls in second-density, and even with their sub-intelligence level, there is that instinct that has the choice of moving toward the light or withdrawing from it. Those who respond by moving toward the light acquire that spark of reasoning that enables them to ascend into the lowest order in a second density realm." (13)

Matthew tells us that they won't leave en masse. He explains:

“Since there are varying light frequencies in individuals, there can be no mass exodus of those who are darkly-inclined at some specific point in Earth's ascension. Each such person will transition from this lifetime when Earth reaches an energy plane that exceeds that individual's frequency and physical death will come from any of the same causes that exist now.” (14)

“The time of physical death will be in accordance with the amount of light in each body, and dying can be the result of any of the current causes such as disease, drowning, vehicle crashes, suicide, fires, and earthquakes.” (15)

“Regardless of the reason a soul leaves this lifetime, physical death will come from any of the many causes that exist now. There will be no mass departure of darkly inclined persons when Earth reaches some specific vibratory level because the amount of light within bodies varies.” (16)

We often think that we must remain within this universe. But SaLuSa tells us it isn't necessary: “Bear in mind Dear Ones, that there are other Universes that souls can move to it if is beneficial to their evolution.” (17)

On another occasion, he goes farther and explains that the whole of this universe will ascend. Therefore, darkworkers will remain in the Third Dimension or go lower but will not remain in this universe.

“Those who are unready for Ascension will proceed onto a different path, to continue their experiences according to their preference. Many will stay in this present dimension, but not in this Universe which is ascending in its totality. ... No souls are lost or destined to remain in the lowest dimensions, as evolution is a continual process.” (18)

Finally, in the next instalment, I'd like to review what methods the Light is using to subdue the dark and how the Light looks upon them.

"I have mentioned before that when Earth reaches a certain frequency, the bodies of people who have refused the light—which would both bring spiritual clarity and sustain physical life in lighter densities—will die and the souls automatically will descend to a low world where energy registration is the same as their lifetime free will choices. That world will be at a rudimentary cognitive level so learning can begin without the remnants of darkness to influence choices. I want to clarify that this does NOT refer to people who are still 'in the dark' through the innocence of ignorance, but to those who consciously know the difference between the light and the dark. With full knowingness of their souls' chosen missions, they are willingly ignoring them and instead are choosing to continue causing massive death and suffering for millions of souls outside of those souls' pre-birth agreements for experiencing." (11) Matthew stresses that the first and second densities should not be confused with the Dark Planes of the astral world (Matthew calls the astral world "Nirvana"):

"I want to emphasize that these densities have nothing whatsoever to do with the lower levels of Nirvana or the tiny orbiting sphere where the basest souls reside or any other civilizations' sanctuary realms. All occupants of those areas are souls who have transitioned from physical life to spirit life, and as I said, the souls in first and second density realms are in physical forms. Worlds with these two densities do not have sanctuary realms per se. Instead, each of these worlds has a transitional space where the accustomed form is transmuted into a suitable form for the next higher level as the intelligence is solidified for the soul's physical step upward. This can happen because the worlds in these two densities are of a layered composition." ( Ibid., Oct. 6, 2004.)

The Fate of the Dark – Part 4/4

Jan. 25, 2011

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/ascension-as-of-2012/the-fate-of-those-who-do-not-ascend/fate-dark-part-44/>

The Manner in which the Light Opposes the Dark

In dealing with the actions of predominantly Fifth-Dimensional beings, we encounter methods so unlike those we in the Third Dimension use, and so praiseworthy, that I'd like to end this discussion with a review of them.

Our galactic and spirit protectors follow the laws of Earth and the universe in subduing the cabal. They don't kill or interfere with the cabal past the point that their authorization from God allows. Everything they do is designed to avoid residue and prevent the intractable conflicts that have characterized events on Earth so far.

Before looking at the manner in which they proceed, I'd like to establish that the galactics and other members of the Light forces are obliged to respect our free will - until such time as a divine deadline passes. What Matthew tells us here about NESARA is true about all actions taken by the Light:

"This assistance that has been available all along must be requested - it cannot be automatically given. If it were to simply arrive, that would be in effect extraterrestrials taking over YOUR prerogative to manifest the provisions of NESARA, and however monumentally benevolent those are, it's against the law of the universe for any civilization to provide assistance without being invited." (1)

By universal law, if the galactics imposed their will on us, they would incur karmic penalty, which they won't do, as Matthew reminds us:

"Souls at this vibrational level cannot impose assistance, much less our will, upon any of you. Because Earth is YOUR world, changes there must be by your choice, and beings in any light station are bound to respect your collective desires, interests and intentions." (2)

However, after a divine deadline has been reached, the situation changes. They are no longer obliged to allow the dark ones free rein.

SaLuSa acknowledges this when he says: "We do still of course have a deadline date by which we should have started and clearly it is not that far into the future." (3) On another occasion he informs us: "The Divine Plan does not allow for continued delays and there is a final date by which action is required." (4)

After that divine deadline, the Light forces are authorized to remove the cabal, as SaLuSa confirms:

"We will confirm that in the whole context of your Ascension, there is an ultimate date given us by which we must be able to commence our activities. We may find it necessary to make the first move, and remove those who are holding us up in our mission to Earth and all life upon it." (5)

Keeping this general context in mind, we can better appreciate why Matthew might say that the Light forces reduce the dark, rather than eliminate them:

"The boulders of the darkness will continue to be reduced to rocks and then pebbles and then dust as the light evolves from its recent collective dimness to its former brilliance, where darkness cannot hide or survive." (6)

The Light forces will not kill their opponents, he tells us. "Evolution, not revolution, is underway." (7) On another occasion, he expanded on the evolutionary modus operandi of the Light.

"What is happening is not a revolution; it is spiritual evolution—that is the way of the light! It is the way of lightworkers and light warriors, whose armor and weapon against the darkness is the power of love. Love is the same energy as light, simply expressed differently, and it is the most powerful energy in the cosmos. This is why so often messengers of the light have urged you to send light-love to the dark ones.

"As parts of the Oneness of All, they are your soul-level brothers and sisters who are experiencing the painful absence of love essence in their lives. That absence underlies their negative motives and actions that have provided conditions necessary for the multitudes to complete third density's karmic lessons. Knowing this universal truth engenders feelings of compassion and gratitude and the beaming of love to those who lack it." (8)

SaLuSa also reveals the care with which the galactics approach their task of protecting Earth:

"We are in control of Earth but not in the sense of having taken it over, but being aware of everything that is happening. We do keep the balance at all times, but have to allow a certain degree of freewill to operate." (9)

"The waiting game continues and we are exerting more pressure than ever on the dark Ones, to withdraw from the impossible situation they are in. If they persist in their ways and continue to cause turmoil, we shall exercise our prerogative to force them out.

"Not physical force, but measures that will allow us to dictate to them the manner in which they will be removed. Circumstances are such that we are yearning to start working with you, to tackle your immediate problems." (10)

Unlike the Illuminati, the galactics uphold the law, as Matthew and SaLuSa tell us.

Matthew: "[Opposition to the cabal] is a process whereby your desires for benevolent changes are being honored within your own laws that were established in honesty and justness but subverted by dark minds to serve their purposes." (11)

SaluSa: "The basis for such changes requires a legal framework, and the support of those who are keen to help mankind. That is where we will come in and both help and protect those who will lead the campaigns for change. There is a need to restore your sovereignty, and provide laws that will ensure it is done.' (12)

SaLuSa briefly describes the manner in which a 5D court proceeds, including the revelation that its proceedings are ultimately based on the evidence of the Akashic Records or what he calls "the ethers of life."

“Comes the time very soon when positive action is going to be taken against them, they will be shocked at the speed with which their destiny will change. There is not one who shall escape the net that draws ever more tightly around them. Justice shall eventually be seen to take place, but in a way quite different to what you have been used to. You will find that it cannot be mocked or denied by some sharp practise, and the truth of any event will be fully known and not subject to falsification or cover-up.

“We have Courts that are unlike yours and presided over by many High Beings of Light. Lies and subterfuge have no place in them, because there is no point in trying to deny that which is irrevocable and recorded in the ethers of life.” (13)

As the divine deadline approaches, according to Hatonn, fleet commander and director of interdimensional communications, the authority that the galactics can exercise increases. Nonetheless it will never include killing anyone.

“You’ve been told that we can’t interfere with individuals’ free will choices except by God’s mandate that Earth’s free will supersedes that of anyone who would deliberately cause vast death and destruction. You also have been told that, with everything in acceleration mode, there’s no time to waste getting this show on the road side by side, and that’s why a new wrinkle has been added.

“We have been given leave by God to use stronger methods wherever necessary to dismantle the Illuminati’s remaining power bases. This does NOT mean killing anyone — God never sanctions killing, nor would we ever want to do that! For quite some time we have been permitted to override the dark ones’ free will by blocking their powerful weaponry when they attempt more events like '9/11,' and we have done that on numerous occasions. Now we also can foil their efforts to create major disruptions by blocking their communication systems and transportation modes and by diverting their intelligence couriers.

“We also have God’s permission to temporarily relocate a few key individuals to areas where they can do no mischief whatsoever. This is done somewhat like the cloaking of our ships in an invisible force field, which makes the disappearance baffling to those individuals’ co-workers too. So, even though you won’t see evidence of our new allowances, you know that now we’re taking even longer strides to help you rid your world of dark deeds.” (14)

What Hatonn says is supported by SaLuSa, who also reports an extension of authority as the divine deadlines approaches.

“Matters are really heading for a showdown, and once the power is removed from the Illuminati the changes will start quite quickly. They are being confronted by the forces of Light whatever way they turn, and we take much care in monitoring their reactions as they become irrational and panic. They fight a lost cause and aware now of the ultimate collapse of their empire. There is no hiding place as we track all of their movements, and as we have informed you previously are present at their conclaves.

“As our authority has been extended beyond our original remit, we now take more direct action to stop the black operations aimed at you or other countries. We echo your sentiments that 'enough is enough' and it is now the turn of the Light to direct the path of the people on Earth. Such a lot of work has already gone into paving the way to the final years of this cycle, to ensure it is a smooth and successful journey. You of course have played a major part in achieving such an accomplishment, and you have helped create the grid of Light that now encircles the Earth. ...

“Be assured the Light and its supporters will be victorious, and the dark Ones will be defeated not by force or military power, but by the power of Love and Light. It may sound unlikely when you look back at history but you are now in a totally different era, when outside forces with the backing of the Brotherhood of Light are directing the outcome of activities on Earth.” (15)

The galactics have had to stand by and watch the dark interfere with their plans. But the time approaches when they can and will silence the weapons of the cabal once and for all, according to SaLuSa.

“Until we can completely silence their weaponry, they will still have the means to interfere in our plans, and care not what the outcome is where you are concerned. Indeed their whole intent is to cause as much death and damage as possible, and disruption in your lives.

“You will not have to put up with their actions for much longer, and our plans are well advanced to remove their leaders from their positions of power. Our allies will then move into action when given the signal, and that will be when the outcome can be positively assured.” (16)

“The provisions for all actions to be taken are in hand, and once they can go ahead, no interference will be tolerated. The dark Ones have had their day and a great curtain is being pulled down that will put an end to their reign. They have in effect sat in the seats of power for thousands of years, and the end times apply to them as well as everyone else.” (17)

Everyone will be Treated with Loving Kindness Regardless of Their Choice

On 3D Earth, we've often heard people say that winning is everything. But such is not the case with 5D galactics. Even if a person is not suited for Ascension (that is, even if they could be seen as not "winning"), they're treated with loving kindness and attention.

“If you cannot grasp or understand the need for Ascension, then you are most likely ill prepared or insufficiently illumined to accept it into your life. Have no fear about making such a decision as you are not abandoned or held in lower esteem. You will evolve exactly according to your own pace, and one day you too will take a great leap forward having finished your education in duality.” (18)

All souls are regarded equally by God and treated equally by 5D Lightworkers, St. Germaine tells us.

“Some souls have become so engrossed in the lower vibrations that they have become trapped and have difficulty in moving on. Have no fear about them and their future as they are not forgotten, and are accompanied on their journey with many Lighted Beings, as you are at present. Their time shall come to break out of their self-imposed limitations, and God patiently awaits their return to the Light.” (19)

“For those who cannot move with the changes, there will come a time when it will no longer be in their interests to remain on the new emerging Earth. Like everything else that is handled in a loving and caring way, they will continue to experience as before but elsewhere on a newly prepared

Earth. The continuity of life is always ongoing and progress will take place regardless of choices that are made. God has a great caring and love for every soul, and the Hierarchy carry out God's Plan for this Universe.” (20)

People can decide to remain in Third Density without a judgment being made of them, SaLuSa says.

“There is no judgement of those who choose to remain in the 3rd. Dimension, because they have not failed in any way or are lesser Beings than any other soul. Their freewill choice will never be interfered by those who have moved into the Light and Love.” (21)

They will get as much loving attention as those who ascend, he reveals.

“If you should wonder about those souls 'left behind' be assured their lives will continue with every support and loving attention. The Creator lovingly nurtures and cares for all life, and love abounds wherever the Creator is – All That Is.” (22)

“There is no such thing as giving up on people, and even those you may term as the most evil Beings are helped by Light Beings,” he says. (23)

“Our presence is to help all souls, and we do not choose one soul over another where our help is concerned. It is up to each individual to decide in which direction their future is going, and regardless of their choice they will be treated with kindness and love. That is the only way to penetrate the darkness, and help those souls who are trapped.” (24)

It's important therefore for us not to project onto the galactic and spirit forces our own ways and means of defeating an opponent or administering justice. Part of our awakening, I think, is to see how the men and women of more advanced civilizations deal with people who have it in their hearts to harm others. The greatest care is taken to render them unable to harm, but without harming them in turn.

Letting in this new way of dealing with people who oppose us can be as enlightening as any teaching about God, the Divine Plan, or the purpose of life. My sense is that any action that the evolved civilizations take who are surrounding the planet at the present time to assist us with Ascension potentially contains a remarkable teaching for us.

Observations on the Time of Separation – Part 1/2

January 8, 2021

I've been asked to say more about the time of separation, the so-called bifurcation moment.

Based on channeled sources, I'd say it isn't so much a moment of suddenly going separate ways so much as a gradual pulling apart, with death providing the final shift away from Earth.

The Mother doesn't want anyone to suffer so I'd expect her treatment of the Ascension decliners - those who choose to remain, or remainers, if I can coin a word - would be as generous and nurturing as it would be for those who chose Ascension.

Maybe I can be permitted to comment from my own understanding, just in the interests of time, rather than hunting down and organizing what the sources say. (1)

My understanding is that all the processes connected with Ascension are supportive, non-judgmental, and personally-determined.

Those who decline are treated with the same loving respect as those who accept Ascension.

Just as it isn't the case that everyone will ascend at the same time, so it isn't the case that all remainers who transition will leave Earth at the same time or in the same way.

Exits will be by any means available for many, at the end of their natural life span for others, and from the astral domains the individuals will plan their next lifetime, continuing on in 3D, probably without too much of a recall.

For them, if they recall at all, this'll be like another failed Atlantis. For us it'll be succeeding at what Atlantis failed to do. It depends on where we sit how we'll view the events of this time.

***

I'd like to say a word about death, the exit means for remainers, those who don't ascend and put an end to death altogether.

There are so many misunderstandings we have about the subject.

I've been outside my body so that the fear of death has gone. I know by realization that I'm not my body. Once you know that, you can't unknow it.

And I wrote a book on life after death called New Maps of Heaven, (1) which dispelled a few myths for me.

One myth is that death is painful. In some tragic circumstances, the body may writhe but the occupant of the body will have already left. (2)

Generally we're removed from our bodies before death in such painful circumstances as a car crash or falling off a cliff. We don't need to go through the experience except if doing so fulfills a karmic lesson; say, an arsonist in a past life needs to go through death by fire.

Because this generation is the wrap up of Third Dimensionality for all who wish and can hold the vibration, karma stops here. What we don't finish up is forgiven. Karma operates far less in the higher dimensions, I'm told.

Given the love and bliss that are as common as air or water there, I can imagine that the Karma custodians in the higher dimensions are like the proverbial Maytag repairman - left with little work to do. Because no one has a harmful thought there.

(Concluded in Part 2, tomorrow.)

(Concluded from Part 1, yesterday.)

Just imagine we're swimming in mud. That's about the difference between life in 3/4D and life on any of the higher realms. (1)

When we're swimming in mud, we tend to be lethargic. Our vision doesn't get very high, and, if and when it does, it doesn't go very far or last very long.

So we're now walking up onto the shore from the sea of mud and into the next room. Above it is the sign, "To the Ocean of Love." I believe the Ocean of Love is a Seventh-Dimensional feature. But we'll have the ability to visit all the dimensions anyways.

So that's where we go. Where the remainers go will be to a variety of environments. Some will be much like Earth. Some will be chosen, I imagine, because they offer the best circumstances for growth, even if they don't resemble Earth.

In a very few cases, mercy will be extended in the form of an erasure of all memory and a startover, although I don't know if that means going back to the Second Dimension or going to lower subplanes of the Third.

Terrestrials describing this option cast it as punishment. See for instance Philip Gilbert's account of the "liquidation" of Nazi concentration-camp guard Irma Grese in New Maps of Heaven. (2)

My understanding is not that the process is retributational but that it allows the individual a fresh start from karma that would otherwise be overwhelming.

However the passage does show that people in the afterlife were aware of devolution.

We may have trouble trying to figure out where the idyllic non-judgmentalness of the higher dimensions comes from. We look at ourselves ... OK, I look at myself and I'm practically constantly judging. I'm an equal-opportunity judge. (Yes, I'm getting better.)

We have to remember that these higher-realm people are immersed in love and bliss. Where now is the system into which judging fits?

Where are thoughts of survival? Of competition? Of someone eating our lunch? Gone are all desires. All are fulfilled. In place of them is universal and unequivocal satisfaction.

That's what allows the higher-dimensional people to minister without judgment to the needs of those who decline to ascend. The space they're in leaves no room for condemnation of another - in thought or deed. All is awash in love.

To all intents and purposes the higher entities are a point of awareness in a sea of love whose every "physical" wish materializes and whose only desire is to serve. (3) Those are the beings into whose care the remainers are given.

Footnotes

(1) One might say, what's the difference between the Fourth Dimension here and the Fourth Dimension or Astral Plane in the afterlife?

The difference is this human physical body we're wearing, which remains largely a non-conductor of the finer states, until carbon is transformed to crystalline.

(2) See "The Suggestion that Some Spirits May Eventually Disintegrate or are 'Liquidated'," New Maps of Heaven, at <https://tinyurl.com/yamyjwuz> and following.

(3) I experienced having my wishes seen to without my speaking a word at a meditation retreat in around 2010. I experienced being a point of awareness in a sea of love in an experience in late May 2015. Both were later described as Seventh Dimensional and both were confirmed as being truncated.

Matthew Ward: The Fate of Those Who Do Not Ascend

March 29, 2010

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/ascension-as-of-2012/the-fate-of-those-who-do-not-ascend/matthew-ward-the-fate-of-those-who-do-not-ascend/>

Matthew Ward: What is at stake is the destiny of her consciously and spiritually slumbering residents: Will they heed their intuition, the messages from their souls, to waken in time to physically accompany Earth? Many of you have family or friends who are stuck in third density thinking and beliefs. By all means offer to share your awareness with those who are interested, but please do not try to impose it upon those who are not—just as you would feel uncomfortable being force-fed opinions that conflict with your innate knowingness, so would be those who are committed to their beliefs that differ from yours.

And please do not feel sad if persons dear to your heart choose not to awaken in this lifetime. Respect their goodness and honesty in the knowing that it is neither your responsibility nor right to try to change their choice to slumber on. After a lifetime in spirit, they will reincarnate in a third density world with another opportunity to "see the light" and evolve spiritually; and, as the independent yet inseparable souls you all are, during bodies' sleep time you will have reunions with your beloved people in places where your and their vibrations permit.

When and how will people who commit dark actions die? Wouldn't it be helpful to know who they are so we can distinguish them from people in the light who die because they fulfilled their soul contracts? There is no way that you can distinguish between the "dark action" persons and those in the light who completed their contracts, and there is no need to do so.

Since there are varying light frequencies in individuals, there can be no mass exodus of those who are darkly-inclined at some specific point in Earth's ascension. Each such person will transition from this lifetime when Earth reaches an energy plane that exceeds that individual's frequency and physical death will come from any of the same causes that exist now.

Where will the souls of all the various densities now living on the planet go if they do not accompany Earth, and will they remember why they did not or will the "veil of forgetting fall?"

The souls whose lifetime energy registration was of the basest density—what some would call "pure evil"—automatically will be drawn to the only part of Nirvana that is separate from the flexible layers, the tiny orb near your moon where the density is so great that it holds those souls captive. They are aware of where they are and what they did that led them to that densest part of Earth's spirit world because it is there that they review their entire past lifetime moment by moment and feel their every emotion along with the emotions of everyone whose lives they touched in any way. (1) This review process is the hell of some religious concepts.

Light is constantly beamed to those souls, and if they choose to accept the light, they will embody in a first density placement in primitive forms that have no memories or intelligence, but only an instinctive existence. (2) This allows those souls to start with a clean slate, unencumbered by memories of the dark behavior that led them to that densest of placements in your part of this universe.

Persons whose lifetime energy was of very low density—those who ignored their soul contracts and whose deliberately ruthless actions prevented others from fulfilling their own contracts, but were not as tyrannical or diabolical as the souls consigned to that tiny orb—automatically are drawn to a first density world and start over from scratch.

When they accept the light that is beamed continuously into the placement, they can incarnate in a second density world where they will have no memory of other lifetimes but do gain a conscience, a capacity for reasoning, and free will choices. With this greater degree of innate abilities comes the option to act within the light or the darkness, thus they can have many lifetimes in second density, relapse into first, or progress into a third density world.

As for the "veil of forgetting" falling on residents of a third density world—how many of you remember why you are where you are?!

Souls now on Earth who are at fourth or higher density spiritual evolvement who do not continue their physical journey with Earth may choose to spend a lifetime in Nirvana, return to their original homeland, move on to another civilization that is compatible with their evolvement station, or return to Earth and enjoy life in her Golden Age.

In all those planes of spiritual awareness there is a great deal of remembering by comparison to the level in any third density world.

However, the eternal life of the soul includes the return to The Beginnings in Creator, so there are eons of layers of forgetfulness to uncover in the unequalled adventure called Life. Light, the pure love essence of Creator Source and the most powerful energy in the cosmos, is available to every soul in every instant, and by accepting the light, each continues evolving by consciously remembering what is known at soul level.

Is the Time of Separation Approaching?

December 13, 2020

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/12/13/315598/>

Credit: ideas.bkconnection.com

In his Dec. 11, 2020 message, Mike Quinsey refers to what has been called, over the years, "the Time of Separation." Let me repeat that passage:

"At this time [those souls who lag behind] are slowly awakening through the higher energies that are reaching Mother Earth, as she enters a new area in the Universe.

"It is vibrating quicker than before and those souls of a lower vibration are experiencing problems accepting and integrating with it as they cannot harmonise with such a high energy. Before it becomes unbearable they will move to another planet where they are suited to its lower vibrations and can continue their evolution. This is the biblical time referred to in the bible as when the 'wheat is separated from the chaff.'" (1)

It was SaLuSa, through Mike, who first introduced me to the notion of a Time of Separation. (2)

There's a difficulty in reducing the separation scenario to a single sentence. Mike says, "they will move to another planet."

I don't think he means that the folks involved will pack a suitcase and be flown to another planet on the next galactic shuttle.

Rather, they'll die of whatever cause, restore themselves on the astral plane, learn from their mistakes, and then reincarnate on a different planet. That's a common scenario for all of us, just not at this time of Ascension. But for those who refuse or cannot endure Ascension, they'll have no memories, while incarnated, of any difference in their lives. They'll simply carry on as if nothing unusual has happened.

Archangel Michael discusses the process of separation. In 2016, he said the Divine Mother was not going to wait forever for Ascension. The Time of Separation was then very close.

Archangel Michael: Now the time of separation is very close. That is why we are speaking to all of you with perhaps a greater urgency than you've heard and felt before.

Steve: What do you mean by time of separation, Lord? SaLuSa discussed it years ago.

AAM: When you made the collective decision to ascend as one, it was spiritually a very mature and evolved decision. ...

That does not mean that, yes, in the infinite and eternal existence of the Mother, she will wait forever because this is the unfoldment of her Plan. This is what the penetration with all of our voices into each and every one of you is about.

There will be those who choose to leave, to abandon their physical forms rather than ascend in physical form.

Steve: That is what you mean by separation - leave?

AAM: That is what I mean and I do not mean being spun off into an alternate world or Earth or Gaia or planet. I mean, simply, abandoning the body, dying, leaving, and coming home. There is no penalty or shame or guilt. It is simply a decision.

But it is not the desire of the Mother that this [Ascension process] simply continue [forever] because what she also sees (what we all see) and what you've repeatedly said to us, even though we operate often in terms of eons rather than years, many of you are tired.

So we do not wish for those who have been stalwart and continue and practice fortitude and persistence along with love to reach the point where they abandon their bodies. And you are seeing that in many. (3)

So following the normal pattern of transitioning, restoring, and then incarnating, in this case, on another planet.

And, yes, the Time of Separation, which was very close in 2016, may now be upon us. (4) All of this chaos may hide an increase in departures due to it.

I don't conceive of the Time as a single event, but many events (many deaths) over time.

Not everyone who leaves will be from this group. Some lightworkers will have finished their service contracts and may return to their home situations.

I've been told that the Company of Heaven will use whatever options present themselves to fulfill the individual's wish to transition - cancer, heart attack, failure of the brakes - even Covid 19.

But read for yourself. There are free databases and books on this site that allow you to conduct your own research into the "Time of Separation" or any other current (or historical) topic. (5)

We have a fear of death. But death is not the road from which there's no return. There are countless returns from what is a natural process of being born into a body and then leaving it later on.

I know this for a fact: We are a spirit inhabiting a body. (An out-of-body experience I had in 1977 demonstrated it to me.) The spirit is unaffected by and unconcerned with what happens to the body once it leaves it. Everything associated with a conscious "I" leaves the body with the spirit.

There's a scene in Men in Black where the man in the restaurant is dying and the MIB find that his face can be opened, revealing a miniature extraterrestrial seated inside at the controls. That scene is truer than we think.

Not in scale and not in "machinery" perhaps. But God in the machine is true.

Credit: Edvard Munch, commons.Wikipedia.org.

"The Time of Separation," May 18, 2016, at <https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/05/18/the-time-of-separation/>

---

In the May 6 reading I had with him, Archangel Michael said, out of the blue - so to speak:

Archangel Michael: Many are leaving, as you know.

Steve: Yes.

AAM: Many are choosing alternative realities. The reality that is of pain and suffering, lack and limitation is not of Nova Earth and not of [the Divine] Mother's creation of 12 dimensions. There is no place for it. So they either have to leave or be relocated. But most of them die. (1)

What's he talking about? What's he referring to?

Many of our sources, some years ago, talked to us about a "time of separation," that would occur.

Not everyone will choose to go on to Ascension. Freely-choosing it is a prerequisite to ascending.

Many - like the cabal - will not have assimilated unto themselves sufficient light energy to ascend. Having sufficient light to be able to tolerate life on the rarified Fifth Dimension is a second prerequisite.

At some point those who will not be ascending will be leaving as the energies become intolerable to them. Or for other reasons.

In fact the time of separation has been occurring for some time, but, as with so many other things, in a phased manner.

One phase was a separation from friends and relatives who consistently didn't want to hear about the consciousness shift and are not taking advantage of it in any way. Many of them have tried to win us over to their point of view. Things became stretched and those relationships may have snapped. That's one meaning of the time of separation.

We were told that fundamentalists in religion and science might choose to go rather than face the truth of the situation, as revealed. To hear Jesus say that the "I" in "I am the way, the truth, and the life" is the Christ or soul or Atman and not Jesus as an individual may be too much for some people. Others may not be able to take in the changes that will occur in their scientific outlook. They may feel too tired. Or dismayed.

We're told that many lightworkers will have finished their contracts and have the freedom, at that point, to choose to leave. Therefore we can't assume that all separations or leave-takings are somehow negative.

At this time we may have entered another phase. Some cabalists may now be choosing to leave. People who've submitted to the cabal's agenda even if they aren't members of the cabal may choose to leave.

Some people, in these end times, have agreed to play roles which meant they had to go through horrific abuse, perhaps to expose sexual slavery, satanic ritualistic abuse, or even snuff-flick killings. They may have endured karma that goes well beyond their soul contract. There may be no need for them to stay and endure more pain.

Their exiting doesn't mean they won't ascend. Of course they will.

My recollection is that the best posture, for taking advantage of the consciousness shift, is to let failed relationships go. Bless them and send them on their way. Don't be surprised if the process of separation accelerates, the nearer we get to Ascension.

And don't be surprised if the valence we place on it now drops away. At some point, I think, it'll be seen as a natural process of comings and goings, as we approach Ascension.

Emmanuel via Langa: The Time of Separation Has Begun

June 4, 2010

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2010/06/04/emmanuel-the-time-of-separation-has-begun/>

This message from Emmanuel (1) that the time of separation has begun was published in March 2009.

With word now coming out that seems to indicate that elements of the cabal such as Northcom may be being brought under control, it has a meaning for me that it did not have before.

SaLuSa and Archangel Michael have commented on the subject as well, at about the same time. SaLuSa first referred to the subject in 2009:

"Keep your sights ever on your upliftment, and know that what is around you will have little effect unless you allow it to be so. The world is slipping into two realities, and the division will take place in accordance with the Law of Attraction." (2)

In April 2010, he again returned to the theme:

"It is therefore understandable that in this present time, there is a distinct separation between those still bound by the pull of the lower vibrations, and those who have risen into the Light of Awareness." (3)

In April 2010, Archangel Michael has also said that a "chasm" is opening up at the present time.

"Time is of the essence, for it is very apparent that the fear and anger of the masses, the power of the forces of nature, and the Earth changes/cleansing are accelerating and increasing in intensity every day. We told you in a recent past message that you are in the midst of a spiritual revolution (March, 2010 message); however, the Earth and the masses of the third-/fourth-dimensional illusional reality are also in the midst of a revolution.

"There is an intense polarization building between the various factions, not just in isolated places around the world, but in every country, involving every race, culture, religion and political affiliation. We have told you that the chasm between the Light and the shadow lands is widening, and it is very apparent from both a lofty and earthly viewpoint." (4)

So what Emmanuel communicates below has some support from other sources. Here then is Emmanuel through Langa from mid-March 2010 on the "time of separation":

Beloved Brothers and Sisters of Earth, the separation has begun.

Gaia has entered the 8th segment of transformation; she is now in the point of no return.

Division has started at third-dimensional level, and the groups of frequencies present in your plane of existence are being regrouped.

From now on, you will be seeing many signs of division and regrouping manifesting in your reality.

Companies will split, friends will stop seeing each other, families will separate, groups will be divided, etc. And at the same time you will be witnessing the absolute opposite; you will join new groups, you will feel closer than ever to your loved ones, family and friends.

This change is neither positive nor negative. It is existential.

This is a natural step in the mass-ascension process.

Existence consists only of vibrations, and when the vibrations that builds your world change, your whole reality changes accordingly.

At soul level you know that at the moment you decided to embark on this journey, you have been empowered by the Infinite Consciousness to be the architect of your destiny. Just by drawing the blueprint you set in motion powerful energy/flows through your system that will lead you into awareness expansion.

When you change your awareness frequency to a higher rate, you align your being with higher vibrations, anchoring them in your material reality, hence helping Gaia in her journey to the fifth density. Remember, giving and receiving happen simultaneously, so when you help Gaia, you are being helped too.

If she makes the ascension, a monumental change will occur in the universe, and you will be part of it. The last time a change of this magnitude has happened in any third-density world was 21 billion of your years ago.

The divine plan for the whole cannot go ahead without you, your individuality was given to you for the good of the whole, and your role is utterly irreplaceable.

Once you understand this, you can start helping others to see the responsibility they have at this crucial point in human history. Everyone in your world has divine power that they do not realize he/she possesses.

The divine powers from within surfaces when consciously he/she start focusing attention on awakening it from the inner core of his/her very consciousness.

Help them and help Gaia by making the most of yourself, raising your personal vibratory frequency towards the Creative Principle of Love. This requires a transformation of your being, a conscious attitudinal shift from your side.

At the end of Gaia's ascension process/separation, two inter-dimensional gateways will open, one leading to fifth-density and the other one ending in third-density, your consciousness will align you with the gateway that best support your most dominant awareness frequency.

The re-union has begun. Little by little your group-soul will get together. In the process you may separate from others, but the shared moments and learning that has been gained in the company of others, will always remain in you as a gift of the beyond.

I AM Emmanuel

Self-Servingness and the Time of Separation

September 25, 2011

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2011/09/25/self-servingness-and-the-time-of-separation/>

God takes no sides

What's the difference between “us against them” self-servingness and this Time of Separation? Surely it's polarity and duality to conceive of “our side” pulling away and “their side” being left behind. Surely implicit in this view is the hidden, unspoken sentiment that God is on our side and not on theirs.

No, not by any means. God takes no sides. God is on all sides. There is no blame or insult that attaches to the decision not to ascend.

We are not the elect, the chosen of God, or anything of the sort. All are on the return journey to God and the speed with which one returns is inconsequential.

But there is – apparently - what the Bible represents as a winnowing, a harvesting just the same.

There is a choice point here and the choice made does depend to some extent on certain qualities. However those who make Choice A and those who make Choice B are not loved more or less by God.

There is a choice to ascend with Earth to the Fifth Dimension. Call it Choice A if you like. There is also a choice to remain, not on Earth because it won't exist in 3D, apparently, but in the Third Dimension in a similar venue to Earth. Or for some people not a similar venue. The really dark individuals, according to Matthew Ward and others, will drop back and visit 1D and 2D to start afresh. (1)

The choice made depends on qualities such as loving or hating, accepting or rejecting, cooperating or harming, etc. Let me take a very extreme example which accounts for a small percentage of people not ascending. I take an extreme example for the purposes of instant clarity. Those individuals who rape and pillage, torture and murder will probably be among people who would not welcome the light, not feel comfortable in it, and not ascend. We can all understand immediately why they would not.

Others may choose not to ascend because they feel uncomfortable religiously or spiritually. Extraterrestrials may show up for them like demons. Spirits may seem to them to be servants of the devil. I'm only guessing. There are many reasons, I would think, why people would choose not to ascend and their free will will be respected.

My understanding is that they will be treated with all loving compassion so it isn't a case of one group being disrespected and regarded as inferior. It isn't a case of self-servingly raising one group up and lowering another in anyone's estimation. It also isn't the case that some won't make a return; eventually all will (with just a very, very few exceptions).

But there is a separation gradually taking place regardless. At this point I would imagine that the separation is merely people drifting apart from one another, the Choice A people finding fellow-feeling among other Choice A people and vice versa. But at some point, whenever Ascension occurs, there will actually be a "physical" choice made and we'll no longer exist in the same dimension.

The Third is the only dimension in which people of all evolutionary stations exist together. Even on the Astral Planes, which I regard as the Fourth, people are sorted out into residents of the Dark Planes, the Lower Summerlands, and the Higher Summerlands. Only here on Earth does a saint rub shoulders with a bank robber. That's one reason that makes this place one where discernment is learned so quickly and so deeply.

So, yes, there will be a separation but, no, it isn't the dualistic case that God is on "our" side and not on "theirs."

Footnotes

(1) Matthew Ward describes the destination of the truly evil. His descriptions of the life-review, descent to the Dark Planes, and then reincarnation in a separate world all conform to the descriptions of postmortem life to be found in New Maps of Heaven. https://goldengaiadb.com/index.php?title=New\_Maps\_of\_Heaven

“The souls whose lifetime energy registration was of the basest density—what some would call pure evil—automatically will be drawn to the only part of Nirvana that is separate from the flexible layers, the tiny orb near your moon where the density is so great that it holds those souls captive. They are aware of where they are and what they did that led them to that densest part of Earth's spirit world because it is there that they review their entire past lifetime moment by moment and feel their every emotion along with the emotions of everyone whose lives they touched in any way. This review process is the hell of some religious concepts.

“Light is constantly beamed to those souls, and if they choose to accept the light, they will embody in a first density placement in primitive forms that have no memories or intelligence, but only an instinctive existence. This allows those souls to start with a clean slate, unencumbered by memories of the dark behavior that led them to that densest of placements in your part of this universe.

“Persons whose lifetime energy was of very low density—those who ignored their soul contracts and whose deliberately ruthless actions prevented others from fulfilling their own contracts, but were not as tyrannical or diabolical as the souls consigned to that tiny orb—automatically are drawn to a first density world and start over from scratch.

“When they accept the light that is beamed continuously into the placement, they can incarnate in a second density world where they will have no memory of other lifetimes but do gain a conscience, a capacity for reasoning, and free will choices. With this greater degree of innate abilities comes the option to act within the light or the darkness, thus they can have many lifetimes in second density, relapse into first, or progress into a third density world.

“As for the veil of forgetting falling on residents of a third density world—how many of you remember why you are where you are?!” (Matthew's Message, March 29, 2010, at <https://www.mathewbooks.com>.)

The Time of Separation and Differences in Dimensions

August 12, 2010

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2010/08/12/the-time-of-separation-and-differences-in-dimensions/>

We've heard the galactic and spirit teachers like SaLuSa and Matthew (not Saul or some of the others necessarily) say that a time of separation will occur.

Matthew has said that one of the features will be that “there will be no crime in fourth density.” (1)

Matthew tells us that we will spend some time in the Fourth Dimension before moving to the Fifth – not a long time and our stay would be accelerated as time continues to speed up - but some time. We cannot simply skip over the Fourth and go to the Fifth.

I'd like to restrict my attention to criminals, though we know many more types of people will not come with us. Why will we separate specifically from criminals? Why does crime not exist in the Fourth Dimension?

Well, dimensions are differentiated one from another by the refinement of vibration that allows a spirit (because we are spirits) to function on that level.

The Fourth Dimension is more refined than the Third Dimension. Matthew calls them “densities” rather than “dimensions,” density referring to refinement of vibration.

The whole lot of us - criminals and non-criminals - exist together on the Third Dimension, rubbing shoulders, but the whole lot of us will not exist on the Fourth. Criminals cannot come along with us.

Crime can only exist where low vibrations exist.

We would not need to eat, drink, sleep, etc., all these things being associated with life in physical bodies.

Now here is where things get complicated and I don't have an answer for it. On the Fourth Dimension in spirit, known as the Astral Planes, life is separated out. The criminals go to levels called the “Dark Planes,” also called the “Winterlands.” Spirits talk about these as if they were somehow "down," at the bottom of spirit life, "in the basement" as Churchill in spirit once called the place where Hitler went to. But the criminals still exist in the Fourth (non-material) Dimension along with the non-criminals, just in different regions.

The uncorrupted or virtuous people go to “higher” regions usually called the Summerlands. Again, still in the Fourth Dimension but conventionally thought of as somehow “higher” than the Winterlands.

In fact the vibration is more refined in the Summerlands than in the Winterlands.

But the analogy breaks down in our present case because, whereas Summerlands and Winterlands both exist in the Fourth (non-material) Dimension, we will be leaving the Third Dimension with our bodies and going to the Fourth and then the Fifth Dimension, but the criminals will be staying with their bodies in the Third.

But be that as it may, the time of separation will see us raising our vibrations to the Fourth Dimension and the criminals, again according to the galactic and spirit teachers, dying off and continuing their reincarnational round, where they are once again born into physical bodies, in the Third Dimension until the next opportunity to ascend. That comes in, I suppose, 26,000 more years or sooner if they ascend individually through spiritual practice.

So we will raise our vibrations; the criminals will not. We'll gravitate gradually to the higher-vibrational level of the Fourth Dimension but they'll remain in the Third. Or lower.

Apparently all we'll notice is that they're not showing up around us as much as they used to. Who is showing up around us more often will be people of similar vibration. We'll simply notice that the people we are meeting are much like us and that we don't see people of a lower-vibrational nature as often as we used to.

However, viewed from the vantage point of our galactic and spirit teachers, this is the Time of Separation and we and the lower-vibrational contingent are moving apart, towards different destinations.

From everything I've heard, the Fifth Dimension appears to resemble the plane above the Astral, which most spirits call the "Mental Planes." But I mentioned to you earlier that it is hard to describe the Mental Planes, much harder than the Astral, because by the time spirits reach them, they have a greatly-diminished desire to speak to us. They're busy, fully occupied, well-integrated into spirit life, and think much less about us than they did when they were newly transitioned.

Besides that, it is peculiarly hard to communicate about the differences between planes. On all planes there exist grass, trees, flowers, lakes. The grass, trees, etc., on the Astral Planes are beautiful. The grass, trees, etc., on the Mental Planes are orders of magnitude more beautiful. But both have grass, trees, etc.

If you read the accounts of people on the different planes, they have a hard time describing the differences because their descriptions are very subjective. The experience of the higher planes is much more marvellous because the vibrational nature of that plane is ever so much more refined. But how do you describe refinement of vibration or degrees of marvellousness?

Spirits on the Astral Planes use superlatives to describe them. But spirits on the Mental Planes also use superlatives. They are just more awestruck. Their breath is taken away even more. But still they are describing grass, trees, etc. Can you see their difficulty? "Oh, the Astral Planes are magnificent! Oh, the Mental Planes are even more magnificent!" The difference is not easy to describe.

I anticipate that, when we enter the Fourth Dimension and then the Fifth Dimension, there will continue to be grass, trees, etc., but our experience of the grass, trees, etc., will be much more breathtaking than of the same features on the Third Dimension. The colors of trees on the Fifth Dimension will be even more glorious than they were on the Fourth. But we will not have words to describe the colors.

In a recent message, SaLuSa had difficulty describing life in the Fifth Dimension. (2) There will be colors, fragrances and sounds that are unknown in the Third Dimension. Flowers on the Fourth Dimension may give off sounds (yes, sounds) but flowers on the Fifth Dimension will give off more glorious sounds. SaLuSa advises us:

"Dream your vision of the higher realms, and what you find will still be beyond your imagination. Words cannot do justice to the range of colours and the beauty that reveals everything in a state of perfect expression. " (3)

Ivo of Vega: Some People will be Reincarnating on Another Low Frequency Planet

Feb. 22, 2021

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/02/22/ivo-of-vega-the-nature-of-negativity/>

(Extract only.)

Ivo: Some are not capable of holding a higher frequency than a negative one, my love. And as you know, those people will be reincarnating on another low frequency planet that will support them. ...

The timelines are splitting out and they are qualified in terms of truth versus lies. You get to choose which you wish to invest your energy in. In other words you are voting now, but with your energy. And you are investing in the future you wish your children to have.

As for the negative polarity, most of them will not be watching these videos. That is a fact. These people do not believe there are others who can speak to us “aliens” any more than they believe that JB is not president.

People come to this planet and other planets of the third-dimensional frequency to hold low light. Many are not very evolved. Some choose to hold low light again in order to re-learn a lesson that would affect them in the future if not done correctly. Many are stuck under mind control and cannot escape as they do not have the energy to do so.

Everything is energy and frequency. There is no other law. Everything in consciousness vibrates and that is because it is alive. Everything has a measurable frequency. This frequency can be changed in the human and other species of life because that is the nature of life: learning and evolving.

For those who stubbornly hold on to a set of beliefs that keeps their frequency low, they are not willing to evolve. And this will ultimately mean the demise of their line of DNA.

Yes. This is an extinction event. On planet Earth, only certain types of DNA will evolve or ascend. Other types of DNA will not. Homo Sapiens is slated for extinction. Homo Universalis will prevail.

The nature of negativity on planet Earth is simply descending into morbid toxicity. If you do not see this now in your fashions, with their skulls and crossbones, you are being subjected to a poisonous mindset by mind control and buying into it, no less.

Me: Yes, Lisa Renee calls it the “death culture.

Ivo: You must be aware that the collective mindset has been degrading over many millennia. Since Victorianism where things were somewhat more ethical than is the case today. And the negative timeline will not rise. Negativity in and of itself, without the positive polarity entwined with it, is doomed. I do not wish to give such a foreboding message, but it will be the task of those on the positive timelines in future to attempt to save those on the negative timelines. ...

Me: Won't the incoming energies raise the frequency of the negative timelines?

Ivo: [They] will, but the free will of those of lower frequency will hold it in place. Energy cannot displace free will. You were given free will, even the free will to give your free will away. Those in lower timelines do that. When they realize they are being controlled and realize they do not like it, then there will be hope for them.

Frequency will always split into timelines. Disparate frequencies cannot co-exist. They will always split out. More and more realities will emerge from this point in time, thankfully more positive ones than negative.

Me: I think it's already started because last December 21st and the few months before then were a totally different energy.

Ivo: Exactly, my love. The timelines are splitting apart and will continue to do so according to the frequency of members of the collective. Similar frequencies will collect in new timelines. It is important what you believe and who you allow to influence you now, very important.

How will the Recalcitrants Leave the Planet?

October 27, 2018

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2018/10/27/how-will-the-recalcitrants-leave-the-planet/>

We're watching tremendous chaos and mayhem occurring, such as - according to the Arcturians - we haven't seen before:

“Some of the major leaders of Gaia are doing much more harm than has ever been done by any human leaders before.”

The reason for this is “because the Dark Ones,” the Illuminati or cabal, “are losing.”

“Therefore, they are pulling out all their worst tricks and tactics to keep humans frightened, under-educated, able to purchase rifles that can kill many people within just a few moments, and leaders who care only for themselves and not for those whom they are supposedly leading.

“Dear brave humans, please remember that ‘The Darkest Night is just before dawn.’” (1)

At some point, the cabal's free will gives way before ours, according to Divine Plan. At some point, the recalcitrants won't be able to endure the rising vibrations and will have to leave. ...

How will the recalcitrants leave the planet? Many will leave by death. Mira of the Pleiadian High Council tells us that ships are waiting with instructions as to where to take the rest once their free will to destroy no longer prevails against our free will to build:

“The Light Fleet is advancing quickly in on the forces of darkness. There are billions of Galactic ships positioned to remove the most problematic perpetrators of death and destruction from the Earth. ...

“We have been granted permission to use whatever means are possible to achieve this goal. You can imagine how pleased we are to announce this. ...

“Each ship has specific directions about what to do and where to go. The destinations are perfectly timed and filtered through technology that allows us the advantage.” (4)

Never again will the usurpation of power be allowed on Earth, Mira tells us.

“We hear the calling from the Earth and from humanity for an end to the atrocities of the harsh way of life you have been living. We promise you this is our common goal. The damage has been done and there is no room for any more. ...

“Never again in the history of the Earth will self-serving beings be allowed to usurp the energies and resources of all of life on any planet. The days of the enslavement have been declared over. You are being freed from the rot and greed.” (5)

The Spiritual Hierarchy and Galactic Federation through Sheldan Nidle make the same report:

“The dark cabal has reached the point where its only option is to surrender. Every strategy to disrupt the Light has utterly failed. We are approaching the very brink of events that are to be the true prelude to your freedom and the rise of new governance.” (6)

These events are what Mira described - taking the hold-outs to a new, more suitable dimensional setting aboard galactic ships.

The SHGF also hints at their well-thought-out plan:

“Along with our Earth allies, we are in the middle of executing a well-thought-out plan that is dismantling the existing power structure. A sweeping series of untested strategies is being successfully implemented that continues to perplex the dark cabal.

“Our sacred coalition, which is working smoothly together, is busy setting the stage for our eventual triumph. It is sheer joy to watch so many dynamic, strategic elements come together, like silken threads, to enmesh the conceited cabal in the web of its own corrupt legal system.

“Elements are already in play that have legally forced the dark to relinquish much of its power and prevented large-scale international wars from breaking out. The next steps are to end the power of fiat money and jolt the bankers from their lairs.

"These actions in turn are to set the stage for permanent prosperity that transforms global poverty and homelessness. It is to replace these brutal earthbound tragedies with a jubilee that frees all humanity.” (7)

Not a minute too soon for lightworkers living out of their cars and worse.

Meanwhile, the love that we light workers send out is changing the reality of the world, Jesus tells us:

“Do not be discouraged by the continuing flow of information about corruption in high places. Instead, remember that this has been going on for eons, while information about it was deeply hidden.

"It has always been there. Many have suspected it, but the evidence was not available to confirm it. Now it is all coming out because the Light of Love, that you all intend to open to and demonstrate in your daily lives, is massively effective.

“Your loving intentions are changing each of you, assisting you to act from your heart centers with honesty and integrity, and are then flowing out from you in waves of loving energy that is assisting enormously in changing the world.” (8)

There we have it: 'proof positive' that our "waves of loving energy [are] assisting enormously in changing the world." We hear it from Jesus himself that sending out love to the world is having its desired effect.

So for those people wondering what they can do during this Accountability phase of Ascension, send love out to the world. Draw it up from your heart on the inbreath and send it out to the world on your outbreath.

Can we put the matter in a nutshell?

Yes. The rising of energies on the planet are causing a rising of consciousness, as we know.

Those who cannot brook the higher vibrations will at some point leave. (9)

Those who don't leave by natural means the galactics will transport. They will take them to a dimensional setting more suited to their systems and persuasion than ours is becoming, undoubtedly lovingly attended by their guardians.

The rest of us will travel on, aware that life is becoming more and more peaceful, loving, and harmonious. (10)

(9) I've experienced the workings of this process. I myself had to leave the astral plane during an out-of-body experience in 1977.

When you're visiting in your dream state, the only dimension you could go back to then was the old Third. I therefore returned to my body.

So I experienced the process of being forced back to a lower dimension that will eventually exclude recalcitrants from remaining on the Ascension train. They will not be able to tolerate the finer vibrations.

(10) I look forward to returning to the days when I could leave my bicycle on the front lawn and our front door open.

The Galactics and the Chances of Nuclear War (Nil)

March 5, 2022

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/03/05/the-galactics-and-the-chances-of-nuclear-war-nil/>

A giant UFO hovers over the dark cloud plume from the volcano on Sangeang Api, Indonesia. What might it be doing?

Given the galactics' plan to disclose themselves if it appears we're headed for a nuclear war, I'd like to look briefly here at their interaction with us around nuclear weapons, power, and warfare generally.

My starting point is Commander Ashtar, a star fleet commander who lives beyond the twelve dimensions. (1) Recently he made the announcement in question:

Ashtar: If they start a full scale nuclear war, we will intervene. And we, the GFL [Galactic Federation of Light], will take the opportunity to show ourselves as the ones who saved planet Earth. That will be the moment of Disclosure. (2)

Their very presence would be a show-stopper. But them stopping a nuclear war at the same time would be dazzling.

However, the fact is ... they've already stopped it.

No nuclear bombs can be exploded any more on Earth or in space. To understand why, I have to back up around 75 years.

It was a nuclear explosion that persuaded some of our galactic neighbors to put a stop to them. The Pleiadians through Wes Annac tell us why:

"Elements of your star family have been very, very busy working in various different timelines to stop chaotic and warlike actions that would have taken your collective into negative territory that you aren't meant to enter into at this stage of the [Ascension] game and they first took notice when your atom bomb was exploded [in 1945] and millions of souls experienced a level of devastation and suffering unlike any that had been experienced thus far.

"We all took notice when the atom bomb was created and deployed, and, since this happened, your star family has worked very hard to disengage nuclear and various other warlike weapons that your cabal intended to deploy against humanity." (3)

Say what? Millions of souls suffering? Deploy against humanity?

SaLuSa of Sirius tells us that, "although we have not been allowed to stop all wars, we have put a stop to nuclear devices being used to start a Third World War." (4)

The Pleiadians as well inform us that they've prevented many nuclear detonations since the Second World War:

"We Pleiadians have helped ... to deactivate nuclear warheads and other destructive weaponry, the detonation of which is far outside of humanity's freewill perimeters and we've stationed ourselves in your skies along with the Sirians and Andromedans to cleanse and heal the bulk of [radioactive?] pollution." (5)

Supposing that radioactive pollution is what the Pleiadians are talking about, have we an example of the galactics eliminating it? Yes, we do. They removed depleted uranium from the atmosphere. DU is a planet-killer. (6)

Steve: If the galactics had not neutralized depleted uranium, would this planet have died?

Archangel Michael: Yes. Now let me explain. It is not just that she would have died. It would have been that her will to continue on would not have been there.

SB: Wow, eh? That serious.

AAM: Yes, that serious. (7)

Although he doesn't say how it would have occurred, SaLuSa tells us that the galactics have stopped the whole planet from being totally destroyed more than once.

"We have stopped the total destruction of Earth on a number of occasions since the end of your last World War, and have succeeded in ensuring you are all here today to witness the end of the last cabal." (8)

Michael provides a list of the kinds of operations they've stopped or moderated:

"We have prevented nuclear devastation. We have prevented global disintegration. We have prevented wars and mayhem. We have prevented tidal waves. We have prevented or softened earthquakes." (9)

We don't have to take their word for it. Our star family has been seen by Earth observers to prevent nuclear missiles from operating and to laser missiles in flight. (10) See:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VgziDyPSUog>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=liHkj0lziuw>

These are the reasons why Archangel Michael could state in 2013: "There [will] not be a further incidence of what you think of as nuclear war." (11)

So no nuclear war for Planet Earth.

Looking back on Fukushima, Matthew Ward reminded us:

"Nuclear power in the hands of a third density population is pure folly and nuclear weaponry is suicidal—on numerous occasions universal family members have prevented catastrophic outcomes in both areas. What a great day it will be when the people of Earth can thank their family from other worlds whose help in myriad ways has been invaluable!" (12)

I consider it not so much a reminder of our folly with weapons - although I get that - as a reminder of our galactic family having prevented planetary catastrophes on more than one occasion. We owe them our gratitude.

So there we have it. Humanity is prevented from destroying itself as well as beings on other dimensions by a watchful and capable star fleet above us in millions of cloaked ships. All the talk about nuclear war, firing nuclear missiles, rattling nuclear swords is all simply posturing.

But that may not stop the galactics from using the dark's pretense to possibly jar loose Disclosure.

Footnotes

(1) Ashtar: What we have done is we have brought our vibrations to the fifth dimension in order to be at a place where we can meet you. If you are to think of the human realm and what is available currently to you, if you were looking for me, I would be out of the realm of human experience. So, let us make that clear as well.

Steve: That means above the twelfth dimension, is that correct?

A: That is correct. ("An Introduction to Enlightenment and the Trinity – Part 2/2," May 14, 2012, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2012/05/14/an-introduction-to-enlightenment-and-the-trinity-part-22/>.)

No Chance of Nuclear War

September 6, 2016

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/09/06/no-chance-nuclear-war/>

Not in our future

Rumors of a nuclear World War III persist but will a world war be allowed to happen? And need it be a factor in our considerations of building Nova Earth?

Those of us who know that the planet is surrounded and protected by intergalactic federations of light know that Armageddon will never happen.

The matter has been discussed for years now in the channeled literature that our star family uses to communicate with us. They've prevented many attempted uses of nuclear weaponry.

Anyone who listens to their messages will have heard their assurances that the Divine will not permit the hostile use of nuclear weapons on this planet or in space. Let's look at some of them.

Matthew Ward is one of the more informative of our sources on the question. On June 19 of this year, he assured us that the command to prevent nuclear explosions in space comes from Creator:

“Concerns about countries developing, modernizing or expanding nuclear capabilities have prompted questions about our assurance that there won’t be a nuclear war—if not by intention, what about a rash reaction to faulty communication or some accident?

“The assurance we gave, which covers the realm of possibilities, comes from Creator. Souls have been damaged by nuclear explosions in space, and in decreeing that never again will that happen, Creator made this sole exception to Its gift of free will: Anyone who attempts such an explosion will be prevented from succeeding.

“In this universe God authorized all spiritually and technologically advanced civilizations to cause detonation failure of nuclear warheads on launched missiles, and on behalf of Earth alone, this has been accomplished about a dozen times.” (1)

The cabal planned to reduce the population from 7 billion to a more manageable 500 million by starting a nuclear war, Mike Quinsey says:

"The ‘silent war’ over who controls the Earth and its people is coming to an end very soon, and you will be relieved to know that the threat hanging over your heads has been removed.

“To be prisoners on your own planet would have been bad enough, but plans had been made to drastically reduce the population. Some of you have learnt who is responsible and in time all will be revealed to everyone so that you understand what had been planned for your future. ...

“However, the Hierarchy of Light have kept a constant watch over you all and ensured that matters did not get out of control.” (2)

Ten years ago, in 2012, SaLuSa of Sirius, speaking for the Galactic Federation of Light through Mike Quinsey, described how attempts to explode nuclear bombs had been tried and failed:

“Although attempts have been made to start another World War, they have failed and will continue to do so. ...

”Our technology is such that we have total control over what happens.... Authorities have been informed that we will not allow nuclear weapons to be used, and that we are opposed to any form of aggression.

“It is therefore quite pointless to continue war games, and take part in all of the posturing that inflames the situation. Our patience is running out and if matters do not improve, we shall use our authority to bring a halt to all attempts to engage in warlike moves.” (3)

He revealed that some cabal military commanders were pressing for nuclear weapons to be used:

“Often we are forced into such a position when our orders are ignored, and we only give them where we are authorized to intervene. On most occasions it is when nuclear weapons are about to be used, and all of your governments have been warned that we will not allow it to happen.

“Believe us, Dear Ones, some of your military commanders are still intent on using them to start another war.” (4)

However, nothing has changed since 2012 regarding the promise of our star brothers and sisters. Their promise is not something they make one day and forget the next. They continue to patrol our skies and will until the threat has passed with Ascension.

Not only the galactics, but the celestials as well have offered their assurances. Here's Archangel Michael:

“Now once again upon your planet, as this is transpiring, there is a threat of reaction, of war. Now, we want you to know, it is very, very seldom, rare – because of our agreements and because of Universal Law – that we interfere in such matters.

“But we wish to suggest to you, very strongly, that, as this reorganization globally takes place that was marked so beautifully by revolution and evolution in so many countries, it will not be allowed to deteriorate back into war.

“You and I, and many in every realm, have worked too long and too hard. We are too close to that breakthrough to allow that interference to occur.” (5)

Thus no one need fear that anything like World War III will break out on the planet. It won't be allowed by forces much more powerful and benign than we are. The impetus towards the consciousness shift is too great for it to be derailed by any actions of the recalcitrants.

A revolution of love and peaceful co-existence is fated to arise on Earth within the foreseeable future. And those most responsible for it are not even deemed to exist by most people on Earth.

What a surprise is in store for us when we meet our star family who've prevented this planet from being destroyed from nuclear pollution, oil spills, chemtrails, manmade earthquakes, hurricanes, and world war.

The Days of Military Conquest are Over

December 6, 2014

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/12/06/the-days-of-military-conquest-are-over/>

The U.S.S. Donald Cook

Ben Fulford recently revealed an incident which apparently happened in the Black Sea this past April. A Sukhoi SU-24 Russian fighter jet buzzed an American destroyer, the U.S.S. Donald Cook, twelve times simulating a missile attack against it.

The ship was unable to respond allegedly because the Russian plane carried an electronic warfare system that shut down all the destroyer's electronic systems. (1)

I have no desire to make anyone uncomfortable, but I do want to speculate on military operations in the world today, using the example of the American military as a case in point.

Although I use the U.S. as an example, I'm sure the same could be said of other leading nations in the world: their military power has been and would be curtailed in the event they acted on the thought of military conquest. We simply don't know about their situation and we do know about that of the U.S.

Military power has no more place on this globe. These are some instances and indications that demonstrate it.

The implication of Ben's report is that the destroyer fleet and any other ships with hostile intent can be jammed so completely that they become no threat at all to the nation they intended to attack.

This is not the first time that message has been communicated.

Consider that the Russians are equipped with carrier-busting bombs that make the carrier fleet obsolete at little or not cost to the developers ... compared to the cost of building a carrier task force, that is. (2) Given that these carrier killers have been given to Iran and China, I think the strategic advantage of the modern carrier fleet has been nullified.

Moreover, in February 2007, William Thomas reported that the Chinese caused critical systems aboard Dick Cheney's plane, returning from Australia, to abort their flight and land in Singapore. There the Chinese military attache told Cheney exactly what had gone wrong. The Chinese showed that they can control American aircraft. (3)

They showed it again when they apparently took over a B52 secretly carrying nuclear bombs to the Middle East to be used to jump-start World War III by bombing Iran. (4)

Around the same time, Thomas reported that the Chinese had placed "designed-to-fail" microchips in all American military motherboards. (5)

The minute the systems are put on operational status, the microchips turn off. Think of a few million Trojan horses. Or perhaps Trojans to be exact.

So now add to the obsolete fleet every operational system everywhere - every weapon, every delivery system, every communications system, you name it.

Is there more? Need there be more?

I believe the top echelons of the U.S. Navy are white hats.

Workers at a deep underground military bunker excavation. The excavators used have never been released for civilian use.

As evidence, consider the Navy's takeover of Northern Command. (6) I suspect Northcom gave the civilian conspirators the military support needed for pulling off 9/11.

Northcom controls NORAD, whose officers sent their planes flying off over Canada on a "training" mission that tragic day of 9/11. That showed the officers to be either the most incompetent in the world or the most corrupt. (The head of NORAD was later promoted for his part in events.)

Take as well the secret space fleet, Solar Warden. (7) The secret what? America has been flying to Mars since the 1970s. NASA is just a distraction.

And Solar Warden compared to the galactic ships that hover above the Earth in peace, invisible to us, is equivalent to tin toys and party favors against the real thing, the galactics have told us. (8)

Nonetheless the control of Northern Command, and with it NORAD and Solar Warden, has transitioned to the Navy. (9)

There's more.

Remember the destruction of many deep underground military bunkers (DUMBs) in 2011? (10) Those were the hideouts that the cabal intended to use to last out a nuclear winter, once they triggered World War III. Now they have to stay up here with the rest of us. I sincerely doubt they'd choose to do that.

Aurora TR3-B 27 of the secret space fleet, Solar Warden

And now the coup de grace. The galactics above this planet for the most peaceful of purposes will not allow a nuclear bomb to be exploded with hostile intent - on this planet or in space. (11) How could the message be brought home more clearly to those in the military who still think world dominance is possible?

These matters should reassure us that no military power has the ability today to mount a hostile mission of global consequence anywhere in the world.

Worries of a nuclear World War III are baseless. Despite the environment created by ubiquitous video games and endless war stories and crime dramas on TV, any attempt at creating extensive military conflict no longer has a chance of succeeding or of even getting started.

No possibility exists of deep-state martial law or corralling the population in FEMA camps either.

I suggest that lightworkers who give prominence to disinformation proclaiming that we're on the verge of a world war are fanning the flames of fear and simply giving comfort to the recalcitrants.

The highest brass, led by the Navy I think, have no desire to operate in a hostile manner. The days of Masters of the Universe are gone. It just takes someone with a lot of stars on their shoulder to announce it.

Even an underground sea...? Yes.

Until they do, as a sovereign citizen of Planet Earth, I'll announce it.

The days of military conquest are over. The reign of peace on this planet has been inaugurated by a cast of thousands of white hats and Earth allies. They risked their lives to defeat a clique of military leaders who were determined to take over the world at any cost and were themselves defeated.

They sought to take it over by false-flag provocations, a propaganda war, weather warfare, manmade pandemics, financial warfare, rigged elections, and other well-planned programs designed to mislead the public and take away its ability to control its leaders.

The recalcitrants are now invited to lay down their arms, put aside their hostile intentions, and join us in the reconstruction of this planet, which has suffered more than all of us combined.

All of us need to put aside the desire for wealth and power and turn to the work together of seeing to the planet that has so patiently tolerated us. It could have thrown us off in some life-destroying cataclysm. It could have chosen to die as a planet and become a cold, lifeless orb like so many out there.

But instead it chose to ask for help, which it received, and patiently began to heal itself and let us know that the time had arrived to turn aside from the ways of hatred and war.

A New Age has dawned and the military has an honored place in it.

Let the military provide the brains and strength to help raise new structures on this planet - not a "new world order" but a new love-drenched society, with peace on Earth and goodwill towards all.

Of the destruction of the bases, SaLuSa says:

"We have no hesitation in showing our superiority where technologies are concerned, and make it clear to the dark Ones that opposition to us is futile. Yet they stubbornly refuse to give in, knowing that any engagement with them requires us to obey the rules.

“We respect all life, whereas they have none at all even when it comes to fellow humans. Life to them is expendable, and they will use it to gain over anyone who gets in their way.

“We on the other hand will remove our ‘enemies’ to safety rather than kill or wound them. You may therefore be assured that we removed all personnel prior to destroying underground military bases. Anyone who says otherwise is untruly reporting events, and out to paint a false picture of us.” (SaLuSa, Dec, 2, 2011, at https://www.treeofthegoldenlight.com/First\_Contact/Channeled\_Messages\_by\_Mike\_Quinsey.htm.)

Matthew Ward says: "We can say with certainty that there will be no nuclear war on Earth because Creator decreed that there will be no more such wars anywhere in the cosmos." (Matthew's Message, May 2, 2014.)

The galactics also deactivated HAARP (High Altitude Auroral Research Project), the mainstay of weather warfare. Says Matthew: “That information was transmitted prior to the removal of weather-manipulating scientists by space family members living among you. Mother Nature is back in control of storms, earthquakes and wildfires, her means of releasing negativity.” (Matthew's Message, Nov. 22, 2013.)

Our Greatest Challenge

Sept. 18, 2012

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/ascension-as-of-2012/the-fate-of-those-who-do-not-ascend/our-greatest-challenge/>

Matthew Ward and SaLuSa have said repeatedly that the people who may have the most difficulty when the truth of our history is revealed will be people of a strong religious background – this may include religious leaders, religious orders, fundamentalists, etc.

The task of lightworkers is to see that as many as possible ascend. That's why we incarnated, many of us leaving higher dimensions and other planets to come here at this time to assist.

So not to judge or separate ourselves from anyone, but to understand how we can better assist those groups whose native impulse would be to reject Ascension, let's look at what the galactics, masters and celestials say about the strongly religious whose views might see them oppose the idea of ascending.

Matthew Ward confirms that reaching the deeply religious will be our greatest challenge.

“Your greatest challenge will be the people who will rebel against the truth that will be revealed about the origin and purpose of religions. Religion forms the belief system that extends to all facets of billions of lives, and the initial reaction for the majority of adherents will be total rejection of the revelations, which if accepted, would shatter the very foundation of their lives.” (1)

He attempts to convey how we'd feel if we were in their position by constructing a different story of what our future holds for us and asking us how we would react to encountering the “truth”:

“Consider how you would feel if suddenly information disclosed worldwide were akin to this: An eternity in heaven or hell follows death; the only close connections between you and anyone else are family ties and friendships; the only civilization in the universe is on Earth; when you talk to God, if you hear an answer, it's from Satan; and if you believe differently from this, your whole life is based on lies.

“You KNOW this is not your truth, and your entire being would reject it. Those billions whose beliefs also are their very being don't know that they are living in the veil devised by dark deceivers, and they will react the same as you would.” (2)

Many who believe that Christ is the only way to salvation may be shocked to learn that this is not a true statement. Others hold that their version of God is the only god. The apocalyptic views that many fundamentalists hold are also not true, SaLuSa tells us. They may have been once, but our evolvement has altered our destiny.

“Those who uphold [fundamentalist] religious beliefs ... feel bound by the apocalyptic prophecies of their ancient teachings. Many are no longer applicable as they were given at a time when they seemed possible, but events since have changed the outcome. This year will sorely test their beliefs, but obviously like anyone else they have a future of their own creation.” (3)

Matthew tells us that accepting truth is one of the requirements for ascending.

“To physically ascend with Earth, however, does require more than living a good life, a godly life. It also requires leaving behind third density's deceitful foundation of religious beliefs and accepting the brilliant light of spiritual truth.” (4)

He tells us that those who hold mistaken views of religion must re-educate themselves into cosmic and universal truths if they are to ascend.

“If they are to make the journey with Earth into the higher densities, their reeducation into the cosmic and universal truths will be essential. And painful. For many, it will be too painful to keep on living in a world where the 'anti-Christ' for the Christians, and by whatever other terms equally apply to those firmly in the grasp of other religions, has taken over the planet.” (5)

SaLuSa discussed this matter as recently as Sept. 14, 2012, when he said: “Those souls who are deeply immersed in their religious beliefs will be amongst the last to accept the truth.” (6)

Matthew said they may depart rather than abandon their views: "Many whose religious or scientific beliefs are the foundation of their lives will choose to depart rather than accept the forthcoming truths that differ profoundly from what they were taught." (7)

He then goes on to describe what he, as an ascended master, regards as the truth that differs from the views that many among the strongly religious hold.

“The truth is, as equal parts of God — by whatever name you call the ruler of this universe — all of you are gods and goddesses with unlimited powers to manifest whatever you choose to think, feel and do.

“The truth is, religions were devised to keep you from knowing who you truly are, to keep you ignorant of the universal laws, and to create divisiveness within the populace.

“The truth is, peoples you call 'natives of the land' or 'aboriginals' are closely attuned to the universal consciousness whereas religious dogmas, especially in Western religions, were made through the centuries by church leaders to obliterate that natural attunement, control the masses and acquire wealth for themselves.” (8)

A very uncomfortable truth, SaLuSa tells us, is that many at the pinnacle of religion have altered the truth to serve their purposes of wanting power and control over the masses: “Over time [the] interpretation [of the truth] has been deliberately changed to place more power and control into the controllers’ hands, so much so that the true meaning has become obscured.” (9)

Matthew shares SaLuSa's view of the darker purposes of some religious leaders and says that many religious people will choose to die and remain in Third-Dimensionality rather than accept this truth.

“A large number of people who have lived in godly ways will choose not to ascend with Earth after the truth about the origin of religions emerges: They [religions] were designed in darkness to deceive and control the peoples, by the most divisive element of life on Earth, and reap wealth for the heads of churches.

“Although everyone on Earth knows that truth at soul level and it is a contract choice to consciously remember it, many of the devoutly religious will be unable or unwilling to accept that their deep-seated faith is founded on false teachings.

“By so doing, these individuals deny the light within truth, that they are god and goddess selves, eternally inseparable from God and all other souls in this universe. Their next pre-birth contract will again include the provision to become consciously aware of that truth during their next physical lifetime, which will be in a third-density world.” (10)

In another message, Matthew calls the acceptance of these truths the “final exam.”

“The 'final exam,' if you will, is whether they can accept the truths that shortly will start emerging about the darkness that for so long has kept your world 'in the dark,' especially control of the masses through religious dogma. Individuals who cannot accept the truths—enLIGHTenment—will choose at soul level to physically leave the planet.

“After a suitable time in Nirvana [the Spirit Planes], where they will see how they veered from their soul contracts wherein they had chosen to awaken, they will welcome the opportunity to embody in other third-density placements and resume learning at the level where it left off.” (11)

SaLuSa mentions especially those who live in or follow the advice of religious orders as having the greatest difficulty accepting these hard truths.

“We know that the most reluctant souls will be those who have placed their complete faith in religious orders. They will find it difficult to accept that they could have erred in their understanding, or have even been deliberately mislead.

“For some the challenge will be too much, and they will prefer to hold onto their existing beliefs. That is of course accepted as a show of their freewill choice, and it will be honored.” (12)

I've written a number of articles on the return of the masters. The masters like Jesus, Buddha, Lao Tzu, the Ancient of Days (Sanat Kumara), and others will return to speak to their respective followers and move them away from their current views and towards the higher, universal truths.

SaLuSa, on Sept. 14, 2012, said that “that problem has been foreseen, and the respective teachers on whom their beliefs are based will return to explain what their true message was.” (13)

Matthew advises us to “not feel sad if persons dearest to you are among the non-receptive. Spiritual evolvement comes at a pace that is as unique as each soul itself is—when the time is right for your beloved people to have conscious awareness of universal knowledge and grow spiritually, they will.” (14)

So bringing the devoutly religious into the fold, so to speak, may present lightworkers with their greatest challenge. It will require a great deal of patience, understanding and compassion. What we have tried to do here is present what most likely will be their world view and spiritual understandings, as well as what the Company of Heaven calls the real purpose of some religious leaders.

These matters are something that many among the devout will not want to hear. To assist us in our work of gently trying to present to them the true view of what is happening to their world when the galactics suddenly show up above and upon it, many of the ascended masters will return to help us with our task.

Past Tense, Future Perfect

July 16, 2015

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/16/past-tense-future-perfect/>

After 9/11, it's my personal view that the Illuminati, who'd been planning a takeover of the world since centuries ago, grew careless because they believed they'd achieved or would soon achieve their goals.

They'd sold us on their scenarios that they'd planned since the Seventies: first the Cold War, then terrorists, then rogue nations, then asteroids, and finally extraterrestrials. These "threats" would be used to stampede the world's population into giving more and more of their civil rights away to their corrupted governments.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7ALLUuvsVkM>

Dr. Carol Rosin exposes the Illuminati agenda

They were adept at using weather-warfare weapons like HAARP to redirect hurricanes like Hurricane Katrina, cause earthquakes in Indonesia, Japan, Haiti,

Chile and New Zealand, spark forest fires, and many other acts of aggression against their own population and others around the world.

They produced pandemic viruses and seeded the skies with chemtrails, sickening the world. The vaccines they offered were toxic and designed to be fatal.

They were behind white-slavery rings, pedophilia, snuff flicks, and the international drug trade. The latter they used to finance their black projects. Government agents, like the DEA's Enrique "Kiki" Camarena, who were guilty of doing their job, were tortured and murdered probably by or at the instigation of their own country's corrupted agents.

The Illuminati captured governments, religions, education, medicine, etc.

They had a significant presence in the military. They hadn't captured it completely by any means but they believed they held the upper hand. The white hats in the military (primarily the Navy) ended up taking command of Solar Warden (the secret space fleet) as well as significant arms of the military such as Northern Command.

And, relevant to us as financial wayshowers, they captured business, commerce, banking and other areas of the economy.

I believe that, because they saw their march forward to world control and even mastery of the universe (through Solar Warden) as assured, they ceased to care about being meticulous. Pedophile parties in Washington, mortgage-tranching in the foreclosure scam, attempts to transport a nuclear bomb to the Middle East to be used against Iran - these are examples of Illuminati initiatives which were intercepted or foiled. The Illuminati began to look inept.

However all this was as nothing compared to what the unseens were doing, which you won't find in insider or whistleblower accounts. The galactics refused to allow the explosion of a nuclear bomb in space. They gathered evidence on the Illuminati to close the trap on them through legal means. They've caused ISIS's heavy machinery (tanks and trucks) not to function.

And they watch every move the Illuminati makes, allowing small-scale acts that they cannot interfere with according to the laws of freewill and karma, but preventing large-scale acts of terrorism.

The most horrendous act would have been the starting of World War III, which the Illuminati labored to ignite. They built deep, underground military bunkers to last out the nuclear winter that would follow, which bunkers the galactics destroyed in 2011. Now the Illuminati had to face what everyone else would in the event of a nuclear winter.

The galactics neutralized pandemic viruses, their vaccines and chemtrails. They intercepted money bound for Illuminati coffers and returned it to safekeeping until abundance can be spread to the world. They're at work cleaning the oceans up after the oil spills from various Illuminati companies.

This is the past we're leaving behind.

On the one hand, our entire culture from this era is tainted and doesn't supply us with rich material upon which to base what comes next.

On the other hand, the Company of Heaven has provided us with rich material upon which to base our new financial and economic structures. And we ourselves come with a genetic and spiritual inheritance that equips us as well to lead in what comes next.

By now many of us have emerged from our constructed selves - our social masks, acts, routines, numbers, etc. Many of us have had the really-troublesome core issues raised and released.

It's we ourselves that we have to fall back on. And, in my view, that is enough.

What's been raised in us over the years has been love and compassion. That's why we're about to be entrusted as stewards of the Divine Mother's abundance.

Archangel Michael often says not to look back to the old Third. It won't assist us very much to look back on the past at all, except as an object lesson of what to avoid.

We've been tasked with creating a new future.

The sacred money that we'll be working with will relieve stress in as many folks as we can reach and open up the door of opportunity. How we do our jobs will evolve if we just start in and craft and create as things unfold.

We're richly and generously guided. And we have a mastery within us that's only now starting to be revealed. The past has been tense but the future looks perfect.

I find the prospect of starting in when all the obstacles are out of the way exciting, inspiring, and energizing.

Laying New Track

July 12, 2014

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/07/12/laying-new-track/>

A Train Headed for Disaster

One of my favorite stories from Werner Erhard is about a train headed for disaster. As he tells it, a passenger on a train looked out the window and saw that the train was headed for disaster.

He told the other passengers and together they went to the right side of the train (looked at conservative solutions) and looked out the window but saw that the train was still headed for disaster. Their action had made no difference.

They all then went to the left side of the train (looked at liberal solutions) and looked out the window but saw that the train was still headed for disaster. This action too had made no difference.

Going from one side to the other (looking for positional solutions) did not affect the direction the train was headed in. If nothing was done, the train would surely end up where it was headed for - disaster.

What they had to do, according to Werner, was stop the train, get out in front of it, and lay new track.

The Disaster Earth was Headed For

Our train, planet Earth, was for many years headed for disaster. That disaster was prepared for us by a cabal which called itself the Illuminati and the "New World Order." Its agents were to be found in secret alliances in government administration, the CIA, the FBI, Homeland Security, FEMA, etc. and in other countries around the world.

Their plan had various strategies. One was to shift the world's wealth from some nations to others, by such tactics as causing the collapse of the national economies of Thailand, South Korea, Russia and others.

It was then concentrated in fewer and fewer hands in the wealthy nations until it ended up in the hands of the "One Percent." The wealth of the world was drained from the world and concentrated in a few hands.

That strategy was helped along by automation, which was used to eliminate jobs, lower wages, drop benefits packages, weaken unions and turn the labor market into a buyer's market.

It was also helped along by a strategy of sending factories to third-world nations where wages were lower and labor had no safeguards.

Another strategy was to assassinate the leaders of nations who had unseated dictators in an effort to restore democracy. The School of the Americas at Fort Benning, GA, trained these assassins.

Another was to enable multinational corporations to secure the natural resources of vulnerable countries, exploit them and leave those countries with large debts, exhausted resources, a reduced revenue stream, polluted rivers and land, etc.

Another was to cause endless regional wars. The CIA, especially under George Bush Sr., gained control of the world drug trade even while being part of an ingenuous "War on Drugs. " It was helped along by false-flag operations like 9/11 and the self-serving war on Afghanistan, which secured control of the opium/heroin trade. Al Qaida is a CIA creation. The CIA's drug money funded its other black operations.

The Illuminati wing of the CIA is itself responsible for most of the wars that occur in the world. Its strategy is to divide and conquer, setting one group against another.

The ultimate strategy was to start a nuclear World War III to reduce the population of “useless eaters.” Members of the cabal vied with each other to secure safe-refuge tickets in the various deep-underground military bunkers (DUMBs) to last out a nuclear war.

Stopping the Train

Here's how the train was stopped.

The Illuminati bunkers were destroyed by the galactics in August of 2011. In this they were joined by white hats in the military, as Matthew Ward tells us:

“Military leaders are cooperating with the light forces to impede aggression by troops still in the Illuminati camp, and the destruction of some of their cavernous underground areas has halted heinous experiments and other covert activities.” (1)

Of the destruction of the bases, David Wilcock in a reading later said:

“The destruction of underground military facilities has been ordained for the purpose of steering the narrative on your planet to a much more favorable outcome.” (2)

SaLuSa also told us at the time:

“[The cabal cannot] stop the cleansing that is under way, that also involves making their bases inoperative and their nuclear weapons ineffective and unusable.” (3)

This may as well have been a blast from Gabrielle's trumpet for its effect in waking the cabal up.

HAARP (High-Altitude Auroral Research Project) practised weather warfare and caused or amplified many “natural” disasters such as Hurricane Katrina, the Haitian earthquake, and the Japanese tsunami. It was brought to a halt.

The engineered global pandemics and toxic vaccines were neutralized.

The derivatives crisis, which piled up a debt equivalent to $200,000 for every man, woman and child on the planet, was allowed to play out until it ultimately brings down Illuminati control of the economy.

And on every other front, the cabal, or “recalcitrants” as they’re being more commonly called today, were corraled, contained and neutralized. Pedophiles (much more extensive than has yet been guessed), the Vatican bank, NSA spying - the truth that was promised is being revealed.

The train headed for disaster was stopped.

Laying New Track

Now we’re laying new track.

If you'd kindly permit me, let me lay a little new track. This is my personal vision for Nova Earth, a world that works for everyone. Everyone will have their own vision.

The track I'm laying has two rails - a divine and a human.

The divine rail leads to Ascension, which in our case - a mass Ascension in the physical body while simultaneously building Nova Earth - is altogether-new track. This is the assignment we've commonly taken on and it's a first in the universe.

Many ascended masters and advanced lightworkers, in sacred partnership, are making available the means and tools to assist us to prepare to ascend. We are ascending gradually and then will come an "ignition" point, to cite the Divine Mother from her July 10, 2014 Hour with an Angel.

Gatekeepers are leading the way and pillars are remaining at the gates of Ascension, beckoning everyone, if only etherically for now.

We’re being bathed by the Tsunami of Love, which has not yet reached its height, and our vibrations are being raised either slowly or quickly, depending on whether we view things from our perspective or from the celestials', on our way to Ascension.

That's the divine rail.

The human rail leads to a workable, you-and-me, win/win world, which is altogether-new track as well. And we're building both rails simultaneously.

At an early future date, the first instalment of wealth will be distributed to those who’ve participated in the Global Currency Reset or “Reval.” That wealth is to be used to relieve one's own distress, surely, but the invitation is there for us to use the vast majority of it in the service of the Divine Mother.

What that looks like is left up to us on our own guidance.

The Prosperity Programs, historic bonds, and many other channels of abundance will also begin flowing.

There are projects afoot that no one can talk about until after the Reval. These projects won't start up right away. They'll have to be organized first, staff hired, etc.

This phase of things seems geared to ignite our charitableness and compassion and to build lightworker networks.

Sometime after the Reval, no one knows when, NESARA (named after the American National Economic Security and Reformation Act), the new global economy, will be ushered in on the foundation of the Basel III banking procedures. When NESARA comes in, global prosperity arrives and an end to want on this planet.

Then Disclosure and we'll soon thereafter be the recipients of new technologies that will transform food, transportation, health-services delivery, education, commerce and many other aspects of life.

This is the new track we're laying as I envision it.

We're now in the planning stages, laying out the context for this first-ever, never-been-done-before world. And I hope you'll join me in contributing your vision and wisdom. This much is up to us. In the end, I think, our collective dream is exactly what we'll build.

The Train is Leaving

November 28, 2017

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/11/28/the-train-is-leaving/>

Jesus told the parable of the ten virgins summoned as bridesmaids to the Lord's feast (Matthew 25:1-13).

All ten brought their lamps, but five of them failed to bring oil in theirs.

They had to go back and get some. But, when they returned, the door to the feast hall was shut and could not be opened.

Now apply this to the phase of Ascension called "reconciliation."

In the eyes of God, we're all virgins - faultless, innocent. But some folks have filled their lamps with oil (the divine qualities) and some have refused to do so (what the Company of Heaven calls the "recalcitrants").

A very small number, the recalcitrants are holding out for the survival of a competitive and predatory order. But they'll eventually find themselves like the virgins without oil, unable to come into the feast with the Lord of the manor.

In God's eyes they're still innocent virgins, as we all are, but their progress to the feast is nonetheless blocked until they learn a few lessons they haven't learned yet, which unlock the feast-hall doors.

The wisdom of embracing the divine qualities is an example of a lesson that I think would need to be learned before we're made guests at the Lord's feast (Ascension).

***

We lightworkers are down here at ground level having volunteered to deal with the aftermath of all the conflict that's taken place on Earth.

Our long history of conflict has left its wounds in cellular memory and past-life remembrances, added to the trauma that lightworkers agreed to take on this lifetime as a crash course in Earth life.

If we're to help the maximum number to ascend, then we have to pay attention to reconciliation. We have to find a way to be complete as a world if we're to experience unity and then build on that foundation.

Our job is to bring along as many as want to ascend (if at all possible) and release the rest to follow their own star. Any dark soul who genuinely wishes to turn his hat around is welcome.

Those virgins with oil in their lamps - having cultivated the divine qualities like compassion, love, and joy - will find ... well, paradise, really. When I experienced higher-dimensional love, I wanted nothing else. I was in paradise for sure.

If we take love alone - and leave aside complete satisfaction, serenity, bliss, peace, etc. - love will fill us up completely; the inner tsunami of love will wash away all our tears, just as the scriptures say. It will not leave us wanting.

Once in the higher dimension, victims won't need reconciliation. They'll have their reward in Heaven (early Christian name for the Fifth Dimension) - and their healing. That reward will be immersion in a sea of love that dissolves all concerns and turns life around in a millisecond.

In my view, every person moving from darkness to light, from untruth to truth raises the collective vibration and, in the face of that, the expanded Ascension energies take in one more person on the borderline. And one more. And one more. It helps more people ascend, which is why we're here.

In a short while, the recalcitrants will have made their choice. From all the indications we've been given, the time to choose is soon. We're all of us at the station and the train is leaving. The welcome mat will never be withdrawn but free will will also be respected.

What is Our Future?

August 17, 2019

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/08/17/what-is-our-future/>

If I were addressing the whole world and telling everyone what I regard as going on right now, what would I say?

Well, I'd begin by saying that, every inhabited planet, bound by time, goes through cycles.

Where we are in our cycle is important.

It's what's causing all manner of activity throughout the galaxy and beyond.

We're at the end of one cycle and the beginning of another. Some call ours the Age of Aquarius; others the Sat Yuga or Age of Truth. Many call it the New Age and a new age it is.

It's marked by a transition from one dimension of density and consciousness to another of less density. In other words, we're transitioning from the Third Dimension of consciousness, with its attached Fourth-Dimensional astral world, to the Fifth.

The shift involves a raising of the overall vibration of our energy fields for humanity and the world.

It brings higher-dimensional settings that were formerly inaccessible into view. We'll still be able to access the Third but we can also now access the Fifth and higher.

This shift is accompanied by a gradually-increasing feeling of lightness, more moments of love, a desire to do good deeds, etc. The populace is slowly perking up and picking up, as if the pause button were released.

On the other side of things, there are people whose identity is based in behavior patterns like resist, resent, and revenge, as Werner Erhard called it.

For them, the call to experience more love may be an unwelcome one. It may raise fears of letting down their guard, needing to accept others, and risking. They may not trust or like that.

They may refuse the invitation and, if they do, we can know that their future has been well provided for.

Not in some version of hell. No, they'll continue on in another Third-Dimensional setting much like this one was, unless they've committed heinous crimes. They'll have more chances to ascend in the future.

If they've committed heinous crimes, then they attract to themselves the same future on the dark planes of the astral world that they would have in any lifetime. But again no roasting in hell and no perpetual suffering.

They can leave that dark and dank place when they forsake harming others and embrace compassion. (1) The emphasis is on rehabilitation and learning, not punishment and repression.

At some point, and this too may be gradual, there will be a time of separation - a separating of timelines, Adamu the Pleiadian called it. (2) It may be gradually happening now.

For the ones who choose to go on, well, it's hard to describe life in terms that the average person might understand or accept. Would you believe me if I said they live in complete love and bliss under all circumstances, forever and ever, amen?

And yet I've visited the higher planes - and they do live in complete love and bliss such as the vast majority of us have never felt or seen. But we will. That's what Ascension will bring. That's the end of this journey.

We aren't doing this Ascension alone. Civilizations from this and other galaxies are around the planet in cloaked spaceships.

They're keeping Gaia from spinning off her axis, removing depleted uranium from the air, cleaning up chemtrails, sealing off oil spills, preventing nuclear weapons from exploding, helping us succeed in pulling out of Third-Dimensional density.

They'll introduce themselves when the deep state stops making war on them. Not that it harms them, but it could result in collateral damage to us.

The unravelling of that same cabal is happening as we speak. The plethora of legal cases we're hearing about are no accident. More are coming revealing our world's top leaders to have been involved in unspeakable crimes. Not a subject for an introduction to what's happening in the world. (3)

As our vibrations slowly rise, we'll experience some mass phenomena, some global "Aha's!" and moments of mass uplift.

But the ascent should, apart from that, be gradual. It has to be so we don't wear out this body or its parts. And to give us time to assimilate what we learn in the peak moments.

There's nothing to do and there's lots to do. The script for Ascension is written; it's the Divine Mother's Plan. (4) It will occur whether we do something or not. However, more may ascend if we "do something."

The first and most obvious thing to do is to inform others of what's happening right now.

Then there's the work to revive and rehabilitate the world - to clean up the planet, restore its poverty-stricken millions to a decent lifestyle, make medicare available to everyone around the world, remove unfair debt burdens from countries, purify drinking water, banish disease, etc.

Roll up your shirt sleeves and dig in. You'll be doing the Divine Mother's work. This is one generation whose efforts will produce results.

The world we enter when we ascend - the Fifth-Dimensional world - is, in the words of Werner Erhard, a world that works for everyone. We're just bringing that world into being sooner.

Some are calling it "Nova Gaia" and "Nova Earth." That's where we're headed. That is our future.

I Accuse

January 1, 2019

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/01/01/i-accuse-2/>

Originally published in OpEdNews, October 18, 2008

The daily economic bloodletting we're witnessing around us is not solely the result of the fall of the U.S. subprime market or of the U.S. banking sector generally, as some would have us believe.

It isn't solely the result of the global market's loss of confidence in worthless commercial paper and bundled debt.

Rather, what we're seeing is the end result of a long period of political and financial manipulation by a global elite known to themselves as the "Illuminati" (though none are illuminated) and the "New World Order."

They're responsible for what Michel Chossudovsky called "the worldwide scramble to appropriate wealth through 'financial manipulation' [which] is the driving force behind this crisis. It is the source of economic turmoil and social devastation." (1)

Perhaps, in the face of the global financial meltdown, we're now ready to hear the truth about them, where for years we've thought that truth fantastic or conspiratorial.

President Eisenhower warned the world against them in his "Farewell Address to the Nation" on January 17, 1961. He called them the "military-industrial complex."

"In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist. We must never let the weight of this combination endanger our liberties or democratic processes. We should take nothing for granted. Only an alert and knowledgeable citizenry can compel the proper meshing of the huge industrial and military machinery of defense with our peaceful methods and goals so that security and liberty may prosper together." (2)

Only a matter of months later, President John F. Kennedy also warned us against them, calling them a "secret society":

"For we are opposed around the world by a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy that relies primarily on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence, on infiltration instead of invasion, on subversion instead of elections, on intimidation instead of free choice, on guerrillas by night instead of armies by day. It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly-knit, highly-efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations.

"Its preparations are concealed, not published. Its mistakes are buried, not headlined. Its dissenters are silenced, not praised. No expenditure is questioned. No rumor is printed. No secret is revealed." (3)

This global elite conducts its business through organizations like the Bilderberg, the Trilateral Commission, and the Council on Foreign Relations.

Some say it is centered in the United States; others in Europe. It includes among its numbers an unlikely coalition of people from all backgrounds - ex-Nazis sit down with Jews in their deliberations, as well as some members of European royalty, etc.

It is ruthless in its methods. Most of us have no idea of the formidable opponent it represents to the freedom-loving society that we profess to uphold. Our very naivete and complacency are what make it strong.

The Illuminati have infiltrated and exert varying degrees of control over armed forces, intelligence agencies, police forces, government departments, banks, financial houses, the media, and other institutions.

Today they are called the "deep state" and "shadow" or "secret government." Opposing them cost President Kennedy and many other brave men and women their lives.

Some of their war crimes and crimes against humanity have been exposed and condemned in international tribunals such as the International Criminal Tribunal for Afghanistan. (4) Others are currently being investigated by such panels as the Steering Committee to pursue the prosecution for war crimes of President Bush and culpable high-ranking aides after they leave office, Jan. 20, 2009. (5)

Their reach is global and tenacious. It's imperative that we unmask this secret state and, through legal and non-violent means, overturn it. The first step in doing so is to catalogue as many of their crimes as are known. Hopefully this will assist those who are planning to prosecute President Bush and other members of the cabal.

The crimes listed below are known to me. Others could probably add many more to the list and I invite them to do so.

I accuse this "secret state" of knowingly and collectively:

1. Causing the implosion of several national economies (Thailand, Korea, Indonesia, Japan, and Russia) decades ago through stock market speculation and manipulation.
2. Causing further financial hardship to those countries, through the IMF and World Bank, by imposing terms on them that enriched American financial houses under the cover of helping the affected nations to regain their economic stability.
3. Reducing the Western workforce to penury by destroying millions of jobs through predatory automation, lowering wages, diminishing benefits, and eliminating pensions.
4. Further impoverishing the Western workforce through the relocation of factories to low-wage areas of the globe and the offshore outsourcing of many of the jobs that remained.
5. Enforcing or reinforcing near-slave-labour conditions in the states to which those factories were relocated.
6. Blowing up the Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City on April 19, 1995, claiming 168 lives and injuring over 800 others, to win congressional support for the Counter-Terrorism Bill.
7. Blowing up World Trade Centers 1, 2 and 7 and the Pentagon on Sept. 11, 2001; murdering passengers on airliners; and blaming "Muslim terrorists" for what they themselves engineered; the official death toll for which was 2,974 people, but the unofficial death toll for which is probably upwards of 10,000.
8. Creating a blanket of poisonous materials that would in time claim the lives of tens of thousands of New Yorkers from respiratory and other complications and illnesses.
9. Creating and operating a fraudulent 9/11 Commission to whitewash events and conceal the true identity of the perpetrators.

10. Using weather weapons (HAARP) to cause worldwide flooding, earthquakes, and hurricanes, most notably, I believe, the 2008 Sichuan earthquake that killed 69,200 people and injured above 300,000.
11. Using an ultra-low frequency (ULF) device located at nearby Augsburg College to destroy the I35W Minnesota River Bridge, killing thirteen people and injuring 145.
12. Causing murderous wars in the Balkans (1999), Afghanistan (2001) and Iraq (2003) to extend their global influence, secure oil, and ensure control of the Afghan drug trade.
13. Using depleted-uranium weapons in these wars, causing countless horrible birth deformities and numerous deaths of both local civilians and Coalition soldiers, and turning the affected countries into what some observers call "radioactive wastelands."
14. Releasing tons of lethal depleted uranium into the atmosphere from these and other wars to circle the globe and inflict pain and death on countless faraway victims.
15. Siphoning off trillions of dollars from the American people through direct theft, as reported for instance by Defence Secretary Donald Rumsfeld on Sept. 10, 2001, and corrupt Iraqi "reconstruction" arrangements from 2003 to the present.
16. Using armed forces and intelligence agencies to smuggle drugs (in medivacs, false coffins, body bags, etc.) and oversee the international drug trade (Honduras, Kosovo, Afghanistan, etc.) to raise money for "black operations."
17. Funding numerous terrorist groups around the world, including Al-Qaida.
18. Torturing opponents, both at home and abroad, in prisons run by and for Americans.

19. Creating private armies like Blackwater.
20. Subverting the American Constitution by eliminating constitutional safeguards on civil rights.
21. Corrupting existing police and armed forces and using them for criminal purposes.
22. Running an extensive program of citizen surveillance.
23. Creating deep underground military bunkers (DUMBs) and above-ground detention facilities to jail dissident citizens.
24. Corrupting the mainstream media and enforcing a rigid censorship.
25. Manufacturing infertile genetically-engineered seeds, making farmers dependent on agricompanies for future seeds, to control world prices, contributing to the suicide of thousands of bankrupted farmers in India.
26. Withholding from the world beneficial technologies derived from salvaged spacecraft and using them instead for profit and for promoting their agenda of global domination.
27. Assassinating opponents like President John F. Kennedy, Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal, ex-CIA Director William Colby, Congressman Paul Gilmor, and whistleblowers Phillip Schneider and William Cooper.
28. Murdering Stanley Meyer, inventor of a water-fuelled car that would have ended transportation's dependence on fossil fuels.
29. Pursuing an agenda of global depopulation aimed at bringing Earth's population to a controllable level of 500 million.
30. Seeding the atmosphere with chemtrails containing barium and depleted uranium, thereby causing the death of unknown numbers of victims from Morgellons Disease and other ailments.

31. Planning and trying to instigate a nuclear war between the West and Russia and China.

I am not afraid of this cabal. And neither should any of us be.

It's time to expose the global elite for the ruthless killing machine it is. They've taken us close to World War III. They've murdered us in the thousands and millions and plan to continue to do so if we don't stop them.

I don't propose acting violently or illegally. Our legal institutions are capable of overturning them if we, the citizens of the world, join together and express our desire that their rule end.

I ask the world community, at every level and in every form of organization, to refuse any longer to tolerate the abuses of the Illuminati or to submit to their agenda of global warfare, depopulation, and enslavement.

Let's be sure, from this day forward, that they're aware that we know their plans and that we won't permit them to succeed.

OpEdNews Editor's Note: The article entitled, "J'Accuse" (French for 'I accuse'), was originally an open letter published on January 13, 1898 in the newspaper L'Aurore by the influential writer Émile Zola. The letter was addressed to President of France Félix Faure, and accused the government of anti-Semitism and the unlawful jailing of Alfred Dreyfus, a French General Staff officer sentenced to penal servitude for life for espionage. Zola pointed out judicial errors and lack of serious evidence. The letter was printed on the first page of the newspaper, and caused a stir in France and abroad. Zola was prosecuted and found guilty of libel on February 23, 1898. To avoid imprisonment, he fled to England, returning home in June 1899. See Wiki.
