Introduction

Now why am I gathering articles together from other books? Why not just point to the other books.

Lightworkers who participate in the Reval will likely be busy after the event occurs.

I wish I had the time to do tightly-targeted compilations on all the topics we cover, but I have to be selective.

And only Ascension and Disclosure will have a bigger impact on our lives than ... OK, med beds, replicators, free energy, anti-gravity propulsion ... than the Reval.

For good and for bad. The good we all know. We'll have an opportunity to contribute towards building a world that works for everyone.

I hear you. A world can't be made to work for everyone.

You couldn't be more wrong.

Any higher-dimensional world is immersed in a love that's so satisfying, so fulfilling, so desirable that any thoughts of harm or revenge or indignation simply don't arise. Such a world works for everyone.

That secret was only known only to Werner Erhard for the longest time. But as the love energies on the planet rise and give us the opportunity to visit higher realms, we taste the love there - and now we have the answer - to what Werner knew, but what a world that works for everyone looks like.

So, with full acknowledgement to Werner, not just for this context, but for so much else I learned from him, you and I are planting a garden in the shadow of another world, a world that works for everyone.

It's already there. It's we that have to catch up.

That world will be ours the moment our hearts open permanently. A permanent heart opening is sahaja nirvikalpa samadhi; that is Ascension. (1) Ascension is where we're headed.

So what we're doing, in summary, is to build a new world, one that's in alignment with Gaia's wishes and soul contract, supportive of the purpose of life, which is to know who we are, and fulfils the Mother's Plan for this Ascension as it applies not just to Earth, but to the whole multiverse.

Divine Mother: You have begun by saying that I am not simply a god among gods. I am the Mother. And I am asking and inviting you to join with me. Is there really any further conversation to be had?

Steve: No, Mother. There is not. That is the aim of all our lives. (2)

Jai Ma! Victory to the Divine Mother!

Footnotes

(1) The heart is a portal to the higher dimensions. It may be fourth-chakra in location, but it's inter dimensional in nature and function. Step through it and you're on a higher plane of existence - 7th perhaps in Christ love, 9th in bliss, or 12th in ecstasy.

The Nature of the Reval and of Our Financial Stewardship

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/01/26/298141/>

I found these two passages from Archangel Michael on the nature of both the Reval and our financial stewardship both very helpful

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon,
May 27, 2016.

[The Reval] is the re-evaluation of the purpose of money, the purpose of life, where the values lie, that they can be reflective of the sacred divine qualities and in alignment with Universal Love rather than the human inclination that is passing, but is not past, of greed, control, and avarice, etc.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon,
Nov. 21, 2012.

What you [financial stewards] are doing is anchoring Light upon the Planet, upon Gaia in various undertakings, each specific to a little area, a piece of the puzzle but collectively you are responsible for a very large piece of that puzzle.

So when I suggest to you that how you do this, yes, of course there is the individual work. There is the anchoring of Love. There is the anchoring of your Divine Creative Creator Self and the Knowing of that spark within, (1) the acknowledgement and the activation. That is the individual work.

But then, when you are also coming together as stewards, you are acting as activators, catalysts for the activation of that Divine Spark in others.

Well, how do you do this? You do this by the adherence to consciousness, to heart consciousness, to Love, to the Divine Qualities, by not reverting back to drama, to chaos, to old patterns or behaviors. I need to emphasize to you, I am not saying this in a critical way.

The drama, the chaos, the old Third Dimension can be exceptionally seductive. It is not only familiar. It is tried and true. That is why it has endured for so long and why so many fully embraced it with arms, legs, bodies, and minds.

So will there be situations where you catch yourself flirting with the old Third? Yes, my friends, there will be and what do I ask you to do? I ask you to take out your sword and shield, to deflect it, to cut it away and then with me and with each other to laugh, not in a cynical, sarcastic way and not in a way that is dismissive because this is not about being dismissive and saying, “Oh don’t worry, that’s all right.” But it is also not critical.

It is observing, standing, saying “Whoa, that was a close call. Look what we were doing?” And then individually and collectively going forward, adhering not to what I lay out to you, not to what the Mother or the Universe or the Universal Law lays out to you but to what you know is the Truth of conscious loving behavior.

It is what your hearts, your minds, and your bodies yearn for. This is the most significant shift of all. It is the ability of you who have chosen to be stewards or leaders to show the way. And that is how you do it.

So it is not training. It is not giving each other permission to slip up now and then.
(2) It is by very consciously, not in a restricted way but in a full-hearted embracing way, going forward together. Is that helpful?

Footnotes

(1) Probably 4th-chakra enlightenment, but could be either 7th-chakra or Sahaja Samadhi. Depends on the depth of the Self-Realization and Knowledge.

(2) That is, it does not lie in enabling others "to slip up now and then." Michael is setting a high standard but how else can he impress on us the need to keep moving forward in our personal expansion?

Archangel Michael on Financial Wayshowing

September 30, 2013

http:// goldenageofgaia.com/2013/10/archangel-michael-welcome-to-this-time-of-re-awakening-part-2

What I say to you, whether you have inherited money, whether you have earned money by the sweat of your brow, whether you have won the lottery, or whether you have invested in currency, it matters not. Whether you have been a recipient of one of the prosperity funds — and there are many of you who have [signed up for it] — the point is to share.

Now, I tell you this because it is very important. Take care of yourself. It is part and parcel of honoring the vessel that you have chosen to inhabit, to ascend in and with, and to continue on as vessels and wayshowers and builders of Nova Gaia. You take care of your family, your friends, your soul family. And I do not mean in a small way. You provide.

And, my friends, I am always telling you to dream big! So allow those dreams to come forth, but take care of the basics as well — your health, your home, your family — and then share! It is that simple.

There are so many creative projects. Now, some are flimsy and have need to be solidified, to be built out, as it were. Some are ready to go. And we are not talking merely small projects, we are talking about projects that will change the face of Gaia. So, proceed bravely. That is what the role of the pathfinder is. It is the shower of the way, not the follower. ...

We do not simply send down rains of money — although that can happen as well — but for this instance we want you, we ask you, and we guide you very clearly to practice discernment.

And discernment is quiet. Discernment is not showing. Discernment is being the observer, not the judge.

It is not a question — let me be very clear — of “Do I deserve this?” It is a question, in any situation, whether it is $10 or $10 million, it is a gratitude to the heart of One for the blessing you have received. And then, from the place of the discerning observer, to decide what is important.

I have said to you that this is a time of choices and decision. You decide what is important.

And what can be more important, first and foremost, than taking care of your sweet self and family?

Then you discern, with your heart. What appeals to you? Is it projects that promote free energy? Are you the unseen benefactor? Are you one who wishes to build new schools, what we would think of as nova schools, star schools? Do you wish to be in communications, like you, Steve?

So, you discern where your heart and your mission and purpose has always pulled you towards. And then you invest not just money, but your energies, your love, your focus in that direction.

Always with your eye on the larger undertaking: what promotes love and spirit? What creates the new Earth? What anchors the Cities of Light?

Archangel Michael: Those Who Are in a Position of Stewardship...

March 4, 2020

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/03/04/aam-those-who-are-in-a-position-of-stewardship/>

In the course of continuing research into my financial responsibilities after the Reval, I'm coming across so many memorable passages.

Here's Archangel Michael giving a description of the events that will ensue with and after the Reval. He compares them to dominoes.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, May 27, 2016.

Those who are in a position of stewardship, of beginning projects that lead the way to the building and the re-creation of what Nova Earth is truly about ... become the spokesbeings for many.

Then the safety, security, and welcome factor for the star family becomes more [important].

And then the anchoring of the cities of light becomes greatly facilitated.

And then the adjustment of the, shall we say, stragglers or those who have resisted or who have even been recalcitrant, that have chosen to remain, that work is [also] achieved and underway. (1)

And then, because of that shift of what many think of as the expanded heart consciousness, the knowingness, the bliss, and, yes, moments of ecstasy, you have a planet that is no longer the same. (2)

Now each of these could be thought of as a singular event but it is really a chain reaction at the same time.

The leadership who are the stewards are the ones who are holding the vision and leading the way so all of this can occur in an orderly - well, our idea of orderly; the Mother's idea of orderly - fashion so that it does not create further chaos, further turmoil, further upheaval.

Now it is upheaval but what we would call it is "upliftment." What we would call it, instead of revolution, is spiritual advancement, evolution. But happening in terms of what humanity is used to at a fairly-rapid pace.

So I wanted to begin there to give you an overview of what is happening right now. I'm not talking in the distant future. I am not talking in the next years. I am talking about right now. Is this clear?

Footnotes

(1) By the pillars! The pillars are lightworkers whose agreement is to remain until the last stragglers have boarded the train and then to turn out the lights and shut the door. Gatekeepers assist the willing to ascend; pillars the unsure and barely-willing!

(2) Higher dimensionality brings an immensely-different world. The love, bliss, and peace that we feel creates a whole new scene. We'd never have a thought of harming another.

Another Look at Stewardship

January 8, 2017

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/01/08/another-look-stewardship/>

Archangel Michael said recently that the essence of our financial service is stewardship. I'd like to take a deeper look at that concept.

In this important time, Jesus says, "leadership is stewardship." The example he likes to give is that of the shepherd.

"Yes, I still go back to the examples that I have used of being the shepherd. Because sometimes you lead from behind, and sometimes you lead from the front. But it is through the quality of your being." (1)

The quality of our being - enhanced by all the clearing and cleansing we've done.

Archangel Michael reveals that those who are successful at being stewards will have great influence:

"Those who are in a position of stewardship, of beginning projects that lead the way to the building and the re-creation of what Nova Earth is truly about ... [will] become the spokesbeings for many." (2)

So that's the plan.

We're not the only ones being asked to serve as stewards. St. Germaine sees his own role as master of the Violet Flame also as stewardship. Of his mission he says:

"If I have but one purpose in my sacred stewardship with the violet flame, and the I AM presence, it is to reach all beings, not simply on Earth but everywhere. But first on Earth. Because you are the first who are going through this process." (3)

One form or theater of stewardship is not more important than another, he tells us:

It is just as important that an atrocity against one person that is within your sphere - what you can think of as your immediate environment as your community - that level of brutality or injustice or cruelty is just as important as sending energy to Syria. Do not assign greater value because the magnitude of the issue seems greater. (4)

The notion that one is the steward of someone else's wealth implies the surrendering of the need to be at the top of the pyramid, independent, one's own boss, etc. That in itself points to a level of modesty and humility, which in turn points to a level of detachment from worldly things.

I've worried, when I was planning the Michaelangelo Fund, that I might be unable to find someone who'd be willing to bring someone else's vision into reality. I worried that few people could be found who didn't want it to be their show, their thing, their creation.

The steward, to do their job properly, has to be willing to carry out the wishes of the person they serve. The more faithful they are, the better the steward they're judged to be.

But they have to be free of personal attachment to that which they watch over.

The desire for what AAM once called "profile" (5) will kill our efforts. Why is that? Because both the desire and the achievement of it result in the growth of the separative "I" or ego. The ego is exactly the aspect of ourselves that we're preparing to leave behind.

Implicit in the steward's faithful fulfilment of their duties is their transcendence of ego. Their mien is calm, balanced, and peaceful, St. Germaine says.

"My beloved friends, the peace that's within you, that is the starting and finishing point of surrender, of balance, of stewardship. It is to be fully in the now and not in the now at all." (6)

"Not in the now at all" meaning not involving oneself in Third-Dimensional drama and trauma, but remaining neutral and balanced.

Their satisfaction comes from helping others (and helping themselves in moderation). Their fondest desire is for the whole world to be happy and well and satisfied.

A Word to Lightworkers Who Intend to Work with Reval Money

July 28, 2014

<http://goldenageofgaia.com/abundance-on-financial-wayshowing-and-the-reval/the-reval-itself/a-word-to-lightworkers-who-intend-to-work-with-reval-money/>

A word to lightworkers who want to work with the money that the Reval will make available. The Arcturians remind us:

“The gift of the monies is to assist. However it is a very delicate gift. For one, it can target certain ones of you who are receiving huge amounts. And for another, greed and fear are best friends. And suddenly being placed in an entirely new reality where you have huge amounts of money will bring in fear.

“For millennia lightworkers have found safety in the anonymity of poverty. So therefore for those lightworkers to lose that anonymity of poverty and then have wealth brings forth another initiation.” (1) [All quotes in this article are taken from this reading.]

That initiation or challenge is to stay out of both greed and fear. The Reval “is to be a cornerstone for Ascension.” Therefore:

“All issues of money, which are immense in planetary incarnations on Planetary Earth, must be released within the recipient to raise their consciousness so that it is perceived in a non-selfish, collective, planetary state of consciousness. This money is not for individuals. It is for New Earth.”

Different light workers will use the money for different things.

“Some will take their money and go back down into the realms to battle it out with the Darkness, so to speak, as that is within their Divine Plan.

“Some will remain to establish this Foundation of an Earth that will not need money and those will be the ones that have such a generosity of heart that they wish the money to go into the initiation of New Earth. So there are several initiations.”

Lightworkers will be operating in the Fifth and higher dimensions while reaching back into the Third to work with money. They’ll be obliged to release all old-paradigm notions of it. Says the Group:

“You, all of you, are ascending ones. You are being called upon to release the illusion that money equals power. That is a very dangerous illusion and it is the core of what has caused all the horrible things on Gaia.”

Whoever works in this field will need to be able to see money as an energy field, not as a means of power over others and not as a personal possession.

“For money is the great deceptor. ... The money needs to come in to that frequency of being-ness that perceives money as an energy field through which they can give a greater good to Gaia.

“Now the percentage of beings that can perceive this money in this manner is less than 50% of all that know about this money.”

Less than 50%. That alone is a challenging thought. Many who will hold currency may not know what the word “lightworker” means. It’ll be up to us who are lightworkers to set the tone - and perhaps the agenda as well.

We’ll have to realize this comes through us, not from us, the same thing that happens when we channel? The money has to come through us, not from us.

The Company of Heaven wants “this gift [to] not corrupt [the] consciousness” of the lightworkers who handle and manage it.

“[That assurance of incorruptibility] is much more valuable [to us] than any gold, any pieces of paper so we are calling on those who are signed up for this new expression of the new reality to focus their energy fields not on when and where they will get the money because when is in the time [illusion], of the frequency that holds fear. ... When [the money will come] is within that timeless state of consciousness in which there is freedom from fear.”

People associated with the financial programs are going through many “initiations.” Given that the Illuminati operate by sensing fear, these light workers have to be “masters of their consciousness,” as the Group phrased it, beyond their fears.

This is one source of these initiations.

“You will be within a huge initiation, absolutely. You have to be the master of your consciousness at all times. That is a very big challenge. It is your initiation as well.

“It is full and complete acceptance, dedication to and knowing that these monies are a Third-Dimensional illusion and therefore they are a very great initiation for your Ascension into realities in which money is no longer a reality.”

There are certain experiences “that each and every one of these members have placed into their contract for this particular incarnation so that they could assure that they would be able to ascend.”

But when you read that paragraph, perhaps don't assume that they're talking about ascending to the Fifth. You might think that you've done all your work for Ascension to the Fifth, but they may be speaking about the Sixth, Seventh or Eighth.

“Fear is your only enemy. Your hearts are pure but fear can even sneak into a pure heart to lower this consciousness into a range. It is like the example of someone who is hiding so therefore they are doing something that is very important but they know the enemy does not want them to do that and so therefore they have to do something secretly.

“Fear will take away their secret hiding place. Because the darkness smells fear.”

They offer the example of the animal kingdom.

“Like the animal kingdom, the predator animal does not know that another animal is sick. The animal knows that it is sick and feels fear. The predator animal smells the fear and goes after that animal.

“The babies have fear. The predator animals go after the babies. They don’t particularly know that’s a baby. It can’t run as fast. They smell the fear.

“The beings of darkness smell the fear and can only attack your fear. They cannot even perceive your light.”

So these are the challenges and initiations that face those who wish to work with Reval money.

Feel the Sword Tap on Your Shoulder? – Part 1/2

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/03/02/feel-the-sword-tap-on-your-shoulder-part-12/>

We sure had a real heart-to-heart from the Divine Mother the other day.

I wonder if we fully appreciate how fortunate we are to have her coaching us in a manner like this:

"Spiritually mature decisions also require, my beloveds, spiritually mature preparation. You have entered a phase of claiming your birthright of freedom and power, in the truest sense, to be in sacred partnership with us.

"So have we been assisting you? Yes. We have been showing you how to tie your shoes, how to bake bread, how to create Nova Earth. But, we have not been tying your shoes for you or serving up your dinner because that would not empower you. And the anchoring of your promise and the promise of this plan is your assumption of your divine authority. I do not use these words lightly." (1)

Did you feel the light sword tap on your shoulder? Rerun that part please.

We have been maturely preparing. For years. Core issues, conditioned behavior, masks, constructed selves. All raised to awareness. All now up to be observed and let go of.

And yes, the territory that lies ahead of us will always be unknown, until we land up there. So we face continually moving forward into the unknown.

It's only trust that allows us to do that. Trust in what?

As the Mother said, trust first and foremost in her. She is the Father. There's no need to think you need to make a choice between them. They are one and the same, Mother/Father God, with different duties. (2)

The Mother is the source of the universal law.

The universal law is like the good shepherd that keeps the flock moving forward to safe haven.

She's the source of the Divine Plan.

What's that?

The Divine Plan lays out how the vast collectivity of souls - no matter in what kingdom - are launched upon and complete their journey from Mother/Father God, who birthed them, back to Mother/Father God again, after a journey of countless educational lifetimes in matter/mater/Mother.

Completing the journey is called "reunion" or "mergence." The journey itself is marked by various stages of enlightenment. Our task is to complete the next stage of the journey - Ascension to the Fifth Dimension or beyond. That is the Plan for Earth.

Why is there such a Plan?

Every time one of us realizes him or herself in a moment of enlightenment, for an instant, God meets God. For the pleasure of the One meeting Itself was all of life created. The Plan lays out how the journey from God to God is accomplished.

That meeting of God with God gets deeper and deeper in bliss, love, peace, etc., the farther along we go. But it's still and always will be a basic meeting between God and God: The God whom we realize ourselves to be and the God who has just been "found out" merge for a time. No veil. No blindfold. No divided mind.

Pause here for a moment. We've just looked at the purpose of life. How many times have you asked to know if life had a purpose? There it is, as laid out by Earth's enlightened sages. (3)

This is priceless knowledge, freely available on the Internet to our generation. Again how fortunate we are.

The Mother adds:

"You have stepped forward. You are authorized and empowered and you are and will be given the wherewithal to proceed as your creator self, never simply as a minion, a puppet." (4)

It sounds pretty clear that the Mother wants us to feel confident about the outcome of what we set in motion - operating from our divine authority and in her service. We will have what we need to do the work we intend to do. Our guides will know what we need. The archangels will know. And the Mother herself will know.

(To be concluded tomorrow.)

(2) The biological division of labor, I'm sure we'll find, is designed to mirror this division of labor that exists between the Mother and the Father.

The Father has no direct connection with the material domain. "He's" typically represented as being a void, empty and still. When the Father moves and creates, preserves, and transforms universes, we call Him "the Mother." Everything about the human procreative process and even the rearing of the child mirrors reality at the divine level of Mother/Father God.

For us to realize them is, as we saw, the purpose of our lives and all life.

Feel the Sword Tap on Your Shoulder? – Part 2/2

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/03/03/feel-the-sword-tap-on-your-shoulder-part-22/>

(Concluded from Part 1, yesterday.)

Finally, she lays the whole picture out for us.

"You have assumed form, and let me say to you I have allowed you to assume form. I have chosen and created and birthed you into form. That is the Plan at work and I have done this, we have done this, with that spark of divinity (5) so that you would be divine in form.

"And what that means in very practical terms is the assumption of your divine authority to be in charge of your life, of your thoughts, of your feelings, of your actions, of your behaviors, of your steps, of your environments, all the way out to the edges of the universe, throughout all times and dimensions. But I won't go there because that would confuse and this is me trying to be practical.

"If you do not take authority over your existence – think in practical terms, this life – then what happens? You are adrift. You are in fact that row boat in the middle of the ocean being twisted and turned every which way. Divine authority means choosing, yes, with your free will and your divine authority of free will, to direct how, where, when, if you choose to proceed." (6)

"The creation, yes, it is mine, but it is also yours. If the Mother sees her beloved child as an artist or an architect, [she] says, 'Here. Here are the water colors. Here are the Lego blocks. Build what is divinely beautiful. I give you my divine authority to do so. I will guide you. I will help you. But I entrust this to you as well.'" (7)

How could she be more direct in her reassurance of us that, if we take up our divine authority and act, in the highest interests of the world and the service of the Mother, we'll have what we need and all will turn out well?

How could she have challenged us more directly and yet more gently to take full responsibility for our participation in the events that lie ahead? She's calling us out of our shells and hiding places.

How many people in the world even know about the Divine Mother? Of those, how many really believe she exists? Of those, how many know very much about her? How many know that her word is law in the universe? And has she not just spoken to us? (8)

She just gave us our marching orders, assuring us of our divine authority to do what we do in her name, assuring us that we will be supplied with what we need, and telling us to go forth and manifest. She'll see that we have the Lego blocks, "the wherewithal to proceed as your creator self."

For me, it was like all of us just got knighted and sent forth to sow the seeds of love, bliss, and peace around the world.

(5) The soul, the Christ, the Atman, the Self.

The Mother has just said that she birthed the being into form.

However before being birthed into form, the being was a divine spark of the Father.

Everyone is a soul-in-a-body. The Father is in the Mother as the seed/spark or soul within their common Child. Gestation in the womb could be conceived of as the common Child in the Third Dimension. Birth from the womb could be conceived of as the common Child ascending to the Fifth Dimension.

What is a Soul Contract?

⌘ Soul Contracts ⌘

What is a soul contract?

SaLuSa: You have a life contract of which very few are personally aware, and have seen into the future and planned it accordingly. (1)

Matthew: Your world is awash in information, but the majority of the populace has no idea whatsoever about pre-birth agreements and soul contracts, the dark and light forces, the purpose of karma and multiple lifetimes, or the importance of balance.

They don't know that their ancestors are from other civilizations; massive assistance is being given by extraterrestrials; or wild storms, earthquakes, and volcanic eruptions are Earth's ways of ridding herself of negativity.

They don't know that she has been on an ascension course for more than seven decades or that the speed and scope of planetary changes are unprecedented in this universe, and they know nothing about Earth's Golden Age. You do know all of that and much more. (2)

SaLuSa: In reality life is quite orderly inasmuch as every individual has his or her own plan, yet it still interacts with the whole. (3)

Adamu: Before you decided to incarnate, you developed a plan. Your life plan. Together with your guidance and various other beings of wisdom and light, you decided on the events of the Story that you would be telling yourself.

You chose who your parents would be, who your friends, lovers and partners would be. You also chose just as carefully who your rivals would be, who would play the painful goad-to-growth when you needed that. You chose it all.

But why? Not because you so badly wanted to see the Story play out but because you really wanted to see what new growth, discoveries, feelings and explorations would happen inside of you as a result of the telling of this Story.

Engaging in this quest will bring you completely out of suffering, out of pain and into love, joy and peace. (4)

What are we all achieving by following our life plans?

Matthew: The orderly functioning of the universe requires a continuous balancing act to keep vibrational frequencies from becoming lopsided, so to say; and, as microcosms of the universe who in every moment affect the state of it, souls have their own balancing acts.

Prior to birth, [souls] —or better said, all of us!—enter into agreements with other souls, and within the agreements are all of the participants' individual contracts that include whatever they need to balance other lifetimes. That “whatever” is karma.

However, because Creator decreed that free will takes precedence over all, everything in the contracts—that there even is a contract—must be forgotten when souls embody.

Actually, this is a good arrangement—otherwise every lifetime would be merely following some schedule instead of freely making decisions and learning from the results. And guidance in line with contracts is permitted via the soul’s messages to the consciousness, but everyone has the free will to heed that guidance or stray far afield.

Either way, souls incur karma and it is neither “good” nor “bad”—it is the means whereby the last lifetime can be balanced in the next one by completing the karma, or karmic lessons, in the soul contract. (5)

Why is following our soul contract so important?

The Council of Angels: It will be the beginning of Earth’s entrance as a full member of Inter-Galactic society and if you so wish you can be a part of this by continuing to raise your frequency and vibration.

This is done by forgiving all of all, by releasing your karma from the past (we have spoken of ways to do this in previous communications), by connecting with and inviting your higher self into your life, and by keeping your vibration and frequency high by being in tune with your missions and soul contracts.

By following your truth, and creating your own transparency within yourself, you will then keep your vibration at a very high rate and continue to ascend and be a part of the unification with other star beings within and around the earth. For they exist now.....in a higher dimensional space and as you raise your vibration to match theirs, you will be able to communicate with them and interact with them.

This is why your spiritual growth and tuning into your soul contracts is of utmost importance at this time, so that you may be a contributing part of the new higher dimensional society and perhaps be a part of the newly formed inter-galactic relations that will be occurring. (6)

What comes with living in alignment with our soul contract?

Matthew: Peacefulness ... comes with living in alignment with your soul contract - you feel this as if you are "going with the flow" instead of "bucking the current." Self-discovery may come as "Aha!" moments that can be considered indications, and these can be as varied as realizing the most ideal way to handle a perplexing situation or a difficult relationship, an inspiration about a new direction in life or moving to a location that "calls" to you, or perhaps the solution to an experiment.

Planting new seeds

Perhaps we understand better now why the Federation of Light - and everyone else - is calling us the strongest of the strong:

"YOU ... YOU ... WHO ARE OF GREAT LIGHT AND POWER ...
CAME SPECIFICALLY TO BE PART OF THIS DIVINE PLAN.

"DO YOU UNDERSTAND THE HONOUR!?"

"YOU ... YOU ... WERE CHOSEN ... BECAUSE YOU ARE THE STRONGEST OF THE STRONG." (1)

Sanat Kumara exclaimed:

"You – yes, in partnership but that is what partnership means, we do not do it all – you are the servants of the Mother, the strongest of the strong, masters, how many times do we need to say this? You came to Earth in your mastery and you say to me, 'Well, SK, I sure don't feel it.' Well, nevertheless this is the truth, the stand alone truth: You are the masters." (2)

The stand alone truth. How many times does he have to say it? Even though we may not be aware of it. But the evidence is mounting.

"The bravest of the brave, the strongest of the strong," White Cloud through Tazjima echoed. (3) Now we begin to see why: The Creator Race from the angelic kingdom has returned.

I get that we are the masters, angelics all. I'm not sure what it'll take for the general amnesia to lift. Maybe a Ring of Fire? A Wave of Love? A planetary heart opening? We shall see. I think it will unite us and show us the way. (Broad hint: Into the heart; lay you odds.)

Well, then, what's next?

Starting tomorrow, let's go over the Company of Heaven's discussions of what they want and expect of us as lightworkers, starseeds/earthkeepers, and angelics, as, in every respect, we plant new seeds.

How Does the Company of Heaven See Our Role? – Part 1/2

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/05/07/how-does-the-company-of-heaven-see-our-role-part-1-2/>

Let's turn now to look at what the Company of Heaven is calling upon lightworkers to do.

What do they expect of us? Want from us? They actually offer a range of opinion which we, looking for our mission, could consider a range of options.

The Arcturian Group on one occasion applauded us for plowing negativity and ignorance out of the way:

"You are the plows plowing the debris of negativity and hopeless ignorance out of the way through your hard work. You are the nitty-gritty hard workers who are making it possible for coming generations to be born into the higher world consciousness you are creating. Many issues you find so troublesome now, will not even be known to future generations.

"Pat yourselves on the back, Dear Ones, for each of you chose to courageously assist in the evolution of mankind through bringing attention and change to commonly-accepted world concepts based in duality and separation. Know that many illumined souls are on Earth at this time in bodies and situations judged by the world to be 'less than perfect' simply to evolve world awareness and bring change. Remember this when you are tempted to negatively judge some person or situation." (1)

This is a very pro-active role that some lightworkers will play. In 2020, Mike Quinsey told us about a re-active role.

"The need to give help to others has never been more urgent as so many are utterly confused and have no idea what is taking place to cause so many problems.

"For them the future looks bleak and few have any idea where the present events are leading. In reality the future is full of promise enabling all such upsetting experiences to be seen in their true context as necessary to bring the new into being." (2)

We probably went through this upset early because we knew what was happening. But most people don't know, are confused, and are passing through their upset now or will be in the future.

More recently, as the world situation heated up, Mike asked us to come together and project thoughts of world peace:

"The more of you that send out thoughts of world peace the more you are speeding up its arrival and it cannot be ignored. You would be surprised at how much influence your thoughts can have on the population. Your only difficulty is getting sufficient people to project harmonious thoughts that have the power to bring about change. You can see how the dark Ones manipulate things to cause chaos, and set one country against another so that world peace is impossible to achieve. However, given time it will change and the vibrations will be beyond the ability of the dark Ones to interfere with them." (3)

The galactics know the effectiveness of impacting the collective consciousness with our group meditations. We have yet to really begin valuing that.

The Arcturian Group agreed with Mike, in February 2022:

"You will find yourselves increasingly called upon to help those drawn to you with questions and concerns. They recognize your stability in the face of outer appearances and want this for themselves. You will become and many of you already are teachers to those ready for and seeking truth.

"However, even more important than the outer work is the inner work, your ability to continuously and silently BE the Light that you are for without the inner there can be no outer." (4)

So we're asked to reassure the hopeless, confused, and concerned. Why don't we make that one line of service, available to those for whom it resonates.

And we're reminded of the inner work.

Daniel Scranton's 9D Arcturian Council goes into detail on that inner work and the kind of help we can extend to people who are confused and concerned. I found their view to be extremely perceptive. OK, OK. That is, it lined up with my own.

"Those of you who are not getting triggered by what is happening on your world right now are fortunate. If you are not in resistance to what is happening on your world, then you are one of the lucky ones. But it wasn't luck at all that put you in the position that you are in. It was a choice that you made before you incarnated.

"And as you move forward now because of that fortunate position that you are in, you have more of an ability to turn on the vibration within you that you want to experience [for instance: to draw love up from our hearts].

"Most humans do not have that option because they either have something they need to clear, or because they have not been taught about their ability to reach within themselves and offer a vibration on purpose. [Exact on both scores.]

"That is where you come in; you are the ones to lead with your example, and you are the ones to teach others how to release and clear all of that angst, all of that fear, all of that anger, all of that rage, and all of that hate so that they can follow you to the better-feeling timelines that have been created out of your love, compassion, and desire to serve humanity.

"It doesn't take a majority of you to be offering those vibrations, but there have been enough of you to create these timelines, and there are enough of you on Earth right now to lead humanity into a much more positive and good-feeling future." (5)

Exactly. It doesn't take a majority of us. Just a fraction. And that will come. The love energy streaming onto the planet and fueling our Ascension guarantee it.

We've been clearing our vasanas, obstacles, barriers, baggage for the last ten years, getting to the root of our early childhood trauma and freeing ourselves of it.

Let me continue tomorrow to look at what the galactics and celestials turn to us for.

How Does the Company of Heaven See Our Role? – Part 2/2

May 8, 2022

A lighthouse amid stormy seas

(Concluded from Part 1, yesterday.)

Ashian through Jennifer Crokaert gave a stirring picture of a second area of work for some of us: Taking our focus off the old and building the new.

"Your focus creates your reality and also your power. While awareness of the dismantling is good, if you find that the old is depressing you, bringing you down or lowering your vibration, then you would be right!

"Do not give it your power. Shift your focus instead to the new, become aware of what you can do/be today to embody the light and the love that is the signature of this planet and all upon Gaia, as you create Ascension. It can be as small as an act of kindness or as great as clearing all debts owed to you.

"What is conceived in love and born through love has sacred DNA running through it. Its vibration is inherently high, whether it is a being or an organisation or a creation of any kind whatsoever.

"Lightworkers are called to be bold, to be daring in their ideas and imagination, to know that the purity of their intent will create support and miracles to bring the changes they believe into fruition.

"The vibration of love, harmony, peace and reconciliation is unstoppable now. All thoughts, words and actions aligned with this energy are destined to succeed and multiply, blessing all whom they touch, to the degree of the purity of their intent.

"So be bold, be daring, be brave! Be the 'you' you know yourself to be within your deepest heart. Now is Your moment." (1)

This line of commentary asks those who are not protecting us from the darkness on the planet to take their focus off that and put it now on building the new.

When we remember that we're all angelics, what that building process will look like is unknown at the present time, but also tantalizingly promising.

We already know that sequestered technologies are being released as we speak. Sequestered wealth is next.

We don't what the immediate future may hold. Well, we do and we don't. Just not in detail.

What else does the Company of Heaven tell us that they'd like to see?

White Cloud through Blossom Goodchild stressed the lightworker role of simply holding the light and love amid the topsy-turviness. We're like lighthouses amid stormy seas.

A decade ago I would have pooh-poohed this idea. But I don't any more. I've been softened up over the years.

The people waking up now may do so much more abruptly than us; hence the need for social "first aid." White Cloud says:

"The Federation of Light and indeed myself have said many times, many, many times, that your world is to get far more topsy-turvy than what took place in your last year.

"So it begins, my friends, the unrest that is taking place not only in the country where there is much unrest this day (U.S.), yet the ripple effect it has [will go] all over the world and the fact that everything you hear on your news is there to bring down, to suppress, and to confuse.

"You must know, dearest souls, that there is a Divine Plan which is taking place. And within this topsy-turviness that is causing so much disturbance of mind, of soul, of heart, there is a place for you to hold your swords of light to the skies. ...

"You came here to do this, my friends. Let it not be now that you waver, that your thoughts go under, that your heart lies low. No, instead let it be now that those swords of light are raised up and charged with the energy of love that is filtering down to your beings from the Divine Source." (2)

Not hatred. Not division. Not blame and shame, judgment, revenge, bitterness. But the sword of love and light held high, figuratively speaking. In other words, being love and light. Actually being it.

Gaia through Pamela Kribbe says we're here to anchor a certain vibration. Note the affirmation that we're all angels:

"You often make yourselves so small. You are hiding your true strength and even dare not show the joy and the light in your heart. But I am now telling you what your mission is on Earth – it is to be an angel on Earth. You do not have to change the people around you; you do not have to get involved in politics, or that kind of activity. What you are meant to do here as a lightworker is to anchor a certain vibration." (3)

So anchor a certain vibration. Be the Light and the Love. Work on an energetic level.

Finally, Ashian asks us to assist in drawing people together. That's the final step in Ascension, he says:

"Coming together is the final step on humanity's journey to ascension.

"And now is the time to be focusing on how you can come together more, in spite of your differences.

"And if you are one of the ones who is asking us, and others like us, for opportunities to experience more unity, then you are one of the leaders that we are talking about.

"Humankind needs leaders who are about bringing people together, and every single one of you who is receiving this transmission is one of those people.

"You don't need to have millions or even billions of people following you in order to be a leader. You are contributing to the collective consciousness no matter what you do or who knows who you are." (4)

We may recognize the Divine Mother as having expressed the same sentiment in an earlier article:

Divine Mother: So this drawing together of people is how Nova Earth will be built and Ascension occur. (5)

Thus, it seems the need of this post-pandemic moment is to draw people together, to reunite them and not in national groups but as one global people, an evolving human race, a new species of humanity.

After what we've been through, the lessons of which will take years to digest, we need to unite behind our desire to live in peace, love, and harmony everywhere on Earth from here on in.

The rising energies will take care of the rest. They'll increase our frequency to a range where disease, crime, hatred, etc., are absent. They'll create a separate timeline and resonance for those who wish to continue in the ways of darkness. Everyone will have what they intend and want.

To summarize then, the galactics and celestials look to us for many things, some of which are to:

- Deconstruct ignorance and negativity
- Reassure the hopeless and confused.
- Send out thoughts of peace.
- BE - and demonstrate being - the Light and Love that we all are.
- Be bold and daring in bringing needed changes to fruition, and
- Come together as one global people.

If a person is unsure of their mission, this list would make a good starting place.

There we have it in black and white: "You are contributing to the collective consciousness no matter what you do or who knows who you are." That impact on the collective consciousness is, I think, what we need to focus on.

We don't have instruments to measure it yet, but that follows the identification of a need, does it not? If so, we hereby identify the need for tools to measure the collective consciousness.

The Family Business

November 18, 2013

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2013/11/18/the-family-business/>

I don't know how it is for you, but I know for myself that I often wonder how a thing will happen. My powers of imagination or spiritual recognition are not sufficient to give me a lead, a view or an understanding of the subject.

Many years ago, perhaps back in 1975, I was at work studying enlightenment and the whole subject was a mystery to me. All the ideas may as well have been an alphabet soup for the impenetrability of the mystery.

Then I had my vision in 1987 (1) that showed me that enlightenment was the purpose of life, what the entire journey of an "individual" soul was, what levels of reality there were to realize, etc. What was a mystery was now an open book (well, I exaggerate a bit).

Events like these immediately solve our dilemmas and make a subject comprehensible to us.

More recently, I'd been asking myself how unitive consciousness arises. And I had no idea, no answers, no inkling.

And then the November experience occurred, (2) in which I felt an explosion of love. And it blasted separative consciousness to smithereens and left me for a few hours in unitive consciousness. (3) I could see from that that separative consciousness was an overburden, a thick mat of beliefs that was impenetrable to oneness of mind and being.

I think that we forget ... well, I certainly do ... that we are consciousness. I think we think that we are these material bodies which have thoughts and feelings, the thoughts being the products of our brains, etc.

But that isn't the case. We are an impermanently-individuated consciousness, a "fragment" of the One Consciousness, a wave of the Great Ocean, that makes itself a temporary body and uses it as we might use a car, a crane or a telescope.

We are consciousness and what impacts consciousness determines what we see, feel, and and hear - in any dimension in which our attention is centered or focused.

In consciousness, our beliefs impede. They're as effective an impediment as a tree falling across the road is to traffic.

And this explosion of love is what was needed in my case to remove the impediment.

It may or may not be necessary for all of us to have the same experience as this. Some people may read this and accept that separative consciousness is an overlay that love removes without needing to have an experience to know it. Others may need to have an experience before they'll accept it.

Various lightworkers will have various experiences in other areas and discuss them too so that more and more of the dark corners of our process are revealed.

In addition, the Company of Heaven are telling us through channeled messages that are getting more and more detailed and sophisticated about the process and patterns of Ascension. Mysteries are being revealed and ignorance is retreating.

It isn't the case that we're going through this process unaided. We heard Archangel Michael and the Divine Mother say that we'll be experiencing ever-increasing intensities of uplifting energies, that our guides and everyone else among the Company of Heaven are leading us to spiritual unions of increasing size and scope, etc.

We're being shown the way as we make our upward climb to the launch pad of Ascension.

If we see this, we may be able to relax a mite in knowing that matters are being taken care of.

We're also privileged to be on the first planet to ascend on what will be a wave of Ascensions in the universe in this latest divine experiment of creating Ascension with the physical body, a definite innovation in life. We're the ones leading and undergoing the experiment.

And it isn't just Ascensions to the Fifth Dimension. Archangel Michael has already told me personally about an Ascension from the Seventh Dimension that will happen in 200 years. And guess what? Some of the same crew here to help with this one will be there to help with that one.

What an incredible privilege! What an amazing adventure! We might say, as Sanat Kumara said to a friend, that we're part of the family business and we might not be far off.

So I suggest that we all really comprehend at a very deep level that this is what we do; this is the family business - the business of Ascension and aiding others to ascend. Let's learn the mechanics of it, as we're destined to do, have promised to do, and came here to do.

Let's really nail this one down. What more fruitful and satisfying line of work could there be?

Lightworkers

What am I saying, I don't know what Friday's spiritual experience left me with? Of course I do. (1)

In my (let me call it November) Vision, love made me one with everything. It was love that brought unitive consciousness, if only for a time. Seeing what could be done carried with it an invitation to do it.

It wasn't a physical speaking. I didn't hear these words. The words formed in my mind. I thought them or someone was thinking me. (I wonder who?)

It triggered one part of what you might call my master agreement, which, rendered in thought, turned out to be: "You are here to demonstrate that all who serve the Light can be part of one family."

And then a challenge was issued: "Do you still want to take on this task or not? Now is the time."

I could have said no and to heck with it. But what actually arose in me was: Yes, I do! I am willing!

After my vision, I could have chosen to focus on the mystical aspect of it and ask to be made aware how all could be All could be One. That would have led in the direction of Brahmajnana or Seventh-Chakra enlightenment. That development would have been global, but it wasn't the choice I was being asked to make.

I chose the mission-driven aspect instead and replied: I'm willing to hold the space for all lightworkers being one family. I'm willing to bite the bit, as Archangel Michael said. (2)

I'd also like to experience a few things in this lifetime as well as work!

I'm here as a communicator and I'm wedded to all who truly serve the Light. I'm in partnership with all lightworkers. It's with the family of lightworkers that my mission lies.

All are free to join that family.

That was the work of that vision, what it showed me and what I agreed to arising out of it.

The vision actually left me with a great deal. It left me with my marching orders and the enduring vision of all being one through love.

I'm up to the challenge of holding the space for the lightworker family to arise in, though I'm a pretty roughshod character to be doing it. All are welcome to join me in that commitment.

Archangel Michael: We don't want what you would call tools ever again to be put in the wrong hands. So the clarity of those leading the charge with me has need to be 20/20.

SB: Okay. Well, I understand that, and I surrender, but I AM champing at the bit.

AAM: I do not want your surrender, or your white flag, dear heart, I want you to bite at the bit. ("Archangel Michael: I See You! I Love You! I Will Engage" at <https://goldenageofgaia.com/2013/11/notes-from-archangel-michaels-discussion-of-sacred-partnership/>.)

Archangel Michael: The Source of Power and Authority

Linda Dillon: Channel for the Council of Love

Steve Beckow: Host, InLight Radio

Archangel Michael: Greetings! I am Michael.

Steve Beckow: Greetings, Lord.

AAM: And welcome to each and every one of you. I welcome you as Archangel of peace, warrior of love, bringer of news and whatever titles you wish to bestow upon me, I gladly accept. But, please also bestow on me the title of friend, of ally, of brother, as we go forth, yes, dear Steve, dear Linda, as you have said, in fulfillment of the Mother's plan.

Now we all know that the Mother's plan is infinite and eternal. And even as Archangel, and even if I stretch my wings and my arms to the breadth of this universe, I would not touch the edges of Her plan, of the infinite Divine plan. So when we say, and when we speak heart to heart, mind to mind, friend to friend about the fulfillment of the plan, of course we are speaking of this phase and this element and the beauty, the phenomenal beauty of the bringing forth to fruition this element, this segment of our Mother's plan.

And, yes, in order to manage and promote workability, of course we talk of the fulfillment of the Mother's plan for this planet, for this beautiful Archangel Gaia, and the fulfillment of the ascension of the human collective, and of course, everything else - all the kingdoms, anything you can conceive of because, of course, it is integrated - it is of a piece. And you bring forth the ascension of a planet. But even that part of the plan has such implications, yes, what you would think of as the domino effect, for so many planets, so many galaxies, so many races throughout the Omniverse.

Now we come this day to talk about power. But even before we get there, I want each of you, my beloveds, to consider the wonder of this life, of this incarnation, of this time in the unfoldment of the Divine plan through that exercise that you have referred to as free will, partnered with your divine authority, that you are bringing forth in form, in substance, in materiality the plan of the Mother.

Think of it. You are translating a divine dream, a divine wish into form. On this beloved planet you have had an age, which although you don't recognize it, still goes on, but you've had an age of inventors. For those who would dream and conceptualize, such as Einstein, and then that would be brought into form. And, look now how so many of Einstein's theories are being proven to be true. Well, we knew that a long time ago.

Now, think of your life, your dreams, your ideas of what your heart desires and what you know is possible because you came with that knowing. It's being brought into form, materiality. And, whether it is simply a concept such as an institution or a society, the way it functions, it is still a form. And it is a form because there are human beings acting, behaving according to the principles of the institution or the society and the belief systems they're under.

The magnitude of this, and the magnitude of our honoring of each of you in this, is beyond substantial. So, know that.

Power. With that process, what I suggest and say to you is there is only one source of power. In the true sense, yes, like Yeshua speaks of true love, now let us speak of true power. Now what is the essence of power? What is the creative force, of source, of Mother, Father, One?

Well, if you have not heard us then you have not been listening. Because repeatedly and infinitely and eternally we will always say it is love. That is the generating essence of all power. And we will talk about divine authority in this context as well. How you experience power is through a unified, even a form of sacred union. Think of it even in terms of your electricity, your grids. You plug something into the wall, or you tune in to some electronic cell tower, etc., and you key into the power. You connect to the juice that will generate whatever device you are hoping to give you satisfaction.

So it is with genuine power. This word as we have spoken of before, has been greatly abused, misused and certainly misunderstood until it has degenerated, in your language and many languages in the collective consciousness of humans, to almost a negative connotation. So, we want to resurrect this term of power because each of you, my beloved friends, are being invited to fully assume your power.

Now, it is a different expression of that for each and every one of you. But the source of what you plug in and you join and conjoin with is the same. It is the infinite. It is the love. And that is the energy, the juice that allows you to proceed and to bring into form.

Now, upon this planet, and I am not just speaking about this time, although this is some wondrous examples, but power has been regrettably used. And this is where the connotation of power as a negative has come from. Not from the purity of the essence of Source, but from the abuse of power. And, when power is abused, it degenerates. Think of it that way. There is a degeneration into manipulation, force, control. And there is the exercise of false authority over other beings. There is the manipulation of energy and it does not matter whether it is in physicality, or emotionality or any form. It is coercion to make another align with your small self-will. I won't say free will. I will say self-will. So let us use that delineation as well.

Now, what happens when there is this abuse of power? One of the things, let us talk about the abuser, and yes we can talk about abuser from a Genghis Khan or a

Hitler to a child who is manipulating simply because they want to get their own way. It is not the child that we are talking about, although we address variations on this. When there is a person, because it is primarily a human issue, that becomes an abuser of power, so often your focus has been on those who were abused, and we will get to that.

But what happens to the abuser? There is a disconnect, a fundamental disconnect from their universal soul design and, of course, from source. This is how so many false grids and paradigms grew up upon your planet.

So, think of it again in terms of the plug. And, you know if you have a plug sort of half plugged-in or a wobbly connection, you may get a flash of electricity here and there. But the full connection is lost and eventually what ends up happening is the plug simply falls out of the wall.

So the abuser, in taking that coercive action, that decision – make no mistake about it because it is a decision, it is an act of self-will – there is a disconnect from the Divine and there is a disconnect from themselves, from their own natural self. So they are becoming simply a shadow and that shadow begins to gain substance and maybe what you think of as an aspect of the self. But it is never the totality of the being. And, of course, the more the individual lives or participates in that aspect, it gains energy.

But it is all, think of this, it is all discordant energy. It is energy that is not aligned either with truth or with the truth of their being. And this is very, very sad.

It is a departure from Source. Now there are some exceptions, but it is a departure from the reason why they chose to incarnate in the first place, which was to know the joy and experience of love in form.

Now, they may claim love, but it is the ego experience and it is the ego experience which is self-explanatory where the love is reflected upon one's self rather than truly in a conjoining in a sacred partnership with another, whether it is a partner or a family or a community.

The more that disconnect, and the longer, the stronger that disconnect is in place, the more aberrant the behaviors become, the more unhappy, to put it mildly, the individual becomes even if they claim happiness or joy. Joy is off the table. So you are dealing with an individual who has assumed power through coercion, force, control, who is in a completely dysfunctional, discordant relationship not only with themselves, but with whomever they associate with, whether is partner, family, community, nation or world.

Then there are those who are subtly or actually, directly or indirectly in receipt – let us put it that way – of the abuse of control. And again, you have the range from the parent being held hostage in the supermarket to something as abhorrent as a Hitler.

Abuse of power requires agreement and acquiescence. When there is an abuse of power, again either subtly or actually, what happens particularly in the direct line of fire, the individual who is being manipulated, abused, coerced is subtly or actually agreeing or acquiescent, and they are simply different points on the same spectrum to being controlled, either because it doesn't seem to matter to them at the moment or there is an agreement because of lack of self-worth and self-love that they will allow this.

Now, I can already hear you, Steve, saying to me, “Well, a victim of rape and violence is not agreeing.” Which is absolutely correct. Yes, I can read your mind.

And that is the battle for truth. That is the battle for freedom. But let us finish the thought, because the battle is where I want to go.

But the unconscious and sometimes conscious agreement with the abuser leads eventually, and sometimes rapidly, to the establishment of a paradigm of abuse of power that is accepted. And, then the recipient of that abuse of power, whether it is a spouse or a community or a nation, then is participating consciously or subconsciously in this false paradigm that is completely disconnected from the Source and truth, from the love energy.

Now, what is happening with humanity? And, you say, “Well, dear Lord, it looks like we're all going down the tubes rapidly.” And, of course, those of you who are feeling that are simply dismayed at what you are witnessing, at the exposure of the abuse of power, to which we are thrilled.

Because what is truly happening is there are billions of you and not all of those billions wear the hat of being called light worker or love holder, but there are billions who are not only acknowledging and witnessing and seeing and exposing the abuse of power, but very actively choosing with the free will – not the self-will – that they do not want to be, they do not choose to be within that facade, that illusion of those who are trying to create or recreate an old third.

Now, if we had had this conversation to its fullest several years ago, you would not have fully understood. And I do not mean this in a derogatory way. You would not have fully understood what I was talking about. And you would not have fully understood or agreed with me. Nevertheless it was there and it was truth. But you were in a more hopeful forward thrust mode and that was necessary to get you to this point.

Now, what is power? And let us go back to the agreement and the acquiescence because power is unification, it is conjoining, it is community, it is alignment. And it is alignment of free will with Divine will. It does not eradicate, limit or even require that you give up your decision-making power; quite the contrary. In previous conversations, we have talked about power, the assumption of the mantle of power in human form in creating Nova Earth as the assumption of stewardship, of guardianship. And that still stands. Make no mistake about that.

But, what does human power mean? Yes, of course, it means balance. But it also means, my beloved friends, that you are fully, fully plugged in, that you are fully connected. You say, “Well, Lord, I am trying. But I am waiting for Ascension. Maybe once I go through that final portal, then I’ll feel fully plugged in.”

No. That is not good enough. You have the capacity, you have the wherewithal, you have absolutely what it takes to fully align with your power, your universal self, the totality of your full design, your abilities, in divine perfection of your divine authority, with the divine authority, with the love right now.

No more delays.

In the using of power, because power when you think of it, think of how it is geared in terms of your electrical grids, etc. It is something to be utilized. It is an energy to be utilized. It is part of what you think of as your co-creative efforts. And in that there always, yes always, will be elements of agreement and acquiescence. And that is fine.

If you are a master chef and your passion, your inspiration, your power lies in creating delightful, nutritious, regenerative, restorative meals, then in your family, you may become the kitchen power. And, that is your forte' and you will enjoy when you are doing that and others support you in doing that.

Now, some of your family may acquiesce because they have absolutely no interest in going anywhere near the kitchen. So to them it is a non-issue and you will hear them say, "Go for it, and I am so happy you are." And that level of acquiescence is perfect. Divinely perfect.

Then there are those in your family who will be in agreement: "Well yes, I am not particularly fond, it is not my forte' or my first passion to be the cook or the chef, so you go ahead and be the chef because that is who you are." And, then there is an attachment to that. Stop!

Now and then I would like to participate or even be in charge of the kitchen or a meal. And that is the cooperation because, of course, as the chef, you are saying, "This is my passion, but that does not mean I always want to be tethered to the kitchen, because I may wish to go to an art class. I may wish to join Michael and paint the sky." So there is that level, and I am using the simplest example, of cooperation.

So, there are those that "go ahead and do what you want because that is not in my purview of interest" and then there are those who want to be on the periphery. And, then there will be those who say, "Well, I want to participate more fully because I want to learn how to cook. I am not sure if that's my passion, but I would like to participate." And so it is in power.

So, dearest Steve, for example, you are a writer, you are a communicator, this is the essence of who you are. This is the essence of what I would term your power, your passion, your contribution, your talent, and the choices that you are making with your free will.

Now, I am not asking you to go and be a landscaper, because that is not your passion. Now, there are others, and others that are listening right now, whose passion is to go and get their hands in the dirt and talk to the trees and dance with the elementals. And that is fine. What is key in this is the true connection to power. It is that alignment and it is the exercise of free will choice, not in authoritarian, coercive ways, but in absolute cooperation of the highest realm of love, of loving actions, of loving energies. Because the love is the energy that is going to help you create, whether it is a cake or a garden or a nation, that is what is going to create what works for everyone.

If the love, the cooperation, unity, consideration, empathy, compassion is not present, then it is not of love and it certainly is not of power. Because it is not of the Mother, it is simply of human design. And, as history has shown you again and again, that human design has been extremely faulty.

Now, with that food for thought, where do you wish to begin?

SB: Thank you, Lord. You've made a lot of points, but you're not just talking about Hitler and Genghis Khan, you're also talking about me. It's just a question of how far you want to take things, right? The same attempts to force my will on others through my words or energy or attitudes, it's the same, right? It's just on a very much smaller scale.

AAM: That is correct. And I am glad you have brought me to my next point.

SB: Okay. (Laughter) Now that's Divine co-creative partnership!

AAM: That is correct! Now, in the gentlest way I say this, there is not a one of you that has not, at some juncture, practiced an abuse of power. And, that is a good thing insofar as you know exactly – be honest with yourselves – you know exactly what it looks and feels and tastes like. And you have been the recipient of, can we call it, these minor abuses of power.

So there is subtle manipulation that goes on in human interaction. And, it is part of what you would think of as egoic behavior rather than heart-conscious behavior. And what we've witnessed beloveds is that there is less and less of this because you are becoming more conscious, not only are you becoming more conscious of when you are doing this, you are becoming more uncomfortable with when you are doing this because you know what you are doing.

Now, sometimes you just say, "But, I really want my own way." Not trusting, but if you were to express that in positive ways, in ways that admit you're human, that you would get your own way anyway. So, there is still this level in many hearts, well, in many egos that are still at that level of the manipulative child.

Do I come this day to blame or shame or bring guilt to you? No. That is not of love. But I do bring your attention to it because when you behave that way, what you are doing, sweet angels, is pulling that plug. You are pulling that plug, not completely, but making it wobbly, from your own universal soul design and from the source. So, think of it. You are disconnecting, yes, from Mother/Father One. But you are also disconnecting from your beloved self. And the difficulty of this is when you are in that system, it means you cannot think of this. It is not possible to have a full heart connection with another being, not with a human being, not with your guides, not with your Archangel. Oh, we will talk to you. Make no doubt about it. But you won't feel the full impact of our love. And that is sad.

Even in the animal kingdom – and let us even make it more specific with a dog, and you all know that dogs are among the most faithful, loyal, and they are used to being adherent. And even with dogs, when you are in that disconnect, you cannot fully connect, and that is pathetic, because that, in a conscious being, in a conscious light worker, love holder is pathetic. Because you know better. You have already been. And when I say you, I mean the light worker collective, the love holder collective, the billions that I have talked about that don't even know those terms are flying back and forth through that ascension portal. You are on this side because what you are doing is waiting for the collective, but you are also already creating Nova Earth and Nova being.

So what you are doing is you are fine tuning some of your behaviors. You are bringing to the conscious forefront of both your mind and your heart that you choose not to reinforce a paradigm of abuse of power. Because when you do those scenic detours, those various little exercises in manipulation, what you are also doing is you are paying homage, you are agreeing with that abuse of power paradigm and that is not the truth of your heart of who you are. So more and more you are saying, 'No.'

Now, I want to be clear. There is a difference and I want this to be known very much, between acting in a manipulative way and writing or channeling or speaking or having a cup of coffee and conversation that is from your heart. This is why we have taken the trouble and your star family has been teaching you about the various forms of language.

Now you are not trying, in writing, to manipulate. It is not errant behavior to state your case. When you write, when you speak, when you behave from the framework, the truth of your genuine understanding, when you have done your work, dear hearts, of digging and removing the debris, which you are doing marvelously, when you speak from that place, then what you are doing is not trying to manipulate. You are not trying to coerce others into your point of view. You are leaving that doorway wide open because you are speaking with Saedor for a lively conversation. You are saying, “This is what I think. This is how I feel. This is what I believe.” And then you are saying, “But you may have something to add to this understanding. You may have something to build and to expand this, not just for me but for all of us.”

So, it is an open conversation. In the abuse of power it is a closed conversation. It is, “this is the way it is. This is how you are to behave. This is what you have need to adhere to and I don’t want any back talk.” That is not of love. But, in a loving conversation, what is happening is that door is open. So where the conversation is closed – and there are far too many people in various nations who are afraid, yes, and I do not mean afraid in terms of wilderness issues, I mean afraid for their lives, afraid for their freedom to express that.

The But, what you are doing, and this is one of the reasons why I am asking to talk about this this day, when you are throwing that door open and you are saying, “This is the conversation, this is what I believe, this is what I feel. What do you have to add?” And we have seen some very interesting additions. Not all is truth. That does not matter because that will be culled out like a weed in a garden and it will be done gently and kindly and with a great deal of humor.

But, what you do when you open that conversation, when you are laying down that new grid of power, authority, of stewardship, is you are saying, “Come over here because we are wide open to building together. That this is collegial, this is cooperative. We are unified and we have a goal, and our goal is bringing into form the love that the Mother shows us, shares with us, that is in our very DNA.” We have talked about diverging pathways and that you are forging a new pathway and you are saying to the collective, “Look come over here.” Well, this new framework of power is part of that. Do you understand what I say?

SB: Well, I do. But, I have to admit that I am still having trouble thinking of situations like being the head of a company, say, and having a mission, having a vision and getting the manifestation of that vision to happen, and having, not chains of command exactly, but reporting relationships, let’s use that business phrase. How to do it without lapsing into giving commands or abuse of power? I still don’t understand how that will work after the abundance starts to flow and light workers are disbursing funds. I still don’t know how it’s going to work, this balance between command or getting something done or asking people to do things and free will.

AAM: It is leadership.

SB: Could you talk a bit about that?

AAM: I would be pleased to. Now you heard me, and I am but one Archangel in a legion of servants to the Mother. So we know what it is to have a boss. And nothing that I would do would ever be contrary to the Mother’s dream. Because that is all I desire. That is all I align to.

And I have legions, my legion of blue as you well know, my friend. Think of it in this way. All true leaders, all true stewards formulate a team. That concept, that structure was not formulated on abuse of power. Was it hijacked and manipulated and bastardized? Yes. But think of it in this way. As the head of the corporation, you must have a team. No individual is responsible for the creation or co-creation of Nova Earth. How many times do we have to say to you that we are not a hierarchy; we work cooperatively.

Now, does that mean that no one takes the lead? Of course not. The person who is best suited for that role takes the lead in that spectrum. There needs to be structure; otherwise all you have is chaos. And, you’ve seen enough of that. And, I’m not even talking about sixth-dimensional chaos. You will just simply have mayhem.

So you don’t take someone who is absolutely not only having managerial qualities, but is brilliant in it, and put them in charge of personnel. The IT person knows nothing about providing insurance and health care. So you bring forward a team and that team has to be cohesive and in alignment with what you have termed your mission and purpose. The structure, the belief system of why the company, the institution, the project exists. If they are not, then that is not a good fit.

Now, will there be a discussion? When there is a CEO today, let us use today, and that CEO goes on vacation or on hiatus on a well-earned rest for months, what happens? That person who wants to try out cooking in the kitchen gets to try it on and to expand it and to learn and to grow and to be supported by the team, because in the moment, that is the best person to be in that position. And, eventually that person may realize they love doing that. So they may go off and start their own corporation. And that is alright because what they are doing is they are carrying the values, the vision, the mission into another realm and another realm and another realm.

You have an abhorrence, dear Steve, of being seen as controlling.

SB: Even while I do try to control.

AAM: That is correct. So you see the conflict there. It is not so much controlling as actively seeking cooperation. The fear of control and the desire to control comes from the subtle fear that people do not want to go forward in the direction, the same direction, or in the same realm that you do. And, what we are suggesting to you in this new paradigm is that they do.

So there is old fear that there is an abuser knocking at the door and you better be vigilant and control the situation so they don't get access is not true. So you are letting that go and what you are doing is you are seeking out new ways, heart ways of being in friendship, of being in business, of being in projects, of being in family, because that old paradigm is gone.

Now, you are seeing some rigorous attempts at resurrection, but you are not participating in that. And, I strongly encourage you, control and the need to control is simply based on the fear that you will be overridden and abused yourself. And this comes from either past lives or being controlled as a child. Let it go.

SB: Well, I confess that I have the fear that I will have a vision, one that my colleagues won't want, say, and that it'll start to wobble and people won't subscribe to it and I'll be pulling out my hair. So, that's the kind of scenario I'm wrestling with in my worried mind.

AAM: So let us go back into the vision. Why would those beings, who wish to share in that construction and the bringing into material a vision that appeals to them, try to undermine that vision? Well, the truth would be that they would come with their, how you would phrase it, with their own agendas, or their issues of lack of self-sufficiency or self-worth, self-love. And, therefore, there would be what we would call those scenic detours.

Now, this is one of the reasons we have said to all of you, don't rush, please. Breathe. But also in the culture of a project, a company, an institution, a society, you have this wide-open door. Now let us also say, the wide-open door doesn't mean permission to act out. But, what it does mean is that there is permission when somebody starts – and that will happen – to act out or go into old discordant, aberrant behavior, that the culture is such that you bring that person back into the fold or they are given the opportunity to depart and find their own way somewhere where it does fit. Because nobody wishes individuals to be creative in areas that don't fit them, don't fit their desires and mission and purpose.

But do not think that you do not have and that we do not have the power to bring you the right people, that you do not have in your own divine authority, the ability to call forth, to create and bring to you those people who are a perfect fit. So that there isn't an adjustment period, a honeymoon period, a cleaning house period, because that is not...yes there are going to be adjustments, but the whole purpose of building a team – and a team can be your inner circle of six or seven and it can also be an outer circle of thousands – it is still a team.

From the person who wants to sweep the floor at night to the CEO, you are a team. And, each team [member?] has equal value. But it is appropriate the CEO does not tell the maintenance how to sweep. And the person who is sweeping does not tell the CEO how to implement the vision. It is all simple. Everybody has a place and every place is critical.

SB: Wow! I certainly do notice my own tendency to project the past into the future. All the failed attempts at getting some pretty exciting things off the ground and all the war wounds.

AAM: Well, might I say that this is something we can relate to?

SB: (Laughter) Well, I suppose. In fact, I'm sure. We just have a few minutes left, Lord. This is such a substantial conversation, I hate to end it. Please continue to a point where you feel we can leave the conversation to another time.

AAM: I want to pick up, my beloved friend, on what you have said, "the wounds of war and past experience," and I have made a joke because we know what it is to have things go awry. Let us put it that way. What I would encourage you to do, rather than drawing on the past - and, yes, at the very end of the hour I am introducing a new concept - rather than drawing on the past, draw on the future.

You are in the Mother's new time, in an infinite ocean, a fluidity of time. Swim to the future. Locate your ideal of what the current reality in form would look like. Pick it up and bring that into your very heart, your mind, your being, your selves. And, let it stay. And let that be your reference point because you are not recreating the old, you are bringing forth the new. So go to the new, bring it into the now, and proceed from that point.

SB: That's very helpful. Thank you for that.

AAM: You are so welcome, my friend. My brother, I speak to all of you all over this beautiful planet. Take the mantle of power. Assume your divine authority and set forth not in timidity, but in a declaration of who you are and your freedom. Go in peace. Farewell.

Archangel Michael: Part of Our Agreement is Being the Activators

December 11, 2018

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2018/12/11/archangel-michael-part-of-our-agreement-is-being-the-activators/>

I'd like to post a discussion with Archangel Michael, through Linda Dillon, from 2015.

On that occasion, he said that I was being used to illustrate what emotional clearing looks like. Then he acknowledged that all lightworkers were. It was part of our agreement with the Mother.

If the whole planet was to ascend - as we had asked of the Mother - then people are needed to serve as activators; in this case, to model raising issues to the surface and watching them dissolve.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon,
May 6, 2015.

Steve Beckow: Am I being used, so to speak, to illustrate the need for lightworker clearing?

Archangel Michael: Yes. Very.

SB: Can you say a little more about that for my own comfort. And also for the readers of the blog. They need to know that lightworkers are often being used for this purpose.

AAM: But they are being used and that is part of the soul agreement. That is part of being the activators, the human activators for the growth and the ascension particularly now that you have decided to ascend as one together.

So if you do not have human activation, if you do not have the clearing coming forth that is necessary for the anchoring in physicality of the higher realm and vibration, then you do not make the transition as smoothly or as effectively or as rapidly as all of you are wanting.

So, yes, you are acting as catalysts, not only to each other, but especially to each other, but you are also doing it for others as well. What you would think of as the main stream.

SB: We know about being catalysts and we know about clearing for the collective. But to actually be used as a model, an example, an instance, to have some piece of our history or whatever reactivated so that people can see somebody going through this, is that also part of this?

AAM: Yes it is.

SB : There are other lightworkers out there who will say, “Oh my God,” is there anything you want to say to other lightworkers about this?

AAM: What I am saying is, is that this is part of the service work you have volunteered for. This is part of your expression of love for the Mother.

Do not be surprised, my dear friends, if things that you thought were ancient history are being revisited and they are coming up again for that activation and that clearing.

SB : So we shouldn't be ashamed of sharing about it?

AAM: There is no room for shame. That is outmoded. We want you, all of you, to get to the point where you can laugh about clearing and say – here we go again - so that it is as smooth as running water. Because that is what it is – it is running Light.

Archangel Michael: The Time for Lightworkers Stepping Forth Is Now

Personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon

In a recent reading, Archangel Michael encouraged lightworkers to show leadership in the co-creative work of building Nova Earth and tells us that the time for stepping out is now.

Steve Beckow: Greetings, Lord

Archangel Michael: Welcome to you, my beloved brother of blue. Welcome to this time of extraordinary change - yes, of breakthrough, breakdown, reconstruction, and reconstitution. This is the constant.

But never has it been so apparent as the humans go forth - in folly, in victory, in war, in peace. The key is that they are embracing the change and that they do go forward - sometimes yes, under misstep, and sometimes in courageous valour.

Might I even say, beloved one, that, at this time, being upon the planet and being involved in the work of spreading light and love is courageous valor. Even in silence, the continuity, the constancy and the certainty is an act of valor. It is an act of trust. It is an act of hope. It is an act of love.

Know when I say that I speak of “act,” I speak of "action." I speak of forward thrust and this is what is required. It is required in terms of the individual’s plans within the Mother’s plan. There is a time for stillness and all action emanates, when it is of truth and balance, from that place of stillness, of balance.

It is not a flurry of activity, of expression, of creativity for its own sake. It has need to be clear, directed, thoughtful, considerate, kind, gentle, strong. But it has need to be action. The time for light workers, love holders, for all of Gaia, stepping forth, is now.

Emulate the Divine Qualities and Eliminate the Issues

I said in an earlier article that the mind works by dominating others and avoiding domination. A mind that works to disempower others disempowers itself.

If I'm right, then it'd come as no surprise to say that such a mind, when it looks at society, sees a dismal picture, reflective of its own dismal condition.

It thinks from a condition of lack, limitation and scarcity. It considers world conditions like hunger, poverty, and homelessness as inevitable. And it believes that there are and can be no solutions to the world's difficulties. The mind offers no hope to those who wish to build a new Earth.

The mind is simply too small, too timid, and too self-absorbed to tackle a game as large as building Nova Earth.

Only the heart has the juice, the power, the energy to penetrate through the mind's view of things. The heart does not experience lack, limitation or scarcity. The heart does not consider hunger, poverty, and homelessness as inevitable. The heart considers that there are infinite solutions to all of these problems, simply awaiting the collective will to eradicate them.

The heart is large enough, courageous enough, and selflessly-loving enough to tackle a game as big as building Nova Earth.

Many lightworkers will come into wealth without being in touch with the heart, without feeling love flowing, etc. They may not really feel the reality of having no lack, no inevitability, and endless solutions. How are they to make the leap from the old paradigm of service to self to the new paradigm of service to others?

In circumstances like these, they may need interim measures. I suggest a two-fold interim path: Let me borrow terms from spirituality and call one the via positiva and the other the via negativa. I'm giving the positive and negative paths new meanings.

My version of the via positiva is the road of following on faith the teachings of the ascended masters, celestials and galactics. It is acknowledging that cultivating the divine qualities is the way to go until we feel the open flow of love. We follow the guidelines until our hearts break open and we need the guidelines no longer. On the positive path, we're cultivating something, taking positive action.

The second path is the via negativa, where we cause our issues (our "vasanas") to disappear by either processing them or using any of the plethora of techniques that are being suggested these days for that purpose. The elimination of issues is an act of negation. It works to unveil our deeper Self that was always-already there, hidden by the debris of our decisions in life.

So emulate the divine qualities and eliminate the issues. As long as we're not carried along to generosity and integrity by the open flow of love within us, this via negativa is the way of being I recommend and I especially recommend it to financial wayshowers.

When the Reval hits, we're going to lose some lightworkers. Archangel Michael has cautioned me in a personal reading Dec. 11, 2013: "Humans have a tendency to change with incredible abundance."

"What you are going to see, and this is something I have talked about, but not truly addressed, and it is one of the issues - vasanas, yes, but also [false] grids - that have delayed the RV time and time again, not simply within your group, obviously, but globally.

"We are very aware of human history and how people have a tendency, even with the purest of hearts, to shift and perhaps even go a little crazy." (1)

That numbers of lightworkers would fall away was not something I thought was possible but I'm coming to see that I need to brace myself for the possibility. Our numbers will shrink again.

Meanwhile the Company of Heaven has said that they'll be watching us to see who uses money well and who does not, who shows up for work Monday morning and who does not. (Holidays are OK.) AAM said on this subject:

"Simply know that, where there [will be] gaps and holes [in the ranks of lightworkers who leave with their money], we are waiting to see how the shift is affecting the collective of humanity and the collective of the various foundations and groups.

"So stand back. Be the observer. See the unfoldment as it occurs. Simply [know] that you and we are putting people where they need to be." (2)

There may be a continual winnowing down. Many people may count themselves out, going to live in a mansion in Monaco or such like, and leaving the spiritual gene pool for good.

But eventually we'll hit a core of dedicated lightworkers, committed financial wayshowers. What will they be like?

I believe they'll actually be feeling and expressing love and, in the fulness of that feeling, they'll open their arms (prudently) to anyone in genuine need.

They'll be content to be moving forward, however it's accomplished. Any way that works will be followed. No one will want or seek credit. They'll just want the result.

They'll eat, drink, and sleep a world that works. They'll see it as an extension, a universalizing of their own individual love.

And love is itself a higher-dimensional state. It's only a question of time before people see a world that works for everyone for what it really is: a higher-dimensional state that we'll attain.

They'll see that a world working proceeds from each being attaining workability within themselves and then another and then another until a breakthrough occurs. They'll know that a critical mass in workability is what's needed, not a total conversion.

Only those who can and do hold that vision will be left after a while. And this will be the core of the ground crew going forward.

Archangel Michael on Heart-Centered Leadership

<http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/08/11/archangel-michael-on-heart-centered-leadership/>

“Archangel Michael on Heart-Centered Leadership,” Aug. 11, 2015, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/08/11/archangel-michael-on-heart-centered-leadership/>

As I go through past readings, preparing them for incorporation in a comprehensive file I maintain, I came across this discussion of leadership on July 21, 2015, which I reproduce here for its usefulness.

Archangel Michael's opening remarks are also noteworthy and seem to be intended for public consumption. The discussion of leadership follows them.

Steve Beckow: Greetings, Lord

Archangel Michael: Welcome to you, my beloved brother of blue. Welcome to this time of extraordinary change - yes, of breakthrough, breakdown, reconstruction, and reconstitution. This is the constant.

But never has it been so apparent as the humans go forth in folly, in victory, in war and peace. The key is that they are embracing the change and that they do go forward - sometimes yes, under misstep, and sometimes in courageous valour.

Might I even say, beloved one, that at this time, being upon the planet and being involved in the work of spreading light and love is courageous valor. Even in silence, the continuity, the constancy and the certainty is an act of valor. It is an act of trust. It is an act of hope. It is an act of love.

Know that, when I say that I speak of “act,” I speak of action. I speak of forward thrust and this is what is required. No, not to be loved. It is required in terms of the individual’s plans within the Mother’s plan. There is a time for stillness and all action emanates, when it is of truth and balance, from that place of stillness, of balance.

It is not a flurry of activity, of expression, of creativity for its own sake. It has need to be clear, directed, thoughtful, considerate, kind, gentle, strong. But it has need to be action. The time for light workers, love holders, for all of Gaia, stepping forth, is now.

Steve: Leadership. I know so very little about it and I haven’t time to study the subject. What do I need to know to do a better job than I’m doing?

Archangel Michael: That you are the shepherd and you are the pathfinder. Now you say to me, “Dearest Lord, how am I supposed to be at the head of the flock and at the bottom of the flock at the same time?” It is called bi-location. [Laughs]

There are times that it is a balancing act. There are times when you must show the way through the mountain pass. You must show the way to where the water is, where people will be nourished and refreshed and reconstituted.

And then there are times when you must stand back. You may nudge from behind but you are allowing and respecting those within your group, your circle, humanity to find their way.

It is not that you withdraw support and it is not that you stop dropping clues, but you allow them, your term would be, creative chaos.

Chaos for its own sake, for its own value is ridiculous. There is no reward. There is no creation. But there is time for creative chaos when out of what appears to be mayhem comes new and deeper understanding, new ideation and a new sense of empowerment.

Leadership is a tenuous role and it is particularly tenuous in terms of the understanding, in the new paradigm, of heart-centred awareness, of heart-centred love.

You are never attempting to control but you are very clear about what is acceptable, what are the principles of daily life, of operation. If it is not of clarity, if it is not of sweetness and of love, then there is no place for it.

So the leader/leadership is the role-modelling of love, of consideration, but of clarity. There is too much indecision, waiting, inaction.

You know this in your work, beloved. When you write and when you take positions, you point the way. You do not nay-say anyone else. You create the room for a broader discussion, whether it is corrupt or incorrupt or somewhere in the middle.

That is leadership. It is not telling people what to do. It is role-modelling.

Steve: I can do it in my writing. I have no problem with that. It is in person where the difficulties arise, especially when I get impatient and just want something to happen.

AAM: You and I both, dear heart! When you feel impatient, when you feel like you want to scream and perhaps even wring somebody's neck, take a giant step backwards. These are the days I encourage you to take time for your beloved self. Take a giant step backwards and simply watch the show.

Steve: What steps would you advise I take to see that communication happens on the teams.

AAM: Allow them to express themselves in a neutral way.

We are not simply speaking of Perro. We are talking about neutrality. So you can express how you feel and this is them finding their voice so that they do not need to feel that they are withholding. But let them express themselves without feeling that there will be a reaction, so that they learn to express themselves.

But it is not, and let me be very clear about this, it is not withholding. It is not you withholding either. So for example, if somebody is saying something that to you is incorrect, outrageous or is, shall we say, sparking you, it is not responding in that momentary fluster.

But it is expressing, perhaps not even at the same time, but expressing that this is how I feel about what you said. It is expressing it in a way that is encouraging and giving everybody the latitude to express, where no one is considered right or wrong, other than the information.

But information, and I use that in the broadest sense of the word, cannot be withheld. If it is, then you are not operating as a team. It is that simple.

A Single Bird Turns the Flock

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/03/31/a-single-bird-turns-the-flock/>

From where I reside, I have a good view of the flocks of pigeons, whirling and turning in the sky over English Bay.

And one thing I've noticed is that, when the entire flock turns, it's because a single pigeon has wheeled or turned.

Granted some peel off and the flock does not follow. Why the flock follows the one and not the other, I don't know. But the flock turning awaits a single bird.

There's a small group - a channeling group - that meets regularly and not only meditates for the arrival of abundance but also speaks to the Company of Heaven on the results, etc.

The Company of Heaven tells them they couldn't imagine the effects their work has had. We were speculating on what that might be.

Does the Company of Heaven multiply the energetic effect of our initiatives? Does it have an impact on the collective consciousness. Does it represent the single wheeling bird that turns the flock?

My friend pointed out that his circle was operating as a conduit. Indeed. And also as the permission needed by the galactics who are engineering abundance to free their hands to act on our behalf, to grant our wishes, so to speak.

We represent the Earth on the matter and allow the galactics to intervene, respecting our free will and responding to our invitation.

The circle's expression of a desire for abundance is not haphazard, weak, etc. It's strong, conscious, and committed.

I was impressed with the way they were taking responsibility for the whole world and speaking globally. Also with how they appreciated their contribution, without chest-thumping but also without self-deprecation.

I'm beginning to appreciate the impact of what we do as lightworkers. What a gradual process it's been to reach this point of beginning to see our contribution in an accurate light.

I used to see it as my conditioned beliefs represented "reality," which was that we did not matter and that what we did did not make a difference. I'm now just beginning to appreciate our contribution for its true significance and extent.

Making the Path of Financial Stewardship Work

December 30, 2016

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/12/30/making-path-financial-stewardship-work/>

I'm going through a transition so fundamental that I can hardly write about it.

I've been involved recently in some financial matters that have nothing to do with the Reval but which I cannot discuss nonetheless.

But the impact on my writing has been considerable.

I'm an urban monk, following the awareness path and a servant of the Divine Mother. I'm not much interested in financial matters per se.

But I've now visited the financial world for a short while and I was unprepared for what I found.

The stress I felt around being responsible for money in transit, having to understand so much that was new and strange to me, coping with a memory that doesn't work, writing an awareness column every day, and so on, was almost more than I could bear.

Being responsible for money in transit was by far the biggest stressor. There'd be no way I could make up for any financial mistake I made. And me and mathematics have never really coexisted very peacefully.

I was making spreadsheets and tracking everything. This is not my usual thing. There was one day when I thought I was going to lose it because I could not make figures match.

So I've been as stressed as I ever want to be.

This may be a preview of what's coming down the pike. On the one hand, we're promised abundance. But on the other hand, those who handle abundance have taken upon themselves a sizeable workload and responsibility. I've gained a new appreciation for the scope of the work.

I'm certain that I don't even begin to comprehend how much adjustment I'll need to make. I'm rigorously going to follow Archangel Michael's advice to do nothing for a week after the Reval. I now see that it's something like decompressing before we step out into the world.

Managing financial matters and awareness writing are not at first glance entirely compatible. Or else it's my job to make them so; this may be a challenge that I agreed to perhaps.

As an awareness writer, I need calmness, quiet, and solitude. As a financial steward, my phone'll be ringing off my desk and thoughts of solitude may be as close as I get to it.

My assignment is somehow to make the two work: To conserve my awareness by making my workload in the financial world manageable.

That will take careful planning and firm discipline on my part.

The only way I can survive is to ditch any remaining ideas there may be lurking in the depths of the mind about empire-building or self-glorification. Because if there are any ideas of that sort, they'll drive me to over-produce.

I often get myself into the problematic situation of thinking I can do more than I can. Sooner or later, my health gives way ... or now the Company of Heaven consigns me to the sick bed to slow me down.

I need to realize that I'm just one member of a very large team, one among millions, and I can actually only do what a normal, average, ordinary human can do, without risking the health of the body.

I need to get that I'm going to be doing a very modest job of meeting with a very few people about only high-level matters and then only during part of the day.

And if I depart from that, I risk losing my writing and losing my health.

Everything about my life is getting very serious all of a sudden as new responsibilities loom. And this is not my first choice in terms of direction, as a lover of bliss, stillness, and equanimity.

But this is the path of financial stewardship nonetheless and our job - or my job at least - is to make it work.

Financial Wayshowers: Have Your Money Make a Difference

June 2, 2015

<http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/06/02/financial-wayshowers-money-make-difference/>

Change of Mind

Credit: loveproblemsolutionuk.com

I'd like to discuss some matters related to financial wayshowing over the course of a few articles.

Not on financial matters per se, on which subject I'm not qualified to comment, but on us as wayshowers - our attitudes, our issues, the open and closed doors.

The first thing I'd like to discuss is how the mind can prevent the financial wayshower from having their money make a difference. By "making a difference" I mean having an impact in the building of Nova Earth.

There are halting movements behind the scenes, which I'm not at liberty to comment on, which nonetheless have me feel a need to accelerate our discussions of financial wayshowing.

The prospect of acquiring some wealth evokes an immediate desire to be generous.

However, almost as soon as generous words are out of the lightworker's mouth, a second reaction may come up and the individual may begin backing away from the original intention of generosity. They may even seem non-plussed at what they've just done.

What happened?

Financial wayshowers having fears and second thoughts is a common and predictable reaction among lightworkers. You don't see it among the cabal because they don't respond from generosity. In my experience, it's usually only seen among newly-wealthy servers of the Light.

To answer why it happens we have to look at the way the mind works. Then we need to see how to get around it if we're to succeed in our missions as lightworkers, distributing the Mother's abundance to others, as well as ourselves.

The mind works to ensure the survival of us and everything we identify as important to our survival - spouse, children, job, house, car, etc.

It operates by making itself right and others wrong, judging and avoiding being judged, and dominating and avoiding being dominated. It carries the burden of a long list of perpetrations against others and failures to assist. Guilt, shame, low self-esteem, etc., commonly result.

Now to pick up with our example: When the individual, in touch with the divine quality of generosity, promises to make a generous offering, contributing from the abundance achieved, the mind kicks in a short while later to cast doubt on the wisdom of the gesture, to recoil from the amount promised, or to back peddle and put in reservations and riders.

In the growth movement, this back-peddling would have been called "having a mind attack." We also call it a snapback, a recoil, a change of heart, etc.

The mind will say, "I don't have enough," "I'm going to run out," "They never did anything for me. Why should I do something for them?" "No, I want to enjoy myself first. Then I'll see to others." These are all issues (or "vasanas") born of upsets and other traumatic circumstances that happened way back when.

One of the recommendations I've followed, which came from the Breakthrough Foundation many years ago, was to ask the heart what figure it wanted to contribute and then to stay with that figure whatever it was and whatever arose later.

Stay with it past the mind's rebellion. Stay with it past the remorse, regret and second-guessing that goes on. And stay with it to deliver on our promise. This calls for faith that everything will work out and the courage to keep our word whether it works out or not - in fact, even if it doesn't; especially if it doesn't.

The more I do that, the stronger my word becomes and the stronger is my experience of both integrity and generosity.

The mind's fear, renegeing or veto is a circumstance the financial wayshower will face every day. We must distinguish between what comes from the heart or Self (they are the same) and what comes from the mind and no longer consent to be enslaved by the mind's propensities.

We can do some of the brush-clearing of concern by putting aside enough money for taxes, a contingency fund, our own and our family's well-being and future needs, and our own personal gifting. We then know how much disposable income we have to work with.

We're digging our way out from under the mind's control. After the heart opens, and love flows through us, the work will become easier.

Will Lightworkers Miss the Boat?

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/03/03/will-lightworkers-miss-the-boat/>

I had a recent discussion with a lightholder at a meet-up who wanted to know why we were discussing money matters (the Reval) at a spiritual gathering.

Why were we not talking about enlightenment and God and spirituality?

I wanted to expand on that discussion and clarify the matter.

A lightholder is one who puts enlightenment at the forefront of attention, turns within, and detaches from the worldly round of life to seek it. In Hinduism, the lightholder path is, I believe, called raja yoga.

A lightworker is one who serves the Divine Mother's Plan for the age, foregoing turning within to turn without and address the problems that exist in the world. In Hinduism, the lightworker's path is called karma yoga (the yoga of action) and seva (service).

Do we miss the spiritual boat by turning towards the world? No, we don't. The path of seva, of karma yoga is a path to God. Lightworkers are activists, servants, and stewards; lightholders are contemplatives, saints, and sages.

Spirituality is additive; it isn't "either/or." A lightworker can be a lightholder and vice versa. But saying one is a "lightworker" is a way of saying that one's first and overarching commitment is service to the Divine Mother by serving the well-being of the world.

Lightworkers won't lose out on enlightenment. You can see that I've experienced transformative love, bliss, ecstasy and exaltation, all in the past year. Never in my years as a lightholder have I ever been so rewarded.

And I'm so busy that I don't have a lot of time for meditation. So much for the thought that a busy (occupied) mind cannot advance in spirituality. These outcomes demonstrate that a lightworker won't lose out on the benefits of spirituality.

You and I have ascended in other lifetimes or we wouldn't be here. If we hadn't ascended, all of us would be burning with a desire for Ascension. We'd be so focused on our own spiritual practice that we'd have no time for service.

Moreover, under those circumstances, to hear from our guides, as I have, that we can visit the higher states but we can't stay there would be a terrible blow, a grievous disappointment. But knowing what our soul contract is, our role and mission, and knowing that we return to our realms when the task is over allows us (OK, me) to accept the circumstances of our mission.

When I look at my life, there are all kinds of indications that I've been this route before - as have you. The ease with which I drop into meditation, the raft of spiritual experiences I had in the 70s and 80s, more recent truncated experiences that would have been full-blown enlightenment under ordinary circumstances, an intense interest in enlightenment - on and on the indications go.

And it's the same with you, I'm sure. Most lightworkers are angelic in origin (1) and angels are transcendental. That means we've come from beyond the twelve dimensions of human reality.

Here's what AAM said to me in 2011 on why I wear the blindfold, a statement which I believe includes you in its scope:

"If you came with full capacity and meaning - yes, the vision, the hearing, the knowing, the full memory, the access, all of the above - and you were to communicate to humans, to the collective, there would be a sense of separation. That is why you, as with so many, have been kept under cover." (2)

We've been asked to come and leaven the loaf. Or you could imagine that we came as waiters at the banquet of Ascension. The Divine Mother prepares the banquet and we serve the guests.

The lightholder at the meet-up was disconcerted by the discussion of the Reval. In his mind, we were being worldly, profit-driven. Well, of course we're not. I don't know anyone at that meeting who cares for money overly much, except as an instrument to end homelessness, develop new technologies, clean up pollution, etc.

We're excited at the service to humanity we can provide as a result of participating in the Reval.

Volunteering to be pipelines for the outflow of the Mother's wealth entails a great deal of sacrifice. I'm a monk by persuasion and handling money is a hugely-confronting thing for me. My memory is Teflon-coated these days. I forget something five minutes after I hear it and I'm going to be handling money? Give me a break.

I met with my bank manager today and was totally blissed out. I leaked information I probably should not have and acted like a person who was stoned. But I can no longer suppress the bliss. I've resolved to have a colleague come along with me if it ever happens again that I'm that deeply in bliss.

Sometimes I'm so deeply in bliss that I can't walk. I certainly can't do complicated tasks at times like that.

But I'm trusting that it'll all work out. And the celestials have assured us it will. Here's Archangel Michael for instance:

Archangel Michael: Not that we will allow you to go wrong – let us be very clear. This plan has been in unfoldment for far too long for money to simply be washed down the drain by decisions that are not beneficial either for yourself or for others and for those who will benefit from the abundance programs, plural. (3)

All the anxiety and caution will certainly be worth it if it results in financing some of the activities that help build Nova Earth.

Lightworkers serve the Divine Mother. And her mandate for us is to build a new Earth. Masters like Jesus, Sanat Kumara, Maitreya, the new Buddha (Ranjit), etc., are the lamplighters of this age. What they'll reveal about the nature of Reality will turn us and our world upside down.

Will I drink their words in? You bet. I can't wait. But then I'll go back to that part of my mission that's concerned with building Nova Earth.

How to Show the Way

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/03/30/show-way/>

I was looking for a specific quote in my notes the other day and came across this coaching from Archangel Michael in a personal reading on Nov. 21, 2012, to the members of the Bridge Fund as well as the Nova Earth Team in general.

Rereading it, I was struck by its relevance to us who stand on the verge of a new phase of our lightwork.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, Nov. 21, 2012.

Archangel Michael: We understand that in many ways you feel at times that you are stewards in training but that is incorrect. I do not say this in a way that is intended to intimidate you but you have not been in training for some time.

What you are doing is anchoring Light upon the Planet, upon Gaia in various undertakings, each specific to a little area, a piece of the puzzle but collectively you are responsible for a very large piece of that puzzle.

So when I suggest to you that how you do this, yes, of course there is the individual work, there is the anchoring of Love. There is the anchoring of your Divine Creative Creator Self and the Knowing of that spark within, the acknowledgement and the activation, that is the individual work.

But then when you are also coming together as stewards. You are acting as activators, catalysts for the activation of that Divine Spark within others.

Well, how do you do this? You do this by the adherence to heart consciousness, to Love, to the Divine Qualities, by not reverting back to drama, to chaos, to old patterns or behaviors. I need to emphasize to you that I am not saying this in a critical way.

The drama, the chaos, the old Third Dimension can be exceptionally seductive. It is not only familiar; it is tried and true. That is why it has endured so long and why so many fully embraced it with both arms, legs, bodies, minds.

So will there be situations where you catch yourself flirting with the old Third. Yes, my friends, there will be and what do I ask you to do? I ask you to take out your sword and shield, to deflect it, to cut it away and then with me and with each other to laugh, not in a cynical, sarcastic way and not in a way that is dismissive because this is not about being dismissive and saying, “Oh don’t worry, that’s all right” but it is also not critical.

It is observing, standing, saying “Whoa, that was a close call. Look what we were doing?” And then individually and collectively going forward, adhering not to what I lay out to you, not to what the Mother or the Universe or the Universal Law lays out to you but to what you know is the Truth of conscious loving behavior.

It is what your hearts, your minds and your bodies yearn for. This is the most significant shift of all. It is the ability of you who have chosen to be stewards, leaders, to show the way. And that is how you do it.

So it is not training. It is not giving each other permission to slip up now and then. It is very consciously, not in a restricted way but in a full-hearted embracing way, going forward together. Is that helpful?

When Have We Ever Done This Before?

“When Have We Ever Done This Before?” March 10, 2017, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/03/10/when-have-we-ever-done-this-before/>

What a crazy affair! When has a company been in business to disburse money before? To give it away.

When has a company's success been judged on how well they do the job of irrigating their intended recipients? And serving their employees?

And yet that's what you and I'll be doing.

What happened to jobless recoveries, mergers and acquisitions, dotcom bubbles, downsizing, relocating factories overseas, union busting, and replacing workers with robots? What happened to a buyer's market for labor?

The job market, full-time employment, and the vertical organization were shredded in the years since the recession of the early Eighties. People now are on contract, with no prospect of a pension or benefits plan, and no possibility of advancement. All is uncertainty. But that wasn't the case before 1982.

We lightworkers are reversing that trend. We're providing harmonious, meaningful work for real people. We're doing as much to take care of them as we can without assuming functions proper to the state (universal medicare and education, for example).

We don't have to talk any more about sharks eating our lunch. We're not out to trash Japan or trap the Russian bear. We don't compete with anyone; we cooperate.

Everything about the social-Darwinist and illuminati agenda of the Twentieth Century, we've left behind us.

We have a chance to do what we only dreamed of doing decades ago. Who would have guessed, when you were a kid dreaming about changing the world, that you'd get a chance?

This challenge calls for new thinking, new paradigms, and new modes of feeling and experiencing.

The reward is watching the world come alive again, watching starving babies survive, seeing women held in slavery released, seeing wars of greed and aggression stop.

The reward is witnessing the old world's dysfunctionality be jettisoned in a new world based on mutual respect and loving-kindness.

In past generations, one could question whether one's life makes a difference. Not in this life.

Working for the Divine Mother

Do We All Work for the Mother?

August 1, 2018

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2018/08/01/do-we-all-work-for-the-mother/>

I was talking to a lightworker the other day and said that we all worked for the Divine Mother.

Is that so? my friend asked. Do we all work for her?

Can I answer this question without having to dig up the quotes please? Time is so precious these days. Many thanks.

If you want to read on the nature of the Divine Mother, go to the Library, and under "Spiritual Essays," you'll see many articles on that subject.

You'll find the quotes I rely on in this file: "The Nature of Life 1" at https://goldengaiadb.com/index.php?title=The_Nature_of_Life_1.

There are many levels to a discussion of this subject. The layer I want to talk about here is to say that the One became Two (1) : the Transcendent One became the Heavenly Father (2) and the Divine Mother (3).

The Heavenly Father is the Transcendent, the Void. Nothing material moves in him though everything transcendental does, like love, bliss, and joy.

The Father is still and silent as far as the material realm goes. He does not speak. We cannot see him, hear him, feel him, know him or sense him in any other way.

The Mother is the Father's voice in the Wilderness, the voice in the Silence, the universal creative vibration known as AUM.

Why is the Father a "wilderness"? Because the universal law applies only to the Mother's domain. No law applies to the Father. Hence he is often symbolized as lawless, a wilderness, unconditioned and untameable.

She is all matter, mater, Mother. He is still but she is the creator, preserver, and transformer of everything physical.

We can only speak directly to the Mother.

And of course you heard her on An Hour with an Angel and Heavenly Blessings. What an unsurpassed privilege that was. I'm still dazzled.

We receive God's wishes and his blessings through the Divine Mother. Hence I say, we all work for her.

You say, well, no, I work for Jesus.

Jesus works for her. His own mother was an incarnation of the Divine Mother, as she's acknowledged to us.

She's Mary, Maré, she says. Mary is the Mother of Jesus. Maré is Latin for Ocean. The Ocean she's referring to is the Ocean of Love.

Oh, well, I work for Sanat Kumara. Nope, sorry. Raj works for the Mother too.

I work for an archangel. All angels, archangels, seraphim, elohim, fairies, elementals, whatever you can name work for the Divine Mother.

Directly or indirectly, we all do.

From the varied experiences I've had and from talking to the Mother on the radio shows, I conclude that we're never out of divine partnership with her. Such a thing seems never likely to happen.

We are light of the Father's Light and love of the Mother's Love. If we were to turn ourselves absolutely inside out, at essence we'd find that we are Mother/Father One, just wearing a mask.

So, when we work for the Mother, we work for ourselves. We can no more not work for her as not work for ourselves.

Thank you for allowing me to just state that without having to spend hours finding the quotes.

Sacred Money

July 2, 2015

<http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/02/sacred-money/>

As I continue to plan for the post-Reval period, I go over each of my plan's features, expanding this part and reflecting on that one.

Having lain down one afternoon and drifting off in thought, I imagined myself addressing my new colleagues, whose function it will be to disburse funds to women's groups. And I was trying to explain what they needed to know about disbursing these particular funds.

The words that came to my mind immediately were: "You're working with sacred money."

Yes, this is sacred money. Archangel Michael has given several illustrations of its sacredness.

On Sept. 13, 2011, he said to me that I didn't have to worry about the Hope Chest (one outlet for sacred money) being scammed because this money was infused with light and love and would transform the scammers. He said:

"If there is someone who is in such a dark place that they feel the need to use deception to gain entry to the Hope Chest, they will receive far more than financial support.

"They will receive all the light and love, so it is one of those systems that is failsafe. The love and light is attached to the money. They will receive it and be transformed, and they will pay it back in other ways, so it is impossible to be snookered." (1)

I'm certain that the same applies to Reval funds used to assist other lightworkers and the general public.

He told me that all lightworkers who do this work will be scrutinized and those who handle money well will receive more to disburse, evidence of celestial oversight of this project. On one occasion, he said:

AAM: Simply know that there is a place and a plan and everything is in order and will fall into place. (2)

We are very aware of human history and how people have a tendency, even with the purest of hearts, to shift and perhaps even go a little crazy. So do not think that everything needs to be in place. There will be what you think of as little gaps and holes.

Simply know that where there are gaps and holes we are waiting to see how the shift is affecting the collective of humanity and the collective of the foundations and the various groups. (3)

When asked about security, he told me that no more than normal precautions would be necessary.

S: What security precautions should I put in place?

AAM: You do not need to do this. You will put the normal security precautions in place that any institution will provide. But, dear heart, I would suggest that you are mightily protected. (4)

Again I'd imagine that the same protection extends to other financial wayshowers.

This financial project, he added, had been planned eons ago and the celestials will not allow anything to go wrong with it from this point on:

AAM: Not that we will allow you to go wrong – let us be very clear. This plan has been an unfoldment for far too long for money to simply be washed down the drain by decisions that are not beneficial either for yourself or for others and for those who will benefit from the abundance programs, plural. (5)

He's shown me that he'll remove someone who seriously threatens the integrity of a financial project. I've seen him do it twice but I don't report on it to protect those people's privacy.

He's counseled us to give the money with love, exactly because it is sacred money.

I could go on and on with one indication after another that this is sacred money and a joint partnership with the celestials.

And so, I was saying to my colleagues in my imaginary chat, if you want to know the one thing you should do here, it's to treat the money in your trust as sacred money.

That alone. I think, will lead to all the rest.

Stewards of the Mother's Wealth

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/06/27/stewards-of-the-mothers-wealth/>

Credit: rupertslandnews.ca

I'm amazed at the number of people who will be opening foundations after the Reval. (1)

People in Ojai will, Montreal, Calgary, Seattle, Bellingham, San Pedro, Tennessee, Wisconsin, on and on the list goes.

I'd like to contribute to building the context for these funding efforts by discussing stewardship, if you'd permit me.

Stewardship is contrasted with ownership. Ownership is my possession, management and disbursement of wealth for the purposes I have in mind.

Stewardship is the wise and equitable management of another's wealth for the purposes that the real and legitimate owner has in mind.

The feeling of ownership - of me and mine - has deep roots. While we may pay lip service to doing service, at some deeper level we may still regard the funds we generate through currency exchanges as our own.

The Divine Mother is the owner of all money - and absolutely everything else that exists or doesn't appear to exist. The Divine Mother created everything that is. Without her maintaining the primal energy that upholds creation, everything would disintegrate beyond dust.

We are stewards of the Mother's money, not its owners. We're to use that wealth to further the Mother's plan.

The Mother has a plan for this age and this planet.

Her plan for this age is that all civilizations ready for it will ascend. Not all at once. The Third Dimension is beginning its round of Ascensions first, starting with Earth and extending out from there. We're the experimental subjects in two new departures from previous Ascensions.

Our Ascension will be a mass event, rather than an individual one, as in the past. And our Ascension will see us keep the physical body, which will transform from carbon base to crystalline base, allowing us to accept the higher vibrations. Previously a person ascending discarded the physical body.

So everything the Company of Heaven is doing is being done for the first time, which accounts for some of the delays. (2)

In our case, those higher vibrations are mostly the Fifth Dimension. But 200 years from now, Ascensions will be happening from the Seventh Dimension upward. I know I'll be there but guess what? I'm pretty sure that the same gang that's throwing this party here on Earth (that is: you) will be throwing that party as well.

All of this is the Mother's plan. The flow of abundance relieves the tremendous stresses and strains that all of us - and especially lightworkers - have been laboring under. Depending on what stage of abundance we're talking about, life will improve dramatically.

If we're talking simply about the Reval, then all will depend on how well the financial wayshowers (stewards) disburse the monies they receive. But not much later the general abundance program, called G/NESARA (Global/National Economic Security and Reformation Act), (3) will relieve the distress of everyone.

Just as the first groups of private-placement people will probably be used to test the system before the Reval, so the Reval itself will probably be used to test many elements that will later be incorporated in NESARA.

As stewards, it falls to us to predict, through discussions among ourselves and reading the channeled advice from the Company of Heaven, how we should be tackling the situation of relieving the poverty in our society caused by the cabal's attempts to corral all wealth. How do we go about it?

One of the projects that I'll be setting up will be called the Vancouver Project and its aim is to lift single mothers, the sick, disabled, elderly and dying from poverty in the city of Vancouver. It's designed to be a demonstration project. What we've chosen to do is take a manageable portion of the world's unworkability (that of the city of Vancouver) and run a model project which others can discuss and improve on. I invite others to run similar model programs and test out new directions in gifting and ways to address ever-larger spheres of global unworkability.

A secondary aim of the Vancouver Project is to see if we can re-establish the social safety net that used to exist in the 1950's, 60's, and 70's.

The social safety net was shredded when tax bases fell because the computer and robotization eliminated so many jobs. The strategy of so-called austerity was the second of the cabal's one-two punches. They stripped away employment, leaving the economy a labor buyer's market, and then pointed to the shrinking tax base as a reason for cutting all programs that benefited people at large.

So it now falls to us to find a way back to the days when no one fell between the cracks, when there was a service to help everyone. We're re-creating the social safety net in what we do.

If cabalists call us "socialists" to try to spook people away from taking responsibility for the shape of their society, hopefully this time we'll be able to see through that fear porn and manipulative ploy. The cabal does not want money to go into social-welfare programs but we do and their day is over.

Yes, we're the managers of the Mother's wealth, but, no, we're not its owners. And, yes, we're responsible for coming up with a wise and equitable program for disbursing it to the right people for the right purposes. That responsibility falls on the shoulders of the stewards of the Mother's wealth.

Footnotes

(1) I personally will not be opening a foundation, but a fund; that is, a limited liability company. I want more flexibility of decision-making than a foundation allows.

(2) The other variable is the fact that the cabal, whose contracts were to cede power at the appropriate moment, have not ceded it but continue to obstruct the divine plan at every step. That won't keep up a great deal longer but is being used to clear final karmic entanglements.

To Serve the Light

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2012/07/18/to-serve-the-light/>

To say that we're lightworkers is to say that we serve the Light. And to say that we serve the Light is to say that we serve the Father/Mother God, which is the Light.

And to say we serve the Father/Mother God is to say that we emulate the divine qualities. Mother/Father God and their qualities are not different. God and love are not different; God and peace; God and integrity.

In fact it may even be true that the only way we know God is through His/Her divine qualities. I don't know.

Sometimes to serve the Father/Mother God, we must suffer. We must put our duty as lightworkers before pride, before comfort, before gain.

Sometimes we must put everything at risk or we're not serving. I talked a few days ago about emergence. Sometimes emergence is forced upon us by needing to put everything at risk or knowing that we're not serving.

It's OK that we not serve. It's just not OK to misrepresent ourselves as serving when we're not.

Sometimes we're called upon to forfeit career; sometimes inheritances; sometimes health. In facing each circumstance, what enables us to maintain our sanity when our egos cry out for survival is remembering that we're eternal souls and that our actions in life have meaning far beyond this day.

What we do matters. What we say matters. Evidently even what we think and feel matters. If our choices don't go beyond mere survival, simple comfort, or simple ease, we're allowed to do so. But we do not serve. To serve is to choose what the divine qualities demand rather than what our egos want, or even in some cases what our bodies want.

Those who walk in the valley of the shadow of death and are unafraid are so because they feel their connection to the Divinity they serve. They're ready to make the hard choices. And they're ready to restrain themselves when they must and place themselves in jeopardy when they must. They're ready to put all at risk when they must. And they're ready to remain consistent with the divine qualities, no matter how much they lose.

To call oneself a lightworker, one must be willing to put behind oneself so much that the common person values and make one's will, body and being an instrument in the hands of the Divine. One does not do so for gain. One does so for love of the Divine.

Practicing Selfless Service

<http://goldenageofgaia.com/2013/10/02/practising-selfless-service/>

Many have bought Vietnamese Dong or Zimbabwean Dollars and some among them have already begun the process of gifting others while others are planning projects that will benefit the world.

Therefore it may be a good time to begin discussing the spiritual path that the masters of enlightenment have over the ages talked about that's appropriate to those who serve through works of charity and empowerment of others.

Hindus call it karma yoga or the yoga of action. They also call it seva or selfless service.

I'd like to consult the wisdom of Earth and extraterrestrial sages on the attitude and actions consistent with the divine qualities when one approaches subjects like money, charity, and selfless service.

Karma yoga, as I understand it, results in a taming of the ego because what one exercises and causes to expand, rather than the ego and its desires (summarized in the phrase "I want"), is the compassionate heart.

The galactics often speak of two kinds of society: service-to-self and service-to-others. Karma yogis dedicate themselves to the service of others.

Sri Krishna in the Bhagavad Gita or Song of God is often pointed to as the foremost expositor of all the yogas. Here he is on karma yoga.

He tells us that main contribution of karma yoga to enlightenment (which is the purpose of life) is that “if you can understand and follow [the method of the karma yoga], you will be able to break the chains of desire which bind you to your actions.” (1)

So we’ll stop hankering after worldly possessions and pleasures, which binds us to this world and to the wheel of birth and death.

He adds:

“In this yoga, even the abortive attempt is not wasted. Nor can it produce a contrary result. Even a little practice of this yoga will save you from the terrible wheel of rebirth and death.” (2)

In karma yoga, “the will is directed singly toward one ideal.” (3) Always we see ourselves serving God and see the person we’re serving as God. How better to release unitive consciousness than to see and serve everyone as God?

And Krishna adds that “when a man lacks this discrimination, his will wanders in all directions, after innumerable aims.” (4) When we don’t see others as God and serve them, then our mind wanders after trips to Disneyland, a sports car, a love affair – all the desires that spring up in the desiring mind.

In the Bhagavad Gita, Arjuna practices karma yoga by selflessly serving Krishna, who, like Jesus, was an incarnation of God.

Krishna tells us that “work is holy when the heart of the worker is fixed on the Highest.” (5) When we can work with our mind on God, or the Divine Mother, or the master we serve, then work of whatever kind we do – leading a nation, sweeping the streets – is sanctified.

Therefore, “whatever your action, food or worship, whatever the gift that you give to another; whatever your vow to the work of the spirit: ... lay these also as offerings before me” and we’ll have sanctified our work. (6)

In fact, Sri Krishna says, it’s hard to lay action aside and renounce the fruits of action without following the disciplined path of karma yoga that he lays out.

Many people push aside the yoga of action in favor of the yoga of meditation. But Sri Krishna advises:

“Let him who would climb In meditation to heights of the highest Union with Brahman [God] take for his path the yoga of action [karma yoga]: Then when he nears that height of oneness His acts will fall from him, his path will be tranquil. “(7)

“It is hard to renounce action without following the yoga of action. This yoga purifies the man of meditation, hringing him soon to Brahman. (8)

The yoga of knowledge is called in Hinduism jnana yoga. Sri Krishna tells us that those who follow the yoga of knowledge and those who follow the yoga of action both reach God.

“The wise see knowledge and action as one: They see truly. Take either path and tread it to the end: The end is the same. There the followers of action meet the seekers after knowledge In equal freedom.” (9)

The secret of karma yoga rightly performed is that the action carried out is done without thought of reward, without thought for the fruits of the action. It's done in service to God.

What typifies the action of the individual who performs karma yoga fruitfully is that he or she has given up attachment to sensory pleasures and material possessions. Synonyms for this attitude are “detachment” and “renunciation.” Paramahansa Ramakrishna says that “renunciation means to have dispassion for the things of the world.” (10)

And Sr Shankara tells us that:

“Renunciation is the giving-up of all the pleasures of the eyes, the ears, and the other senses, the giving-up of all objects of transitory enjoyment, the giving-up of the desire for a physical body as well as for the highest kind of spirit-body of a god.” (11)

We're aware that Archangel Michael, for instance, wants us to enjoy ourselves in this lifetime, in part I think because we're Starseeds who've already ascended probably more than once already and he wishes us to anchor ourselves in Gaia and not to wish to leave prematurely. But if we lived many centuries ago, the road to Ascension would have been hard and our progress would have been aided by renouncing worldly possessions and pleasure.

Turning from the world to God would, in those days, have been the basic spiritual movement.

One way of talking about the primary obstacle to enlightenment is to talk about ego and desire, a short form for which is the phrase “I want.” Sri Krishna says: “Those who have renounced ego and desire will reap no fruit at all, either in this world or in the next.” (12)

Reaping no fruit means incurring no karmic debt, which eventually leads to freedom from the wheel of birth and death. In our terms, liberation comes with being firmly anchored in the Fifth Dimension, which follows Ascension.

We know of course that whatever karma we don't clear before Ascension will be forgiven us, as SaLuSa of Sirius tells us here: "When you ascend, karma will have been cleared by you or 'written off' through the Law of Grace."

Thus Ascension is moksha or liberation. The one who ascends need no longer be born into the physical world of the Third Dimension. And we know from our own sources among the Company of Heaven, after Ascension, we need no longer die to change our form. We can simply choose a different bodily form for ourselves if and when we desire to.

As SaLuSa explains:

"Of course when you rise up into the higher levels, you have a simple transition from one life to another without going through death. You do it through your own choosing, as you decide when it is your time to move on. You can literally step out of your old body into a new one as you desire." (14)

This is moksha or liberation from death and rebirth. Engaging in karma yoga or the yoga of action is one way of preparing ourselves for Ascension or liberation.

The Constant and Universal Theme of Service

Part of our role in this Ascension is, not only to ascend ourselves, but also to serve as incarnated, already-ascended lightworkers helping others to ascend or helping to prepare the ecological, social, medical, and legal structure of the New World they'll ascend to.

From start to finish, the role of incarnated starseeds, celestials, and other lightworkers in this planetary Ascension, unique as this Ascension is in the universe, has been to serve.

Others, who are approaching Ascension for the first time, are devoting their attention - perhaps at higher levels of themselves - to their personal preparations for Ascension.

Archangel Michael said there was not one "Event" but instead a series of events. One is the Reval. The other is Ascension. And both have stages and processes.

I'm preparing to start my own financial service to the Mother and found myself reflecting on how I'd do it.

I came upon a part of myself I had not really given much thought to yet. I call it "the dominant cast of my mind."

The dominant cast of my mind is that of a monk. I've either been a monk or a philosopher several times, apparently. I realize that this lifetime I need to serve as a financial wayshower and a man in relationship - neither of which come naturally to the kind of monk I think of myself as being.

But this was a much-neglected side of me that now was asserting itself as I got closer to dealing with funds.

Werner Erhard would have called the dominant cast of mind our "always-already listening." It's the predetermined cast of character we bring to the situation, that which precedes the situation and frames our response to it. We come to any situation with our mind already partially made up.

So here I am, having tossed my hat in the ring to serve as a financial wayshower, and I am by inclination a monk. How might it work with financial wayshowing? I asked myself.

Well, I have very little attraction to money, except for its usefulness in conveying love and support in tangible form. Above and beyond my daily needs, I have very little use for money except to assist others. That seems to me to promise some relief from actually dealing with funds: I won't be attached to them (I hope).

Moreover, as a monk by leaning, I can draw on spiritual knowledge that may not be available to some others. For example, I'm aware that the treasure of life (love) is to be sought and found in the heart, not in material wealth or what it can buy. I'll skip buying the yacht and the chateau in the South of France.

Viewing life from a monk's viewpoint, I'm aware that remaining centered and balanced in all things is imperative when acting as a financial wayshower. Many more things can be handled by remaining in the center than from the extremes of passion and emotion.

As you know, spiritual knowledge was more or less elbowed out of the marketplace from the 1980s on. Instead business was cast as an exercise in preventing other sharks from stealing our lunch.

How fortunate to have interviewed Serapis Bey last week because he re-kindled my interest in the divine masculine, which is exactly the part of me that I'm going to have to draw on after the Reval.

I think of the divine masculine as being "will." I think of the divine feminine as being "love." That does remind me of the Heavenly Father and Divine Mother.

Everything in life will change with the snap of a finger. And how will I remain a monk amid the various perks and tantalizing offers being offered me? It will be very, very challenging. We'll all need to help each other with the adjustments that will come.

There's something else that's happening.

Everything Archangel Michael has told me lately, via my personal readings through Linda, has ignited in me a much greater seriousness about my work. There are some aspects of the last reading that I don't feel comfortable talking about but the effect on me was to have me get very much more serious.

To get serious about my work, to claim my dominant cast of mind and make it work, to prepare for the tsunami that the Reval will be, etc. - these all surface in me like strong urges or impulses.

Another interesting occurrence. Recently, in a discussion with a friend about the importance of remaining centered I saw, in a flash, several visions in my mind's eye. One was of a man hammering an iron rod into stone, planting a flag in the rod, and standing firm. Another was Excalibur being inserted into stone. And a third was Ulysses lashed to the mast.

That's the first time I've been aware of being fed impressions or images. All three seemed to communicate the message that strong determination will be needed to get through this next chapter - the events of the Reval - and carve out a life that's do-able, helpful, and successful.

In regard to the need to have will after the Reval, I think again of Serapis Bey as Leonidas holding off the Persian army with his force of three hundred. Except that now all the battles are internal.

It's the army of desires, issues, resentments, fantasies, taboos, etc., inside of me that I now will need to handle.

Having escaped illusion once, we agreed to return to it again, on a mission of mercy from the Mother, done out of love for Her and her creation. Is that not the constant and universal theme of service?

On Karma Yoga – Part 1/2

June 2, 2011

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2011/06/02/in-defense-of-karma-yoga-part-12/>

Sri Ramakrishna

I've just had a comradely disagreement with a lightworker who has devoted a chapter in his recently-completed book to examining the view that people who “do” have missed the boat, that enlightenment calls upon us to “be.” He says that he has used me as an example of a person who is pre-occupied with “doing” and with doing trivialities at that (I'm paraphrasing). I am neglecting the deeper spiritual aspects of human existence, etc.

This particular criticism is one J.G. Bennett made of Aldous Huxley in Bennett's book, Spiritual Psychology, if I remember correctly. (I no longer have the book handy.) The criticism was that Huxley could have been enlightened had he applied himself to meditation instead of writing books. Because he chose to write books instead, he failed to become enlightened before he died.

It's not my intention to defend myself. Any defense would be, and would be seen to be, self-serving. But I do intend to defend my spiritual discipline, karma yoga, from the charges against it and to reassure lightworkers that “doing,” or karma yoga, is every bit as efficacious in the pursuit of enlightenment as “being,” or meditation.

At the same time, I don't want to be backed into a corner by accepting my colleague's split between “doing” and “being.” The karma yogin aims to “be while doing” so it isn't wise to place the two in separate, airtight compartments.

There is no escaping readers knowing that I have chosen to be a waiter at the banquet of Ascension. For myself, I've put aside estimations around personal enlightenment to serve the wider community and the Divine Plan for this age. That doesn't mean that I somehow disown that enlightenment is the purpose of life. But the entire galactic fleet are serving the Earth and don't face a need to defend their choice. And neither do I.

There are other terrestrials who also make this choice as well. In Buddhism, a bodhisattva chooses not to enter Nirvana, though entry is merited, to serve the wider community. His decision is not held to be unwise.

Jesus did not tell his disciples to meditate but to take no thought for themselves and to go out as a shepherd among wolves and serve the people. So a choice to serve instead of meditate (though the two are not mutually exclusive) is acknowledged in scripture.

But I'd like you to know that even addressing the allegation leaves me in a difficult position. To do so means to appear as if I'm acting as a spiritual teacher and in my view spiritual teachers properly should have attained at least sahaja nirvikalpa samadhi and I have not. It's not my ambition to be a spiritual teacher but to be a waiter at the banquet of Ascension – in my case, a communicator. That was the assignment I accepted and that is my dharma, my assigned role.

Now let's look at karma yoga as a spiritual path.

All Paths Lead to God

One of Sri Ramakrishna's purposes in coming as an avatar was to validate that all religions are paths to God. He would repeat to his circle of devotees:

“As many faiths, so many paths.” (1)

“All religions and all paths call upon their followers to pray to one and the same God. Therefore one should not show disrespect to any religion or religious opinion.” (2)

“One may have ... single-minded devotion to one’s own religion; but one should not on that account hate other faiths. On the contrary, one should have a friendly attitude toward them.” (3)

That did not mean that some religions saw things mistakenly. That too is true. But God knows the intention of the heart, whether mistakes are made or not.

“Every religion has errors. Everyone thinks that his watch alone gives the correct time. It is enough to have yearning for God. It is enough to love Him and feel attracted to Him. Don’t you know that God is the Inner Guide. He sees the longing of our heart and the yearning of our soul. Suppose a man has several sons. The older boys address him distinctly as 'Baba' or 'Papa,' but the babies can at best call him 'Ba' or 'Pa.'

“Now will the father be angry with those who address him in this indistinct way? The father knows that they too are calling him, only they cannot pronounce his name well. All children are the same to the father. Likewise, the devotees call on God alone, though by different names. They call on one Person only. God is one, but His names are many.” (4)

Sri Ramakrishna himself reached God by following a number of religions.

“I had to practise each religion for a time -- Hinduism, Islam, Christianity. Furthermore, I followed the paths of the Saktas, Vaishnavas, and Vedantists. I realized that there is only one God toward whom all are travelling; but the paths are different.” (5)

The same acceptance was extended to the various paths within any one religion, such as the paths of bhakti, karma, jnana, and raja yoga.

“If people feel sincere longing, they will find that all paths lead to God.” (6)

“If a man prays to Thee with a yearning heart, he can reach Thee, through Thy grace, by any path.” (7)

Different Paths Have Been Designed to Suit Different Temperaments

Sri Ramakrishna held that the Divine Mother (or Holy Spirit) designed the different paths to suit the different tastes and fitnesses of the devotee.

“God Himself has provided different forms of worship. He who is the Lord of the Universe has arranged all these forms to suit different men in different stages of knowledge. The mother cooks different dishes to suit the stomachs of her different children. Suppose she has five children. If there is a fish to cook, she prepares different dishes from it -- pilau, pickled fish, fried fish, and so on -- to suit their different tastes and powers of digestion.” (8)

“Don’t you know what difference in taste is? Some enjoy fish curry; some, fried fish; some, pickled fish; and again, some, the rich dish of fish pilau. Then too, there is difference in fitness. I ask people to learn to shoot at a banana tree first, then at the wick of a lamp, and then at a flying bird.” (9)

In the case of my colleague, who criticizes “doing” as opposed to “being,” he appears to overlook the fact that all paths eventually lead to God and that reaching God is the only important thing.

“It is like your coming to Dakshineswar by carriage, by boat, by steamer, or on foot. You have chosen the way according to your convenience and taste; but the destination is the same. Some of you have arrived earlier than others; but all have arrived.” (10)

“The important thing is to reach the roof. You can reach it by stone stairs or by wooden stairs or by bamboo steps or by a rope. You can also climb up by a bamboo pole.” (11)

Karma Yoga is a path to God

Karma Yoga is a Path to God, Providing it is Followed without Ego or Desire

In the Bhagavad-Gita, Krishna says that one wanting to climb to the heights of union with God (Brahman) is encouraged to follow the yoga of action. In the first place karma yoga or selfless service purifies.

“It is hard to renounce action
Without following the yoga of action.
This yoga purifies
The man of meditation,
Bringing him soon to Brahman.” (12)

Pursuing karma yoga prior to entering into meditation at a later period in life leaves one tranquil. It's a path urged by Krishna.

“Let him who would climb
In meditation

To heights of the highest Union with Brahman
Take for his path
The yoga of action:
Then when he nears
That height of oneness
His acts will fall from him,
His path will be tranquil.” (13)

To serve others selflessly, without ego, breaks the bonds of desire.

“If you can understand and follow [the method of karma yoga], you will be able to break the chains of desire which bind you to your actions.” (14)

Karma yoga must be done not to promote one's reputation or gain wealth, but to serve God and others.

“The ignorant work
For the fruit of their action:
The wise work ...
Without desire
Pointing man's feet
To the path of his duty.” (15)

“Work is holy
When the heart of the worker
Is fixed on the Highest.” (16)

The karma yogin yearns only to serve. He knows himself as the Self and not the body that serves.

“To the follower of the yoga of action,
The body and the mind,
The sense-organs and the intellect
Are instruments only:
He knows himself other than the instrument
And thus his heart grows pure.” (17)

Every action is dedicated to God. To act otherwise is to condemn the mind to be restless.

“In this yoga, the will is directed singly toward one ideal. When a man lacks this discrimination, his will wanders in all directions, after innumerable aims.” (18)

Any action which serves only ego and desire (“I want”) imprisons. Only selfless action frees.

“The world is imprisoned in its own activity, except when actions are performed as worship of God. Therefore you must perform every action sacramentally, and be free from all attachment to results.” (19)

“[The karma yogin] puts aside desire,
Offering the act to Brahman.
The lotus leaf rests unwetted on water:
He rests on action, untouched by action.” (20)

Arriving at the point of resting on action, untouched by it, is equivalent to what I mean by "being while doing."

The karma yogin has the right to work, but not the right to the fruits of his or her work.

“You have the right to work but for the works' sake only. You have no right to the fruits of work. Desire for the fruits of work must never be your motive in working. ...

“Perform every action with your heart fixed on the Supreme Lord.
Renounce attachment to the fruits.” (21)

Even work done with the intention of becoming enlightened is work done with attention to the fruits of the work. Work so done is inferior work.

“Work done with anxiety about results is far inferior to work done without such anxiety, in the calm of self-surrender. Seek refuge in the knowledge of Brahman. They who work selfishly for results are miserable.” (22)

Sri Krishna urges us to “shake off this fever of ignorance.”

“Stop hoping for worldly rewards. Fix your mind on the Atman. Be free from the sense of ego. Dedicate all your actions to me. (23)

“Those who have renounced ego and desire will reap no fruit at all, either in this world or in the next.” (24)

Besides following the teachings of scripture, we are also enjoined to imitate the actions of the guru or teacher and follow their instructions. My guru, Mata Amritanandamayi, serves selflessly and endlessly. Her charities in India and elsewhere are legendary. She is an industrious and compassionate servant and I can do no less than follow her example.

As for her instructions to me, I once asked her if by writing I incurred any karma and she replied that I did not so long as I don't charge for my writings. I have never charged for any of my writings. Of course that does not apply to writing done in the course of earning my livelihood, such as decisions written for the Immigration and Refugee Board in the course of my job there. But it does apply to all my spiritual writings on the Internet.

I never asked her whether it was her will that I write. But I have asked the Boss and he's told me that I came here to serve as a communicator. So I don't feel any disconnect between my spirituality and my service.

Finally, those who seek to know the Self through meditation on it and those who seek to know it by serving It, according to Krishna, reach the same goal:

“The wise see knowledge and action as one:
They see truly.
Take either path
And tread it to the end:
The end is the same.
There the followers of action
Meet the seekers after knowledge
In equal freedom.” (25)

So I feel no lack of wisdom in encouraging you to serve the Divine Plan by following the path of karma yoga and acting on behalf of others and God in supporting Ascension 2012. My assertion is that work done without serving self or desire, without hankering for the fruits of action, and in service of the Divine is no less efficacious a sadhana or spiritual path than any other.

I also think that criticizing the path chosen by another is a slippery slope. Criticizing another at all is as well. I realize that we need to draw attention to disinformation and to oppose the advice of those whose counsel would cause us or others harm. But arguing that our choices are right and those of others are wrong, in my view, is not part of the new round of life that we aspire to.

Everyone has the sovereign right to choose their own path to God without inviting harm. Flame wars among lightworkers only serve to weaken our service of the Divine Plan. I personally seek to avoid them whenever I can.

A Right to the Work

June 23, 2017

<http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/06/23/a-right-to-the-work/>

Sri Krishna makes a fine point, which may assume much greater importance and relevance after the Reval than it does now.

He explains that we have a right to the work, but not to the fruits of the work. His saying is a puzzle that one has to be with for a time until it makes itself plain. We have the right to ask to serve and to serve. We have a right to the work.

But we don't have a right to expect one thing over another as the fruits of our service. Or anything at all. We don't have a right to the fruits of the work.

The fruits of our work will be determined by the workings of the law of karma and will reflect events in other lifetimes. We have no idea how any return may be calculated.

If we were merely for hire, of course, we'd have a right to expect the fruits of our work - good pay for good work, paid by results, etc. But there would be no real opportunity for growth. These are people of whom it could be said that they have their reward already.

But we're spiritual aspirants. As far as I'm aware, we want growth, evolution, and won't settle for being mere hired laborers.

For us there's a different set of rules that hinges on seeing how the universe works.

The first thing we notice about the way it works is that what goes around comes around. When we notice that, we seem to want to pay more attention to the way we behave with others. And make changes in our behavior. We also may feel curious about whether there are other laws.

There gradually arises in our view a universe that works by growth, by improvement. We now can construct a game to play where before all was the drudgery of hired labor. We delve deeper.

As I saw in my vision, (1) and we know from the Company of Heaven's teachings, life is designed to draw us forward in the practice of the divine qualities, ultimately aimed at bringing us to the throne of the One, at last to merge again.

This ends our journey from God to God. This ultimate merge is the aim of all life; our getting there is the work of all our individual lives.

If we get attached to the fruits of our labor - money, possessions, experiences, OK, sex - then we give no attention to the purpose of life. We dally in the pleasures of life. We become like the god who incarnated as a swine and really liked it. We dawdle and have to be coerced back to Heaven.

So I personally welcome the waning of the desire for earthly pleasures, as is happening at the present time in me. It makes my desire to be One with the Ultimate much more powerful.

Why will the matter of the fruits of our work assume greater importance after the Reval? Because our sense of entitlement could soar as our abundance grows.

And if we don't keep our spiritual priorities straight, we could get swept away in a tide of self-indulgence. It isn't a "scenic detour" to get stuck in six inches of thick mud.

This is one attempt to keep my (possibly our) spiritual priorities straight in the area of working for the Divine.

We have so many homilies in this area. Man proposes, God disposes. The final decision rests with God.

Hindu proverb: God smiles at two men - the landowner who says "this land is mine" and the doctor who says "I will save your baby." Neither matter is ours to decide.

We're to become financial stewards for abundance provided by the Divine Mother for the purpose of irrigating humanity and preparing the world for what comes after. All of this goes on in the context of building Nova Earth.

We have a right to the work of building Nova Earth, but we have no right to the fruits of our labor.

In my opinion, if we want a reward of evolutionary consequence, rather than simply temporal significance, we need to not settle for the fruits of our labor. We need to leave it up to the Divine to decide on all questions of reward. We need to concern ourselves only with the requirements of our service.

When Our Two Purposes Seem in Conflict....

August 9, 2018

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2018/08/09/when-our-two-purposes-seem-in-conflict/>

Our journey home to God is an arc, but it's also a spiral as we return lifetime after lifetime to the same karmic situations.

There are times when the purpose of life and our purpose in this lifetime don't seem to line up.

But with a little more digging they can be seen to.

I can give you an example from my own life.

Life has a purpose. My understanding of it is based on a vision I had in 1987, which long-time readers have heard me discuss on occasion.

For an account of it, see: "The Purpose of Life is Enlightenment – Ch. 13 – Epilogue," at <https://goldenageofgaia.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/07/Purpose-of-Life-is-Enlightenment-3.pdf>.

What it showed me was that enlightenment is the purpose of life. It's the one shared assignment that all of us have in life - to know ourselves as our true essence.

Every time one of us realizes our Self, God meets God. For God that's a moment of delight. For that moment, for that purpose was all of life - this divine play or leela - created.

So enlightenment is the purpose of life. Now let's look at where my purpose in this lifetime seems to depart from that.

A person in my position appears to need to turn away from enlightenment and not hanker after it or court it for several reasons.

(1) As a pillar, I've agreed to go last.

(2) As a servant of the Divine Mother generally and a waiter at the banquet of Ascension particularly, I've agreed to eat last.

(3) As a communicator, I have to remain in touch with my readers - both in willingness and ability. That means visiting, perhaps, but not staying in the higher states. It means toned-down or truncated experiences so I don't wander off.

(4) As a financial wayshower, I have to remain in touch with the reality that everyone else involved in finances works in. I need to keep my focus on matters that would ordinarily be thought of as spiritually distracting: money, for the most part. And I need to keep the discussions "practical."

In this case, I seem to be keeping my attention off spiritual things to place it on eminently-worldly things, like dealing with money.

All in all, my agreements and my situation seem to suggest that I must turn aside from enlightenment.

But, if we look closer, we see that that isn't the case.

It isn't even a case of merely postponing because service and detachment are of themselves spiritual paths.

When Bernadette Roberts was soaring through one lofty spiritual experience after another, she passed through a phase that had her keep herself away from society; then she passed through another in which it was vital for her to be socially engaged. (1) Both were part of her overall path back to God.

So it isn't that my purpose in life is absolutely in conflict with the purpose of life itself. Not any more than taking time out from meditating for lunch would be seen as being in conflict. Having lunch is part of the path; serving others is also part of the path.

(1) As a pillar, though last, I still go.

(2) As a waiter at the banquet of Ascension, though last, I still eat. (I suspect I won't be hungry.)

(3) As a communicator, I still get to go up with everyone else - at the group's speed.

(4) As a financial wayshower, I can still practice the spiritual path of detachment. So I'm not left out of spiritual sadhana even here.

It becomes a question not of utter denial, but simply one of postponement and reframing, really. For that I get to practice the spiritual path of patience and discernment.

The road to enlightenment requires me at this point in time to serve. At some points it requires us to retire from the world and at other points - like Ascension - it requires us to engage. This is my time to engage.

What is the Shared Purpose of the Reval?

What is the Shared Purpose of Lightworkers Here at this Time? - 1

July 13, 2020

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/07/13/what-is-the-shared-purpose-of-lightworkers-here-at-this-time/>

Question-and-answer format.

What are we lightworkers doing here? With a cast of millions in ships above us, of what need are lightworkers? The Company of Heaven answers.

What is the shared purpose of lightworkers here at this time?

Archangel Michael: The purpose of the lightworkers - the purpose, in many ways, if we were to make a blanket statement of every single person upon the planet at this time – is the fulfilment of the Mother’s Plan: The rebirth, the re-anchoring, the recommitment, the reactivation of love, of co-creation, of unity consciousness upon the planet. ...

The burden, the joy, the gift, the potential of the lightworkers, loveholders, lovebearers – however you think of this, saints and sinners – the opportunity for the shift, for Ascension, for the transition, for the formulation and anchoring, the building of Nova Earth is the purpose particularly at this juncture of the lightworker community. ...

Is this a time when lightworkers and loveholders will step forth and demonstrate not only their intention or their ability to hold the love, to be the love, but to demonstrate [love] in action, in form, in reconstitution of your society and all that that entails? This is the job right now of lightworkers. ...

And even as things shift, and shall we say, become more co-creative, the demonstration first and foremost, the building [of Nova Earth] is the mission and purpose of those who have chosen to incarnate at this time. (1)

But we're opposed by tyrannical regimes!

The God of this universe in Matthew's Messages: Tyrannical regimes must and shall change. Although plans are afoot for this peaceful revolution through a joint effort between your civilization and many of your space family, that does not absolve any of you who desire a finer, brighter world from the responsibility of helping to create it.

You all chose to be where you are at this time precisely so you could do exactly that! Actually, some of you embodied in other lifetimes as great leaders on Earth and well beyond, and you are back now to take on similar inspirational and constructive roles. (2)

Why do you need lightworkers in particular to step forward?

Archangel Michael: If no [lightworker] steps forward into [leadership] then there is a massive vacuum because many of the billions upon your planet have not yet learned, adapted and integrated the new tools – the fullness of this new energy.

So [when non-lightworkers] are assigned ... or try to step up ... to create and to take the leadership role, they do not have the training and insight to do it in a way that is achievable. ... So there is a lack, a vacuum of leadership.

Now, who, upon this wondrous planet, has been hiding in the shadows or edging out, or is in the limelight and is ready? ... Who has been diligent and practiced patience and fortitude and stamina, and anchored the divine qualities? Who is it that is prepared to do this? Well, it is the lightworkers. (3)

AAM: In order for the plan to be unfolding, in order for the practical building blocks (which is what you're asking for - money) to be in place, there has need to be a very strong re-assumption of leadership. (4)

But could not the galactics, for instance, do the job themselves?

AAM: They ... really ask for human leadership in order to be not be seen as trying in any way to assume control. (5)

What awaits those lightworkers who participate in stewardship?

AAM: Those who are in a position of stewardship, of beginning projects that lead the way to the building and the re-creation of what Nova Earth is truly about ... become the spokesbeings for many. (6)

AAM: If in your spiritual maturity, you go forth, and we believe you will (we strongly believe you will), [in the belief] that this unfoldment is underway and that you are demonstrating, not simply a primitive attitude or a tribal attitude but more of a global, universal attitude, then you are ready to not only meet with your star family but participate with them, their technology, their gifts, in community, to go forth in the next phase in the building of Nova Earth.

That is why we have also said (this is an aside), there will be several waves of abundance. (7)

What is the Shared Purpose of Lightworkers Here at this Time? - 2

(Archangel Michael on the Purpose of the Reval and Our Future – Part 1/5)

Oct. 22, 2016

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/10/22/archangel-michael-purpose-reval-future-part-15/>

In my reading with him on Oct. 11, 2016 through Linda Dillon, Archangel Michael discussed at length many subjects related to the Reval.

Some are confronting for me to post, but he did indicate that he wanted his comments circulated so I post them.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, Oct. 11, 2016.

Steve Beckow: Am I correct in thinking and saying that this time is the lightworkers' chance to show what we can do before NESARA or Disclosure really takes the agenda away from us?

Archangel Michael: That is correct. Now let us elaborate on that because I don't think in this instance you are looking for a one-word answer.

Steve: No. Thank you.

AAM: So you say that the agenda - and you are correct and incorrect by the way - can be taken away from you by financial re-gridding [NESARA], by institutional re-gridding, by the presence of your star family [Disclosure] or even the presence of the Masters, some of whom are popping in and out at great regularity.

The purpose of the lightworkers, the purpose in many ways - if we were to make a blanket statement [applicable to] every single person upon the planet at this time - is the fulfilment of the Mother's Plan: The rebirth, the re-anchoring, the recommitment, the reactivation of love, of co-creation, of unity consciousness upon the planet. [All italics are mine.]

That is the agenda. And the implementers, the implementation team, the ones who will bring forth and affect those changes, bring into form those changes are those upon the planet.

Now ... there are many upon the planet who are either stuck, disinterested still, sitting on the fence still, or entirely recalcitrant.

Some of those recalcitrants, as we have mentioned before, are playing magnificent roles in amplifying and exhibiting what needs to be eliminated upon this planet once and for all. So even they are playing their part, shall we say.

The agenda cannot and will not be stolen or overshadowed by these other, what you think of as, [chaotic] events.

The burden, the joy, the gift, the potential of the lightworkers, loveholders, lovebearers - however you think of this, saints and sinners - the opportunity for the shift, for Ascension, for the transition, for the formulation and anchoring, the building of Nova Earth is the purpose particularly at this juncture of the lightworker community. (1)

Now, have you been - many of you - working quietly, silently, behind the scenes, undercover for a long time? The answer is yes.

Is this a time when lightworkers and loveholders will step forth and demonstrate not only their intention or their ability to hold the love, to be the love, but to demonstrate [love] in action, in form, in reconstitution of your society and all that that entails? This is the job right now of lightworkers.

Footnotes

(1) "At this juncture" - At another, later juncture the purpose of the lightworker community may be to reassure fears around Disclosure or model Ascension. Or new relationships or Saedor (loving) communication. In my view, financial wayshowing is just our task now.

Archangel Michael on the Purpose of the Reval and Our Future – Part 2/5

October 23, 2016

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/10/23/archangel-michael-purpose-reval-future-part-25/>

In my reading with him on Oct. 11, 2016, Archangel Michael discussed at length many subjects related to the Reval.

In this second excerpt, he tells us that this is our time, as Gaians and as lightworkers, to take action to create and build Nova Earth, and to act bringing our totality of being to the action.

While waiting for the Reval, we could be planning. Planning is a necessary action.

Thanks to Linda for our reading and to Dana for our transcript. Any italics in the text are mine. Copyright Linda Dillon and the Council of Love, Inc., 2016.

Archangel Michael: When we have said - and many of us have said this - that this is a time of action, of implementation, of moving forward, we mean it literally. We don't simply mean it esoterically.

We don't simply mean now is the time to take action to clear your vasanas or core issues. We don't simply mean that it is time to decide what your heart desires, although it is.

It is time to bring forth and demonstrate, by the amazing diversity of talents, what you are capable of doing. Not just talking about, not just visioning, not just hoping for, but what you are capable of doing, demonstrably, in form, upon Gaia now.

And even as things shift, and shall we say, become more co-creative, the demonstration first and foremost, the building [of Nova Earth] is the mission and purpose of those who have chosen to incarnate at this time.

Now there have been in the past, and I mean recent past, many talks about different waves: first wave, second wave, etc. Well, there have been many waves, some of you have been aware of [them], some have not and frankly it does not really matter.

The wave that you are in - and might I even co-opt the Mother's term and say the "tsunami" you are in - is a tsunami of doing.

Not doing simply for busy-ness's sake, for to take action without focused clarity and intent in the stillness and the spaciousness of being is meaningless.

But to move in formulation, in action, in doing with that focused intent of understanding and using the talents that you have brought.

And every single being upon this planet at this time has brought the fullness, the totality of their soul's design to the planet. They did not leave anything behind.

So you are well-equipped to take these steps of action, each of you in your own way and it is not an either/or. It is a mosaic and every piece counts.

Now are you among the first to be taking, shall we say, very deliberate actions of change? Well, it will be appearing that way because [your action] will be so obvious. (1)

Now as you and I know, beloved brother, we have been taking actions in building a platform for years (2) and this has been a deliberate, intended action.

But is this - as a blanket statement - time for the lightworker community [as a whole] to demonstrate what they are capable of? The answer is overwhelmingly yes.

Are we supporting you? Yes. Are we close at hand to help you as you need help? Yes.

But are you the human implementers of this plan? The answer is yes.

If you did not want to be part of that implementation you would have stayed and worked with us from this side and there are many who have chosen that direction.

Archangel Michael on the Purpose of the Reval and Our Future – Part 3/5

In my reading with him on Oct. 11, 2016, Archangel Michael discussed at length many subjects related to the Reval.

In this third excerpt - at my request - he goes into more detail on the purpose of the Reval, future hydration, structured payouts, etc.

It's confronting to post some of his comments, below, but he indicated that he wants me to.

Thanks to Linda for our reading and to Dana for our transcript. Any italics in the text are mine. Copyright Linda Dillon and the Council of Love, Inc., 2016.

Steve Beckow: Is it correct to say that another facet of the Reval is to give us the practice needed to bring us up to speed to treat (1) with the galactics?

AAM: No, not really. Is that a side benefit? Yes, but that is not the intention.

The galactics have been prepared for this undertaking for a very long time and everything has been put in place for that type of what you are thinking of as treating, for a very long time.

So the ease with which that type of commerce, and we use that in a very generic way, (2) will come to pass, will be actually quite easy.

The purpose of this type of restructuring is [three]fold. (A) For humans to remember their spiritual currency, (B) for humans to begin to have some concrete wherewithal to begin the healing, not only of Gaia (because Gaia is very capable of tending to herself) [but also of the wounds of extended war] and (C) for humans to begin to act like the brilliant angels, masters, and intergalactics that they truly are. [My numbers and italics.]

And if you think that you've had periods of peace upon this planet, what I am suggesting to you is that you haven't seen anything yet.

So that is truly the purpose of any reorganization of your financial or societal or political systems. So it isn't as a testing ground or a proving ground for your work with the galactics. That is already in order.

Steve: Is the Reval for the Michelangelo Fund only to get a hand in the game? That is, once the Michelangelo Fund is set up, does it become a pipeline, with flow, so that the initial hydration is not the most important thing?

I'm not going to go with the structured payout (3) but the thought does come up from time to time, "Oh you'd have much more money if you went with the structured payout."

AAM: Let us expand on this as well.

One of the things that we have recommended for you, and it is not that we have a grudge or a - well, we do have a preference, but nevertheless - about the structured payouts is, yes, as you have put it, hydration.

[Michael is referring to an earlier discussion with me in which he said the banks were not yet completely trustworthy, which we all know.]

But it is also about trusting - trusting in the flow.

[From the Company of Heaven.]

Now I would like to suggest to you, and this is not only for you. This is for many who will find themselves in a similar position. (4)

How can you possibly have billions and zillions of dollars and be worried about money? It is beyond absurdity!

Also note that what you are being taught - and there are lessons in this - is not only how to create, to remember how to create and how to co-create money and that is why I always bring you back, my brother, to spiritual currency.

Money is useful, obviously, but it is also an illusion. It has been a construct that has been formulated by those who believed in the abuse of power, control and false authority; to control populations.

As you are learning to create and co-create - remembering how to create and co-create - what you are doing is moving beyond money. Because that [i.e., the power of creating] is truly the way in which masterful beings – let us put it that way – bring about change on every level, including the material.

So is it important that humans – because this is what they're used to working with – have currency to create this healing of the human race and, yes, of soil and water – but that is because they have sullied it as well – and give Gaia a chance to breathe again.

And are you moving past this fantasy that there is lack and limitation in the universe and upon your planet when it is already being demonstrated that there is such abundant wealth in the tangible meaning of the word and the intangible meaning of the word? The answer is yes.

So when you say: Will I be a pipeline? The answer is yes.

Do we want you involved in the nitty-gritty day-to-day? The answer continues to be no.

Steve Beckow: I also don't want to be involved in the nitty-gritty everyday, Lord. We're perfectly agreed there.

Archangel Michael on the Purpose of the Reval and Our Future – Part 4/5

October 25, 2016

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/10/25/archangel-michael-purpose-reval-future-part-45/>

In my reading with him on Oct. 11, 2016, Archangel Michael discussed many subjects at length related to the Reval.

In this fourth excerpt, he stresses how the big projects, like a living wage for every person on the planet, would be done by many groups in cooperation. He encourages multiple efforts from us, based in creative solutions and best thinking.

Addressing ending hunger on the planet, he said it was not just a matter of throwing money at the problem, but that there would also have to be an attitudinal shift.

Thanks to Linda for our reading and to Dana for our transcript. Any italics in the text are mine. Copyright Linda Dillon and the Council of Love, Inc., 2016.

Steve Beckow: I'm trying to gauge what it is realistic for me to think about. If I think about a basic wage for everyone on the planet, an acceptable standard of living, leaving NESARA out of the picture for a moment and thinking only of lightworkers in the Reval, am I dreaming too big? (1)

Archangel Michael: No, but it is important that you realize that this is done in tandem with many.

Steve: Oh yes, indeed, of course. That would be the Lightworkers Congress.

AAM: But there will be many expressions of this approach (2) and that is part of the delight and the diversity in the opening of creation.

There have to be - yes have to be - many expressions of what this freedom looks like, sounds like, feels like, tastes like. So we are not looking, and let us be very clear, the Mother is not looking, for uniformity.

What is - you say for example - a living wage? What one believes they require or desire is different than another. So are we talking about prosperity or availability for all? Yes we are. But how people express that and choose to use their creation energies to express that will be different and that is a good thing.

Steve: Alright. Nations of course differ on what a living wage would be. ...

AAM: That is correct.

Steve: I don't know how to approach that. I don't know how to think about it

AAM: But you are not intended to be the sole mind brought to this question.

Steve: Okay, that makes sense. Indeed.

AAM: We need to emphasize this, time and time again, because this has been, with the best of intentions, some of the difficulties of well-intentioned and poorly-managed, poorly-thought-out strategies of assistance and aid.

This is not about throwing money at a problem - ever. This is about bringing creation and creative solutions that are based in community and unity and best thinking to the forefront.

That is why we say, this is about the expression and utilization of your talents. You are not an economist. You are not a soil engineer. And so everybody has a piece of this and that is part of the building, literally, of a global community.

Steve: I'd like to go over with you how the Lightworkers Congress might go about helping to end hunger on the planet.

Perhaps we could pretend that hunger was eliminated and then say how we did it. How are we going to use our Reval funds to end hunger on the planet, Lord? Can you help us?

AAM: Think about it in this way. First of all, let us be very practical. Ending hunger on the planet in its most obvious sense, is assuming that people are having the food and water and subsidence they need to stay alive. That is the most basic.

Now the truth of this is, again, as you've said about incomes, that what one requires varies from culture to culture and from country to country.

Most of the planet's soil has been sullied, polluted, diminished and does not always yield the most nutritious food.

Now when Gaia herself (who is a much more powerful being than has been assumed) begins to realize, when she witnesses that there is a commonality of purpose and desire and action to actually nourish and feed everybody, her own regenerative powers will come into play and she works very closely with us and she works very closely with her star family.

But there is a need also for a shift in consciousness for what is desirable and necessary in terms of nutrition and a change of focus in terms of how that is extended to all people, equally.

Now we are particularly talking about Western cultures that are used to having far more food than is necessary. Now we do not say that in a way of judgment but in a way of balance.

The waste in the Western side of the hemisphere has been horrendous. So it is an attitudinal shift [that's needed].

This is even before you talk about distribution. There is an attitudinal shift about wanting to ensure that all people are fed. It is very, very basic.

When the desire to ensure that all people are fed is truly in place, then hunger [will be] ended quickly. What has not been in place is the desire to do that.

There have been great examples of throwing money at a problem for profit or to feel good, but that has not addressed the issue of the willingness to share - to share resources, not just money but true resources and to allow Gaia to begin her process of regeneration as well.

So it is not a matter of just setting up shipping systems or international aid. It is the attitudinal shift and there is plenty for everyone.

But this attitude of lack, this attitude in many places of, "I need a full fridge and I dare not miss a meal," is absurd.

So what you're talking about is a shift in consciousness even prior to addressing the practicalities and that is where the efforts are.

The effort is in the education and in the attitudinal sharing of heartfelt information to bring forth these shifts and, when that takes place, everyone is fed.

Archangel Michael on the Purpose of the Reval and Our Future – Part 5/5

October 26, 2016

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/10/26/archangel-michael-purpose-reval-future-part-55/>

When I saw him in a lucid dream, Archangel Michael, as in this diagram, showed only the upper half of his body.

In my reading with him on Oct. 11, 2016, Archangel Michael discussed many subjects related to the Reval at length.

In this fifth excerpt, he denies that the large sums being cited for Zims are accurate and says that that would create a new class of haves and have-nots.

He says that the Company of Heaven are willing to tolerate some lightworkers not working out and to go by way of on-the-job training rather than waiting for us to be completely ready.

Thanks to Linda for our reading and to Dana for our transcript. Any italics in the text are mine. Copyright Linda Dillon and the Council of Love, Inc., 2016.

Steve Beckow: How good a comparison is it to compare the Reval to the Marshall Plan? (1)

Archangel Michael: It has some merit. It has some benefit because what it does is it gives you a historical reference in terms of understanding the rebuilding of societies.

Steve: What are the drawbacks?

AAM: The drawbacks are the historical references to victor and victim, the defeated and those who have been victorious, the feeling of owing versus balance. ...

Steve: I know I ask it every time but what are we waiting for? ...

AAM: You're not waiting. You're preparing. You're in the process and this is like saying some level of planning. You may feel, my beloved friend, that you are well prepared. We cannot say that for others.

Now has the decision been made that we and you - many - will proceed and that there will be many who squander and who are ill-equipped to manage? The answer is yes.

But what we would suggest to you is that this is in process. It is not a matter of delay and waiting.

Steve: In other words, people are doing things to bring this forth. That's what you mean by "this is in process"?

AAM: That is correct.

Steve: You don't mean that "We are waiting a certain amount of time for you guys to pull up your socks."

AAM: No, that's not what we mean. We have waited for you to pull up your socks, as it were. And we do not say that by way of criticism.

But it is a decision that has been made in other arenas as well as your own human arena that it is better to proceed and have, shall we say, some on-the-job training. ...

Steve: Any idea why people are saying really large sums for the Zim?

AAM: They are fantasizing. They are dreaming. They are having grandiose dreams and part of the difficulty with this is also the inflated sense of self-importance and that must not be a guiding principle. ...

Do not forget our purpose and the human purpose of restructuring is not to destroy economies, is not to create mayhem in the streets and that's what these inflated estimations would do.

It would create a new system of haves and have-nots and that is not the purpose of any building of Nova Earth.

There is only one guiding principle and that is the fulfilment of the Mother's dream of love.

Anything that would create chaos and more disruption is not of love.

Steve: Is there anything else you the want to say on the subject to lightworkers before I change it?

AAM: No, all we say is, "Be realistic my friends. If you want to see, and I know many of you do, governments topple, [will] that toppling crush the populace? If the answer is yes, redirect your attention."

It is not the way we work. It is not the way your star family works. And it is not the way that you as the doers, the lightworkers are intended to work.

How Does the Company of Heaven See Our Role? – Part 1/2

May 7, 2022

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/05/07/how-does-the-company-of-heaven-see-our-role-part-1-2/>

Let's turn now to look at what the Company of Heaven is calling upon lightworkers to do.

What do they expect of us? Want from us? They actually offer a range of opinion which we, looking for our mission, could consider a range of options.

The Arcturian Group on one occasion applauded us for plowing negativity and ignorance out of the way:

"You are the plows plowing the debris of negativity and hopeless ignorance out of the way through your hard work. You are the nitty-gritty hard workers who are making it possible for coming generations to be born into the higher world consciousness you are creating. Many issues you find so troublesome now, will not even be known to future generations.

"Pat yourselves on the back, Dear Ones, for each of you chose to courageously assist in the evolution of mankind through bringing attention and change to commonly-accepted world concepts based in duality and separation. Know that many illumined souls are on Earth at this time in bodies and situations judged by the world to be 'less than perfect' simply to evolve world awareness and bring change. Remember this when you are tempted to negatively judge some person or situation." (1)

This is a very pro-active role that some lightworkers will play. In 2020, Mike Quinsey told us about a re-active role.

"The need to give help to others has never been more urgent as so many are utterly confused and have no idea what is taking place to cause so many problems.

"For them the future looks bleak and few have any idea where the present events are leading. In reality the future is full of promise enabling all such upsetting experiences to be seen in their true context as necessary to bring the new into being." (2)

We probably went through this upset early because we knew what was happening. But most people don't know, are confused, and are passing through their upset now or will be in the future.

More recently, as the world situation heated up, Mike asked us to come together and project thoughts of world peace:

"The more of you that send out thoughts of world peace the more you are speeding up its arrival and it cannot be ignored. You would be surprised at how much influence your thoughts can have on the population. Your only difficulty is getting sufficient people to project harmonious thoughts that have the power to bring about change. You can see how the dark Ones manipulate things to cause chaos, and set one country against another so that world peace is impossible to achieve. However, given time it will change and the vibrations will be beyond the ability of the dark Ones to interfere with them." (3)

The galactics know the effectiveness of impacting the collective consciousness with our group meditations. We have yet to really begin valuing that.

The Arcturian Group agreed with Mike, in February 2022:

"You will find yourselves increasingly called upon to help those drawn to you with questions and concerns. They recognize your stability in the face of outer appearances and want this for themselves. You will become and many of you already are teachers to those ready for and seeking truth.

"However, even more important than the outer work is the inner work, your ability to continuously and silently BE the Light that you are for without the inner there can be no outer." (4)

So we're asked to reassure the hopeless, confused, and concerned. Why don't we make that one line of service, available to those for whom it resonates.

And we're reminded of the inner work.

Daniel Scranton's 9D Arcturian Council goes into detail on that inner work and the kind of help we can extend to people who are confused and concerned. I found their view to be extremely perceptive. OK, OK. That is, it lined up with my own.

"Those of you who are not getting triggered by what is happening on your world right now are fortunate. If you are not in resistance to what is happening on your world, then you are one of the lucky ones. But it wasn't luck at all that put you in the position that you are in. It was a choice that you made before you incarnated.

"And as you move forward now because of that fortunate position that you are in, you have more of an ability to turn on the vibration within you that you want to experience [for instance: to draw love up from our hearts].

"Most humans do not have that option because they either have something they need to clear, or because they have not been taught about their ability to reach within themselves and offer a vibration on purpose. [Exact on both scores.]

"That is where you come in; you are the ones to lead with your example, and you are the ones to teach others how to release and clear all of that angst, all of that fear, all of that anger, all of that rage, and all of that hate so that they can follow you to the better-feeling timelines that have been created out of your love, compassion, and desire to serve humanity.

"It doesn't take a majority of you to be offering those vibrations, but there have been enough of you to create these timelines, and there are enough of you on Earth right now to lead humanity into a much more positive and good-feeling future." (5)

Exactly. It doesn't take a majority of us. Just a fraction. And that will come. The love energy streaming onto the planet and fueling our Ascension guarantee it.

We've been clearing our vasanas, obstacles, barriers, baggage for the last ten years, getting to the root of our early childhood trauma and freeing ourselves of it.

Let me continue tomorrow to look at what the galactics and celestials turn to us for.

How Does the Company of Heaven See Our Role? – Part 2/2

May 8, 2022

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/05/08/how-does-the-company-of-heaven-see-our-role-part-2-2/>

(Concluded from Part 1, yesterday.)

Ashian through Jennifer Crokaert gave a stirring picture of a second area of work for some of us: Taking our focus off the old and building the new.

"Your focus creates your reality and also your power. While awareness of the dismantling is good, if you find that the old is depressing you, bringing you down or lowering your vibration, then you would be right!

"Do not give it your power. Shift your focus instead to the new, become aware of what you can do/be today to embody the light and the love that is the signature of this planet and all upon Gaia, as you create Ascension. It can be as small as an act of kindness or as great as clearing all debts owed to you.

"What is conceived in love and born through love has sacred DNA running through it. Its vibration is inherently high, whether it is a being or an organisation or a creation of any kind whatsoever.

"Lightworkers are called to be bold, to be daring in their ideas and imagination, to know that the purity of their intent will create support and miracles to bring the changes they believe into fruition.

"The vibration of love, harmony, peace and reconciliation is unstoppable now. All thoughts, words and actions aligned with this energy are destined to succeed and multiply, blessing all whom they touch, to the degree of the purity of their intent.

"So be bold, be daring, be brave! Be the 'you' you know yourself to be within your deepest heart. Now is Your moment." (1)

This line of commentary asks those who are not protecting us from the darkness on the planet to take their focus off that and put it now on building the new.

When we remember that we're all angelics, what that building process will look like is unknown at the present time, but also tantalizingly promising.

We already know that sequestered technologies are being released as we speak. Sequestered wealth is next.

We don't what the immediate future may hold. Well, we do and we don't. Just not in detail.

What else does the Company of Heaven tell us that they'd like to see?

White Cloud through Blossom Goodchild stressed the lightworker role of simply holding the light and love amid the topsy-turviness. We're like lighthouses amid stormy seas.

A decade ago I would have pooh-poohed this idea. But I don't any more. I've been softened up over the years.

The people waking up now may do so much more abruptly than us; hence the need for social "first aid." White Cloud says:

"The Federation of Light and indeed myself have said many times, many, many times, that your world is to get far more topsy-turvy than what took place in your last year.

"So it begins, my friends, the unrest that is taking place not only in the country where there is much unrest this day (U.S.), yet the ripple effect it has [will go] all over the world and the fact that everything you hear on your news is there to bring down, to suppress, and to confuse.

"You must know, dearest souls, that there is a Divine Plan which is taking place. And within this topsy-turviness that is causing so much disturbance of mind, of soul, of heart, there is a place for you to hold your swords of light to the skies. ...

"You came here to do this, my friends. Let it not be now that you waver, that your thoughts go under, that your heart lies low. No, instead let it be now that those swords of light are raised up and charged with the energy of love that is filtering down to your beings from the Divine Source." (2)

Not hatred. Not division. Not blame and shame, judgment, revenge, bitterness. But the sword of love and light held high, figuratively speaking. In other words, being love and light. Actually being it.

Gaia through Pamela Kribbe says we're here to anchor a certain vibration. Note the affirmation that we're all angels:

"You often make yourselves so small. You are hiding your true strength and even dare not show the joy and the light in your heart. But I am now telling you what your mission is on Earth – it is to be an angel on Earth. You do not have to change the people around you; you do not have to get involved in politics, or that kind of activity. What you are meant to do here as a lightworker is to anchor a certain vibration." (3)

So anchor a certain vibration. Be the Light and the Love. Work on an energetic level.

Finally, Ashian asks us to assist in drawing people together. That's the final step in Ascension, he says:

"Coming together is the final step on humanity's journey to ascension.

"And now is the time to be focusing on how you can come together more, in spite of your differences.

"And if you are one of the ones who is asking us, and others like us, for opportunities to experience more unity, then you are one of the leaders that we are talking about.

"Humankind needs leaders who are about bringing people together, and every single one of you who is receiving this transmission is one of those people.

"You don't need to have millions or even billions of people following you in order to be a leader. You are contributing to the collective consciousness no matter what you do or who knows who you are." (4)

We may recognize the Divine Mother as having expressed the same sentiment in an earlier article:

Divine Mother: So this drawing together of people is how Nova Earth will be built and Ascension occur. (5)

Thus, it seems the need of this post-pandemic moment is to draw people together, to reunite them and not in national groups but as one global people, an evolving human race, a new species of humanity.

After what we've been through, the lessons of which will take years to digest, we need to unite behind our desire to live in peace, love, and harmony everywhere on Earth from here on in.

The rising energies will take care of the rest. They'll increase our frequency to a range where disease, crime, hatred, etc., are absent. They'll create a separate timeline and resonance for those who wish to continue in the ways of darkness. Everyone will have what they intend and want.

To summarize then, the galactics and celestials look to us for many things, some of which are to:

- Deconstruct ignorance and negativity

- Reassure the hopeless and confused.
- Send out thoughts of peace.
- BE - and demonstrate being - the Light and Love that we all are.
- Be bold and daring in bringing needed changes to fruition, and
- Come together as one global people.

If a person is unsure of their mission, this list would make a good starting place.

There we have it in black and white: "You are contributing to the collective consciousness no matter what you do or who knows who you are." That impact on the collective consciousness is, I think, what we need to focus on.

We don't have instruments to measure it yet, but that follows the identification of a need, does it not? If so, we hereby identify the need for tools to measure the collective consciousness.

A part of the Mother's discussion with me on June 7, 2015 may explain a lot of things to many lightworkers who wonder why their lives have been spent in or close to poverty.

Before the Divine Mother left, I asked her for the spiritual reason that she had kept the Nova Earth team so close to the poverty line when it would have been easy to direct a prosperity package to us. Here's her response:

Divine Mother: The human collective has been in a place of what you may think, and in many ways feel, of spiritual, emotional, mental, physical, material poverty for a very long time, for thousands of years and even far beyond that.

The lightworkers, the loveholders are understanding in the depth, the core, the centre of their beingness, what genuine poverty feels like. We mean everything from illness, to despair, to brutality.

As you are creating and building the new, you have a very deep (your expression) "up close and personal" understanding of what the true meaning of poverty is in the same way you have come to know and understand the true meaning of your spiritual currency.

The other piece of this is, upon this planet, in such flux and transition, most of you (and I say this in the deepest reverence and admiration) have veered away, and through true guidance veered away, from what you have thought of as the mainstream of how in the old realm - which does not serve me - money, abundance, prosperity in the material reality has been earned, received, and achieved.

That has been through control, greed, and lust. (1) As that has been erased, disappearing and reconstructed, there has been this abyss. It has also brought you individually and collectively to the deepest meanings and the values of what you choose - of what is acceptable and what is not and what you are choosing and proceeding to create.

In many ways and in other lifetimes, this would have been considered the vow of poverty, the monastic life, the life of complete service. But it is not meant - let me be very clear - simply to be endured.

Now where you are: you are in a process of truly creating/co-creating individually and as community, but as humans. Do not think that it is simply us keeping the door closed. The door is open and you are proceeding.

I asked Mother again why a prosperity package could not have been sent our way. There still seemed to be a missing piece in the explanation.

DM: You have touched on this very issue [earlier] when you have said that various individuals, who have in fact been blessed in a variety of ways, are afraid. This fear factor which we cannot simply wave a magic wand [and dismiss] has need to be [addressed and erased] in sacred union.

So the fear and the concern, the worry of not surviving or being at the beck and call of inner malicious forces has need to be surrendered.

I repeated the fact that it didn't seem to make sense to have the ground crew endure so much impoverishment and indebtedness to stay afloat and at our posts. When she took up the topic again, she now revealed what was for me the missing piece.

DM: Because you have agreed that you are on, can we say, the receiving end.

S: So our being [poor] is used as a means to get people to open up [financially]?

DM: To express gratitude, generosity, and unity and to express what is valuable to them.

S: So that is what the spiritual meaning of this is: That we serve that purpose of igniting or inspiring people's generosity.

DM: That is correct. You are the catalysts.

S: That's what I needed to know. Thank you, Mother. (2)

Human beings always seem to want to know the "why" of things. Somehow that makes uncomfortable and unpleasant circumstances bearable. I know it did for me.

When I knew the reasons for how we were being dealt with, I felt pacified. The very same reasons for a very tough life may apply to you as well and you also may have agreed to serve as a focal point to inspire other people's generosity.

Archangel Michael offered me another important piece of reassurance. I told him that I had less and less time for researched articles and he said he didn't want them right now.

"I beg of you, do not assume that when you write of what you are calling 'the inner work,' that this does not have profound effect because the focus of the leadership movement right now is on the inner work." (3)

That was reassuring because the inner work is “heating up,” so to speak, and the researched work is getting harder and harder to carry out, what with the demands on my time. I hope one person’s journey, written down, can be helpful.

I should add here that numbers of you have written me and said that the financial pieces I've written lately have assisted you. I hear you. I'll be writing more, trying to get at the heart of the quality we call generosity and how to counter the fear that comes up once the Reval is concluded. (4)

The reason I bought currency in the first place was that I wanted to run my own experiments in generosity. I never thought I'd be the subject of one! But I'll learn either way.

Building Nova Earth: The Preconstruction Phase

August 20, 2015

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/08/20/building-nova-earth-the-preconstruction-phase/>

This week's Hour with an Angel was the first time the ground crew and the Company of Heaven had consulted together in a public forum on what the plan was for building Nova Earth.

I found myself becoming clearer on several things.

Archangel Michael pointed out that the first stages of construction itself had to deal with taking care of people's fears of survival.

You'll see a diagram of Maslow's hierarchy of needs to the left. The first needs are physiological and these were what AAM said had to be attended to first among those we intend to serve. So that was adequate food, water and shelter and guaranteed freedom.

He said that the desire for freedom was in our DNA. If we were meant to be slaves, then everyone would enjoy their enslavement. But enslavement leads to revolutions, showing that people do not want to be slaves.

Only after ensuring everyone's physiological well-being and freedom could we then turn our attention to building community structures like codified laws, honest government, and so on.

Until now, in considering the projects I'm responsible for, I had been cherry-picking causes, so to speak. But my mind is now clearer that the basics - food, water and shelter - need to be in place first before proceeding onto whatever is next.

Regarding the team doing the construction, he said we were in what he called the preconstruction stages. We've generated the concept, vision or context for building Nova Earth and people have responded in large numbers. You have only to see how many people own foreign currency, which is our way of garnering the funds for our projects, or who have applied to people like Jerzy Babkowski and Humanus.ca for project funding, to see that lightworkers have made the vision of Nova Earth their own.

Their willingness to take part in the process being held out to us for generating the money to build Nova Earth (and many avenues of abundance haven't come on-stream yet, such as the prosperity packages, revenue from the historic bonds, World Trust funds, etc.) shows the desire among lightworkers to create a world that works. Having the financial backing puts in place the second necessity of the preconstruction phase.

The third necessity is gathering our teams together. I can testify that people are approaching me having heard my name being said to them out of the blue, repeatedly. Incidents like these are telling.

I once asked Archangel Michael how I would gather the team together after the Reval and he replied, "Oh, they will come out of the woodwork."

So all the stops are being pulled to bring lightworkers together. I'll have more to say about that on another occasion.

We're proceeding exactly as one would on any construction project. Create the vision and plans, acquire the financial backing, and gather the team. That's where we're at now. And once the financial backing arrives, then pick up tools and begin the work.

The Divine Mother added, towards the end of the show, when she nudged AAM and he stepped aside, that we need to proceed slowly, gently and joyfully or we weren't following her plan. I personally needed that permission. Otherwise I'd probably work at the speed of light to get things done and that evidently is not what she wants.

So as a construction project we're well underway and waiting for the right moment to pick up tools and begin to build.

As Boots on the Ground, What are We to Do?

August 3, 2023

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2023/08/03/as-boots-on-the-ground-what-are-we-to-do/>

Well, OK, if this is the birth of a new species of human...

Into a new region of space where our lives will become interdimensional...

With civilizations from around the multiverse watching the experiment... (1)

As boots on the ground, what are we to do?

The simple version or the long-drawn-out version?

The simple version? In my view? Love. Begin to draw the love that flows in our hearts up out of that endless wellspring on the inbreath and send it out to the world on the outbreath. Actually do it.

What will that do?

That is the very definition of ascending. What is Ascension but a full and complete heart opening? (2) If we simply love, it's a little like, I think, a baby bird practising to fly for the first time. The Mother helps it.

That will have us experience our own love, providing us with an endless source of what everyone in life is seeking. And that love that we discover will only deepen and deepen.

That will have us see whom it makes sense to seek love from and whom it does not. (From others? Not so much. From our own heart? Definitely.) Now we're self-generating and self-sufficient.

When it does, it'll transform our lives just in the course of life itself. Every moment will be transformative. Emerson described it:

"No man ever forgot the visitations of that power to his heart and brain, which created all things new; which was the dawn in him of music, poetry, and art." (3)

"Which created all things new." "The dawn in him of...." He's describing transformative love and an opened heart.

After that opening, we can feel the love rising from our hearts and flowing out to the world. Now we're ready to pursue our unique avenue of lightwork. (4)

Married to our lightwork, I predict that our love will inspire all we meet. Lightwork without it? Not very much power to it, I find.

I predict that how we and all others are seen throughout the galaxies will ride on the depth, quality, and purity of that love.

That for me is the simple answer.

(2) When the energy moves farther and permanently and fully opens the heart, the arahant becomes a buddha; the Brahmajñani becomes a jivan-mukta (liberated while alive). Not the heart chakra, but the heart. The hridayam or heart aperture opens as it did in the earlier heart opening but now remains open.

The resulting torrent of love incinerates the vasanas or core issues. In the earlier heart opening, which I imagine is not as strong as Sahaja, the vasanas were held at bay for the length of the experience. But they were not eliminated. Now they are.

This latter state completes our Ascension experience.

Here to Clean Up Planet Earth

Dec. 21, 2016

<http://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/12/21/clean-planet-earth/>

"Here to Clean Up Planet Earth," Dec. 21, 2016, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/12/21/clean-planet-earth/>

Archangel Michael explained what the Company of Heaven hopes we'll do with our currency recently:

"Is it important that humans – because this is what they're used to working with – have currency to create this healing of the human race and, yes, of soil and water – but that is because they have sullied it as well – and give Gaia a chance to breathe again." (1)

Diane of Sirius advised us on May 29, 2009, that "karma operates at all levels and you are responsible for making good the damage you [have] done to your beautiful Earth." (2)

The Arcturian Group on June 26, 2016, also explained to us:

"Many still look to Light Beings or evolved extraterrestrials to 'fix' the world, but because of free will they cannot step in and do the work for you." (3)

Even Jesus told us that he's not coming down in power in the clouds to save the Earth. We are the Earth's saviors and soon we'll know who we are.

"If you have an idea of what you want to see manifest, why wait? Are you waiting for a saviour to come and make everything right? Well, the saviour is already here. You are your own saviour.

"I am not going to come down, as has been foretold in some of your religious/ philosophical teachings, in a chariot of white light and say, 'You and you and you and you, come with me. The rest of you, you have more work to do.' It is not going to happen that way.

"You are your own saviour as you make choice to be your own saviour, as you make choice to say, 'Wow, I'm much more than I ever thought I was. I thought I was just human.' Well, that is part of you, and it is a blessed part of you, the human experience, but it is not all of who you are." (4)

Patricia Diane Cota Robles explains why it was necessary for so many of us starseeds to incarnate here:

"Through our I AM Presence, we were well aware of the Universal Laws governing the evolution of the Sons and Daughters of God. We knew that in order for something to manifest in the physical plane, it must be invoked or asked for through the free will choice of someone existing in the physical plane.

"With this inner knowing, we clearly understood that in order for us to transform the Earth and all her Life into the infinite perfection of the New Earth, we must be abiding in the physical plane. This is what is meant by the words, "God needs a body."

"No matter how much our Father-Mother God and the Company of Heaven want to help us lift out of the horrific situations we have created, they will not interfere with our free will. But once we lift our heads above the mud puddle of our human miscreations and ask for Divine Intervention, the floodgates of Heaven open in response to our heartfelt pleas." (5)

So here we are, midway through our missions and about to usher in what could for many of us be the public part of our service. We're to heal the human race with our earnings; we're to restore the damaged Earth as well.

And later on we'll find ourselves serving as spokesbeings for many other planetary purposes, as Michael explains here:

"Those who are in a position of stewardship, of beginning projects that lead the way to the building and the re-creation of what Nova Earth is truly about ... become the spokesbeings for many." (6)

Every day brings us nearer the time to buckle on our harness and take up Michael's sword of peace, truth - and abundance.

Matthew Ward on the Work of Building Nova Earth

Matthew's Message, Nov. 9, 2015, at <http://www.matthewbooks.com/mattsmmessage.htm>.

Many people are still wondering what projects they should create.

In the course of my research, I came across a passage from Matthew Ward in late 2012 that discusses the work ahead of us. It's a pretty useful discussion of what awaits us in creating a world that works for everyone.

During its last days and the early days of 2013, the planet will travel through the celestial window between third and fourth densities, where the energy wisps of both densities briefly comingle, and it will enter fourth density, where Earth's Golden Age begins. ...

It is natural to wonder how the mess your world is in can be cleaned up in the short time remaining before the onset of the Golden Age. It can't be. Never were all the glories of that wondrous Age going to greet you at its doorstep, but, because of the 10-year delay, neither will the early stages of grand differences in your lives be there as originally envisioned by the master planners.

Therefore the "mopping up," so to say, will get off to a late start. However, with the release of your own technologies from Illuminati control and the assistance of other civilizations and their technologies, efforts can begin on many fronts simultaneously.

The primary priority is to provide survival essentials to the peoples in war-torn areas and refugee camps and to indigenous peoples and nomadic tribes in dire straits.

Warring will have ceased, but much will remain to be done in its aftermath. Building or rebuilding countries' infrastructure, commercial centers and houses will be undertaken expeditiously, not only for current inhabitants, but so refugees can return to villages or cities where there are residences, hospitals, schools and supplies of clean water and food are plentiful.

The ridding of corruption in the global economy will occur in tandem with the same in governments so those areas of paramount influence in your lives can start operating with the honesty and fairness inherent in moral and spiritual leaders.

Your waters, soil and air will be purified and toxic waste, including radioactive materials, will be dematerialized. Areas will be cleansed where disease has flourished due to the unsanitary living conditions of the impoverished masses.

Other reforms that will be instituted quickly include ending cultural practices and customs that are unfair, injurious or lethal and the repeal of all unjust laws and regulations. Millions now imprisoned on false charges or for minor infractions or as a result of simply being on "the other side" in wars will be released - yes, it will be easy to identify all who are innocent!

Those are among the first changes because the current status is intolerable for the affected peoples. The plight of many millions of animals - endangered species and animals that become part of your diet - is another situation that will be addressed in earnest.

Initial structures, particularly housing for all who now are homeless in their own country or uprooted due to violence, and buildings for medical care and schooling, will be rudimentary. As rapidly as possible, those types of accommodations will be replaced with finely-built structures.

Free and renewable energy sources incrementally will replace current dependence on oil and natural gas. Other measures soon to be implemented also will assist Earth's own efforts to restore areas of most severe environmental damage so that crops can be grown in abundance, forests can make a comeback and rivers can flow as Nature intended.

According to the original Golden Age master plan, all of those vast improvements in your world would have happened by now. The global web of corruption that so long enabled the dark ones to control the peoples would have ended and long-hidden truths would have come forth in stages to give the populace time to more easily accept the realities.

You're approaching the continuum, where there aren't ten more of your linear years for all of that to come about in "adjustment" stages - remedies must get going with all speed and efficiency possible. So some confusion will be unavoidable due to the haste to get the most essential changes underway, but it will be relatively short-lived. The dark minds and hearts that would attempt to create chaos to prevent those changes no longer will be on the planet, and the people who are there will be of a loving, helpful, cooperative nature!

People Helping People: The Reval and Building Nova Earth

People Helping People: The Reval and Building Nova Earth

“People Helping People: The Relationship Between the Reval and Building Nova Earth,” Oct. 8, 2016 at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/10/08/people-helping-people-relationship-reval-building-nova-earth/>.

What's the connection between the Reval and building Nova Earth? Well, it's a lot of supposition on my part but, if you're up for it....

Leading the parade

I think terrestrials are being given a chance to "lead the parade."

I think we're being given a window between the Reval and Disclosure or NESARA, whichever comes first, to show what we can do.

We're being given the opportunity to develop leadership, on a global scale, folks who can meet with the galactics as equals and partners in our common work of restoring our world.

We're being invited to turn the first sod, so to speak, in the restoration of Planet Earth.

Nevertheless, everything that comes later - Disclosure, NESARA, new governance - will dwarf what we do now. This is our moment.

We can take up the opportunity or let it pass. Enough will take it up for us to make a good showing, I'm sure. But do we realize the opportunity for growth in taking up the challenge and invitation?

The opportunity for growth: taking responsibility for our world

How we grow is in extending the reach of what we're willing to take responsibility for. What we earn from the Reval is what we bring to the work.

How many are willing to take responsibility for the shape and condition of our world? That willingness is what there is to develop and developing it is, in my view, what causes our consciousness to expand.

Meeting the galactics and meeting with them will call upon us to stretch and stretch. Do we know how to stretch? I'm not sure I do, but I'll learn.

The process of expansion - the process of consciousness shift - will differ from person to person.

Financial wayshowers may find they go through two stages of expansion. The first will arise out of our work together as lightworkers. The second will arise out of our work with the galactics and ascended masters.

My understanding is that a positive action from us - in this case, towards the restoration of Earth
- sets in motion the conditions for further and further expansion of consciousness.

It's like starting a snowball rolling downhill. It goes the rest of the way by itself, gathering mass.

Our willingness to expand shows the determination and seriousness of the terrestrial contingent, as we prepare for the second stage of collaboration - cooperating with the galactics.

Further opportunities

Once we start our post-Reval work, my hunch is that Heaven and Earth will move to assist our efforts.

For instance, I imagine people who really tackle a global problem will find money being funneled to them by royals, elders, humanitarian foundations, etc.

That hunch is supported by things the Company of Heaven has said on occasion. For instance, Archangel Michael said here:

Steve Beckow: Now I have been saying to readers that the Company of Heaven is watching financial wayshowers and stewards...

Archangel Michael: That is correct.

Steve:... And that those who do well - in other words, do the job of hydrating society - will find themselves supported to go forward.

AAM: That is correct.

Steve: ... It's correct. Okay. I don't want to be saying something to them that's misleading. Thank you for being definite about that. (1)

But remember: You still need to be responsible for your own choices. Don't blindly go on my hunches here, please. It's never been more important for us to be responsible spiritual adults than it is now.

The opportunities that open up further down the road will, I'm sure, be individual. Archangel Michael described one of them. He said that those who successfully take up the challenge of financial wayshowing will become "spokesbeings for many":

"Those who are in a position of stewardship, of beginning projects that lead the way to the building and the re-creation of what Nova Earth is truly about ... become the spokesbeings for many." (2)

Galactic Federations and Lightworker Congresses

I believe that, once we start in, we'll find the galactic federations joining us, discretely before Disclosure and openly afterwards. All the breakthroughs in healing, transportation, replication, and free energy that they'll bring will magnify our efforts and ensure our success.

But we need to start. We need to take the first few steps.

We'll need specialized congresses or parliaments - for health, spirituality, women, natives, etc. The more of them that open, the more jobs - and leaders - we create.

In a world where the job market has shrunk because of automation, we need to create work. Jobs for people attacking global problems like poverty and hunger are exactly the kind of work we need to create: People helping people.

So don't feel bad if your labor costs are high. That money is getting into circulation in the world, restarting economies - this time, without a world war to kickstart them. We're doing it via ways of peace.

In sum, if you took up the invitation to exchange currency, you just included yourself in on the opportunity of many lifetimes - to grow, to expand, to become a leader and spokesbeing for the planet. You included yourself in on the restoration of Planet Earth.

No one, I hope, will tell you what to do, what you should do, or anything of the sort. But there's a broad and living canvas before you and the best possible assortment of paints.And all the time in the world to create something of tremendous value to yourself and the planet.

Using Reval Funds to Create a World That Works

“Using Reval Funds to Create a World That Works,” Aug. 8, 2016, at <http://inteldinarchronicles.blogspot.ca/2016/08/using-reval-funds-to-create-world-that.html>

Currency holders seem to be asking themselves two questions these days:

1. How will I spend my earnings?
2. How will I be able to discern which organizations are legitimate and which organizations are fraudulent?

I have the same concerns.

I know how I'll spend my earnings. I'll put 20% away as a contingency fund. I'll put aside enough money to pay my taxes. I'll gift to my loved ones and take care of all the other gifting I intend to do.

I'll set aside a percentage of what's left for projects I intend to create. And then I'll dedicate the rest to ... what can I call it?

How will I be able to discern? Archangel Michael would say: Ask your heart. And

I do that. I would also add: Use credibility analysis on the organization's communications.

Are their claims credible - that is, probable, plausible, possible, and without contradiction or inconsistency? What's their history? What do others say of them?

We have to do our due diligence until we learn to trust our hearts implicitly. (I'm not there yet.)

Someone needs to create a central directory of charities, foundations, NGOs, etc., with an appraisal of their legitimacy - to help us all out. But that's another matter.

What are we doing by creating ancillary organizations like this? We're concentrating our financial power as a prism concentrates light, to create real change in the world.

Real change toward what? Real change toward a world that works for everyone. (1) We lightworkers call that Nova Earth. You probably do as well.

Most lightworkers come from the firm belief that we can and will create a world that works - a world free of pollution, a world in which everyone's cares and necessities are taken care of, a world that we haven't even dreamed of yet, but are about to have a crack at building.

Free energy. Cars that run on ... water, free energy, anti-grav, you name it. Medical breakthroughs that will have your head spin. And more.

Our Reval funds are what give us leverage. They give us the chance to build this new world, to irrigate this field and watch a crop of new inventions grow and a weed bed of unwanted conditions disappear.

At some level of your being, you must be aware that there's a consciousness shift going on, are you not? Do you not feel happier than last year? Is the Reval itself not an indication that a consciousness shift is going on?

How else would such a way-out idea as a Reval make any sense at all except if we're in the midst of a raising of consciousness on the entire planet?

Our frequencies are getting higher and, in this higher resonance, things are possible that simply weren't decades earlier.

If this were not the case, I wouldn't have the confidence to say: We can do this. We can create a world that works. I know we can.

We have the collective will, means, and opportunity to turn this planet's situation around - to win equality for women, to end exploitation, to level the playing field for the poor and much more.

You and I have it within our power to finance a revolution of love on this planet. Finely-targeted, strategic gifting - in this case by an organization representing lightworkers - is how to ignite that fire.

Global Love: Turning the Desert into a Watered Plain

Credit: newsdiscovery.com

“Global Love: Turning the Desert into a Watered Plain,” Aug. 23, 2015, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/08/23/global-love-turning-desert-watered-plain/>

I've had an interesting discussion offline with a reader who recounts how some lightworkers she's known have regarded helping the poor as perpetuating people being on the dole.

As a philosophy, the extreme version of this point of view is called social Darwinism.

If we discuss Maslow's hierarchy of needs - the physiological being the first and most important, relatively speaking - then we'll encounter people who will feel that we're making things worse.

In all the projects I'll be "sourcing" (i.e., being the ultimate source of but not a worker in), everyone, as far as I'm aware, is concerned with levelling the playing field, righting wrongs, freeing people, relieving poverty. You remember that CEO Michael said that his guidance was for us to start with basic needs and freedoms.

If we don't relieve need, no one will have any attention on anything that we might consider higher. There's probably nothing higher to a starving person than filling their belly.

Krishnamurti, she reminds me, said: "The man who has no food in his stomach obviously cannot find reality - first he must be fed." And she repeats a saying popular among some who work in the social services arena - "Peace will be found when the hungry are fed."

I also recall Swami Vivekenanda saying something to the effect that you cannot teach starving people spirituality.

And if we don't free people, their resentment will remain so high that anything we say about spirituality would sound like hypocrisy to them.

So I want to be very, very clear myself that, like Micki, who sent in the email, my own personal priority is basic needs and freedoms. And I don't say that simply because Michael did. I feel it in my bones.

You know I've worked on refugee claims and heard the most heart-rending of stories. I know what the deprivation of freedom is like and how many people are deprived of their freedom in this world right now. I also worked on the Hunger Project for some time and know how widespread hunger is in the world.

And, yes, I also know that around fifteen percent of the money our projects distribute will go to scams. I got it. That's just what's so.

That's no reason to deprive the other 85% of a level playing field. We have to get off focusing on the cost and see the dramatically-increasing benefits. We have to get off attending to what are essentially Third-Dimensional matters.

In the old Third, people scammed us and all we did was worry about getting scammed, looking foolish, and losing money.

But now we're feeding a tender shoot and that always involves risk. One needs to put a fence around a tender shoot to keep the cows away. One needs to water it and weed it.

That tender shoot is global love. Freshly planted. Very delicate.

Our distribution of funds (1) to the disadvantaged, starving, and enslaved of the world is the planting of that tender shoot of global love.

In our part of the world, the people who get the short end of the stick are the homeless, the sick, the aged, single parents, orphans, foster children, the disabled and others, among women and men. In other parts of the world, the dispossessed and enslaved are increasingly found to be women, the number going up the less humane the people.

This work is what's being asked of us. We ourselves don't need help. We're making it, some of us by the skin of our teeth but we are. But those others will never listen to a discussion of heart consciousness as long as they live in forced marriages, under a burqah, are starving and homeless on an uncaring city street, raped in jail, and so on.

We volunteered for serious business. It wasn't to throw dollars in the air and dream of a Lamborghini. We asked to be financial wayshowers to plant the tender shoot of global love in what was previously a desert for so many people. We're tasked with turning that desert into a watered plain.

A Foundation Upon Which We Can Build Nova Earth

“A Foundation Upon Which We Can Build Nova Earth,” Aug. 10, 2015, at <http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/08/10/foundation-upon-can-build-nova-earth/>

I think I can say with a great deal of certainty that there never was a time when so many people, serving the Light, coordinated together towards a common purpose and grew stronger every day.

I studied to be a historian and I can't recall such a time in history. Not in any historical period that I can think of have there been so many people aligned on ... call it what you want. Global peace. A world that works for everyone. A higher-dimensional world. Nova Earth. Nova Being. The name doesn't matter. And their numbers swell every day.

It's an evolutionary shift for the whole human race and we - you and me - are leading the way.

I remember what it felt like to fully realize what a program I was attending could mean for me. I was enrolled in a three-month, residential, human-growth program at Cold Mountain Institute on Cortes Island, British Columbia (now known as Hollyhock) in 1975/76.

When I saw that we were exploring everything from our deepest secrets to everything about our sexuality, from art therapy to meditation to raw encounter, when I realized that anything went and all was grist for the mill, something exploded inside of me. I hung from the cross for a day. I joined a threesome. (1) I can't remember what I didn't do.

We learned about integrity the hard way: by being called in encounter groups on our actions, attitudes and intentions.

This whole behavioral laboratory had been set up totally for exploration, breaking down walls, letting the sunlight in to dark places.

And I was ready to explore. I grew more in three months than in my life to that date. That was the beginning for me of all this.

Fast forward to the present and here I am again, about to enroll in a human-growth program of vast expanse and global consequence. And really all I'm being asked to do is just be myself as I go about gargantuan responsibilities. And just being myself was all that those days were about.

It isn't like Cold Mountain today because there all we needed was seen to. The seclusion that this service provided us with was complete. And that really allowed us as a group to go as deep with each other as we could bear. (2)

Our present situation isn't like that. We're not being asked to abandon ourselves or drop our masks and faces and fronts. We're not being asked to bare our souls (or anything else) or cough up every withhold.

We're being asked to organize a global effort, both in the inner and outer world. We're being asked to build a new world, one that works for everyone, and that has physical, emotional, and mental components, which we lightworkers have agreed to supply. That's a big task.

It starts inwardly with the intention. It grows through the mind's and heart's investigation. It matures into action. And its consequences ripple through the outer world.

The Cold Mountain experience called for letting go. The task ahead of us financial wayshowers requires a decent amount of vigilance. Things that matter rest upon our decisions. Our actions carry weight and consequence.

But what unites the two times is that this is still a time for exploration and experimentation. Within the boundaries of the need for prudence, we can still strike out in any direction we please.

Think of it as having a gigantic palette of true colors and being able to paint in huge brushstrokes. Give us the tools and we'll finish the job. We can make a difference in our world and we will.

If Cold Mountain was the dancers, this generation are the orchestra. Each of us is playing a musical instrument but in tune with each other, in a coordinated fashion. It's coordinated by the commonality of dedication to the Mother's service. All else flows from that.

I hear you. You're not religious. Well, then, call it dedication to the highest potential that we as humans can reach. To the utter unfoldment of the human spirit. Because that's what it is.

Cold Mountain and other human-growth centers (notably Esalen) were the lightworkers of their day. They broke the glacial ice in which our society was frozen. They and their cohorts laid a foundation of openness and awareness, warmth and authenticity, upon which we can build Nova Earth.

This generation of lightworkers is forging a new life in the space they created. We need to bring forward their emphases on transparency and integrity. But we need to apply it not only to creative expression but to creative construction as well.

Building Slowly and Building Well

September 29, 2017

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/09/29/building-slowly-and-building-well/>

I'm amazed, when I look back over years, at the transition in my thinking about post-Reval initiatives. Here are two areas that have radically changed.

I've moved from planning on many companies being created and funding everything in sight - people and projects - to moving further up the abundance chain and funding far fewer but much larger initiatives.

This makes it possible to conceive of myself participating in humanitarian philanthropy, without losing my ability to write. The task becomes manageable.

All of this was set in motion by Archangel Michael's repeated request to restrict myself to five or six people reporting to me.

He made it again in my Aug. 2 reading: "You're going to have adequate staff to run these projects - you are only to deal with a handful of people." And later, "yes, still with only handful of people reporting to you."

Events that I've been through since he said that have consistently shown me why this guidance - and others he's given me - make sense.

In my case, my desire to continue writing is stronger than my desire to play a large role in financial wayshowing. That is beginning to determine more and more of my involvement.

Here's a second way I've radically changed my viewpoint.

My previous plans involved many companies, all sorts of initiatives, birthing projects right and left. Then I moved further up the abundance chain and that offered me some sense of lightening my load. But now I'm even retreating even from the notion of creating many large companies.

Not that large companies should not exist. But that I would be creating them. I now see I will not.

More generally speaking, Archangel Gabrielle advised us to start small. I now agree.

I've retreated to the opposite end of the spectrum. I presently intend to begin matters with just myself and the President of the Michaelangelo Fund and for us to reach a place of understanding and get our feet wet together first and then to gradually, gradually expand.

I want each piece of the process to be built on the basis of a good and clear understanding between me and the next level down of what it is we're doing, who it is we're doing it with, and where it is we're going before we go on to the next step.

I know I risk looking as if I'm micromanaging. I think everyone will be setting up companies and this may be accepted as simply the way we're setting up ours. I hope it is. I have no interest in micromanaging anyone; just the opposite.

This new direction is a complete turnaround for me, but given the unconventional nature of my enterprises (that they're all in service to the Divine Mother and Gaia and that I'm in co-creative partnership with an archangel), I believe it's vital to ensure that we're all enrolled in the vision (cooperating with the Company of Heaven to build Nova Earth). My spiritual beliefs will underpin everything we'll be doing. (1) I can't see a way around it.

This represents a turning away from my earlier concept of hiring, hiring, hiring and going to town. I'm now hiring one. And one will hire two. And so on. I'm now going to build slowly and build well.

Footnotes

(1) I'm not saying that others need to think or worship the way I do. They don't.

I'm simply saying that these companies will be formed in partnership with celestials, serving Mother God. I don't want to have to struggle with employees to establish that context for the company.

The vasana (core issue) at play here is that I've been denied two Ph.D. degrees because I went outside the box of empirical materialism - the belief that only what we can see, hear, touch, etc. is real. Reality, as it turns out, is too big to fit into the empirical-materialist paradigm.

A Gifting Society

Sept. 6, 2013

<http://goldenageofgaia.com/abundance-on-financial-wayshowing-and-the-reval/the-revals-global-significance/a-gifting-society-3/>

I think we're making a transition from one mode of society to another.

The old mode of being with money was that we would amass and retain as much as we could because money was scarce and had to be earned by the sweat of our brows. We would conserve our wealth and pass it on only to our family and closest friends. And that was mainly after our death. This was the mode of a debt-based society.

The new mode, as it emerges and forms up, will, I think, be different. I'm not sure I can put it in a single sentence. Let's look at those who benefit from the Reval or the prosperity packages and let's restrict our attention to those who benefit significantly, not to those who benefit only modestly. And all of this is voluntary.

The formula that presents itself to me as worthy of discussion is to reserve a portion of one's earnings, winnings, benefits, however you wish to see it, for one's own support and for the support of one's family and friends; then to put aside an amount to cover income tax (if needed) and a contingency fund; and then to share the surplus in an ever-widening series of concentric rings with whomever you conceive of as your circle. We get as far as we get; when our disposable income has been shared or gifted, we stop.

My circle is lightworkers. Another person might see his or her circle as battered women, children with leprosy, the homeless, etc.

I see this way of being financially as an interim arrangement covering the time during which we transition from a debt economy to an abundance economy. It covers the period of the Reval, prosperity programs, the World Global Settlement Fund release, the cashing in of the historical bonds (also called trading platforms), etc. In other words, it covers the period in which prosperity is rippled out through discrete channels to the whole of our world community.

It ends when NESARA itself comes in in its fulness, and prosperity or abundance becomes the rule for everyone.

I have a challenge to make to those who benefit significantly in these early weeks and months ahead. That challenge is to see yourself consciously in the role of financial wayshower.

I've already been contacted by one wayshower who has offered post-Reval assistance to a group and I'm working with him to devise an arrangement that works for him. We're all new at this so we're working our way through the matter step by step to see that everyone wins and no one loses. But he's consciously acting like a financial wayshower.

Sharing our surplus with an ever-widening circle of people turns us from being a hoarding society into a gifting or sharing society. It places emphasis on values like generosity, sharing, cooperating and unifying.

Everyone had the opportunity to participate in the Reval. But only some people did. I know I personally told a lot of people. I'd estimate that perhaps five at most took me up on what I said to them.

These five self-selected themselves, I believe, to be financial wayshowers.

As wayshowers, we're setting the new financial paradigm for Planet Earth. And that new paradigm, I recommend, could be as I set out above: attend to yourself first; then your circle of family and friends; set aside money for income tax and a contingency fund; then share with a wider and wider circle of people until you've gifted what you conceive to be your surplus; and then stop.

I should say this is not my formula. It embodies advice that Archangel Michael has given me in private readings. I'm responsible for any errors I make in turning his words into a formula however.

You may disagree. You may see the new paradigm in another way. That's fine.

Surely this is the time to consider the matter and discuss it because those who've chosen to be a channel for abundance, those who've self-selected themselves to be financial wayshowers, and those who find themselves being chosen by someone else (i.e., they are gifted to or become recipients of a prosperity program without having asked to be) are mulling over ways of responding to their good fortune.

Let us self-consciously, self-awaredly take up this mission as financial wayshowers.

And to those who of us who are on the receiving end (we need both gifters and receivers and all of us have contracted in our soul agreements to play one role or the other in the dance of life), please don't sandbag financial wayshowers with emails and importunities. That will cause matters to break down.

And wayshowers, do protect your anonymity in the ways that are being discussed on Reval blogs. Remember: You're not obliged to respond to unsolicited emails. Please go easy on yourself.

We need all of us to take up the divine qualities we've been discussing for at least the past year and make this the new way of being. There's an etiquette we need to observe, even if it hasn't been totally articulated yet. We need to make it work for everyone - eg., win/win.

Oh, and let me add, I've been contacted by a California man who has a pension of $800 a month and keeps sending me $25 monthly checks. When I sent him $20 back to ensure that he's not greatly inconvenienced, while allowing him the opportunity to make a more modest gift, he sent me back my cheque again.

In my view, this man (Robert) has been a financial wayshower from the get go. Rest assured that I will see that he's taken care of when the new prosperity arrives. (1) You're welcome to contact me through "Contact us" if you would like to gift him too. Let's have this be fun.

And I guess that's the bottom line. A gifting society, a sharing society, a cooperating society is fun. A world that works for everyone is fun.

Archangel Michael keeps pressing me: "Have fun." "Make it be fun." I keep telling him, I'm a monk. A monk doesn't eat, drink and be merry. And he replied: "It's hard for you, isn't it?" But I know he wants me to stay here for a while and to do that he has to ground me into the Earth and encourage me to introduce a little fun into my life. I'm trying!!!!!!

So a gifting society can be fun. This new way of being can be fun. And, as White Cloud said, not because we have to, but because our true natures are joy, are fun.

Archangel Michael: The Time for Lightworkers Stepping Forth Is Now

July 23, 2015

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/23/aam-the-time-for-lightworkers-stepping-forth-is-now/>

In a recent personal reading, Archangel Michael encouraged us lightworkers to show leadership in the co-creative work of building Nova Earth and tells us that the time for stepping out is now.

Steve Beckow: Greetings Lord

Archangel Michael: Welcome to you, my beloved brother of blue. Welcome to this time of extraordinary change - yes, of breakthrough, breakdown, reconstruction, and reconstitution. This is the constant.

But never has it been so apparent as the humans go forth - in folly, in victory, in war, in peace. The key is that they are embracing the change and that they do go forward - sometimes yes, under misstep, and sometimes in courageous valour.

Might I even say, beloved one, that, at this time, being upon the planet and being involved in the work of spreading light and love is courageous valor. Even in silence, the continuity, the constancy and the certainty is an act of valor. It is an act of trust. It is an act of hope. It is an act of love.

Know when I say that I speak of “act.” I speak of "action." I speak of forward thrust and this is what is required. It is required in terms of the individual’s plans within the Mother’s plan. There is a time for stillness and all action emanates, when it is of truth and balance, from that place of stillness, of balance.

It is not a flurry of activity, of expression, of creativity for its own sake. It has need to be clear, directed, thoughtful, considerate, kind, gentle, strong. But it has need to be action. The time for light workers, love holders, for all of Gaia, stepping forth, is now.
