Introduction

I awoke to the truth of 9/11 in 2007. After retiring from the Immigration and Refugee Board, where I'd led a cloistered life, I wanted to see what was so with the world. What had gone on in the eight years since I'd entered the ivory tower that the IRB was?

One of the videos I watched almost immediately was In Plane Site. 9/11 an inside job? Preposterous. Why would anyone do such a thing? Especially our own team. But Dave von Kleist and Co. were credible-sounding researchers. I was impressed enough by what they said to begin to dig.

When the penny dropped, I was incensed. Absolutely enraged. Unbelievable. Our own governments! I could not sit still.

I wrote every Member of Parliament and the Senate in Canada, thereby sealing my fate as far as ever returning to the IRB went. I added my name to Patriots Question 9/11, wrote articles in OpEdNews, etc., etc., for around a year.

Eventually what I found became a website in its own right. (1)

All of that was pre-empted when in late August 2008 a friend, Len Satov, told me about Ascension. Well, I was familiar with the Rapture, the end times, Sat Yuga, the New Age, etc.

"Imperator" had talked about the subject in the 1870s. (2) Silver Birch in 2019. (3) Beinsa Douno in 1944. (4) David Spangler in 1976. (5)

From here on my attention focused on Ascension and clearing away the debris impeding it. And the lies about 9/11 were prominent among that debris for me.

I do so hope that the Alliance uses this 9/11 to bring in G/NESARA (6) and reveal to the world the truth of what happened on that day. Until then, we have the testimony of the Company of Heaven on what occurred.

(6) NESARA stands for the National Economic Security and Reformation Act, passed in 2000, signed by President Bill Clinton, but never proclaimed. It was to be proclaimed on Sept. 11, 2001 at 10:00 AM from the World Trade Center.

At 9:00 AM the 9/11 attack began.

The Truth of 9/11

What really happened on that day?

Matthew Ward: Now then, I shall mention some of the facts of 9/11 that we in these stations of light know as truth and that can be verified by those among you who are considered experts in their fields. The planes were remotely controlled by measures designed to override any manual maneuvers by pilots.

The towers were designed to withstand the force of the largest planes hitting them directly. The towers collapsed due to controlled demolition measures, by explosives strategically located and detonated in timely rhythm; witnesses reported hearing explosions prior to the building's falling.

Both the Pentagon and the plane that crashed in the field were hit by scalar beam weaponry. Regarding the Pentagon, the beams were aimed at the section where a communications group had been recently relocated. Results of a major airliner hitting that building at top speed would have penetrated more deeply and devastated more broadly than photos of the destruction showed; further, no one saw any plane approaching that building and there was no way a plane could have struck as the damage showed without being seen at near ground level.

There is much more to consider concerning all that happened that day: Why were many employees in the towers warned prior to September 11th not to report for work that day? Why were standard procedures for intercept planes in no-fly zones not followed, and especially so around the Pentagon after the towers were struck? Why was the debris of the towers so quickly collected and disposed of? Where were the remains of the plane claimed to have hit the Pentagon and why were no bodies recovered from the tail section?

Why were the "black boxes," designed to withstand far more heat and impact than they sustained, declared destroyed? Why, within a day or two, were 19 terrorists identified by name and photos, and later, when it was discovered that several were alive, was there no widespread challenge to the original report? Why, after being informed of the first tower being hit, did the US president continue to spend time with young school children instead of immediately departing the room to act as a responsible Commander in Chief would have?

Many other aspects of that day also point to the culpable parties, who needed something of that shocking and tragic nature to start the "war on terrorism" by causing the justification for it. This is what you are seeing today, the extension of the dark plans to weaken not only the invaded countries, but ultimately all countries on the road to global control. This will not happen! Not only I, but other high beings of light have been sending forth this assurance through respected messengers on the planet.

We have repeatedly stated the need for you to send love energy to the dark ones as that is the most powerful healing force in the universe. Not hatred of them, but focusing on the opposite of their actions - on peace, justness, kindness, compassion, forgiveness, cooperation - is what will end the darkness on Earth. We have asked that you participate in this transition because that is your soul level choice, but do not to set a timetable for the completion of Earth's journey out of darkness. Know that in every moment you have the assistance of your ET family, in every moment hearts and minds are opening and the love-light is expanding, in every moment you are traveling into the higher vibrations of the promised Golden Age, the era of Earth's return to her Eden self. (1)

Adamu: the whole of humanity was attacked on that day. So much hatred was spawned. So much division. So much willingness to go out and kill people that had exactly NOTHING to do with the attack but that could, by the Illuminati propaganda machine, be tenuously and fallaciously linked with it. And so much hatred in return.

The groups and nations that felt unfairly targeted by the war-machine response have been riled into a rage of animosity. I could go on and on about the wound inflicted on the psyche of humanity upon that day. But in order for that attack to bear the fruits the Illuminati wished it to bear, you had to swallow a story about what happened there. A falsely concocted pack of lies.

And to make things worse, the lies were poorly thought out and full of obvious logical holes. But they threw their weight behind those lies and conducted a campaign to enforce agreement amongst those that mattered, which was quite sufficiently successful.

Still, today, you will get no traction if you decide to do something about those lies. You will be branded a conspiracy theorist and pushed to the fringe and your calls for transparency will not be heard. But for all that, there was a time when it was a near thing.

Humanity COULD at that time, have chosen to awaken. Many in the Light thought that was their moment. They worked feverishly to cause an awakening around that event. But it was too hotly contested by any enemy with too much entrenched power. That battle is all but over and lost now. (2)

Mike Quinsey's Higher Self: As the vibrations lift up more people are awakening to what is going on, with the result that they are beginning to ask questions whereas previously they accepted what they were told. For example, 9/11 has never gone away and more proof is being made known that it was a planned demolition by the Bush family.

It was always expected that at the end of the old cycle, much would be revealed that would bring the truth to the surface. There has been speculation for a very long time as to who was behind 9/11, but now the evidence is undeniable and those responsible will be brought to justice. No one can escape having to face the truth. (3)

When will the truth of 9/11 be revealed?

Matthew Ward: The truth about "9/11" will be revealed, but not until after the Rockefeller faction of the Illuminati have lost all their influence in the government, economy and mainstream media of the United States. (4)

For 16 years the Act's implementation has been prevented by one nefarious means or another—most ruthlessly by the "9/11" betrayal of that country by its leaders—because of its provision that returns the nation to its constitutional status as a sovereign republic, nullifies the existing corporation that was promptly and stealthily established by the Illuminati British royals, and tosses out all officeholders.

If for that reason only, the new administration would keep the Act under former President Bill Clinton's gag order that legally prohibits anyone who knows of it to ever speak about it publicly. And, the Illuminati within and beyond Congress will continue doing whatever it takes to keep the lid on NESARA because all of its provisions were designed to end their control of that country and ultimately, the world. (5)

What is the greater significance of the event?

Matthew: In the case of international conflicts, Illuminati have instigated major events to inflame the populace, and the "offended" nation willingly wages war against the proclaimed "offender." Eventually it will become known that one such event was the commonly called "9/11." The call is to "patriotism," but always the underlying intent has been to enrich the producers of war machinery and retain or expand Illuminati control. (6)

God and Gabriel through Suzanne Spooner: Let Us state here that those who instigated the attack also did a great service to humanity. For as the world was processing the magnitude of this event, within the very first seconds were heroic examples of humanity's greatness. Every person that assisted those in need, every person that sent a heart felt prayer, every person who gave instant forgiveness ~ and there were many, lit your world up with love and light. It was an expedited lesson in believing your own truth.

Prior to this event, humanity and in particular, citizens of the US had a pollyanna view of their reality. It was not that this was a 'wrong' view but this created a shift to question authority. In this questioning, a path was formed to find ones own truth and to question what had previously been accepted as truth. This path has allowed the awakening of millions of light workers.

So, as the world remembers those souls who exited on 9/11, know that you all are teachers and students of the greatest free will experiment anywhere. We love you and are with you in all times and ways. (7)

Have there been efforts to release NESARA since 2001?

Matthew: [As you know,] the Illuminati prevented its scheduled announcement September [11], 2001, by staging the terrorism you know as "9/11."

Because subsequent efforts to announce NESARA also were futile, its aspects have been implemented incrementally thanks to the perseverance of volunteer lightworkers from other civilizations.

In short, the structure to replace malevolent control of your world has been in place from the beginning, and souls with spiritual and moral integrity will continue moving this divine plan forward. (8)

Why did the dark oppose NESARA?

Matthew: The Act's primary economic thrust is something that could not be spelled out in any legislation: legally obtaining the vast wealth that has been illegally and immorally amassed by the Illuminati and using those funds to eliminate impoverishment, which, by and large, is of their creating. Let us cite an example that you may remember from previous messages.

The earthquake that devastated Haiti was caused by the Illuminati's weather control technology; after the quake, former US presidents Bush and Clinton went there to divert into their own pockets the monies donated for aid and reconstruction. As for the people of Haiti, these six years later they still are living in unsanitary, substandard conditions just as before the earthquake hit, and many residences are makeshift hovels amidst the rubble of destroyed communities.

The unconscionable disparity between the haves and the have-nots in your world caused an imbalance in Earth's energy field that must be remedied, and other NESARA provisions also are designed to do that. They cancel debts incurred through IMF loans; end usurious interest rates; topple the privately-owned Federal Reserve System, whose tentacles span the globe, and its collection agency, the IRS; and end the currency trading that has enabled the Illuminati to reap fortunes, and that is where global reset fits in. (9)

Have we need to apologize to Muslims for what we did to them after 9/11?

Sanat Kumara: What happened with 9/11 was the occurrence and the identification of the external enemy, which in many ways became the world of Islam. ... This [i.e., the people who engineered 9/11 and made world Islam a scapegoat] was a group of renegade individuals, on many levels, from many different nations. So yes. This division between religions and communities has need to come to an end. And yes, an apology is always welcome, on every level. (10)

False Flags in General

What's the intention behind false-flag operations like 9/11?

SaLuSa: Events such as 9/11 resulted in many unfair and unjust changes, directed at alleged terrorists that were not the ones responsible. Similar incidents have also taken place, and each time used to tighten the controls over you. (1)

What else are the Illuminati funding?

SaLuSa: On a larger scale your money is siphoned off to fund black operations that have not been authorized by your government, and are often directed at you the people they should be serving. These situations have been going on unchecked for far too long, and with our allies who have our help we have made it clear we are going to put a stop to them. So you see, Dear Ones, we are working towards bringing about the changes needed. (2)

Matthew: The enormously profitable illegal drug industry funds both factions' "black ops," including terrorist activities blamed on innocents and vast underground areas where their scientists conduct unconscionable experiments on humankind and develop spacecraft, weaponry, surveillance and weather control systems using technology introduced by the "Little Greys." (3)

Matthew: A large group within the CIA, which only superficially is an intelligence gathering agency to serve the security of the United States, is composed of Illuminati leaders and operators with diverse nationalities, political persuasions and belief systems, but with one aim: world domination. (4)

Does the Illuminati want to stoke divisiveness?

Matthew: Divisiveness has long been an effective tool of the dark ones. Not content to divide the peoples only through religions, they have separated you into other conflicting camps by attaching labels to social strata, ideologies and philosophies, types of governing and political parties, and by labeling as a "conspiracy theorist" anyone who disputes official claims about any situation or event.

These separations have kept duality flourishing down through the generations, thus mirroring the population in third-density mentality. Rejoice with us that duality is acting out the final scene of its very long play on the planet! (5)

Specifically, what has our star family been doing to protect us from false flags?

SaLusa: There have been a number of false flag incidents that have been controlled by us, so as to prevent the likelihood of a major confrontation. Some have been too big to be fully concealed, and some details do leak out. Be observant and you will undoubtedly pick up on some unusual reports. (6)

SaLuSa: For a long time we have been allowed to lessen the effects of covert operations, that have been directed at you with total disregard to your lives. (7)

Matthew: Relative to dark thought forms, those of antiquity were attracted by those in the planning of "9/11," and the force of that combined energy enabled the Illuminati to manifest that tragic day. That is when Earth chose never again to experience such death and destruction at the hands of dark ones, and in honoring her free will choice, God authorized off-planet helpers to use their technology to prevent all such unconscionable attempts anywhere in the world. Since then they have done so successfully on as many as a dozen occasions. (8)

Matthew: God has authorized extraterrestrial intervention to prevent all such [dark] attempts..., including the neutralizing of manmade viruses that were intended to create pandemics. (9)

Matthew: However ... the crews cannot interfere with Earth residents' free will decisions to be suicide-bombers or halt troops from obeying commanders' orders - those kinds of activities will end naturally as the higher vibrations touch people's hearts or physical death results from lack of light in the bodies. (10)

Hatonn: We have been given leave by God to use stronger methods wherever necessary to dismantle the Illuminati's remaining power bases. This does NOT mean killing anyone - God never sanctions killing, nor would we ever want to do that!

For quite some time we have been permitted to override the dark ones' free will by blocking their powerful weaponry when they attempt more events like "9/11," and we have done that on numerous occasions. Now we also can foil their efforts to create major disruptions by blocking their communication systems and transportation modes and by diverting their intelligence couriers.

We also have God's permission to temporarily relocate a few key individuals to areas where they can do no mischief whatsoever. This is done somewhat like the cloaking of our ships in an invisible force field, which makes the disappearance baffling to those individuals' co-workers too. So, even though you won't see evidence of our new allowances, you know that now we're taking even longer strides to help you rid your world of dark deeds. (11)

SaLuSa: We closely follow their activities and intentions. We have already prevented an escalation of the troubles in the Middle East, and major incidents calculated to increase the fear of terrorism. We also stopped their plan to create reasons to impose martial law, and step up their degree of control over the people. We have kept the dark Ones occupied with their own problems, and strengthened the position of our allies. (12)

SaLuSa: You have had to deal with several major incidents in this century already. Each one such as 9/11 was meant to induce fear, based on false claims that you were under a terrorist attack. Consequently the reasons were found to exercise even greater controls over you than any previous occasion. (13)

Because so many people are normally involved in carrying out covert actions, it is difficult to get to the truth. However, the longer time passes ... the [more] facts relating to 9/11 are coming out and they are irrefutable. The involvement of officials in high places is being revealed, and no amount of excuses will release them from their responsibility for what happened. (14)

Matthew: By Earth's request, ET assistance has been underway for more than six decades since the planet started ascending out of her death throes. By Creator's decree, ETs have used their technology to prevent nuclear detonations in space and, in aid of God's honoring Earth's free will that there be no more terrorist acts on the scale of "9/11," they have prevented numerous similar attempts.

However, other than these instances, the free will of the "dark cabal" must be respected in accordance with the cosmic law, and that is why they still are causing all sorts of mayhem, oppression, death and destruction. Those conditions will not continue much longer. The higher frequencies will end the physical lives of the people who are causing those conditions, the people who knowingly and deliberately refuse the light that would heal their fearful spirits and permit their survival in the higher densities where your planet is heading.

And it is because of the massive light-beaming by numerous other civilizations that Earth is sufficiently rejuvenated to make this journey. So you see, there has been almost incalculable ET response! Your personal invitations to them for assistance are for your own survival and that of other humans. Earth's animal and plant life automatically will go along with the planet and as she ascends, the animal kingdom once again will become peaceable. (15)

Can you explain in more detail God's interdiction of major false-flag events please?

Matthew: Creator established the cosmic laws and God, by whatever name one calls the Supreme Being of this universe, must honor those laws in this universe. A few years ago in your linear time, Creator "broke" Its own law of free will by decreeing that there would be no more nuclear detonations in space.

In honoring that decree in this universe, God correspondingly "broke" the law of free will by denying that to souls who have attempted such detonations. He has done so by permitting civilizations to use their technology to prevent the success of those attempts, and, since Creator issued Its decree, those civilizations have acted to fulfill God's authorization throughout this universe.

In all other instances, God is bound to honor Creator's law of free will. Therefore, in a subsequent issue affecting Earth, it may appear that not only is He "breaking" that law, but in addition He is "breaking" His own law of noninterference, or nonintervention, which is that no civilization may enter into any other civilization's affairs without request.

He did so by denying the free will of those who have tried to cause more devastation on the scale of 9/11, and again this is being accomplished through the efforts of higher civilizations. However, in so allowing this, God is honoring the free will choice of Earth, who is a sentient being, a soul with a planetary body, that no more deliberate destruction to that extent may befall her life forms. (16)

Will the mainstream media be successful in suppressing the truth?

Matthew: There have been attempts to stifle the truth since the dawn of communication on Gaia-Terra-Shan-Earth, and the attempts were successful when darkly-inclined ones controlled the dissemination of information. In modern times, they expected to broaden their web of control with the Internet, but instead, it became their undoing.

Now factual evidence that until recently was mainly restricted to that source is reaching the public through the perseverance of courageous investigative journalists, other reporters, eyewitnesses and individuals disclosing personal experiences. Not only is there increasing exposure of lies and corruption, but also innovative ways people are adapting to the economic situation are being publicized. The tearing down of mind control via the media has come about because of the ever-intensifying light. (17)

Atmos: The continued cover-up of events such as 9/11 is becoming harder for those involved and the pressure to re-examine the facts is mounting. You can be assured that in time the truth will be known and the perpetrators brought to justice. The people will demand a full enquiry and those who have previously rejected this request will be overruled.

There are many instances of covert operations over many years that go way back into your history that have been concealed. You would have had no way of knowing what was secretly taking place as such decisions are inevitably taken by those in high positions. Also in recent times your leaders have often been corrupted by the sheer power of the Illuminati. Their ways are for no one's benefit except their own, and they have a total disregard for human life. (18)

Mike Quinsey's Higher Self: The media is still largely in the control of those who support the dark Ones. But again there are changes being planned so that a truthful and reliable news service is available. Providing you are discerning for the time being your Internet is the best source of news, as it gives you a reliable update as to what is happening in the world. You tend to look at the West for your information and it is currently your best source. But as the truth is uncovered it will go worldwide, and ultimately all souls will become aware. (19)

SaLuSa: You may have noticed you are now in a time when disclosures about the conspiracies that have held you down, are coming out thick and fast. This is another aspect of the power of the higher energies that are being grounded upon Earth.

They are not just opening people's eyes to the truth, but empowering their Light so that they are no longer afraid to speak. It has a snowball effect and once it is underway, there will be an avalanche of revelations as others gain confidence to come forward.

You have a most apt statement that ‘the truth shall set you free’ and that process is gaining momentum. It is an energy that you can feel and intuitively know that you can accept it. (20)

What will happen to the perpetrators?

SaLuSa: All of those involved in the conspiracy will be exposed, and they will answer for their crimes against Humanity. In the greater scheme of things, every soul will face every action that has led to the injury or death of another soul. We do not wish to dwell on 9/11 as the truth of what happened on that fatal day is becoming public knowledge.

It has not achieved the results that the dark Ones desired, but as a result it has brought about a new set of tough security laws. All of these contrived situations are simply to exercise stricter controls over your freedom of movement. (21)

SaLuSa; The massive loss of life involved weighs heavily upon the souls who brought them about, and they will yet experience [on the Astral Planes] the pain and distress they caused. It is the same for all souls when they face themselves in the Light of Truth, and there can be no denying the result of their actions. (22)

When Will It End?

Is President Trump exposing the illuminati?

Matthew Ward: Behind the scenes Mr. Trump is working with other influential individuals to hold the Illuminati accountable for their crimes against humanity.

Other aims include revealing the truth about 9/11 and the presence of other civilizations, ending impoverishment and destruction to the planet, and ushering in a peaceful world.

We are not discounting your unfavorable and understandable views of the US president. We are asking that you acknowledge the higher good he is serving, however unawares insofar as energy activity in the Middle East, and that you put his administration's distressing policies into the context of what we said shortly after the 2016 presidential election:

The election outcome doomed the Illuminati's plan to put one of their own back in the White House after eight years of having to fight a president who fought back to the extent he could.

Planetary vibrations will strengthen and advance only endeavors that best serve Earth and all her life forms; anything to the contrary cannot be long-lasting. (1)

When will all the violence and killing end?

Matthew: In recent years the intense competition between the two factions, which eroded the power of each, extended to infighting within each faction, thus further weakening all areas of control. With growing distrust of each other within and between the factions, numerous futile attempts to stage another "9/11," the loosening stranglehold on world economy, and defection of lower ranking members, the once solidly entrenched global foundation of the Illuminati now can be likened to scattered piles of rubble. (2)

Matthew: We tell you: There will be NO nuclear war! There will be no Third World War! At most there would be a very temporary clash of the military forces commanded by the two Illuminati factions - anything beyond that would fall within God's honoring Earth's free will choice that no more acts of death and destruction on the scale of "9/11" shall occur.

If that clash does take place, you will see troops on both sides refusing to fight in such numbers that further combat is doomed. They will see weapons failing to function, vehicles that won't move, missiles that fizzle - do not doubt that the technology of our space family can achieve this! - and even the Illuminati commanders will see the futility of continuing. (3)

Matthew: Terrorism on a smaller scale, while resulting in needless death, anguish and property destruction, is not under the same [interdiction] purview, and those acts are officially blamed on people who had no hand in them at all. While it is true that hatred is the motivation for the occasional "suicide bombing," it is far more often true that menial puppets of the dark masters are performing in accordance with mind-programmed signals. (4)

Matthew: Other than the non-allowance of those kinds of [mass, false-flag] events, very harsh times will continue as the energy plays out its momentum. And, Mother, it doesn't matter who occupies the Oval Office - this same situation would exist because both Illuminati factions have the same intention, to control your world. Their strategies differ, but the agenda is the same, and that agenda is to conquer other countries through fomenting civil wars, economic enslavement or outright invasion. (5)

Matthew: The truth about who planned and executed "9/11" in the higher vibrations in which Earth is now orbiting, ... cannot be hidden much longer; when it emerges along with its even deeper purpose than controlling oil resources in the Mideast, which is to dominate the entire planet and kill or enslave its peoples, the Illuminati's long reign of terror will meet its just end. (6)

Matthew: There will not be another 9/11 effort.... It's not that there are no plans afoot for that kind of disruptive event, but no effort of that magnitude will be permitted to be successful by means of your space brothers' technology. (7)

Matthew: Even though incidents like that and others of violent nature are the focus of your mainstream media, we see Earth's ascension right on target and your space family's constant vigilance and ongoing assistance. We see the light in continually growing numbers of hearts and minds radiating like the brilliance of the high noon sun. (8)

Diane of Sirius: The truth of past events that have established a false terrorist threat, and self-imposed actions attributed to them, are becoming accepted worldwide. It is seen that opposition has resulted from such actions and that the Illuminati are the root cause of much worldwide conflict. The truth can no longer be hidden, and overwhelming evidence of their dark agenda to impose their rule upon you is openly acknowledged.

The Light of freedom must clear out the dark places that hide the covert operations that blight your Earth, and threaten your life. To this end we shall assist you, as the task is too much for you alone. You shall open Pandora's box, and reveal to the world the truth of how it has been manipulated and controlled by the dark forces. The separatism that has deliberately set one against the other will be seen for what it is and at last Humanity will be able to express its true fellowship with those who seek a peaceful co-existence. (9)

SaLuSa: More people than ever are learning how you have been tricked into the belief, that recent tragedies such as 9/11 are the work of outside forces. This is bringing about a great energetic push to bring the facts out into the open, and have the perpetrators face criminal charges. This energy like any other one reaches a certain point, when it becomes so powerful that nothing can prevent it from bringing about a response.

That point has been reached, and the facts which have been collected of various incidents are on the verge of becoming public. No crime against Humanity can be hidden forever, and the revelations will be part of the cleansing. (10)

SaLuSa: The day will come within your time when you will honor and trust those appointed to lead, and know that they are honest and true. (11)

What can we learn from all this?

SaLuSa: Learning of the manner in which you have been deliberately misled is important if you are to understand the intent of the dark Ones. They have acted not in your name but for their own greed and desire for power over you. You have been deceived time and time over, and wars have been engineered for the same reasons. (12)

SaLuSa through Tyco Mars: We do not encourage you to fall into lower vibrations such as fear or hate towards those responsible for 9/11.

We do however encourage you to feel compassion for them. Some of them are also slowly waking up to reality of their actions while they were controlled by dark entities and the cabal's mind control techniques.

Those awakening will need your support and your light in order to forgive themselves and heal their wounds. Those at the top of the pyramid, who controlled people and have kept them under dark influence will have to answer for their actions sooner or later in their evolution and there will be proportional karmic consequences for all nevertheless. Appendix One. A Message from the 9/11 Victims through Matthew Ward

(Matthew's Message, Dec. 17, 2009, reproducing message from September 16, 2001.)

Suzy: Matthew, I just heard from Kalama that a representative of the people who perished in the towers told her they gave you a message. If you have something, I'm sure Jean and Michael will send it out.

MATTHEW: Yes, Mother, I have their message, and I have been asked to speak on behalf of the Council of Nirvana and all other souls in this realm and beyond. We weep. We see the larger picture, but still we weep. Who could not do that in these days of agonizing shock and sorrow?

We urge all souls to feel love, compassion and peace and hold these emotions in your heart - in a moment, your beloved family and friends who so recently came here will speak of this in their own words.

Every one of them is being tended most lovingly, with gentleness and understanding. Many recognize these familiar surroundings from other spirit lifetimes and remember that they knew this was to happen and agreed at soul level to participate.

But they, as we, know this cannot comfort the people who love them.

The dark minds behind this seemingly inexplicable agony claim that war will be "justice for those who died." But the war is intended to create even greater negativity in an attempt to extinguish all light on the planet. The perpetrators want you to feel fear and hatred and demand "justice" because they know that only by continuing their cycle of violence can they keep their pernicious hold in this critical time of souls choosing between the light and the darkness.

Choose you must, and choose the LIGHT you must!

What happened is not a nation against another nation. It is not even a tiny faction of humankind against all other humankind. The root of this madness is a malignant power that most of you don't know exists, but its intentions are so malevolent that Earth herself is weeping. This truth will be revealed in time, but for now, please hold only healing love in your hearts for all life.

Let the god self in each of you sustain your light so your conscious self won't align with the darkness that wants retaliation, revenge, hatred, more cold-hearted killing.

Let the thousands of lives that left Earth in those fiery moments stand for something besides what the dark ones want. As a collective voice, these recently departed souls are saying:

"Let no more lives be taken. This is the time to keep love above all, for compassion, for bringing healing to the bereaved and injured, for bringing healing to Earth.

Please know that the hearts that are hardened into wanting to kill others as their tribute to us, they need light above all. We petition you from the whole of this realm of Heaven to speak of love, of opening eyes to seeing clearly what is happening on Earth, and rising above the tragedy that has been perpetrated by a darkness you cannot even imagine, where your entire world is expendable.

We see this from here. We need you to help the myriad light workers by uplifting your hearts and allowing light to come in, by comforting those in fresh sorrow. You must hear our plea. We are working in the light to assist you, and we are forever bonded with you in love."
