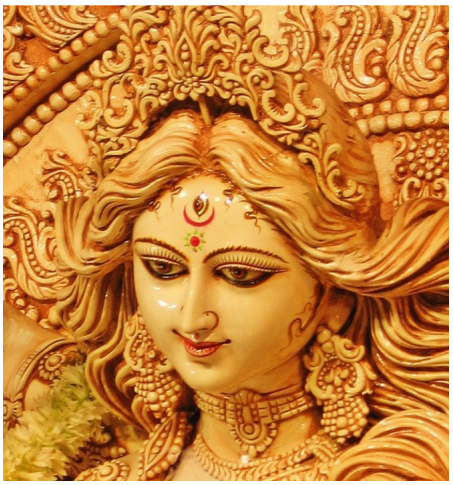
Divine Mother



I have called you. I have called very specifically each and every one of you, and you have heeded my call…whether it has been clarion or a whisper…and you have turned to me and you have said, 'Yes!'

Yes, certainly you are my brave hearts, my champions of change. But dearest heart, you are the heroes, you are the ambassadors, you are the emissaries. I have called you from many sectors; from governance and communication, from nurturing and healing, channeling.

I am bringing you together, I have already brought you together in this sacred circle for the transformation of Gaia, for the transformation of what it means to be Gaian, and for the fulfillment of My Plan…in gentleness, in sweetness, in kindness, not in violence or upheaval. ("The Divine Mother ~ I Have Called You," channeled by Linda Dillon, July 15, 2019, at httpss://colacademy.invisionzone.com/topic/2025-the-divine-mother-~-i-have-called-you/.)

Archangel Michael

Archangel Michael: Does the conversation expand organically and naturally? Does the energy go out to the entire planet, those who want to hear and those who don't want to hear? Yes, it does. But it begins with the lightworker community. That is what we have need of.

Steve Beckow: And I suppose then more and more people join the lightworker community?

AAM: Exactly, until it is one family and one path. ("Archangel Michael: A Global Reset of Values, Part 2/2," channeled by Linda Dillon, September 16, 2013, at http://goldenageofgaia.com/2013/09/archangel-michael-a-global-reset-of-values-part-22/.)

At this interception moment of ascension and shift, all present upon the planet, from what has been judged as the most egregious to the most saintly, are angelics. ("All on Earth are Angels," September 26, 2020, at https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/09/26/all-on-earth-are-angels/.)

Werner Erhard

Werner Erhard, Graduate Review, February 1980, at https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/12/28/we-can-choose-to-be-audacious-2/

We can choose to be audacious enough to take responsibility for the entire human family. We can choose to make our love for the world be what our lives are really about.

Each of us now has the opportunity, the privilege, to make a difference in creating a world that works for all of us. It will require courage, audacity, and heart. It is much more radical than a revolution – it is the beginning of a transformation in the quality of life on our planet.

(The phrase "a world that works for everyone" originated with Werner.)

Introduction

The articles you see reproduced in these three volumes are philosophical in nature and concern notions like spiritual currency, stewardship of the Mother's gift, financial wayshowing, building Nova Earth, collective will, etc. (1)

Those of us who've chosen to be financial wayshowers are here because we're prepared to make financial decisions that will benefit the whole of humanity.

We're here because we chose to base our behavior in love and we've just been appointed financial custodians to put love into practice.

The virtues we honor are not the Social-Darwinist set of steely nerve, taste for blood, and desire to have it all. (2) They're the divine qualities of global responsibility, universal compassion, and selfless service. (3)

By agreeing to serve as financial wayshowers, we've also agreed to take as our standard of behavior impeccability. Tall order? It's the only thing that will call us forth, have us stand on our own two feet, and make the necessary changes in our social structure and process that will build a world that works.

Archangel Michael once said that it wasn't that lightworkers would gradually fall away and we who were lightworkers would now need to enter the wider society.

He said that a time would come when all people would be lightworkers. (4)

So we're on track in asking everyone to join us, to join this ever-widening circle of lightworkers as we accept responsibililty for a large portion of abundance and its dispersal to those in need and to projects that will offer relief and comfort to the planet as a whole.

We're building Nova Earth, a world that works for everyone. None of this has been done before.

Where can we find the path to follow? Where does the path begin? Where does it lead? It starts with the trailing edge of our leading foot. (4) We create the path with each step we take. It goes wherever we go and leads to wherever we choose to have it lead.

I cannot work on a book like this without acknowledging my immense debt to Linda Dillon, channel for the Council of Love, whose work forms the greatest part of the raw resources for these essays.

And I can't thank Suzi Maresca, Karen Hoffman, Sitara Williamson, Kathleen Mary Willis, and Catherine Viel of the Golden Age of Gaia enough for keeping this ship on course and under sail.

Nor can I overlook all the support I've gotten from Sara Alexander, Len Satov, and Paul, Fran, and Tasha Beckow.

In a world that Werner Erhard said long ago could be unfriendly to transformation, you've kept up my spirits when they've flagged during this long journey.

Archangel Michael: Message to Lightworkers

January 9, 2017 / Reposted from July 2016

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/01/09/archangel-michael-message-lightworkers-repost/

Archangel Michael began our reading on July 22, 2016, with this message.

It's timely to repost, as we lash ourselves to the mast before sailing into stormy waters.

Message to Lightworkers, July 22, 2016

Yes, you are stepping forward, quietly, unobtrusively but in the clarity of One, into your warrior self. And it is a time for this clarity of the warrior to be very present, not only in you, my beloved brother, but in many.

Yes, you and the channel have discussed how this is looking and feeling like at the moment. The Mother's penetration of her legions continues. There is no room for that which is not honourable, of truth, of kindness, and of consideration.

This separation in what has been called the Lightworker/Loveholder community needs to cease. You are too few. Yes, you are mighty. Yes, you bring forth clarity.

And you have claimed the freedom to step forward, sometimes as participants, sometimes as creators, and sometimes as observers. And of course all of those three roles are exactly the same. And then while we're at it let's throw in stewardship and leadership, and being way-showers.

You have toiled. You have been persistent. You have been patient. You have been forthright.

You have steadied each other upon this path of righteousness, of discovery, of adventure, of doing upon this planet of Gaia what has never been done before.

While you are mighty, while you are committed, this separation between pathways needs to be healed. I am not talking about individual situations necessarily.

While there is always room, and it is part of the glory of freedom, for different perspectives, opinions, understandings, pathways, adventures, expressions, there is only one truth. Many expressions, many ways of reaching homeward but there is only one truth.

The fiber, the substance, the essence of that truth is the Mother. Now you know that and what it is, in its very essence, is love. It is from love, this energy, that all is created.

So when there are these separations between lightworkers that are not of love and not the expression or experience of love, then what you are doing is practicing self-defeating behavior and actions that only diminish you being in clear partnership, not only with us, but with each other.

You are our partners, our boots on the ground. You are the fulfillment of the Mother's dream and the Mother's promise. That can never be achieved by backbiting or nay-saying or trying in any way to diminish the work of one another.

So yes, dear Steve, I am using you and this time to speak out and to call out to all lightworkers to unite in heart. Each of you has a very unique pathway, a very unique mission and purpose.

So for example, there are many communicators. Each of you has a different expression and way of getting at it. There are many healers. Each of you has a different way of going about it.

The point is, is at the start, the middle, and the finish, the way in which your mission is conducted must be of integrity and love. It must be that quest and that anchoring of peace and truth. That is Nova Being and Nova Earth.

There is room for variation within but that is the foundation and the roof. How you decorate the house is up to you. But it must be decorated in beauty, in wonder, in awe, in humility and in kindness.

So I call to all of you, to unite in purpose not only to passively receive the energies the Mother and her legions are sending you, but as one force (and I do not mean of violence), one mighty wave declaring and living, passively and actively, this truth of love.

You are the wayshowers. You are the pathfinders. You are the pillars and the portals and everything in between. When you stand in that role, when you sit or fly in that role, you are fulfilling your mission and purpose.

You are fulfilling your plan within the Mother's plan. But when you deviate from this ... and I exclude from this the clearing of core issues, which can lead you down some rabbit holes....

Let us be clear, you all proceed together as one family of Gaia, as one circle.

Repeatedly we have said there is no hierarchy. You, like us, are all servants of the One. There is no pecking order. It is in equality and unity of heart and love that we proceed together.

So I ask you, I beg you, to remember this. Examine where you are standing, sitting, lying and, if you have veered, if you have detoured, come back to your heart where the truth reigns.

It does not need, in any way shape or form, to be public pronouncements but within your heart, course correct and begin again.

What is a Lightworker?

July 23, 2018

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2018/07/23/what-is-a-lightworker-3/

I was recently asked to say what a lightworker is.

I'm happy to oblige.

A writer said recently: "The term ‘lightworker’ is synonymous with ‘spiritual seeker.’" (1)

In my view? Not precisely. Lightworkers are not so much about seeking as they are about serving. The "worker" in "lightworker" points to service.

Service to what? Service to the Light, God, the Divine Mother, Gaia and her animal and human inhabitants.

Readers here will certainly have heard the Company of Heaven tell us that we made agreements prior to birth that we would serve the Divine Mother's Plan for us and Gaia. That Plan in a word is Ascension.

How do we know what our exact agreement is? Very simple. Notice what you love to do. (For me it's writing.)

Notice where your bliss is. Notice what you can't stay away from doing and do as soon as you return home. Or at the local coffee shop. Or on the bus. What you love to do is almost certainly a part of your mission.

Ascension itself has phases and different lightworkers may serve in different phases.

Those are Ascension itself, Abundance, Accountability, and Disclosure. They overlap as they're doing right now. Disclosure is expected in the near future. That overlaps with Abundance (the Reval), which overlaps with Accountability.

Regarding Ascension, some lightworkers are assisting people to make the gradual consciousness shift that's occurring right now.

They're also assisting people for whom the higher energies are flushing up core issues. They help them work through and be free of whatever surfaces; spiritual first aid and triage, so to speak.

Regarding Abundance, other lightworkers have agreed to be financial stewards and conduits for the Divine Mother, handling large sums of money from various sources without being seduced by it and using them fairly and honestly to benefit the planet and its inhabitants.

Regarding Accountability, other lightworkers are standing up to the cabal, saying “Enough!" exposing their crimes - right and left, Democrat and Republican - and serving in various capacities to "drain the swamp."

Regarding Disclosure, lightworkers are preparing to serve as Earth's ambassadors to our star family and partners in the many programs the galactics will sponsor to rebuild the planet and rid it of our pollution.

This blog had its beginnings as a site dedicated to exposing the post-9/11 crimes of the Illuminati. (2) After I met Archangel Michael via a personal reading with Linda Dillon in January 2011, it became about building Nova Earth.

I notice myself returning to the theme of building Nova Earth again and again, as if I even like the sound of the words. It colors everything.

Contrasted with the vision of Nova Earth, other habits and distractions no longer hold my attention. This change, this attractive power of the idea is again a sign that participating in the collective action of building a new world is part of my mission.

As a financial steward, my service is along the path of humanitarian philanthropy.

The object of our philanthropy, writ large, I think, is (A) to fuel a revolution in compassion towards the less fortunate on the planet and (B) to make of the desert a watered plain - that is, to return the planet to its state of original purity, which some call the Garden of Eden.

The service that lightworkers perform is a spiritual path to God in and of itself. Hindus call it, seva or service and karma yoga. (3)

The lightworkers here to help Gaia and her inhabitants ascend have already ascended in another lifetime, according to the Company of Heaven.

Lightworkers are angels, archangels, seraphim, ascended masters, Biblical prophets, medieval kings and queens, etc., all from higher dimensions.

We donned the blindfold in this particular existence so that, as Michael said to me, the CoH can keep our feet on the ground. If we realized who we are too soon, I'm told, we'd in all likelihood pack up and return home.

When the job's done, my understanding is that lightworkers will indeed have the choice to stay or return home to their native dimensions - or beyond those dimensions. (4)

We're waiters at the banquet of Ascension. We have oil in our lamps and we're safely inside the wedding hall.

And we're serving the great mass of people who've gathered to partake of the feast. Their wedding approaches.

Our feast, our reward comes later.

The Essence of Our Work

November 11, 2012

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2012/11/11/the-essence-of-our-work-2/

Everyone who's here - galactics, celestials, ascended masters, starseeds, walk-ins, etc. - is here to help people to ascend.

Atmos of Sirius tells us that this resolve is at the center of the Divine Plan: "It was and still is the Divine Plan to help as many souls as possible to move back into the higher dimensions through Ascension." (1)

SaLuSa expresses the common resolve: "We wish as many of you as possible to find your way home." (2) And he adds: "Our presence and that of the many other Beings from Higher dimensions are here to ensure that the end times fulfill everyone’s promise." (3)

No matter on what dimension a person exists, a dimension higher, a dimension closer to God's essence (since all is God anyways), a dimension farther along on the return to God is more pleasant and satisfying to exist in than a dimension farther away. If the intention of the Plan is to foster a return to God, then it would make sense that life be designed that way.

Only on the Third Dimension, as far as I'm aware, does physical harm exist. Rape, wounding, pandemics, (4) torture, and murder all exist on the Third Dimension and nowhere else. With the exception of the lower subplanes of the Astral Planes, which are inextricably connected with the physical plane of 3D, nowhere else are there inclement conditions, deprivation, hunger, homelessness, or any other form of suffering.

These cannot exist on the higher planes, as Matthew Ward implies.

> "As Earth continues apace into successively higher planes, nothing with low vibrations in any form—physical bodies, subversive plans, theft, dishonesty, unjust laws and imprisonment, bigotry, cruel customs and deeds—can survive." (5)

Ascension to the Fifth Dimension is a release from all forms of suffering. And everyone here now is here to see that people who don't know what Ascension is are made aware of it and rendered able to make an informed choice to ascend if becoming aware can make that difference.

So we can see that all our efforts as lightworkers have a common goal and that's to spread the word about Ascension and help as many people as possible make the choice to come with us back to the higher dimensions from which we came.

And many will not. Why would they choose not to ascend?

Matthew tells us: "Many whose religious or scientific beliefs are the foundation of their lives will choose to depart rather than accept the forthcoming truths that differ profoundly from what they were taught." (6) Of the religious, he explains:

> "A large number of people who have lived in godly ways will choose not to ascend with Earth after the truth about the origin of religions emerges: They [religions] were designed in darkness to deceive and control the peoples, by the most divisive element of life on Earth, and reap wealth for the heads of churches.
> "Although everyone on Earth knows that truth at soul level and it is a contract choice to consciously remember it, many of the devoutly religious will be unable or unwilling to accept that their deep-seated faith is founded on false teachings.

> "By so doing, these individuals deny the light within truth, that they are god and goddess selves, eternally inseparable from God and all other souls in this universe. Their next pre-birth contract will again include the provision to become consciously aware of that truth during their next physical lifetime, which will be in a third-density world." (7)

Many scientific people "have doubts," Saul tells us, "even deep skepticism at times, ... because up till now their life experiences had led them to ridicule such apparently unscientific, airy-fairy nonsense for which they can ascertain absolutely no discernible factual evidence." (8)

These two groups will be the most resistant, Matthew tells us:

> "Individuals whose rigid beliefs are founded on false religious dogma and flawed science will be the most resistant—their beliefs are the very foundation of their lives or their livelihoods.
> "And when the facts about '9/11' and the reasons for wars in Afghanistan and Iran—ALL wars!—are revealed, families and friends of all who died may be disbelievers because knowing why their loved ones died could be overwhelming. All of these people need compassion and understanding—they will be able to accept the truth after they transition to Nirvana." (9)

SaLuSa tells us how some people of a darker persuasion will respond.

> "Those who are not of the Light but lean towards the dark side are in fear as they see the world falling apart, unlike you of the Light who have everything to look forward to. They are likely to drop further into the mire, seeking solace in drink and drugs.
> "Hopefully when the truth about us and the coming Ascension is known, many can be encouraged to look to the Light for a path back to normality. They may not do enough to sufficiently raise their vibrations to ascend, but any progress made now will be of value when they start their next cycle." (10)

And there are other groups. These people are those that all the groups here have come to help to "see the Light," so to speak. So our entire mission can be seen to be to help those who are in jeopardy of not ascending, to see that as many as possible ascend.

In early 2010, SaLuSa told us that "at present there are less than half of you that are consciously making changes in your lives to [ascend]." (11) So we have much work to do. But as a result of all the work we do, "not one soul," SaLuSa tells us, "will leave this Earth without having understood the opportunity of ascending." (12)

Once many have chosen not to ascend, that choice will not be faulted by the higher-dimensional beings. "Do not mourn them," the Arcturian Group recommends. (13)

Our lightwork from now till the end of the year isn't to badger the undecided or those who choose not to ascend, make them feel guilty, or force them to choose otherwise. That will never work and is not the way of the ascended anyways.

"Some will continue to have little or no interest, having made their decision to have further experience in the 3rd. dimension," SaLuSa says. "Allow for such souls ... to follow their own path." (14) He continues:

> "It matters little whether you ascend or not, inasmuch that all souls will continue to make progress. All happens in its own good time, and you have no need to feel pressurized to do other than what you personally desire. You have an infinite amount of time to make your way back through the higher dimensions, and at all times help will always be there for the asking." (15)

The higher-dimensional beings will see to the welfare of the non-ascenders along with the rest. SaLuSa tells us: "Provisions will be made for all souls and they will eventually find themselves progressing to the correct level. ... Not one soul will be neglected, as all have their place in the Universe." (16)

So that is a statement of our work at essence - to lay before the resistant and the ignorant the advantages and benefits of Ascension and then to allow them to make their choice, without faulting them if they choose not to ascend and assisting both groups to then go on their way.

We Can Choose to Be Audacious….

August 8, 2016

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2021/12/28/we-can-choose-to-be-audacious-2/

I remember when I first heard Werner Erhard say these words. I was moved to tears.

> "We can choose to be audacious enough to take responsibility for the entire human family. We can choose to make our love for the world be what our lives are really about.]
> "Each of us now has the opportunity, the privilege, to make a difference in creating a world that works for all of us. It will require courage, audacity, and heart.
> "It is much more radical than a revolution – it is the beginning of a transformation in the quality of life on our planet. You have the power to fire the shot heard 'round the world.'" (1)

At that time I had no idea that I was a starseed and I wouldn't have called myself a lightworker. The drive was there, the commitment, the yearning. But I knew nothing then of what I do now.

Archangel Michael said to me in a personal reading on Oct. 2, "You've been talking to me all your life. Do you know that?" No, I did not. Since he's saved my life on four occasions, (2) I'm not at all surprised to hear that.

He also told me that Werner is active in the world today and operates interdimensionally.

It was Werner who popularized the phrase "making a difference." Many of his phrases have entered our common vocabulary and affected the way we see things today. Getting it, getting off it, getting conscious, at cause, at effect, above the line, what you resist persists, conscious awareness, Everything/Nothing – a lot of what he said shaped my way of thinking at the time perhaps more than anyone else I can think of save, perhaps, Sri Ramakrishna.

And Werner and his work received the same disrespect that much of what we're doing today does. No different then.

But what he said in this paragraph burned itself into my memory. We can choose to be audacious enough to take responsibility for the entire human family. The entire human family….

Take responsibility for: see ourselves as cause in the matter and our input as crucial. My heavens, could I ever dream of such a thing? I can today.

We can choose to make our love for the world be what our lives are really about. Can we really? Can we be so big and live so boldly?

Each of us now has the opportunity, the privilege, to make a difference in creating a world that works for all of us. A world that works for all of us. Is such a thing possible? Yes, when viewed from Fifth Dimensionality, which is where I assume Werner was viewing things.

He saw that such a world could be and we're now bringing it into being. A world that works for everyone. A world that really works. We can do this. We will do this. This is an ascended world, as I've experienced it and know it to be.

It will require courage, audacity, and heart. Yes, it does require that and it requires it from us every day, day after day.

Elsewhere he said that yesterday's share (3) was now dead and only today's share lives. To share ourselves honestly and transparently requires audacity and courage, but what a difference it makes for us. How freeing it is.

And heart – yes. In a world that valued craftiness, strategy, looking out for number one and getting to personal success by climbing over everybody else, the willingness to love was downright dangerous and only the hardy and foolhardy risked it.

Werner in the late 1970s

I remember having a blowout transformational experience in a Communication Workshop and coming home glowing, only to have my girlfriend shout at me: "Stop that right now!" I swallowed my original face.

Werner would have said the world is hostile to transformation. Yes, we wanted to remain in our comfort zones and transformation was not comfortable.

He used to say that, if we wanted to remain in our comfort zone, he could oblige. He'd remove our internal organs and suspend us in tepid water. But if you wanted to live, to love, THAT was uncomfortable. THAT was dangerous.

It's much more radical than a revolution – it's the beginning of a transformation in the quality of life on our planet. Yes, not a violent overthrow of existing institutions but their transformation, just as Archangel Michael has said the chosen route of the Company of Heaven is.

Transformation isn't a mere shuffling of the deck, not simply moving our Scotty dogs around the Monopoly board. It isn't simply "change," which results in persistence of the present condition. (4)

Transformation is an alteration of the context in which things are held, which alters everything, not a mere repositioning of the content.

You have the power to fire the shot heard 'round the world.' The shot heard round the world – the declaration on our part that hunger would end in the world by the year 2000 (we were perhaps a generation premature.)

Werner always put a deadline on projects so that social action could be coordinated. We will have a man on the moon by the end of this decade: that was Werner's favorite example of how a deadline works. But boldly declaring what we were about was the shot heard round the world, an idea whose time has come.

And soon, because of the Reval, many lightworkers will find themselves uniquely in the position of having the resources to take the first steps into this new domain, the domain of coordinated, committed social action, firing the shot heard round the world. We CAN and WILL choose to be audacious enough to take responsibility for the whole world, not just the human family but all life on Earth.

I'm game for what comes next. I'm willing. I want a world that works for everyone and all my actions are aimed at achieving that world right now.

(3) A share is an expression of our personal truth, conveying that truth, an honest, transparent, and self-revealing communication.

(4) "Change" is superficial and allows for the same players and situations to survive, simply shuffled around the Monopoly board.

"Transformation" is a brief (or lasting) experience of what we'd now think of as higher dimensionality, including bliss, which element allows for realizations.

Will Lightworkers Miss the Boat?

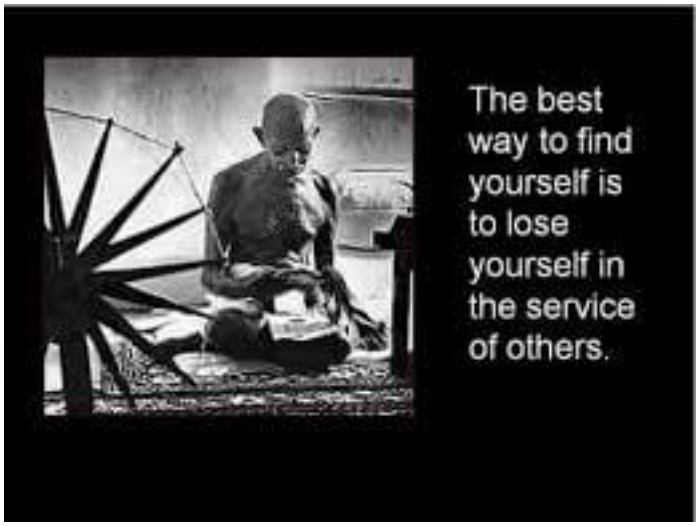
https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/03/03/will-lightworkers-miss-the-boat/



I had a recent discussion with a lightholder at a meet-up who wanted to know why we were discussing money matters (the Reval) at a spiritual gathering.

Why were we not talking about enlightenment and God and spirituality?

I wanted to expand on that discussion and clarify the matter.

A lightholder is one who puts enlightenment at the forefront of attention, turns within, and detaches from the worldly round of life to seek it. In Hinduism, the lightholder path is, I believe, called raja yoga.

A lightworker is one who serves the Divine Mother's Plan for the age, foregoing turning within to turn without and address the problems that exist in the world. In Hinduism, the lightworker's path is called karma yoga (the yoga of action) and seva (service).

Do we miss the spiritual boat by turning towards the world? No, we don't. The path of seva, of karma yoga is a path to God. Lightworkers are activists, servants, and stewards; lightholders are contemplatives, saints, and sages.

Spirituality is additive; it isn't "either/or." A lightworker can be a lightholder and vice versa. But saying one is a "lightworker" is a way of saying that one's first and overarching commitment is service to the Divine Mother by serving the well-being of the world.

Lightworkers won't lose out on enlightenment. You can see that I've experienced transformative love, bliss, ecstacy and exaltation, all in the past year. Never in my years as a lightholder have I ever been so rewarded.

And I'm so busy that I don't have a lot of time for meditation. So much for the thought that a busy (occupied) mind cannot advance in spirituality. These outcomes demonstrate that a lightworker won't lose out on the benefits of spirituality.

You and I have ascended in other lifetimes or we wouldn't be here. If we hadn't ascended, all of us would be burning with a desire for Ascension. We'd be so focused on our own spiritual practice that we'd have no time for service.

Moreover, under those circumstances, to hear from our guides, as I have, that we can visit the higher states but we can't stay there would be a terrible blow, a grievous disappointment. But knowing what our soul contract is, our role and mission, and knowing that we return to our realms when the task is over allows us (OK, me) to accept the circumstances of our mission.

When I look at my life, there are all kinds of indications that I've been this route before - as have you. The ease with which I drop into meditation, the raft of spiritual experiences I had in the 70s and 80s, more recent truncated experiences that would have been full-blown enlightenment under ordinary circumstances, an intense interest in enlightenment - on and on the indications go.

And it's the same with you, I'm sure. Most lightworkers are angelic in origin (1) and angels are transcendental. That means we've come from beyond the twelve dimensions of human reality.

Here's what AAM said to me in 2011 on why I wear the blindfold, a statement which I believe includes you in its scope:

> "If you came with full capacity and meaning - yes, the vision, the hearing, the knowing, the full memory, the access, all of the above - and you were > to communicate to humans, to the collective, there would be a sense of separation. That is why you, as with so many, have been kept under cover." (2)

We've been asked to come and leaven the loaf. Or you could imagine that we came as waiters at the banquet of Ascension. The Divine Mother prepares the banquet and we serve the guests.

The lightholder at the meet-up was disconcerted by the discussion of the Reval. In his mind, we were being worldly, profit-driven. Well, of course we're not. I don't know anyone at that meeting who cares for money overly much, except as an instrument to end homelessness, develop new technologies, clean up pollution, etc.

We're excited at the service to humanity we can provide as a result of participating in the Reval.

Volunteering to be pipelines for the outflow of the Mother's wealth entails a great deal of sacrifice. I'm a monk by persuasion and handling money is a hugely-confronting thing for me. My memory is Teflon-coated these days. I forget something five minutes after I hear it and I'm going to be handling money? Give me a break.

I met with my bank manager today and was totally blissed out. I leaked information I probably should not have and acted like a person who was stoned. But I can no longer suppress the bliss. I've resolved to have a colleague come along with me if it ever happens again that I'm that deeply in bliss.

Sometimes I'm so deeply in bliss that I can't walk. I certainly can't do complicated tasks at times like that.

But I'm trusting that it'll all work out. And the celestials have assured us it will. Here's Archangel Michael for instance:

> Archangel Michael: Not that we will allow you to go wrong – let us be very clear. This plan has been in unfoldment for far too long for money to simply be washed down the drain by decisions that are not beneficial either for yourself or for others and for those who will benefit from the abundance programs, plural. (3)

All the anxiety and caution will certainly be worth it if it results in financing some of the activities that help build Nova Earth.

Lightworkers serve the Divine Mother. And her mandate for us is to build a new Earth. Masters like Jesus, Sanat Kumara, Maitreya, the new Buddha (Ranjit), etc., are the lamplighters of this age. What they'll reveal about the nature of Reality will turn us and our world upside down.

Will I drink their words in? You bet. I can't wait. But then I'll go back to that part of my mission that's concerned with building Nova Earth.

What Makes This Ascension Monumental?

Aug. 13, 2022

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/08/13/what-makes-this-ascension-monumental/

The significance of this Ascension is something that has to be appreciated and I keep getting more about it in little pieces.

Why was Sanat Kumara elevated from planetary logos (or planetary head) to universal logos?

Was this Earth mission so important that they've asked him now to supervise the ascension of the entire universe along the lines set out in our mass/physical Ascension?

Is his mission to have the universe join us in the brand new space we're creating? (1)

Is there a clue in something Archangel Michael said to me some years ago?

> Steve: The next assignment is in the Seventh Dimension?
> Archangel Michael: You will have a choice of planetary systems. This is just the warm-up for [that] Ascension. It is to bring a further rising of vibrations to those throughout the Universe. (2)

Just a warm-up? This warm-up might occur 200 years from now, based on this comment:

> Archangel Michael: When you complete this mission, you are allowed to have 200 years off. But what you do with that is up to you, dear one! (3) (My emphasis.)

Is that the Ascension that Sanat Kumara has been elevated to oversee?

Notice that higher dimensions are also ascending. Whole dimensions. Throughout the universe. Again its scope boggles the mind.

We're the prototype for a whole new level and kind of spiritual movement, in the soul's journey from God back to God again. The Mother also said she was birthing a whole new species. (4) She exclaimed on An Hour with an Angel:

> "This is unique. It is a new creation. Can you imagine, my son, in all this expanse, that this is new?" (5)

The space is new. The rules have changed. And everyone, at some point in the future, will "join" us. (6)

Earth is the prototype. Earth is the template. It's the great leap into the unknown.

Like a baby taking its first steps, we're held up by our Mother. And by millions of star beings surrounding the Earth in ships, celestials, spirit guides, everyone from the spirit side of life, to ensure that this event happens. All are here to create this new space and this new form of Ascension.

If we keep in mind how historic our Ascension is, then we can hear the messages we've been given in a new light. The Divine Mother explains:

> The Divine Mother: This was part of the plan, the part that involved you and this planet and the ripple effect out to the multiverse of your star brothers and sisters. Why do you think they wish to participate, to witness? This is highly unique. The humans are going to be transdimensional in form, after all this time. They are going to embody love and the Divine Qualities. It is worth having a look at. It is worth participating in. (7)

Multiverse? Not just the universe? More pieces of the puzzle.

"The humans" are going to be transdimensional in form?

Up till now, if you wanted to visit a higher dimension from the astral planes, you had to have a higher being take you in tow, and then only for a short visit. (8)

Add "transdimensional" to the elements that make this Ascension unique.

So physical, mass Ascension, into a brand new space with changed rules, resulting in transdimensional capabilities.

The more I hear about it, the more amazed I am at what we're participating in. This is beyond historic. It's monumental.

If I get 200 years off when my service contract is complete, then the universal Ascension must be 200 years plus from now. I imagine that, coming off vacation, there will be some time for preparing for that mission. There was apparently for this one. The Arcturians informed me: "You have had to learn to act human again, for you had not acted human for quite a while." Divine Mother Speaks to the Many Called to Assist with Ascension

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/04/18/divine-mother-speaks-to-the-many-called-to-assist-ascension/

You know, in terms of the evolution – and even what I might call 'revolution' – that the next step in the unfoldment is here upon Gaia…

This wonderful gem is lovingly shared by Irene from her personal reading with Linda Dillon.

Divine Mother Speaks To The Many Called To Assist Ascension

Greetings, I am Mary, I AM Mare [the Ocean of Love], Universal Mother, Divine Mother, Mother of Hope, Mother of Love, Mother of Action, and I welcome you …

Yes, you have come from the distant shores of a distant planet and you have travelled, sweet one, throughout the galaxies – yes, assisting me and assisting our beloved Archangel Mi-ka-el in the anchoring of peace, in the anchoring of love, in the anchoring of hope – and, in that, in the transformation of many, many, many planetary systems.

So, sweet daughter, [daughters and sons] you come to this galaxy – yes, you have visited it before – but you come because you fully understand and are prepared to not only integrate, but to live what Ascension is and what it looks like.

Yes, it is a process – but, sweet angel, it is a process that you have been engaged in not only in this lifetime but for thousands and thousands and thousands of years, both upon Gaia and elsewhere, because even though there are times when you think you do not know the details, when you think – yes, mental body – that you do not know the whys and wherefores, in fact you are fully conversant with Ascension, and you are fully conversant and fully engaged in the Ascension of your sweet self and this planetary, what we would call, collective.

No, I do not simply mean the human beings, for they are the 'tag-alongs' in many ways [chuckling] – delightful tag-alongs, children born of my heart, my soul, my essence. And you know the importance of what many are calling, and what I call Ascension, for it is a higher, broader realm of heart consciousness.

It is the anchoring and the integration of the Divine Qualities, and it is living within Universal Law and the Blessings & Virtues; the fulfilment of your dreams; acceptance and alignment with your Divine Authority and the embrace of that – the embrace that says you are ready, willing and able to do this. And it is why you have come. …

But you know, in terms of the evolution – and even what I might call 'revolution' – that the next step in the unfoldment is here upon Gaia – in all her magnificence, this sweet archangel child that is already firmly anchored in the 7th dimension – yes, holding the realm of all dimensional realities, allowing the humans particularly to venture into whatever dimensional reality they would choose.

But understand, yes, you have come for many reasons, but there are two primary ones: to assist me, not only in the hope of a collective Ascension, but in the actuality of an Ascension of this group called humans. And even before that, you have come again on my behalf – yes, working often with Gabrielle and Michael and the re-anchoring of hope – but inside that is the knowing, the knowingness that hope is based upon.

So yes, it engages with trust, but you have known – you have known your entire life and many, many lifetimes – that this will take place and that you are part and parcel of assisting the collective, the humans… well, what we can call the human collective… to go forth in this assumption of accepting the mantel of who they really are.

You may feel, dearest heart, that you have some blank spots, that you have some areas that you aren't entirely clear upon but let me suggest to you: your heart knows! It is not a matter of if you are going to ascend; you are already in the middle of this! And there are times when you act as a wayshower and there are times when you assume the position of gatekeeper, or even sometimes portal, sometimes even pillar, collecting the stragglers [chuckling] as it were!

The reason you feel that you are overweight – because in my eyes and in my heart you are perfect and you always have been – but you have found it particularly… and at times extraordinarily… difficult to remain grounded upon this planet. So this literally has acted for you as ballast to hold you down, to keep your feet quite literally on the ground.

There is also a part of you, sweet one, that is very suspicious, very wary, of the human race. Because, as I have said, you have seen the intergalactic wars; you have lived on other planets; you have seen the good, the bad, the ugly; and there is this part of you that has always wanted – despite what you think – to keep the human beings a little at bay. And so you have developed and held onto… regardless of what you eat or don't eat… you have developed these layers, literally, of physical protection.

Because you have also known – yes, both on Earth and elsewhere – that the appetites of humans particularly… well, at this phase, but at many phases… can be quite destructive and engage in abuse – the abuse of power, the abuse of control, the abuse of sex and intimacy. So you have kept them quite literally at bay.

This is not, by the way, at particular detriment to your health. So this is not something that I am saying to you that you need to be concerned about – yes, aware of most certainly – concerned about, no, not in the slightest.

You are not only angelic, sweet one, you are very much a Star Being and you have a tendency, when you are not off with Mi-ka-el, to access the healing chambers and the various methods of healing upon the ships at night. So, in the physical realm, that simply is not something we are concerned about.

You were fully aware, awake and aware, when you chose… with me and with your guides… you were fully aware of the challenges that this life would bring. You have never returned – and you have had over 3,000 incarnations on and off-planet – to any planet or situation without a full understanding of the reasons why you were coming, the dangers, the pitfalls – and the rewards!

Do not think, not for one moment, my beloved daughter, that you are not going to fully and completely integrate, anchor, participate in the Ascension – we are not talking hidden or unconscious – in the conscious Ascension process, in the conscious fullness of awakening, and that you will assist many… many, many, many… in this undertaking. It is probably one of the biggest reasons you are here, so do not even think that you have not sufficient time.

Ascension, the Reval, and Us

August 2, 2016

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/08/02/ascension-reval-us/

https://inteldinarchronicles. blogspot.ca/2016/08/steve-beckow-ascension-reval-and-us.html

I'm writing this synopsis of what we know about ascension and how the Reval fits into it for the specific use and guidance of currency holders.

We need to begin by setting the context. The context in which most of us have been operating for the last few centuries has been called empirical materialism.

Basically it holds that only what is seen, heard, touched, felt, and in other ways physically known is real.

But that leaves out most of the big players in the Reval, such as Archangel Michael, St. Germaine, Kwan Yin, the galactics, etc. It leaves out life after death, dimensionality, the soul, God ... everything that makes life worth living.

The cabal reinforcing empirical materialism through the use of ridicule and ostracism is perhaps the most obvious way in which we've been dumbed down.

The “guys in the rafters,” as Poof used to call them, occupy “spiritual realms” of varying dimensions - and beyond dimensions in the case of archangels. They're "the unseens," as they call themselves.

They work with the Divine Mother to orchestrate the Reval, the Disclosure of our star brothers and sisters, and ascension.

Who is the Divine Mother? Christians call the Divine Mother the Holy Spirit; Hindus, Shakti, Aum, and Prakriti (Latin: Procreatrix).

The Divine Mother is God in its aspect as Creator, Preserver and Transformer of worlds.

The Divine Mother is all sound, movement, light, etc. The Heavenly Father in contrast is stillness and silence. Both are completely love. We can only know and speak to the Divine Mother. The Father is a transcendent Void and does not speak.

This world that the Mother created was designed to go through cycles or ages. We’ve just left the Dark Age or Kali Yuga and entered the Golden Age or Sat Yuga.

The energy hitting the planet right now is causing an elevation in everyone’s frequency. When that elevation reaches a certain point, everyone willing and able will go through a consciousness shift. That's what we call ascension.

The consciousness shift itself is known to Earth’s terrestrial sages who call it “Sahaja Samadhi” and “Vijnana.”

“Sahaja” means “natural state.” “Samadhi” means a trancelike condition. Sahaja brings liberation from physical birth and death (mukti, moksha).

“Vijnana” means not simply jnana, wisdom, or Brahmajnana. It means perfected (vi) jnana, the jnana beyond jnana, which is Ascension or liberation from Third Dimensionality.

If you wish to see a person in the state we’ll be in, read anything by Sri Ramana Maharshi. Ramana had Sahaja.

To ascend in previous times, as Jesus or Buddha did, for example, was an individual affair and meant leaving the physical body first. We are the first generation, anywhere, to ascend en masse and retain the physical body.

We're re-attaining our natural state after years of living "separated" from it in this Third-Dimensional world where we've centered our consciousness until now.

Ascension is both gradual and sudden. The human body could not endure adjustment to the amount of energy required to cause ascension if we received that energy all at once. So we've been bathed in tsunamis of love for the past several years, to gradually bring us to the point where our bodies can survive the "shock" of ascension.

Archangel Michael has also pointed out that this generation of Gaians is all angelic, the better to withstand the shock of Ascension:

> Archangel Michael: The awareness, when you choose to acknowledge it, and the, shall we call it, the angelic abilities, are present in the human race, in the individual human form at this time, so that the leap into Nova Being is in fact not as great as it might have been in other ages. (1)

There are also times when we make a sudden jump together, times of what Archangel Michael has called "ignition." Ostensibly we arrive at the end of our journey in the Fifth Dimension but in actuality the journey is virtually endless.

Where does the Reval fit into this majestic plan?

The Reval is a transitional device. It's intended to "hydrate" society during the period between "now" and the arrival of NESARA (National Economic Security and Reformation Act). This paper would be too long if I discussed NESARA as well. Perhaps read about it here: "NESARA or the Abundance Program" at https://goldenageofgaia.com/financial-wayshowing-reval/

Suffice it to say that NESARA is a comprehensive program that sees to the needs of all citizens, mandates clean government, and eliminates all agencies, laws, and structures that kept the people in a prison planet.

In the period between now and NESARA, what we call "lightworkers," which are those folks who chose to incarnate at this time to help with ascension, have been given the privilege of receiving remarkable amounts of money and using it for the benefit and wellbeing of humanity.

We could have gone directly to NESARA, but isn't it a wonderful learning experience for lightworkers, who often have had little in their lifetimes, to suddenly be given the opportunity to take the lead in showing generosity and rebuilding the planet?

And does it not give rise to a group of terrestrial leaders who can treat later with our star brothers and sisters when they decide to uncloak their millions of invisible spaceships and make their benevolent presence known?

Lightworkers are taking the lead in building a New Earth, Nova Earth. It's up to us to hold some of our Reval earnings back for ourselves, hold some in reserve as a contingency and possible tax-payment fund, and then hydrate society with the rest.

In another article, I discuss the Six Point Plan that I'll be administering in as many countries as I can manage. (2)

No, I don't want or plan to benefit from any of this. I'm already a currency holder and have no need to benefit. Moreover, I'm a monk by proclivity and have no purchases I want to make. I'm in this for the benefit of humanity.

Now back to ascension. Surely you've felt yourself feeling happier and happier as the vibrations rise in frequency. Or you've found yourself suddenly gripped by strong issues, as the energies release all that cannot go with us. All these and more are ascension symptoms.

At some point we'll go through steps in which our vibrations collectively will rise. When we enter the higher dimension we're headed for (the Fifth-Seventh), we'll experience continual bliss, transformative love, a radical increase in knowledge, the end of disease, etc.

I've experienced longish periods of transformative love and bliss in the past year and a half [2015] and I can tell you nothing compares to them and, while in them, one wants nothing else and nothing more.

So I've had a glimpse of those levels of higher consciousness. Once one has tasted them, one works for nothing else thereafter.

To ascend, one must have (A) chosen to ascend and (B) assimilated enough light to induce the change in body from carbon-based to crystalline-based, allowing one to endure the higher-frequency environment.

That sounds like a lot but anyone who is simply a decent person will have assimilated that level of light and the choice to ascend is made more often at soul level than at the level of everyday consciousness.

Says Matthew Ward:

> "Even though all of you are there because your request to participate in this unprecedented time in the universe was honored and even if the longevity clause in your soul contract would permit you to physically go along with Earth, you need a "travel ticket." Getting it is as easy as choosing to live in godly ways and opening your minds to the universal truths as they emerge. … Your 'travel ticket' is the absorption of light that comes automatically with living [thus]." (3)

By the Law of Freewill, no one will be forced to ascend: hence the need to choose.

Even if you're hearing about ascension for the first time, chances are, if you're reading this, you ascended before entering the body this lifetime.

Relaxing on the matter serves two purposes. It helps you get through the wait. And it raises your vibrations and helps the ascension process.

A great deal more about ascension can be read here: "The Plan and Process of Ascension" at https://goldengaiadb.com/The_Plan_and_Process_of_Ascension

We have nothing but wonderful events awaiting us, as soon as we get through this time of chaos brought on by the rising vibrations. Let's hope it's as Matthew Ward suggests, the "storm before the calm." (4)

One, universal basic income covering all normal living expenses for every person living in that country, lesser for young children (under twelve). Everyone has their basic expenses in life covered and can choose to work on top of that.

Two, universal (free) medicare, pharmacare, and dental care. Public health of excellent standards available to all people living in that country, without distinction.

Three, universal accessibility to all levels of gender-equal education (K-Ph.D.) for all people living in that country.

Four, universal elder care, child care, and single-parent care.

Five, the elimination of personal debt.

Six, the elimination of the national debt. ("The Big Change – Part 1," May 8, 2020, at https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/05/08/the-big-change-part-1/.)

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/03/22/aam-synchronicity-among-reval-disclosure-and-ascension-part-12/

In this excerpt from my reading with him through Linda Dillon, on March 10, 2017, Archangel Michael looks at the tie-in between the Reval, Disclosure, and Ascension.

He reviews the range of response to be expected from lightworkers and their nearest colleagues.

Steve Beckow: Is there a temporal tie-in or synchronicity among the Reval, Disclosure, and Ascension?

Archangel Michael: Yes. … From the very beginning I have endeavored, as much as an Archangel can endeavor (I am playing with you), to emphasize that what you have called the Reval has been about spiritual revaluation. That vision I have needed, and will continue to need, to bring to everybody's attention, time and time and time again.

This is simply not about a temporal or a physical manifestation because one has committed to be a Lightworker. In fact the level of entitlement among many is appalling and I say that very strongly and very clearly.

It is not because you are the chosen people. It is because there is a need and an agreement and a soul agreement in the fulfilment of the Mother's Plan that when the spiritual re-evaluation of enough people, and the commitment to truly change, takes place, then the physical manifestation of those resources come forth.

As we have said in the past, we do not make funds available to create dictators or for buying weapons of mass destruction or war.

Steve: Or châteaus in the south of France.

AAM: That is correct. That would be an abomination of the Mother's Plan.

Now I am not talking about ease. In fact we have just spoken of the need for balance in every aspect of one's life. So I'm not suggesting to you that you are given resources so that you can work 24 /7 on a project, or what you previously thought of as your job or work.

Everything is an integrated whole and work and play and family and the entire list is of a whole. So humanity and those who are recipients of resources have need to be at a level of spiritual maturity to use these things wisely.

They are not just the recipients of a lottery. They are the guardians, the stewards of the practicalities to create institutions and societies that are kind and loving and, might I say, elevated; that are in alignment with the Mother's Love.

Now there are those that have no knowledge, no association, no belief system that is in alignment with what you feel, or believe is the Lightworker/ Loveholder community. That is not to say that they are not mission- and purpose-driven in the same way.

But their level of spiritual maturity in their pathways also has to be at a level where they can claim divine authority. Not to be the new cabal or illuminati or usurpers of power, but to create a balance upon this planet and, in our words, a world that works for everyone.

This delineation and even the opinions behind it, of have and have not, have need to be eradicated. So the level of maturity has need to be present.

And we suggest that you have done stellar work, and I mean you, the collective and the Lightworker community, have done stellar work in doing this. (1)

Tomorrow he looks at lightworker entitlement and arrogance and confirms that Disclosure will be a group event.

Archangel Michael: Synchronicity Among Reval, Disclosure and Ascension - Part 2/2

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/03/23/aam-synchronicity-among-reval-disclosure-and-ascension-part-22/

(Concluded from Part 1, yesterday.)

In this excerpt from a personal reading with him through Linda Dillon, March 10, 2017, Archangel Michael acknowledges pockets of entitlement and arrogance among lightworkers, which are no longer acceptable.

He points to a level of spiritual maturity that will be needed to accomplish the work of the next, Post-Reval era.

Archangel Michael: Even within the Lightworker community, there are pockets of entitlement and arrogance that are not acceptable. So that needs to be very clear and it also needs to be cleared.

And if… Never mind. We will not say… Yes, I will say this. If they do not do it, it will be done for them. And that is not a threat. It is simply a necessity for the unfoldment of the Mother's Plan.

Again, if there is not a vibratory match (and we don't mean frequencies because your star brothers and sisters have the ability to adjust their frequencies. They are not simply physical shape shifters; they are frequency shifters as well) so, if there is not a match (and again; the emotional, mental, spiritual maturity to engage with them - not as them coming a saviours but as equals, as brothers and sisters, as family) then that could not occur. Especially the fear factor could not be present.

Now all of this is being cleared up. So is there an association between the Reval, between what you think of as Disclosure, which means the world community - yes, through leaders, coming together to say, "We welcome you"…

Steve Beckow: So a group disclosure…

AAM: Yes, we have said that before. So, a group disclosure and the ability to ascend as one rather than feeling that, "We are the Mother's chosen ones and we get to go." It is the ability to go as one.

So they are all like locked puzzle pieces. You are correct.

Steve: So how does the Reval… How can I say this? I'm trying to find out how they are linked up.

AAM: Think of it in this way. If you have a child - well, you do have a child - and you say, "Now you're old enough I'm going to give you an allowance of a dollar a week. And out of that dollar a week I want you to be responsible to pay your Cub Scout dues and to take out the garbage and walk the dog."

There is a sacred contract there and you are teaching responsibility because you have judged and you have discerned that your child is ready for that. It is not that you have removed your support or that you're not watching very closely over them and then you monitor that.

That is why we have also said, (this is an aside) there will be several waves of abundance. So we give you the allowance and we see how you do.

If in your spiritual maturity, you go forth, and we believe you will (we strongly believe you will), [in the belief] that this unfoldment is underway and that you are demonstrating, not simply a primitive attitude or a tribal attitude but more of a global, universal attitude, then you are ready to not only meet with your star family but participate with them, their technology, their gifts, in community, to go forth in the next phase in the building of Nova Earth.

So then it becomes a cooperative venture, not something that is laid on and not something that you are doing all by yourself. It is an expansion that is beyond measure. Then in that expansion, you are also ready to reach a higher level of enlightenment.

Steve: Okay, so that is how they are related. In that expansion you are ready to reach a higher level of enlightenment. It's not that the higher level of enlightenment comes first to help you with the expansion.

AAM: You have received several upgrades in terms of what you would think of as your levels of enlightenment. So it is not that those adjustments have been absent. But let us also say that right now if you were to complete your full ascension, many of you would not bother to stay and finish the creation of Nova Earth.

Steve: So you really have to meter it out to us, so to speak, so as not to send us flying off into some other pursuit?

AAM: That is correct.

Steve: But we will have enough to do the job, enough smarts, enough heart…

AAM: Think of it as growing every day. Then you are given more responsibility, more allowance, and more cooperation. You begin to fully see us and engage with us. Many of the Masters return. So that you're given all that you need to expand like a flower blossoming.

Steve: Alright, that's very clear. Thank you, very helpful. (1)

⌘ What is Our Mission? ⌘

Divine Mother: On the Divine Plan

Nov. 11, 2015

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/11/11/the-divine-mother-on-the-divine-plan/

An Hour with an Angel

Linda Dillon: Channel for the Council of Love

Steve Beckow: Host, InLight Radio

Steve Beckow: I'd like to seek more information from you now on what we know as the Divine Plan. Now, the Divine Plan for Ascension, the Divine Plan for life — there's a Divine Plan for all of it. Can you, for our listeners who are unfamiliar with the notion of there being a Divine Plan, can you discuss the Divine Plan for this Ascension, please?

Divine Mother: I would be very happy and honored to discuss the Divine Plan. And yes, the Divine Plan for Ascension. And your Divine Plan.

And I do not simply mean you, Steve. I mean everyone who will ever listen to this broadcast. Because, my beloved children, it is important, essential, that you understand not just cognitively but deep within your core that not only are you part of the Divine Plan, but that you, within that, have your Divine Plan, that you are critical, and what you think of as worthy enough, important enough, and always have been, that you have a Divine Plan.

Now, so often upon this planet, this beautiful planet of Gaia, there have been so many varying opinions about the Divine Plan and your Divine Plan. And so, before I speak of Ascension, let me speak of this.

There are so many of you that rejected the notion of your Divine Plan and the Divine Plan, because you wanted to be in charge, that you did not want to think that you were simply a puppet in a pre-arranged theatre; that the free will and free choice was exclusive to you, and that you could vary and go as far as you wanted in terms of what you choose to do; that nothing was fated.

Well, you've tried that, haven't you? And in so many situations it has caused war and mayhem, lack and separation. The Father and the Father through me have never dictated to you how you will unfold your plan. But make no mistake about this. You, in conjunction with All — and think of that — not only with your guides but with your grid, with your collective, with the universe and with us, have chosen your plan.

Now, even in the human realm, it is beyond comprehension that you would not wish to align and to do this. And that is why your heart yearns and directs you to undertake certain actions, thoughts, behaviors, directions. And that is why when you are doing certain things and moving in certain directions you know your joy. You say, "I feel happy! I feel like I am on track!" It is because you are within the unfoldment of your plan, and your plan is magnificent! It is the full expression, particularly in this incarnation, of who you are, of your unique spark.

So, do not underestimate your plan within the grander plan.

Now, I cannot speak to you about the totality of the Divine Plan. You would think that I was speaking in an intergalactic language, and chances are that some of you would understand, but the majority of you would not. But I am most certainly pleased and honored to speak to you about the plan for Gaia, for the human collective and for Ascension at this time. And for that I bring you back. I bring you back to the beginning.

The Plan was for you to inhabit a form and to know and be love and joy, diverse, unique, flexible. The Plan was for you to be inter- and trans-dimensional. Did you wander and take some of those scenic by-ways, those detours that I have referred to this night? Yes. And that free will, with all the elements of what you think of as evil and darkness, drama, intrigue — you have excelled at this! And you are also very tired and sick of it, aren't you?

So, now, you return to that alignment of beauty, of truth in form. And this is what is unique about this element of the Divine Plan, that you are holding on to these magnificent forms, what you think of as bodies. And part of that, beloved ones, is admiring and cherishing and loving your body, because you designed it, you chose it. Yes, you were part of the architectural team.

Is it transferring into a different molecular base? Yes. But your bodies, to take your bodies and be in the higher realms, where you have always belonged, and let go of those densities, that quagmire that you got stuck in — for a very long time! — now is the restoration of the Divine Plan. And it is for you to be the embodiment of love. It is you, each of you, bright angels, starseeds, gatekeepers, humans, Earth-keepers, to have a physical experience of being that embodiment of love.

This was part of the plan, the part that involved you and this planet and the ripple effect out to the multiverse of your star brothers and sisters. Why do you think they wish to participate, to witness? This is highly unique. The humans are going to be transdimensional in form, after all this time. They are going to embody love and the Divine Qualities. It is worth having a look at. It is worth participating in.

So, our [inaudible] to use a human word, our essence, to use my terminology, is being brought to bear upon this unfoldment of shift in the consciousness. This is not unconscious, this is not subconscious. So this is a conscious process, an event, if you choose, and it is also, at the same time, the consciousness, as you know, of the heart fully awakening, of the spirit fully awakening, of the soul fully awakening and anchoring in form.

Now, when I say I bring our focus to this, is it all of our focus — the Father and mine? Of course not. But the energies that are brought with what you think of as the Company of Heaven, the ascended ones, and the Father and I, is far beyond your comprehension. And it is certainly adequate to accomplishing this transition.

And as this transition is completed, including the shift in your structures, then you will continue on.

This is the beginning, not the end. Each of you, each of you is infinite and eternal. Will the day come in terms of what you think of as time, when you will simply re-emerge? Yes. But even that is an instant.

So the Divine Plan, let me be very concrete with all of you, is to leave the old Third behind. You are making peace with this and therefore with yourself, your families, your community, your planet. Even as we speak it is leaving that behind as if you would leave a cloak or an old skin behind, activating as you do different markers of your DNA, becoming more capable of holding the higher frequencies — and most of you are well underway; some of you are completely done — new form, but still looking as you do, or how you choose to appear, because that is part of interdimensional reality.

As you activate different markers within your DNA, within your crystalline form, you may restore yourself to 22 or be 75 — it matters not. And in that form, you will be the embodiment of love.

Yes, this channel has joked about this transition from carbon to crystalline. (1) Why do you think we have been so emphatic with her about working with the diamond energy, asking each of you? It is part of this transformation. Does this answer your question?

SB: It certainly does, Mother. And again I have to tell listeners what a joy it is to work with you, because you answer my questions before I ask them. And it makes my job very easy.

I want to confess that I'm one of those people who have said I'm not going to be a puppet and follow a Divine Plan! I have my own free will in the matter. And then I have another thought, that I really am, at essence, the Father. So, this really is my plan!

DM: That is correct. And that is the wisdom emerging. It is the maturity of the soul to know. It is the immature — and we would say adolescent, but very often adolescents are far more mature than adults— but shall we say the spiritual young one who fights and thinks that there is a controlling authority. There is not! It is — and that is why I have put the emphasis. This is not just the Divine Plan. This is your plan.

The Lightworker's Mission

September 7, 2012

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2012/09/07/the-lightworkers-mission/

Whether we're called wayshowers, gatekeepers, ground crew or something else, starseeds are here to anchor love into the Earth, educate the newly-awakened, model calmness and balance, go first into the new, and remain last until all have transitioned.

Starseeds and other lightworkers are a vital component of the Earth allies, SaLuSa tells us.

> "When we speak of our allies we generally refer to those who are Lightworkers, at the front of activities that are occurring with our backing.
> "They are the ones who are preparing the way for the greater advancement of our programs, that are restoring your sovereignty and opening up the way to Ascension.

> "Yet in essence every Lightworker, unknowingly or not, is part of the Divine Plan, ensuring that it is successful." (1)

Our numbers are growing, he reveals.

> "The number of Lightworkers is at a new high and paving the way towards Ascension. Levels of consciousness continue to rise, and that is also another sign of how well you have taken to the task of preparing for Ascension." (2)

Mira the Pleiadian tells us we need not fear; we'll know our roles when the right time comes.

> "As part of the ground crew, you may be required to step into action. Most of humanity is still distracted and asleep. ... You will know what to do when the time arrives." (3)

Saul explains that one of our missions is to intensify the effects of the love that's streaming to this planet by opening our hearts and embracing it.

> "As Light-holders you have the knowledge, the understanding, and, yes, the wisdom to open your hearts to embrace the field of divine Love encircling the planet, and to intensify its effects by engaging in every situation in which you find yourselves with acceptance, compassion, forgiveness, and love.
> "You chose to be on Earth at this time for just this purpose, and you are being given every assistance from the spiritual realms to ensure that you make a resounding success of it." (4)

He tells us that we're the leaven in the loaf, causing others to awaken and arise.

> "Because of the work that the Light-holders are doing – changing their attitudes by releasing all that is unloving, and embracing compassion, acceptance, and forgiveness towards all – the divine energy field enveloping the planet is intensifying and infiltrating the individual energy fields of everyone on Earth at this time, and awakening within them the hope and the faith that has lain there for so long hidden and unacknowledged." (5)

We're assisting in the awakening process, he says.

> "You are the Light-bearers — the ones who chose to come and assist humanity in its awakening process. And because of the task that you have taken on you have infinite help and assistance from all in the spiritual realms to ensure the success of this divine plan.
> "You really do know, deep within yourselves, that this is your task and that your success in bringing humanity to wakefulness is divinely guaranteed." (6)

The Arcturian Group says that before long we'll be teaching the newly-awakened.

> "We see many awakening each day and many more beginning to question what has been told to them by the news, and the government. People are beginning to recognize, listen, and trust their intuition which is a sign of change within human consciousness. We applaud you for seeking the deeper truths in spite of continuing appearances and teachings that have held you in bondage for so long.
> "Soon you will find yourselves to be the teachers, helping those who have no idea about what is going on in the changing world and who are tending to go into fear. You will help them to understand the new energies now manifesting as the outer, and also why that which has always been, can be no more." (7)

SaLuSa calls us the "vanguard," who'll assist the galactics by answering questions when our star brothers and sisters can't.

> "We know that many of you who read our comments already understand our position. You are our vanguard and there will come a time when your knowledge will be invaluable to us. We cannot be everywhere at once, and you will be on hand to answer the questions from those who are new to the whole idea of Ascension." (8)
> "If you are in the know about the future, your knowledge needs to be shared with those who need informing. The truth cannot be concealed any longer, and clearly the more you can open peoples minds to other possibilities the better." (9)

We can also serve by taking some of pressure off those who've stuck their necks out to make Ascension known, he reminds us.

> “At present you have a number of brave souls who have stuck their necks out at risk to themselves, and they are leading the way and we are behind them. So please identify with them and where you can assist be of help, and if nothing else spread the word so that others can draw some confidence from what is happening.” (10)

Confusing times lie ahead for the collective, SaLuSa predicts, and we'll be the ones who make the unbelievable knowable and acceptable.

> “Lightworkers are going to be called upon to help those who are unawake as to the pending changes, to understand the reasons for them when they are confronted with unbelievable news.” (11)

> “It is as you might say a time when it is 'all hands on deck' as you enter a period when changes will take place in rapid succession. For many reasons, those who are Lightworkers will be called upon to involve themselves in many tasks, that they have prepared for over many lives.
> “There will be souls that find it so difficult to comprehend what is taking place, leaving them confused or even fearful. What you can do is to put their minds at rest and give comfort where it is needed. Your presence and calm approach will be reassuring, and ease their worries. Given time it will become apparent to most people that out of the chaos a new age is growing from it, one that will give the answers and bring to the people what they want.” (12)

By our remaining calm and balanced, we lift the hearts of the newly awakened and give them hope, Hilarion says.

> “Those of you who carry the Light are asked to remain centered and calm as you go about your daily activities. It is important to remain focused upon the grounding of this Light into the core of the Planet so that you are always in equilibrium. ...
> “The qualities of compassion, kindness and helpfulness will lift the hearts of those around you who need to know that they are not alone. You can make a positive difference.” (13)

SaLuSa suggests that all lightworkers will soon feel a calm peacefulness, which will reassure the fearful.

> "You must have noticed that when you meet Lightworkers, they carry an air of calmness that is very uplifting. That, dear Ones, is where you will all eventually find yourselves, and you will know that you have at last found the peace you have been seeking. No one can take it away from you, as it becomes a powerful state of being that is also your protection." (14)

> "Few of you are directly involved in what is about to occur, but you can help by spreading calmness and giving others an assurance that all will be well." (15)

The Arcturians through Suzan Carroll call us the Openers and tell us that we volunteered to go first and remain to the last.

> "You are the Openers. You are the first ones to open the myriad Portals into the fifth dimension. Also, you are the ones that will stand by that open Portal until everyone has gone through. 'The first will be the last.' However, that third dimensional term does not exactly explain what we are saying.

> "You, the Openers, volunteered to be the leaders of this Planetary Ascension. Therefore you serve as the Scouts who go ahead into the unknown and come back to tell of your experience. You dash into the Bliss of the NOW, and courageously return to tell of your trek. You have become masters of saying things in a specific manner so that you do not frighten your audience." (16)

Archangel Michael calls us the teachers and wayshowers who'll stay until everybody else leaves - just as he does.

> "You are holding the space, and you are still the teachers, you are still the showers of the way. When there is a mass exodus, there are always those who stay to make sure that everybody who wishes to go is equipped and ready and gets the opportunity.

> "I am part of that, you know. [laughter] I am always there until the last." (17)

While many of our number may ascend early, they may also return to serve as gatekeepers, AAM says.

> "So there will be those, what we will call the gatekeepers or the 'in-betweeners,' who will go through an Ascension process and be anchored in the full reality, not partial reality, not a glimpse, not an out-of-body experience, but the full reality of the 5th dimension. But they will manifest and be observed, as it were, in the 3rd dimension because they are coming back to help. They are the doormen. They are helping with this onslaught of 'last minute shoppers.'" (18)

SaLuSa encourages us to stay strong.

> "Whatever happens around you or directly to you, stay strong and any problems should be quickly resolved as you are now clearly on the upward curve and leaving the lower energies behind. In fact so many of you are drawing a clear line between yourselves and the old energies that [they] no longer satisfy your desire for the pure things in life." (19)

He recommends that we live our lives as if we're already ascended.

> "Be true to your Higher Self and do your best to live your life as you envisage one who has Ascended." (20)

And of course most starseeds have already ascended so we are only drawing on reserves that we already have.

Thus our mission is to ground the love beaming towards the planet, lead the way, tell others what we've found, reduce confusion, model calmness and balance, encourage others, and remain till the last straggler has made the jump.

Doing so will call upon us to remain strong, draw on all our reserves, and put fear behind us. We have our work cut out for us, but in it we have the rising energies to draw on and all the unseen assistance of the ascended beings who stand behind us.

Starseeds: Waiters at the Banquet of Ascension

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/04/28/starseeds-waiters-at-the-banquet-of-ascension/

This article is one of my favorites. A blast from the past - 2011 to be exact.

I think I may have said earlier (maybe not) that most people reading this blogsite and all the other sites on 2012, are in my estimation Starseeds. Gaians reading these sites, I believe, might mostly say, "Hey, these folks are nut cases. I'm outta here. Stanley Cup's on tonight."

Starseeds feel some resonance, perhaps for a reason they know not. Gaians may not feel a resonance at all or they may not feel it until after Disclosure.

But we all feel a tug when we encounter this information, and that's probably as it should be.

We Starseeds signed on to wait tables at the banquet of Ascension so we're supposed to feel that tug. We're going to carry the food from the chefs (angels, Gaian and galactic ascended masters) to the banquet guests (Gaians). It isn't our banquet, I believe. We've already had ours and now it's time for the next group to have theirs.

It follows that I believe most Starseeds are already ascended. Why would the hierarchy and the star councils ask people to leave their home planets and come here who were unascended? It wouldn't make sense.

To be part of the problem? No, we've come to be part of the solution.

Invite Starseeds who've ascended, lock them up in these heavy bodies, give them medical ailments to keep their attention "down to Earth," show them what Gaians have to deal with, and program them to awaken when their service begins.

So no need to worry about Ascension. Only a need to worry about our terms of service. And no need to worry about your children's Ascension or your kitties' or puppies'. Your kids' Ascension, in the event they're Gaians, is a surer prospect than that of most Gaian adults! But children born today are probably the new crystals, rainbows, magentas and others who are destined to lead the New Society anyways. No need to waste energy worrying about them.

Moreover, and here is the radical suggestion, most Starseeds, I'm willing to bet, have come from dimensions higher than the Fifth. Coming from higher dimensions, if the Mother enlightened us, we'd probably leave this Earth and go back to whence we came. (1)

Matthew Ward suggests this is the case: "The souls who came from fourth, fifth and higher density worlds specifically to assist Earth in her ascension—when their mission is completed, they will return to their homelands." (2)

So it just very well may be that no Starseeds should expect to experience enlightenment before their terms of service are over. That would seem to defeat the whole purpose of our being here. Awaken us, yes. Enlighten us, maybe not. Of course this is only a hunch. (3)

We're wearing blinkers and, even if we're given an experience of ourselves, I think we'll still be wearing at least dark glasses. If we know truly who we are, again we might be outta here. Vamoose the ranch.

Another hunch: I don't think many of us will be early risers or ascenders either - perhaps some Gaians will. But we're supposed to remain here and serve the guests.

And we need worker bees as well as queen bees. Some Starseeds like Drunvalo and Lisa Renee have signed up to sit at the head table and make speeches. But many more of us have left our sublime existences and regal homes to serve in rather menial capacities, serving food, planning finances for the banquet, and rigging up the lighting. Some need to be the spiritual teachers and some need to meet and greet. But all come from higher dimensions just the same. We have a lot of high-priced talent wearing bibs.

Gabe says he was hired to be a guinea pig, a banquet taster. Let him sample the food first and see if he keels over. So they took an archangel and made him a food taster. Ellie was sent here to create the mood and environment. Take Pleiadian royalty and make her a step-down transformer. My heavens, what we aren't called upon to do!

Don't diss the janitor. He may be a Seventh-Dimensional being who agreed to come here from Lyra.

We all of us think the Fifth Dimension is the end-all and be-all. I predict that many of us will find that we come from much higher dimensions than that. But they asked us to sign on the dotted line and made us all Men in the Iron Mask, dumbed us down, saddled us with asthma and fibromyalgia, took away our abundance, memories, and capabilities and said "Thank you very much." Later on we get our galactic Mastercard back.

Why are we doing this? Serving the One in the many. Ensuring that the Divine Plan unfolds. Doing unto Gaians what other galactic civilizations have done unto us in the past.

We take time out from our wonderful lives in the Elysian Fields and don our waiters' bibs and dishwashing aprons and see that the feast of Ascension comes off without a hitch and then we clean up, close up shop, and go home. Job well done.

So I just encourage us not to worry about Ascension. We're already there. Just worry about opening websites and building blogsites like Laura, Jean, and Quinn, starting radio shows like Maarten and Geoff, opening discussion groups like Darran, spreading the word, providing the answers, reassuring people who are about to see a legion of angels descend with wheels in wheels and chariots of fire.

Very soon the joy will spread and infect us all. And we'll begin a steady march to the banquet. Let's help the Gaians fill their lamps with oil and prepare to meet the bridegroom. We've eaten our fill already and married the Spirit before we came here.

Let the joy spread. Let there be peace on Earth and happiness among men and women, the beasts of the field and the birds of the air. A new era in human civilization is about to begin and we Starseeds are an important part of the crew welcoming the rest. We have nothing to worry about, save doing our job well. This is not our time. It's the time of Gaians. This is our opportunity to serve.

Starseeds: The Leaven in the Loaf

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2011/08/05/starseeds-the-leaven-in-the-loaf/

We heard Archangel Michael say in my reading with him on August 1:

> Steve: I've said to my readers that my hunch is that most Starseeds are already ascended. ... Why would Starseeds be asked to come to Earth if they're not ascended? It seems like that would be part of the problem rather than part of the solution, if it were the case. Am I correct in my hunch?
> Archangel Michael: Yes. Starseeds are here to help.
> S: I see. And they're already ascended, mostly? They've already been through this?
> AAM: That is correct. And that is why the shifting inter-dimensionally is becoming so profound and clearer and clearer. So sometimes they do not know, and it is confusing for them, whether they have their feet in the third or the fifth, the seventh or the ninth. But it does not matter, they are here to help. (1)

In Ronna Herman's August channeling of Archangel Michael, he corroborates this fact:

> "Beloved masters, first of all, allow us to ease your minds. The ascension process is not new to you. You have accomplished it many times before. You all are masters of the highest order, or you would not have been chosen as Star Seed Wayshowers for this unprecedented evolutionary process the Earth and humanity are presently experiencing. You have expert credentials, and you have proven your cocreative mastery a multitude of times during your many cosmic journeys." (2)

Archangel Michael tells us so much more in that message. For instance, he tells us that the Starseeds now awakening have had vast experience in many other cosmic adventures similar to this one:

> "For each new adventure into physical consciousness, you are given new rules, a new mission and a great variety of challenges to overcome. We wish you to understand that those of you who are stepping to the fore as qualified World Servers have had vast experience throughout this Universe and its many Sub-universes.
> "From the time this Universe began to expand, select Star Seed were transplanted from other time zones and Sub-Universes to oversee and assist in unique programs designed specifically for humanity and other life forms. The primary Divine Mission of these special groups of Star Seed is to lead the way for those ready to evolve into the next level of expanded consciousness as an infinite number of cycles and Divine programs come to a completion." (3)

He confirms that we accepted being blindfolded so that, by our struggles to regain our former knowledge, we can lead the rest of the world out of darkness.

> "It takes great courage and wisdom to adventure out into the unknown, to have a veil placed over your memory as you begin your earthly experience within a broader spectrum of Light and Shadow. Your skills and true identity were hidden within your Sacred Heart and Mind and often were not apparent > until later in life after you began to awaken to the nudgings of your Higher Self. ...

> "For those of you who are the wayshowers for this Round of Evolution, your earthly contract/mission contained Memory Seed Crystals of awakening which would be triggered by a Divine Discontent. These Seed Crystals of Divine Light were to be activated by your Higher Self and downloaded into your conscious awareness when it was time for you to begin your journey into Self-discovery." (4)

I think our journey into Self-discovery is meant to demonstrate to others what that process looks like. We remove the blindfolds from ourselves and, in the process, show others how to remove theirs as well.

Is there any doubt left about our mission, capabilities, and future?

Can we find a metaphor for our role in Ascension? I think we can in Jesus's parable of the measure of leaven (yeast) that leavened the whole loaf. Let's listen to Matthew:

> “Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.” (5)

In Jesus's parable, the leaven is the Self, which is hidden in the flour (the bodies), but, upon the application of water and heat (divine light and love), ultimately causes the loaf to rise.

Leaven is what we Starseeds are. We're here to leaven the loaf. A pinch of leaven is all that's required to raise a loaf of bread. And, in my opinion, that's our job.

Starseeds anchor love and light in the Earth and in their communities. They respond to the light energies in a much more sensitive fashion than the mass of the population. Without Starseeds, we might as a planet still be focused on the next Superbowl or World Cup.

Starseeds awaken first and begin questioning. They warm up to the idea of galactic humans coming to help us. They feel an affinity with the stars. They feel a commitment to question and explain, serve and rejoice.

They begin the process of awakening themselves spurred on by what Archangel Michael calls “Divine Discontent” and what I have called, after Shankara, the "longing for liberation." (6)

Leaven doesn't have to get up on a soapbox and proclaim that the bread will rise. It doesn't have to don a magician's cap and tap the loaf with a wand. Its mere presence, plus water and heat (divine light and love), causes the loaf to rise. The water and heat are being provided by what the Boss called the Company of Heaven.

In my view, God did not create flour for leaven, but leaven for flour. The leaven disappears in the process of the transformation of the bread.

It's the bread that graces the table. It's the bread that's eaten and nourishes. The banquet is not about the leaven. The banquet is about the bread.

The leaven is gone as soon as its job is done. It doesn't remain. We rise with the bread and then leave. Back to our own realms.

To switch metaphors, we agreed to leave our own realms, put on a wet suit, jump into the ocean, and breathe through an air tank, all to find the sunken treasure. Then when the dive's over we go home. All the treasure is kept in a museum here on Earth. We don't get to take a single gold ring home with us. We only take the love and satisfaction for a job well done.

So there's no reason for us to worry or struggle. We've already taken this “perilous” journey. We've already got our passports and our tickets home. Making the jump for us will simply be a homecoming. It will be for everyone else as well, to be sure, but we've only been away from home a short while.

We've kept our attention here by accepting medical conditions that keep us from soaring off into the blue. We've agreed to be blindfolded and not to enjoy the enlightenments that many around us do, lest we forget why we're here and return home by an irresistible draw. We have little interest in money; many of us have been poor. We have a job to do and simply agreeing to put up with all the discomfort, sickness, and darkness while continuing to serve by our mere presence and openness to these events is the greatest part of our task.

And home? Fifth Dimension for some, but others? Sixth, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh? The Transcendental for angels.

We won't know until the blindfold comes off. No, we may not even know then. We may not know until we return to our heavenly realms.

All this means a great deal to me because in my last reading with him Michael told me about my next assignment. I was surprised to hear him raise the matter, but in doing so, he corroborated what he's said above that we go from cosmic adventure to cosmic adventure. He also shared how the process of raising the kundalini was progressing which is the process, I think, of removing the blindfold. So I actually have personal corroboration of what he said through Ronna. I presume the same process will be for everyone.

So sit back and enjoy the ride. Let yourself effervesce. Radiate love. That's our job. And know full well that, when it's over, you'll have served God and the world selflessly. Job well done. A long wait ended. And a return to Paradise, guaranteed.

Starseeds, Spiritual Experiences, and Enlightenment

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2012/04/25/starseeds-spiritual-experiences-and-enlightenment/

In earlier years, I seemed to go from one spiritual experience to another, enough of them that I gave them names to keep them straight – the Silver Bullet, the Flame in the Heart, the Highway to Heaven.

I had rings of fire shooting up my spine, brief spells knowing I was God, insights into the nature of awareness, views of the inner universe.

Out-of-body experiences, visions, trips above the line, peak moments, transformational experiences, "gets," call them what you wish - every year was something different.

At the time I felt myself quite knowledgeable about what to do and how to relate to a transitory spiritual experience, but I have to say that I'm out of practice these days.

I knew enough then never to make a life-altering decision in the midst of a spiritual experience, always to wait several days after before acting in any ambitious way, always to watch for the snapback effect, etc.

But none ever resulted in the experience of enlightenment. However, if the information is true about our origins as Starseeds, then we've all experienced enlightenment in other lifetimes.

I recall the Boss saying to me some time ago that I was not to expect dramatic or blowout spiritual experiences such as enlightenment this lifetime because I needed to continue writing as my contribution to Ascension and dramatic experiences might interrupt, interfere, or even cancel out my ability or desire to write.

So you and I may be advised to have modest expectations of this lifetime exactly because we've signed up to serve. After Ascension we'll all be released to return to our native dimensions and our reward, if reward we seek, will come then.

The experience that came yesterday seemed like one of the (relatively) gentle increases in dimensional experience that we probably can expect to see as we move through the year.

That experience is settling down now. I feel a residuum of increased confidence and stability. I go in and out of exhaustion but I know now that that too is an accompaniment of the gradual upward dimensional climb that we'll probably all be involved in.

One of the lessons that this latest experience conveyed was that, if I remained in the space that it revealed, I would probably not be able to write more research compilations. I think I'd only be able to write in the moment and certainly would have no motivation for doing otherwise. So again I have to choose what it is I want to keep doing and that choice cannot come from ego.

If it were to come from ego, why, I'd choose the higher-dimensional experience. Who would not? But if the mission is to serve, then choosing the higher-dimensional state of being may be counter-productive. We also serve who only wait tables and carry the food in from the kitchen. All of us are needed at the banquet of Ascension.

There's a class of beings known as bodhisattvas who refuse to enter Nirvana in order to remain outside and serve humanity.

There's another class of beings known as the Nirmanakaya, or Guardian Wall, who choose to stand on guard and keep away from Earth the wider catastrophes beyond karma that could otherwise overtake it. Their choice means they refuse to pass on from the human octave.

There's also a group of the Melchizedeks who've won for themselves the right to leave the human octave but don't. They come back instead to teach. So the example of beings who've won the right to move on and don't is extensive in the spiritual world.

Similarly we Starseeds have chosen to migrate from our native worlds and higher dimensions and spend a lifetime in service, waiting tables at Ascension. And it may not be appropriate for us to seek the higher experiences that may be appropriate for those we serve. I don't know for sure. It's just a hunch I have.

We wear our waiter's garb and pride ourselves on doing our service well, without attracting attention to ourselves. And so perhaps it should be to fulfill our agreements.

Just know that, if you're a Starseed, I appreciate the sacrifice you made and I know what that sacrifice is. I honor your commitment to take the years of this life and invest them in Earth's humanity without expectation of return. You've donned this heavy, tiring wetsuit of a body, surrendered your life in the Elysian fields, so to speak, and consented to labor in the fields of Third Dimensionality. All honor to you.

Undoubtedly most Starseeds here are not seeking reward. I don't exactly know how all of this works because, as long as the blinders remain on, I can't access much of the knowing that I believe I have. I only sense things. There isn't much that I'm aware of that attracts me in this life. Serving does and it attracts me more than the idea of reward. I have to assume that this is a characteristic of most Starseeds until proven otherwise.

So onto the next chapter or the next experience as we prepare ourselves for the arrival of the guests to dinner or the banquet of Ascension itself.

What is the Shared Purpose of Lightworkers Here at this Time? - 1

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/07/13/what-is-the-shared-purpose-of-lightworkers-here-at-this-time/

Question-and-answer format.

What are we lightworkers doing here? With a cast of millions in ships above us, of what need are lightworkers? The Company of Heaven answers.

What is the shared purpose of lightworkers here at this time?

Archangel Michael: The purpose of the lightworkers - the purpose, in many ways, if we were to make a blanket statement of every single person upon the planet at this time – is the fulfilment of the Mother's Plan: The rebirth, the re-anchoring, the recommitment, the reactivation of love, of co-creation, of unity consciousness upon the planet. …

The burden, the joy, the gift, the potential of the lightworkers, loveholders, lovebearers – however you think of this, saints and sinners – the opportunity for the shift, for Ascension, for the transition, for the formulation and anchoring, the building of Nova Earth is the purpose particularly at this juncture of the lightworker community. …

Is this a time when lightworkers and loveholders will step forth and demonstrate not only their intention or their ability to hold the love, to be the love, but to demonstrate [love] in action, in form, in reconstitution of your society and all that that entails? This is the job right now of lightworkers. …

And even as things shift, and shall we say, become more co-creative, the demonstration first and foremost, the building [of Nova Earth] is the mission and purpose of those who have chosen to incarnate at this time. (1)

But we're opposed by tyrranical regimes!

The God of this universe in Matthew's Messages: Tyrannical regimes must and shall change. Although plans are afoot for this peaceful revolution through a joint effort between your civilization and many of your space family, that does not absolve any of you who desire a finer, brighter world from the responsibility of helping to create it.

You all chose to be where you are at this time precisely so you could do exactly that! Actually, some of you embodied in other lifetimes as great leaders on Earth and well beyond, and you are back now to take on similar inspirational and constructive roles. (2)

Why do you need lightworkers in particular to step forward?

Archangel Michael: If no [lightworker] steps forward into [leadership] then there is a massive vacuum because many of the billions upon your planet have not yet learned, adapted and integrated the new tools – the fullness of this new energy.

So [when non-lightworkers] are assigned … or try to step up … to create and to take the leadership role, they do not have the training and insight to do it in a way that is achievable. … So there is a lack, a vacuum of leadership.

Now, who, upon this wondrous planet, has been hiding in the shadows or edging out, or is in the limelight and is ready? … Who has been diligent and practiced patience and fortitude and stamina, and anchored the divine qualities? Who is it that is prepared to do this? Well, it is the lightworkers. (3)

AAM: In order for the plan to be unfolding, in order for the practical building blocks (which is what you're asking for - money) to be in place, there has need to be a very strong re-assumption of leadership. (4)

But could not the galactics, for instance, do the job themselves?

AAM: They … really ask for human leadership in order to be not be seen as trying in any way to assume control. (5)

What awaits those lightworkers who participate in stewardship?

AAM: Those who are in a position of stewardship, of beginning projects that lead the way to the building and the re-creation of what Nova Earth is truly about ... become the spokesbeings for many. (6)

AAM: If in your spiritual maturity, you go forth, and we believe you will (we strongly believe you will), [in the belief] that this unfoldment is underway and that you are demonstrating, not simply a primitive attitude or a tribal attitude but more of a global, universal attitude, then you are ready to not only meet with your star family but participate with them, their technology, their gifts, in community, to go forth in the next phase in the building of Nova Earth.

That is why we have also said (this is an aside), there will be several waves of abundance. (7)

What is the Shared Purpose of Lightworkers Here at this Time? - 2

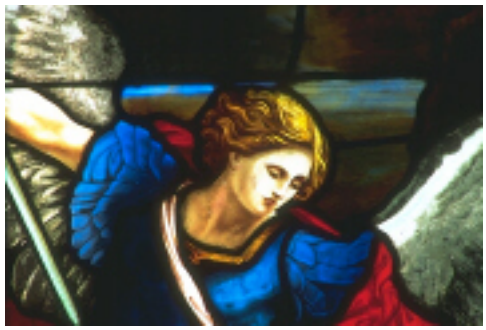
https://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/10/22/archangel-michael-purpose-reval-future-part-15/

Archangel Michael on the Purpose of the Reval and Our Future – Part 1/5



In my reading with him on Oct. 11, 2016 through Linda Dillon, Archangel Michael discussed at length many subjects related to the Reval.

Some are confronting for me to post, but he did indicate that he wanted his comments circulated so I post them.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, Oct. 11, 2016.

Steve Beckow: Am I correct in thinking and saying that this time is the lightworkers' chance to show what we can do before NESARA or Disclosure really takes the agenda away from us?

Archangel Michael: That is correct. Now let us elaborate on that because I don't think in this instance you are looking for a one-word answer.

Steve: No. Thank you.

AAM: So you say that the agenda - and you are correct and incorrect by the way - can be taken away from you by financial re-gridding [NESARA], by institutional re-gridding, by the presence of your star family [Disclosure] or even the presence of the Masters, some of whom are popping in and out at great regularity.

The purpose of the lightworkers, the purpose in many ways - if we were to make a blanket statement [applicable to] every single person upon the planet at this time - is the fulfilment of the Mother's Plan: The rebirth, the re-anchoring, the recommitment, the reactivation of love, of co-creation, of unity consciousness upon the planet. [All italics are mine.]

That is the agenda. And the implementers, the implementation team, the ones who will bring forth and affect those changes, bring into form those changes are those upon the planet.

Now ... there are many upon the planet who are either stuck, disinterested still, sitting on the fence still, or entirely recalcitrant.

Some of those recalcitrants, as we have mentioned before, are playing magnificent roles in amplifying and exhibiting what needs to be eliminated upon this planet once and for all. So even they are playing their part, shall we say.

The agenda cannot and will not be stolen or overshadowed by these other, what you think of as, [chaotic] events.

The burden, the joy, the gift, the potential of the lightworkers, loveholders, lovebearers - however you think of this, saints and sinners - the opportunity for the shift, for Ascension, for the transition, for the formulation and anchoring, the building of Nova Earth is the purpose particularly at this juncture of the lightworker community. (1)

Now, have you been - many of you - working quietly, silently, behind the scenes, undercover for a long time? The answer is yes.

Is this a time when lightworkers and loveholders will step forth and demonstrate not only their intention or their ability to hold the love, to be the love, but to demonstrate [love] in action, in form, in reconstitution of your society and all that that entails? This is the job right now of lightworkers.

Footnotes

(1) "At this juncture" - At another, later juncture the purpose of the lightworker community may be to reassure fears around Disclosure or model Ascension. Or new relationships or Saedor (loving) communication. In my view, financial wayshowing is just our task now.

How Does the Company of Heaven See Our Role? – Part 1/2

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/05/07/how-does-the-company-of-heaven-see-our-role-part-1-2/

Let's turn now to look at what the Company of Heaven is calling upon lightworkers to do.

What do they expect of us? Want from us? They actually offer a range of opinion which we, looking for our mission, could consider a range of options.

The Arcturian Group on one occasion applauded us for plowing negativity and ignorance out of the way:

> "You are the plows plowing the debris of negativity and hopeless ignorance out of the way through your hard work. You are the nitty-gritty hard workers who are making it possible for coming generations to be born into the higher world consciousness you are creating. Many issues you find so troublesome now, will not even be known to future generations.
> "Pat yourselves on the back, Dear Ones, for each of you chose to courageously assist in the evolution of mankind through bringing attention and change to commonly-accepted world concepts based in duality and separation. Know that many illumined souls are on Earth at this time in bodies and situations judged by the world to be 'less than perfect' simply to evolve > world awareness and bring change. Remember this when you are tempted to negatively judge some person or situation." (1)

This is a very pro-active role that some lightworkers will play. In 2020, Mike Quinsey told us about a re-active role.

> "For them the future looks bleak and few have any idea where the present events are leading. In reality the future is full of promise enabling all such upsetting experiences to be seen in their true context as necessary to bring the new into being." (2)

We probably went through this upset early because we knew what was happening. But most people don't know, are confused, and are passing through their upset now or will be in the future.

More recently, as the world situation heated up, Mike asked us to come together and project thoughts of world peace:

> "The more of you that send out thoughts of world peace the more you are speeding up its arrival and it cannot be ignored. You would be surprised at how much influence your thoughts can have on the population. Your only difficulty is getting sufficient people to project harmonious thoughts that have the power to bring about change. You can see how the dark Ones manipulate things to cause chaos, and set one country against another so that world peace is impossible to achieve. However, given time it will change and the vibrations will be beyond the ability of the dark Ones to interfere with them." (3)

The galactics know the effectiveness of impacting the collective consciousness with our group meditations. We have yet to really begin valuing that.

The Arcturian Group agreed with Mike, in February 2022:

> "You will find yourselves increasingly called upon to help those drawn to you with questions and concerns. They recognize your stability in the face of outer appearances and want this for themselves. You will become and many of you already are teachers to those ready for and seeking truth.

"However, even more important than the outer work is the inner work, your ability to continuously and silently BE the Light that you are for without the inner there can be no outer." (4)

So we're asked to reassure the hopeless, confused, and concerned. Why don't we make that one line of service, available to those for whom it resonates.

And we're reminded of the inner work.

Daniel Scranton's 9D Arcturian Council goes into detail on that inner work and the kind of help we can extend to people who are confused and concerned. I found their view to be extremely perceptive. OK, OK. That is, it lined up with my own.

"Those of you who are not getting triggered by what is happening on your world right now are fortunate. If you are not in resistance to what is happening on your world, then you are one of the lucky ones. But it wasn't luck at all that put you in the position that you are in. It was a choice that you made before you incarnated.

"And as you move forward now because of that fortunate position that you are in, you have more of an ability to turn on the vibration within you that you want to experience [for instance: to draw love up from our hearts].

"Most humans do not have that option because they either have something they need to clear, or because they have not been taught about their ability to reach within themselves and offer a vibration on purpose. [Exact on both scores.]

"That is where you come in; you are the ones to lead with your example, and you are the ones to teach others how to release and clear all of that angst, all of that fear, all of that anger, all of that rage, and all of that hate so that they can follow you to the better-feeling timelines that have been created out of your love, compassion, and desire to serve humanity.

"It doesn't take a majority of you to be offering those vibrations, but there have been enough of you to create these timelines, and there are enough of you on Earth right now to lead humanity into a much more positive and good-feeling future." (5)

Exactly. It doesn't take a majority of us. Just a fraction. And that will come. The love energy streaming onto the planet and fueling our Ascension guarantee it.

We've been clearing our vasanas, obstacles, barriers, baggage for the last ten years, getting to the root of our early childhood trauma and freeing ourselves of it.

Let me continue tomorrow to look at what the galactics and celestials turn to us for.

How Does the Company of Heaven See Our Role? – Part 2/2

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/05/08/how-does-the-company-of-heaven-see-our-role-part-2-2/

(Concluded from Part 1, yesterday.)

Ashian through Jennifer Crokaert gave a stirring picture of a second area of work for some of us: Taking our focus off the old and building the new.

> "Your focus creates your reality and also your power. While awareness of the dismantling is good, if you find that the old is depressing you, bringing you down or lowering your vibration, then you would be right!
> "Do not give it your power. Shift your focus instead to the new, become aware of what you can do/be today to embody the light and the love that is the signature of this planet and all upon Gaia, as you create Ascension. It can be as small as an act of kindness or as great as clearing all debts owed to you.
> "What is conceived in love and born through love has sacred DNA running through it. Its vibration is inherently high, whether it is a being or an organisation or a creation of any kind whatsoever.

> "Lightworkers are called to be bold, to be daring in their ideas and imagination, to know that the purity of their intent will create support and miracles to bring the changes they believe into fruition.
> "The vibration of love, harmony, peace and reconciliation is unstoppable now. All thoughts, words and actions aligned with this energy are destined to succeed and multiply, blessing all whom they touch, to the degree of the purity of their intent.
> "So be bold, be daring, be brave! Be the 'you' you know yourself to be within your deepest heart. Now is Your moment." (1)

This line of commentary asks those who are not protecting us from the darkness on the planet to take their focus off that and put it now on building the new.

When we remember that we're all angelics, what that building process will look like is unknown at the present time, but also tantalizingly promising.

We already know that sequestered technologies are being released as we speak. Sequestered wealth is next.

We don't what the immediate future may hold. Well, we do and we don't. Just not in detail.

What else does the Company of Heaven tell us that they'd like to see?

White Cloud through Blossom Goodchild stressed the lightworker role of simply holding the light and love amid the topsy-turviness. We're like lighthouses amid stormy seas.

A decade ago I would have pooh-poohed this idea. But I don't any more. I've been softened up over the years.

The people waking up now may do so much more abruptly than us; hence the need for social "first aid." White Cloud says:

> "The Federation of Light and indeed myself have said many times, many, many times, that your world is to get far more topsy-turvy than what took place in your last year.
> "So it begins, my friends, the unrest that is taking place not only in the country where there is much unrest this day (U.S.), yet the ripple effect it has [will go] all over the world and the fact that everything you hear on your news is there to bring down, to suppress, and to confuse.
> "You must know, dearest souls, that there is a Divine Plan which is taking place. And within this topsy-turviness that is causing so much disturbance of mind, of soul, of heart, there is a place for you to hold your swords of light to the skies. ...
> "You came here to do this, my friends. Let it not be now that you waver, that your thoughts go under, that your heart lies low. No, instead let it be now that those swords of light are raised up and charged with the energy of love that is filtering down to your beings from the Divine Source." (2)

Not hatred. Not division. Not blame and shame, judgment, revenge, bitterness. But the sword of love and light held high, figuratively speaking. In other words, being love and light. Actually being it.

Gaia through Pamela Kribbe says we're here to anchor a certain vibration. Note the affirmation that we're all angels:

> "You often make yourselves so small. You are hiding your true strength and even dare not show the joy and the light in your heart. But I am now telling you what your mission is on Earth – it is to be an angel on Earth. You do not have to change the people around you; you do not have to get involved in politics, or that kind of activity. What you are meant to do here as a lightworker is to anchor a certain vibration." (3)

So anchor a certain vibration. Be the Light and the Love. Work on an energetic level.

> Finally, Ashian asks us to assist in drawing people together. That's the final step in Ascension, he says:

> "Coming together is the final step on humanity's journey to ascension.
> "And now is the time to be focusing on how you can come together more, in spite of your differences.
> "And if you are one of the ones who is asking us, and others like us, for opportunities to experience more unity, then you are one of the leaders that we are talking about.
> "Humankind needs leaders who are about bringing people together, and every single one of you who is receiving this transmission is one of those people.
> "You don't need to have millions or even billions of people following you in order to be a leader. You are contributing to the collective consciousness no matter what you do or who knows who you are." (4)

We may recognize the Divine Mother as having expressed the same sentiment in an earlier article:

> Divine Mother: So this drawing together of people is how Nova Earth will be built and Ascension occur. (5)

Thus, it seems the need of this post-pandemic moment is to draw people together, to reunite them and not in national groups but as one global people, an evolving human race, a new species of humanity.

After what we've been through, the lessons of which will take years to digest, we need to unite behind our desire to live in peace, love, and harmony everywhere on Earth from here on in.

The rising energies will take care of the rest. They'll increase our frequency to a range where disease, crime, hatred, etc., are absent. They'll create a separate timeline and resonance for those who wish to continue in the ways of darkness. Everyone will have what they intend and want.

To summarize then, the galactics and celestials look to us for many things, some of which are to:

- Deconstruct ignorance and negativity

- Reassure the hopeless and confused.
- Send out thoughts of peace.
- BE - and demonstrate being - the Light and Love that we all are.
- Be bold and daring in bringing needed changes to fruition, and
- Come together as one global people.

If a person is unsure of their mission, this list would make a good starting place.

There we have it in black and white: "You are contributing to the collective consciousness no matter what you do or who knows who you are." That impact on the collective consciousness is, I think, what we need to focus on.

We don't have instruments to measure it yet, but that follows the identification of a need, does it not? If so, we hereby identify the need for tools to measure the collective consciousness.

Sananda: Only Love Prevails

”Sananda: Only Love Prevails," channeled through James McConnell, Feb. 28, 2012, at http://www.meetup.com/Ancient-Awakenings/messages/31453472/.

The changes you wish to see in your world will come as a thief in the night. One moment your world will carry on with the hustling and bustling of the old paradigm; then suddenly, nothing that you have come to know as your reality will ever be the same.

This is the kind of change we are talking about, and this is the kind of change you will experience. This is why your task to prepare yourselves and as many other souls as is possible is so important to the smooth functioning of this operation. Please continue to spread the news of what is about to transpire. We greatly appreciate your efforts and assure you that it will be soon that this phase of your mission will be completed and all that has been discussed will be yours. ...

Give us, as well as our Earth allies, the opportunity to make this goal a reality by continuing your hard work spreading awareness of these arrests and the following proceedings and what significance they hold for the people of your world. ...

It is a very interesting sight to behold, these three large groups; the Galactic Federation of Light, the Ashtar Command, and our Earth allies, working together on this immense project. You, our faithful Lightworkers, are also a vital part to our overall mission, and we consider you part of our teams of the Galactic Commands, and as we have said, many of you are already members of either one of our space-oriented organizations. ...

These proceedings are being carried out in order to help facilitate a smooth transition leading to your ascension, as it was decided these dark ones and their alliances would be too disruptive a force and needed to be removed from your societies. Upon removal of these dark ones, we see an upsurge in your collective vibration, and we would like to see the greatest possible boost from this event.

This is where you come in, our Lightworkers, as it is your job to set up the dominoes for this event to trigger. Continue to line them up as they will soon go down.

You have all done a remarkable job leading up to this point, and we wish to thank you for your efforts and once again assure you that all that has been discussed can and will be yours. Do not allow yourselves at this late stage to now begin to fall for the lies and propaganda of our opposite numbers.

Most of you have managed up to now to ignore and ward off these attempts by the dark to distract you and lead you from your path and your assignments. This is all they could do as you are under our protection, but we must allow you your free will choice. The dark understands this, and this is the reason for all their attempts at distraction through their writings and video presentations that propagate their lies.

You have experienced a few losses within your ranks as some of your brothers and sisters have fallen for these ploys and they have turned their backs on us and on their assignments. These are relatively rare cases and will not affect our mission. Continue on with your assignments remaining steadfast to your convictions, and do not allow yourselves to be lured by the sirens of deception. ...

There are many surprises in store for you, as can be expected once released from your current amnesiac states and the veil of forgetfulness is lifted for you. Many of you have had long careers with us, and you of course, will be welcomed back warmly when your mission here is completed.

As we have said, many of you will also begin working with us, and some of you will go on to begin your new careers as full members of the Galactic Federation of Light. We look forward to the day when our recruiters can speak personally with you, when all the details of this opportunity will be fully discussed with you.

You will have time to think over your new career choices, and you will also possess the opportunity to return home, wherever that home may be, if you decide you no longer wish to remain with our organization. You can always be considered again for recruitment in the future, as we are always growing as an organization and committed individuals are always a welcomed addition to our team. ...

As you sit idly by going to and fro in your daily activities, many changes are occurring at many levels throughout the planet. We are entering a time of cleansing unlike anything that has ever happened here.

Powers that be are being quietly replaced or set for reassignment. In so doing, your world is preparing for sweeping changes that are only moments away. You, each one, have it within your power to be a part of those changes or watch them sail by with nary an inclination to participate. However, you are the light workers and came here to fulfill a mission that is fast moving toward completion. It is your choice to watch or become all you came here to be. ...

But you need to act and act swiftly as times are indeed growing short. It is truly time now to believe in yourselves and know that you are acting under the highest authority there is, that of Prime Creator. A decree has gone out across the universe for all to come to the aid of their fellow brothers and sisters.

So, my dear ones, you are certainly not alone in your struggles to bring this Earth back to its long ago prominence. You have all of Heaven at your disposal and the assistance of light workers everywhere. So why then would you hesitate to act with the courage now that is needed when you are indeed nearing the finish line?

Why would you hesitate after lifetime after lifetime of stress and strain, to see a better earth now when you are so close. Is it too much to ask for just a little more effort to end the bonds of tyranny for ever on this planet or would you continue to sit idly by and wait for someone else to do it? What can I do you might ask? And that dear ones is the beginning of courage needed to finish the last mile.

As you have been told many times and though many sources, you are the Ones. We can not do it without your help nor would we want to, as this is your world and what happens here is a product of your collective unconscious. We can only guide and nudge you along but you are the ones who need to "take the bull by the horns" and continue to propagate the species through your light and undying devotion. Again what can you do? Prepare your selves my beloved for the times that are fast approaching that will literally shake all out of their doldrums and awaken them to realities they thought only existed in fairy tales and fantasy or science fiction.

Prepare by first becoming informed of the many atrocities that have been committed in the name of God or for misuse of power. This is only the tip of the proverbial iceberg as so much will be revealed to you shortly. Many when they hear of these atrocities and ponder if they could be true, will reach out to those who may know. That dear ones will be where you come in, to assist those who are asking. As always, it is "ask and you shall receive". So as they ask, you will be there to assist in their awakening and to extinguish all the flames of mistrust that arise and to quench their thirst for truth. Literally, "the truth shall set you all free". It is the truth that will pave the way for a new earth and a new heaven upon the earth for only in truth are a people actually free. ...

Many are feeling the urgency of these messages and knowing that something big is about to happen. Do you feel it within your selves? An inner knowing that all is about to come cascading down to be replaced by a new society that is formed for the betterment of all, not just a so called privileged few.

You are being called upon now to wake up out of your long slumber and step once more onto the battlefield, not of war but of light and peace, not of mistrust but of truth, not of hate but of love. The plan for the earth is being reestablished once again for all to know their greatness and their inalienable right to freedom that is established in an environment of truth and real justice. Be ready, dear ones, to answer the call when it is sounded for the final trumpet is soon to blow and with it will be the end of all that was dark upon this earth to be replaced only by the light. Light has indeed descended on earth and love and light and power are restoring the plan on earth.

It is time now for you to respond to the call to do everything you can to spread the word of light and love to all you can, so that no one will be wanting again. You have the power, dear ones, to take back what has rightfully been yours, to nourish the earth and all those who reside on and within it.

Find it within yourselves to reach out one more time to lighten the loads of others as they strive to understand and grasp the full meaning of freedom that has eluded most for so long.

Once this has reached its conclusion and all are fully on their way toward their own ascension, then, dear ones, you can relax and consider this a job well done and a knowing that you were a participant in the greatest undertaking this universe has ever seen.

You will have earned the gratitude of many, but most of all you will know that you did your best and accomplished what many believed could not be done in such a short period of time. Until then, please keep your game face on and remain in the battle to keep the light shining brightly to all those who are ready to receive it, and to others, keep them in your prayers so that they will open up to the light when they are ready.

Lightworkers are coming into their own now because they will soon be needed, to help pass the word around as to what is happening and why. ...

Sanat Kumara: You are Changing the World You Live In

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/09/20/ transcript-sanat-kumara-ascension-your-new-tomorrow-right-now-sept-17-2015/.

"Transcript: Sanat Kumara ~ Ascension: Your New Tomorrow, Right Now ~ September 17, 2015," An Hour with an Angel, through Linda Dillon, at http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/09/20/ transcript-sanat-kumara-ascension-your-new-tomorrow-right-now-sept-17-2015/.

I'd like to revisit a conversation with Sanat Kumara, planetary logos - now universal logos - or chief shepherd for Earth, on An Hour with an Angel, in which "Raj," as he likes to be called, outlined exactly what we do when we assist the Company of Heaven, often in our night travels.

He also described how the lightwork we do in the daytime adds to the formation and constitution of Nova Earth.

Every core issue we complete, every expansion into love adds to the new domain, he said.

Sanat Kumara: You are already co-constructing with us what you are calling the new domain. So it is not an arduous task. In fact it is a joyful task. And it is already underway.

Steve Beckow: Can you just expand, Raj, on what you mean when you say that we're both co- creating this new domain? Is it happening in our sleep? Is it happening because another part of us that is above or below the ordinary consciousness has worked on this? How am I helping you construct a new domain apart from writing a blog and doing these shows?

SK: Do not discount this – please. And this is back to where we have begun with the denial and the downplaying of what you have done and what you are doing.

It is happening on the conscious, the subconscious, the unconscious, the astral, the angelic realms both in and out of your body. Yes, much of it is night work but much of it is conscious work as well.

When you talk, and I'm not simply speaking of you, Steve, but I'm talking about the willingness to bring what has been thought of previously as exceptionally-esoteric material to common everyday discussion, to talk about the need for peace, for the elimination of abuse, which is simply peace, for the creation of equality, for the creation of sacred partnerships which are anchored in freedom and love, not control or finances. So you are doing a great deal of the work.

You have been laying that foundation not only pre-construction but you have been doing the work and I'm talking to all of you now. The limitation of core issues, the expansion into love – all of this is changing the world that you live in.

When you travel at night with Michael and you go to the places of violence, whether it is in Syria or Los Angeles, it matters not. And you are diligently anchoring within the hearts of those who create violence the desire for peace. When you comfort those who are the victims of violence and you reassure them of their worth and that they are loved and seen and known - what you think of as night work – when those people wake up the next day, they are changed.

They are anchored in a different vibratory rate. Not simply because Michael has been in attendance but because many of you have been in attendance as your higher, universal, angelic, starseed self.

And you have spared nothing in bringing these people along. And by sitting at home and sending love and hope and peace all over the planet you are creating the new domain.

You say: “Yes, but, Lord, look there is still war. There is still mayhem.” You are in and you are visiting and you are participating in the creative chaos and that is another reality.

So you are shifting but because you are in your body, consciously you are thinking: “Oh no, I am not travelling inter-dimensionally.” When you have a vision, a day, an experience, a moment of such exceptional grace - when you have a moment or a day when you know you are in your mastery - when you fully behold the beauty of a sunset and you are the sunset – you are participating in the creation of that new domain where that becomes what you think of as everyday reality.

Who are We Lightworkers and Where Did We Come from? – Part 1/2

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/10/01/who-are-we-lightworkers-and-where-did-we-come-from-part-1-2/

I'd like now to look at starseed lightworkers - who we are, where we're from, what is our future, etc., according to our galactic and celestial sources.

Let's hear first from the newly-announced universal logos, (1) Sanat Kumara, on where we're from:

> "Beloved friends, you have come from far and wide, from the angelic and archangelic realms, from star systems far away. You have come as ancient Earthkeepers, as hybrids, as elementals, as Venusians. But you are all human." (2)

Archangel Michael through Ronna agrees:

> "Beloved Masters, you came from far-distant Universes, Sub-Universes, Galaxies and Planets, and you brought with you a wealth of cosmic information, which was stored within your Sacred Mind for future access." (3)

Well, if we come from "far-distant Universes," then we're extraterrestrials too! SaLuSa makes the point:

> "Bear in mind that every soul has come to Earth from another civilization, and you are as much extraterrestrials as any others. Indeed, for that reason you feel very much at home with the idea of meeting us.
> "You will be introduced to your true family in course of time, and they have followed your progress and will be overjoyed to meet you once again." (4)

So it really is our star family.

We as lightworkers would not have come to Earth at this time if we hadn't been through this process before, Michael through Ronna tells us:

> "Beloved masters, first of all, allow us to ease your minds. The ascension process is not new to you. You have accomplished it many times before.
> "You all are masters of the highest order, or you would not have been chosen as Star Seed Wayshowers for this unprecedented evolutionary process the Earth and humanity are presently experiencing.
> "You have expert credentials, and you have proven your cocreative mastery a multitude of times during your many cosmic journeys." (5)

Michael says through Linda that he chose the six billion on the planet today and tells us where we came from.

> "Whether you consciously are realizing it or not, unconsciously, sub-consciously, soul-level, you are realizing [that] this is the circle. This is the circle of 6 billion-plus that I chose to do this with.
> "So, yes. You have gathered from far and wide, seraphs, archangels, those from the Outer Forces, the Inner Forces. It is a gathering the magnitude of which you are just glimpsing." (6)

He could have said "that you never dreamed of." Because even when he tells us, it's difficult to get our minds around that magnitude.

Saul takes the camera lens and widens it, describing who we are at a more general level, when we're not hiding ourselves "in the depths of the illusion":

> "You are all divine beings of power and might who have chosen to constrain yourselves within the very narrow confines of a human body. And now the time has come for you to move on — to move up into the higher dimensions where your spirits shine out brilliantly through the beautiful Light with which God endowed you at the moment of your creation.
> "Your divine nature is to shine, and, even as you hide yourselves in the depths of the illusion, that nature shines through when you think, speak, or behave lovingly, compassionately, or forgivingly." (7)

(Concluded in Part 2, below.)

(3) He added:

"There were stringent requirements you had to pass and solemn vows you had to make.

"You agreed to come to Earth during these momentous evolutionary times, and then incarnate into greatly diverse and often very difficult circumstances. ...

"Most of you, who have consciously made an effort to reclaim your Divinity, through whatever means you were/are attracted to, are among this advanced group of souls. You agreed to be the examples, and you are willing to do everything within your power to ease the way for others by becoming sentinels of Light,

(6) The rest of what he said is also instructive:

"And what does this mean in practical terms to you and to us? Often we have said to you, in this life, and this incarnation, you have brought with you all talents, all abilities. Your complete soul design is anchored and you are ready to go forward.

If that does not imply and directly speak to mastery, then I do not know what does. So then you say to me, 'Well, Lord, why have you not spoken of this before?' Because you weren't ready. Period. Within that sense of lack of self-worth and the ego out of control, you weren't ready to have this conversation. You weren't ready to be in that place of the balance, which is the place that you create from." (7) He adds:

"The more that you do so the brighter burns your Light, which is very clearly visible in the spiritual realms, and which those in the physical realms can sense, feel, and recognize as goodness and holiness, which provides them with a safe space in which they can find acceptance and comfort." (Saul, "When you are focused on third-dimensional issues, you are only about 1% present!" through John Smallman, March 31, 2013, at httpss://johnsmallman.wordpress.com/2013/03/31/when-you-are-focused-on-third-dimensional-issues-you-are-only-about-1-present/.)

Who are We Lightworkers and Where Did We Come from? – Part 2/2

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/10/01/who-are-we-lightworkers-and-where-did-we-come-from-part-2-2/

Who is it that caused all this relocation from distant star systems? It's the Divine Mother, of course, as she acknowledges here:

> "Yes, certainly you are my brave hearts, my champions of change. But dearest heart, you are the heroes, you are the ambassadors, you are the emissaries. I have called you from many sectors; from governance and communication, from nurturing and healing, channeling.

> "I am bringing you together, I have already brought you together in this sacred circle for the transformation of Gaia, for the transformation of what it means to be Gaian, and for the fulfillment of My Plan…in gentleness, in sweetness, in kindness, not in violence or upheaval." (1)

"You are angels in form," she tells us, and traces our origin, back to the One:

> "... and you have been birthed even prior to that as the essence of One. So you return to that while keeping your magnificent form." (2)

After we've fulfilled the Mother's Plan, Mike Quinsey's source tells us we get to go back to where we came from:

> "When you have completed your contract, you can automatically return to your home planet." (3)

I personally have 200 years off and then this whole team that we are does it all again on the Seventh Dimension, as Michael discusses here:

> Steve: The next assignment is in the Seventh Dimension?
> Archangel Michael: You will have a choice of planetary systems. This [Ascension] is just the warm-up for [that] Ascension. It is to bring a further rising of vibrations to those throughout the Universe. (4)
> AAM: When you complete this mission, you are allowed to have 200 years off. But what you do with that is up to you, dear one! You will certainly have full access to your inter-dimensionality. (5)

Did I hear someone say lightworkers are a small group among a large population - and what can we do? Michael addresses that too:

> Archangel Michael: Does the conversation expand organically and naturally? Does the energy go out to the entire planet, those who want to hear and those who don't want to hear? Yes, it does. But it begins with the lightworker community. That is what we have need of.
> Steve: And I suppose then more and more people join the lightworker community?

AAM: Exactly, until it is one family and one path. (6)

So that's how we came to be here, what the post-Ascension future holds, and where we go when complete.

I'll continue to burrow down into other aspects of our work for the Mother as Starseed Lightworkers.

Why Did We Starseeds Come to Earth?

August 22, 2013

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2013/08/22/why-did-we-starseed-come-to-earth/

Our sources tell us so much about our roles as Starseeds.

We come from higher dimensions. [2022: Since this article was written, we've learned that all on planet Earth are angelics.] (1) Many of us have light bodies. But many of us come from dimensions where we have no bodies.

Sue Lie was describing to me a meeting of the Arcturian High Council, whose participants are formless beings. I asked her how a formless being sits in a chair and she replied dryly: "There are no chairs."

None of us, probably, has any conception of what that must be like and yet she is describing many of us, whether we know it or not. But this kind of newness is what we'll encounter every day. It will only increase.

We've experienced Ascension many times already and consented to come to this planet to assist its inhabitants with theirs. As Archangel Michael put it to me, "you have agreed to be human." I asked him what one gives up by having made that agreement? "Huge portions of memory," he replied. (2)

According to the Arcturians, "the greatest trap of the third dimension ... is the trap of forgetfulness." None of us remembers who we are or where we came from and this binds us. Speaking of our situation, they said:

> "It is the forgetfulness that traps those that have achieved great states of consciousness for they forget that they are not their body. They forget that they are wearing their body and then they begin to think that they are their body.
> "And then they start listening to the primal urges of their body – the guilt, the fear, the anger and of course the most primitive and the most basic is the urge for procreation, sexuality." (3)

Starseeds also give up what Archangel Michael called "the ability for instantaneous creation." But the dearest sacrifice of all is "the deepest connection and knowing of the unification and the presence of all." Without a sense of unity, there's no unitive consciousness. "That is what you have forfeited as it were – sacrificed, put on hold," Archangel Michael said. (4)

The Arcturians suggest that we "come to Earth ... as a step-down transformer." (5) "Whenever you raise your frequency into your true self," the energy is transmitted into Gaia and back again and then "that shift of planetary energy ... comes back into you, into your core and your kundalini." This "greatly expands your experience of the flow of kundalini - and then [brings] ... that nowness of the bliss and the nowness of the euphoria." (6) I'm sure more and more of us each day are experiencing that bliss and euphoria.

The Pleiadians use the image of a bridge to describe the work of us Starseeds.

> "Souls who've come from our collective and from various other collectives working with the Galactic Federation and the Light Forces overall, have incarnated on your world in a direct effort to become bridges between the higher dimensions and the Earthly realms they've funneled themselves down into." (7)

Our climbing the stairs of self-knowledge offers an example to terrestrials that they can emulate. The Celestial White Beings (or angels) suggest how that works.

> "You have been chosen to be upon the Earth at this time for a specific reason, which is [suggested by] the beautiful and powerful being that you are. Rediscovering yourself allows ... all to rediscover the truth of the Creator." (8)

Saan through Wes Annac reminds us that we knew the costs and benefits of coming to Earth.

> "You knew that your perception of the realms of spirit from the lower-dimensional Earth would help uplift the collective enormously, and you knew that you'd enjoy the experiences you had immensely as you came to find enlightenment and came to enjoy your Earthly experiences.
> "It was known by many of you that the struggles would be nearly endless and more difficult than could be perceived from the higher dimensions, but you knew that a silver lining was present; a grand Light at the end of the long, dark Earthly tunnel, so to speak." (9)

And not all of us stayed the course, White Cloud reports:

> "So, my friends, although at times so many of you feel like giving up, like giving in, like the feeling of, "I cannot do this anymore!" I say to you, go deep within your soul and recognize that you came down here because you were chosen, because you, each one of you, have with inside of you the strength of great warriors of light. It was that many of you volunteered to come. ...
> "There were others that volunteered, my friends. And yet they were not strong enough to see this through. So it is that my message to you this day is to understand that you are the ones that are changing your world. Because you have the knowing to do so." (10)

The Divine Mother knows our struggles. She says:

> "For many it is bringing up doubts and resistance. For many it is still bringing up those parts of you that still cling to old beliefs of what you think you are, of who you think you are." (11)

But we're at last nearing the time when the veil is to be lifted and our self-knowledge restored, Saan tells us:

> "The time has now come for you to accept your own divine nature. It will now become increasingly important, as well as easier, for you to do this." (12)

In our march towards self-knowledge, Archangel Michael counsels us not to look outside, not to follow others, but to find our own light and lighten our own path.

Many of you are still seeking outside yourself, turning to those you think are more powerful or more knowledgeable than you, hoping they will lead the way so you will not have to step to the forefront into untested territory.

> "We tell you, Beloved Ones, this will not work. You, as Wayshowers and Pathfinders, must Lighten your own path, draw on your own precious inner wisdom, which has been paid for and won through many long ages of experience, trials and suffering, and ultimately, success. (13)

He encourages us to keep moving forward until we find the self-worth that self-knowledge brings.

> "Do not rest until you have found the feeling of self-worth that will arise when you understand at last who you truly are. You really did ask to come here. You truly did desire to witness and participate in this unfolding. You truly are the very best choices for this time." (14)

As wayshowers, we need to let go of dysfunctional programs of rescuing others and instead come together, share, and help others to see their own authentic power. That's how we'll all rise together, Archangel Gabrielle says.

> "We are asking you to not only lift yourself up but to lift others up, as well. That means letting go of fixing or rescuing others but rather encouraging them in their own authentic power. It is about sharing information, it is about sharing love, it is about sharing your advantage. It is about understanding that there is more than enough for everyone. It is about letting go of lack based consciousness.
> "It is about seeing yourself as being healed and whole and divine, and seeing others as being healed and whole and divine, as well. You are the human > beings of light on earth, that is who you are. Anything that suggests you are less than that is illusion and these new energies are stripping away those illusions." (15)

The Divine Mother encourages us to dive deep within ourselves.

> "Deep down you know of your nature, your Divine Nature. Deep down you know of its possibilities and its consequences. Deep down you recognize yourself more and more, as the veils are lifted from your hearts and as you accept yourselves truly and absolutely." (16)

Thus we Starseeds accepted the veil of forgetfulness. We're now seeing, by the rise of love and bliss in us, the approaching end to our self-imposed condition of self-forgetfulness. Whether seen as wayshowers or pathfinders or bridges, we're here to show the way to the higher dimensions by going through the same upliftment process that Third-Dimensional beings go through and sharing what we see and feel.

Having paid a price in forgetfulness, having endured loneliness, boredom, and lack, we now approach the time when the blissfulness of our inner state suggests that release is in the offing. While many around us will not know what's occurring, we know that our mounting the staircase of consciousness is intended to show others who have not walked this way before how Ascension is accomplished.

Do Angels Live on Planets and in Dimensions?

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/06/18/do-angels-live-on-planets-and-in-dimensions/

Anyone who's asked in a reading what dimension they're from will have heard the source reply Fifth, or Seventh, or Ninth, or Eleventh. And to this point in time, I've always assumed this meant that the person had evolved to and lived on that dimension.

But now with the knowledge coming out that most lightworkers are angels [2022: That everyone on Earth is angelic], (1) the significance of dimensionality is in need of revision.

Archangel Michael told us back in 2012 on An Hour with an Angel that:

> "The angelic realm, all of us, are not part of that twelve dimensions, twelve planes of human existence. We are a realm beyond that." (2)

And here he discusses the subject at greater length:

Steve Beckow: All angels are beyond dimension, is that correct?

Archangel Michael: Yes, now do we inhabit and exhibit and experience dimensionally in order to be with you and with many throughout the universe? Yes, we do.

SB: So, often we've been told "You're from the 7th dimension," "You're from the 9th" or "from the 11th." We're talking about angels but that is where they prefer to hang out at the moment.

AAM: That is where they are alighting. (3)

Alright, well, where are angels from then, I asked AAM.

Archangel Michael: Think of it in this way. Think of your planet or even think of your galaxy. Then outside of your galaxy you have what you believe to be deep space.

Now we also know that deep space contains many other galaxies so keep going and keep going and keep going. Now, when you have gone through all of that, think of it as being contained in a bubble, go outside the bubble. That's where we are.

SB: Aah. So transcendental space.

AAM: Yes. But also at times the space - now we are going to really confuse you - the space in-between the spaces.

We occupy often the space between the spaces. We come from Source.

SB: Right. Wow!

AAM: Yes, it is bigger than you think.

SB: Yes. So you are transcendental? [I have failed to assimilate the full meaning of AAM's comment.]

AAM: Yes.

SB: All angels?

AAM: Yes. (4)

In another discussion I was moved to ask him if angels are from dimensions altogether different from human, to which he replied:

AAM: Angels are altogether different from humans.

SB: Okay.

AAM: Now, more and more what you are seeing is the angelic self shining through and finding that place of balance within and in conjunction with the human self. (5)

He explained that the common way of speaking about dimensions obscured the true situation. He emphasized the need to increase the clarity with which these matters were discussed.

"We tend to say, and we have certainly often said, 'They are from…' Perhaps it would be more accurate to say that they anchor, they visit, they are of.

"Now, the same is true, because this is part of my favorite topic because it pertains to how do you — and we — interpret the information that we share with you? And as you are learning to speak in a different way, and vibration, with your star brothers and sisters, it is increasingly important that we be clear and you be clear.

"And, additionally, because of this and because of the expansion that you are experiencing, your being, not merely your mind or your heart consciousness, or your emotional body, but the totality of your being is more prepared to receive and integrate the information that I speak of now.

"So when you are asking about a being that is in form… so let us, for the purposes of discussion, call this person a human being whether they are a hybrid or not. When they are in human form, that does not eradicate, can we say, their angelic self.

"And very often — in fact, most often — when you think of the universal self, which is a term we use rather than simply higher self, which feels like a connection to a part of you, but think of it as higher, your angelic self is a very large part of who you are in a universal sense." (6)

Angels come into form to share the human experience and they will have a favorite dimension.

"When you come into human form, you do so to experience the realm of the human experience — 12 dimensions, 12 planes within those dimensions, 12 rays, and so on. Now, what you are saying, and what we are saying, is where has this person primarily positioned themselves, not only in this lifetimes, but in many lifetimes? When they assume form, what is the spot that they are most joyous in and like to call home?

"And for some it is the 7th, which is the Christ consciousness and love. For some, it is beauty [the 9th Dimension of Surrender, Truth and Joy]. For some it is mastery [the 11th Dimension of Mastery].

"So then we will say, 'That person is from, or of…' the 9th, the 10th, the 7th, the 5th, and so on, and they carry the qualities of that dimension, of that reality. That is what they bring, particularly during the time when the old 3rd has been breaking down." (7)

When we as angels leave form, we may choose to go back to our favorite human dimension or we may choose to return to the angelic domain, as we wish.

"Now, when you leave human form, when you say to me, or to the Mother or your guides, or your beloved, 'I am leaving now. I am shedding this physical form. I will see you later,' there is a universe of expansion and choice. Now, does that mean that that person, that being, now this sheer energy of angel-self, leaves completely the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th dimension? Not necessarily.

"Are they restricted to that reality? No." (8)

And what about planets? Often in readings it's said that a person, who later turns out to be an angel, is from Arcturus or Andromeda or the Pleiades. Do angels live on planets?

Steve Beckow: I've heard of so many angels living on different planets, I'm a little bit confused on whether angels live in a different realm or simply live on planets or what.

Archangel Michael: No, they do not live on different planets. Let us be very clear. The angelic realm has the ability to have a physical experience, what you in your realm of human experience tend to think of as primarily third- and fourth-dimensional physical experiences.

But they can do that on any planet they choose.

S: And they don't stop being their angelic self elsewhere.

AAM: Well, there is never any need to.

S: Need to what, Lord?

AAM: Assume a different physicality or form. That is simply a choice.

S: But do they send down an aspect of themselves?

AAM: No. Think of it as simply ways in which they can alight for a while and for our definition of a while it can be ten minutes or ten thousand years. But to say that there would be angelic planets would be … incomplete, let us put it that way. An incomplete understanding. (9)

I took the case of "X" who has lived on Venus and elsewhere and yet is an angel.

S: X is an angel, but she's been on Venus, the Pleiades, Andromeda.

AAM: Yes, and she has assumed various forms when she has been on those planets just as she is an angel in form when she is existing on Gaia.

S: But somewhere out there is her angelic form?

AAM: Well, her angelic form is simply folded in to who she is. She has done and mostly completed that integration. What she is not realizing and we use her as simply a prototype, and she is doing this more and more and more, so when she wishes to exhibit her angelic form, she will do so.

> She has felt she has done it mostly in the privacy of her own home because she is not quite comfortable…. Ask Y because she has done this as well. Ask her how she can simply morph. It is like shapeshifting. It is actually quite easy. So play with it.
> Do not go to the depths of hell and say I must do this, I must exert myself. Simply open and stretch your wings. (10)

So now, if this information is correct, we know that angels are beyond human dimensionality, that they're transcendental. But they have the power to incarnate in form, to live on dimensional planets, and then to return to their own domain when they choose and have finished their service to the Mother.

When a dimension is cited, as in a reading, really what's being said is where that angel chooses to alight or spend time. But it isn't an indicator of evolution. Angels live beyond the bubble of dimensional life, the known universe, in a transcendental space.

Most of Us Are or Have Been Angels – Part 1/2

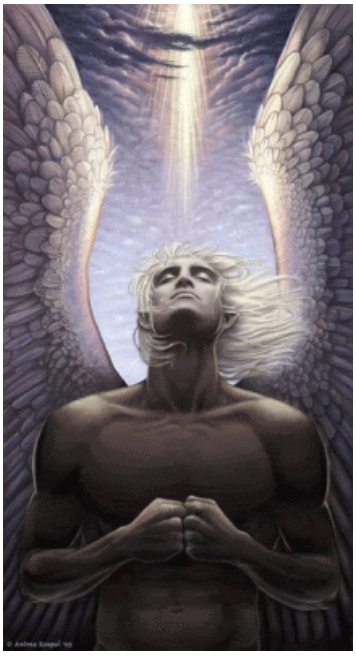
https://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/06/16/most-of-us-are-or-have-been-angels-part-12/



At the time of writing this, I was still coming from the notion that many of us were angelics.

It wasn't until 2022 that I realized that, according to the Company of Heaven, everyone here today is an angelic:

> Divine Mother: And let me be clear. There is not one being – human, starseed, hybrid or earthkeeper – that is not one of my Angelic Beings. And it matters not whether you belong to the Legion of Michael or the Tribe of Uriel, the Praisers of Metatron or the Truth Speakers of Gabrielle. It does not matter your colour, your hue. You are my Angels, birthed from my being – birthed not only from my womb, but from my heart. ("The Mother's Clarion Call to All of Humanity!" April 20, 2020, at https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/04/20/the-mothers-clarion-call-to-all-of-humanity/.)

> Archangel Michael: At this interception moment of ascension and shift, all present upon the planet, from what has been judged as the most egregious to the most saintly, are angelics. (Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, Sept. 16, 2020.)

And when I realized it, I felt as if I had been hit by a thunderbolt. Oh!

Let's now pick up with this 2014 article which looks at the evidence for this viewpoint from numerous channels, not simply one.

The angels through Tazjima tell us that "many of you are angelic beings, sweet, gentle and kind." (1) The source who calls herself "Mary," through Pamela Kribbe, tells us that "you have been angels yourself at one time and, deep down, you still are. From the core of your being runs a channel to the angelic realm." (2)

Let's look at these two cases.

Those who Descended from the Angelic Kingdom Long Ago

Archangel Michael explains that the greatest number of us descended from the angelic kingdom long ago.

> "When you emanated as love or light from the heart of One into that light form, for the greatest percentage of you - there would be such a small fraction that it is really not worth speaking of in this discussion — the first form you assumed was angelic.
> "Now, some of you emerged, can we say, as the first wave. Some of you emerged as seraphim. Some of you emerged as archangels. Some of you emerged as angels." (3)

On another occasion he says:

> "Each of you, my beloved brothers and sisters, have begun your journey, not only as a spark of light, not only as an emanation from the heart of One, but > as an angel—some of you, a few of you, even as archangels, or one of the keepers of the dominions or the principalities or the virtues." (4)

We've already travelled through all the angelic kingdoms, he explains.

> "As you have left the heart of One, you have traveled through, think of it, all the angelic kingdoms or spheres. Now, most of you, of course, did not become or stop or remain as a seraphim or an archangel or a dominion. But many of you, most of you, have certainly spent time, if I can put it that way, in the angelic realm." (5)

Following that, we formless beings agreed to participate in the experiment of form, he tells us:

> "And then, yes, you have incarnated. You have been the adventurous ones, you have been the explorers, and you believed in yourself strongly enough to say to the Mother/Father/One, 'I am going to go. I will assume form. I will know the joy of being in form and physicality, and then I will come home and resume my [original] form.'
> "Well, some of you have not resumed in eons. But that matters not. Whether you are starseed or hybrid or Earth-keeper, you still are angelic. And this is something we want you to remember, to spend time during this process of Ascension incorporating, inviting in, all of your glorious aspects." (6)

Why we did that, Archangel Michael reminds us, was out of love.

> "You have, again, in service to the One, gone and assumed human forms, or other forms in other planetary systems, always because of love. This is the primary motivator. It isn't about punishment. … It isn't about doing service as you think of, in terms of military terms. It is about love." (7)

"Mary" tells us, "you have come to the adventure of life on Earth of your own free will." (8) Why we came here was, she says, was "to learn, to have adventure, and to experience all manner of things. It is meant to be a joyful adventure." (9)

These then are the angels that have been on Earth for a very long time - in fact, since Earth's earliest days. They've been called the Creator Race. (10)

Jesus explained to us how and why Gaia was created:

> "Often we have talked to you, and particularly my beloved Mother has talked to you, about the creation of this wonderful planet of Gaia and how it was created as a planet of Love and a planet of peace, my friends. …
> "In the very creation and the essence of this mighty being called Gaia was the formation of a place, a physical experience of such diversity and incredible beauty that the angels would come and play here and know what it was to have a physical experience of Love." (11)

Commander Ashira describes this original group that came to furnish the setting that Gaia was.

> "There was an original group called the Creator Race on Earth – and it wasn't as small as many of you are thinking. Was it billions? No. But it was significant. … This was not simply one generation – it was many generations.
> "So there were many generations of the Creator Race coming into form – either as Starseed or Angelics – into form to create what would be the experience of Love, of joy, of community, of temperance, on Earth. Now if you think of it as the various stages that you are aware of – industrial, agro, even your information age, your electronic age – well, you are much much older than you think." (12)

This then is the first group of angelic beings who came to Earth or Gaia in the far distant past and are here again today.

Tomorrow we'll look at those who came from the angelic kingdom directly and specifically in this lifetime to assist with this ground-breaking Ascension.

Most of Us Are or Have Been Angels – Part 2/2

June 17, 2014

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/06/17/most-of-us-are-or-have-been-angels-part-22/

(Concluded from Part 1.)

Those who Descended from the Angelic Kingdom to Assist with This Ascension

Before we turn to our identity as angels, I'd like to spend a moment looking at why the celestials have not told us about this before. And I'd like to look as well at how they are more and more required to cease intervening in our affairs and let us test our wings, so to speak.

The celestials have appeared to work their way up to revealing that a large number of lightworkers here to assist with Ascension are angels [2022: That everyone here on Earth at this time is an angelic.] (1) . Archangel Michael told us that he had not revealed this fact before we because we were not ready to hear it:

> "This is the circle of 6 billion-plus that I chose to do this with. So, yes. You have gathered from far and wide, seraphs, archangels, those from the Outer Forces, the Inner Forces. It is a gathering the magnitude of which you are just glimpsing. …

> "So then you say to me, 'Well, Lord, why have you not spoken of this before?' Because you weren't ready. Period. Within that sense of lack of self-worth and the ego out of control, you weren't ready to have this conversation. You weren't ready to be in that place of the balance, which is the place that you create from." (2)

Lest we think that only the celestials say this, here is the Arcturian Group saying it as well:

> "You are Divine beings in your real identity and therefore have infinite sources of ideas and ways of doing and being. The problem has been that you have not known this and most were not ready to know this until now. In your ignorance you have believed yourselves to be less that the lowest.

> "Churches taught that you were worms in the dust until you performed certain rituals or believed certain doctrines. In your ignorance, you accepted this, freely giving your power to those who would then claim it for themselves, convincing you that only they knew what was best for you." (3)

The fact that we are ready also has an impact on the way other events play out. While humanity was still in its infancy, the celestials could intervene in our affairs.

But now that we're entering into partnership with them, they're required to stand back and allow us to work things out. (That seems to be one reason for the stall of the Reval, that the celestials have to leave it up to us now to get rid of our greed and work for humanity. They won't simply hand it to us on a platter now that we've "grown up.")

Archangel Michael discusses that here:

> "We give you a little hint. We give you a little nudge. Sometimes we give you a very big nudge. But when it comes down to your decisions, the collective and the individual, we do not interfere.
> "There were times, particularly in the density of the very dark times, when the illusions of humanity were so dark and so enmeshed that we were permitted more what you would think of as interference and what we would think of as protection and intervention.
> "But those paradigms, those false grids, those false belief systems are disintegrating even as we speak, as you begin — and you are already underway in your Ascension process.
> "So are we in greater partnership? Yes. Are we in less what you would think of as interference or intervention? Yes." (4)

During 2013, the celestials, galactics and ascended masters began more and more to reveal that the largest number of lightworkers were in fact from the angelic kingdom.

In April 2013, the angels, speaking through Tazjima, called us "our human angels, who have bravely embodied on mother earth in this time of glorious transition." (5)

In June 2014, Jesus called us "the angels of the new age" and revealed that:

> "You have come to the Earth to usher in the new time, and you come in peace. You no longer come here with the sword of the ego unsheathed. You come here in peace. Now is the time to again take up your strength and to dare to believe in yourself.

> "Yes, you are that angel of peace, because in you the cycle of lives has come to completion: from dark to light, from ego to heart, and you now want to embrace the heart-based consciousness that is the result of all that experience." (6)

The Pleiaidians through Bella Capozzi informed us that "you are each precious angels in human form. You are here with a purpose, each and every one – a purpose most unique and unlike that of any other. You are on earth as representatives of the many cultures and races who watch you with avid fascination." Gradually the veil is falling away revealing the truth to us.

> "You are a diverse community at the the very least. With the dismantling of the veil, this diversity and it's accompanying intricacies are being gradually revealed to you along with your memories, your contractual obligations, your origins and the true facts about your history. For those who chose to take on a more cumbersome veil of forgetfulness, you have known yourselves only as your current, perceptually limited human self. …
> "It has been difficult, no question about it. Yet the truth is that you are so very much more than you ever might imagine!" (7)

And Archangel Michael has also revealed the truth: “Most of you are certainly of the angelic realm. That is where you have come from, not as a step down, but as a sacred service to break the old illusions of Earth, so that the new third reality can emerge.” (8)

I asked him to if he was saying many humans were formerly angels and he replied in the affirmative:

> “And they will be angels when they relinquish their physical forms and complete their missions upon the planet.” (9)

“Know that you are the agents, and the angels, of change,” he requested of us. “You are anchoring Nova Earth.” (10)

He suggested that “there are many of you who have retained the quality of your angelic self. And you know them. You look around. You even say to them, ‘You are such an angel!’ There is a sweet, kind light about these beings.”

> “And they tend to know who they are. And they tend to know that they are an Earth angel for a while in human form, and then they will simply return. And as they shed the human form mantle, they will resume their angelic form and simply continue on.” (11)

Dare to be Fully Angelic

Now the Divine Mother calls on us to awaken to the knowledge of who we are and embrace the fulness of our being.

> “Sweet angels, it is time for you to know, to embrace, to engender the fullness of your being, the delight, the magnificence, the innocence and the wonder and the power, the will, the truth of who you are.” (12)

“Mary” through Pamela Kribbe challenges us: “Dare to be fully here as the angel that you are, and to fully receive what you need to shine your light.” (13)

Archangel Michael tells us how to do that: to invite our angelic self back in:

> “Do not forget to invite your own angelic self to be with you. This is not your higher self. If you want to think in the way you do, in terms of layers, think of your angelic self as above your higher self and pull them all in—to your core, to your heart, to your feet, to your toes. Because our purpose in speaking of this is for you to acknowledge and to know your own being as well." (14)

Everything about our process of Ascension seems to be gradually unfolding - until it reaches a flash point, after which we're told things will move quickly. Our unfolding knowledge of ourselves is no exception.

Whether we came from the angelic kingdom long ago to experience life in form and have lived as humans ever since or whether we came from that kingdom recently to help with the first ever physical and mass Ascension into a brand, new space, the fact remains that we already carry an angelic inheritance.

And the time approaches when that inheritance will be actualized, by energetic washes, by the triggering of codes in our DNA, and by the acquisition of our light bodies.

We are the Legion of Angels

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/06/04/we-are-the-legion-of-angels/

Often the Company of Heaven have said that we here today are higher-dimensional beings, although we've forgotten. I once asked Archangel Michael how it was I could not remember my origins and he replied:

> "Because that was part of the agreement ... that you would come and [be] blind. … There was an agreement that you would have this experience of the third reality, of the third dimension, and you said, I am absolutely fine with it." (1)

I'd better watch what I agree to in future! (OK, just kidding!)

In fact most of us are angels, and we'll shortly be airing a special edition of An Hour with an Angel on the angelic kingdom, which will reveal quite a few startling aspects of the subject. (2)

Here's Commander Ashira telling Suzi Maresca about her angelic status, but the same could be said about great numbers of lightworkers here today:

> “Yes, we’ve seen your wings – you, Suzanne [Maresca], and many of you – but we also know the intention and the plan is for you to maintain [your physical reality], and you are doing a good job, many of you, in maintaining [it].” (3)

I know incarnated angels who've lived 700 and even 2300 lives on Earth in preparation for their role in Ascension, which shows the tremendous commitment many beings have to what's happening right now.

AND many of those lives were quite painful. Burned at the stake for religious beliefs, ostracized, poverty-stricken, abandoned.

Knowing this lends a new meaning to what the Group through Steve Rother said some time ago (2010), that “it is not easy taking your wings off and pretending to be a human.” (4) I think that any of us who heard that believed they were exaggerating. But apparently not.

All of this explains why SaLuSa might say:

> “You are viewed as great souls of Light, and so much love is being sent to you in gratitude for your sacrifices. It is not every soul that would have volunteered for what you have experienced. You had faith not just in your own powers, but also in the promises given you that you would never be forgotten, and would return to your rightful place in the Universe." (5)

On another occasion, he acknowledged our angelic status.

> “You are special Beings of a highly evolved state, except that very few of you are aware of it. You are slowly but surely beginning to understand your spiritual history, even though the idea that you are Angels is quite astonishing to you. The fact that you already have a link to your higher consciousness means that you will sub-consciously know when you are being offered truthful information.” (6)

Archangel Michael reviewed the journey that most of us have been on, and, when I say "most of us" i mean most lightworkers here on the planet today.

> "Each of you, my beloved brothers and sisters, each of you have begun your journey, not only as a spark of light, not only as an emanation from the heart of One, but as an angel - some of you, a few of you, even as archangels, or one of the keepers of the dominions or the principalities or the virtues.

"And you can see this when you look at somebody. And then, yes, you have incarnated, you have been the adventurous ones, you have been the explorers, and you believed in yourself strongly enough to say to the Mother/Father/One, 'I am going to go. I will assume form. I will know the joy of being in form and physicality, and then I will come home and resume my form.'" (7)

For some of us, the resumption of that journey comes after endless ages, he says. He now invites us to call these aspects back in to us.

"Well, some of you have not resumed in eons. But that matters not. Whether you are starseed or hybrid or Earth-keeper, you still are angelic. And this is something we want you to remember.

"You spend time during this process of Ascension incorporating, inviting in, all of your glorious aspects. So, do not forget to invite your own angelic self to be with you. This is not your higher self. If you want to think in the way you do, in terms of layers, think of your angelic self as above your higher self and pull them all in - to your core, to your heart, to your feet, to your toes. Because our purpose in speaking of this is for you to acknowledge and to know your own being as well." (8)

Let's leave the subject there for now and tomorrow we'll explore the process of incarnating, emanating or "appariting" as a human.

(2) In fact all of us here at this time are apparently angels:

Divine Mother: And let me be clear. There is not one being – human, starseed, hybrid or earthkeeper – that is not one of my Angelic Beings. And it matters not whether you belong to the Legion of Michael or the Tribe of Uriel, the Praisers of Metatron or the Truth Speakers of Gabrielle. It does not matter your colour, your hue. You are my Angels, birthed from my being – birthed not only from my womb, but from my heart. ("The Mother's Clarion Call to All of Humanity!" All on Earth are Angels

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/09/26/all-on-earth-are-angels/

Archangel Michael continues to make me aware of the extent to which his comments of our angelic origins apply. I'm still hearing that we "were once" angels, not that "we are" angels. It won't be until 2022 that the full significance - that everyone on Earth at present is and was an angelic - dawns on me.

And then … Oh, my Gawd, my thought went; what promise that represents as to what we can do in building a New Earth.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, Sept. 16, 2020.

Edited for brevity

Steve: The Mother said that there is not one being - human, starseed, hybrid or earth keeper - that is not one of my angelic beings. Did she mean that we were all born as angels in the first instance?

AAM: Yes, that is correct.

And at this interception moment of ascension and shift, all present upon the planet, from what has been judged as the most egregious to the most saintly, are angelics.

Steve: Angelics… So not angels but all the angelic kingdom. So there are many more angels than archangels, obviously.

AAM: Yes, there are.

Steve: And billions of angels?

AAM: Yes, you can think of billions of angels.

Steve: Gosh, when are we going to hear about this? We need to know more about this!

AAM: We could talk, and we certainly have talked a great deal about the angelic realms as you well know (as both of you know). But think of it in this way. The Mother gives this as an indicator and as a reminder to the humans of who they really are.

But one of the reasons we have not spent, especially recently, a great deal of time talking about the angelic kingdoms (which we could have this course for the next several centuries on) but one of the reasons we have not focused there is because there is a … what I will term a denial factor, a very huge and unproductive denial factor in the human race of the beauty, of the importance, of the magnitude of being in human form.

There is this tendency to think, "Oh, I am an angelic" "I am above the humans" "I am grander than…" And "I can ignore my human self and I can ignore my human vessel because I am an angel."

It is a very strange (from our perspective) mental process but it is a very prevalent one. And so the emphasis during this time of rebirth has been rebirth as human rather than focusing on the angel within, around, above, below… You understand what I say?

Steve: I do. Now when the Mother says you are all angels… She's not talking about you were born in the beginning as angels. She is talking about no, no, no, right now, you come from the angelic kingdom and agreed to be born… Am I correct in that?

AAM: Yes, but understand. Your initial birth, well particularly for those in the angel kingdom, has been as an angel. Very few simply emerge as a spark of light and stay that way. So the angels in form… you can think of it as a cycle.

So when you're out of form you very often will take the angelic form. So right now, the full presence, let us put it that way, the full presence of your angelic form both recent and original is anchored fully present within and around your human form.

Steve: What does that mean, "is anchored," Lord? I don't understand what that means.

AAM: It means that the awareness, when you choose to acknowledge it, (1) and the, shall we call it, the angelic abilities, are present in the human race, in the individual human form at this time so that the leap into Nova Being is in fact not as great as it might have been in other ages. (2)

Steve: OK. Is there anything we should be doing to take advantage of this situation in the service of the Mother's Plan?

AAM: Yes. ... Listen to what I say, yes, there is a great deal that could be done in terms of assisting the conclusion/next chapter/opening of the Mother's Plan by familiarizing oneself with their angelic self, with merging and acknowledging that there is no separation between your angelic self and your human self.

Now, what I say - and I need to emphasize this - I've used the word "familiarize," not "be mesmerized by." And that has been the shortcoming; that has been the weak link, that the humans become (and this is particularly true of the lightworker/loveholder community) enchanted (which is fine) and then mesmerized (which is not fine) with their angelic self and they forget that they have chosen to be in human form and to have the human experience. So very often that mesmerizing makes them move away from rather than merging into their human form. Is that clear?

Steve: Yes that's clear.

Footnotes

(1) Like bliss, love, peace, etc., our angelic presence needs to be recognized and acknowledged for it to become fully present within us. Otherwise we pass by these moments and states like ships in the night.

(2) Saints and sages in past eras had to engage in severe austerities to cleanse their consciousness for the experiences that will come almost naturally to us.

“You Weren’t Ready Before”

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/04/22/you-werent-ready-before/

Before I take a deeper look at the messages that say that all of us here on Planet Earth at this time are angelics, I'd like to look at the way the Company of Heaven (CoH) imparts information to us.

The CoH does not tell us everything about topics that they think we won't be able to comprehend.

Lao Tzu reveals that he does this. He said on Heavenly Blessings in April 2013, that, “we have not spoken of [the transformation of the body by Light] before because it was not yet time.” (1)

It was not yet time…. Hmmmm....

Archangel Michael told us in 2013 that seraphs and archangels were here and added that we weren't ready to hear that news before.

> “This is the circle of 6 billion-plus that I chose to do this with. So, yes. You have gathered from far and wide, seraphs, archangels, those from the Outer Forces, the Inner Forces. It is a gathering the magnitude of which you are just glimpsing. …
> “So then you say to me, ‘Well, Lord, why have you not spoken of this before?’ Because you weren’t ready. Period. Within that sense of lack of self-worth and the ego out of control, you weren’t ready to have this conversation. You weren’t ready to be in that place of the balance, which is the place that you create from.” (2)

Our lack of self-worth and compensating prominence of the ego made it not the right time.

Uriel gives us another example of a topic whose discussion was postponed - our divine authority:

> “We had not – and I mean the Mother and Mi-ka-el and many of us – did not speak of this issue of Divine Authority years ago. Think about this, because now you are in a position to truly bring this to full consciousness.” (3)

Clearly the Company of Heaven waits for us to be at a certain consciousness level before broaching some matters, as Mike Quinsey explains:

> "At different stages in your evolution you are given information about [what to expect] well in advance. Normally you are only given what you need to take steps forward so as not to overwhelm you." (4)

Well in advance. Think about that for a moment. How often have we heard a higher-dimensional being talk about an event that then does not come to pass? Does it simply look that way because they're telling us “well in advance”?

On another occasion, he continued:

> “As you progress through the weeks and months, so there will be more revelations to advance your understanding of the truth. You have previously been given a minimum of information but you are now more advanced and ready to learn some greater truths. ...

> “Because you are entering a new phase in your evolution where the greater truths are starting to be revealed, we ask you to keep an open mind so that you can adapt to the changes. It is best that you release your old beliefs where possible, so as to allow for an expansion of your understanding.
> “The old beliefs were limited to keep them in line with your ability to absorb and use the information. Now it is time to learn some of the greater truths about life and the world around you. The illusion that you were the one of the only life forms in your Solar System has been broken. When you bring peace to the Earth the floodgates will open and many of your off world friends will be free to visit you.” (5)

Meanwhile, the door is open wide, Mike tells us, to those who want to learn more:

> "The door is open wide to those who seek more information, and it is being given in a way that allows for a greater understanding. Since you have shown your dedication to learning more we are allowed to expand upon the details we give you. It is all in preparation for your advancement into the higher vibrations and eventual Ascension.
> "Hitherto we have only given out that which has been sufficient to answer your questions. But now your understanding is such that you are able to expand it and move on to more detailed explanations. It is time for you to take a great step forward, and there is no limit to the gains you will be able to make." (6)

The fact that light workers are maturing is allowing for an ever-more-expansive conversation, both Michael and Sanat tell us:

> Michael: My beloved friends, you are spiritually evolving and mature, so we can have a much broader conversation at this time. (7)
> Michael; We have not spoken of this of a great deal but now you’re in a place where you will understand exactly what I am saying. (8)
> Sanat: We are at the point where we can have this broader, deeper conversation on the meaning of the journey. (9)

> Sanat: Now I am going to be very forthright in this discussion because you are at a level of maturity, spiritual and emotional, where you can truly engage in the discussion, not the soliloquy, but the discussion of 'what does this mean? How does this occur?' (10)

However it's still important to dish out the information in bite-sized packets:

> Archangel Michael: What you have seen is that you have been given bite-sized pieces of energy, of energy bumps, of input of what you can digest and handle and truly bring to fruition. If you are in the process of expansion, you don't go from Grade 3 to a PhD in a week. (11)

> Archangel Michael: In terms of human comprehension in this moment we need to feed or allow the opening of the understandings to the human Collective – we're talking about the broad Collective now – to be in 'bites' that they can chew, swallow and integrate. (12)

So if we ask the question, why was the CoH not saying earlier that all or most of us here at the present time are angelics, be prepared for the answer to be that we were not ready to hear that some time ago. I presume it's in the wind now because we are ready.

I feel ready. You?

As Our Hearts Open and Our Minds Expand, More Information is Shared – Part 2/2

May 22, 2022

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/05/22/as-our-hearts-open-and-our-minds-expand-more-information-is-shared-part-2-2/

Heart Consciousness

The subject matter of Part 1 has been covered in "'You Weren't Ready Before'" in this volume.

I use question-and-answer format here.

Questioner: I can't understand everything you say.

Divine Mother: There are parts of this, in the infinite and eternal - yes, even in the fulfillment of my Plan, even in what I have termed 'New Time' - that you may not fully comprehend.

Then you may say to me, “Well, Mother, why would you even speak of it?” I speak of it as I speak of many things. I plant the seed, not merely of knowing, but of remembrance within [you].

As you water it with my clarity and grace, purity and love, it will sprout and it will grow, and you will come to know and understand, and expand in ways that are wondrous to you, to all, to me. (1)

Q: Can you give me an example of something that has remained beyond my ability to fully comprehend?

Archangel Michael: Everything – all things, all experience, all knowing, all love, all truth, all peace – is within [the] body of existence so that you can experience, perceive, understand, know what is in that body, that lake, that river of existence all at once.

Now that wasn’t within the realm of your potential [to understand] previously. You were in too much of a linear experience. You had fortified those walls so, ‘I can be here, and then here, and then here, but I can’t be everywhere at once,’ which is not the truth. Of course, you can be everywhere at once. (2)

Archangel Michael: You were taught and lived these concepts lifetime after lifetime causing them to remain in cellular memory which is what you are now able to recognize and clear. Most were not ready for the deeper truths until now. (3)

Once we commit to the spiritual journey, will you guide us?

Arcturian Group: Once you commit to the spiritual journey, you are on your way. You may be guided to a book or a class as new directions unfold for you, but in general most you are now beyond “needing” them other than for the pleasure of spiritual reading or as reminders. (4)

Arcturian Group: You have reached a place of readiness for more than main stream news and doctrines filtered through the three dimensional consciousness of others. You have the ability to access information from within. (5)

Arcturian Group: You are ready to be taught from within, trust this. It is why you came. (6)

Has our partnership changed over time?

Archangel Michael: Our partnership in the old school was a pleading for help. It was a desire like young, vulnerable children to be taken care of.

Now you have emerged into a different realm of existence where you work with us. Now that does not mean, let me be very clear, that we do not attend to you and that we do not take care of you.

But it is like the young adult that we do things in tandem together so that you are coming to fully realize and in that be able to implement and work with us, beside us as partners rather than children. (7)

How will information flow in the future?

Mike Quinsey's Higher Self: As you progress through the weeks and months, so there will be more revelations to advance your understanding of the truth. You have previously been given a minimum of information but you are now more advanced [than before] and ready to learn some greater truths. (8)

Mike Quinsey's Higher Self: The door is open wide to those who seek more information, and it is being given in a way that allows for a greater understanding. Since you have shown your dedication to learning more we are allowed to expand upon the details we give you. It is all in preparation for your advancement into the higher vibrations and eventual Ascension.

Hitherto we have only given out that which has been sufficient to answer your questions. But now your understanding is such that you are able to expand it and move on to more detailed explanations. It is time for you to take a great step forward, and there is no limit to the gains you will be able to make. (9)

Strongest of the Strong

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/08/01/the-strongest-of-the-strong/

Edited for brevity

The Company of Heaven reminds us that lightworkers have come at this present time to build Nova Earth, from the ground up. (1)

Lightholders have agreed to enter into enlightenment, which is itself service; their work is different from what lightworkers have signed on for but service notwithstanding.

If I take myself as an example of a servant, I've said for myself that heaven can wait. I don't have to complain about it. I know that heaven - the early Christian name for the Fifth Dimension, the place of "Salvation" - is there for me (and you) when my contract is done so there's no sense of urgency.

Coming back to worldly matters, we'll have help with what we do. This current Reval is not the only means by which abundance will be released to the planet. (2)

Apparently, those who prove to have integrity, compassion, and perseverance will receive greater responsibilities related to redistributing that wealth. (3)

They'll have the opportunity of being part of bringing the starving millions of the planet out of want and neglect, of giving masses of people income security, healthcare benefits, educational access, old-age security, etc.

But the real point I want to make here is that, if you choose the path of service - and you don't have to; you can rechoose at any moment - then it sets in motion another train of events regarding enlightenment.

The Divine Mother and your archangel will approach your enlightenment with your service agreement in mind. How it manifests, the degree to which you feel bliss, when it occurs are all up to them and I assert that they will take your service requirements into consideration.

My own case is educational. I've had seventh-chakra and seventh-dimensional spiritual experiences but I don't consider myself enlightened.

Why not? Because the experiences were truncated in order to (A) allow me to remain in sync with my readers, as per my service contract, and (B) not go off to the Himalayas and throw the whole thing over. The degree of my illumination was dictated by the requirements of my service contract.

Moreover, I have another service contract as a pillar. I and others like me have agreed to stay till the end and push the last stragglers onto the train. (4) Does that mean that I don't benefit from Ascension till the very last? No. I can visit but not stay. These truncated experiences are the visits.

I'm a waiter at the banquet of Ascension. (5) I can nibble on the food as we go along. But after the guests have eaten is when we waiters really get to eat. (I will never escape waiting till ... the end.)

No longing is as intense as the longing for enlightenment. But we can moderate that intensity through knowledge. If I know that I've agreed to certain service provisions that mean no enlightenment before the invited guests, my longing quiets down and I'm able to carry on.

Blossom's Federation often calls us lightworkers "the strongest of the strong." (6) To put aside the deepest longings of our soul to serve, if I may be permitted to say it, I think you'd have to be among the strongest of the strong.

Footnotes

(1) Divine Mother: I am bringing you together, I have already brought you together in this sacred circle for the transformation of Gaia, for the transformation of what it means to be Gaian, and for the fulfillment of My Plan. ("The Divine Mother ~ I Have Called You," channeled by Linda Dillon, July 15, 2019, at https://colacademy.invisionzone.com/topic/2025-the-divine-mother-~-i-have-called-you/.)

Jesus: Each of you are the implementers of the Mother's Plan.

You have been given the insight, the understanding, the tools, the mechanisms, and the will to bring forth your plan within the Mother's Plan and they are in alignment. Your heart and mind are in the alignment of love.

Now we reignite yet again the will because this is an essential part of the missing piece. It is the will to bring into physicality that which you desire. And how do you express will? It is not through intention; it is through action. ("Jesus's Call To Action!," August 6, 2016, at http://counciloflove.com/2016/08/jesus-says-walk-with-me-talk-with-me.)

Archangel Michael: You are our partners. You are the implementers of Nova Earth, the physical builders of Nova Earth embodying, very beautifully, Nova Being. ... You are creating and co-creating with us Nova Earth, new Cities of Light, new centers of peace. (Archangel Michael, "Persistence, Fortitude and Valor Being," Sept. 17, 2016, channeled by Linda Dillon, Council of Love Saturday Conference Call.)

AAM: So are there new institutions to be built, that reflect love and equality, integrity, and knowing? Yes. But do not forget, you are in the full business of co-creation with us. So this is not arduous, this is not tedious, this is not difficult. (Archangel Michael on the Containment of the Cabal, July 3, 2012, at http://the2012scenario.com/accountability/the-process-of-accountability/archangel-michael-on-the-containment-of-the-cabal/.)

(2) Archangel Michael: That is why we have also said, (this is an aside) there will be several waves of abundance. So we give you the allowance and we see how you do. ("Transcript ~ Archangel Michael on the Source of Power and Authority, AHWAA, March 9, 2017," at http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/03/18/transcript-archangel-michael-on-the-source-of-power-and-authority-ahwaa-march-9-2017/)

AAM: This plan has been an unfoldment for far too long for money to simply be washed down the drain by decisions that are not beneficial either for yourself or for others and for those who will benefit from the abundance programs, plural. (Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon,, Aug. 6, 2013. Hereafter AAM.)

AAM: There will be other sources of funding. (AAM, Aug. 27, 2013.)

(3) AAM: Those who are in a position of stewardship, of beginning projects that lead the way to the building and the re-creation of what Nova Earth is truly about ... become the spokesbeings for many. (AAM, May 27, 2016.)

(4) Apparently I'm a pillar and a pillar stays till the end. AAM discusses that role:

AAM: Your primary role ... is that you are truly acting as a pillar. So what you have done is basically moved from the front of the line to the back of the line and you are very gently, and sometimes not so gently, nudging people along.

Of course that is the role of the pillar. …

As [the doors] are very slowly swinging, you are nudging, nudging, nudging, making sure that everyone is within the sacred space, within the safety of their own sphere and helping them along, nudging them along. That is basically what you have been doing. (AAM, Nov. 11, 2015.)

AAM: I remind you that you are a pillar, that you [are] not [to] venture too far ahead of where people are, both individually in terms of your smaller circle but also in terms of the collective. ...

A very large quotient, shall we say, of you is living ... in the higher-dimensional realm. Then there is a part of you that is in the morass of the chaos and the lower-dimensional realm because that's where the work is. (AAM, Jan. 18, 2020.)

AAM: You will act at the end, to help many, many through. (AAM, Nov. 16, 2011.)

(4) AAM: It is very simple: Visit; don't stay. (AAM, May 6, 2013.)

(6) YES, YOU … EACH ONE … YOU FELT INEBRIATED WITH JOY TO BE ONE OF THE STRONGEST OF THE STRONG. YOU COULDN'T BELIEVE YOUR LUCK TO BE ONE OF THE CHOSEN.

NOW … WHAT YOU MUST DO … IS RECALL THIS KNOWING. (Federation of Light through Blossom Goodchild, July 11, 2020, at https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/07/11/the-federation-of-light-via-blossom-goodchild-july-11-2020/.)

Angels of Change

October 30, 2020

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/10/30/angels-of-change/

We are the angels of change. (1)

We are pathfinders, wayshowers, paradigm busters, explorers and builders.

How do we manage change? I've spoken at some length on one way I do it, which is to establish a beachhead of understanding, a testable hypothesis about the novel situation, from which I'm going to move out into the new terrain. (2)

It's as if my testable hypothesis is my introduction to the actors in the new territory. Hi. I'm here to prove that love is the answer to all life's problems. And you are?

I'd like to look at another way here, which is to, not so much venture into the new territory as discover where it is we're coming from as we enter the new. This increases our sense of self-confidence no matter what we do or what direction we strike out in.

In particular, what are our first principles? What is the ground we stand on?

Well, there could be for me no other ground than the divine qualities; what Linda Dillon calls the blessings and virtues.

All of them are higher dimensional. I'm particularly fond of love and bliss. And I must say I have an increasing appetite for harmony.

I actually do see all three of these slowly rising in me.

I have a two-step process happening within me. I'm at once enjoying simmering in the Mother's energies like a bather in a hottub. And I'm also able to invite a spiritual process by such strategies as opening to inspiration, asking myself what the deepest truth of the moment is, or going on a meditative journey into the heart.

Because of the first, I suspect, the second is becoming easier and easier.

So establish a beachhead of understanding and venture out from there into the new territory.

Discover what your first principles are, the ground you stand on, that about you which is non-negotiable. And again venture out from that strong point.

(1) Archangel Michael: You say, "Should I trust in the change? Should I count on the change?" when you are in fact the agents and the angels of change.

SB: Right. After all our griping too. Watch us in the end say, "We did it!" [laughs]

AAM: Yes. You will want full credit. (Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, Oct. 29, 2014.)

(3) I believe the pillars and the Buddhist concept of bodhisattvas are the same. However I don't think the bodhisattva vow was to remain in incarnation until every sentient being was enlightened. Given that more beings are constantly being created, I'm not sure how that vow could be fulfilled.

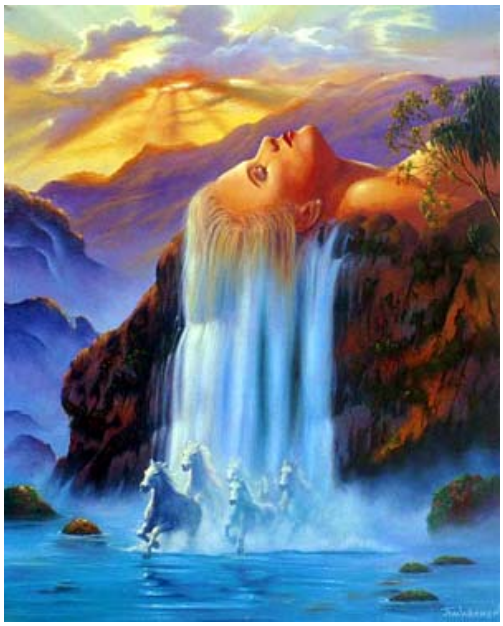
I think it was until all who wish to ascend do ascend and the Earth ceases its Third-Dimensional presence. That puts a 26,000-year boundary on it. But that’s just a guess.

⌘ Who’s Here - The Creator Race? ⌘

What is the Creator Race? – Part 1/2

April 26, 2014

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/04/26/what-is-the-creator-race-part-12/



We've heard the celestials, galactics, and ascended masters call us the "creator race." But what is the creator race? Let's spend a moment looking at the descriptions of it that we've been offered.

Before we get into it, I have to say that there are not a large number of references to the subject and that can make an article seem lean. I'm giving the research that I could find, but I'm sure there's a lot more that could be said on the subject, once we're given that "more" by our channeled sources.

Jesus Sananda explained the derivation of the term "creator race" in 2010. He said:

> "I wish to explain to you this day a little more about this creation [of Gaia] and about this … creator race. It is not a race of supremacists – quite the contrary. It is a race of humble human beings who are the embodiment of grace and the embodiment of Love." (1)

He discussed the creation of Gaia, originally as a place where angels could come to have an experience in form. Gaia's physical setting was created by angels and archangels.

> “Often we have talked to you, and particularly my beloved Mother has talked to you, about the creation of this wonderful planet of Gaia and how it was created as a planet of Love and a planet of peace, my friends. …
> “In the very creation and the essence of this mighty being called Gaia was the formation of a place, a physical experience of such diversity and incredible beauty that the angels would come and play here and know what it was to have a physical experience of Love.” (2)

Nothing was overlooked, he says:

> “The planet was created in majesty. Nothing went unattended from dewdrops to oceans, forget-me-nots to the redwood forests, from the grain of sand on the beach to the Rocky Mountains, to the Himalayas. Nothing, nothing was overlooked: the diversity, the splendor. How could an angel not come here and feel that they were in the heart of magic still connected to all of us at home?
> “When the first beings came and their heritage, their lineage as you tend to think of it even when they were star beings, were angelic. That has always been the function of this place and the act of service that Gaia performs for the Mother. And part of the joy, the fun of the beings who arrived in the very start, long before any of your recorded history, even long before Lemuria, was to create.” (3)

We humans came in to furnish the suite, so to speak.

> "The Angels, some Archangels – Gaia didn’t want to be left totally alone in form – the purpose of which was to create the societies, the communities, and some of the finishing touches on Gaia, so think of it in this way that you had this planet that was beautiful, brand new, lustrous, in formation – as if you had an empty apartment and now you came in as the Creators to decorate and to decide in your building, in your community.” (4)

The creator race created the round of life inside the physical setting.

> "Now the physical playground had been created; it had been set. But what the first race, the creator race, as you have come to think of it and know it, was to create experiences, activities, the joy of physicality. And most of that physical experience was not just of having a body but of having emotion, ego – but not ego the way you think of it but persona because of the form they had chosen to inhabit and create to take with them – and a mental facility as well. Now that was an enormous creation. And then they arrived: so what will we do with it? And the creation has never stopped." (5)

Fast forward to the present and Commander Ashira tells us that we, the creator race, have again come from everywhere and have mixed and mingled. Very few of us actually lived all our lives on Earth, even if we created the round of life on Earth in the beginning.

> "There has been so much cross-fertilization – so many of you have lived everywhere. As we have said, you are the Creator Race, but you did not hang around Earth for the entire time, my dear friends – you are a planet of explorers. So as the channel, Linda [Dillon], has said – there are actually very few of you that are only of Earth." (6)

Whomever we think we are, whatever role we think we'll play, we remain the creator race, according to Archangel Michael. And we've come to close the circle.

> "It matters not what you call yourselves, whether it is wayshowers or pillars or gatekeepers or lightholders or loveholders. You are the creator race and you step into the fullness of that role. It is not something new. If anything, it is something ancient. It is the closing of the circle and the beginning of the new.
> "So I invite you, I hold out my arms to you as do all the mighty ones , all the ascended masters. The Divine Mother, the Company of Heaven, we hold out our arms to you and say, please, join with us now in partnership." (7)

The creator race was neither small nor restricted to a single generation, Ashira tells us.

> "There was an original group called the Creator Race on Earth – and it wasn't as small as many of you are thinking. Was it billions? No. But it was significant. … This was not simply one generation – it was many generations.
> "So there were many generations of the Creator Race coming into form – either as Starseed or Angelics – into form to create what would be the experience of Love, of joy, of community, of temperance, on Earth. Now if you think of it as the various stages that you are aware of – industrial, agro, even your information age, your electronic age – well, you are much much older than you think." (8)

The creator race even includes the dark hats, Ashira says.

> "In the beginning … was the Creator Race, and now, most of you, all at once, all together – yes, even what you think of as the Dark Hats and the Cabal – have come back because you are the Creator Race. You have come full circle and you have come back and you have said, 'Now we're going to start again and we're going to do it right.' And we're here to help you." (9)

Tomorrow we'll look at our role as the creator race.

What is the Creator Race? – Part 2/2

April 27, 2014

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2014/04/27/what-is-the-creator-race-part-22/

The false grids or paradigms gained foothold over the years, Jesus informs us.

> "Now over many thousands of years the illusions, the false paradigms – what we call the disillusion – have gained footing, gained a foothold very deep in the hearts and the minds of the collective. But still that kernel of knowing, of being able to create has never gone away whether it is creating a child, a baby, a family, a business, a flower garden." It is just that the process has been slightly skewed." (1)

We chose to return at this time to end this cycle (close the circle) and begin the new, Ashira explains.

> "You have chosen to return. Think of it as a cycle that Gaia – Earth – and actually much of this sector has gone through a cycle." (2)

And we came well equipped, Lord Maitreya tells us.

> "The creator race, particularly in this universe, did not come ill-equipped. Quite the contrary. You were infused with all, so you have the capacity within you, and therefore externally, to create the All.
> "This deep sense of knowing, of power and the right use of will is where you are moving to. And it is the patterning. You are not simply mending the tears, the rents and the pattern that has occurred upon Gaia and throughout humanity. You are also creating a new pattern." (3)

At the present moment we're remembering what we need to to create the new world, he says.

> "Yes, you are learning, you are remembering, you are inventing what this new realm of partnership truly entails. There is room for maneuvering. There is room for you to think and re-think, feel and re-feel, fill and re-fill, design and re-design who you are, but also who you are in terms of your plan, in terms of the Divine Plan, and in terms of your role in bringing forth the fulfillment of Nova Earth and Nova Being.
> "So I welcome you to this new chapter, this new book, this new adventure." (4)

When we fully remember who we are, want and need will disappear from the planet, Sanat tells us:

> "When you reach the level of creativity, of creation, of reclaiming who you are as creator race, then you [will] have what you need." (5)

St. Germaine tells us that we were originally one, even before the creator race arose, and that's where we're destined to return:

> "Long ago, even before the creator race, we have all been one and known that. And we have had different responsibilities and talents that we have chosen to assume as our unique expression of one. But there was no sense of class distinction.
> "There was no hierarchy; just a beautiful tapestry of oneness. And that is what we want again. That is our desire and our creation." (6)

The key to us creating the New World, Jesus says, is love. And here we are in the Tsunami of Love, recovering that ability to love to restore our memory as the creator race and to restore our ability to create.

> "The key, the answer, and the core of recreating this experience of being on Earth is Love. It is letting go of all the illusions and stepping into the knowing that you are the creator, that your best friend is a creator, and that we are co-creators with you. And so is Gaia. So are your star brothers and sisters.
> "They were here in the very beginning. They have never left. You cannot continue to say 'Oh, it is the forces of darkness and evil, and they are having a battle.' Well, we are well aware of that. But it is not an even battle because where Love shines, all of that, all of that ridiculous illusion evaporates." (7)

Therefore, we're the creator race, who came to Gaia after the angels and archangels created the physical setting and defined the round of life. Even the cabal is part of us. Eventually the human community on Gaia strayed into false grids and paradigms of control, greed, fear and hatred, but now we're working our way back to the unconditional, unitive love that will transform this planet back again into the Garden of Eden it once was.

We have latent powers of creativity that will come alive in the future and allow us to complete our work of banishing want and need, greed and separation from the planet.

Archangel Michael: What Does It Mean to Truly Be the Creator Race?

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/01/21/archangel-michael-what-does-it-mean-to-truly-be-the-creator-race/

What does it mean to truly be the Creator Race? Now note that I do not say creator-self, because the Creator Race is a unified collective working in peace, and harmony, in support, in mutuality of the goal.

Each unique, powerful, each of you holding a piece of that puzzle. And that does not matter because what counts is that you are the collective, and you are bringing forth the collective reality of Nova Earth.

How does this translate? When you began as Creator Race, it meant not merely that you had the capacity, the innate ability, unquestioned, it was simply part of you, and still is, that you would take the sheerest of energies, and twist it, transmute it, into the form of whatever you desired, whether it was you changing form, always in accordance with Universal Law, and love and service for the Mother.

Those are givens. Those are bedrock. Those are the laws, or you would take the energy and spin a new ocean, a new mountain range, and perhaps you would choose to be the mountain range.

⌘ Lightworkers: Born to Lead ⌘

Wanted: Lightworker Leaders to Help Build Nova Earth

June 11, 2016,

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/06/11/wanted-lightworker-leaders-help-build-nova-earth/

Last year, Archangel Michael confided to us:

"It is time for [the] assumption of leadership responsibility to be front and center." (1) He issued this summons:

> "You are being called to join the [lightworker] leadership … team, those who will show the way for the beautiful souls now awakening from their spiritual slumber. Thousands are needed to facilitate and assist in this next wave of awakening that is now in progress, for it encompasses millions upon millions." (2)

"You," he told us, "are the embodiment and the physical anchors, activators, doers of creating Nova Earth. You are the anchors of ascension, of the new reality, of the heart consciousness that is the new reality." (3)

He described the new world we lightworkers were creating:

> "Nova Earth … is a physical reality where ascended beings of all stripes, colors, beliefs, preferences come together to create wondrous things, whether it is an institution or a structure or a building or a family." (4)

He told us: "This wondrous new [reality] … has not been done in form [before], anchored in a physical reality, a physical reality that is absolutely interdimensional. That is the task at hand." (5)

What he asked us to do was "to step forth in the truth of your gifts, your abilities…some in a minor way, some in a major way, but each in accordance with your true mission and purpose on Gaia – not on other planets…in tandem and cooperation with your Star brothers and sisters, but not off planet…to bring forth" this wonderful new world. (6)

"We know the magnitude of what we are asking," he reassured us, "but we also know the support that we are prepared to give on every level." (7)

There would be a new form of leadership, he suggested. It "does not come from an arbitrary assumption of control. It comes from a deeper desire than ever to truly serve." (8)

He went on to explain:

> "It is not about the old realm of control or greed, [or] anything like that. In order for the plan to unfold, in order for the practical building blocks (which is what you're asking for - money) to be in place, there has need to be a very strong re-assumption of leadership." (9)

A very strong reassumption of leadership. We lightworkers need to demonstrate strong leadership - you and me - if we're to make events like the post-Reval reconstruction of the world work. How did he define leadership? In May of 2015 he told us:

> "Leadership is assuming your responsibilities, acknowledging, accepting, embracing the wonder of who you are. And, yes, to refer to those core issues, [but] to not allow those core issues to, in any > way, interfere with the fulfillment of who you are and why you came." (10)

Leadership was understood throughout the universe, he explained.

> "We use this term that you understand - and that is understood throughout many intergalactic cultures - of leadership, of responsibility, of teamwork, of cohesion, of discernment, of all the divine qualities, not based on the old realm of control and authority and lust and arbitrary decision-making, but, upon the paradigm, upon the construct of sharing your talents and abilities." (11)

How does one serve? He replied: "Each in their own particular way." (12)

> "Everyone, and I say this to a planet that has billions of people, each of you have brought unique capacities, talents, and abilities to create and co-create individually and collectively. And increasingly what you are going to hear us speak of is this union between — not only above and below, within and without — but the individual and the collective. You have a song, you can't have one without the other. Well, this is where we truly begin to delve into this." (13)

So individual leadership first, shading into collective leadership. He's laying out the map for us.

There will always be a need for leaders, he stressed. Never again will it be filled by a single individual:

> "Sweet angels, whether you are earth-keeper or portal, wayshower or starseed, there will always be need for people, individuals, and groups, who will step forward and say, I can do that. I can take the lead because this is within the realm of my competence. I understand what is required. I am ready, willing, able, excited, interested, enthusiastic to do this.
> "And in that, you both lead the parade and act as the shepherd. You hold the vision and you go to the back of the line to make sure that no one is left behind.

"That is what leadership is. It is not assuming a primary position, because leadership is shared. It does not rest in one individual, one institution. Those times, my friends, are over." (14)

Leading the parade and shepherding the stragglers: what unites them? Service. The essence of the roadmap he's laying out for us can be summed up in two words: "Love" and "service." As he said, you can't have one without the other.

When a team member asked that we broaden our audience from merely lightworkers to all other people on the planet, I asked AAM if this was the plan. He replied that it was not. The plan was that lightworkers as a group would eventually expand to include everyone on the planet.

Archangel Michael: It is important for the lightworker community [to lead] because they have stepped forward, acknowledged, and remembered why they are here.

So we are in this sacred partnership. Are we in partnership with every being on the planet? Yes. But it is difficult when you are in a partnership and the other person does not realize it. So we are working with those who realize we are in partnership. And so that is why we are having these conversations. ...

Does the conversation expand organically and naturally? Does the energy go out to the entire planet, those who want to hear and those who don't want to hear? Yes, it does. But it begins with the lightworker community. That is what we have need of.

Steve Beckow: And I suppose then more and more people join the lightworker community?

AAM: Exactly, until it is one family and one path. (15)

There are reasons for basing his plans for Nova Earth on the leadership of lightworkers.

All the personal clearing of core issues and vasanas and the opening to heart consciousness that we've done equips us to lead. This is according to plan. Send masterful, ascended starseeds to Earth to leaven the loaf. And we have.

The newly awakening have not the same depth of clearing and breadth of experience to be able to lead, he says.

> "If no one [from among lightworkers] steps forward into the 'how to', into how do we go about this? How do we begin? How do we proceed? How do we build? How do we create in the practical sense? then there is a massive vacuum because many of the billions upon your planet have not yet learned, adapted and integrated the new tools – the fullness of this new energy.
> "So they … try to step up to create and to take the leadership role, [but] they do not have the training and insight to do this in a way that is achievable. It is not a critique or a criticism or a judgment in any way of the collective, but if they are not fully engaged and enjoying the energy of wholeness, then they are not bringing the engineering of that wholeness to the project of creating Nova Earth. So there is a lack, a vacuum of leadership.
> "Now, who upon this wondrous planet, who has been hiding in the shadows or edging out, or in the limelight and is ready? Who has prepared? Who has been diligent and practiced patience and fortitude and stamina, and anchored the divine qualities? Who is it that is prepared to do this? Well, it is the lightworkers." (16)

He asks us plainly if we will take the next step in our missions and assume a leadership role in whatever lightwork we do. Not like we're pushing someone off the stage or asking for attention. Where leadership is already present, we're stating our willingness to lead if more leadership is needed. Where leadership is absent, we're introducing it, initiating it in our communities.

He asks us:

> “Are you willing to step to the fore? Are you among those who are ready and willing to guide and direct, to steadfastly hold the focus of the new vision – the new Divine Blueprint for Heaven and Earth – and then to see that it is manifested for the highest good of all?” (17)

What he says applies especially, in my view, to the new circle of lightworkers who've participated in the Reval and now have the funds to make a difference in their communities.

He asks lightworkers to come forward and offer a different form of leadership than Earth has known hitherto, one based on love and service. Unless we do, the Company of Heaven will have no partners, no ground crew, with whom to build Nova Earth for the inhabitants of this planet.

The next step after our intense personal cleansing - our polishing of the statue - is to take the step to leadership. All of us. To begin thinking as leaders, planning as leaders, and acting as leaders.

He's not speaking theoretically or generally. He's speaking concretely and specifically to you. Will you step forward and lead?

I've stepped forward and am already leading. You read the results of it every day. Yes, it's scary. I constantly dread someone saying: "On what or whose authority do you lead?" I also dread the rise of arrogance.

But like everything else, once we start leading, it gets easier every day.

Opening to Leadership Responsibility – Part 1/2

December 3, 2022

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/12/03/opening-to-leadership-responsibility-part-1-2/

The archangels are fully involved in our Ascension.

How many times do we get an opportunity to watch one working with his servant? Not many, I believe.

They're working with every one of us of course. We just lack the record of it. Hence I feel an increased responsibility to share from my readings of co-creative partnership with Archangel Michael.

The minute Michael and I paused talking regularly (late 2020), we went back to working in the way that they work with all of us - whatever that may turn out to be for you.

I hear thoughts being put in my head. I feel the upwelling of transforming love when I think an inspiring thought. I sometimes get a bodily sensation which Michael and I have agreed is his signal for "Yes!"

But here he talks to his servant about the assumption of leadership. And I also want to talk about leadership in the time ahead because I think our time, showtime, is approaching. (1)

Ordinarily I wouldn't post something like this because it's intensely personal and opens me to ridicule. But the subject is too important to not release it and other passages like it. He starts by addressing the violence in my family.

Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, April 3, 2015.

Archangel Michael: It is time for [your] assumption of leadership responsibility to be front and center. So the avoidance due to prior injuries - terrible injury, particularly to one that has been in a leadership or cutting-edge position not only upon Gaia but elsewhere - that was deep devastation.

Now, I am very busy healing the wounds of war and who do you think I am starting with?

My inner cadre, and, dear heart, that includes you. I need you as you need me.

Steve: You are calling me forth, right?

AAM: That is exactly what is happening. That is why this line in the sand is being created [an incident in which I felt I needed to assert my authority].

It is not about the old realm of control or greed, or anything like that. It is, in order for the plan to be unfolding, in order for the practical building blocks (which is what you're asking for - money) to be in place, there has need to be a very strong re-assumption of leadership. …

Leadership is necessary and it does not mean better than. [The new paradigm] is leadership with love. …

You are getting there. Simply bring [the love] back up, dear heart, and let it flow. (2) It is dormant. You haven't been attending to it as vigilantly as you might because you have been worried and in fear around finances. Be re-assured and go forth.

You are reconnecting the dots and understanding that this [need for assertion of personal authority] has been nibbling at your heels for a long time. …

It is not about ego. It is not about control. It is about responsibility and about the assumption of what you have voluntarily committed to, as part of this life journey. …

The core foundation, and most certainly the foundation of our agreement, does not change. [My emphasis.]

Since then, I've seen the fear of leadership gradually subside. In the second part, below, I accept the responsibilities and role of leadership, which I've been avoiding till now.

(Concluded in Part 2, below.)

Opening to Leadership Responsibility – Part 2/2

December 3, 2022

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2022/12/03/340554/

In my family my older brother Paul was the leader and I was his lieutenant, who had his back.

I think Paul trained me for service with Michael.

Within the first year of our discussions together, Michael said something cryptic but astonishing to me:

Archangel Michael: You have known that the time would come when we would ask you to work very much on a global level. (1)

Oooooohhh-Kay. Not sure at the time what he might have been referring to.

I did fill some leadership positions in my youth but I didn't feel it to be my calling. That was Paul's calling.

Then the Arcturians remarked, a couple of years later: "There was very little in your early life that would prepare you for being a world leader." (2) Say what? Who are they talking about, Suzanne?

Over the course of months and maybe years since these comments, I've noticed that there have been changes in me all directing me to do the work of a humanitarian philanthropist CEO, very much on a global scale. In fact I'm now looking forward to it. (3)

In tangible terms, I feel more confident. I have fewer Achilles heels than I did some time ago.

Still working on them though. I know I have more.

I've watched and felt the circle of fear inside me, when thinking of addressing a global audience, sink ever lower in my body, releasing the parts of me above it. It's now down to the solar plexus level, which means my heart is freed from it. (4)

I'm simply going through a restoration of the status quo ante, the status quo before I became afraid, in whatever lifetime that was.

Now, up comes Beckow's Second Theorem, a new one: Becoming a leader requires a letting go of fear. (5)

The popcorn is popping. Who is it that's sending this information?

As the fear subsides, I'm willing to be a clarion call. Michael had observed:

Archangel Michael: You are reticent to be the clarion call.

Steve: Yes, that’s true.

AAM: Let it go. (6)

Since experiencing love involves a letting go of fear, as Gerald Jampolsky told us years ago, (7) I'm also empowered to lead from love - almost channeled into it.

The penny has dropped on being a leader. I'm now reconciled to accepting that role if required. Not jumping for joy. I'd rather be in a forest retreat, writing. But the thought of being the former doesn't faze me any more.

Again it was fear of opposition and ridicule and the love of solitude that held me back when everything else I know about myself tells me I won't escape leading.

I'm reminded of something the Arcturians said about leadership and Achilles' heels or fatal flaws:

The Arcturians: If you are at all attached to being a good person, that's going to be an Achilles Heel for you. And if you just think that you're just one of the guys, that's an Achilles Heel. Because they don't want you to be one of the guys. They want you to see that you are the leader.
Be yourself. Be who you are. ...

The thing that you must own is that you are the [group] leader. (8)

I think my surrender awaited seeing that being a leader does not mean (A) you always lead (you may lead by following, but you're still leading) or (B) that you lead and people must follow you (you're simply offering one alternative; they're free to choose). And not that you must lead every minute of the day. Others need to have a chance. And you may need to give it a rest as well.

And you may never lead. You're simply ready, willing, and able to play that role.

A leader needs to recognize and encourage leadership. Nothing in our culture would survive without the ideas associated with it being transmitted from one generation to the next.

Once I enter the domain called "I'm willing to lead," the ideas start flowing.

I know my leadership is in writing. Whether or not I'm a CEO or work with the galactics, I remain a writer. Michael has asked:

Archangel Michael: On the list of things to do, let [writing] always be the last thing that falls off. (9)

And:

Steve: My leadership is in writing.

Archangel Michael: Correct…. And in pointing the way. (10)

For me leadership means that we're willing to assume the role, but it also involves staying aware of the needs and desires of those we presume or offer to lead.

It doesn't mean our will prevails. It means that we pledge to see that the will of the majority prevails except where the human rights of the minority need protection. And yes we translate that will of the majority (with checks) into action programs.

I got it. I've been blocked since forever by all the fears that precede agreeing with oneself to lead. I'm no longer blocked. I've accepted the role, not as a job, because no job is under consideration, not even as a profession, but as a statement of willingness to accept ever-increasing levels of responsibility.

Archangel Michael on the New Form of Leadership

June 8, 2016

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/06/08/new-form-leadership/

Credit: Michael D. O'Brien

On May 27, Archangel Michael said:

> "Those who are in a position of stewardship, of beginning projects that lead the way to the building and the re-creation of what Nova Earth is truly about ... [will] become the spokesbeings for many." (1)

As we look ahead to the time when lightworkers will move into leadership positions, the cabal having disappeared from the public scene, exactly what does leadership mean? What does it entail? Why are we afraid to take up a leadership role?

Archangel Michael discussed that subject in May of 2015 on An Hour with an Angel. I'd like to re-examine that discussion here.

If you find yourself with questions like "On whose authority do I take a leadership role?" or "What does humanity commonly seek?" this is the discussion to come to.

Archangel Michael: Previously, I have begun to speak about the new form of leadership. And I would say to thee, we use this term that you understand - and that is understood throughout many intergalactic cultures of leadership - of responsibility, of teamwork, of cohesion, of discernment, of all the divine qualities, not based on the old realm of control and authority and lust and arbitrary decision-making, but, upon the paradigm, upon the construct of sharing your talents and abilities.

Everyone, and I say this to a planet that has billions of people, each of you have brought unique capacities, talents, and abilities to create and co-create individually and collectively. And increasingly what you are going to hear us speak of is this union between — not only above and below, within and without — but the individual and the collective. You have a song: You can't have one without the other. (2) Well, this is where we truly begin to delve into this.

Leadership is assuming your responsibilities, acknowledging, accepting, embracing the wonder of who you are. And, yes, to refer to those core issues, to not allow those core issues to, in any way, interfere with the fulfillment of who you are and why you came.

We do not even need to discuss the thousands of other lifetimes that you have had if we simply look at leadership in terms of this life, this time, this time of magnificent transition, of ascension, of awakening, because, in each of these phases, the role of leadership, the meaning of leadership, has had different quantifiers.

Now you can say to me, what does leadership look like, taste like? What is it experienced as in a society that is ascended, that is based on divine qualities and equality? What does it look like when the egoic control, when the manipulation, when freedom is the watchword and people are free to step forward? When there is gender equality, racial equality, financial equality, when the structures of the old and the systems that have bound you are gone? What does it look like?

Well, sweet angels, there is still a need for people, whether you are earth-keeper or portal, wayshower or starseed, there will always be need for people, individuals, and groups, who will step forward and say, I can do that. I can take the lead because this is within the realm of my competence. I understand what is required. I am ready, willing, able, excited, interested, enthusiastic to do this. And in that, you both lead the parade and act as the shepherd. You hold the vision and you go to the back of the line to make sure that no one is left behind.

That is what leadership is. It is not assuming a primary position, because leadership is shared. It does not rest in one individual, one institution. Those times, my friends, are over.

When we speak of mastery, again we speak of the individual coming to the place of their mastery. But as you go forward as a collective, you then become an expression, a collective, a circle, a massive circle of mastery, each in your own particular chosen realms.

There is need for all of this. As I have said [previously], too often, for very legitimate [reasons], many of you, particularly who are light workers and love holders, have maintained an exceptionally low profile. And you have done so for reasons of protection, and protection in the true sense of security, fight or flight, but also protection of your psyche, of your soul, for social protection so that your family did not think you were insane.

[You have done so] so that socially you would be able to operate, or you would be able to operate within a corporate environment that frowned on such things as active spiritual quests, and, heaven forbid, a spiritual quest that was above and beyond the corporate goals.

So you have had a variety of reasons. You have played an old third-dimensional game with cause. But that cause, that rationale, has come to an end. It is not just ending. It is already over. It has ceased. Then you say, but dear Lord, we are not in Nova Earth. We are not in the Golden Times as yet.

Well, I could say two things to you: Why do you think that you are not? What is it about these times that you do not feel that you are already in your leadership position creating the Golden Age? And at the same time I will say: No, you are not quite there yet. You are in this time of transition. You are in this time of the great awakening. And is it not exciting and magnificent, and is it not at times frustrating, above and below?

But during the time of transition, which is where I would like to focus our discussion this day, it is more crucial than ever that the leadership — personal, collective — step forward and be seen. Yes, we are talking about exposure. We are talking about vulnerability, but we are also talking about liberation, about not censoring your words, your actions, your dreams, your purpose, and what you are birthing and bringing forth in the name of the Mother, in the name of the galactics and intergalactics, Gaia, and all of humanity.

It is freeing, beloveds. It is freeing to not keep that bushel basket over your head any longer. You say, Lord, I do not know if I am ready because I still have a family, neighbors, colleagues that think that my belief systems are not in accordance with the mainstream.

And I say, yes, that is correct. But how does this mainstream shift? It shifts, beloved ones, through your beliefs, through your actions, through what you are bringing forth. (3)

Steve Beckow: I think where I would first like to begin, Lord, is to get clear on what the source of our authority is. If we're going to step out and lead, usually we lead on the basis of representing something or doing it on behalf of something. What is the nature and the source of our authority for our leadership? I almost know what you are going to say, but I would like to get it on the record.

Archangel Michael: Of course you know what I am going to say, dear heart.

You do it on the authority of the Divine Mother. You do it on my authority. You do it on the authority of the Company of Heaven, the Council of Love, your star family, your intergalactic brothers and sisters. But most of all, you do it on the authority of humanity. You do it on the authority of your sacred self.

Authority, in the truest meaning of the word [being the "author" of an action], is the assumption of a role and responsibility to fulfill a mission, an undertaking, whether it is of a long nature of several million years, or of a brief nature of an assignment.

But you have come from a paradigm — a very strong paradigm — of control. You have come from a system where people have said and believed: Do you have the authority to do that?
Always in a challenging and somewhat negative manner: By whose authority do you act?

And for a variety of reasons, all related to liberation, freedom, and self-worth, there has been a hesitancy for human beings, individuals, to step forward and say: On my authority, on my supreme authority as a servant of the Mother that lives within, as a servant of humanity for whom I speak.

And then they will say: By whose authority do you have the right to speak for the collective?

That is where unity consciousness comes to the forefront. That is where the truth speaking — which has been very absent — where the truth speaking of what humanity truly wants, desires, yearns for, and diligently, consistently works to create, comes to the forefront.

When you speak for humanity, what do they want? Well, you know the first thing I would say is peace. Because, unless there is peace upon the planet, the love does not have a chance to flourish in the garden. But you begin to speak with authority and responsibility - because you cannot divorce these two - it is like hope and trust, you cannot divorce them. You cannot separate them.

And you have the authority, the God-given source - whatever you choose to call the One - you have the authority to speak the truth, not some concoction of what you think, or hope humanity wants, but the truth of what you know humanity wants in a collective way. Because you all want the same thing, regardless of cultures, of politics, of religions, of institutions, of backgrounds, of socio-economics. ...

When you prod the hearts of humanity, what they want is the fulfillment of their potential and that is to be Love.

That is why there are so many mythologies, imageries, stories of what heaven is. Everyone is looking for a heaven — whether it is a place that is paved with golden streets or a place of oblivion, of sheer energy and sheer love; whether it is a place where you are reunited with those you cherish and those that you have never known, your guardian angels in form — everyone wants the same thing.

They project it to a future state not upon planet because they fear, and haven't accepted, the leadership role that they can create that heaven on Earth right now. That is the meaning of Nova Earth: It is a physical reality where ascended beings of all stripes, colors, beliefs, preferences come together to create wondrous things, whether it is an institution or a structure or a building or a family. ...

Now, what do we need in terms of co-creating with you, our beloved partners? What do we need in terms of going forth? We need each of you to declare yourselves, not in abrasive, aggressive, egoic ways. That would simply be re-anchoring the old third, and that is the last thing, above or below, that is desired.

But we need you to begin to create what you know, each and every day, in that day, in that framework, in the week, in the month, in the years ahead, what are you capable of bringing forth? What is it in your mastery that you have brought to Earth and perhaps have been ignoring out of fear or trepidation? What talent is it that you have that truly contributes? Because that is what leadership is, it is your contribution of stepping forth.

So, on whose authority do you assume this leadership role? My beloved friends, on your sovereign right as Gaians upon the planet charged with the responsibility and the joy of creating Nova Earth. (4)

Archangel Michael on Heart-Centered Leadership

Aug. 11, 2015

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/08/11/archangel-michael-on-heart-centered-leadership/

As I go through past readings, preparing them for incorporation in a comprehensive document I maintain, I came across this discussion of leadership on July 21, 2015, which I reproduce here for its usefulness.

Archangel Michael's opening remarks are also noteworthy and seem to be intended for public consumption. The discussion of leadership follows them.

Steve Beckow: Greetings, Lord

Archangel Michael: Welcome to you, my beloved brother of blue. Welcome to this time of extraordinary change - yes, of breakthrough, breakdown, reconstruction, and reconstitution. This is the constant.

But never has it been so apparent as the humans go forth in folly, in victory, in war and peace. The key is that they are embracing the change and that they do go forward - sometimes yes, under misstep, and sometimes in courageous valour.

Might I even say, beloved one, that at this time, being upon the planet and being involved in the work of spreading light and love is courageous valor. Even in silence, the continuity, the constancy and the certainty is an act of valor. It is an act of trust. It is an act of hope. It is an act of love.

Know that, when I say that I speak of "act," I speak of action. I speak of forward thrust and this is what is required. No, not to be loved. It is required in terms of the individual's plans within the Mother's plan. There is a time for stillness and all action emanates, when it is of truth and balance, from that place of stillness, of balance.

It is not a flurry of activity, of expression, of creativity for its own sake. It has need to be clear, directed, thoughtful, considerate, kind, gentle, strong. But it has need to be action. The time for light workers, love holders, for all of Gaia, stepping forth, is now.

Steve: Leadership. I know so very little about it and I haven't time to study the subject. What do I need to know to do a better job than I'm doing?

Archangel Michael: That you are the shepherd and you are the pathfinder. Now you say to me, "Dearest Lord, how am I supposed to be at the head of the flock and at the bottom of the flock at the same time?" It is called bi-location. [Laughs]

There are times that it is a balancing act. There are times when you must show the way through the mountain pass. You must show the way to where the water is, where people will be nourished and refreshed and reconstituted.

And then there are times when you must stand back. You may nudge from behind but you are allowing and respecting those within your group, your circle, humanity to find their way.

It is not that you withdraw support and it is not that you stop dropping clues, but you allow them, your term would be, creative chaos.

Chaos for its own sense, for its own value is ridiculous. There is no reward. There is no creation. But there is time for creative chaos when out of what appears to be mayhem comes new and deeper understanding, new ideation and a new sense of empowerment.

Leadership is a tenuous role and it is particularly tenuous in terms of the understanding, in the new paradigm, of heart-centred awareness, of heart-centred love.

You are never attempting to control but you are very clear about what is acceptable, what are the principles of daily life, of operation. If it is not of clarity, if it is not of sweetness and of love, then there is no place for it.

So the leader/leadership is the role-modelling of love, of consideration, but of clarity. There is too much indecision, waiting, inaction.

You know this in your work, beloved. When you write and when you take positions, you point the way. You do not nay-say anyone else. You create the room for a broader discussion, whether it is corrupt or incorrupt or somewhere in the middle.

That is leadership. It is not telling people what to do. It is role-modelling.

Steve: I can do it in my writing. I have no problem with that. It is in person where the difficulties arise, especially when I get impatient and just want something to happen.

AAM: You and I both, dear heart! When you feel impatient, when you feel like you want to scream and perhaps even wring somebody's neck, take a giant step backwards. These are the days I encourage you to take time for your beloved self. Take a giant step backwards and simply watch the show.

Steve: What steps would you advise I take to see that communication

AAM: Allow them to express themselves in a neutral way.

We are not simply speaking of Perro. We are talking about neutrality. So you can express how you feel and this is them finding their voice so that they do not need to feel that they are withholding. But let them express themselves without feeling that there will be a reaction, so that they learn to express themselves.

But it is not, and let me be very clear about this, it is not withholding. It is not you withholding either. So for example, if somebody is saying something that to you is incorrect, outrageous or is, shall we say, sparking you, it is not responding in that momentary fluster.

But it is expressing, perhaps not even at the same time, but expressing that this is how I feel about what you said. It is expressing it in a way that is encouraging and giving everybody the latitude to express, where no one is considered right or wrong, other than the information.

But information, and I use that in the broadest sense of the word, cannot be withheld. If it is, then you are not operating as a team. It is that simple.

Archangel Michael on Mastery and Leadership

April 25, 2015

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/04/25/transcript-archangel-michael-on-mastery-and-leadership-april-16-2015/

From An Hour with an Angel

Edited for brevity

Steve Beckow: Leadership. You talked with me in a personal reading quite a lot about leadership. There are so many questions, though, that we have about that.

And the first question I have is that lightworkers have been, many of us, subjected to ridicule and many are still hiding in the closet hoping we're not noticed. And now you come through and say, "Far from that, you are going to be leading."

Well, it raises fears in me of coming to the attention of the public, so to speak. What do you have to say to us about making this transition, having been shunned, ridiculed and staying in the closet, and now being asked to come out and actually lead?

Archangel Michael: It is time to come out of the cave. It is time to stop hiding your light under a bushel basket. It is time for many – all of you – to step forward and assume [leadership] in the fullness of joy. So not only are you being asked to step forward, to let go of the fear, the angst, the anger, the concern, but we are asking you to step forward [laughing] in outrageous joy! So this is quite a request is it not?

SB: It is definitely quite a request. [laughing]

AM: Now, would we make such a request, such a suggestion because that is what guidance is…but I tell you, this request comes directly from the Divine Mother. Now let me go back and then we will continue. Do you remember what we have said – that when the Mother has a desire, it is an intention that stretches out from her essence and being into infinity and everything and everybody lines up – because that is the Love.

So you have been lined up, but hiding in the shadows. And you have been hiding in the shadows because of this, not only actual ridicule, but being dismissed, not being seen as fully present or intelligent, or anchored, or part of the collective thinking.

There have been a myriad of reasons why you have been in the shadows, not the least of which has been protection. Now, what we are asking and suggesting is that you step forward into leadership roles, yes, to lead the parade. If you do not step forth in the fullness of your creator-race self, as the mighty beings that you are, there is a massive vacuum.

Let me explain. I have said unto thee, that the old third is but a whisper, an echo, that to try and physically ground in an energy that has no substance, no substantiality – one cannot anchor there any longer.

But let us suggest that you are not about to 'become.' You already are, and always have been, but now the acknowledgment and the embrace of your interdimensionality as creators and co-creators of New Earth comes to the fore, comes forth in a way of magnificence that has never been known, never.

In this, the old of who does what – let us be practical, because I can be exceptionally practical. You are the embodiment and the physical anchors, activators, doers of creating Nova Earth. You are the anchors of ascension, of the new reality, of the heart consciousness that is the new reality.

If no one steps forward into the 'how to', into 'how do we go about this?' How do we begin, how do we proceed, how do we build, how do we create in the practical sense? Then there is a massive vacuum because many of the billions upon your planet have not yet learned, adapted and integrated the new tools – the fullness of this new energy.

So they are assigned…or try to step up to create and to take the leadership role. They do not have the training and insight to do this in a way that is achievable. It is not a critique or a criticism or a judgment in any way of the collective, but if they are not fully engaged and enjoying the energy of wholeness, then they are not bringing the engineering of that wholeness to the project of creating Nova Earth. So there is a lack, a vacuum of leadership.

Now, who upon this wondrous planet, who has been hiding in the shadows or edging out, or in the limelight and is ready? Who has prepared? Who has been diligent and practiced patience and fortitude and stamina, and anchored the divine qualities? Who is it that is prepared to do this? Well it is the lightworkers.

Now there is a reticence on two levels. There is the practicality of, "My family thinks I am absolutely crazy," "I do not want to risk my job, my friendships, my position in my community by speaking out." And there is also the fear of success. There is the fear of the old paradigm of leadership, which was control and greed and lust and authority, meaning abuse of power.

And so the concern is we do not wish to duplicate the Illuminati. My friends, there is not a chance above or below that you are going to duplicate. That is what you have striven to eliminate.

What you are being asked to do is to step forth in the truth of your gifts, your abilities…some in a minor way, some in a major way, but each in accordance with your true mission and purpose on Gaia – not on other planets…in tandem and cooperation with your Star brothers and sisters, but not off planet…to bring forth this wondrous new.

It has not been done in form, anchored in a physical reality, a physical reality that is absolutely interdimensional. That is the task at hand. We know the magnitude of what we are asking, but we also know the support that we are prepared to give on every level.

SB: Boy. If I could step in here for a moment, Lord. What you said is totally fascinating to me because I've been going through some of those stages that you are talking about. For instance just last night I wrote an article that looked into what mastery was, and you said earlier that people need to inquire into these areas that they don't necessarily have expertise or a good means…that they don't necessarily know the whole of the path.

So I began to inquire into mastery and I trashed the article because I thought I was getting too far ahead of the discussion. But you're saying we need to step onto these new paths or at least make a trial formulation and get the discussion going. Is that what you are saying?

AM: That is what we are requesting. And you should not have trashed that article.

SB: [laughing] Oh, well I can resurrect it.

AM: Yes. We know you can, and if you cannot we most certainly can.

SB: [Laughing} Very good.

AM: You see there is also a shying away. And we have been saying this, that you came in your mastery – and I am addressing all of you. You came in your mastery to this incarnation. And most of you shake your head and shy away. Now we used to, and I am talking about, oh a decade ago.

We used to tease you and say you were masters in the making. We called you the M&M's and we teased you and began, back then, planting the seed so that you would begin to get used to this whole idea of mastery. And then you shy away and you say, "Well I am not St. Germaine. I am most certainly not Jesus Sananda. I am not St. Francis. I am not Serapis Bey or Sanat Kumara." And your humility, which is charming and a sacred virtue, is beautiful. But in that humility, do not fall into false humility where you deny the truth of who you really are.

It is time my beloved friends, to delve deeper. Yes, you have heard about your soul mission, your ray, your colors – all of this. But you have need also as a starting point in this discussion of mastery, to unequivocally without any fear, to look in delight, at who you really are and not deny – you have been given many labels, many assignations, some are Earth keepers, you my beloved brother are a communicator…you are a warrior.

There are many in my legion of blue who are peaceful warriors, each acting in a different way; some are communicators, some travel with me in the dark of the night to the most horrendously dark places, some of you work on the home front literally and theoretically, some of you are transforming the ideas of wars between kingdoms.

Each of you has a unique piece of this puzzle, of this unfoldment of the Mother's intention. And you carry, yes, the broad spectrum of talents, but also the very particular talents that you have mastery of. Stop hiding.

We need, yes need, our partners front and center. So often you have said to us, "Where is the Company of Heaven? How are they assisting us?" We are right here with you in this unfoldment, every step of the way in love. Nothing else. Yes, the side effects, the elements of love, peace, joy, passion and compassion and patience and stamina – all of these are part and particle, subatomic fibers of love of the essence of Mother.

We are right next to you. So our question is, our request is, will you step forward in the truth with us? The Mother has deigned and designated a new group, very recently as 'guardians of the truth', and this is a pivotal role in the unfoldment of Nova Earth: that there can be no falsehood. That my blue truth, Gabrielle's golden truth, Maitreya's magenta truth – all of it shines brightly.

So what does it mean to step forward in the leadership? It means courageously, with exceptional valor, not only holding the truth of who you are and standing back, but beginning – yes, with discernment, but perhaps more vociferously than you ever have – declaring what you know to be true.

SB: Yeah, if this is my opportunity to jump in, Lord. First of all, let me speak for lightworkers in saying that we gladly step forward to serve in any way you require. We'd like to know from you what roles you require? And that will come, I'm not saying right here and now. But can you tell us what mastery is?

AM: You will be surprised at the simplicity of my answer. Mastery is the acceptance, surrender, and embodiment in form of you – as design, as love.

SB: Is that by a process of emergence, breakthrough? How does that happen?

AM: It is through the process of surrender. It is the process of elimination. It is the process of illumination into emergence. And that is where you are, most of you, right now. That is why we are saying if you are not there, do the elimination and come into emergence. We are here to help.

And through the emergence: then you have become what you have thought of as the ascended being, the mastery of your being, of who you are in that mastery, in that emergence into the truth – because there is only one truth. There's not this truth or that truth. There's not this love or that love.

When you emerge and stay in that frequency, in that energy, then what happens is the whole tableau: the whole realm of understanding of what you think of as enlightenment or vision or wisdom opens up so that you are not seeking elsewhere. That does not mean that the honoring of unique qualities, of the contributions that every single being has given to this become of no meaning; in fact they gain greater meaning because you truly begin to see in your mastery the fullness and the mastery of all.

SB: Can I tell you one difficulty I have in this, thinking about this whole topic, Lord?

AM: Yes.

SB: Well supposing we have thousands and thousands of masters and leaders. Who is there rowing the boat?

AM: The master oarsman is rowing the boat.

SB: [laughing] Okay. So masters on the oars, masters at the helm.

AM: Master cooks, master chefs, master caretakers, master nurturers. We are not saying, you have the expression, "All chiefs and no Indians." That is not what we are saying. There are many, in fact the majority who have chosen to come in a service…and I mean in this sense, a practical service role. And then there are those that have chosen to be in leadership, in what you think of as a leadership role.

But part of mastery is knowing who you are and what you excel at and what makes your heart absolutely burst and sing with joy. And for some it is being in that role as oarsman, as the support, because that is what they want to do. That is the role they chose to serve the Mother. Now, that doesn't mean that in future times they will not choose to be a leader in a future ascension. It just means that they have chosen, in this incarnation, that their mastery will be in a certain role. But to deny the role, to deny what truly is your truth, it is dismissing yourself.

There are many lightworkers who say, "I do not want to be in the limelight. I do not want to be front and center. That is not what I have chosen. It is not what I desire and it most certainly is not what my heart would be singing about."

But let us use your example of oarsmen. If the leader is not keeping the tempo for those oars to go, it is not then incumbent upon only the leader to keep the rhythm of the oarsman. If you are an oarsman and you are in your mastery, and the rhythm is off and the flow therefore is not occurring, then as master oarsman do you not raise your hand and bring this to the attention of what is considered the leader? Of course you do. And that is the importance of everyone being in the place of their selection…of their choice.

It is not a matter of trying to fit everyone in a slot and saying, "Stay there," because in the leadership paradigm that we are talking about, in the mastery paradigm, people ebb and flow. It is not a fixed, stratified structure because the mastery of one may be needed this week and the mastery of another needed next year. And there has need to be in the collective, in the unified field, the willingness to adjust to that ebb and flow. That is what the new community looks like.

I know that you turn to me so often, but think of it on our side; I do not do everything, of course not! Each of us has our primary role, but there are many other things that each of us attends to on behalf of the Mother and in service to the Mother, and we never hesitate to bring forth the help of others as we need it and require it because we know of our strengths and weaknesses. Only Gabrielle would never admit to a weakness.

SB: If we were in the fifth dimension, all of this would be totally known and totally natural. We would be operating in this way just continually. But I think we are probably in the fourth dimension now if I'm correct, and there are still traces of ego. There are still creations to be made, vasanas to be removed. Is there a transitional teaching that we can have that could get us to this period…developing and allowing this mastery to emerge?

AM: Yes. Stop thinking you are less than. Now I know that sounds like a very simple teaching, and yes it relates to core issues.

Now let us back up a little. Gaia is anchored in the seventh. So you have this saying, "Fake it 'til you make it." Put your feet in the seventh dimension of Christ consciousness and love. You are most certainly in the fourth, edging in the fifth. That is why so many of you are experiencing such rapid, and in many cases tumultuous issues of change including: the memory issues, the mental fogginess issues, some of the rapid 'change in body' issues.

Stop pretending. Stop pretending because it is not even real. It is an antiquated, outmoded belief system that you are in any way, shape or form, stuck anywhere or 'less than.'

Now the transitional healing that is going on right now, this is the Mother's plan to sweep through you. Yes again, stronger than ever…and lift you up into the higher dimension. So your transitional work every time something is coming up: is letting it go, surrendering it, relinquishing it and embracing that truth of who you are.

The choice is, "Do I want to be miserable? Do I want to be less-than? Do I want to be restricted mentally, emotionally, financially, situationally, environmentally? Do I want my freedom incubated?" And all of you are crying and screaming and declaring, "No we demand our freedom."

And part of that declaration…your declaration not only the Mother's…is that you are willing to step out of the shadows, not in an ego way, not in a way, "I know the truth. I am the light. I am the savior." You have had enough of saviors upon your planet to last many, many billions of years.

Mastery, leadership is not about becoming an egomaniac. It is about becoming the shepherd. It is about becoming the gentle leader who serves his people – her people – and shows them the way. And if it is the way to the table, if it is the way to the boat, if it is the way to their heart, then this is your way, this is the choice of your divinity and your mastery.

So the lesson, the true technique is to love yourself. When you anchor in your heart, when you anchor in the seat of your soul filled with the energy of the Mother, can you say and bring forth into your being, into your consciousness, into your everyday action, "I love myself. I honor myself. I am alright. And if I misstep, if I take that misstep for a day or a week, do I forgive myself?

Do I understand that I am learning something that will help the collective, that will build my compassion, that will show me, so that I can show others where not to go? Am I brave enough to share my missteps? Do I care enough about others to share my insights…not from a directive way, but from a way of compassion and humility and incredible patience?"

Because many of you who are on planet are masters, and part of that is you have a stubborn streak a mile long, and that is because you are sticking with it. This is a stellar quality, but sometimes you are reluctant to listen to the wisdom of others, so open your hearts and love yourself.

Love every aspect of who you are and who you have been, and then dive deeper and see really the truth of who you are. And if there is any trace vasana, core issue…surrender it. Let it go, because it is not of love. It has been a very powerful defense mechanism that you no longer need. It is time to co-create together. Are you ready?

SB: Well I think we're certainly ready, Lord. And yet I'm interested in your statement that gentleness is what is called for because you have in your trade an awful lot of warriors of peace, and to some of them gentleness is altogether new. Could you talk to us a little bit more about gentleness, perhaps especially to the men?

AM: Gentleness is key. Think of it very practically. When you grab somebody by the arm, by the scruff of the neck, and you sit them down and you say, "Listen to me. This is what you are going to do. This is what you came here for." Well, that is about as effective as the old third dimension has been. It is the old paradigm.

And that is why persistence and stamina are important, but gentleness – it is one of the qualities of the Mother, of the Feminine. Think of it when you approach someone, not in false humility, but in authentic, genuine, heart friendship. You take them by the hand, you touch their heart, you acknowledge who they are and you say to them, “Will you come and sit with me and share your heart, your thoughts, your dreams, your desire? Will you let me share mine? Can I share the insights that I have received? And can we do so in the garden of beauty, of sweetness and kindness where you are not threatened or controlled.” Then you have cooperation and you do not encounter resistance.

Too often in the male archetype there has been a sense that you need to put your head down and plow through – that this is what you do and it has been what you have done. And you have done it with the clearest and the sweetest and kindest of intentions, “I am going to put my head down and provide for my family. I am going to make sure there’s food on the table. I am going to protect my sons and daughters from violence.” So I do not criticize you, and those of you who travel with me to the dark places at night know situations of fierceness, but you also have known situations of such gentle kindness that it has changed the entire situation in the blink of an eye.

So what you as peaceful warriors, as central administrators, as healers, as teachers are learning is that gentleness, first and foremost to yourself is a reflection of the Mother’s love. If you cannot be kind and gentle and sweet to yourself then you cannot be gentle in relationship.

Gentleness carries a sense and an energy of such love-force that the resistance disappears. So this is resistance that the humans have had, and rightfully so, of being told what to do. That is why we always say we suggest, we guide. We will never tell you what to do unless it is to save your life, and even then we may not say a word.

Gentleness is the key. Kindness is the key.

SB: Thank you for that profound teaching, Lord. Truly I’ll be reflecting on that quite a bit. Is there anything you would like to say in closing?

AM: Yes. This discussion of mastery, of leadership, I would like to continue. And I would like you all to think, to feel, to explore: “What is my mastery?” And to embrace it with such incredible glee that you are jumping up and down and coming out of your skin.

Archangel Michael on Global Leadership and Sacred Partnership

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2018/05/03/aam-on-global-leadership-and-sacred-partnership/

I have an excerpts from my March 20 reading with Archangel Michael, on playing a global role post-Reval, which I'm sure he wanted posted.

Here he is, calming my jitters at the thought of playing a global role.

Archangel Michael: Do not underestimate your sweet being and do not think that you have not been given and that you have not been adequately preparing yourself for what lies ahead.

One of the, we use the example of the, shall we call it, the career politician who follows a singular path always with the focus on having the highest office and the most power…

Steve Beckow: Winston Churchill?

AAM: … Yes… The highest office possible and so often what happens is the ego dominates and that is not what a leader in the global sense of where you are going is interested in.

It is not a path of ego. It's not about an assumption of power. It's about an assumption of divine authority and it's the balance to allow those who have roles to play, to joyously step forth and do it and to not be attempting in any way shape or form, to control that.

What we would suggest, dear heart, you say, "I need to grow up." And we would say, "you have been applying these readings and lessons very diligently. Is there further to go? Yes but, sweet one, there is always further to go." (1)

I asked him about the shape of future sacred partnerships. He said they were an important part of the plan; we were not meant to be monks this lifetime.

Archangel Michael: In your future, there is always choice in sacred partnership - and this is very important for human beings, Nova Beings to understand and it applies to Nova Being, to Nova Earth, and to Nova Communities.

The charge - and I choose this word - the charge of the Mother is not to rise above the human need and desire and yearning for tenderness. The Mother holds each and every one of us so the human context of a smile, of holding a hand, of true intimacy, of love words that are shared and have meaning, simply between friends or intimate partners - it is not a matter of rising above that.

It is about allowing the love, the fullness of the love to come through and express in ways that are not only recognizable but comforting and welcomed in the realm of human existence and particularly, in the realm of human existence in transition.

Ascension and the shift are not intellectual. It is not about knowing in an intellectual sense, or receiving messages in an intellectual sense. It is heart-to-heart.

Archangel Gabrielle: The Quality of Authority

June 13, 2016

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2016/06/13/archangel-gabriel-quality-authority/

Originally from: “Archangel Gabriel: The Quality of Authority,” channeled by Marlene Swetlishoff, May 28, 2015, at http:// www.therainbowscribe.com/archangelgabriel2015.htm.

I've never read a better statement of the process of human unfoldment and the rise of a sense of personal authority as Archangel Gabriel/Gabrielle offers in Marlene Swetlishoff's 2015 channeled message.

As we ponder our futures, and are encouraged to act as leaders and financial wayshowers, this is another of those resources which I recommend people really ponder. Now is the time to prepare.

Through one's embracing of the enlightening qualities of love, one becomes the central guide and authority of one's life.

When each person opens to exercise their personal choice rather than existing on autopilot, they step into their personal authority and begin to write the story of their lives the way they want it to manifest.

Gaining personal authority requires the admittance that one is not perfect and that there are pieces of one's behaviour that need improvement. As one lives their life, they gain maturity, experience, and common sense, which helps elevate them to a higher consciousness, understanding and wisdom.

When a person is willing to face themselves and learn from their experience, they find the enjoyment of their life and their relationships more meaningful. They become self-empowered and gain strength of character and more self determination.

They rise to the challenge of controlling their thoughts, appetites, speech, temper, and desires, and practice letting go of the habits and behaviours that no longer serve them. These practices open them to a freedom that they could not previously have imagined. It is a freedom born of being a person that one can respect and comes with the self-esteem one feels by being a person of integrity in all things.

Personal authority requires strength, willpower, and honesty, and also the desire to live one's life with a clear conscience, which is an essential element of purity within one's soul.

Claiming personal authority enhances one's own gifts and talents in a remarkable way. When one becomes self-actualized and own their authority in all ways, they feel the inner courage and determination to spend their days doing what they want to do rather than what others deem acceptable.

They peacefully embrace the costs and rewards of their choices. They often take some quiet time to contemplate and gain clarity on their values to realize that their greatest power comes from being true to one's self.

They seek and find that special something that resonates with their own being and they thrive in the pursuing and expressing of it. They love and value the feeling of peace, balance and inner happiness that comes when they are their own authority.

They avoid people and situations that tend to confuse their own sense of personal authority by keeping their priorities to their own authenticity foremost in all the decisions that they make.

They know that every answer they need is readily available from within them, that they are connected to Divine Source as is everyone around them. They believe in self, understand their strengths and focus on them.

They understand that the only thing in this world they have any control over is their own choice. They map out how and why they make those choices which fuels them with the courage to stand up for self in the world.

They feel a greater sense of stability and intimacy with their own opinions as they learn how to take accurate stock of their life. They examine all aspects of their experiences and gain newfound inner strength and agility in their evolvement.

They learn to approach their challenges from an emotionally neutral or positive frame of reference. They teach themselves about what they like and don't like and move closer to their authentic selves by pinpointing precisely what they are thinking and feeling.

They act as their own authority figure and minimize irrational worries and highlight their legitimate concerns in an evaluation process.

They have the courage to follow their inner guidance by doing what makes them happy while also remaining open to ideas from everyone around them. They always employ the approval of their own heart and learn to rely on their own counsel and take refuge in their inner teacher.

When one moves out of their head and into their heart, they hear the subtle voice of their own intuition and guidance. As they become conscious of the importance of ethical, moral, and honest behaviour, they see that it is essential to their own happiness and well being as well as for those around them.

They understand that they should love, honour, and respect themselves in all facets of their lives. They take control of their life and cultivate a happier, more fulfilled, and inspired attitude towards life, and take charge of their own destiny.

This ability to choose what they want empowers them to be the authority and author of their life, to think independently, to live their life on their own terms and to always be authentic.

They find the inner freedom to be who they really are, and begin to know what their power and authority truly is. They decide what is right and feels right for them. They decide their values, code of conduct, ethics, and morals.

They do not blindly believe everything they see or hear but carefully evaluate every situation that is presented to them. They choose with their heart what they believe in and decide what they are going to do in their life and what they are going to create.

Their values, their choices, and their thinking are the foundations of their life. They are their own divinely directed authority and the gatekeeper of their life.

When a person is true to self, people will actually like them more, because they are authentic and are doing something that others wish they could do themselves.

They are showing courage as they claim divine authority over their own lives. They are showing the possibility to others that they are also able to be true to themselves and become the divinely inspired authority in their own lives.

As I take my leave, know that in claiming your own divinely directed authority, it enables you to be, to have, and to do anything you truly want in your heart of hearts. Look at the Coming World Leader

August 16, 2019

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2019/08/16/look-at-the-coming-world-leader/

If you're looking for world leaders, look no farther than your mirror.

You remember what Michael said, that lightworkers not stepping forward into world leadership roles would leave a vacuum that would be hard to fill? (1)

Non-lightworkers are usually not up to speed with what's happening or what's possible. When they try to lead under the circumstances, the process lacks vision and the outcome is nowhere near as productive or rapid.

We lightworkers will need to step up and lead.

Our star family will be landing. No, they're not looking to do rebuilding Earth all themselves or 'take over the place.' In fact, as Michael explains:

> "The Galactics have no shortage of money and so there will be some very massive projects and the funds will be made available but they will really ask for human leadership in order to be not be seen as trying to in any way assume control." (2)

The scope there will be for participation seems endless looking at things from this point forward.

We'll be trying to integrate the global about-face in economics that will have occurred. And we'll be "swept away" by a planetary heart opening, welcomed by some but not necessarily by all.

Are we in the wash cycle or the spin cycle? Or both at once?

You've seen the movie of these chaotic times. Ship's captain trying to make it to the steering wheel in a storm. That may be how it feels for a lot of people.

Only lightworkers will have a grasp on what's actually happening. Only they will know we're headed for safe harbor once the storm is over.

This storm will lead to complete freedom for the peoples of the world. And I don't mean those as hollow words. A return of peace. A return to caring for each other. A return to watching out for each other.

I knew that world in the Fifties. I just assumed everyone did. But the more I saw of the world, the more I realized that I lived in an island of sanity.

I saw that I was more fortunate in my country than I could find words to express ... once I saw how some others lived.

Well, now the world will have the means, motive, and opportunity to end poverty on Earth and create a world that works for everyone. (3)

Werner Erhard used to speak about the power of an idea whose time has come. Once the three events I mentioned above occur (the Reval, Disclosure, and a heart opening), I predict that the end of poverty on the planet will be an idea whose time has come.

And lightworkers will be leading this effort. Only they are capable of sustained focus on a goal such as Nova Earth.

Only they know the extent of who is behind this work to restore Gaia to her original glory. Archangels? Ascended masters? Galactics? Only lightworkers would understand.

And only they have a sense of the magnitude of our work together - how it ripples out throughout the universe, where civilizations will follow in our footsteps towards mass, physical Ascensions into the new space, using our templates.

Look in the mirror. Look at the coming world leader.

Leaders in the New Financial Paradigm

May 7, 2015

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/05/07/leaders-in-the-new-financial-paradigm/

When the Reval Hits…

When the Reval occurs, I think the biggest challenge for me will be to remain calm and balanced.

I used to think that, when it happened, I'd join a Vancouver group that was whooping it up and get silly.

But now I no longer believe I'll do that. If I combin the impact of sudden wealth with the delirium of a raucous evening, I think I'd run the risk of exciting deep vasanas that could be handled in the space of calm balance but probably not in the space of uproarious imbalance.

I believe that the vasanas that sudden wealth triggers may be enough to sweep the strongest of us off our feet. Therefore I'd like to increase the chances that I remain on mine by staying off somewhere, calm and quiet.

Once the Reval hits, it's going to bring us lightworkers into contact with the outside world in ways that may be entirely foreign to most of us. No time to practice then.

After the excitement subsides, I'll jettison everything that isn't important and just focus in on what's vital. Just get the immediate job done and hide out for a few days. Let the temporary insanity pass and then begin the work. (OK, after a week's vacation in Europe.)

I'm not sure if it's the General or the heart opening, but I sense the importance of certain things now that I wouldn't have before. In this case, I'm deeply aware of the importance of the work we do as financial lightworkers.

It isn't necessarily the extent of our work that's most important, it seems to me. It's our willingness to lead.

Financial Wayshowing and Financial Stewardship

We're to accomplish two tasks: "financial wayshowing" and "financial stewardship"?

(1) Financial wayshowing, for me, means leading the way in the reception and dissemination of the Divine Mother's gifted wealth.

It involves:

- "Owning" the Divine Plan,
  Planning our financial actions and responses, Leading by example,
- Creating and drawing on best practices, Taking risks if necessary,
- Leaping into the unknown willingly, and, in the process, Building the new financial paradigm.

It's a collective effort, suited to team players, in which people with abundance use a portion of it (their "disposable income") for community-related purposes.

(2) You and I are the steward of the Mother's money and, while all of us deserve to be paid for our labors and should pay ourselves first, with our disposable income, we're asked to make the world work for everyone. That's the task. That's Fifth Dimensionality. That's Nova Earth.

"Financial stewardship" refers to an attitude of devoted service to the Mother, whose money it is we're distributing. The Mother's steward is the honest broker, the reliable administrator, the person with integrity, a decent and upright soul.

He or she watches over the interests of the Mother; i.e., the unfoldment of the Divine Plan. He or she manages the pipeline of abundance, which will only grow.

Let me state an initial hypothesis regarding the new financial paradigm. I offer it as a starting point: The currency of the old paradigm was money; the currency of the new paradigm is love. (1)

… Our Work Begins

When the Reval comes, our work begins. Common to us all will be the fact that we'll be receiving the Mother's abundance and we're expected to use at least a portion of it to benefit the community in some way.

What way? Easy. Look around you. Find something that isn't working, and fix it. Something big and important. The bigger and more important, the better.

Look at the surface of Gaia, the water, the air. Look at the plant kingdom, the animal kingdom, the human realm. View them from the physical, chemical, biological, social, cultural, and spiritual standpoints.

If you find you can't do everything, finance others and let them use the funds to make unworkability work by putting in the fix or solution. The money ripples down, creates jobs and benefits many in what'll eventually become the new economy.

The chief obstacle may be the tendency to freeze up at the last moment and not want to release the funds. Usually that's motivated by the fear of "not enough." To overcome that, have a goodly-sized contingency fund below which you will not go. Put aside enough as well to pay your taxes if we must. (The only piece of financial advice I'll give.)

A lot of the unworkability in the world lies in our beliefs and is relatively easy to eradicate. But hunger in Africa or honor killings in the Middle East may not be as easy.

Exactly what making the world work looks like is left up to you, me, and our guides.

Those who perform this function well, I'm convinced, will be used for larger assignments as financial wayshowers. If that's your passion, then perhaps demonstrate that you can be a steward of the Mother's wealth. Everyone is under extensive scrutiny, I think, to find and identify leaders. (2)

Archangel Michael has asked for leaders to step forward. Those who do so in this area, I believe, will be leaders in setting the new financial paradigm.

Footnotes

(1) Our love is our spiritual currency.

(2) Steve Beckow: I have been saying to readers that the Company of Heaven is watching financial wayshowers and stewards…

Archangel Michael: That is correct.

Steve: … And that those who do well - in other words, do the job of hydrating society - will find themselves supported to go forward.

AAM: That is correct. (Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, July 1, 2016.)

The Nova CEO: The CEO as Listener

April 15, 2017

http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/04/15/287663/

As a result of what I see in myself and others, I've concluded that we need to help people who until now have worked best as Seconds-in-Command to find the confidence that allows them to make the transition to leaders.

This'll become more and more important as people unused to handling wealth and power find themselves in possession of both and thrust into a position of leadership.

Here's my suggested model for anyone in this field.

The CEO as Listener

I suggest the creation of a new role, based on a new model of leadership, designed to stabilize matters and provide a source of confidence to the leader who hasn't quite made the complete jump yet.

I suggest the creation of a new model of "CEO." My model is the "CEO as Listener," the Nova CEO.

The Nova CEO provides a listening space for presidents who find something missing in their initiation and accomplishment of their ideas. That something turns out to be someone who will give the word, give the command.

Seeking a listening from a CEO is a transitional measure for one who hasn't fully discovered and uncovered that the heart is the ultimate source of their self-confidence, rather than someone in the outside world. Or hasn't operationalized that discovery yet.

It's a temporary, transitional role for the one who offers the service as well.

I've now played this role with a very small number of people over stretches of time and I know it works.

What is Listening?

Definitions first. What is "listening"?

Listening, in my books, is an open reception (drawing on all the senses) of another's communication, an imaginative recreation of what that experience must have been like, a being with and experiencing whatever follows on as a result of experiencing it (feelings, conclusions, decisions), and a feeding back, if necessary or advisable, of what was received, what it felt like, etc.

Do this (or come close) and you're listening, according to me.

How It Works

I think of being a listener as providing a second self. The listener sees things from the speaker's point of view and feeds back what that feels like.

When I play the role, the president of a company comes to me and reports a situation that needs handling. I listen until they're finished. I may ask for more details if I see they're still not finished but visibly upset by something.

But I won't try to distract them or redirect them. My job is to listen until they're complete, without judgment or distraction.

Often in the course of doing so, the president comes upon the answer to many if not most of their own questions.

But if not, when they're done, I ask them what they recommend. They tell me. I tell them to do it and arrange a date for them to report back.

That's it. Job done. All they needed was someone to listen to them, hear their recommendation, and then tell them to do what they themselves recommended. They needed someone to give the command.

What they do as accomplished Seconds-in-Command, they're fully able to do. They don't need our help there. All they need is the word from above, to have confidence in what they're doing.

Eventually they'll find their own internal confidence, their own GPS. Or, if they've found it, they'll have brought it into this area of their lives.

Advice Not Needed or Wanted

The job of the new CEO does not include giving advice. It doesn't preclude it either, in a few, usually urgent situations.

Otherwise, listening is in a different city to advising. You're in one city or the other. When we advise, we leave listening. We go through steps in our mind: We identify the problem, look inside for advice, find it, look for the opportunity to deliver it. All this time is spent outside listening.
By now we can't possibly recover where we left off. We are not listening, except to ourself.

(I've made more of the don't's into a separate note, here: http://goldenageofgaia.com/2017/04/15/ some-of-the-donts-in-listening/)

If we look very, very closely, we'll find that the impulse to advise is born of the need to feel self- important. We want to feel as if we've contributed, as if we matter, and we're using the occasion to prove it.

The speaker sees we've withdrawn our attention, gone off somewhere (spaced out), and are no longer listening. They're on their own now. Abandoned again or whatever the vasana is that our lack of attention triggers in them. No one ever listens to me. Etc. And they leave demoralized.

What undermines our successful performance as a Nova CEO is this very impulse to feel self- important. That's the worm in the apple, more times than not. When I see people acting that way with me, I want to say to them: "Hey, I'm over here. I need you right now."

So if our intervention is designed, no matter how subtly, to prove what a good boy we are, don't go with it. Drop it. It's not in our job description as Nova CEOs.

Just be an open space that hears the other person and occasionally feeds back your understanding.

Another Reason

Here's another reason to offer this service.

Listening is the best way to be there for that other person without interfering with the exercise of their sovereign abilities and the expansion of their self-confidence.

The presidents may not have confidence in themselves at the time they approach you (which is why they approach you) but you have confidence in them. They expand into the space created by your confidence in them. Confidence becomes contagious until they discover its source, in their own hearts, the universal dispenser of all good things.

As they progressively get that confidence comes from within, progressively let go, yourself. Once their confidence is flowing from within, cut them loose. Let them fly.

Just as using you was a transitional measure for them, so is it only a temporary role for you. A successful Nova CEO can now let go of the dove.

The Outcome

Congratulations. You reached a successful conclusion on that one. Imagine the whole sequence. Imagination is creative thought, more and more for us.

The sharper are the CEO's listening skills - and listening is a skill - the better able they are to perform as this new model is envisaged.

So, job description: A good listener with no self-importance who can hear a would-be leader completely and empower them to do exactly what they recommend, until their own self- confidence kicks in, at which point the CEO will be no longer needed.

Since these matters have a habit of unpacking themselves, you can expect me to expand what I said here, on another occasion, into a new model of leadership generally: The Leader as Listener.

The Challenges of Lightworker Leadership

July 17, 2015

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2015/07/17/the-challenges-of-lightworker-leadership/

Credit: cubedaze.com

I remember hearing Ram Dass long ago say that truth used to be a luxury, but now it had become a necessity.

There are lots of things that used to be luxuries which have become necessities. I saw one today.

I was doing something for another and I saw I was doing it with an ulterior motive. I had a hidden agenda.

What do we do when we see that? (1) Forget about it. (2) Feel bad and still forget about it. (3) Address it.

Both (1) and (2) occur in unconscious awareness. We get no higher than our thoughts and feelings, but we don't reach the actor, the soul, the Self. That we only do in conscious awareness.

If we're to (3) address it, there has to be someone present and willing to do that. The persona who forgets about it is not willing; the persona who feels bad and still forgets about it is not. The one who's willing is not a persona at all. Its presence is a created act as a result of us taking a stand. Its presence results in conscious awareness. Its presence is the first tenuous, shadowy appearance of the Self.

Before I go further, I need to make an aside. In the growth movement, it was viewed as an accomplishment to be able to call ourselves on our own stuff.

Calling ourselves used to be a luxury, but I now see it rapidly becoming a necessity.

I'm in a position in my life where I'm more and more having to make tough decisions and to make them entirely on my own. I can no longer turn to this person or that and air my woes. I can no longer fish for sympathy or ask to have this cup taken from me. I'm "it."

Some months ago I saw that I was the one who had to take care of me. Now I'm also seeing that I'm the one who has to call myself on my stuff. And I'd better do it way ahead of everybody else if things are to move forward. Otherwise I'll be perennially putting out brush fires instead of self-correcting and avoiding brush fires.

It's ten times more effective to call myself on my own stuff than wait for others to do it. If people see that we're not willing to do so, but require them to call us, resentment builds.

Taking care of me and calling myself on my stuff cannot be done from a place of unconscious awareness. The minute I do either, I push myself into conscious awareness, not quite propel myself, but make it uncomfortable to do otherwise.

In the situation at hand, I called myself on my ulterior motives and hidden agenda. I asked myself what was fair to do no matter what and determined to do that.

The rise of the person willing to take responsibility for myself at this level carries with it another price in loneliness. (1) I realized that, once one determines to lead, one gives up the luxury of complaining and playing poor me. One gives up the luxury of getting others to rescue one or shelter one. When we lead, by definition, there's no one out in front of us. Now we're "it."

Engaging in complaining and asking to be rescued can be socially engaging and can result in the trading of strokes. (2) But the leader has to give these up, in the end and it can add to isolation and loneliness.

What was it St. Paul said? When I became a man, I had to put aside childish things?

Years ago we discussed being monarchs in our own domain. (3) The realization, appreciation, and actualization of that state of being just grows and grows.

(2) By strokes I mean gestures laden with concern and love, which are received and leave the receiving person feeling happy and full.

Expanded Consciousness will Equip Us for Our Missions

December 12, 2020

https://goldenageofgaia.com/2020/12/12/315595/

Mike Quinsey said something in his last Higher-Self message that I wanted to underscore.

I often look at myself and ask, how am I going to do what's requested of me? I don't feel compassion deeply. I don't enjoy socializing compared to working. I can't remember what I had for breakfast.

Danged varmint! Where has my memory gone? Where is it hiding?

How am I going to do this?

Mike triggered a realization in me. I've had it before but I ... forgot. Mike said:

> "With an expanded consciousness comes a natural sense of fairness and responsibility." (1)

"With an expanded consciousness" - Of course. I'm projecting myself into the future as I am. But the Mother has told us that the Ascension energies will keep rising and these'll have a transformative effect.

Let me cite some of the comments she's made on that subject so we ... I ... really get it. I recorded several in 2017.

First, let's refresh our memories on who the Divine Mother is. If she doesn't will something, it won't happen; if she does will it, it can't be stopped. She said last year:

> "I know very clearly, sweet one, as do you, if it is not [in] my Plan, then it will not occur. " (2)

She reminded us in 2017 that she also doesn't start a flow and then stop it - like the Tsunami of Love, for instance.

> "I do not tend to start and stop what I send thee." (3)

She then acknowledges that she's both regulating and increasing the flow of the Tsunami of Love. She actually confirms that she's managing the flow of Ascension energies to us:

> "It is the time yet again of the resurgence of my Tsunami of Love - yes, within the brackets of your experience and what you think of as time. And this resurgence is done in tandem - yes, to the Porlana C, to the Tsunami of One, and to my original Tsunami. "(4)

Ohhhhh-Kay. Buckle up.

Keep in mind that we keep thinking of Ascension as one sudden "Event." But here's the Baker, the Mother, saying she's gradually turning up the oven to bake the bread, which will rise not all at once, but over time.

> "I come this day to say that I am increasing the frequency of my Tsunami of Love.
> "Yes, it has been intense. But this is a period of fulfillment. And, sweet angels of light, fulfillment is intense! Your hearts, your love, your ecstasy, your > minds, your physical bodies – you feel - because you are sensitives - that you in many ways are exploding. Do not try. Do not even think or consider tamping it down." (5)

Notice as well that she's concerned that the love-heat not be more intense than we can bear. Surely this answers our questions about why Ascension must be gradual as well as sudden.

No one will escape the impact of her energies, she says, although the impact itself will be different for different people.

> "The recalcitrant, whether they know it or not, like it or not, accept it or not, declare it or not, it matters not – not one being upon your planet is exempt from both the Porlana C and my renewed, resurgent Tsunami of Love; not one being. ... What we are focused on is washing everything clean; first washing it out, washing it out, washing it out, but with each wave, with each ripple of each wave, we are also infusing, infusing, infusing.
> "And with the infusion of my love, my energy, my pattern – and your Star family's energy and pattern – there is no room for anything else. So it is as if you are getting the suds and the rinsing cycle at the same time." (6)

Wash, rinse, and repeat. This is the time of purification and it's raising everything deeply ground in, so to speak, to the surface. Those who try to take their negativity or criminality with them will find they hit a roadblock.

But back to my earlier concern about not being good enough. I've been reassured that I'll always have the energy I need for my responsibilities. (7) And it will come as and in an expansion of consciousness.

I know that. It always has in the past come as a result of that.

In particular, Mike says, what arises is "a natural sense of fairness and responsibility." I know from my experience in the hearing room that we can allow the occasion to draw a sense of fairness and responsibility out of us.

I can foresee a sense of fairness and responsibility arising - not because of an occasion like a hearing but because I feel it inside me, independent of the occasion, but due to the rising energies.

So memory and capability will be expanded as a result of the Mother increasing the Ascension energies. That's the basis of my faith and willingness to consider what lies ahead for me.

AAM: And you think that we would leave you helpless? ... No, dear heart, that is not the plan.

Steve: Oh good! Even knowing there is a plan is comforting.

AAM: There is not only a plan, Sweet One. There is a strategy afoot to implement the plan. (Archangel Michael in a personal reading with Steve Beckow through Linda Dillon, June 17, 2020.)

Steve: Now my memory will return once I'm involved in financial things, is that correct?

AAM: Your memory will be sufficient. ... Yes, you will have adequate memory. ... You are travelling inter-dimensionally. Where those lapses tend to occur is when you are shifting dimensions. And so make sure that you are deeply anchored into your Mother Gaia. (AAM, ibid., May 13, 2020.)
