Introduction

Blossom Goodchild

If the cabal's next plan is to create and play up an outbreak of a fungus, then our next plan is to reveal as many of the details as possible so we're not taken in by it.

Blossom Goodchild has produced a series of messages from the Federation of Light in which they reveal the deep state's next move in the hidden war to depopulate the globe.

What a long journey it's been from Oct. 14, 2008, when a mothership was supposed to materialize and didn't, to here. Poor Blossom has had to report so many things that seem not to have occurred that reporting one more – Fergus the Fungus – must test her patience to the limit. Good on ya, Blossom!

But back to Fergus.

The deep state's next product to launch on an unwitting and all-too-believing public is a fungal outbreak. Dubbed "Fergus the Fungus" by Blossom, it was evidently already being cited in WHO publications back in Oct. of 2022 and was recently (Feb. 10, 2023) covered by NBC News as the next outbreak to watch for.

Recently a series called The Last of Us dramatized an America ravaged by a mutant Cordyceps fungus and the zombie humans it created.

If the cabal planned the fungus outbreak, then the next element in their plan would be the various videos being produced on Cordyceps since then, including by such names as David Attenborough and National Geographic.

Meanwhile the white hats are using the move to get the populace into their homes where I believe the ten days of emergency broadcasts will occur, followed, I think, by the Ring of Fire.

And I could be wrong.

The revelations in the emergency broadcasts, when they come, will undoubtedly be painful. The Federation of Light thinks it beneficial that we're all indoors and out of harm's way when some people learn how deeply they've been betrayed.

More information will be forthcoming, I'm sure. In the meantime, be compassionate to those who've newly awakened. Listening is what they'll want, not advice. (1)

Take issue with them and they'll turn their rage on you. This is an excellent opportunity to take the next step ourselves and love everyone, humbly and without distinction.

Just send the love out indiscriminately, universally. Make the leap to Oneness of regard. Use your love to do it.

It may be hard now. It may seem to pay few dividends. But it primes the pump and leads to a heart opening ... and then your effort will really pay dividends.

It could be said of our missions generally that there is only one thing to do and that is to love. When we're in higher dimensions, we'll see that it's the love that exists there that explains everything. Once in it we see that immediately.

If we only love, it's been said, we'll have fulfilled the law. The next deep-state crisis will challenge our ability to love all, especially our enemies.

Operation Fergus? – Part 1/4

February 14, 2023

"Are we all going to be eaten by a giant mushroom?"

Happy Valentine's Day, everyone!

It was one year ago today - Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, 2022 - that the Federation of Light through Blossom Goodchild made the earliest mention of the deep state's next product launch - a fungal outbreak that will allegedly threaten the world.

Now, apparently, what Blossom dubbed "Fergus the Fungus" (1) has arrived on our shores, so to speak.

NBC announced its arrival in "Fungal Infections are Becoming More Common. Why isn't There a Vaccine?" (2) The publicity campaign looks orchestrated to me.

NBC says:

"Fungal infections are becoming more common in the United States ... The infections are certainly a cause for concern. ... Fungi cause a wide range of illnesses in people, from irritating athlete's foot to life-threatening bloodstream infections." (3)

It then ties this new fungal outbreak to climate change. Gotta give the guy credit for tying one global false flag to another.

"Climate change also threatens to make several infection-causing fungi more widespread: The fungus that causes Valley fever thrives in hot, dry soil, and the fungus that causes an illness called histoplasmosis prefers high humidity." (4)

Holy mackerel! Histoplasmosis! Break out the masks again.

It called the fungal situation a "growing threat" and complained:

"Despite the growing threat, there are currently no licensed vaccines — in the U.S. or abroad — to prevent fungal infections.

"These are the most important infectious diseases that you have not heard of,' said Karen Norris, an immunologist and vaccine expert at the University of Georgia. "A vaccine has the potential to move forward and protect a large swath of individuals." (5)

Sounds like a product launch to me.

Now that the deep state has apparently launched their newest product, when will they announce their newest vaccine? And why do we so passively take it all? (In my view, THAT'S why we need a wake-up call.)

It comes after a 2023 series called The Last of Us depicted a United States ravaged by a mutant Cordyceps fungus. If you search on that term on Youtube, you'll see numerous videos from folks like David Attenborough and National Geographic on Cordyceps, some worrying that an outbreak could happen to humanity.

They popularize the phrase "zombie fungus." They predict the fungus may exert mind control. In retrospect this looks like predictive programming.

Keep in mind that the white hats have already circumvented the operation by using it to get the public indoors for what I believe to be the ten days of broadcasts. So even though I treat Fergus with a dash of amusement, I'll definitely cooperate and get myself indoors.

Keep in mind too that, as with Covid, the actual condition (a fungal infection) is not worrisome. It's the vaccine that is. It's all about the vaccine.

I intend to review the series of conversations in a little detail because the Federation of Light says it's going to be painful and the worst roller-coaster ride we'll ever be on. They lay the whole operation out for us - both dark hat and white hat. And they tie it into the reason why we angels (6) have come here.

Blossom's sources predicted this "outbreak" early last year.

Federation of Light: THIS IS A DIVINE PLAN! It is too complicated and 'intimate' to be discussed 'in public' at this stage. Yet we shall tell you this ... It will be under the guise of a [rapidly-spreading] 'fungus' ...

Blossom: Whoa! Hold the phone a minute! A fungus? Are you seriously serious, chaps? A Fungus?! Are we all going to be eaten by a giant mushroom?

FoL: If we may continue ... A '[rapidly spreading] fungus' ...connected to the viruses. Yet, of course, this has absolutely nothing to do with it. We cannot give the game away ... it is not appropriate, yet, we can say that what is to take place, once that manoeuvre is underway ...

IS FOR THE GREATER GOOD.

THE HIGHEST GOOD OF ALL. (7)

This outbreak, they say, will usher in Phase Two of the Plan:

FoL: "When this [rationale for the lockdown] is understood, there will be no place for fear. For it will be accepted that 'at last', The Plan is flowing through Phase Two and 'MOVING.'

"What takes place during that 'Incubation' will shake one to the core. Yet, it is the 'Core of the Being' that, in many, needs to be shaken in order to awaken. Many shall 'emerge anew' and in alignment with the Truth that is to be revealed [in the ten days of emergency broadcasts]." (8)

We'll understand the necessity for the lockdowns.

FoL: "One knows that what is to be 'shown without doubt' as Truth will start a revolution inside the self! Which in turn for many, who cannot accept the 'great reveals,' will lead to much disruption. Therefore, would you not consider it ... best/safest ... to remain indoors at this time and SEND YOUR LIGHT – LOVE TO THE ENTIRE SITUATION?" (9)

They begin to say more about why "the strongest of the strong" were selected. Were we not ready to hear it before?

FoL: "THERE IS NO PLACE FOR FEAR AND DEPRESSION, YET THERE WILL BE SO MUCH NEEDED COURAGE AND STRENGTH TO GUIDE EACH ONE THROUGH THAT WHICH IS TO TAKE PLACE.

"WE HAVE EVERY FAITH IN YOU PLAYING YOUR PART ... THAT IS WHY ONLY THE STRONGEST OF THE STRONG WERE CHOSEN." (10)

Let's leave the discussion here and continue tomorrow.

Operation Fergus? – Part 2/4

February 15, 2023

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/?p=342679>

We eat mushrooms and mushrooms eat us when we die, right? Wrong. They're not waiting!

Let's continue with the discussion between Blossom and the Federation of Light on the fungus attack and the call for a new vaccine.

On Feb. 27, 2022, the FoL emphasized that the attack was being allowed as a means to get people inside for the planned announcements.

Federation of Light: Regarding the lockdown, yes indeed, it has been spoken of often by us. What is 'useful' to know is that 'whatever is presented' as a reason to bring this about is merely a deploy [Ploy? Decoy?]. The tactics used are a disguise in order to 'have the people' where they need to be.

Blossom: And where is that?

FoL: SAFELY in their homes. Again, we try to explain without giving 'the Game away' for that is not suitable. This Plan is vast and, as in a game of chess, strategies and contingencies are always changing in order to make one's next move the most beneficial.

B: Yet, you say the Light has won.

FoL: It has. Without question. Yet, The Game must be played out, for there are essential 'properties' that need to be in place. Therefore, The Game must be finished so that those off from the Light-Forces can complete their mission(s). ...

We DeLight in the movements of upliftment from many heroes on your Planet, that are showing the world and those that live upon it, that what is not right regarding 'Freedom status' must be dealt with.

The walls are crumbling and tumbling down around your Planet. Remember that most of what is presented to you is a smokescreen. A completely different 'play' is taking place behind the scenes and it is getting close now to the curtain lifting, in order for the audience to participate and 'view' for themselves that which is TRUTH.

B: Really? Is that ever going to happen? No-one knows what to believe any more ... about anything. It is hard to decipher and discern what is real. I know many feel fearful about a worldwide lockdown. I say bring it on and let's get this show on the road. At least we can feel we are moving forward.

FoL: It has to take place. And indeed, Blossom, it will move things along in ways that will 'Blow people's minds!' This is another reason for an 'indoor curfew' 24/7 for a while because that which is brought to Light will leave many in states of shock, abhorrence, and disbelief. (1)

Thus from all angles the lockdown works for the white hats, safeguards us, and allows for us to receive information without us panicking and resorting to conflict.

On March 14, 2022, the FoL added:

Federation of Light: As we say, Blossom, when the time comes for one to remain safely indoors, the prospect of this and the propaganda around it, will certainly be enough to 'have the desired effect'.

Blossom: Can you elaborate?

FoL: It will be 'presented' as 'more deadly'.

B: How can you get more deadly than dead?

FoL: Then, would we say, more ferocious.

B: A FEROCIOUS FERGUS FUNGUS! You gotta Love it! Yet, how will it present in terms of symptoms?

FoL: A rash ...

B: So, it's real then? ...

FoL: Yes. It is. Yet certainly not ferocious and certainly not deadly. ...

Your role as you know, now and when this takes place, is to send your Light. (2)

They do mean it, folks. Send your light and your love to the world.

They tantalize us on June 12, 2022 with the possibilities Fergie brings.

Federation of Light: That which is to 'befall' your Planet may appear on the outside to be disastrous, abominable, and indeed, as unbelievable as unbelievable can be. Yet, that which is to enter into your Heart is to uplift you ... give you Strength and Encourage you to see your mission through in ways of such BELIEVABLE proof ... that it is for One to look forward to that which lies ahead.

Life and all its Mysteries are to unfold as you allow yourself to open up to all possibilities. Some beyond your wildest imaginings. (3)

That sounds like a description of higher-dimensional love to me. I read it and wonder if, at the end of the announcements, the Ring of Fire will occur.

We heard the FoL say in their first discussion what would happen:

"What takes place during that 'Incubation' will shake one to the core. Yet, it is the 'Core of the Being' that, in many, needs to be shaken in order to awaken. Many shall 'emerge anew' and in alignment with the Truth that is to be revealed [in the ten days broadcasts?]." (4)

Shaken to the core and emerging renewed. Broadcasts followed by Ring of Fire, followed by Reval? Just a guess.

I share the view that we as a planet need to go through a wake-up. I don't think some people will ever wake up without ten days of broadcasts. (5) As long as they don't, there's the possibility of civil war.

In my opinion, we cannot let forces that want to take over the world and kill most of the population succeed or even exist as a residual that then can sprout again. Nazism did that after the Second World War, with our willing help (via Operation Paperclip).

The elitist behavior must altogether stop this time around. I don't advocate executions. We're in a Golden Age, not an Iron Age, any longer.

Rehabilitation is what's wanted and needed. In the meantime, everyone put some money and supplies aside for Fergie's Lockdown.

Let me continue in Part 3 tomorrow, because I consider this important information for us to know, take in, and prepare for.

Operation Fergus? – Part 3/4

February 16, 2023

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/?p=342683>

In 2013, HBO had a series on a fungal outbreak: The Last of Us, based on a video game by the same name. Thanks to Sitara.

I hear someone saying, he's making fun of a deadly fungus.

Yes, I am. Intentionally.

Probably only lightworkers will read these articles and they may already know that Fergus is a non-starter.

Let them be the 100 monkeys who prevent panic from setting in over Fergus the Fungus.

Only if we take the cabal's bioweapons and killer shots seriously can they win the popular support they need to enforce their next step in the suppression of civil rights - their social credit system.

They've offered us a problem and the solution they offer us depends on our reaction, right? Problem, reaction, solution?

Well, here's my reaction: I honor the lockdown because the white hats plan to make use of it. But Fergie is a bust. Next?

Back to the Federation. By Oct. of 2022, the FoL was announcing that Fergus had appeared:

Blossom: I have had so many emails sent to me regarding the World Health Organisation announcing a deadly fungus, that is a follow on from the virus. I Love you. I Love you. I Love you. Could it be something you said has come about at last?

Federation of Light: Welcome to you, Blossom. Welcome to the entirety of the community. ...

We smile at your surprise ... a large smile! ... Yes, this [is what] we have spoken of. (1)

They ask us to remember that what is to happen involves a disguise:

FoL: We ask you to remember that this is a guise. Nothing is as it seems. In the coming times, as you recognize more and more that we have spoken of coming into fruition, we ask you to remember ...

THE REASON YOU ARE HERE.

For 'things' are about to get very sticky!

Blossom: Very sticky?

FoL: In the sense, that if one has glue on their fingers, it can be that another finger touches it and that gets stuck, and another and another, and the more one tries to free themselves of it/from it, the more of a pickle they find themselves in!

B: Who are you referring to ... us or them?

FoL: Them. Yet, you know that the quickest way to relieve your Planet of this dark sticky mess is to pour warm water over it. Our dearest Soul, known as White Cloud, always speaks of Water representing Love. (2)

Always the same remedy: Send love. It's spiritual chemistry: Love dissolves evil.

Meanwhile what the Federation ask sounds challenging but necessary:

FoL: This is when you will be challenged to send Love to those involved in the mess.

Those who have disrespected the Laws of Love. When 'news' of their behaviour is fully disclosed this shall be no easy task.

THEREFORE, COME FROM THE HEART IN A GENERAL HEALING OF ALL.

TO HEAL THE PLANET BY SENDING OUT YOUR LOVE TO ALL.

ESPECIALLY THOSE WHO NEED IT MOST. (3)

So the mere exposure of the cabal will be enough to injure their efforts.

They remind us to model, to demonstrate love. That's our mission.

FoL: You are here to be an example and when it is that many are in shock and disbelief, and disgust ... that is when you speak to them of this Healing through Love. Remember this.

There shall be so much hatred arise from the ones who have been asleep. They need to be shown how to Forgive and to Heal themselves and all that is taking place ... through Love. (4)

Blossom asks for additional information on Fergus itself. The Federation answers:

Perhaps there is little to be said ... at this point. We can not give you a time frame for when this will take place and we cannot tell you how long the 'stay indoors' policy will last. Yet, we feel it quite certain to say, that it will not be for a long stretch of time. For too much will be 'opened up' and those who need to hide from the exposure shall no longer be able to do so.

So, things will happen in succession very quickly.

One should not be concerned of a long haul, so to speak. (5)

Meanwhile, for us, perhaps the situation we find ourselves in may be enough for us to break through, as a planet, to loving everyone.

There is more. But let me conclude the discussion today.

(Concluded in Part 4 tomorrow.)

Operation Fergus? – Part 4/4

February 17, 2023

<https://goldenageofgaia.com/?p=342684>

Now Youtube videos on fungal infections are appearing. How well timed!

(Concluded from Part 3, yesterday.)

Finally we reach January and February 2023 and the Federation again returns to the subject.

On January 22, 2023, they reviewed events:

Federation of Light: There ... has been/are /always will be ... Fungus! Yet that which we have spoken of will be brought to the forefront when it is deemed the correct time for this particular scare tactic to be presented on a large scale, in order for it appearing to be necessary for everyone to remain indoors.

Please remember we also mentioned that this worldwide lockdown will bring about Phase Two and Fergus Fungus is merely another disguise.

Blossom: So funny really, when you first mentioned there would be Five Phases, I think we all thought that we would at least be halfway through Phase Four by now ... not still in Phase One!

FoL: Yet, as we have also stated, it does not mean that once Phase Two is underway that they all will last as long as this initial undertaking! We feel quite confident in this matter.

B: Well, that's good to know. So, nothing to say about it then?

FoL: Very little. It shall speak for itself when the time comes.

B: And no point in asking when that will be.

FoL: Correct Blossom. Yet, it is coming. (1)

David Attenborough looks at Cordyceps, a fungal predator of ants, a video sometimes cited by fungus proponents.

And the most recent mention, a few days ago, on Feb. 12, 2023; Blossom asks if "so many now, having experienced this over the last few years, simply will not comply?"

*Federation of Light: There is indeed this possibility ... and those that choose not to will be doing so because they 'KNOW.'*³ Yet, this does not mean to say that to be 'shut in/shut down' is not necessary ...for THIS particular 'excuse' is for the Greater Good of all.

THIS particular fear tactic has an underlying attachment which again, as we say, is necessary for all to remain indoors for their safety and yet, this safety via confinement has nothing to do with a fungus. As we say, this is merely a camouflage. (2)

Here's another Youtube video on a fungus attacking ants:

"While the Cordyceps fungus may never bring about the zombie apocalypse in humans, our actions and behaviors may be influenced by a parasitic force that definitely does not have our best interests at heart."

They then give a rather gloomy forecast of a period of pain for us all that we have to go through to get to the other side. They compare it to childbirth:

Federation of Light: When it happens, Blossom, and we say 'when' not 'if' ... you will all feel such relief, even though the nature of it is not Sunshine and Rainbows. In fact, far from it. Yet, dearest Blossom, dearest Souls of Truth and Light ... we have spoken many times, that although the ultimate goal ... your mission ... is to bring the Blessed Gaia and indeed, your Blessed Beings, into that world of Sunshine and Rainbows, there is much that is NOT of that Energetic Vibration that has to be cleared and removed in order to walk into it.

It will be exceedingly unpleasant.

Blossom: I felt as if I stopped you from saying 'painful'.

FoL: You did. Yet, we know your reasoning was not to create fear.

B: And gloom and doom ...

FoL: Indeed. Yet, we also wish to prepare your Being for what is to come, so that your strengths can carry you ... in the knowing that the 'rough passage' has to occur before the waters calm and a Peace covers your Planet.

It shall be the bumpiest roller coaster one could possibly imagine. Of this, there is no doubt. Yet ...

YOU ARE READY!

And even though we cannot tell you exactly what this shall entail ... as you are riding the storm ... you will KNOW that 'this is meant to be' and this will assist you greatly in the KNOWING of that which is on the other side ... once 'that part' of The Plan has been acted out.

B: Why is it we can't be informed in more detail of what is to come?...
And I already know what you are going to say!

FoL: Shall we do the honours, or you?

B: You.

FoL: Have you yourself not said, Blossom ... if women knew the actual pain of childbirth, there would be far less Souls on the Planet.

B: Yep.

FoL: Yet, the pain stops instantaneously when the baby is born and there is instant Joy of the Highest Vibration ... and each intense contraction becomes a gift in the memory ... as the result of one's 'labours.' (3)

So there we have it. Stay tuned for ... Fergus the Fungus, our next bioweapon provided us by the Department of Defence, DARPA, and a host of confederates. The bumpiest roller coaster ride we'll ever be on.

When it does come, remember: Sunshine and rainbows awaits us on the other side. We'll get through this and we'll get though it together.
