Introduction

This booklet is different from many others that you'll see on the subject of the Illuminati in that it takes its evidence from the messages of higher-dimensional galactic and celestial beings rather than from boots on the ground.

I've been reading channeled messages since 1975/6.

I've had the reality of life after death proven to me through them and a variety of other means. (1)

The afterlife is organized according to increasing refinement of vibration. The Astral Plane gives way to the Mental Plane, etc.

Already the idea has been planted in my mind of an ascent of consciousness. It's an easy jump from there to acknowledge that what the afterlife commentators call "planes," other commentators call "dimensions."

And if we admit the existence of dimensions, then we might acknowledge the possibility of communication between dimensions, even as we admit it in the case of the afterlife.

Apparently, we don't need advanced listening dishes directed toward outer space to speak to "aliens." If we decide against the alternative - going down to Area 51 to speak to the extraterrestrials working there - we can always consult a credible medium.

Or just read their published channeled messages, as I've been doing since 1975-6.

Galactics and celestials have been communicating with us ever since we stopped burning people the stake who were speaking to them.

What always gives lightworkers aware of channeled messages the greatest difficulty is what to do with those who are, not just bad, but evil. I discussed what evil was for me in a recent article:

“Evil” for me refers to thoughts and behavior that violate every known moral, ethical, attitudinal, religious, and other standard and promise to do so into the future.

Not only is “evil” totally unacceptable but it has a repulsive nature reflecting a wish to maximally harm others – so “evil” to qualify as evil is usually also horrific, terrifying, disgusting, etc.

Satanic child sacrifice is a good example of evil. Torturing children to produce adrenochrome is another. Cannibalism, a third. Even just naming those three causes my head to spin and me to feel nauseous. (2)

When something reaches a level of repulsiveness and reprehensibility that we deem as “evil,” some switch inside is tripped and we no longer have doubts about ending the career of these people.

That's what's happening today to the cabal's child-traffickers, adrenochrome producers, corrupt political, financial, and religious leaders, etc.

In our everyday world (May 2021), while no war has been declared, there's a hidden war going on between the present planetary management and their opponents, called the white hats or Alliance. It's going on under, on, and above the planet.

The Alliance is composed of military and civilian men and women galvanized by events to take a stand against the deep state as an enemy of the Constitution, foreign and domestic.

Many took this stand after President Kennedy was assassinated and began planning then. Many others did so after realizing 9/11 was an inside job.

The Alliance conducts itself according to law whereas the deep state does not. It takes the Alliance longer to initiate and respond because of it.

I don't think I'd exactly say that means they're fighting with one arm behind their back because the Alliance itself has allies.

And those allies don't often break into our consciousness for us to know about them or what they have to say. They are terrestrial and extraterrestrial communicators from higher dimensions, a source not often consulted.

This booklet lets you hear them.

By far its largest contributor is Matthew Ward, earlier incarnated as St. Matthew, who sat on the universal council that designed Earth's Ascension Plan. He's channeled through his mother Suzy. I find him to be as credible a source as I could ever hope for.

Second to him in contributions to our knowledge of current affairs is SaLuSa of Sirius, channeled by Mike Quinsey. While SaLuSa's contribution to the subject of evil may not rival Matthew's, he's indispensable for a knowledge of galactic assistance to the Alliance and their work with Gaia.

And a sprinkling of quotes from John Smallman's Saul, who I believe was St. Paul. There are a small number of communicators whom I regard as laser sharp and Saul is one of them.

Of course, there are a plethora of channellers out there who are not talking about evil and are stellar. We are blessed. And in most cases all information is available without charge.

These galactics don't need to be taken to our leaders. They're broadcasting over our airwaves (3) and filling the pages of our blogs.

Remember in reading this to focus on behaviour and not people. We're all of us, in some distant lifetime, guilty of what's being discussed here. It's evil behaviour that needs to stop, not people who need to be punished.

And it will stop.

⌘ The Identity of the Illuminati ⌘

Who are the Illuminati?

Matthew Ward: The Illuminati is not an organization of card-carrying members, but rather the "umbrella" name of disparate groups and a large number of powerful individuals who have been controlling or heavily influencing the most important aspects of life throughout your world for centuries.

In recent years they also have become known by other designations, such as the secret government, New World Order, dark cabal or the elitists; and they include the top figures in financial institutions, investment markets, multinational corporations, religions, education, media, military forces, judicial systems, entertainment, the medical "establishment," regulatory and advisory bodies, royal families, [and] Zionists. (1)

Matthew: The Illuminati ... was formed as a secret society and never has been a formal organization with membership enrollment. Most of the people who are doing the bidding of those at the top may not even know the name Illuminati and have no idea that they are aiding ruthless exploiters of humanity.

Because the most powerful in the ranks never publicly speak of themselves as Illuminati or acknowledge the global influence they wield, when their reprehensible activities started being discovered, the group deemed responsible was commonly referred to as the cabal, elitists or shadow government, and sometimes New World Order or One World Government.

By whatever designation, these individuals have continued what was set in motion long ago, a pernicious march toward world domination. They have no conscience because they are devoid of light except the spark that is their life force, and only when that void is filled with light will they be able to see the light and cease their dark activities. (2)

Matthew: The US government appears to be the warmonger, but those within the government who have spearheaded all of the tumult are members of the Illuminati; theirs is not a national, but a global "citizenry," and their intentions are to weaken all countries through death toll, property destruction, debt and/or control of all natural resources.

Within the Illuminati are the owners of the corporations that manufacture weaponry, planes and tanks as well as the corporations with no-bid contracts to rebuild destroyed infrastructure and to provide fuel for the machines of war, so there is this collaborative vested interest in perpetuating the Bush administrations proclaimed need to "support the troops" and "solidify democracy and freedom" in Iraq. (3)

Matthew: The Illuminati gave themselves that name, which means "the enlightened," but they don't publicly refer to themselves that way. They work in secret but the results of their efforts are seen throughout your world.

Illuminati members lead national governments and their regulatory agencies; global economic agencies and banking; European royalty; international corporations; the United Nations; legal, policing and justice systems; educational institutions; all media forms; church hierarchies; the various medical and prescription drug establishments. I may have forgotten some areas, but in short, there is NO area of your world that is not Illuminati-infiltrated and influenced.

On Earth they are the people whose greed and control got way beyond their soul-level agreements, which was to serve in powerful positions to balance their own and a multitude of others' chosen karmic experiencing. At the point when that had been accomplished and the collective karma had been satisfied, the intensity of greed and control in the Illuminati members was to have quickly reversed into the equitable sharing of their resources and power. (4)

SaLuSa: You have been allowed freewill at all times in experiencing duality. You may therefore reflect on the fact, that you have innocently allowed yourselves to give it up to those who are the power behind virtually all decisions that affect your lives.

This is the faction you know as the Illuminati, and they are no longer as powerful now due to the grand work of our allies. We have of course as always guided events along that have been beneficial to them, and that support is perfectly acceptable as the Light is allowed to confront the dark Ones.

On Earth the battle is becoming more obvious, and is a reflection of a greater one that continues in the higher realms. The dark energies permeate the Universe, and are attracted to the lower vibrations wherever they exist. It is as though you signal your readiness to engage with them, and that is what has happened on Earth.

For eons of time you have been under its influence, and in consequence Beings of low vibration have infiltrated your Earth. Now the vibrations have risen considerably, and your Earth is no longer a suitable place for them. As it continues to rise, so their influence is weakened and they lose their power over you. Eventually they will have no option but to leave the Earth, and that time rapidly approaches. (5)

How did they begin?

Matthew: The Illuminati—also now known as the cabal, global elite, shadow government, One World Order, One World Government—began as a group of individuals who felt that they were the most intelligent and learned people in the world. Thus they were entitled to rule everyone else. Over time, others with the same superior attitude were drawn into the fold of this secret society, egos grew, tempers flared, and two competing factions emerged with the same goal, world domination. (6)

Matthew: The name Illuminati, which means "enlightened" or "illuminated," dates back only to the late 18th century, but the darkness that inspired the original members had its roots in antiquity. That little band of Europeans simply gave themselves the name they felt they deserved, and in time, Illuminati became the "umbrella" name of the many disparate organizations or groups that successive members infiltrated or formed. (7)

Matthew: It was devised by individuals in Bavaria who felt that they were the most intelligent, knowledgeable and capable persons in the world—the illumined ones—and in their self-aggrandizement, they felt entitled to control the lives of everyone else.

As their numbers grew, so did their influence in governments, religions, national economies and trade. They used the industrial revolution to their advantage, and as decades passed, they did the same with subsequent inventions and the planets natural resources. Eventually their control spanned the globe and encompassed everything that affects life in your world—from education to entertainment and mainstream media; food production, manufacturing, banking and stock markets to legal and justice systems; weaponry development to military forces and intelligence agencies; healthcare and pharmaceutical and chemical industries to wages, taxation and transportation.

However, by no means were they the first to disempower the masses—they built on a firm foundation of populace control in the hands of a few. Two thousand years ago it was the heads of church and state, whose concentration of power grew through the centuries by papal edicts and arranged marriages within Europe's royal families. Control was further enhanced by the Italian Borgia and Medici dynasties' developments in banking and commerce; the emergence of Protestantism; and the British, French, Spanish and Portuguese empire-building through colonizing other countries and subjugating or annihilating the native populations. Shortly after the colonies won their independence from British rule, European control crossed the Atlantic Ocean and infiltrated the nascent United States; and that country's 1913 Federal Reserve Act cemented the dark ones' hold on the international economy.

But the lust for power and riches started long, long before your recorded history, when people from Lyra became the first residents on the planet. They went without clearance from the Intergalactic Council and they mined gold without asking the Council's permission because they didn't want to share their discovery with other civilizations. Thus, the energy of superiority, greed, deceit, lawlessness and domination that exists in your world today arrived on the planet eons ago in linear time. (8)

SaLuSa: You might wonder where the negative influences have come from that have plagued your planet, and we can tell you that they have always existed in your Universe because of its dual polarity. When the vibrations of your mass consciousness drops very low you attract similar ones from outside, and as a result powerful energies are formed that make them harder to overcome. (9)

Who are they today?

Matthew: In accordance with the Illuminati's intent to attain positions of superiority over the masses, they expanded their outreach to the "New World." Members in Europe became known as the Rothschild group and those in the colonies, the Rockefeller group. The two groups worked in unison to dominate countries economically and politically, and within only a few decades after the United States won independence from British rule, the Illuminati had gained firm foothold in the nascent government. From then on they have been that nation's "silent government" - not all presidents have been members, but others who were have controlled the even more powerful Congress.

After ego, greed and lust for top billing destroyed the cohesiveness of the two groups, both continued pursuing the same goal of world domination and this common quest led to bloody battles for supremacy. Eventually those characteristics that caused the rift between the two groups created infighting within each group. That resulted in animosity and struggles for dominance in the groups opposing factions, and when fighting broke out within the factions, they splintered into smaller units.

Whether the group's factions and the splinter units within the factions are headquartered east or west of the Atlantic Ocean, they operate around the world and the name Illuminati applies to all. They don't speak of themselves by that name, there is no membership roster per se, and their only point of agreement is entitlement to rule the world by whatever means it takes.

Going forward now, one of Rockefeller factions splinter units was determined to have Hillary Clinton become US president. Naturally another unit was opposed, and in exploring prospects with the potential to become the public's choice, they decided that Obama was the best. Yes, elections have been manipulated for 200 years more or less, but after the split in the Rockefeller camp emerged, both factions and later their splinter units have had a hand in the rigging. After the outcry when the Supreme Court declared George W. Bush the victor in the 2004 election, candidates' popularity with voters was a consideration in 2007's primary election - people had to return to believing that their voices and votes counted. (10)

Matthew: Fast forward to sixty-some years ago, when the Rockefeller faction that operates out of New York and Washington, DC, was expanding its tentacles far westward and into Latin America. The Rothschild faction, headquartered in London and the Vatican, saw their territorial influence meager in comparison, so they buffed up their Council of Europe by establishing the European Union, European Central Bank and euro currency.

The Union was put under the Council's flag and shares its anthem—such a duplicitous choice, Beethoven's "Ode to Joy." With the first few countries buckled in by their EU belt, so to say, the Rothschilds and their minions set off on their expansion course; they moved into the new state of Israel, then throughout the Mideast, and more recently, northern Africa and some countries formerly within the Soviet Union. (11)

They call themselves the "New World Order" and "One World Government." What are their aims?

Matthew: "New World Order" and "One World Government" are two designations for the authoritarian rule the Illuminati planned to implement after they eliminated most of the world's population through wars, pandemics, toxic pollutants and starvation. They intended to let enough people survive to grow and prepare their food, provide medical care and education, clean homes and public buildings, provide transportation, utilities, clothing, construction, landscaping, repairs—in short, a population of servants that would supply whatever the Illuminati wanted. (12)

SaLuSa; The mindset of those who have opposed your evolution and aimed to prevent Ascension is focused on self-power because they lack the understanding of Oneness, and therefore love for their fellow man. However, they still have their Godspark even if it has become very dim, but one day it will light up again. They have the same opportunities to be of the Light as every other soul, and God will welcome them home like every other one. (13)

Matthew: The original plan also included what they have failed to do—reduce the population by several billions via nuclear weaponry, toxic pollution, and pandemics caused by laboratory-designed viruses. All attempts toward that diabolical end have been thwarted by members of your universal family in your skies or living among you. Still, the two factions kept adding to their respective lines of dominoes and each felt that the world was coming within its grasp. (14)

For all that those activities down through the ages have enabled billions of souls to complete soul contracts and evolve, Gaia is weary of her planetary body being a karmic merry-go-round and dealing with the negativity this creates. That is why you lightworkers volunteered to leave joy-filled lives in spiritually- and consciously-advanced civilizations and come to Earth.

You knew that you would forget your homelands; your new dense bodies would be vulnerable to injury, illness and disease; you would live in a world of violence, fear, poverty, bigotry, greed and other darkness inherent in a third density civilization. Yet, you came! Because you also knew when you volunteered that your love-light would show the people of Earth the way to halt that merry-go-round. (15)

Is the Illuminati organization responsible for all the pain and suffering in the world or do some of those evil people act on their own?

Matthew: Although we refrain from ascribing evil to persons rather than to their deeds, and while some individuals within and beyond the Illuminati do indeed act on their own deranged dark tendencies,

The Illuminati operation, you could say, has been responsible for all major wars, divisiveness, impoverishment and rampant deception and corruption for the past 265 years or so, after the name Illuminati came into being. (16)

Matthew: All along both factions have used strategies in the original plan to reach their goal. They infiltrated governments, military forces, intelligence agencies, multinational corporations, law enforcement and justice systems, religious hierarchies, entertainment industry, medical and educational fields. They garnered fortunes by manipulating the global economy through stock markets, banking and lending institutions, usurious interest rates and unfair taxation. They initiated civil wars, wars between adjoining countries, and World Wars I and II; assassinated or imprisoned opposition; formed terrorist groups; suppressed and misused technologies; controlled mainstream media and the illegal drug trade; and took over natural resources wherever they went. (17)

Matthew: They have controlled governments, started civil and international wars, caused famines and widespread impoverishment, created boom times for industrialists and depressions for the poor, released laboratory-designed viruses, assassinated opposition. They are the perpetrators of unjust laws, Satanic rituals, chemtrails and other toxic pollution, destruction of animal life on land and in the seas, mind control, the "illegal" drug industry, erosion of civil rights and denial of God-given freedoms, suppression or misuse of technology, political and ideological divisiveness. In short, the Illuminati have been profoundly adversely affecting all life on Earth - indeed, the very life of Earth herself! ...

It is because of the Illuminati's long reign of bloodshed, corruption and oppression that about seven decades back in your linear time Earth was in death throes. Her cries of despair were a call for help, and God immediately authorized the assistance of spiritually, intellectually and technologically advanced civilizations to come to her aid.

With such a massive infusion of light and technologies that you cannot even imagine, countless numbers of your universal family stabilized the planets orbit and performed other life-saving measures. Their invaluable assistance is in action this very day, some of it directed toward preventing the plans of the Illuminati from reaching fruition. (18)

⌘ Their Structure ⌘

Is the Illuminati a cohesive organization?

Matthew: The Illuminati was once a cohesive body made up of numerous groups and individuals, and combined they controlled the most important facets of life on Earth. In time, egos, greed, lies and ruthlessness split the group into two factions, each pursuing the same goal of killing most of the world's population and enslaving the rest for self-serving purposes. Although one faction's operations were primarily in the United States and the other's primarily in Europe, eventually the power base of each spanned the globe due to strategic marriages and later the merging of banks and corporations into multinational behemoths. (1)

Matthew: The top of the Illuminati [is] an alliance of disparate groups that own or have infiltrated every organization, institution and corporation that impacts life in your world, from governments to banking and commerce, religions to education and media, military, entertainment, legal and justice systems.

The alliance, which is pyramidal with a handful of individuals at the peak and many, many minions at the bottom who have no idea that they are working in league with a malevolent force, also is known to you as the secret government, one world government, new world order, the cabal or the elitists. (2)

Matthew: When I speak of Illuminati control or influence, it does not mean that all members or all groups are actively involved; nor do I often repeat that there are two factions within the Illuminati competing with each other for supremacy.

What my Illuminati designation always means is the faction's common darkness: their intent to rule the world and cause suffering through fear, civil and international wars, religions based on lies and divisiveness, impoverishing nations by controlling their governments and natural resources, environmental abuse, disease, tyrannical regimes, corporate corruption, unfair laws and taxation, seriously flawed education, promoting the illegal drug industry and legally drugging the population, and on and on. (3)

Does its power lie in its numbers?

SaLuSa: Their power has not been in numbers, as in fact the Illuminati are very few but they have amassed extraordinary wealth at your expense. In the physical realms money can buy practically anything from exotic weaponry to an individual's loyalty, and they have done so virtually unchallenged. As you will know by now the financial state of the world is precarious and collapsing, which will take their power base with it. Once they are seriously weakened, through our Allies we shall make our move and ensure that they cannot recover. (4)

Are its top figures known?

Matthew: The most powerful of the Illuminati are not public figures such as presidents, premiers, ambassadors, members of Congress or Parliaments, or corporate CEOs, board chairs or head of the Federal Reserve. On the contrary, the peak Illuminati work in secrecy and silence out of public sight as they control those prominent figures. (5)

Are the top Illuminati all reptilians?

Matthew: Above the Earth human Illuminati top level are the dark souls of the reptilian civilization, some of whom are embodied as humans and living on the planet. They are working in conjunction with their dark reptilian brothers off-planet, whose goal is total domination of Earth, if not by absolute control, then absolute destruction.

The light forces of the universe, including reptilians, are in confrontation with the darkness of any civilization. What is happening on your planet is a reflection of the universal conflict, and regardless of universal progress, your beloved Earth will be freed from the clutches of darkness as she rises farther into higher vibrations where love reigns overall. (6)

Matthew: Both reptilians and humans of dark persuasion are in top positions within the many sectors under the Illuminati "umbrella." They are the ones I have spoken about that agreed to fill "bad guy" roles until completion of individuals and Earth's third-density karma, when they would join the light forces, but instead reneged on their agreements. (7)

Matthew: Some persons who are aware of the Illuminati's existence believe that all of them are reptilians. Indeed some are, especially within the royal families, which have kept their bloodlines pure to a large extent, but humans also are in the Illuminati's top ranks.

Most reptilians are far advanced from Earth's human civilization in intelligence and technological development and they have a strong warrior mentality; however, it is not the different DNA in the two races, but rather the free will choices made by an individual of any race that lead to diabolical activities. A soul may have greatly advanced intelligence and be bereft of light except the spark that is its life force.

And just as there are light-filled human souls throughout this universe, so are there light-filled reptilians. The latter group, who are eager to dispel the erroneous belief that their race is synonymous with darkness, are working side by side with humans and other races to thwart the efforts of their darkly-inclined siblings wherever they are wreaking havoc. Also, as the light has been intensifying on Earth, both reptilians and humans have left the dark camp and joined the ranks of the light forces. (8)

Do dark aliens remain on the planet?

Matthew: In this universe there are myriad councils, star nation groupings, forcefields, and galactic and intergalactic federations. The only ones in proximity to your solar system are of the light, but only several years ago in your time calculations, that wasn't the case - part of the vast force-field of thought-forms deriving from darkness held sway in the area until the in-pouring of light reached such a mass that the force field, to which light is anathema, no longer could remain. ⌘ Their Operations ⌘

Who carries out the Illuminati's black operations?

Matthew: The “black ops” arm of the Illuminati-controlled faction of the CIA ... operates independently of all governments’ oversight, respects no national borders.

Wherever some citizens are dissatisfied with their elected leaders, the agents either instigate or exacerbate uprisings to heighten tension, implicate whatever national leaders would be appropriate and help the dissidents obtain weaponry and supplies. “Black ops” personnel, like the rest of the Illuminati, feed on negativity, and their means of refueling themselves is creating negativity-laden chaos, fear, death, injury, sorrow and destruction. (1)

Have the dark forces established colonies elsewhere?

SaLuSa: SaLuSa: The dark forces upon Earth have had ambitions to enslave you, and extend their activities into Space. They already have bases upon the Moon and Mars, and using force they would not hesitate to colonise another world. However, no matter what they do they will not be allowed to go outside your Solar System. (2)

What went wrong with the Plan?

Matthew: Vital to the Plan were souls who would create the harsh circumstances the masses needed and, when that was completed, join the light forces. Only the most highly evolved beings could be entrusted with those missions, and the council selected the volunteers whose dependability in the most challenging areas of light service had been proven time and again.

There was no reason whatsoever to anticipate that they would renege on the latter part of their agreement, but that is what happened. Those individuals had fallen under the spell of the darkness that engulfed the planet and they refused to relinquish their power, control of the masses and fortunes gained illegally or immorally. No amount of urging at soul- and conscious-levels, pledges of assistance or warnings about self-judgment in lifetime reviews convinced them to honor their agreement. ...

Although the council’s timeline for world situations to be greatly improved and the peoples burdens eased so they could “see the light” had arrived in your linear time, the Illuminati continued hiding truths and fomenting wars, destruction, disease and impoverishment just as many generations of dark ones had done before them. That didn't affect Earth's ascension pace—she entered fourth density right on target as predestined, at the end of 2012—but relentless turmoil and hardships and ignorance of truths have kept most of her peoples within third density's limited conscious and spiritual awareness.

The billions who are coping with one hardship or injustice piled atop others or are barely surviving cannot imagine anything except the violence, misery, despair and fear in their lives.

Troops in combat believe what they have been told: It is your patriotic duty to fight for freedom or it is your responsibility to avenge what was done to your ancestors. The large numbers employed in companies that produce the machinery of war may abhor wars death and destruction, but their foremost interest is their livelihood that supports their families.

Thus, contrary to the councils expectations of your society's advancement by 2007, thoughts of a peaceful world where everyone shares equally Earth's abundance had but a feeble toehold in the collective consciousness. (3)

What did the Illuminati fail to take into account?

Matthew: What they hadn't taken into account is the light. After millennia of being held captive by the darkness that enshrouded the planet, the peoples started responding to the light beamed to Earth by spiritually evolved civilizations. The more enlightened they became, the more determined they were to throw off the yoke of oppression and persecution, and voices for freedom grew in numbers and volume. All the while, the intensifying light also was exposing the Illuminati's global network of corruption and ruthlessness, and their dominoes started falling. BREXIT is the most recent. (4)

Matthew: For some time, with full knowing of their soul-level agreements and the consequences of not abiding by those, the most powerful members of this group have refused to follow the agreements. Rather, this hard-core few intend to continue their amassing of the planet's resources and suppression of entire nations.

They have been told that they will not be able to do this, but they are deaf and blind to all urging of the light, and in their intention to relinquish nothing, they are using every possible means to keep lower-level members of the group fighting for this as well. (5)

How powerful are they now?

Matthew: The Illuminati's international network has been so severely weakened that they no longer are the overriding force they were many decades past, when they easily started two world wars and in each profited handsomely by selling to both sides whatever was needed to keep the machinery of war going. Although their ability to start WWII and add to their ill-gotten fortunes never was to be, except in their deluded thoughts, they are nourishing themselves for the moment with the negativity of concerns about where fighting in Ukraine may lead and high emotions about the plane tragedy and its aftermath. (6)

Does all this explain why the United States government is unresponsive to the people's needs?

Matthew: The primary reason the United States government isn't more responsive to the citizenry's needs is that some members of Congress are Illuminati and others are financed, bribed or blackmailed into voting as the Illuminati dictate. Of all nations you call "industrialized," the United States has the most externally-controlled government—the Federal Reserve System, multinational corporations, the medical profession and its related industries and agencies all have a large say in what Congress does. What does publicity do to the cabal?

Saul: So much information has been revealed by alternate sources about corruption in high places that the mainstream media is having to take note and start at least acknowledging the fact that enormous changes are occurring on the international political front as well as reporting on some of the corruption in the international corporate world. ...

As their secretive real intentions are being revealed by whistle blowers all across the planet, and are being reported on alternate but honest Internet news sites, their power and influence is collapsing. The forces of corruption can only work when they are hidden from view. As they are revealed in all their knavery their power dissolves as those who supported them flee in disarray.

The times of depravation are finished as the nightmares they spawned dissolve in the Light that so many are now shining into the darkest of places. (8)

What has been the fate of those Illuminati who have turned to the Light?

Matthew: Of those who turned to the Light in accordance with their soul contracts, some have been assassinated. Family members have been killed as a warning to those in positions of influence where they still are needed by the top leaders. In the more weak-willed members, bribery is a successful tool because greed is in the hearts of all Illuminati. Threats of exposing embarrassing information about personal lives is another common control method. (9)

How can we relate to the dark?

SaLuSa: You all started out together, but as you decided your own path of experience some were engulfed by the lower vibrations and fell by the wayside. There will always be a way back into the Light, but the lower you fall the harder the journey.

However, as with any soul there are always many willing volunteers who will guide them homewards. Every one of you without exception has higher Beings in close attendance who guide your life for you. (10)

Matthew: As parts of the Oneness of All, they are your soul-level brothers and sisters who are experiencing the painful absence of love essence in their lives.

That absence underlies their negative motives and actions that have provided conditions necessary for the multitudes to complete third density's karmic lessons. (11)

Matthew: Dear brothers and sisters, simply by being, you radiate light, and we urge you to think of this reaching everyone who has fallen into darkness—they are the ones who most of all need light. It is the absence of this most powerful force in the universe that motivates them to fill their void by causing fear in others—they need that energy's low vibrations to sustain themselves and suppress their own fears.

They perceive themselves as the world's rightful rulers and they are afraid of losing that control if light's high vibrations reach it. That is exactly what light is doing, but what they see as their undoing would be their salvation! The tsunami of light, the same energy as love, that you are sending forth will help those individuals surmount the darkness that has held them captive. (12)

Have you any final guidance?

Saul: [The] drama is just that, a drama, a spectacle of unreal events and relationships, whose sole purpose is to distract from Reality, your Oneness with our divine Creator. In the drama it seems that a few of you are powerful independent beings attempting to destroy each other as you struggle to build an impregnable power base from which to rule that illusory world. And, as your history shows all too clearly, those power bases always collapse under the burden of betrayal and dishonesty that is intended to support them.

Love is eternal, anything that is not in total harmony and alignment with Love is illusory and cannot last. Humanity has at last collectively realized this, and as a direct result of this realization you are, collectively, choosing to engage with Love and by so doing changing the world. (13)
